WALLACE, Dr. SCHUYLER CRAWFORD, American Political Scientist; born Nov. 29, 1898, New York City; son of Homer H. and Ruth Egbert Wallace; educated at Columbia Univ., A.B. 1919, A.M. 1920, Ph.D. 1928; married Esther Clara Griffin, July 6, 1931. Instructor in Government, Columbia Univ., 1920; Asst. Prof., 1923; Assoc. Prof., 1937; Prof. since 1939; Director, Naval School of Military Government and Administration, 1942-45.

Dir., School of Internatl. Affairs, 1945—. Member: Amer. Political Science Assn.; Acad. of Political Science. Gottesberger Fellow in Political Science, 1922-23. Author: Our Governmental Machine, 1925; State Administrative Supervision of Cities in the United States, 1928; The New Deal in Action, 1934; Federal Departmentalization: A Critique of Theories of Organization, 1941. Editor of technical studies and political sciences series; Today (Ex-Editor). Address: 429 W. 117th St., New York, N. Y.

WALLACE, TOM, American Editor; born Nov. 26, 1874, Hurricane, Ky.; son of Tom and Mary (Dade) Wallace; educated at Randolph Macon College; Hon. M.A., Univ. of Louisville; Hon. LL.D., Cumberland Univ.; married Augusta Graham French, Feb. 21, 1910; two children. Reporter, State Capital Correspondent, Washington Correspondent, and Traveling Writer for syndicate; Drama Editor, then Assoc. Editor, Courier Journal; now Editor, Louisville Times. Life Member, Board of Directors, Natl. Conf. on State Parks; Pres., Inter-American Press Assn. of U. S.; Pres., Izaak Walton League of Amer.; Member, Advisory Board, Natl. Park Service; Ex-Pres., Amer. Soc. of Newspaper Editors. Awarded citation from American Classical Soc., 1946; Pugsley Silver Medal, American Scenic and Historic Preservation Soc., 1930; Maria Moors Cabot Award, Columbia Univ., 1945. Residence: Prospect, Ky. Office: 3rd and Liberty Sts., Louisville, Ky.

WALLACE, THOMAS FREEMAN, American Banker; born Nov. 7, 1871, Bogota, Colombia; son of Thomas Freeman and Martha (Torrance) Wallace; educated at Univ. of Minn., B.A. 1893, LL.B. 1895. Practicing attorney, 1896; Partner, Kingman, Crosby and Wallace, until 1918; Treasurer, Farmers & Mechanics Savings Bank, 1918; President, 1928; Chairman of the Board since 1939. Director: Northwestern Natl. Life Ins. Co.; Y.M.C.A.; Y.W.C.A.; Chmn., Abbott Hosp. of Minnesota. Ex-President, Natl. Assn. of Mutual Savings Banks, and of Savings Bank Division of A.B.A. Director, Minneapolis Inst. of Fine Arts. Residence: 124 Groveland Ave. Office: 90 South Sixth St., Minneapolis, Minn.

WALLACE, Major General WILLIAM JENNINGS, U. S. Marine Corps Officer; born Aug. 6, 1895, Church Hill, Md.; son of William D. and Lydia (Potts) Wallace; educated at Washington College, Chestertown, Md., B.S. 1917; hon .LL.D., 1948; also various air schools; married Fannie Grant, Sept. 12, 1932; two children. 2nd Lieut., U. S. Marine Corps, 1918; advanced through grades to Major General, Dec., 1946. Participated in defense of Ewa Field on Island of Oahu (as Lieut. Col., 1941; Commanding Officer, Marine Air Group Twenty-two at Midway and commanded Marine Group Twenty-three at Guadalcanal (as Col.), 1942; Chief of Staff, then Commanding General, Marine Air West Coast, 1943-44; Chief of Staff, Aircraft, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, 1944-45; Commanding General, Air Defense Command and Fighter Command, Tactical Air Force, Tenth Army (as Brigadier General); participated in Okinawa campaign, March-Aug. 1945; in command of Marine Air West Coast, 1945-46; Commanding General, Aircraft, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, 1946; Commanding General, Aircraft, Fleet Maine Force, Atlantic and Commanding General, Second Marine Aircraft Wing, Cherry Point, N. C., 1947-48. Director, Div. of Aviation, Marine Headquarters, Washington, D. C., since 1948. Awarded many decorations. Address: Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps, Navy Dept., Washington 25, D. C.

WALLACE, Prof WILLIAM STEWART, Canadian Librarian. Historian; born June 23, 1884, Georgetown, Ont., Canada; educated at Univ. of Toronto; Balliol College, Oxford, M.A.; married Isobel Dora Graeme Robertson, Oct. 24, 1913; two children. Prof. of English History, Western Univ., London, Ont., 1906-07; Prof. of History, McMaster Univ., Toronto, 1909-20; Special Lecturer, History, Univ. of Toronto, 1910-22; Asst. Librarian, Univ. of Toronto, 1920-22; Assoc. Librarian, 1922-23; Librarian, since 1923. Fellow and Hon. Editor, Royal Soc. of Canada. Author: A New History of Great Britain and Canada, 1925 (revised ed., 1926); Dictionary of Canadian Bibliography, 1926 (revised ed. 1945); A History of the Univ. of Toronto, 1927; The Growth of Canadian National Feeling, 1927; A First Book of Canadian History, 1928; A History of the Canadian People, 1930; Murders and Mysteries, 1931; The Memoirs of the Rt. Hon. Sir George Foster, 1933; Documents Relating to the Northwest Company, 1934. General Editor, The Encyclopedia of Canada, 1935-37. Address: University of Toronto, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

WALLANDER, ARTHUR, American Police Administrator; born 1892, Bronx, N. Y.; married Bernice Boyd. Joined New York City Police Force, 1914; promoted to Sergeant, 1922; on leave from Police Dept.; enlisted in Air Service, World War I; placed in charge of the Department's newly organized air squad. Aid to Mayor La Guardia in charge of civilian defense, World War II. Police Commissioner, City of New York, 1945—. Author: Physical Training Manual, 1923. Address: 240 Centre Street, New York, N. Y.

WALLBRIDGE, WILLIAM K., American Business Executive; born 1882, Philadelphia, Pa.; educated at Yale Univ., 1902. With Lamont, Corliss & Co., since 1906; Vice Pres., 1911; Director, 1940—; Pres., 1947—. Director, Peter Cailler Kohler Swiss Chocolates Co., Inc., 1911—; Vice Pres., 1919; Pres., 1928; Chairman of Bd., 1942—. Director: Pond's Extract Co. Residence: Jefferson Road, Short Hills, N. J. Office: 60 Hudson St., New York 13, N. Y.

WALLENBERG, AXEL FINGAL, Swedish Diplomat, Company Director; born Sept. 13, 1874, Stockholm, Sweden; son of A. O. and Anna (von Sydow) Wallenberg; married Elsa Lilliehook, 1900; three children. Sub-Lieut., Swedish Army, 1895; Lieut., 1900; resigned active service, 1908; Captain in Reserve Corps, 1910. Swedish Ambassador in Washington, D. C., 1921-26. Member of Board of Directors: Kopparfors A/B; Storviks Sulfit A/B; Wifstavarfs A/B; A/B Arbra Kraftverk; Hambros Bank Ltd., London; Stockholms Enskilda Bank A/B, Stockholm. Address: Kungsträdgårdsgatan 10, Stockholm, Sweden.

WALLENBERG, JACOB, Swedish Banker; born Stockholm, Sweden, Sept. 27, 1892; son of Marcus and Amalia (Hagdahl) Wallenberg; educated at Naval College; Univ. of Commerce, Stockholm. Elected Vice-Pres. and Member of Board of Stockholms Enskilda Bank, 1920, and Pres., 1927. Chmn. of Board: Svenska Tändsticks AB; Aug. Stenman AB. Member of Board: AB Separator; AB Svenska Kullagerfabriken; Göta Kanalbolag; Svenska Personal-Pensionskassan; Wikmanshytte Bruks AB; Kreutoll Realization Co.; SKF (ballbearing manufacturing co.). Voting Trustee, International Match Realization Co., etc. Residence: 27 Strandvägen, Stockholm, Sweden.

WALLENBERG, MARCUS, Swedish Banker; born Oct. 5, 1899, Stockholm,

Sweden; son of Marcus Laurentius and Amalia (Hagdahl) Wallenberg; studied in Univ. of Commerce of Stockholm; married (2nd) Baroness Marianne de Geer af Leufsta, 1936; three children (by 1st marriage). Asst. Manager, Stockholms Enskilda Bank (founded by grandfather), 1925; Vice-Managing Director, 1927; Managing Director, 1946—. Member of Bd.: Allmanna Svenska Elektriska A/B; Stora Kopparsbergs Bergslags A/B; Telefon A/B L. M. Ericsson; Federation of Swedish Industries; Assn. of Swedish Banks. Pres., Swedish Lawn Tennis Assn. Swedish Delegate in trade negotiations with U. K., 1939 and U. K. and U.S.A., 1943. Residence: Blasieholmstorg 11. Office: Gungsträdgårdsgatan 8, Stockholm, Sweden.

WALLENSTEIN, ALFRED, American Conductor; studied cello with J. Klengel in Leipzig. Made debut as cellist in Los Angeles, 1912. Cellist, San Francisco Symphony (1916), and Los Angeles Symphony Orchestras; First Cellist, Chicago Symphony Orchestra, 1922-29; First Cellist, New York Philharmonic Orchestra, 1929-36. Served as Conductor and General Music Director of Radio Station WOR, conducting Wallenstein Sinfonietta. Conductor, Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra. Address: Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, Los Angeles, Calif.

WALLER, Hon. CURTIS LONGINO, United States Circuit Judge; born Jan. 9, 1887, Silver Creek, Miss.; son of William W. and Clara (Longino) Waller; educated at Mississippi College, Ph.B. 1908; Millsaps College, LL.B. 1910; married Lucy McGinn, Dec. 8, 1920; one daughter. Secretary to Hon. Pat Harrison, then Member of Congress, 1910-14. Member of firm of Gex & Waller, 1914-24; moved to Tallahassee, Fla., 1924; Member, law firm of Waller & Pepper (U. S. Senator Claude Pepper from Florida), 1930-37; Member of law firm of Waller & Meginniss, 1937-40. Appointed by President Roosevelt as Judge of U. S. District Court for Northern and Southern Districts of Florida, 1940; U. S. Circuit Judge for the Fifth Circuit, since Mar. 1943. Residence: 416 E. Williams St. Office: Box 546, Tallahassee, Fla.

WALLER, GEORGE PLATT, American Diplomat; born Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 7, 1889; son of George Platt, M.D. and Susie Theresa (Jones) Waller; educated at Marion Military Inst.; Univ. of Va., hon. LL.D. 1942. Vice-Consul at Carlsbad, 1914, and at Athens, 1915. In charge of American Consulate at Patras, Greece, 1916; in charge of Consulate-General at Athens, 1916-17; Acting American Delegate, Interallied Commission for the Revictualment of Greece, 1917-18; Acting Commercial Attaché, 1917; Vice-Consul at Kobe, Japan, 1920, and at Bizerte, Tunis, 1922; Consul at Ceiba, Honduras, 1923-26, and at Dresden, 1926-31; Chargé d'Affaires ad interim at Luxembourg, Secy. of Embassy at Brussels and Consul at Luxembourg, 1931—. In charge of Belgian, French and English interests in Luxembourg, 1940-41; lectured to U. S. armed forces in East and South-East; Representative of State Dept. and Chmn. of Inter-Departmental Bd. of Review; U. S. Consul, Chihuahua, Mexico, 1942-44; returned to Luxembourg, 1944—. Residence: "Halcyon Hill," Montgomery, Ala. Office: American Legation, Luxembourg, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

WALLERSTEIN, Dr. LOTHAR, Austrian Stage Director; born November 6, 1882, Prague, Czechoslovakia; son of Moritz and Bertha (Reiniger) Wallerstein; studied medicine (M.D.) and philosophy at Universities of Prague and Munich; piano and conducting under B. Stavenhagen, Conservatory of Geneva, Switzerland; married Maria Strug, Sept. 27, 1944. Began career in 1910 as a coach at Hoftheater, Dresden; Conductor and Stage Director in Posen, 1911-14. During World War I was Chief Surgeon in the Austrian Army Medical Corps, 1914-18. Stage Director in Breslau, 1918, Duisburg, 1922, Frankfurt a/M., 1924, Vienna State Opera, 1927. Stage Director of Festival at Salzburg, 1925-37; Guest Stage Director, La Scala, Milan, and in Rome, Venice and Buenos Aires, 1929-37; Stage Director, Metropolitan Opera, New York, and also identified with Civic Opera Co. in Chicago since 1941. Professor, Academy of Music, Vienna, 1929-31; Academy of Fine Arts, Vienna, 1936-38; Leader of Opera Class, The Hague, 1939-41. Editor of new editions of Mozart's "Idomeneo" (with Richard Strauss) and Verdi's "Don Carlos" (with Franz Werfel); also did translations, magazine articles, etc. Visiting Stage Director, Staatsoper, Vienna, and in Holland, 1947. Residence: 113 W. 57th St., New York, N. Y.

WALLES, KURT LEONARD, Swedish Publicist; born May 1, 1900, Sundsvall, Sweden; son of J. G. and Elida (Öberg) Walles; educated at Real School, 1916; married Svea Möller, 1926; four children. Journalist since 1917; Sub-Editor, 1927; Asst. Chief of Dept., Swedish Board of Information, 1940; Chief of Dept., 1942; Chief, Swedish Information Bureau, since 1945. Member: Swedish Soc. of Journalists; Publicistklubben. Address: Statens Upplysningsbyrå, Stockholm, Sweden.

WALLGREN, Hon. MONRAD CHARLES, American Governor; born Apr. 17, 1891, Des Moines, Iowa; son of Swan O. and Carrie (Helgesen) Wallgren; educated in public schools; attended Optometry College; married Mabel Liberty, Sept. 8, 1914. Elected to Congress in 1932, and served in the U. S House of Representatives until 1940; United States Senator, 1940-45. Elected Governor of the State of Washington in Nov. 1944 for a four year term. Veteran of World War I. Residence: c/o Mansion. Office: Legislative Bldg., Olympia, Washington.

WALLIN, Dr. SIGURD, Swedish Museum Director; born Jan. 1, 1882, Floda, Södermanland, Sweden; son of Dr. J. A. and Sofia (Gustrin) Wallin; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, fil.kand. 1911; hon. Ph.D. 1932; Univ. of Stockholm, fil.lic. 1917. Director, Hälsingborg Museum, 1912; Amanuensis, Husgerådskamm., 1913-16; with Nordiska Museet since 1916. Director since 1924. Editor: Gamla sv. städer, 6-9. 1918-30; Svenska kulturbilder 1-12 (with Sigrid Erixon), 1929-37. Author: Lars Hallman, Blacksta o. Wassbro sockmar 1748 o. 1759, 1917; Sengotiskt monumental måleri i Sverige I (with Henr. Cornell), 1917; Nord. mus. stilbö, Sv. rokoko, Fredrik I:s tid, Karl-Johansstilen, 1924; Gustaviansk stil. 1926; Nordiska museets mösler I-III. 1931-35; Upps. målarskolor på 1400-t (with Henr. Cornell), 1933. Address: Nordiska Museet, Stockholm, Sweden.

WALLING, LEWIS METCALFE, American Business Executive; born December 22, 1908, North Smithfield, Rhode Island; son of Everett Lewis and Anna Wood (Marshall) Walling; educated at Brown University. A.B. 1930; University of Nancy, Sorbonne, 1928-29; Harvard University, LL.B. 1933; married Frances Slosson Holliday, Nov. 10, 1934; two sons. Admitted to the Bar in 1934. N.R.A. Labor Compliance Officer and Legal Advisor for Rhode Island, 1934-35; First Director, Rhode Island Department of Labor, 1935-37. Administrator of Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act, U. S. Department of Labor, 1937-42. Administrator of Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act and Fair Labor Standards Act, U.S.

Dept. of Labor, 1942-47; Asst. to Pres., General Electric Co., 1947—. Address: Noroton, Conn.

WALLING, ROBERT ALFRED JOHN, British Writer; born 1869, Exeter; married Florence Victoria Greet, 1894; four children. Editor, Western Independent, Plymouth. Author: A Sea-Dog of Devon (a life of Sir John Hawkins), 1907; George Borrow, The Man and His Work, 1908; Adventures of a Rubberneck, 1929; The Man With the Squeaky Voice, 1930; The Charm of Brittany, 1933; The West Country, 1935; The Corpse With the Dirty Face, 1936; The Corpse With the Grimy Glove, 1938. Editor, The Diaries of John Bright (1811-1889), 1930. Address: The Fawns, Ermingham, Ivybridge, S. Devon, England.

WALLINGTON, Hon. Sir HUBERT JOSEPH, British Jurist; born Aug. 1, 1875, Chesham, Buckinghamshire, England; son of James and Mary Holmes (Archer) Wallington; educated privately; married Bertha Mary Smith, July 20, 1904; two children; (2nd) Ella Mary Frances Standen, Aug. 1, 1945. Solicitor, 1899. Senior Partner, Wallington, Fabian & Co., St. Alban's and Watford, 1906; (Wallington, Fabian, Best & Co., London, 1907); Barrister-at-Law, Hon. Soc. of Gray's Inn, 1910; King's Counsel and Member of Bench, Gray's Inn, 1934; Recorder of Birmingham, 1937; His Majesty's Commnr. of Assize, 1939; Justice, High Court of Justice, 1944; Treas., Hon. Soc. of Gray's Inn, 1946. Member, Natl. Mark Com., 1936-39; Member, Aliens Tribunal for Midlands (No. 9) Defence Region, 1939; Chairman, Price Regulation Com. and Aliens Advisory Com. for Midlands (No. 9) Defence Region; Chairman, Home Office Aliens Advisory Com., London, 1940. Member, Council of Legal Education. Created Knight Bachelor. Address: Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England.

WALLIS, BARNES NEVILLE, C.B.E., British Engineer; born Sept. 26, 1887, Ripley, Derbyshire, England; son of Charles George and Edith Eyre (Ashby) Wallis; educated at Christ's Hospital, 1900-04; London Univ., B.Sc. (Engineering) 1922; married Mary Bloxam, April 23, 1924; four children. Asst. Chief Designer, Vickers, Ltd. (Airship Dept.), 1913-14. Private, Artists Rifles Regiment and Sub-Lieut., R. N. V. R., World War I, 1915-16. Chief Designer, Airship Dept., Vickers Ltd., 1916-21; Chief Engineer, Vickers Ltd. Airship Guarantee Co., 1923-30; Chief Designer, Vickers Ltd. Aircraft, 1930-45; Chief of Aeronautical Research and Development, Vickers-Armstrong Ltd., 1945. Fellow: Royal Soc., London; Royal Aeronautical Soc. Member, Institution of Civil Engineers, London. Royal Designer for Industry, Royal Soc. of Arts. Awarded Silver Medal, Royal Aeronautical Soc., 1927, 1934; James Ewing Gold Medal of Institution of Civil Engineers, 1944. Residence: White Hill House, Effingham, Surrey. Office: Vickers-Armstrongs Ltd., Weybridge, Surrey, England.

WALLIS, Dr. EVERETT STANLEY, American Chemist; born Dec. 17, 1899, Waitsfield, Vt.; son of George Wilbur and Georgia Adelle (Bragg) Wallis; educated at Goddard Seminary, Barre, Vt., 1915-17; Univ. of Vermont, B.S. 1921, M.S. 1922; Princeton Univ., M.A. 1924, Ph.D. 1925; married Mary Fletcher Northrop, June 26, 1926; one son. Instructor, Univ. of Vermont, 1921-22. Asst. Prof., St. John's College, Annapolis, Md., 1925-29; Charlotte Elizabeth Proctor Fellow, Princeton Univ., 1924-25; Research Assoc., 1929-30; Asst. Prof., 1930-34; Assoc. Prof., 1935-39; A. Barton Hepburn Prof. since 1940. Member: Panel on Steroids, Com. on Growth, Natl. Research Council. Fellow: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Inst. of Chemists. Member: New York Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Chemical Soc. Awarded Badge of Merit for services in World War II (scientific teaching and research). Contributor to scientific literature. Address: Frick Chemical Laboratory, Princeton University, Princeton, N. J.

WALLIS, GEORGE EDWARD, American Manufacturer; born July 20, 1886, Beverly, Mass.; son of Edward Francis and Mary Elizabeth (Wilson) Wallis; educated at Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1909; married Marcia K. Perkins, July 12, 1911; two daughters. Special Engineer, 1909-10; Instructor, Univ. of Michigan, 1910-12; With Armstrong Cork Co., 1912-16; with Creamery Package Mfg. Co. since 1916; President and General Manager, since 1933. Pres. and Dir., Creamery Package Mfg. Co. of Canada, and Dir., Creamery Package Manufacturing Co. Ltd. (London, England). Director of Dairy Industries Supply Assn. (Past President); Treasurer of National Dairy Council, and Director of Air Conditioning and Refrigerating Machinery Assn. Residence: 1606 Hinman Ave., Evanston, Ill. Office: 1243 W. Washington Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

WALLIS, HAL B., American Motion Picture Producer; born Sept. 14, 1898, Chicago, Ill.; son of Jacob and Eva (Blum) Wallis; educated at Gregg Business School; married Louise Fazenda, Nov. 24, 1927; one son—Hal Brent. Manager, Garrick Theatre, Los Angeles, 1922-23; with Warner Bros. Pictures, 1923, as Executive Producer in Charge of Production, 1933-42. Established Hal Wallis Productions, Inc., 1944, with Paramount release. Received Academy Award for best productions, 1938 and 1944. Produced Casablanca, voted best picture of 1943 by Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. Had own unit at Warner Bros., 1942-43, producing "Casablanca," "Air Force," "Saratoga Trunk," "Watch on the Rhine" and others. Residence: Van Nuys, Calif. Office: 5451 Marathon St., Hollywood, Calif.

WALLON, Prof. HENRI, French Psychologist; born 1879. Prof. of Psychology and Child Education, Collège de France and École des Hautes Études. Co-Director, Institute of Psychology. Appointed Minister of Education, Aug., 1944. Honorary President, French Psychological Society. Author of many publications. Address: 19 rue de la Tour, Paris XVIe, France.

WALLS, HOWARD LAMARR, American Film Curator; born Jan. 30, 1912, Beckley, W. Va.; son of Delbert B. and Lynda (White) Walls; educated at University of Michigan, A.B. 1933; specialized in motion picture history and technique. Joined staff of Library of Congress, 1939; appointed Associate Fellow in Motion Pictures, 1941; in charge of Library of Congress Motion Picture Collections, 1943-47; Curator of Film Archives, Acad. of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. Initiated and conducted individual research resulting in restoration to screen of several thousand motion pictures constituting the foundations and development of American screen art, 1894-1912. Author: Motion Picture Incunabula in Library of Congress. Address: Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, Hollywood, Calif.

WALLS, Rev. Dr. WILLIAM JACOB, American Bishop; born in Chimney Rock, Rutherford County, N. C., May 3, 1885; son of Edward and Hattie (Edgerton) Walls; educated at Livingstone College, Salisbury, N. C., A.B. 1908, B.D. 1913; hon. LL.D., 1942; Columbia Univ., Journalism and Philosophy, 1922; Chicago

Univ., A.M. 1941. Pastor at Cleveland, N. C., 1905-07; Lincolnton, N. C., 1908-10; Soldiers Memorial, the Livingstone College Church, Salisbury, N. C., 1910-13, and Broadway Temple, Louisville, where he built the church, 1913-20; entertained General Quadrennial Conf., 1916. Editor of Star of Zion, denominational weekly, 1920-24; elected Bishop of A. M. E. Zion Church in 1924. Publications: "Joseph Charles Price, Educator and Race Leader"; "Joseph Charles Price, Embodiment of A Race"; (booklets) Pastorates and Reminiscences, Visions for the Times, What Youth Wants, The Negro in Business and Religion, Radio Messages of Five Years and a book, J. C. Price, Pioneer in Self Education of the Negro In America. Address: 4736 South Parkway, Chicago, Ill.

WALMSLEY, LEO, British Author; born Sept. 29, 1892, Shipley, Yorks.; son of J. V. Walmsley; educated at Scarborough High School; married; five children. Awarded Military Cross. Author: Three Fevers, 1932; Phantom Lobster, 1933; Foreigners, 1935; Sally Lunn (also as stage play), 1937; Love in the Sun, 1939; Fishermen at War, 1941; So Many Loves (U. S. title, Turn of the Tide), 1944; Master Mariner, 1948. Address: Hawkswick, Skipton, Yorks., England.

WALMSLEY, WALTER NEWBOLD, JR., American Diplomat; born April 4, 1904, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Walter Newbold and Harriet (Preston) Walmsley; educated at Rensselaer Polytechnic Inst., 1922-24; married Maria Teresa Sanchez-Domenech, Jan. 14, 1936; one daughter. Vice Consul: São Paulo, 1928; Aden, 1931; Prague, 1933; Havana, 1934; Consul at Havana, 1935; at Pernambuco, 1937. Asst. Chief, Div. of Amer. Republics Affairs, State Dept., 1939-43. Second Secy., Rio de Janeiro, 1943; Chief, Div. of Brazilian Affairs and Acting Chief, Div. of River Plate Affairs, State Dept., 1944. Second Secy., Lisbon, 1944. Member, Internatl. Secretariat, U. N. Conf. on Internatl. Organization, San Francisco, 1945. First Secy., Paris, 1945. Political Adviser: Preparatory Commission, U. N., London, 1945; Paris Peace Conf., 1946; at National War College, Washington, D. C., 1946. Counselor for Economic Affairs, Amer. Embassy, Rome, 1947—. Adviser, Economic Com. for Europe, Geneva, 1947. Residence: 2 East 56th St., New York, N. Y. Office: American Embassy, Rome, Italy.

WALSH, Rt. Rev. GORDON JOHN, Anglican Bishop: born Jan. 8, 1880, Fahan, County Donegal, Ireland; son of John Edward and Ellen Harriet (Frizell) Walsh; educated at Trinity College, Dublin Univ., B.A. 1902, M.A. 1909, D.D. 1927, Divinity Testimonium 1903; married Edythe Eleanor Spence, 1909. Ordained Deacon at Belfast, Ireland, 1903; Priest, 1904. Curate-Assistant, Trinity Church, Belfast, 1903-05; Curate-Assistant, St. Mary's, Belfast, 1905-09; Organizing Secretary for Ireland, Colonial and Continental Church Society, Dublin, 1909-10; Rector, St. Peter's Church, Athlone; Chaplain to Forces at Athlone, 1910-13; Missionary, Church Missionary Society in Japan, 1913-27; Bishop of Hokkaido, Japan, 1927-40. Assistant Bishop of Ely and Canon of Ely Cathedral since 1942. Address: The Black Hostelry, The College, Ely, Cambridgeshire, England.

WALSH, Most Rev. JAMES E., M.M., D.D., Roman Catholic Bishop; born April 30, 1891, Cumberland, Md.,; son of Wm. E. and Mary (Concannon) Walsh; educated at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Md., A.B. 1910, LL.D. 1937; Maryknoll Seminary. Entered Maryknoll, Sept. 15, 1912; ordained Priest, Dec. 7, 1915. Rector, Maryknoll Preparatory College, Clarks Summit, Pa., 1916-18; mission work in China, 1918; appointed Superior of Maryknoll Mission in China, 1919; named Prefect Apostolic of Kongmoon, China, 1924; named Vicar Apostolic of Kongmoon and Titular Bishop of Sata, 1927; Superior General of Catholic Foreign Mission Soc. of America (Maryknoll Fathers), 1936-46. Author: Father McShane of Maryknoll; Tales of Xavier. Contributor to The Field Afar. Address: Maryknoll, N. Y.

WALSH, JAMES MORGAN, British Author; born Feb. 23, 1897, Geelong, Australia; son of Thomas P. and Katherine (Morgan) Walsh; educated at Xavier College, Melbourne; married Louisa Murphy, Jan. 1, 1925; two children. Member, Incorporated Soc. of Authors, Playwrights and Composers. Author: Island Alert, 1943; Danger Zone, 1943; Face Value, 1944; 1944 Whispers in the Dark, 1945; Express Delivery, 1946; Once in Tiger Bay, 1947; Walking Shadow, 1948; also 75 other books. Address: 78 Bristol Road, Weston-Super-Mare, Somerset, England.

WALSH, JOHN FREDERICK, Australian Labor Leader; Member, South Australian Parliament; born Apr. 21, 1893, Adelaide, South Australia; son of John Frederick and Catherine (Burns) Walsh; educated in the Public Schools of Adelaide; married Minnie Marion Martin, Dec. 1938. Began as painter, 1908; elected Federal Pres., Australian Labor Party, 1944; Vice-Pres., Australian Council Trades Union, 1934-43. Australian Workers' Delegate, Internatl. Labor Conf. (Geneva, 1935). Member, Australian Delegation, United Nations Conf. (San Francisco, 1945). Member, Australian Commonwealth Com. of Advice (Manpower), 1942-45. Member, Australian Imperial Forces during World War I; saw service in Egypt, France and Belgium, 1917; wounded at Ypres. Residence: 91 Brooker Tce., North Richmond, South Australia. Office: Parliament House, Adelaide, South Australia.

WALSH, Most Rev. JOSEPH, Irish Ecclesiastic; born December 24, 1888, Newport, County Mayo, Ireland; son of Richard J. and Elizabeth (MacManamon) Walsh; educated at St. Jarlath's College, Tuam; Royal University of Ireland; St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, M.A. 1911, D.D. 1938. Professor at St. Jarlath's College, Tuam, 1914-1918; Secretary to the Archbishop, Most Rev. Thomas Gilmartin, 1918-26; Administrator, parish of Tuam, 1926-29; President, St. Jarlath's College, 1929-40. Vicar General of Diocese, 1924-39. Appointed Bishop of Cela and Auxiliary of Tuam, 1937; Archbishop of Tuam since 1940. Address: St. Jarlath's, Tuam, County Galway, Ireland.

WALSH, Dr. JOSEPH LEONARD, American Mathematician; born Sept. 21, 1895, Washington, D. C.; son of John Leonard and Sallie Ellicott (Jones) Walsh; educated at Columbia Univ., 1912-13; Harvard Univ., S.B. 1916, Ph.D. 1920; Univ. of Chicago, 1916; Univ. of Wisconsin, S.M. 1917; Univ. of Paris, 1920-21; Univ. of Munich, 1925-26; married (2nd) Elizabeth C. Strayhorn, Apr. 2, 1946; a daughter (by a previous marriage). Asst. in Mathematics, Harvard Univ., 1915-16; Instructor, Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof.; now Perkins Prof. of Mathematics. Member: Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Mathematical Assn. of America; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Natl. Acad. of Sciences. Author: Interpolation and Approximation by Polynomials, 1935; Interpolation Approximation by Rational Functions, 1935. Address: 474 Widener Library, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

WALSH, Rev. MATTHEW JAMES, C.S.C., American Historian; born May 14, 1882, Chicago, Illinois; educated at University of Notre Dame, Litt.B. 1903; Catholic University of America, Ph.D. 1907; Columbia and Johns Hopkins Universities. Instructor, Notre Dame, 1908; Vice-President, University, 1911-22; President, 1922-28; Professor of European History, since 1928. Address: University of Notre Dame, South Bend, Ind.

WALSH, Hon. MICHAEL FRANCIS, American Jurist; born February 24, 1894, Brooklyn, New York; son of Patrick A. and Mary A. (Ryan) Walsh; educated at Columbia University, 1910-14; Fordham University, LL.B. cum laude, 1917; St. Francis College, LL.D. 1936; St. John's University, LL.D., 1942; married Catherine M. Dundon, Nov. 26, 1919; five children. Admitted to the New York Bar, 1918; associated in practice with Louis Charles Will, 1919-42. Lecturer on Real Property and Practice at Columbia University, 1931-35; Commissioner of Port of New York Authority, 1937-38. U. S. Attorney of the Eastern District of New York, 1938-39; Secretary, State of New York, 1939-42. Justice, N. Y. State Supreme Court, Second Judicial District, since 1943. Supreme Director, Knights of Columbus; Director, Knights of Columbus Hospital Association of New York; Past State Deputy of the Knights of Columbus. Member: New York State, Brooklyn and Federal Bar Assns. Residence: 1193 E. 19th St, Office: Supreme Court, Brooklyn, N. Y.

WALSH, RICHARD J., American Publisher; born Nov. 20, 1886, Lyons, Kans.; son of Joseph H. and Elizabeth (Haslam) Walsh; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1907; married Pearl Sydenstricker, June 11, 1935. Newspaper Reporter, Boston, 1907-09. With Boston Chamber of Commerce, 1909-12; Curtis Publishing Co., 1912-16. Advertising Writer, 1917-22; Editor, Collier's Weekly, 1922-24. Pres., John Day Co., publishers, 1926 —. Assoc. Editor, Judge magazine, 1927-33. Editor, Asia Magazine, 1933-46; Chairman, Bd. of Dirs., United Nations World, 1947 —. Residence: Hilltown, Pa. Office: 62 W. 45th St., New York 19, N. Y.

WALSHE, Dr. FRANCIS MARTIN ROUSE, British Neurologist; educated at University College School, University College and University College Hospital, London; M.D., D.Sc., F.R.C.P. London; Natl. Univ. of Ireland, Hon. D.Sc. 1941. Resident Medical Officer, National Hospital, Queen Square, London, 1911-15; Hon. Physician, National Hospital for Nervous Diseases, since 1921. Consulting Neurologist, British Forces, Middle East, 1915-19. Asst., Medical Unit, University College Hospital, 1919-22; Physician, Neurological Dept., since 1924. Visiting Neurologist, Johns Hopkins Hosp., Baltimore, 1925; Welch Lecturer in Clinical Physiology, Univ. of Oxford, 1921. Examiner in Medicine, Royal College of Physicians, London, 1928-32; Oliver-Sharpey Lecturer, 1929. Now Consulting Neurologist, Seamen's Hospital and Hosp. for Tropical Diseases, London. Member: Physiological Soc.; Assn. of British Neurologists; Athenaeum. Author: Textbook of Nervous Diseases, 5th ed. 1946; also various papers on clinical neurology and applied physiology of the nervous system. Address: 11/12 Wimpole St., London W. 1, England.

WALTARI, MIKA, Finnish Author; born Sept. 19, 1908, Helsinki, Finland; son of Toimi and Olga (Johansson) Waltari; educated at Helsinki Univ., M.A. 1929; married Marjatta Luukkonen, 1931; one daughter. Editorial Asst., Werner Söderström Oy., publishers, 1931-36; Editor, Suomen Kuvalehti, illustrated weekly, 1936-38; free lance writer since 1938. Author of fifteen novels, including: Vieras mies tuli taloon (translated into several languages and also filmed), 1937; Sinuhe, the Egyptian (translated into several languages), 1945; various short stories; fifteen plays; film scripts. Member, Board of Directors, Finnish Writers' Assn., 1930-45 (Vice-Pres., 1938-42); Member, Pen Club. Awarded: State Prize (twice) for novels; Prize of Finnish Literary Soc. (twice) for plays. Address: Tunturikatu 13, Helsinki, Finland.

WALTER, Dr. BRUNO, American Conductor; born Sept. 15, 1876, Berlin; studied at Stern's Conservatorium. Coach, Opera House in Cologne, 1893; also conducted smaller operas; Chorusmaster, Opera House, Hamburg, 1894-95; Conductor, 1895-96; First Conductor, Opera at Riga, 1898; engaged by Royal Opera House, Berlin, 1900; First Conductor, Vienna Opera, 1901-12; after Felix Mottl's death, became successor as "Koeniglich Bayrischer Generalmusikdirektor," Munich. Led Munich Opera with Wagner and Mozart Festivals, Prinzregenten and Residenz-Theatre, until 1922. Guest Conductor in Europe and America, 1923-25. Led spring season, London Covent Garden Opera, 1924-31; Generalmusikdirektor, Berlin Municipal Opera House, 1925-29; Director of the Leipzig Gewandhaus, 1929-33; Guest Conductor, New York Philharmonic Society, 1933-37. One of leading artists of Salzburg Festival, 12 years. Invited by Austrian Government for leading position at Vienna State Opera, 1935; resigned 1938, also Salzburg Festival. Guest Conductor, NBC concerts in New York, 1939-40; Guest Conductor, New York Philharmonic Society, since 1941; Guest Conductor, Metropolitan Opera House, since 1941-42 season. Musical Adviser, Philharmonic Symphony Soc. of N. Y., 1947 —. Made French citizen by French Govt., 1938; American citizen since 1946. Commander, French Legion of Honor; Grand Officer, Dutch Oranje-Nassau Order. Author: The Moral Forces of Music; Gustav Mahler; Themes and Variations. Address: The Philharmonic Symphony Soc. of N. Y., 113 West 57th St., New York 19, N. Y.

WALTER, Hon. CARROLL G., American Jurist; born Apr. 19, 1885, Winchester, Va.; educated at Univ. of Virginia; New York Law School. Reporter, The News-Item, Winchester, Va., 1900; admitted to New York Bar, 1908; Partner, law firm of Patterson, Eagle, Greenough & Day, 1918-39; Justice, New York State Supreme Court, since 1939. Member: Amer., New York State, New York City Bar Assns.; New York County Lawyers Assn.; Southern Soc. of New York, etc. Author: Office and Works of Notaries in Virginia, 1904; Brief Writing and Advocacy, 1931. Address: 60 Centre St., New York, N. Y.

WALTER, Prof. Dr. FRANCISZEK KSAWERY, Polish Dermatologist; born Dec. 6, 1885, Cracow, Poland; son of Franciszek and Katarzyna (Kurowska) Walter; educated at Univ. of Cracow and Dermatological Clinic at Berne, Switzerland; widower. Voluntary Asst., Dermatological Clinic, Berne, Switzerland, 1913-14; Chief Physician, Dermatological Dept., St. Lazarus Hosp., Cracow, 1920-25; Asst. Prof. of Dermatology and Venerology, Univ. of Cracow and Dir. of Dermatological Clinic, 1925-34; Prof. of Dermatology and Venerology since 1934; Dean of Medical Faculty, Univ. of Cracow, 1935-36; Rector, Univ. of Cracow, 1946. Pres., Polish Dermatological Soc., 1938-39; Member and Secy., Medical Dept., Polish Acad. of Sciences, 1932; Hon. Member, Dermatological Socs. of Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Hungary; Corresponding Member, Paris Dermatological Soc. Member, State Council of Health. Residence: Rynek Kleparski 6. Office: Cracow University, Cracow, Poland.

WALTER, HANS, Swiss Author; born Jan. 17, 1912, Bruegg, Berne, Switzerland; son of Friedrich and Maria (Stebler) Walter; educated at Gymnasium Bienne, 1927-30; Univs. of Berne, Berlin and Munich, 1930-33. Engaged in free lance writing since 1934. Author: Der Lord (stories), 1936; Der törichte Schatten (story), 1942; Das alte Fräulein (story), 1942 (awarded Schiller Book Prize, 1943); Kleiner Alltag (stories), 1943; Gedichte, 1944; Glückliches Land. Ein Bilderbogen, 1946; Fina (story), 1947. Address: Oberdorfstrasse 25, Zurich, Switzerland.

WALTER, JOHN, British Newspaper Publisher; born 1873; educated at Eton; Christ Church, Oxford, M.A.; married Phyllis Foster, 1903 (deceased, 1937); four children; (2nd) Rosemary Crawford, 1939. Chairman of Directors, The Times, 1910-23. Address: St. Catherine's Bear Wood, Wokingham, Berks., England.

WALTERS, CARL, American Sculptor; born June 19, 1883, Fort Madison, Iowa; educated at Minneapolis School of Art; New York School of Art; Robert Henri School; married Helen Lawrence, 1912. Exhibited at American International Art Exhibition, Carnegie Institute, 1925; International Exhibition of Decorative Art, Uffizzi Gallery, Florence; Salons of America, International Exposition of Ceramic Art, Copenhagen and Stockholm, 1927; International Exhibition of Ceramic Art, Metropolitan Museum, 1928-29; Chicago Art Institute; American Ceramic Society; Society of Painters, Gravers and Sculptors; Whitney Museum Biennials, etc. Represented at: Metropolitan Museum, Museum of Modern Art, Whitney Museum, N. Y.; Art Institute of Chicago; Cincinnati Museum; Phillips Memorial Art Gallery, Washington, D. C., etc. Address: Woodstock, N. Y.

WALTERS, CHESTER SAMUEL, D.F. Sc., C.P.A., Canadian Government Official; born 1878, Waterford, Norfolk Co., Ont.; son of Joseph and Emma (Richards) Walters; married Annabel Mary O'Connor, 1901; one daughter (dec.) and two sons. Accountant with International Harvester Co., Hamilton, Ont.; practiced public accounting in Hamilton, 1908-15; during World War I served overseas with 164th Battalion; Inspector of Accounts with C.E.F. in Siberia; entered Dominion Civil Service as Inspector of Income Tax for Hamilton District, 1920; became Dominion Income Tax Commnr., 1927; conducted own business, 1933-34; appointed Deputy Minister of Public Works for Ontario, 1934; Deputy Minister of Treasury and Controller of Finances for Ontario, since 1935. Member, Board of Directors, Royal Botanical Gardens, Hamilton, Ont.; represented Province of Ontario at hearings conducted by Rowell-Sirois Commn. on Dominion-Provincial Affairs in Toronto, 1938; visited Commonwealth of Australia, studying economic conditions, 1939. Founder and First Pres., Certified Public Accounts Assn., Ontario, 1926; Member, Corporation Public Accountants, P.Q.; General Accountants Assn. of Canada. Fellow, Inst. of Public Administration of Great Britain; Member, Canadian Military Inst., etc. Awarded Hon. D.F.Sc., Univ. of Laval, 1945. Residence: Missisauga Rd., Port Credit, Ont., Canada.

WALTERS, FRANCIS PAUL, British Statesman; born June 4, 1888, Castletown, Isle of Man; son of Rev. F. B. and Cecilia (Beales) Walters; educated at Eton College; Univ. College, Oxford, M.A. 1912; Hon. Fellow, Univ. College, 1936; married Louise Roux, May 26, 1921; two children. Member, British Delegation to Peace Conf., 1919; joined Secretariat of League of Nations, 1919; appointed Under-Secy. General, 1933; Deputy Secy. General, 1939-40. Author: Problems of International Administration, 1941; The International Secretariat of the Future (with others), 1944. Address: 15 Banbury Rd., Oxford, England.

WALTERS, Dr. J(ACK) EDWARD, American University President; born March 19, 1896, Corydon, Ind.; educated at Indiana Univ., Liberal Arts, 1914-17; Univ. of Dijon, France, 1919; Univ. of Penna., one semester, 1919-20; Purdue Univ., B.S. in M.E. 1922, M.S. in M.E. 1923; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1934; married Agnes Ayres, 1925. General Manager, Purdue Memorial Union, Purdue Univ., 1922-26. Secy., Ross-Ade Foundation, Purdue Univ., 1923-40. Pres., Amer. College Personnel Assn., 1930-33. Qualified as expert witness before National Labor Relations Board, 1939. Dir. of Personnel Schools of Engineering and Science and Prof. of Personnel Administration, Purdue Univ., 1926-40. Vice-Pres. and Consultant, Revere Copper and Brass, Inc., 1940-43. Principal, McKinsey & Co., New York, 1943-45. Pres., Alfred (N. Y.) Univ., 1945-48; resigned June 1948. Author: Personnel Relations — Their Application in a Democracy, 1945; Modern Management, 1937; Individual Education — By Means of Applied Personnel Procedures, 1931; Applied Personnel Administration, 1931. Address: Alfred University, Alfred, N. Y.

WALTERS, Dr. WALTMAN, American Surgeon; born July 29, 1895, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; son of Frank and Mary Louise (Phipps) Walters; educated at Dartmouth College, B.S. 1917, hon. D.Sc. 1937; Rush Med. College, M.D. 1920; Hahnemann Med. College, hon. LL.D. 1942; Mayo Foundation of University of Minn., Fellow in Surg., 1920-23; Univ. of Minn., M.S. in Surgery, 1923; married Phoebe Mayo, February 5, 1921; five children. Fellow in Medicine, Mayo Foundation of University of Minnesota, 1920-22; Fellow in Surgery, 1922-24; First Assistant in Surgery; Head of Section in Surgery, Mayo Clinic, Oct. 1, 1924; Instructor in Surgery, Mayo Foundation, 1924; Asst. Prof. of Surgery, 1927; Assoc. Prof. of Surgery, 1930; Prof. of Surgery, 1934—. Capt., Med. Corps, U. S. Naval Reserve, 1942-45. Chmn., Editorial Bd. of Archives of Surg.; Chief Editor, Dean Lewis' Practice of Surgery; Member of Bd. of Govs. of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., and Member of Mayo Properties Association, Rochester, Minnesota. Fellow: Amer. College of Surgeons; Amer. Surg. Assn.; Southern Surg. Assn., and Western Surg. Assn.; Member of Amer. Med. Assn.; Soc. of Clinical Surgery; American Urol. Association, etc. Author of articles in various surgical and medical journals; seven chapters in books; also co-author, Carcinoma of Stomach (with Gray and Priestley), 1942; Diseases of Gall Bladder and Bile Ducts (with A. M. Snell), 1940. Res.: 304 Eighth Ave., S.W. Office: 102-110 Second Ave., S.W., Rochester, Minn.

WALTHER, Dr. HANS E., Swiss Radiologist; born Sept. 29, 1883; son of Heinrich and Johanna (Escher) Walther; educated at Univs. of Zurich (M.D. 1908), Geneva and Berlin; married Doris Zweifel, Apr. 4, 1916. Asst. Physician, Medical Clinic, Univ. of Zurich. Member: Orthopedic Dept. of Asyl, Neumünster, 1908-09; Dept. of Orthopedic Surgery, Children's Clinic, Univ. of Graz, Austria, 1909-10. Surgical Clinic, Univ. of Zurich, 1910-12; Chief Roentgenologist, 1912. Chief of Roentgen Inst., Schwesternhaus vom Roten Kreuz since 1915. Member of Board, Swiss Roentgenological Soc.; Secy. General, 4th Internatl. Radiological Congress, 1934. Col., Medical Corps, Swiss Army (Inspector of X-ray Service). Address: Schwesternhaus von Roten Kreuz, Zurich, Switzerland.

WALTON, HOWARD ROBERTS, American Business Executive; born June 1, 1896, Thomasboro, Ill.; son of Clarence T. and Olive (Roberts) Walton; educated at Univ. of Illinois, 1917; Univ. of Pennsylvania, Wharton School of Finance & Commerce, B.Sc. 1918; married Louise Ryther, Nov. 30, 1921; four children. Began in securities business with King, Hoagland & Co. (later Hoagland, Allum & Co.), Chicago, 1919; became Sales Manager, 1921; Vice-Pres., 1925-31; Vice-Pres., Thompson Ross & Co. (investment securities), Chicago, until Mar. 1934; joined Gooderham & Worts Ltd. (Chicago) as Central Division Manager, 1934; appointed General Sales Manager, 1935, with headquarters in Walkerville, Ont.; Asst. to Pres., Hiram Walker-Gooderham & Worts Ltd., 1937; elected Director, May, 1937, Vice-Pres., 1937-46; Pres. since 1946. Pres. and Director, Hiram Walker & Sons, Inc.; Pres. and Director, Hiram Walker & Sons Grain Corp. Ltd., and Director of other Canadian and U. S. affiliated companies. Pres. and Director, W. A. Taylor & Co. Residence: 171 Lewiston Rd., Grosse Pointe Farms. Office: 2067 Sandwich St. E., Walkerville, Ont., Canada.

WALTON, Sir JAMES, British Surgeon; born Nov. 1, 1881, London, England; son of Charles Walton; educated at Framlingham College; London Hospital; M.S. (London); F.R.C.S. (England); M.B. (hons. in Medicine, Gynecology; Gold Medal, Intermediate M.B.); M.R.C.S.; L.R.C.P.; B.Sc. (hons. Anat. and Morph.); F.A.C.S. (hons.); F.G.A.; married Nancy Mary Trevett, 1909; two children. Surgeon, London Hosp., since 1913. House Surgeon, Asst. Dir. of Pathological Inst., 1907; Surgical Registrar, London Hosp., 1908-11. Surgeon to Seaman's Hospital and Evelina Hospital for Children, and Demonstrator of Anatomy at London, Hosp., 1911-13. Asst. Surgeon, London Hosp., 1913; Surgeon, 1926—. Surgeon at Poplar Hosp., 1913. Captain, R.A.M.C., 1914-18; Private-Sergeant, Home Guard, 1940-41; Lieut.-Colonel, R.A.M.C.-Brigadier, A.M.D., 1941-42. Past Pres.,: Surgical Section, Royal Soc. of Medicine; Medical Soc. of London; Assn. of Surgeons of England; Past Vice-Pres., Council, Royal College of Surgeons. Knight Commander, Victorian Order (K.C.V.O.). Officer, Legion of Honor of France. Surgeon to Royal Household, H.M. King George V. Surgeon to H.M. Queen Mary and H.M. King George VI. Author: A Text Book of the Surgical Dyspepsias, 1926; also many articles on stomach, gall bladder, thyroid, brain and spinal cord. Residence: Innisfree, Mayfield, Sussex. Office: London Hospital, 149 Harley St., London, W. 1, England.

WALTON, Hon. LESTER AGLAR, American Diplomat; born April 20, 1882, St. Louis, Mo.; educated at Sumner High School and business college. Newspaper reporter, 1901-06; managing editor of newspaper, 1908-20; member of military entertainment service, 1918; newspaper correspondent at Peace Conference, Versailles, 1919; feature writer, 1922-31; associate editor of newspaper, 1932-35; newspaper correspondent at sessions of International Liberian Committee, Geneva, 1923. Appointed Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Liberia, 1935. Address: American Legation, Monrovia, Liberia.

WALTON, NORMAN BURDETT, C.B.E., Canadian Railway Executive; born July 27, 1884, Palmerston, Ont.; son of Henry and Elizabeth (Rowan) Walton; educated at public and high schools; business college, Stratford, Ont.; married Eva Tait, Dec. 5, 1911; two children. Clerk and stenographer, Grand Trunk Railway, Toronto, 1900; Secretary to Superintendent, 1902; Telegraph Operator and Secretary to Vice-President (Montreal), 1903; Assistant Trainmaster at Palmerston, 1906; Secretary to Vice-President, Great Northern Ry. (St. Paul, Minn.), 1907; Inspector of Transportation, 1907; Claims Agent (personal injuries) Grand Trunk Railway (Toronto), 1908; Secretary to General Superintendent, Grand Trunk Pacific Railway (Winnipeg), 1908; Trainmaster at Wainwright, 1910; Assistant to General Superintendent, 1911; Superintendent (Edmonton), 1911. Assistant General Superintendent, Prince Rupert, Canadian National Railways, 1920; General Superintendent (Winnipeg), 1924; General Superintendent, Transportation, Western Region, 1930; Chief of Transportation (Montreal), 1936; Vice-President, Operation, Construction and Maintenance of Way (Montreal), 1938; Executive Vice-President, Canadian National Railways (Montreal), since 1943. Residence: The Towers-Côte St. Luc Rd. Office: 360 McGill St., Montreal, Que., Canada.

WALTON, WILLIAM SYDNEY, C.B.E., M.A., B. Litt., British Publisher; born Oct. 25, 1882, Frosterley, County Durham, England; son of Robert Thomas and Elizabeth Ann (Peacock) Walton; educated at Willington and at Univ. College, Durham; married Emma White, Apr. 11, 1912. Served in Ministry of Munitions under Mr. Lloyd George and with Lord Devenport at Ministry of Food. Principal Private Secy. to Food Controller, Mr. J. R. Clynes. Director of Publicity for Victory Loans, 1919; later Member, staff of Canadian Trade Mission in London. Adviser to many large industrial companies in Britain, including Dunlops, Stewarts and Lloyds, R. A. Lister & Co., Ltd., etc. Dir., Industrial Newspapers, Ltd.; Chmn., The British Weekly. Pres., Harrow Hosp., fifteen years. Author: The Sieve of Blindness (a volume of essays); Into Italy; Among the Fjords; From the White Cottage: Letters in War Time, etc. Residence: The White Cottage, Sudbury Hill, Harrow, Middlesex. Office: 3 St. James's Square, London, England.

WALTON, Dr. WILLIAM TURNER, British Composer; born March 29, 1902, Oldham, Lancashire; educated at Christ Church Cathedral Choir School, 1912; Christ Church, Oxford, 1918; hon. Mus.D., Dunelm. Fellow, Royal College of Music. Compositions include: Pianoforte Quartet (received Carnegie Award), 1918; Tritons (song), 1918; Façade (with Edith Sitwell), 1923, revised 1926; Siesta for small orchestra, 1926; Portsmouth Point, 1926; Sinfonia Concertante for piano and orchestra, 1928; Viola Concerto, 1929; Belshazzar's Feast, 1931; Three Songs for Soprano, 1932; Symphony, 1935; Crown Imperial (Coronation March), 1937; In Honour of the City of London, 1937; Violin Concerto, 1939; Music for Children, 1940; Scapino (comedy overture), 1940; wrote incidental music for film "Henry V" for L. Olivier), 1945, etc. Address: 56a South Eaton Place, London, S.W. 1, England.

WALWYN, Vice-Admiral Sir HUMPHREY THOMAS, K.C.S.I., K.C.M.G., C.B., D.S.O., British Naval Officer; born Jan. 25, 1879; educated in H.M.S. Britannia, Dartmouth; married Eileen Mary van Straubenzee, 1912; one son. Gunnery Lieutenant, 1904; Commander, 1912; Captain, 1916; Director, Gunnery Division, Naval Staff, Admiralty, 1924-26; Flag Officer, commanding Royal Indian Navy, 1928-34; Rear-Admiral, 1928; Vice-Admiral, 1932. Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Newfoundland, 1936-46. Address: Lower Wraxall House, Maiden Newton, Dorchester, England.

WAMPLER, (ELREY) CLOUD, American Industrialist; born June 7, 1895, Hallsville, Ill.; son of Thomas Calvin and Elizabeth (Cloud) Wampler; educated at Knox College, B.S. 1916; married Eugenia Trask, June 29, 1918; two daughters. Began career in 1916 in Bond Dept. of Harris Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago. Sales Manager of Taylor, Ewart & Co. (investments), Chicago, 1920-29; Vice-Pres., 1921-29; Vice-Pres. and Dir., Lawrence Stern & Co., Chicago, 1929-38; Pres. of Stern, Wampler & Co., Inc., Chicago, 1938-41; Director, Carrier Corp., since 1934; Executive Vice-Pres., 1941; Pres., since 1942; Chairman of Finance Com., since 1938. Dir., Syracuse Trust Co. and Marine Midland Trust Co. of N. Y. National Vice-Pres., National Assn. of Mfrs. Director: Manufacturers Assn. of Syracuse; Junior Achievement. Trustee of Tax Foundation, Inc. During World War I served as Capt., H.Q. 86th Division and Asst. Chief of Staff, G2. Residence. 120 Sedgwick Dr. Office: 300 S. Geddes St., Syracuse, N. Y.

WAN FU-LIN, General, Chinese Army Officer; born 1880, Kirin. Former Gov., Heilungklang Province. Commdr., 53rd Army. Deputy Commdr., 1st Army Group and 20th Army Group. Commdr., 26th Army Corps; Commander, 20th Army Group. Governor, Liaoning Province, since 1940. Member, National Military Council, since 1942. Address: Nanking, China.

WANAMAKER, PEARL A., American Educator; born Jan. 18, 1899, Mabana, Wash.; daughter of Nils and Johanna (Hellman) Anderson; educated at Western Washington College of Education; Univ. of Washington, A.B. 1922; married Lemuel A. Wanamaker, June 4, 1927; three children. Rural teacher, 1917-21; High School teacher, 1922-23; County Supt. of Schools, Island County, Wash., 1923-27; High School teacher, 1928-41; Member, Washington State House of Representatives, 1929, 1933, Extraordinary Session, 1933, 1935; Member, Washington State Senate, 1937, 1939; Supt. of Public Instruction, State of Washington, 1941—. Member, Education Mission to Japan, 1946; Adviser, United States Delegation to UNESCO Conf., Paris, 1946; Member, U. S. Natl. Commission for UNESCO. Third Vice Pres., Natl. Commission on Children and Youth. Pres., State Bd. of Education. Chmn.: State Bd. of Vocational Education; State Library Commission. Member: National Education Assn. (Pres., 1946-47); Editorial Advisory Board, The Education Digest; Amer. Assn. of School Administrators; National Council of Chief State School Officers; Educational Policies Commission; Amer. Council on Education (Vice-Pres., 1948); Joint Canada-U. S. State Com. on Education. Received Altrusa International Distinguished Service Award for 1945-47 Biennium. Residence: Coupeville, Wash. Office: Old Capitol Building, Olympia, Wash.

WAND, Rt. Rev. and Rt. Hon. JOHN WILLIAM CHARLES, D.D., Lord Bishop of London; born in Grantham, England, Jan. 25, 1885; son of Arthur J. H. and Elizabeth A. O. (Turner) Wand; educated at St. Edmund Hall, Oxford, B.A. (1st Class Theology) 1907, M.A. 1911, D.D. (honoris causa) 1934; Honorary Fellow, St. Edmund Hall, since 1938; Oriel College, since 1941; also studied at Bishop Jacob's Hostel, Newcastle-on-Tyne; S.T.D., Columbia, 1947; S.T.D., Univ. of Toronto, 1947. Ordained 1908; Curate of Benwell, 1908-11; Lancaster, 1911-14; Vicar-Choral of Sarum, 1914-19; Vicar, St. Marks, Sarum, 1919-25. Lecturer, Sarum Theological College, 1914-20; Tutor, 1920-25. Lecturer in Theology, St. Edmund Hall, Oxford, 1928-31; Select Preacher, 1930-32. Fellow, Tutor and Dean, Oriel College, Oxford, 1925-34. Examining Chaplain to the Bishop of Peterborough, 1927; University Lecturer in Church History, 1931-34. Examiner, Honour School of Theology, Oxford, 1932-34. Consecrated Archbishop of Brisbane, May 1, 1934. Translated to the See of Bath and Wells, 1943, London, 1945; Dean of Chapels, since 1946. Chaplain and Sub-Prelate, Order of St. John of Jerusalem. Author: The Golden String, 1926; The Development of Sacramentalism, 1928; History of the Modern Church, 1930; The Old Faith and the New Age, 1933; Westminster Commentary (I, II: Peter and Jude), 1934; Oxford and the Groups (in collaboration), 1934; History of the Early Church, 1937; European Civilisation (in collaboration), 1937; First Century Christianity (Moorehouse Lectures), 1937; Union of Christendom (in collaboration), 1938; New Testament Letters, 1944; God and Goodness. Address: Fulham Palace, London, S.W. 6, England.

WANDRUP, H. C., Danish Barrister; born Nov. 3, 1874, Copenhagen, Denmark; son of H. J. and J. M. (Christensen) Wandrup; studied law at Univ. of Copenhagen, jur. degree 1898; married Hedevig Christine Peterson, June 10, 1905; one child. Admitted to bar; Barrister since 1901. Counselor to Swedish and Norwegian Embassies and Consulates. Chairman of Board of Directors of Amagerbanken; Member, Board of various foundations. Address: Amaliegade 40, Copenhagen K, Denmark.

WANG, Dr. CHENGTING THOMAS, Chinese Statesman; born September 7, 1882, Ningpo, Chekiang, China; son of Rev. Y. K. Wang and Sze; educated at National Peiyang University; University of Michigan; Yale University, B.A. 1910; hon. degree of LL.D. from St. John's University, Shanghai, 1920, and Yen-Ching University, Peiping, 1921; married Mary Mei Lee Sze, 1902; eight children. Participated in National Revolution, 1911-12. Vice-President, Senate, 1919; Government Delegate to Paris Conference. Minister of Foreign Affairs and Acting Premier, 1922; Minister of Foreign Affairs and of Finance, 1925; State Councillor of Central Government and Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1928-31; Ambassador to U. S., 1936-38. Now Member, Central Executive Committee, and Chairman of the War Crimes Investigation Commission of the Executive Yuan. Chairman, Board of Directors, Current News Reporter, Inc.; China Pacific Insurance Co.; Lu Ho Kou Mining Co.; Overseas Trading Corp.; Philippine Bank of Communications. Member, Board of Directors, Bank of Communications; National Athletic Assn., etc. Former President, National Red Cross Society of China; now Honorary Vice-President. Member, Board of Directors, Rotary International; Member of Sino-American Cultural Assn. Address: Executive Yuan, Nanking, China.

WANG, Dr. CHING-CHUN, Chinese Economist; born June 30, 1882, Luanjo, China; son of Zy-Yan Wang and Sy-Mei Mao; educated at Yale Univ., Ph.B. in C.E. 1908; Univ. of Illinois, M.A. 1909, Ph.D. 1911; married Wen-jung Meng, Sept. 12, 1903; four children. Counsellor, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Provisional Govt., Nanking, 1911; Assistant Director, Peking-Mukden Railway, 1912; Vice-President and Chairman, Commission on Unification of Railway Accounts and Statistics, 1912-14; Director, Department of Railway Finance and Accounts, 1914-16; Comptroller-General, Ministry of Communications, 1916-17; Managing Director, Peking-Mukden Railway and Peking-Hankow Railway, 1917-19; Technical Delegate to Paris Peace Conference, 1919; Chinese Representative, Inter-Allied Technical Board for Control of Siberian Railways, 1920-22; concurrently Vice-President, Chinese Eastern Railway; Director-General of Chinese Eastern Railway, 1922-24; Director-General of Posts and Chief Delegate to Paris International Telegraph Conference, 1925; also Chief Delegate to Washington International Radio Telegraph Conference, 1927; Director, Chinese Educational Mission, 1928-31. Director of Chinese Govt. Purchasing Commission since 1931. Pres. London Chinese Assn. since 1937. Author of Railway Loan Agreements of China, 1915; The Chinese Eastern Railway (essay), 1924; Railway Finance Problems (in Chinese), 1918; Legislative Regulation of Railway Finance in England, 1921; The Shantung Intervention, 1927; Phonetic Chinese Telegraph Dictionary, 1928; Japan's Continental Adventure, 1940; Phonetic Chinese (Sinhanzyx), 1940; Sinhanzyx Method of Indexing Chinese Characters and Romanization (in Chinese), 1944; also contributions to leading British and American magazines. Residence: Mt. Royal Hotel, Marble Arch, London. Office: 21 Tothill St., London, England.

WANG, General CHING-KUO, Chinese Army Officer; born July 18, 1892, Wutai, Shansi, China; son of Cheng-lin Wang and Tze-hsu Chang; educated at Pao Ting Military School, 1918; specialized in infantry; finished Advanced Course of Lu Shan Training Corps for high military officers, 1934; married Yu-hua Kung, Sept. 1922; six children. Vice-Battalion Commander, 1918. Company Leader, 1919-20; Battalion Leader, 1920-26; Regimental Commander, 1926; Brigade Commander, 1927; Division Commander, 1928 (concurrently Garrison Commander, Suiyuan Province); Army Commander, 1930-36; Commander, 13th Group Army, 1939-44; Commander, 6th Group Army, since 1945. Participated in North Expedition, leader in land-cultivating movement in Suiuan in 1949, diking the rivers and facilitating irrigation; engaged Japanese in North Shansi as Commander of 19th Army; took part in Hsing Ko battle, inflicting several thousand casualties upon Japanese, 1937; guarded free part of Shansi from repeated invasion of Japanese, 1939-45. Member of Kuomingtang. Residence: 9 Tien Ti Tan, 5th Avenue, Taiyuan. Office: Headquarters, 6th Group Army, Taiyuan, Shansi, China.

WANG CHUNG-HUI, Dr., Chinese Jurist; born Dec. 1, 1881, Canton, China; son of Wang Yukcho and Yeh; educated at Peiyang Univ., China; D.C.L., Yale Univ. Minister of Foreign Affairs and Minister of Justice, 1912. Became Chief Justice, Supreme Court, 1920; Minister of Justice, 1928-31; Acting President of the Executive Yuan, 1937. Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1937-41; Secretary-General, Supreme National Defense Council, 1941-47; Pres., Judicial Yuan, since July 1948. Member, Kuomintang Central Supervisory Committee, since 1929. Delegate for China to the League of Nations, 1921, and to the Washington Conference, 1922. Former Judge, Court of International Justice, The Hague. Address: Judicial Yuan, Nanking, China.

WANG, Dr. CHUNG-WOO, Chinese Economist; Director of Bureau of Statistics, Ministry of Communications; Adviser to Bureau of Research on Economic Reconstruction in Southwest China; born Dec. 3, 1898, Nanking, China; son of Wang Wei-Yen and Lu Chin-Chow; educated at Governmental Teachers College, Nanking, M.A. 1920; married Chungvon, June 6, 1921; five children. Began career as Dean of Commercial Dept., The First Central College, Nanking; Professor of Economics, Transportation and Statistics, National Central University, Nanking, China; concurrently Professor of Economical Statistics, Fu Tan and Chungking Universities, 1938-45; Examiner on Economical Statistics, National Senior Civil Service Examination Committee, 1935 and 1940-44; Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Member of Board of Directors, Chinese Statistical Society, 1933-45; Member of Master Degree Examination Committee, Ministry of Education, Chinese National Government, 1940-45; appointed by Chinese National Government as an expert of the technical observation of transportation and communication to the U. S., 1945. Author: Some Important Problems of Chinese Transportation Construction in Postwar; Method and Application of Statistics; Formula and Illustration of Statistics; Statistical Terms Translated into Chinese; Price Index Numbers of Chungking, 1937-45; Population Problems of China; Prediction of Outcome of World Economic Conference, etc. Residence: 11 Koulin Rd., Shansi St. Residential District. Office: Bureau of Statistics, Ministry of Communications, Nanking, China.

WANG, Dr. HUA-CHENG, Chinese Political Scientist; born Jan. 26, 1903, Chingkiang, Kiangsu, China; son of Chia-chu Wang and Yu-ying Hsu; educated at Tsing Hua College, Peiping, China, graduated 1923; B.A., Univ. of Minnesota, 1925; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1927; married Mabel B. Toy, Sept. 6, 1927; three daughters. Fellow, Political Science Dept., Univ. of Chicago, 1926-27; Carnegie Fellow in Internatl. Law, 1927-28; Prof. of Internatl. Law, Tsing Hua Univ., Peiping, 1928-39; Lectured at Yenching Univ., Peking Natl. Univ., Peiping; Counselor, Supreme Natl. Defense Council, Chungking, 1939-45; Director, Treaty Dept., Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1942-46. In charge of negotiation of abolition of Extraterritoriality Treaties with the U. S., Great Britain and other countries; in charge of negotiation of Sino-American Treaty of Commerce. Member, Chinese Delegation to San Francisco Conf. on Internatl. Organization, 1945; Chinese Representative to London War Crimes Conf., 1945; Secy. General, Far Eastern and Pacific Sub-Commn. of United Nations War Crimes Commn., 1946. Decorated by Govts. of France, Siam, Iraq and China. Author: Contemporary International Law (in Chinese), 1943. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Nanking, China.

WANG, KUNG-YU, Chinese Provincial Government Administrator; born Nov. 2, 1903, Lien-Yun City, Kiangsu, China; son of Tung-pu; educated at China Univ., Peiping, B.A.; married Sow-lan Ting; three sons and two daughters. Magistrate of Feng Hsien, Kiagsu, 1927-29; Magistrate, Hsion Hsien, Kiangsu, 1930-34; Magistrate, Tung-san Hsien, Kiangsu, 1934-36; Inspector, 3rd Administrative Inspection Region, Kiangsu Province, 1936-37; Inspector, 10th Administrative Inspection Region, 1937, then 7th Administrative Region, 1937. Member, Kiangsu Provincial Govt.; Chief Secy., 1938-39; Head, Civil Administration Dept., and Governor, Hsu-chow and Haichow Provisional Provincial Office, 1939; Head, Civil Administration Dept., 1940-44; Inspector, Generalissimo Chiang-Kai-shek's Body Guard Hdqtrs., 1944-45; Commnr., Kiangsu Provincial Tang-pu; Director, Organizing and Training Dept.; concurrently Member Kiangsu Provincial Govt., and Head, Administrative Affairs Dept., 1944-45; Head, Civil Administration Dept.,

Kiangsu Provincial Govt., since 1945. Commnr., Bd. of Examining and Discussion, Kiangsu Rehabilitation and Relief Council, N.R.R.A. of China; Commnr., Public Welfare Soc. of Kiangsu Civil Service; Commnr., Kiangsu Provincial Mobilization Assn., Japanese Defense War. Author: Talks on Magistrate Administration, 1940; Annoys of Venus, 1941; Remaining Papers of Bloodshed, 1941. Residence: No. 5, Au-Lien Lane, Song-yeu New Village, Chinkiang, Kiangsu. Office: Provincial Government Road, Chinkiang, Kiangsu, China.

WANG KUO-HUA, Chinese Supply Commissioner in U. S. A.; born 1900, Yulin, Shensi, China; son of Wang Ching-To and Tong Shin; graduated from Tsing Hua College, 1923; Colorado College, B.A. 1924; Univ. of Chicago, M.A. 1926; married Kuo Bisien, 1929; two children. Chief Accountant, Natl. Reconstruction Commn. of China, 1928-30; Secy., Dept. of Construction, Chekiang Provincial Govt., 1931-34; Secy.-General, New Road Construction Commn., Ministry of Railways, 1935-38; Deputy Director, Finance Dept., Ministry of Communications, 1939-40; Director, Natl. Stage Transport Administration, 1941-42. Now Adviser, Chinese Ministry of Communications; also Commnr., Chinese Supply Commn. in U. S. A. Residence: 3825 Benton St., N.W. Office: 2224 R St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

WANG PO-CHUN, Chinese University President; born 1885, Kweichow; educated in China and Japan. Publisher, Ta Kung Ho Pao (Great Republic); Civil Gov., Kweichow, 1928-31; Minister of Communications, 1928-32. Elected Member, Kuomintang Central Executive Committee, 1929; State Councillor, National Government, 1932. President, Great China University, since 1928. Address: Great China University, Kweiyang, Kweichow, China.

WANG SHIH-CHIEH, Dr., Chinese Statesman; born March 10, 1891, Chungyang, Hupeh; educated at Peiyang University, 1911-12; University of London, B.S. 1917; University of Paris, Docteur en Droit, 1920; married Hsiao Teh-hua; four children. Prof. of National Peking Univ., 1921-27; Director, Bureau of Law Codification, 1927-28; Member, Permanent Court of Arbitration at The Hague, 1928; Member, Legislative Yuan, 1928-30; President, National Wuhan University, 1929-33; Minister of Education, 1933-37. Chief Counsellor, National Military Council, since 1938. Minister of Information, 1939-42; Secretary-General of People's Political Council, 1938-43; Secretary-General, Central Planning Board, 1940-43. Member of Presidium, People's Political Council, since 1943. Minister of Foreign Affairs since 1945. Concluded and signed Sino-Soviet Treaty of Friendship and Alliance, 1945; attended Council of Foreign Ministers, 1945; Paris Peace Conf., 1946. State Councillor since 1947. Chmn., Chinese Delegation, United Nations General Assembly, New York, 1947. Author, La Répartition des compétences dans les Constitutions fédérales; The Problem of the International Settlement of Shanghai; A Treatise on Comparative Constitutional Law; The Legal Aspects of Slavery in the History of China. Residence: 23 Pai Tze Ting. Office: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Nanking, China.

WANG, Prof. SING KUNG, Chinese University President; born Aug. 8, 1888, Anwhei, China; son of Wang Wei Chin; educated at Royal College of Science, A.R.C.S. 1913, London Imperial College of Science and Technology, D.I.C., 1916; married Y. Yeh, 1917; two daughters and two sons. Prof. of Chemistry, National Peking Univ., later Head, Dept. of Chemistry, 1917-27; Prof. of Chemistry and Dean, National Central Univ., 1927-28; Dean, National Wuhan Univ., 1928-32. Pres., National Wuhan Univ., 1932-45; Pres., National Chun San Univ., since 1945. Author: Research on Fuels and Gases; Principles of Sciences, 1931. Address: National Chun San University, Canton, China.

WANG TSE-CHUANG, Chinese Political Leader; born Feb. 10, 1901, Tsi-nang, Shantung; son of Wang She-mae and Tsuoo Jingru; educated at Peking Univ., LL.B. 1923; married Neou Bing-tsing, June 10, 1920; two sons and three daughters. Taught at Shang-tung Law School, 1923-25; Inspector of Bureau of Education of Shang-tung Province, 1925. Member, Executive Committee of Kuomintang in Shang-tung Province, 1925-27; Secretary, Central Executive Committee of Kuomintang, 1927-35. Member of Central Supervisory Committee since 1935; Vice-Minister of Personnel since 1936; Chief Secretary of Central Supervisory Committee of Kuomintang since 1935. Awarded Third Class Colored Jade decoration of the National Government, 1937; Third Class Bright Star decoration, 1944. Address: Ministry of Personnel, Nanking, China.

WANG YU-TSING, Chinese University President; Member of Legislative Yuan, Nanking; born in Hang-Yang, Province of Hunan, China; educated at Univ. of Chicago, B.A. 1917; New York Univ., M.Sc. 1919; three daughters and two sons. Prof. of Accounting, Southeastern Univ.; Dean of College of Commerce, Univ. of Amoy. Member of Legislative Yuan since 1935; Delegate, First Natl. Convention to formulate Constitution, Nanking, 1946. Now Pres. and Co-Founder, Great China Univ., Shanghai. Residence: Da Hsia Villa, Northern Chung San Road, Shanghai. Office: Great China University, Shanghai, China.

WANG, Hon. YUN-wu, Chinese Deputy Premier and Member of State Council; born 1888, Kwongtung Province, China; self-educated; married in 1910; seven sons, one daughter. Instructor at National Inst., Woosung, 1907-10. Newspaper Editor, 1909-12. Secy. to President of the Republic, 1911. Director of Higher Education, Ministry of Education, 1912. Prof. at Chung Kuo Univ., 1912-14. Department Chief, Natl. Oil Administration, 1915-16. Special Envoy for Opium Suppression, 1916-17. Author and Editor, 1918-20. Editor-in-Chief, Commercial Press, Ltd., 1921-29. Research Fellow and Director, Academia Sinica, 1929-30. Managing Director and Editor-in-Chief, Commercial Press, Ltd., 1930-46. Member, People's Political Council, 1938-46. Minister of Economic Affairs, 1946-47. Now serving as Member of Presidium People's Political Council. Member of Presidium, Natl. Assembly. Deputy Premier and Member of State Council, since May 1947. Director, Oriental Library, Shanghai. Deputy Chmn., Municipal Library, Shanghai. Trustee of about ten colleges and schools. Member: Science Soc. of China; Economic Soc. of China; Library Assn. of China (sometime Chmn.); Inventors' Assn. of China (Chmn.). Exec. Director: Sino-Soviet Cultural Assn.; Sino-British Cultural Assn. Author: Wang's System of Chinese Lexicography, 1925; Wang's System of Library Classification, 1927; Wang's Dictionaries, 1927-29; Chungshan Encyclopedic Dictionary, 1st vol., 1928; My British Diary, 1934; also about 12 more. Editor, The Complete Library (about 4,000 vols.). Address: Executive Yuan, Nanking, China.

WANGENSTEIN, Dr. OWEN HARDING, American Surgeon; born Lake Park, Minnesota, September 21, 1898; son of Owen and Hannah (Hanson) Wangensteen; educated at Univ. of Minn., A.B. 1919, M.B. 1921, M.D. 1922, Ph.D. 1925; married Helen C. Griffin, 1923; three dren. Fellow in Medicine, Univ. of Minn. Hosps., 1923; Fellow in Surgery, Mayo Foundation, Rochester, Minn., 1924; Resident Surgeon Univ. of Minn. Hosps., 1925; Dir. of Surgery and Surgeon-in-Chief since 1930. Member of Faculty, Dept. of Surgery, Univ. of Minn., since 1925; Prof. since 1931. Voluntary Asst., F. De Quervain's Surg. Clinic, Berne, Switzerland, 1927-28. His work, The Therapeutic Problem in Bowel Obstructions: a Physiological and Clinical Consideration, won Samuel D. Gross Prize in Surgery, 1935; John Scott Medal and Award, 1941. Member of American College of Surgeons; Amer. Assn. for Thoracic Surg.; Amer. Surg. Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Soc. for Experimental Pathol.; Soc. for Experimental Biol. and Med.; Minn. Pathol. Soc. (Pres. 1937-39); Internatl. Surg. Soc. Residence: 145 S.E. Melbourne. Office: University Hospital, Minneapolis, Minn.

WANSBROUGH, GEORGE, British Company Director; born Apr. 23, 1904, Oxford, England; son of Henry Arthur and Uliana (Tufnell) Wansbrough; King's Scholar at Eton; Mathematical Scholar, King's College, Cambridge. Associated with Selfridge & Co. Ltd., 1923-27; joined staff of Robert Benson & Co. Ltd., Director, 1932-35; resigned to establish own office. Director: C. A. Parsons & Co. Ltd.; Savage & Parsons Ltd.; Parolle Electric Plant Co. Ltd.; Pyrotenax Ltd.; British Power & Light Corp. Ltd.; North Wales Power Co. Ltd.; Mercantile Credit Co. Ltd.; A. Reyrolle & Co. Ltd. (Chmn.); Morphy-Richards Ltd.; Bren Manufacturing Co. Ltd. Director of Bank of England. Member: Development Areas Treasury Adv. Com.; Natl. Advisory Council to Motor Mfg. Industry; Colonial Economic & Development Council. Member of Council: Instn. of Electrical Engineers; British Electrical & Allied Mfrs. Assn. Inc.; Electric Power Companies' Assn. Author of articles in "Economist" and other publications, principally on electric supply industry. Residence: Hyde Gate, Long Sutton, near Basingstoke, Hants. Office: 15 Kingsway, London, W.C. 2, England.

WANTZ, RAYMOND, American Manufacturer; born June 12, 1875, near Goshen, Ind.; son of Jacob and Reina (Milliner) Wantz; educated at Franklin (Ohio) grade school; married Ida M. Carlson, Sept. 1, 1915; two children. Organized Rockford Paper Box Co., 1904 and served as Secy. and Managr; organized Rockford Fibre Container Co., 1918; Pres. until 1928; combined both companies, becoming Pres. of the new company. Pres. of Fritz Carlson Realty Co. and Illinois Water Treatment Co. Ex-President, Rockford Manufacturers and Shippers Assn. Chmn. of the County Loan Com., and World War I Federal Labor Director, Northern District of Illinois. Pres., Illinois Mfrs. Assn., 1934-36; served on the Special State Tax Commission, 1931, and acted as one of three members appointed in 1931 by Gov. Emmerson to State Prevailing Wage Appeal Board. Member, Com. of Special Relief and Unemployment Relief appointed by Governor Horner, 1934; Chairman, arbitration board between city and local utility, settling rate dispute, 1935. Residences: 2024 Harlem Blvd., Rockford, Ill., and 9465 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, Fla. Office: 1005 Rockford Trust Bldg., Rockford, Ill.

WAN - WAITHAYAKON, H.R.H. Prince. Siamese Diplomat; born Aug. 25, 1891, Bangkok, Siam; son of H.R.H. Prince Naradhip and Tuan Montrikul; educated at Balliol College, Oxford, 1910-15, B.A. (honours in history), 1914, M.A. 1927; Ecole Libre des Sciences Politiques, Paris, 1915-17, Laureat, 1917; married Momchao Phibun Kitiyakara, May, 1921 (divorced, 1922); (2nd) Prol Bunnag, Nov. 1930; two children. Secy. of Legation, Paris, 1917; Private Secy. to Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1919; Under-Secy. of State for Foreign Affairs, 1924 (negotiated Indo-China Convention, 1925); Minister in London (also accredited at Brussels and The Hague), 1926-30. Permanent Delegate to League of Nations, 1928-30; Adviser to Premier's Office and The Foreign Office, 1933-46 (Pres. of Royal Inst.; negotiated treaty revision with the powers); Senator, 1946 (negotiated Agreement of Settlement with France); Member of Franco-Siamese Commission of Conciliation, 1947. Now Ambassador of Siam at Washington, D. C. and Permanent Delegate of Siam to the United Nations; Representative on Interim Com. of U. N. General Assembly, 1947—. Member: Académie Diplomatique, Paris; Siam Soc., Bangkok. Decorations: Knight of Order of Royal House of Chakri; Grand Cross, Legion of Honor (France). Residence: 2300 Kalorama Road. Office: The Royal Siamese Embassy, 2490 Tracy Place, Washington 8, D. C.

WAPLES, Lt. Col. DOUGLAS, American Political Scientist; born Mar. 3, 1893, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Rufus (Jr.) and Christina S. (Isham) Waples; educated at Haverford College, A.B. 1914, A.M. 1915; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1917; Univ. of London; Univ. of Pennsylvania, Ph.D. 1920; married Eleanor Jackson Cary, June 12, 1917; three children. Secy. (Ensign, U.S.N.R.), Aviation Section, U. S. Naval Headquarters, London, 1918-19; Instructor at Tufts College, 1920-23; Asst. Prof. of Education, Univ. of Pittsburgh, 1923-25; Asst. Prof. of Education, Univ. of Chicago, 1925-28; Prof. of Researches in Reading since 1928; Executive Secy., Com. on Communications and Public Opinion, 1941-42 (now on leave). Consultant, Special Defense Unit, U. S. Dept. of Justice; Chief Consultant, Bureau of Intelligence, Office of War Information; Chief Field Rept., Outpost Bureau, Overseas Branch, O.W.I.; resigned 1943. Major, A.U.S. Headquarters, O.S.F., 1943-44; Office of Strategic Services, 1944-45; Psychological Warfare Division, SHAEF, since 1944; Lt. Col., Chief Publications Branch, Information Control Division, OMGUS, Germany, since 1945. Member: Amer. Sociological Soc.; Amer. Political Science Assn.; Amer. Educational Research Assn. Author of some 14 books on methods of research in social science, analysis of publications and effects of propaganda on public opinion. Address: 1539 Key Blvd., Arlington, Va.

WARBASSE, Dr. JAMES PETER, American Surgeon-Economist; born Nov. 22, 1866; son of Joseph and Harriett (Northrup) Warbasse; educated at Columbia Univ., College of Physicians and Surgeons, M.D. 1889; Univ. of Goettingen, 1891-92; married Agnes Dyer, Apr. 15, 1903; six children. Attending Surgeon, M.E. Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1891-1909, and German Hospital, 1903-19. Editor, New York State Journal of Medicine, 1906-09; Special Editor, Amer. Journal of Surgery, 1909-19. Retired from surgery, 1919. Teacher of economics and specialist in consumer cooperation since 1919. Now Special Lecturer on Medical Economics, Long Island College of Medicine. Director, Cooperative League of U. S., since 1916 (Pres. 1916-41); Pres., Rochdale Inst., since 1937. Fellow: Amer. College of Surgeons; Amer. Medical Assn.; New York Acad. of Medicine. Author: Doctors of Samuel Johnson, 1908; Medical Sociology, 1909; The Conquest of Disease, 1910; Surgical Treatment (3 vols.), 1919; Cooperative Democracy, 1923; What Is Cooperation?, 1927; The Doctor and the Public, 1934; Cooperation a Way of Peace, 1935; Problems of Cooperation, 1942; The Cooperative Way of World Reconstruction, 1945; Poems of the Family Circle, 1946; also some 100 surgical monographs and 100 economic monographs. Address: Woods Hole, Mass.

WARBURG, FREDERICK MARCUS, American Banker; born Oct. 14, 1897, New York, N. Y.; son of Felix Moritz and Frieda (Schiff) Warburg; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B., 1919; married Wilma Shannon, Mar. 4, 1946. Associated with M. M. Warburg & Co., Hamburg, Germany, 1921-22; Kuhn, Loeb & Co., 1922-27; Lehman Bros., 1927-30; partner, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., since 1931. Director, Los Angeles & Salt Lake R.R. Served as Lieut., Inf., U. S. Army, Res., 1918-37; Col., Army of U. S., World War II. Trustee: American Museum of Natural History; Boy Scouts of America; 92nd Street Y.M.H.A.; Natl. Recreation Assn. Address: 52 William St., New York, N. Y.

WARBURG, JAMES PAUL, American Author; born Aug. 18, 1896, Hamburg, Germany; son of Paul Moritz and Nina J. (Loeb) Warburg; educated at Harvard, A.B. magna cum laude, 1917; married Phyllis Baldwin, 1935; three daughters by a previous marriage. Associated with the B. & O. R.R., 1916; National Metropolitan Bank, Washintgon, D. C., 1918-19, and with the First National Bank of Boston, 1919-21. Vice-Pres., Internatl. Acceptance Bank, New York, 1921-29; Pres., International Manhattan Co., Inc., 1929-31. Pres. of the Internatl. Acceptance Bank, Inc., and Vice-Chairman of the Bank of Manhattan Co., 1931-35. Financial Adviser to the United States Delegation to the London Monetary and Economic Confs., 1933. Pres. and Dir. of the Fontenay Corp. and of The Bydale Co., Dir., Polaroid Corp. Special Asst. to Coordinator of Information, 1941. Deputy Dir., Office of War Information, Overseas Branch, July, 1942; organized OWI office in London, July and August. Director of the Juilliard School of Music, and of the Philharmonic-Symphony Soc. of New York. Author: Acceptance Financing, 1926; The Money Muddle, 1934; It's Up to Us, 1935; Hell Bent for Election, 1936; Peace in Our Time, 1939; Our War and Our Peace, 1941; Foreign Policy Begins at Home, 1944; Unwritten Treaty, 1945; Germany—Bridge or Battleground, 1947. Books of verse: And Then What, 1930; Shoes and Ships and Sealing Wax, 1931; Man's Enemy and Man, 1942. Lieut., Naval Reserve Flying Corps. World War I. Residences: 34 East 70th St., New York, N. Y., and North Greenwich, Conn. Office: 36 E. 70th St., New York, N. Y.

WARBURG, Dr. OTTO, German Physiologist; Nobel Prize Winner; born Oct. 8, 1883, Freiburg, Germany; son of Emil and Elisabeth (Gaertner) Warburg; educated at Univ. of Berlin, Chem.D. 1906; Univ. of Heidelberg, M.D. 1911. Served in German Army during First World War, 1914-18. Was Professor at Univ. of Berlin; Dir. of Kaiser-Wilhelm Institute für Zellphysiologie, Berlin-Dahlem, until outbreak of World War II. Awarded Nobel Prize in Medicine, 1931. Foreign Member, Royal Society.

WARBURTON, Dr. CLYDE WILLIAM, American Agronomist; born Dec. 7, 1879, Independence, Ia.; son of William H. and Ellen C. (Irvine) Warburton; educated at Iowa State College, B.Sc. in Agr., 1902; hon. D.Sc. 1925; married Anne E. Draper, Oct. 16, 1907. Scientific Assistant, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1903; Agronomist with the Department, 1903-10. Editor, Webb Publishing Co., St. Paul, Minn., 1911-12. Agronomist, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1812-23; Dir. of Extension Work, 1923-39; Deputy Governor, Farm Credit Administration, 1940-45. Secretary, American Society of Agronomy, 1915-19; Editor of its Journal, 1914-21; President, 1925. Co-author: Field Crops. Residence: 4512 30th St., N.W., Washington 8, D. C.

WARD, Sir ALBERT LAMBERT, Bt., British Politician; son of Albert Bird; educated at St. Paul's School, Paris, and Darmstadt; married Constance Tidmas, 1920; one daughter. Parliamentary Private Secretary to the Home Secretary and Vice-Chamberlain of H.M. Household, 1934-35; Comptroller, 1936, and Treasurer, 1937. Commanded the Battalion of the Artillery Company during First World War. Elected Member of Parliament, 1918. Decorated with C.V.O., D.S.O. and T.D. Residence: 12 Collingham Gardens, London, England.

WARD, ASHLEY SKELTON, British Industrialist; born Sheffield, England; son of Herbert and Elizabeth Ward; married Hilda Lewis; one son and one daughter. Joined Thos. W. Ward Limited, 1892, engineers, manufacturers, iron, steel, metal and machinery merchants, railway siding contractors, etc. Chairman and Managing Director since 1941.Instrumental in purchasing and resuscitating many old established concerns, including Laycocks of Sheffield, Marshalls of Gainsborough, Widnes Foundry & Engineering Co. Limited and Low Moor Best Yorkshire Iron Ltd. Chairman and/or Managing Director: Thos. W. Ward Limited, Marshall Sons & Co. Ltd., Marshall Sons & Co. (India) Ltd., Marshalls (Direction) Ltd. Marshalls Tea Machinery Limited; Low Moor Best Yorkshire Iron Ltd., Milford Haven Dock & Railway Co., Clayton & Shuttleworth Limited; Pengwern & Gwydyr Quarries Limited; Drybrook Quarries Limited; Thos. Smith & Sons (Rodley) Ltd.; Ketton Portland Cement Co. Limited; Darlington Railway Plant and Foundry Co. Ltd. Dir.: Laycock Engineering Co. Ltd. (Deputy Chmn.). Park Gate Iron & Steel Co. Ltd., Ribblesdale Cement Ltd., National Provincial Bank Limited (local); Liverpool, London & Globe Insurance Co. Ltd. (local). Elected Master Cutler of Sheffield, 1940; Chairman, Sheffield Savings Com., since 1943. Residence: Silver Hill House, 270, Ecclesall Road South, Sheffield 11, Eng. Office: Albion Works, Savile St., Sheffield, England.

WARD, Miss BARBARA, British Editor, Author; born May 23, 1914, York, England; daughter of Walter and Teresa (Burge) Ward; educated at Convent of Jesus and Mary Felixstowe; Lycée Molière and Sorbonne, Paris; Die Klause, Jugenheim a/d/B, Germany; Somerville College, Oxford (Honours degree in Philosophy, Politics and Economics, 1935). University Extension Lecturer, 1936-39. Joined Staff of The Economist, 1939; Asst. Editor, 1940—. Member of Council, Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs, 1943-44. Governor: Sadler's Wells and Old Vic Theatres, 1945—; British Broadcasting Corp., 1946—. Radio Broadcaster, 1943-46; Lecturer. Author: The International Share-Out, 1938; Hitler's Route to Baghdad (part-author), 1939; Turkey, 1941; A Christian Basis for the Post-War World (part-author), 1941; The West at Bay, 1948. Address: The Economist, 22 Ryder St., St. James's, London, S.W. 1, England.

WARD, Hon. EDWARD JOHN, Australian Political Leader; Member, House of Representatives for East Sydney, most densely populated constituency in Australia, since 1931; served as Minister of Labour and National Services in previous government. Address: Ministry for Transport and External Territories, Canberra, Australia.

WARD, FRANCIS T., American Banker; graduated Univ. of Chicago, 1915. Began career with Harris Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago. With Bond Dept. of J. P. Morgan & Co., 1920-35. Partner, Clark, Dodge & Co., 1943—. Associated with International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, 1947—. Director, Scovill Manufacturing Co. Ex-Governor: New York Stock Exchange; Investment Bankers Assn. Address: 2 Wall St., New York 5, New York.

WARD, Dr. GEORGE GRAY, American Gynecologist; born Aug. 15, 1868, London, England; educated in Brooklyn Polytechnic Inst.; Univ. of Berlin; Long Island College Hosp., M.D. 1891; married Edith Wigham, June 23, 1898. Formerly Prof. of Obstet. and Gynecol., Cornell Univ., now Emeritus; formerly Prof. of Gynecol., N. Y. Post-Grad. Hosp. for many years, now Emeritus; Chief Surgeon Emeritus, Woman's Hosp., N. Y.; Consulting Gynecol. and Obstet., N. Y., Post-Grad., Booth Memorial, Monmouth (Long Branch, N. J.), and Memorial Hosps., and Home for Incurables. Clinical Professor of Gynecol., Bellevue Hosp., N. Y. Ex-Pres., Amer. Gynecol. Soc.; Pres. of N. Y. Obstet. Soc.; Pres. of Med Soc. of County of N. Y.; Chmn., Section of Obstet. and Gynecol., Amer. Med. Assn.; Delegate, Amer. Med. Assn.; Hon. Fellow, Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists; Edinburgh Obstet. Soc.; Corresponding Fellow of Royal Med. Soc. of Budapest; Hon. Member of British Congress of Obstet. and Gynecol., etc. Author of numerous articles on Obstetrics and Gynecology; co-author of several medical books. Residence: 1175 Park Ave. Office: 101 E. 80th St., New York, N. Y.

WARD, Prof. HARRY FREDERICK, American Theologian; born in London, Eng., October 15, 1873; son of Harry and Fanny (Jeffery) Ward; educated at University of Southern California; Northwestern University, A.B. 1897; Harvard, A.M. 1898; married Daisy Kendall, April 20, 1899; two sons and one daughter. Ordained Methodist Minister, 1899; served pastorates at Wabash Avenue, 47th St. and Union Ave. Churches, Chicago, and Euclid Avenue Church, Oak Park, Ill., until 1912. Founder, Methodist Federation of Social Service, 1907; Editorial Secretary until 1911 and General Secretary until 1944. Professor of Social Service, Boston University School of Theology, 1913-18; Professor of Christian Ethics at Union Theological Seminary, 1918-41; Professor Emeritus since 1941. Chairman: American Civil Liberties Union, 1920-40; American League for Peace and Democracy since 1934. Author: The New Social Order, 1919; The Profit Motive, 1924; Our Economic Morality, 1929; Which Way Religion?, 1931; In Place of Profit, 1933; Democracy and Social Change, 1940; The Soviet Spirit, 1945. Address: 1116 Arcadian Way, Palisade, N. J

WARD, Rt. Rev. JOHN CHAMBERLAIN, Bishop of Erie; born Aug. 27, 1873, Elmira, N. Y.; son of Hamilton and Mary A. (Chamberlain) Ward; educated at Harvard Univ.; General Theological Seminary; B.A., S.T.B., D.D. and S.T.D. Ordained Deacon, Protestant Episcopal Church, 1899; Priest, 1900. Priest in Charge, St. Stephen's Church, Buffalo, N. Y., 1900-01; Rector, Grace Church, Buffalo, 1901-02; Bishop of Erie, Pa., since 1921. Retired 1943; now in Alaska. Army Chaplain, Mexican Border, and with A.E.F. Awards: D.S.C.; British M.C.; Purple Heart. Address: Erie County Bank Bldg., Buffalo, N. Y.

WARD, Dr. MARCUS LLEWELLYN, American Dental Educator; born Aug. 5, 1875; educated at Univ. of Michigan, D.D.S. 1902, D.D.Sc. 1905. Instructor in Operative Technics and Operative Dentistry, Univ. of Michigan, 1903-05; Lecturer on Operative Principles, 1905-08; Prof. of Operative Principles, 1908-12; Prof. of Dental Physics and Chemistry, 1912-19; Prof. of Dental Metallurgy and Crown and Bridgework, 1919-34; Dean of Faculty, 1916-34; Jonathan Taft Prof. of Dentistry, 1934-45; Prof. Emeritus of Dentistry and Dean Emeritus of School of Dentistry since 1945. Fellow, Amer. College of Dentists; Hon. Member, Connecticut and Ohio State Dental Socs. Member: Internatl. Assn. for Dental Research; Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Science; Amer. Dental Assn. (Pres. 1939); Amer. Public Health Assn.; New York Acad. of Dentistry, etc. Pres.: Michigan State Dental Soc. (1912); Amer. Assn. of Dental Schools (1925). Awards: Newell Sill Jenkins Memorial Medal, 1938; William Jarvie Fellowship Medal, 1941; Callahan Memorial Award, 1942; John N. Crouse Memorial Award, 1943. Editor and contributor, American Textbook of Operative Dentistry, 1920-45. Address: University of Michigan, School of Dentistry, Ann Arbor, Mich.

WARD, MARY JANE, American Author; born 1905, Indiana; daughter of Claude Arthur and Marion (Lockridge) Ward; educated at Northwestern Univ., two years; one year of art studies; married Edward Quayle, 1928. Author: The Tree Has Roots, 1937; The Wax Apple, 1938; The Snake Pit (Book-of-the-Month Selection), 1946; The Professor's Umbrella, 1948. Address: c/o Random House, Inc., 457 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

WARD, PAUL WILLIAM, American Journalist; born Oct. 9, 1905, Lorain, O.; son of Thomas J. and Dyma N. (Hire) Ward; educated at Univ. of Akron, 1921-22; Univ. of W. Va., 1922-23; Middlebury College, B.A. 1925; married Dorothy I. Cate, March 19, 1927; two children. Financial writer, New Bedford (Mass.) Standard, 1926-30. With Baltimore Sun since 1930; on local staff, 1930-32; Washington Bureau specialist in New Deal agencies, 1933-37; London Bureau Chief, 1937-40; Senate Correspondent, 1940-45; Diplomatic Correspondent, 1945—. Washington Correspondent, The Nation, 1936-37. Awarded 1947 Pulitzer Prize for reporting of international affairs. Author: Life in the Soviet Union, 1947. Residence: 4711 Hunt Ave., Chevy Chase, Md. Office: 1214 National Press Building, Washington 4, D. C.

WARD, Rev. Dr. RALPH ANSEL, American Bishop; born in Leroy, Ohio, June 26, 1882; son of Fletcher Delay and Harriet Grace (Walker) Ward; educated at Ohio Wesleyan University, B.A., M.A., D.D., LL.D.; S.T.B. Boston University School of Theology; D.D., Baldwin Wallace College; married Mildred May Worley, Sept. 5, 1905; two daughters. Pastor: Union Church of Jefferson, Mass., 1904; Chestnut Street Congregational Church, Lynn, Mass.; Secretary, Lynn No License League, 1907. Associated with Board of Foreign Missions, Methodist Episcopal Church, Foochow, China, 1909-16; Associate Secretary, Board of Foreign Missions, 1920-24. President, Anglo-Chinese College, Foochow, China, 1925-27; Secretary, World Service Agencies, Methodist Episcopal Church, 1928-32; City Missionary, Nanking, China, 1933-37; consecrated Bishop of the Methodist Church, 1937. Addresses: 150 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y., and Missions Building, 169 Yuen Ming Yuen Road, Shanghai, China.

WARD, STEVENSON E., American Banker; born July 22, 1879, Mansfield,

Ohio; son of Marion D. and Mary (Stevenson) Ward; educated at Univ. of Michigan; married May Sullivan, Oct. 5, 1904; one daughter, two sons. Manager of the Mansfield (Ohio) Telephone Co., 1902-07; Cashier, Bank of Mansfield, 1907-12; Assistant Cashier of the National Bank of Commerce in New York in 1912, Cashier from 1912 to 1914, Vice-Pres. to 1923, Pres., 1923-29. Member, Amer. Board of Commercial Union Assurance Co. Ltd., and of the Ocean Accident and Guaranty Co. Ltd.; Director of the Commercial Union Fire Insurance Co. of New York, Columbia Casualty Co., and the First Federal Savings and Loan Association. Address: 8 Governors Rd., Bronxville, N. Y.

WARD, WALDRON M., American Lawyer; born June 27, 1886, Newark, N. J.; son of Alexander S. and Julia M. (Merry) Ward; educated at Princeton Univ., B.A. 1907; N. Y. Law School, 1909; married Aline T. Coursen, Oct. 22, 1912; four children. Member, Hardin & Skinner (now Pitney, Hardin, Ward & Brennan), 1907; partner since 1914. Director: New Jersey Bell Telephone Co., Newark, N. J.; Weston Electrical Instrument Corp., Newark, N. J.; Taylor-Wharton Iron and Steel Co., High Bridge, N. J.; Natl. Newark & Essex Banking Co., Newark, N. J. Chairman of Board, Howard Savings Inst., Newark, N. J.; Vice-Pres. and Trustee, Hospital of St. Barnabas and for Women and Children, Newark, N. J.; Pres., Silver Hill Foundation, New Canaan, Conn. Member: Amer., New Jersey State and Essex County Bar Assns. Address: 744 Broad St., Newark 2, N. J.

WARDINGTON, Lord (John William Beaumont, formerly John William Beaumont Pease), British Banker; born July 4, 1869, Benwell, Northumberland, Eng.; son of John William (J.P., D.L.) and Helen Maria (Fox) Pease; educated at Marlborough and at New College, Oxford; married Hon. Mrs. Dorothy Charlotte Lubbock, 1923; two sons. Peer since 1936. On leaving Oxford he entered into private banking partnership of Hodgkin, Barnett, Pease, Spence & Co., Northumberland. When this bank was amalgamated with Lloyds Bank in 1903 he was elected a Director of the latter, becoming Deputy Chairman in 1909 and Chairman in 1922. Chairman, Bank of London & South America, Ltd., since 1921; Alternate Chairman, Lloyds & National Provincial Foreign Bank, Ltd. Extraordinary Director, National Bank of Scotland, Ltd.; Director, Alliance Assurance Co., Ltd. Chairman, London Clearing Bankers Committee, 1923-24, 1931-32, 1936-37 and 1937-38. Chairman of Joint Committee of British Short-Term Creditors since its formation in 1931; Member of Council of Foreign Bondholders since 1923. President, British Bankers' Assn., 1923-24, 1931-32, 1936-37 and 1937-38. Member of General Council, King Edward's Hospital Fund for London and of the Finance Committee. Chairman of Finance Committee, British Empire Cancer Campaign; Founder Governor (1929) of the Bonar Law Memorial College, and Chairman of Finance Committee of Governing Body. Residence: Wardington Manor, Banbury, Oxon., and 16 St. James's St., London, S.W.1. Office: 71 Lombard St., London, E.C.3. England.

WARDLAW-MILNE, Sir JOHN SYDNEY, British Company Director; Politician; born 1879, Elgin, Scotland; son of James and Elizabeth (Wardlaw) Milne; educated privately; married V. Sproule Bolton, 1935. Began career in India with Turner Morrison & Co. of Bombay, becoming a Director, 1915. Member of Bombay Municipal Corp., ten years. Served as Additional Member of the Viceroy's Council and President of Government of India Shipping Advisory Board. Official Lecturer in U.S.A. for British Government on Mesopotamia and Near East, 1918. Member, Imperial Economic Committee, 1927-29; on Joint Committee of Lords and Commons on Indian Reform, 1934-35. Chairman, Foreign Affairs Committee, House of Commons, and of Select Committee on National Expenditures, 1939-45; Member House of Commons, 1922-45. Director of Cable & Wireless (Holding) Ltd. and Celanese Plastics Ltd. Created K.B.E. Author: The ABC of L.S.D.; The G.H.Q. of L.S.D. During World War I served as Commander of 4th (Bombay) Artillery, Indian Defense Force, 1916-19. Residence: Glenoran Rhu, Dumbartonshire, Scotland.

WARDWELL, ALLEN, American Lawyer. Admitted to New York Bar, 1898. Member of firm, Davis, Polk, Wardwell, Sunderland & Kiendl. Member: American Bar Assn.; New York County Bar Assn.; Nassau County Bar Assn., etc. Address: 15 Broad St., New York 5, N. Y.

WARDWELL, SHELDON EATON, American Lawyer; born May 29, 1882, Haverhill, Mass.; son of J. Otis and Ella M. (Eaton) Wardwell; educated at Yale, A.B. 1904; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1907; married Helen Garritt, Apr. 17, 1915; four children. Admitted to the Massachusetts Bar, 1907; served as Secretary to the Hon. William H. Moody, Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, 1907-08. Trial Attorney for Boston Elevated Railway Co., 1909-10. Member, law firm of Burdett & Wardwell, now Wardwell, Ranney & Allen, since 1910. Director: Carrabasset Dam Co.; Champion International Co. (Member of Executive Committee), Great Northern Paper Co. (Chmn. of Executive Com.); Knox Railroad Co.; Millinocket Water Co.; Northern Br. Dam Co.; Northern Water Co.; Pope Appliance Corp.; Seboomook Dam Co.; W. Branch Driving & Reservoir Co.; Knox Lime Co.; New England Forestry Foundation. Member: American and Boston Bar Assns.; Assn. of Interstate Commerce Practitioners. Residence: 73 Beaver St., Brookline. Office: 84 State St., Boston, Massachusetts.

WARE, HARRIET, American Composer; born August 26, 1877, Waupun, Wis.; educated at Pillsbury (Minn.) Acad.; studied piano and composition with Sigismund Stojowski, and singing with M. Juliano in Paris, 1896; studied piano under Mme. Grunewald, 1903, and composition with H. Kaun, in Berlin, 1905. Concertized throughout U. S. playing own compositions, 1924, 1926, 1929, 1934. Compositions performed by leading symphony orchestras in U. S. Address: Plainfield, N. J.

WARE, LOUIS, American Industrialist; born July 13, 1894, Somerset, Ky.; son of Charles P. and Nora (Lynn) Ware; educated at Univ. of Kentucky College of Mining Engineering, 1917; married Virginia Boyd Morrow, Nov. 29, 1916; two sons. Mining Engineer with Old Dominion Copper Mining Co. (Globe, Ariz.), 1917-19; transitman and engaged in mine construction with the Arizona Commercial Mining Co. (Copper Hill, Ariz.), 1919-21; Chief Engineer in charge of mine and plant engineering of the Iron Cap Copper Co. (Copper Hill, Ariz.), 1921-23. Foreman, General Foreman and Supt. of the Miami Ariz.) Copper Co., 1923-26; with Guggenheim Brothers' nitrate properties, Tocopilla, Chile, S. A., as General Mine Supt.; also directed exploration work at a number of mining properties in Chile, 1926-29; Consulting Engineer (New York City), 1929-30; with The New York Trust Co. engaged in engineering, banking and business assignments, 1930-35. Pres. and Dir.,

United Electric Coal Companies, 1935-39; also Pres. and Dir. of subsidiary Coal Sales Corp. Pres. and Dir. of Internatl. Agricultural Corp., 1939; corporate name of company changed in 1941 to Internatl. Minerals & Chemicals Corp.; now Pres. Director: Internatl. Minerals and Chemical Corp.; The First National Bank of Chicago; U. S. Gypsum Co.; Florida Mining Co.; Lite Metals Corp.; National Fertilizer Assn. and Prairie Pebble Phosphate Co. Residence: 10 Woodley Rd., Winnetka, Ill. Office: 20 N. Wacker Dr., Chicago, Ill.

WAREING, EUSTACE B. F., British Journalist; born Jan. 12, 1890, Warwick, England; son of Bernard and Mary (Faulkner) Wareing; educated at Birmingham Univ., B.Com.; post grad. courses at Jena, Munich (Germany); married Jane Duquenne. Correspondent of The Times (London), 1912-14; in Secretariat of Inter-Allied Rhineland High Commission, 1919-28; Secy. General, 1927-28; Rome Correspondent and Vatican Correspondent of Daily Telegraph (London), 1928-33; Berlin Correspondent, 1933-38 (expelled by Hitler); Paris Correspondent, 1938-40, 1945-48. Life Member, Royal Inst. of International Affairs. R. A. Officer in France, 1915-18. Translated books on psychology and history from French and German; contributor to Concise Oxford Dictionary and many reviews. Residence: 5, Avenue Céline, Neuilly - sur - Seine, France; Savile Club, 69 Brook St., London, W. 1, England.

WARING, Sir HOLBURT JACOB, British Surgeon; born Oct. 3, 1866, Heskin, Lancashire, England; son of Isaac and Catherine (Holburt) Waring; educated at Owen's College, Manchester; St. Bartholomew's Hospital and Medical College, London; M.B., M.S.; B.Sc. (Univ. of London); F.R.C.S.; M.S. (Univ. of Egypt); F.R.A.C.S. (Australia); D.C.L. (Durham); LL.D. (Bristol); married Miss Annie Cassandra Hill, Dec. 10, 1900; one son. Lecturer on Surgical Anatomy, St. Bartholomew's Medical College, 1901-06; Demonstrator of Operative and Practical Surgery,1896-1901. Surgeon in charge of Out-Patients, 1902-09; Surgeon. 1909-31; Consulting Surgeon, St. Bartholomew's Hospital, since 1931. Surgeon, Metropolitan Hospital, 1894-1904; Dean of Faculty of Medicine, Univ. of London. Appointed Vice-Chancellor of London Univ., 1922-24; Examiner in Surgery, Royal College of Surgeons of Eng., Univs. of London, Manchester and Oxford, 1911-25. Member. General Council of Medical Education and Registration and Treas., 1917-32. Governor: St. Bartholomew's Hospital since 1931; Medical College of St. Bartholomew's Hospital, 1938. Member, Council of Royal College of Surgeons of England, 1913-37 (Pres. 1932-35). Pres., Medical Soc. of London, 1925-26; Pres., Section on Surgery, Royal Soc. of Medicine, 1928-30; Member, Court of Governors since 1922; Chairman, 1922-31; Member of Board of Management, and Chairman, 1942-44. Treas., London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine since 1923. Governor, Imperial College of Science and Technology since 1926; Member of Council and Treas. of Imperial Cancer Research Fund, since 1932; Hunterian Trustee, Royal College of Surgeons of England since 1937; Hunterian Orator, Royal College of Surgeons, 1928; Bradshaw Lecturer, 1921. Consulting Surgeon to Ministry of Pensions since 1923. Created C.B.E. 1919; Knight Bachelor, 1925; Baronet of United Kingdom, 1935; Officer, Legion of Honor, 1936. Author: Surgical Diseases of the Liver, Gall Bladder and Biliary System, 1898; Manual of Operative Surgery, 7th ed.; The Surgical Treatment of Malignant Disease, 1928. Address: Pen-Moel, Tidenham, Glos., England.

WARING, Hon. J. WATIES, United States District Judge; born July 27, 1880, Charleston, S. C.; son of Edward Perry and Anna T. (Waties) Waring; educated at College of Charleston (A.B. 1900); married Annie S. Gammell, Oct. 30, 1913; one daughter; married (2nd) Elizabeth Avery, June 15, 1945. Began as a practicing attorney; Member, firm of Waring & Brockinton, 1920-42; Assistant U. S. Attorney for the Eastern District of South Carolina, 1914-21; Corporation Counsel of the City of Charleston, 1933-42. U. S. District Judge for the Eastern District of South Carolina, since 1942. Residence: 61 Meeting St. Office: Post Office Box No. 835, Charleston (A), South Carolina.

WARING, Dr. JAMES J., American Physician; born Aug. 11, 1883, Savannah, Ga.; educated at Yale Univ.; Johns Hopkins Univ.; Colo. Univ.; married Ruth Porter, June 15, 1920; two daughters. Instructor in Medicine, Univ. of Colo., 1915; Asst. Prof., 1926; Prof. since 1933. Pres.: Natl. Tuberculosis Assn., 1935-36; Amer. Clinical and Climatological Assn., 1941. Trustee, Denver Univ.; Technical Adviser to Blood Bank, Amer. Red Cross, Denver, Colo.; Civilian Consultant to Surgeon-General. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Clinical and Climatological Assn.; Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Amer. College of Physicians; Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.; Amer. Trudeau Soc. Office: 4200 E. 9th Ave., Denver, Colo.

WARIS, Dr. HARRY ILMARI, Finnish Botanist; born May 5, 1893, Saarijärvi, Finland; son of Eliel Jonathan and Elina Amanda (Ignatius) Warén; educated at Univ. of Helsinki, phil.cand. (B.A.), 1916, phil.mag. (M.A.), 1919, phil.lic. 1922, Ph.D. 1923; Rockefeller Fellow in Prague, 1929-30; married Anna Martta Oesch, 1919; three children. Botanist, Finnish Peat Bog Assn., Helsinki, 1919-25; Acting Prof. of Botany, Univ. of Turku, 1925-27; Lecturer, Univ. of Helsinki, 1927; Prof. of Botany, Univ. of Turku, since 1927; Pro-Rector, 1941; Rector since 1945. Director, Botanical Inst. and the Botanical Garden of Univ. of Turku. Member: Finnish Acad. of Science; Zoological and Botanical Soc., Vanamo; Geographical Soc. of Finland; Agricultural Soc. of Finland; Zoological and Botanical Soc. of Turku (Chairman); Amer. Soc. of Plant Physiologists since 1938. Commander, Suomen Leijona, 1945. Author: Reinkulturen von Flechtengonidien, 1920; Unters. ueber sphagnumreiche Pflanzenengesellschaften der Moore Finnlands, 1926; Ueber die Rolle des Calciums im Leben der Zelle, 1933; Ueber den Antagonismus von Wasserstoffionen und Metallaktionen bei Micrasterias, 1939. Address: University of Turku, Turku, Finland.

WARNE, Dr. COLSTON ESTEY, American Economist; born Aug. 14, 1900, Romulus, N. Y.; son of Clinton Arlington and Harriet E. (Estey) Warne; educated at Cornell Univ., A.B. 1920, A.M. 1921; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1925; married Frances Lee Corbett, Oct. 27, 1920; three children. Clerk, Federal Reserve Bank of N. Y., 1919; Instructor at Cornell Univ., 1920-21; Assoc. Prof., Univ. of Denver, 1925-26; Asst. Prof., Univ. of Pittsburgh, 1926-30; Assoc. Prof. of Economics, Amherst College, 1930-42; Prof., since 1942. Pres., Consumers Union of U. S. since 1936; Director, Cooperative League of U. S., 1928-32; Chairman, Board of Editors, Yearbook of American Labor since 1944. Author: Consumers Cooperative Movement in Illinois, 1926. Joint Author: Labor Problems in America, 1940. Residence: 110 Blue Hills Road, Amherst, Mass. Office: 1 Union Sq., New York, N. Y.

WARNE, WILLIAM ELMO, American Government Official; born Sept. 2, 1905, Seafield, Ind.; son of William Rufus and Nettie Jane (Williams) Warne; educated at Univ. of California, A.B. 1927; married Edith Margaret Peterson, July 9, 1929; three children. Director of Information, Bureau of Reclamation, 1935; Asst. Chief, War Production Drive Headquarters, War Production Board, 1942. Asst. to Director, Div. of Power, Interior Dept., Nov. 1942; Director, Div. of Information, Interior Dept., 1943. Asst. Commissioner, Bureau of Reclamation, 1943; Asst. Secy., Dept. of Interior, since 1947. Pres., Group Health Assn., Inc., Washington, D. C. Residence: 805 Enderby Drive, Alexandria, Va. Office: Office of Asst. Secy., Dept. of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

WARNER, ALBERT, American Film Executive. Vice-President, Treasurer and Director, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.; President and Director, Vitagraph, Inc.; Vice President and Director, Stanley Co. of America; Treasurer and Director, Vitaphone Corp.; Director, Music Publishers Holding Corp. With brothers pioneered in production of early pictures, and later in production of talking pictures. Address: Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc., 321 W. 44th St., New York 18, N. Y.

WARNER, CHARLES, American Industrialist; born April 22, 1877, Wilmington, Del.; son of Alfred D. and Emalea (Psey) Warner; educated at Wilmington Friends School; Stevens Inst. of Technology; Drexel Inst. of Technology in Philadelphia; married Ethel Eden Bach, Jan. 4, 1900; three children. Identified with Charles Warner Co. (now Warner Co.) since 1899; Pres., 1915-47; Chairman of Board since 1916. Director: Atlas Powder Co.; North American Cement Corp.; Federal Home Loan Bank of Pittsburgh; Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade of Philadelphia. Trustee, Drexel Inst. of Technology. Residence: Darley Rd., R.F.D. 3, Wilmington, Del. Office: 219 N. Broad St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WARNER, CHRISTOPHER FREDERICK ASHTON, C.M.G., British Foreign Office Official; born Jan. 17, 1895, London, England; son of Frederick Ashton and Sydney Anne (Grove) Warner; educated at Winchester College, 1908-14; Magdalen College, Oxford, 1919-20. Capt., Royal Fusiliers, World War I, 1914-18; Third Secy., British Foreign Office, 1920-23; Second Secy., British Embassy at Constantinople, 1923-25; British Legation, Teheran, Persia, 1925-28; with Foreign Office, 1928-46, Head, Northern Dept., 1941-46; now Asst. Under Secy. of State. Created C.M.G., 1943. Address: Foreign Office, Whitehall, London, England.

WARNER, Hon. EARLE SPEAR, American Jurist; born Aug. 12, 1880, Phelps, N. Y.; son of Henry D. and Frances B. (Spear) Warner; educated at Hobart College, B.L., 1902; Cornell Univ., LL.B., 1905; married Selma L. Holbrook, Nov. 26, 1907. Village Attorney, Phelps, N. Y., 1909-45; Pres., Village of Phelps, 1916-17; Clerk, Bd. of Supervisors, Ontario County, N. Y., 1919-32; County Attorney, Ontario County, 1919-37; Director of War Savings for Ontario County, 1918-20; Special District Attorney, Ontario County, 1924; State Senator, 1933-45; Justice, Supreme Court, N. Y., by appointment of Gov. Dewey, 1945; Justice, Supreme Court, N. Y., since 1945. Director, Phelps National Bank, 1910-33; Pres., National Bank of Phelps, 1934-46; Vice-Pres. and Treasurer, Wright-Hubbards Industrial Electric Truck Co., 1941-45. Director: Ontario County Historical Soc., 1930-46; Phelps Soldiers & Sailors Memorial Corp., 1915-46; Director, The Granger Homestead Soc., Inc. President: Phelps Home Defense Corp., 1917-18; Phelps War Chest Assn., 1917-18. Member, Liberty Loan Com., 1917-18; Three Minute Men, 1918. Delegate, Natl. Convention, Progressive Party, Chicago, 1916; National Convention, Republican Party, Philadelphia, 1940. Pres., Ontario County Bar Assn., 1916-17. Sponsor, Anti-Fire-Works Bill; Rural-Electrification Bill; Rights of Way Bill. Member: Judicial Council, N.Y.S., 1944; Natl. Republican Club, N.Y.S.; Rotary International. Address: Phelps, New York.

WARNER, Dr. EDWARD (PEARSON), American Aeronautical Engineer; born in Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 9, 1894; son of Robert L. and Anne (Pearson) Warner; educated at Harvard, A.B. 1916; Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, B.S. 1917, M.S. 1919; D.Sc., Norwich University, 1938; married Joan Potter; two children. Aeronautical Engineer, U. S. Army; was at Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, 1917-18, and as Professor of Aeronautics, 1920-26. Chief Physicist, National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, at Langley Field, 1919-20. Assistant Secretary of Navy for Aeronautics, 1926-29; Editor of "Aviation," 1929-34. Vice-Chairman, Federal Aviation Commission, 1934-35. Consultant in private practice, 1935-38. Economic and Technical Adviser to Civil Aeronautics Authority, 1938-39; Member, Civil Aeronautics Board and Vice Chairman, 1939-45. Pres., Interim Council. Provisional Internatl. Civil Aviation Organization, 1945—. Wright Medalist of Soc. of Automotive Engineers, 1932; received medal of Aero Club de France for book on aerodynamics design, 1927. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Author: Aerostatics, 1926; Airplane Design—Aerodynamics, 1927; Airplane Design—Performance, 1936; Aviation Handbook (with Johnston), 1931. Residence: 1529 McGregor Ave. Office: 1212 Dominion Sq. Bldg., Montreal 2, Canada.

WARNER, JACK L., American Film Executive; born 1892. With brothers pioneered in production of early motion pictures and later in production of talking pictures; now Vice President and Executive Producer of Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc., in charge of West Coast studios. Produced Academy Award winners, "The Life of Emile Zola" and "Casablanca." Address: Warner Brothers, Burbank, Calif.

WARNER, JOHN A. C., American Automotive Engineer; born July 12, 1893, Putnam, Conn.; son of Edgar M. and Jane E. (Carpenter) Warner; educated at Worcester Polytechnic Institute, 1912-17; Ecole Supérieure d'Aeronautique et de Construction Mécanique, Paris, 1919; married Marion W. Andem, Mar. 25, 1920; two children. Lubrication Sales Engineer, Borne Scrymser Co., Boston, Mass., 1919; Executive Officer and Chief, Aeronautical Instrument Section, National Bureau of Standards. Foreign Representative on aeronautic matters for National Bureau of Standards in Britain, France, Germany, Switzerland and Italy, 1919-23. Research Manager, Society of Automotive Engineers, 1923-25; Manager, Meetings and Sections Dept. of Society of Automotive Engineers, 1925-26; Asst. Research Engineer, Studebaker Corp., South Bend, Ind., 1926-30. Secretary and General Manager, Society of Automotive Engineers, Inc., since 1930. Residence: 675 N. Terrace Ave., Mt. Vernon. Office: 29 W. 39th St., New York 18, N. Y.

WARNER, Dr. JOHN CHRISTIAN, American Chemist; born May 28, 1897, Goshen, Ind.; son of Elias and Addie (Plank) Warner; educated at Indiana Univ., A.B. 1919, A.M. 1920, Ph.D. 1923; Univ. of Michigan; married Louise Hamer, June 17, 1925; two sons. Research Chemist, Barrett Co., 1918; Cosden Co., 1920;

Instructor in Chemistry, Indiana Univ., 1921-24; Research Chemist, Wayne Chemicals Co., 1925-26; Instructor in Chemistry, Carnegie Inst. of Technology, 1926; Asst. Prof., 1928; Assoc. Prof. of Theoretical Chemistry, 1933; Assoc. Prof. of Metallurgy, 1936; Prof. and Head of Dept. of Chemistry, 1938; Dean of Graduate Studies, College of Engineering and Science, since 1946. On leave to Manhattan Project, Univ. of Chicago and Monsanto Chemical Co., World War II. Fellow, New York Acad. of Sciences. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc. (Councillor, 1937-40, 1942-47; Chairman, Pittsburgh Section, 1941); Pa. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers; Electrochemical Soc. (Director, 1942; Chairman, Pittsburgh Section, 1938; Publications Com., 1942-43; Weston Fellowship Com., 1943-45); Pittsburgh Chemists Club (Pres., 1941). Received Pittsburgh Award, Amer. Chemical Soc., 1945. Co-author: General Chemistry; General Chemistry Problems. Editor and co-author, Leighton's Chemistry of Engineering Materials, 4th ed. Address: Carnegie Institute of Technology, Schenley Park, Pittsburgh, Pa.

WARNER, Dr. LUCIEN (HYNES), American Psychologist and Opinion Analyst; born Sept. 9, 1900, Irvington, N. Y.; son of Franklin Humphrey and Estelle Dunn (Hynes) Warner; educated at Oberlin College, A.B. 1921; Peking Union Med. College, 1922-23; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1927; married Helen Wentworth French, June 27, 1922; (2nd) Nayan Harper, July 4, 1942; one son. Instr. in Literature, Yenching Univ. of Peking, China, 1922-23; engaged in psychological research, Columbia University, 1923-27; Instructor in Psychology, New York University, 1926-27; Fellow in Biological Sciences, National Research Council, 1928-30; Research Director of L'Oeil Qui Voit of Mont Pèlerin, Switzerland (now Seeing Eye, Inc., of Morristown, N. J.), 1932-34; Research Fellow at Duke University, 1935-37; Vice-President and Director of Research, Opinion Research Corp., Princeton, N. J., 1938-41; with Domestic and Overseas Branches, Office of War Information, 1942-44. Engaged in Market Research for Time and Life Magazines since Apr. 1944. Fellow of American Association for Advancement of Science and New York Academy of Science. Author or co-author of six volumes; also many monographs and technical articles. Residence: 33 Sutton Pl., South. Office: Time and Life Bldg., New York, N. Y.

WARNER, MILO JOSEPH, American Lawyer; born in Lime City, Ohio, Nov. 11, 1891; son of Smith and Mary Ellen (Brownsberger) Warner; educated at Ohio State University, A.B. 1913, LL.B. 1916; married Dorothy C. Bennett, June 1, 1917; three children. Commissioned 2nd Lieut. Regular Army Calvary, 1917, retired as Capt., 1919. Member, law firm of Doyle, Lewis & Warner, since 1919; appointed Special Asst. Atty. General of Ohio, 1942. Member: Toledo (President, 1935), Ohio and American Bar Assns.; American Legion (National Commander, 1940-41, in latter year was on mission to England), etc. Honorary Dominion President, the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League; Director, Boys' Club of Toledo. Author of various articles and pamphlets on national defense and Americanism. Residence: 3443 Darlington Rd. Office: 1631 Nicholas Bldg., Toledo, Ohio.

WARNER, RAWLEIGH, American Business Executive; born May 14, 1891, Chicago, Ill.; son of Samuel Rohrer Warner and Mary Raleigh Warner; educated at Lawrenceville (N. J.) School; graduate of Princeton Univ.; married Dorothy Haskins, Oct. 14, 1914; four children. Began with Central Trust Co. of Illinois, 1913; Vice-Pres., Treasurer and Dir. of the Central Sugar Co., 1915-17, and of Dawes Bros., Inc., 1919-39. Vice-Pres., Treasurer and Dir, Pure Oil Co., 1926-47; Chairman of Board, 1947—. Member of Board of Directors: City National Bank & Trust Co. of Chicago; National Illinois Securities Co.; The Chicago Daily News and Poor & Co. Trustee, Lawrenceville School and Northwestern Univ. Chmn., Sponsors Division of the 1939 Campaign of the Chicago Community Fund. During First World War served as 1st Lieut., United States Army. Residence: 1200 Hamptondale Rd., Winnetka. Office: 35 E. Wacker Dr., Chicago, Illinois.

WARNER, SYLVIA TOWNSEND, British Author; born 1893. Author: The Espalier, 1925; Lolly Willowes (or The Loving Huntsman), 1926; Mr. Fortune's Maggot, 1927; Time Importuned, 1928; The True Heart, 1929; A Moral Ending and Other Stories, 1931; Opus 7, 1931; Rainbow, 1932; The Salutation, 1932; Whether a Dove or Seagull (poems; with Valentine Ackland), 1933; Summer Will Show, 1936; After the Death of Don Juan, 1938; A Garland of Straw and Other Stories, 1943; Museum of Cheats, 1947, etc. Address: c/o Chatto & Windus, 40-42 William IV St., London, W.C. 2, England.

WARNER, Prof. WILLIAM LLOYD, American Anthropologist; born Oct. 26, 1898, Redlands, Calif.; son of William T. and Clara Belle Warner; educated at Univ. of California; Harvard Univ., A.B. 1925; married Mildred Hall, 1932; three children. Research Fellow, Rockefeller Foundation, 1926-27, and of Australian Natl. Research Council, 1927-29; Instructor and Asst. Prof. of Anthropology and Sociology, Harvard Univ., 1929-35; Assoc. Prof. and Prof., Univ. of Chicago, since 1935. Co-author: Social Life of a Modern Community; Status System of a Modern Community; Social Systems of American Ethnic Groups; Social System of the Modern Factory; Color and Human Nature; Who Shall Be Educated? Author: A Black Civilization. Address: University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

WARNHOLTZ, ERNESTO, Mexican Insurance Executive; born Dec. 4, 1906, Mexico City, Mexico; son of Enrique and Luisa (Widmann) Warnholtz; educated at German College, Mexico City and California; married May Isabel Retteg, Feb. 11, 1931; three children. Entered insurance field, 1922; Manager of Mexican Dept., V. Wankowski & Co., Inc., San Diego, Calif.; Asst. Manager, Mexico Office, Insurance Company of North America; Asst. Manager, La Azteca, Cia. Mex. de Seguros S.A.; General Manager and Vice-Pres., Union de Seguros S.A., Mexico City. Residence: Avenida San Angel No. 293, Villa Alvaro, Obregón, D. F., Mexico. Office: Unión de Seguros S.A., Marconi No. 2, Mexico City, Mexico.

WARNSHUIS, Rev. Dr. ABBE LIVINGSTON, American Church Official; born Nov. 22, 1877, Clymer, N. Y.; son of John William and Hendrika Johanna (Oonk) Warnshuis; educated at Hope College, A.B. 1897, A.M. 1900, D.D. 1916; New Brunswick Theological Seminary, 1900; married Anna De Vries, July 11, 1900. Ordained Minister, Reformed Church in America, 1900. Missionary, Amoy, China, 1900-15. National Evangelistic Secy., China Continuation Com., Shanghai, 1915-20. Secy., Internatl. Missionary Council, London, 1920-24, New York, 1925. Executive Vice Pres., Church World Service, Inc., 1948—. Vice Pres., General Synod, Reformed Church in America, 1909, 1934.

Author: Language Lessons in Amoy Vernacular, 1911; Partners in an Expanding Church (Joint Author), 1935. Editor: South Fukien Church News; The Christian Message for the World Today (1934); Talmage's Dictionary of Amoy Vernacular (revision). Joint Editor, Directory of Foreign Missions, 1933. Translator of various books. Address: Church World Service, Inc., 214 E. 21st St., New York, N. Y.

WARREN, ALTHEA HESTER, American Librarian; born Dec. 18, 1886, Waukegan, Ill.; daughter of Lansing and Emma Newhall (Blodgett) Warren; educated at Univ. of Chicago, Ph.B. 1908; Library School, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1911; Hon. Litt.D., Mills College, 1939. Branch Librarian, Chicago Public Library, 1911-12; Librarian for Employees, Sears Roebuck & Co., 1912-14. Reorganizer, San Diego Public Library, 1915-16; Librarian until 1925. First Asst. Librarian, Los Angeles Public Library, 1926-33; City Librarian since 1933. Pres., California Library Assn., 1920-21; Vice-Pres., Amer. Library Assn., 1942-43; Pres., 1943-44; Secy., California Assn. for Adult Education, 1940-41; Vice-Pres., Amer. Assn. for Adult Education, 1941. Author: Chapters in Current Issues in Library Administration (Univ. of Chicago Press), 1939; Departmental Organization of a Public Library by Subject; Administration of the Public Library of Medium Size. Address: 530 S. Hope St., Los Angeles 13, Calif.

WARREN, AVRA MILVIN, American Diplomat; born Aug. 26, 1893, Ilchester, Md.; son of Frederick and Mary Jane (Myers) Warren; educated at Johns Hopkins, A.B. 1915; married Mary Newman, April 7, 1924; two children. Engaged in forestry work, 1915-16; Second Lieutenant, United States Army, overseas, 1917-19. In diplomatic service since 1920; served at Cape Haitien, Karachi, Nairobi, St. John's (Newfoundland), Buenos Aires; Chief, Visa Division, 1938 and 1941; Foreign Service Inspector, 1939; Minister to Dominican Republic, 1942; Ambassador to Dominican Republic, 1943; Ambassador to Panama, 1944; Adviser, Pan Amer. Conf., Mexico City, 1945; Adviser, U.N.O. Conf., San Francisco, 1945. Director, Office of American Republic Affairs, 1945-46; Minister to New Zealand, 1946-47; Minister to Finland, since Dec. 1947. Address: American Legation, Helsinki, Finland.

WARREN, Dr. BERTRAM EUGENE, American Physicist; born June 28, 1902, Waltham, Mass.; son of Willard W. and Grace Adams Warren; educated at Mass. Inst. of Technology, S.B. 1924, S.M. 1925, Sc.D. 1929; married Elna Peterson, July 20, 1934; two sons. Instructor in Physics, Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1928; Prof., 1930; Assoc. Prof., 1933; Prof. since 1937. Member: Amer. Physical Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Amer. Soc. of X-Ray and Electron Diffraction (Ex-Pres.). Author of some 60 scientific papers on X-ray structure determination. Address: Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass.

WARREN, Dr. CHARLES HYDE, American Mineralogist; born Sept. 27, 1876, Watertown, Conn.; son of Charles A. and Frances (Hyde) Warren; educated at Yale, Ph.B. 1896, Ph.D. 1899; married Charlotte W. Lamson, June 17, 1903; three sons. Asst. and Instructor in Mineralogy at Yale, 1896-1900; Instructor at Mass. Inst. of Techology, 1900-04; Asst. Prof. until 1912. Prof. of Mineralogy and Dean of Sheffield Scientific School, 1922-45; now Emeritus. Master of Turnbull College since 1938. Fellow: Genealogical Soc. of America; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Member: American Philosophical Society; Sigma Xi, Publications: Manual of Determinative Mineralogy; numerous papers on mineralogy and petrology. Address: Litchfield, Connecticut.

WARREN, Dr. CONSTANCE, American Educator; born Nov. 5, 1880, Plymouth, N. H.; daughter of Henry Pitt and Annie L. (Lyman) Warren; educated at Vassar College, A.B. 1904; Columbia, M.A. 1905; N. Y. State College for Teachers, Albany, N. Y., Ped.D. (hon.) 1932; Russell Sage College, Ed.D. (hon.) 1939; Keuka College, Litt.D. (hon.), 1942; Alleghany College, LL.D. (hon.) 1945. Teacher of History: St. Timothy's, Maryland, 1907-09; Brearley School, New York City, 1909-15; Collegiate School, Louisville, Ky., 1915-17. Head of History Dept., Dana Hall and Pine Manor, Wellesley, Mass., 1917-20, 1921-28; Asst. Principal, Univ. School for Girls, Chicago, Ill., 1920-21; Pres., Pine Manor Junior College, Wellesley, Mass., 1928-29. Pres. (and Trustee), Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y., 1929-45; Pres. Emeritus, since 1945. Member: Natl. Inst. of Social Sciences; Progressive Education Assn.; Natl. Acad. of Political Sciences; Amer. Assn. of Univ. Women (Dir.), etc. Author: A New Design for Women's Education. etc. Residence: North Waterford, Maine.

WARREN, Hon. EARL, American Statesman; born March 19, 1891, Los Angeles, Calif.; son of Methias H. and Crystal (Hernland) Warren; educated at Univ. of California, B.L. 1912, J.D. 1914; married Nina E. Meyers, Oct. 14, 1925; six children. Admitted to Oakland Bar, 1914. Clerk, Judiciary Com., State Legislature, 1919; Deputy City Attorney of Oakland (Calif.), 1919-20; Deputy District Attorney of Alameda County, 1920-23; Chief Deputy District Attorney, 1923-25; District Attorney, 1925-39; Chairman, Board of Managers, State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, 1926-42. Research Assoc., Bureau of Public Administration, Univ. of California, 1932-39. Attorney General of California, 1939-42; elected Governor of California, Nov. 1942; reelected on both Republican and Democratic tickets, 1946. Nominated by acclamation as Republican Vice Presidential candidate, June 1948. Chairman, Advisory Board, Calif. Inst. of Police Officer Training; Pres., District Attorneys Assn. of Calif., 1931-32 (Secy., 1932-39); Ex-Member, Alameda County Planning Commission, Board of Trustees, Alameda County Employment Retirement Board, Republican State Chairman, 1934-36; Natl. Committeeman, 1936-38; Keynoter of Natl. Republican Convention, Chicago, 1944. Member: California and Alameda County Bar Assns.; Former Vice-Chmn., Com. on Adminstration of Justice, State Bar of California; Vice-Chmn., Section on Criminal Law, Amer. Bar Assn.; Elks; Phi Delta Phi; Sigma Phi; Masons (33°). Served in U. S. Army wtih Company I, 353rd Infantry, 1917-18; Captain, U. S. Infantry, Reserve Corps, 1919-35. Address: State Capitol, Sacramento, Calif.

WARREN, His Excellency FLETCHER, American Ambassador to Nicaragua; born Mar. 3, 1896, Wolfe City, Texas; son of M. A. and Mary Elizabeth (Wilson) Warren; educated at Univ. of Texas, A.B. 1921; married Wilhelmina Kuenstler, Nov. 24, 1921. Vice-Consul, Havana, Cuba, 1922; Consul, 1924-25. Assigned to Dept. of State, 1925-29; Consul, Barranquilla, Colombia, 1929-31; at Budapest, Hungary, 1931-34. Consul and 2nd Secy., Managua, Nicaragua, 1934-36; at Riga, Latvia, 1936-38; 1st Secy., Riga, Latvia, 1938; Executive Asst. to Asst. Secy. of State, 1938-42; Counselor of Embassy, Bogota, Colombia, 1942-43; Executive Asst. to Asst. Secy. of State, 1944-45; American Ambassador to Nicaragua, 1945. Member, American Foreign Service Assn. Address: Department of State, Washington 25, D. C.

WARREN, FULLER, American Lawyer; born 1905. Admitted to practice, 1924. Engaged in practice of law in Jacksonville, Fla.; Member of firm, Warren & Rothstein. Lost Democratic nomination for Governor of State of Florida, 1940; won Democratic nomination for Governor of Florida, in primary election, May 1948. Address: Smith Building, Jacksonville, Fla.

WARREN, Rev. Dr. GORDON CHESTER, Canadian Theologian and Educator; born Nov. 5, 1884, North River, P. E. Island; son of William and Eliza (Harper) Warren; educated at Acadia Univ., B.A. 1910; Newton Theological Seminary, B.D. 1912; Acadia Univ., D.D. 1927; married Sadie Dykeman, July 8, 1914; one daughter. Pastor: New Boston, N. H., 1911-13; Bridgetown, N. S., 1913-17; Brunswick St. Church, Frederickton, N. B., 1917-29. Editor, The Maritime Baptist, 1929-36; Prof. of Practical Theology, Acadia Univ., since 1936; Dean of School of Theology since 1942. Pres., Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board; Pres., Baptist Federation of Canada; Chairman, Board of Publications, United Baptist Convention of Maritime Provinces. Address: Acadia University, Wolfville, N. S., Canada.

WARREN, HARRY, American Song Writer, Composer; born Dec. 24, 1893, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Anthony and Rachel (Deluca) Warren; educated at public and high schools, Brooklyn, N. Y.; married Josephine Wensler, Dec. 19, 1917; one daughter. With M-G-M, Culver City. Wrote songs for more than fifty musical shows, including: Forty-Second Street; Gold Diggers of 1938; Wonder Bar; Gold Diggers of 1935; Footlight Parade; Down Argentine Way; A Night in Rio; Tin Pan Alley; Sun Valley; Springtime in the Rockies; Sweet Rosie O'Grady; Hello 'Frisco; Ziegfeld Follies; Weekend in Havana, etc. Song hits: Serenade in Blue; I Had the Craziest Dream; I've Got a Gal in Kalamazoo; There'll Never Be Another You; My Heart Tells Me; You'll Never Know; No Love, No Nothing; Chattanooga Choo Choo; Don't Give Up The Ship (adopted by U. S. Naval Academy); We're Shoving Right Off (adopted by U. S. Marines); On the Atchison, Topeka and the Santa Fe; Cheerful Little Earful; Would You Like to Take a Walk; Million Dollar Baby in the Five and Ten Cent Store; Ooh! That Kiss; You're My Everything, etc. Received three Motion Picture Academy Awards; National Federation of Music Clubs Awards. Residence: 1115 N. Beverly Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif.

WARREN, JAMES EWIN, American Utility Executive; born Dec. 3, 1878, Beech Grove, Tenn.; son of Andrew Johnson and Elizabeth Jane (Stephenson) Warren; educated at Univ. of Nashville, Tenn.; married Mary Elizabeth Houston, Oct. 10, 1905 (deceased); two children. With the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co., 1900; Traveling Auditor, 1902; Asst. Auditor, 1905; General Purchasing Agent, 1907; with Southern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co., since 1913, when started as General Supply Agent; Tenn. Supt. of Plant, 1918; Asst. Vice-Pres., 1919; Asst. to Pres., 1921; General Plant Manager, 1925; General Commercial Manager, 1928; elected Dir. and Vice-Pres. in Charge of Operations, 1930; Pres. in 1935; Chmn. of Board of Directors, 1943-44; now Member of Board. Director, First National Bank of Atlanta, Ga. Residence: 42 Brookhaven Drive. Office: 1740 Hurt Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

WARREN, LEONARD, American Singer; born April 21, 1911, New York, N. Y.; educated at Evander Childs H. S. and Columbia University; coached under Maestro Pais and Ricardo Picozzi in Italy; studied voice with Sidney Dietch; married Agatha Leifflen, Dec. 27, 1941. Made his debut at Metropolitan Opera, 1939, and Member of Company since. With San Francisco Opera, Chicago Opera, Teatro Colón (Buenos Aires), 1942-43, and Teatro Municipal, 1942-45. Sang on the radio and with various symphony orchestras. Made annual concert tours, and participated in various USO entertainment (overseas). Received National Assn. of American Composers and Conductors Award of Merit for outstanding service to American music. Address: Metropolitan Opera Co., Broadway and 39th St., New York, N. Y.

WARREN, Hon. LINDSAY CARTER, U. S. Comptroller-General; born 1899; educated at Bingham School, Asheville, N. C., and University of North Carolina; hon. LL.D., University of North Carolina, 1946. Admitted to North Carolina Bar and began practice in Washington, D. C., 1912; County Attorney, Beaufort County, N. C., 1912-15; Member of North Carolina Senate, 1917-19 (Acting President, 1919); Code Commissioner of North Carolina, 1919; Chairman, Special Legislative Committee on Workmen's Compensation Acts, 1920; Member, North Carolina House of Representatives, 1923; Member of Congress, 1925-40; Comptroller-General of the United States since 1940. Address: Comptroller-General's Office, 5th and F Sts., Washington, D. C.

WARREN, MINTON M., American Consulting Engineer; born Aug. 7, 1888, Salem, Mass.; son of Minton and Salome A. (Machado) Warren; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. (cum laude), 1910, M.C.E. 1912; married Sarah Ripley Robbins, Sept. 17, 1927; two children. Engineer for Hugh L. Cooper on dam across Mississippi River at Keokuk, Ia., 1910; with Stone & Webster as Supt. of water supply for San Antonio, Cuba, and electric supply, ten years. Served as Chief Engineer for Technicolor Motion Picture Corp.; started production of several industrial plants in New England and California; organized Aero Supply Co., New York City, 1925; went to England, 1928, and arranged for manufacture of De Haviland Moth plane in the U. S.; appointed Pres. of company in U. S. and was in charge of factory in Lowell, Mass. Vice-Pres., Manager and Director, Curtiss-Wright Airplane Corp.; Secy., Curtiss Wright Corp., Wright Aeronautical Corp., etc., until 1931. Consulting Engineer, New York City and Boston, since 1920. Director of Research for Van Alstyne, Noel & Co. since 1944. Pres. and Director, Aeronautical Securities, Inc., since 1938. Did original research work on water hammer; discovered formulae in hydraulics now largely adopted. Lieut., U. S. Army, 1917; Capt., 1918, with 26th Div. in France. Address: 52 Wall St., New York, N. Y.

WARREN, RALPH MELVILLE, Member of Canadian Parliament; born Mar. 4, 1882, Wilberforce Township, Renfrew Co., Ont., Canada; son of John N. and Catherine (Lett) Warren; educated at public school, Wilberforce; married (1st) Louise Naismith, Dec. 9, 1904; (2nd) Eva Marion Farnel, Dec. 14, 1944; three sons. Farmer, 1902; Manager of Farmers Co-operative, 1914-40; Reeve of Wilberforce, 1930-38; Member of Ontario Legislature, 1919-23; Member of Federal Parliament of Canada since 1937. Residence: Eganville, R.R. 1, Ont. Office: House of Commons, Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

WARREN, Prof. ROBERT BEACH, American Economist; born Mar. 15, 1891, Prattsburgh, N. Y.; son of Rev. George W. and Claire Seymour (Beach) Warren; educated at Hamilton College, A.B. 1912; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1916; married Mildred Fisk, Dec. 31, 1921. Teacher at Robert College, Constantinople, Turkey, 1912-15. Captain, Inf. Res., U. S. Army, 1917-19. Assoc. Editor, "American City", 1920-21. Economist, Division of Research and Statistics, Federal Reserve Board, Washington, D. C., 1922-26; Economist, Foreign Information Division, Federal Reserve Bank, New York, 1926-27. Economist and Vice-Pres., Pomery & Co., New York City, 1928-38. Prof., School of Economics and Politics, Inst. for Advanced Study, Princeton, N. J., since 1938. Consulting Expert, U. S. Treasury, 1942-45. Author: The Search for Financial Security. Co-author: The State in Society. Address: Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, N. J.

WARREN, Prof. ROBERT PENN, American Poet, Novelist, Educator; born April 24, 1905, Guthrie, Ky.; son of Robert Franklin and Anna Ruth (Penn) Warren; educated at Vanderbilt Univ., B.A., 1925; Univ. of California, M.A. 1927; Yale Univ., 1927-28; Oxford Univ., 1928-30, Litt. B.; married Emma Brescia, Sept. 12, 1930. Asst. Prof., Southwestern College, Memphis, Tenn., 1930-31; Acting Asst. Prof., Vanderbilt Univ., 1931-34; Asst. Prof., Louisiana State Univ., 1934-35; Assoc. Prof., 1935-42. Managing Editor of Southern Review, 1935-40; Editor, 1940-42. Prof. of English, Univ. of Minn., since 1942. Consultant in Poetry and in English, Library of Congress, 1944-45. Awards: Caroline Sinkler Prize (Poetry Soc. of South Carolina), 1936, 1937, 1938; Levinson Prize (Poetry: A Magazine of Verse), 1936; Houghton Mifflin Literary Fellowship, 1936; Guggenheim Fellowship, 1939-40, 1947-48; Shelley Memorial Award (shared), 1942; Pulitzer Prize for fiction, 1947. Author: John Brown: The Making of a Martyr, 1929; Thirty-six Poems, 1936; Approach to Literature (with Cleanth Brooks and Jack Purser), 1936; Understanding Poetry (with Cleanth Brooks), 1938; Night Rider, 1939; Eleven Poems on the Same Theme, 1942; Understanding Fiction (with Cleanth Brooks), 1942; At Heaven's Gate, 1943; Selected Poems, 1944; All the King's Men, 1946; Blackberry Winter, 1946; Coleridge's Ancient Mariner (ed. with critical study), 1946; The Circus in the Attic, 1948. Address: University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

WARREN, Dr. STAFFORD LEAK, American Radiologist; born June 19, 1896, Maxwell City, N. M.; son of Edwin S. and Clara A. (Leak) Warren; educated at Univ. of Calif., M.A., M.D. 1922, A.B. 1918; Student Fellow in Research Med., Hooper Foundation for Med. Research, 1919; married Viola Lockhart, May 24, 1920; three children. Asst. Prof. of Med., in charge of Radiology, Rochester Univ. School of Med. and Dentistry; Assoc. Prof., 1929-39; Prof. since 1939. Chief Radiol., Strong Memorial Hosp., since 1925. Trustee, Rochester Museum Assn.; Special Consultant, U. S. Public Health Service; Member, Med. Adv. Bd., N. Y. State Birth Control Federation. Treas., Amer. Neisserian Med. Assn., 1939-42. Author of numerous medical publications. Colonel, Medical Corps, A.U.S., 1943—. Med. Dir. of Manhattan Dist., Nov. 1943; Dir. of Radiological Safety, Bikini Bomb Tests, July, 1946. Dean of Medical School, Univ. of Calif., 1947—. Address: University of California, Los Angeles, Calif.

WARRINER, JESSE BOLLES, American Coal Producer; born Dec. 1, 1883, Montrose, Pa.; son of Rev. Edward A. and Esther (Bolles) Warriner; educated Penna. State College, B.S. Mining, 1905; married Louise Frederick, 1911; two sons. Began career in anthracite mines of Pennsylvania and was later Mine Official for several Bituminous Companies in State of Washington. Chief Engineer, 1913-19, for Lehigh Coal & Navigation Co., and Manager of Cranberry Creek Coal Co., 1919-21. General Manager of Lehigh Coal & Navigation Co., 1921-27; Vice-Pres. and General Manager, 1927-30. Pres. of Lehigh Navigation Coal Co., Inc., 1930-48. Director, Pennsylvania Power and Light Co.; Member of Anthracite Board of Conciliation. Residence: Lansford, Pa. Office: 123 S. Broad St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WARRINER, LEWIS LEGRAND, American Manufacturer; born August 30, 1898, New York City; son of Lewis Smith and Elida (Bell) Steen Warriner; educated at Pratt Inst. of Technology and Science, 1917; married Ruth Louise Thomas, March 23, 1918; two children. Production Man to General Manager of the Fairbanks Morse Co., Beloit, Wis., 1917-30; Vice-Pres. in Charge of Manufacturing and Engineering of The Master Electric Co., 1930-33; Manager of Research and Engineering, A. O. Smith Corp., Milwaukee, 1934-35; Pres. and General Manager of the Summitville Consolidated Mines, Denver, Colo., 1935-36; returned to The Master Electric Co. in 1936, and became Vice-Pres. and Gen. Manager; Pres. and General Manager since 1941. Director: The Master Electric Co.; Cooper-Bessemer Corp.; Winters Natl. Bank & Trust Co., Dayton, Ohio. Director of the Dayton Chamber of Commerce; Executive Member, Natl. Electrical Mfrs. Assn. During First World War served with Air Service, A.E.F., 1918-19. Residence: 2981 Ridge Ave. Office: 126 Davis Ave., Dayton, Ohio.

WARSHAWSKY, ABEL GEORGE, American Artist; born December 28, 1883, Sharon, Penna.; son of Ezekiel and Ida (Robinowitz) Warshawsky; educated at National Academy of Design; Art Students League of New York; with Louis Loeb, Winslow Homer; Julien Academy of Paris; married Ruth Tate, June, 1941. Exhibited first in National Academy of Design of New York, 1905. Represented in permanent collections: Luxembourg Museum of Paris; Petit Palais of Paris; Cleveland Museum of Art; Sweat Memorial of Portland, Me.; Toledo Art Museum; Los Angeles Museum; Legion of Honor Palace of San Francisco; Minneapolis Art Museum; Corcoran Galleries of Washington, etc. One-man shows in private galleries in New York, Paris, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Washington. Residence: P. O. Box No. 687, Monterey, Calif.

WARWICK, C(HARLES) LAURENCE, American Engineer; born July 29, 1889, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Charles F. and Emily N. (Meyers) Warwick; educated at University of Pennsylvania, B.S. in C.E. 1909; C.E. 1926; married Mary E. Orem, Jan. 25, 1915; three children. Instructor in Engineering, University of Pennsylvania, 1909; later Associate Professor until 1919. Technical Assistant, American Society for Testing Materials, Philadelphia, 1909-18; Assistant Secretary, 1918-19; Secy.-Treas. (now Executive Secy.) since 1919. Served on War Production Board, as Consultant on Specifications, 1941-44. Residence: 418 Woodlands Ave., Wayne, Pa. Office: 1916 Race St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WARWICK, WALTER CURRY. British Shipping Executive; born Nov. 9, 1877, West Hartlepool, Durham, England; son of Joseph John and Elizabeth Harriet (Walton) Warwick; married Margaret

Hannah Spoor, May 22, 1902; one son. Junior clerk with Furness Withy & Co. Ltd., 1898; acquired a controlling interest in Houlder Bros. & Co. Ltd., 1911; now Chmn. and Managing Director. Chmn. and Managing Director, Furness-Houlder Argentine Lines Ltd. Chmn.: A. & R. Brown Ltd.; Clutha Stevedoring Co. Ltd.; Bergl Australia (London) Ltd.; Clyde Rigging & Boiler Scaling Co. Ltd.; Hadley Shipping Co. Ltd.; Houlder Bros. & Co. (Brazil) Ltd.; Houlder Bros. & Co. (Glasgow) Ltd.; Immingham Agency Co. Ltd.; Marsey Insulation Co. Ltd.; Steel & Bennie Ltd.; South American Stevedoring & Lighterage Co. Ltd.; South American Export Syndicate Ltd.; Walmar Steamship Co. Ltd.; Aberdeen & Commonwealth Line Ltd.; British Anti-fouling Composition & Paint Co. Ltd.; British Empire Steam Navigation Co. Ltd.; Empire Transport Co. Ltd.; Houlder Line Ltd.; Planet Assurance Co. Ltd.; Royal Mail Lines Ltd.; Royal Mail Agencies (Brazil) Ltd.; Pacific Steam Navigation Co.; Shaw Savill & Albion Co. Ltd.; United Shipowners' Freight; Demurrage & Protective Assn.; Coolham Steamship Co. Ltd.; Kaye Son & Co. Ltd.; Kaye Son & Co. (Insurance) Ltd.; Kaye Transport Co. Ltd.; "K" Steamship Co. Ltd.; Samuel Hodge & Sons Ltd.; Houlder Estates Ltd. Director of many corporations. Residence: "Walmar," Beech Hill Park, Hadley Wood, Herts. Office: 53 Leadenhall St., London, E.C. 3, England.

WASASTJERNA, Dr. JARL AXEL, Finnish Physicist; born Nov. 18, 1896, Helsinki, Finland; son of Axel Edward and Agda Mathilde (Donner) Wasastjerna; educated at Univ. of Helsinki; Univ. College, London, M. of Science 1918, Dr. Phil. 1922; married Maria Hyden, Feb. 16, 1926; five children. Asst. at Lab. Physical Chemistry, Univ. of Helsinki; Lecturer (Physical Chemistry), Univ., 1922-25; Prof. of Applied Physics, 1926-40; Finnish Minister in Sweden, 1940-43; Prof. at Helsinki Univ., 1943-46; Chairman, Supervisory Board, Nordiska Foreningsbanken; Pres., Tammerfors Linne Concern. Pres., Finnish Soc. of Sciences; Hon. Member, Royal Inst. of Great Britain. Foreign Member: The Royal Swedish Soc. of Sciences, Uppsala; Royal Swedish Acad. of Sciences; Swedish Acad. of Engineering. Author of some 50 scientific papers (physics and physical chemistry). Address: University of Helsinki, Helsinki, Finland.

WASHBURN, Rt. Rev. BENJAMIN MARTIN, American Bishop; born June 1, 1881, Bethel, Vt.; son of Seth M. and Kate S. (Brooks) Washburn; educated at Dartmouth, A.B. 1907, D.D. 1929; General Theological Seminary, B.D. 1913, S.T.D. 1933; married Henrietta Tracy de Selding, Apr. 19, 1917; one son. Curate, Grace Chapel, New York, 1912-15; Vicar, 1915-18. Rector: St. Paul's Church, Kansas City, Mo., 1918-29; Emmanuel Church, Boston, Mass., 1929-32. Bishop Coadjutor of Newark, 1932-35; Bishop since 1935. Vice-President and Director, Church Pension Fund and Church Life Insurance Co. Trustee: Newark Museum; General Theological Seminary. Residence: 621 Berkeley Ave., Orange, N. J. Office: 24 Rector St., Newark, N. J.

WASHBURN, CADWALLADER, American Painter, Author; born 1866, Minneapolis, Minn.; son of William Drew and Elizabeth (Muzzy) Washburn; educated at Gallaudet College, B.A., Sc.D. (hon.); Mass. Inst. of Technology; Art Students League, New York; pupil of Albert Besnard (Paris), Joaquin Sorolla (Spain), William M. Chase, Siddon Mowbray; Bowdoin College, L.H.D.; married Margaret L. Cowles, Nov. 1943. First exhibited at Salon Champs Elysées, 1899. Works acquired by British, French and Dutch Govts. Represented in Victoria and Albert Museum, London; Musée du Luxembourg and Bibliothèque Nationale; France; Rykesmuseum, Amsterdam, Holland; Metropolitan Museum, New York; Library of Congress, etc. Trustee, International Museum of Zoology, Santa Barbara, Calif. War Correspondent, Chicago Daily News, 1904-06, and 1909-12 (Madero, Huerta Revolution). Author: Intelligence of Spider; Experiments with a Chrysalis. Awarded First Prize, Internatl. Arts Exposition; Gold Medal, Panama Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, 1914. Address: Livermore Falls, Me.

WASHBURN, Dr. HENRY BRADFORD, American Theologian; born Dec. 2, 1869, Worcester, Mass.; son of Charles F. and Mary Elizabeth (Whiton) Washburn; educated at Harvard, A.B. 1891, D.D. 1930; Episcopal Theological School, B.D. 1894, D.D. 1918; LL.D., Hobart College, 1923; Litt.D., Boston University, 1939; married Edith Buckingham Hall Colgate, May 20, 1908; three children. Assistant at St. John's Church, Providence, R. I., 1896-98; Rector, St. Mark's Church, Worcester, Mass., 1898-1908. Professor of Church History, Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Mass., 1908-20; Professor and Dean, 1920-40; Dean Emeritus since 1940. Secretary, Army and Navy Commission of the Episcopal Church; Vice-Chairman, Harvard University Board of Preachers. Author: Men of Conviction, 1930; The Religious Motive in Philanthropy, 1930; also numerous pamphlets. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Address: 1 Waterhouse St., Cambridge, Mass.

WASHBURN, LESTER, American Labor Leader; born May 28, 1906, Pellston, Mich.; son of William A. and Elizabeth (Newson) Washburn; educated at High School; married Nevah Canfield, June 4, 1926; three children. Recording Secy., United Auto Workers Federal Labor Union, Lansing, Mich., 1933-36; Vice-Pres., Local 182, Lansing, Mich., 1936-37; Pres., 1937-38; Regional Director and Internatl. Executive Board Member, United Automobile Workers of America, AFL, 1936; Internatl. Pres., since 1943. Labor Advisory Com. Member, War Production Board, World War II. Residence: R. 1, Nashotah, Wis. Office: 231 W. Wisconsin Ave., Rm. 1013, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

WASHBURN, STANLEY, American Writer; born 1878. Author: The Cable Game (adventures of an American pressboat in Turkish waters during Russian Revolution), 1912; Trails, Trappers and Tender-feet in the New Empire of Western Canada, 1912; Nogi, 1913; Two in the Wilderness, 1914; Field Notes from the Russian Front, 1915; The Russian Campaign (2nd vol. of field notes from Russian Front, April-Aug. 1915), 1915; The Russian Advance (3rd volume of field notes from Russian Front, June-Sept. 1916), 1917; How One Newspaper Served Its Public, 1927. Address: care of Authors League of America, 6 E. 39th St., New York, N. Y.

WASHINGTON, S(AMUEL) WALTER, American Foreign Officer; born Sept. 30, 1901, Charlestown, W. Va.; son of Samuel Walter and Elizabeth R. (Willis) Washington; educated at Virginia Military Inst. A.B. 1921; Oxford University, B.A. 1924, M.A. 1927; married Simone Fleisher, Sept. 29, 1933; two children. Instructor in Economics, Carnegie Institute of Technology, 1924-26; Vice-Consul in Buenos Aires, 1927-30; Secretary of Embassy at Rio de Janeiro, 1930-31; Chargé d'Affaires ad interim during revolution of 1930 in Brazil; Secretary of Embassy at Tokyo, 1931-34; Chargé d'Affaires ad interim, American Legation in Bogotá, 1934-35; Secretary, Embassy at Istanbul and Ankara, 1935; Secretary of the Legation and Consul at Riga, 1938-40; Secretary of Legation and Consul at Stockholm, Sweden, 1940-44; Foreign Service Secretary in Department of State; Chargé d'Affaires ad interim. Embassy in Costa Rica, 1944-45; Mexico City, 1945—. Residence: Charlestown, Jefferson County, W. Va. Office: Department of State, Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, Admiral THOMAS, American Naval Officer; born June 6, 1865, Goldsboro, N. C.; son of James Augustine and Virginia (Pope) Washintgon; educated at U. S. Naval Acad., M.A., B.S.; married Genevieve F. Clement, June 12, 1900; two sons. Naval Cadet, 1883; grad. 1887; Ensign, 1889; Lieut. (j.g.), 1897; Lieut., 1904; Lieut. Commander, 1908; Captain, 1912; Rear Admiral, 1918; Admiral, 1945. Served throughout Spanish-American War, 1898-1909; World War I with British Fleet; North Sea, Commanding Battleship Florida; Chief, Naval Personnel Navy Dept., 1919-23; Commander in Chief, Asiatic Fleet, 1923-25; Commandant, 12th Naval District, 1925-29; Governor, Naval Home, 1931-37; Hydrographer, Navy Dept., 1916-17. Now retired. Decorations: Spanish-American War; Distinguished Service; World War I; Military Order of Leopold of Belgium; Order of Bolivar of Venezuela. Address: 1725 Monterey Ave., Coronado, California.

WASON, ROBERT R., American Manufacturer; born May 1, 188, Ashtabula, Ohio; son of Samuel and Anna Ross (Wallace) Wason; educated at Harbor High School, Ashtabula, Ohio; married Hilda Bradford, Aug. 28, 1922. Longshoreman, 1905. Director of Merchandising and Vice-Pres., Proctor & Collier, Cincinnati, Ohio, 1920. Lecturer, Marketing and Merchandising Methods, Univ. of Cincinnati. Sales Manager, A. S Boyle Co., Cincinnati, 1922. With Proctor & Collier, 1925-28. General Manager, Clark Lighter Co., 1929-30. Pres., Director and Member of Exec. Com., Manning, Maxwell & Moore, Inc., New York, N. Y., since 1931; Pres., Director and Member of Exec. Com. of Zonite Corp., New York, 1935-38 (Dir. and Member of Exec. Com., since 1939). Member: Natl. Assn. of Mfrs. (Chmn. of Advisory Com. on Economic Policy, 1942-45; Chmn. of Reconversion Council, 1945; Pres., 1946; Chmn. of Bd., and Chmn. of Legislative Policy Com., 1947). Delegate to meeting of Internatl. Chamber of Commerce Council, Paris, 1946. Member: Natl. Famine Emergency Council, 1946; Natl. Campaign Advisory Com. of United Negro College Fund, 1946; Bd. of Governors of Natl. Conf. of Christians and Jews, 1946. Hon. Vice-Chmn., Laymen's Natl. Com., 1946. On invitation of Combined Chiefs of Staff, visited Berlin to study occupation economy of Germany, 1946. Residence: 1 Gracie Sq. Office: Manning, Maxwell & Moore, Inc., 405 Lexington Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

WASSELL, Rear Admiral CORYDON McALMONT, American Physician; born July 4, 1884; educated at Univ. of Arkansas, M.D. 1909. Awarded Navy Cross and a person citation from Pres. of the U. S. for his service in the U. S. Navy, 1942, when he brought 12 wounded men on a flight from the Dutch East Indies into the Indian Ocean on their journey to Australia and safety, while under constant attack from Jap planes; Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy, retired. Career immortalized in the motion picture "The Story of Doctor Wassell." Fellow of Amer. Med. Assn. Residence: 2005 Scott St., Little Rock, Ark.

WASSERMANN, Dr. FRIEDRICH, American Anatomist; born Aug. 13, 1884. Munich, Germany; son of Franz and Amalie (Fechheimer) Wassermann; educated at Univ. of Munich, M.D. 1910; married Margarete Schmidgall, M.D., Feb. 2, 1917; two children. Asst. in Anatomy, Univ. of Munich, 1910; Privatdozent of Anatomy, Univ. of Munich, 1913; Prof. of Anatomy, 1920; Prof. Extraordinarius, 1931; Chairman, Dept. of Histology and Embryology, Univ. of Munich; Assoc. Prof. of Anatomy, Univ. of Chicago, 1937, now Prof. of Anatomy. Pres., Soc. for Morphology and Physiology, Munich, 1928-30. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Internatl. Assn. for Dental Research; Amer. Assn. of Anatomists, etc. Author of numerous publications on histology and cytology. Served in Medical Corps, German Army, 1914-18. Residence: 6132 Kimbark Ave. Address: University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

WASSON, Rev. Dr. ALFRED WASHINGTON, American Clergyman; born May 7, 1880, near Fayetteville, Ark.; son of Alfred W. and Dora (Greathouse) Wasson; educated at Univ. of Arkansas, A.B. 1902, LL.D. 1926; Vanderbilt Univ., B.D. 1905; Union Theological Seminary of N. Y., S.T.M. 1921; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1931; married Mabel Sutton, Aug. 24, 1905; two children. Missionary to Korea, 1905-26. Principal, Anglo-Korean School, 1911-21; Pres. of Union Theological Seminary, Seoul, Korea, until 1926. Prof. of Missions and Comparative Religion, School of Religion of Southern Methodist Univ., 1926-34; Secy., Foreign Dept. of Board of Missions, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1934-40; Assoc. Secy., Board of Missions and Church Extension, The Methodist Church, since 1940. Trustee: Santiago (Chile) College; Ward College, Buenos Aires, Argentina. Delegate to Madras Conf. of Internatl. Missionary Council, 1938; participated in Uniting Conf. of Methodist Church, 1939. Chairman, Com. on Cooperation in Latin America; Vice-Chairman, Foreign Missions Conf. of North America. Author: Church Growth in Korea, 1934; The Invincible Advance, 1938; On the Frontiers of Kingdom, 1939; The Latin-American Circuit (co-author), 1942. Residence: 250 W. 24th St. Office: 150 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

WASSON, R. GORDON, American Banker; graduated from Columbia School of Journalism, 1920. Instructor at Columbia School of Journalism, 1920-21. Devoted several years to newspaper work. Joined staff of The Guaranty Company of New York, 1928; with J. P. Morgan Co., since 1934. Asst. Secy., 1940-43; Vice-Pres., since 1943. Address: 23 Wall St., New York, New York.

WASSON, Dr. WILLIAM WALTER, American Radiologist; born Aug. 19, 1884, Chrisman, Ill.; son of William A. and Mathilda (Layne) Wasson; educated at Univ. of Illinois, 1904-06; Univ. of Colo., A.B. 1908, M.D. 1910; married Katharine Crouch, Sept. 24, 1908; two children. Radiol., St. Anthony's Hosp., 1916—; Children's Hosp., 1917—; and St. Luke's Hosp., 1934—; Radiol., Swedish Natl. Sanitarium, 1918—; Consulting Radiol., Colo. General Hosp., 1924—; Natl. Jewish Hosp., 1918—; Member of Official Staff, St. Joseph's Hosp., 1921—; Member of Assoc. Staff, Mercy and Beth Israel Hosps., 1921. Dir. of Selmene Winter Foundation, 1922-27; Pres., Radiol. Soc. of North America, 1941-42. Member: Amer. College of Radiol. (Chancellor, 1923-31, 1943-44, Vice-Pres. 1932-33, Historian 1934-35); Amer. Med. Assn. (Com. of Awards 1929-30, 1930-31, 1936-37, Vice-Chairman of Section on Radiol. 1932-33); Colo. State Med. Soc.; Amer. Roentgen Ray Soc.; Denver Clinical and Pathol. Soc. (Pres. 1942-43). Awarded Gold Medal of Radiol. Soc. of No. America for outstanding work in chest diseases of children, 1926. Author of numerous contributions to medical literature. Residence: Golden, Colo. Office: 1612 Tremont Pl., Denver, Colo.

WASTENEYS, HARDOLPH, British Biochemist; born Apr. 6, 1881, Richmond, Eng.; son of William and Julia Marianne (Fardell) Wasteneys; educated at Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1916; married Clare Bothwell Miller, Nov. 3, 1913; four children. Asst. Government Chemist, Queensland, Australia, 1900-03; Chemist and Biologist, Board of Waterworks, Brisbane, Aust., 1903-09. Asst., Rockefeller Inst., 1910-13; Assoc. Prof. of Pharmacology, California Univ., 1916-18. Asst. Prof. of Biochemistry, Univ. of Toronto, 1918; Assoc. Prof. 1920-25; Prof. since 1925; Head of Dept. since 1929. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Canada (Pres., Section V, 1941; Secy., 1936); Canadian Physiological Soc.; Biochemical Soc. of Great Britain; London Chemical Soc. Chairman: Board of Directors, University Settlement, Toronto; Community Gardens Assn., Toronto. Contributor to scientific literature. Address: University of Toronto, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

WATERFIELD, Sir (ALEXANDER) PERCIVAL, British First Civil Service Commissioner; born May 16, 1888, Exeter, England; son of William and Matilda Rose (Herschel) Waterfield; educated at Christ Church, Oxford, 1907-11; Hertford Univ. Scholar and Craven Univ. Scholar, M.A.; married Doris May Siepmann, Oct. 16, 1920; four children. Began as Civil Servant in H.M. Treasury, Oct. 1911. Treasury Remembrancer in Ireland, 1920-22; Principal Assistant Secretary in H.M. Treasury, 1934-39. Member, Palestine Partition Commission, 1938-39; Deputy Secretary, Ministry of Information, 1939-40; First Civil Service Commissioner since 1939. Created C.B. 1923, K.B. 1944. Residence: Underdown, Tangier Rd., Guildford. Office: 6 Burlington Gardens, London, W.1, England.

WATERHOUSE, Dr. GEORGE BOOKER, American Metallurgical Engineer; born May 25, 1883, Sheffield, England; son of Joseph J. and Mary E. (Booker) Waterhouse; educated at Univ. of Sheffield, B. of Metallurgy, 1901; postgraduate work, 1901-03, Hon. Dr. of Metallurgy, 1936; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1907; married Germaine S. Souverain, June, 1938. Became American citizen, Dec. 1910. Metallographist, Metallurgist and Metallurgical and Inspecting Engineer, Lackawanna Steel Co., Buffalo, N. Y., 1905-22. Prof. of Metallurgy, Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, 1922-45; Prof. Emeritus since Nov. 1945. Associated with Office of Production Management, 1941; with War Production Board, Iron and Steel Division and with Office of Lend-Lease Administration, 1942; assigned to Foreign Economic Administration, 1943-45; Consulting Engineer and Metallurgist since 1945. Pres., Amer. Soc. for Metals, 1937-38. Member: Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers (Chairman of Iron and Steel Division, 1929; Director, 1933-39); Iron Alloys Com. of Engineering Foundation (Chairman and Director of Research since its Foundation, 1929-45); Amer. Iron and Steel Inst.; Iron and Steel Inst. of Great Britain; Inst. of Metals of Great Britain, etc. Author of numerous scientific papers and articles. Address: 222 Charles River Rd., Cambridge, Mass.

WATERHOUSE, Sir NICHOLAS EDWIN, British Accountant; born Aug. 24, 1877, London, England; son of Edwin Waterhouse; educated at Winchester and New College, Oxford; married Audrey Hale, daughter of Col. T. H. Lewin, 1903. In practice of accountancy, since 1899; Partner in Price, Waterhouse & Co., since 1906. Director, Cannock Chase Colliery Co. Ltd. Pres., Inst. of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales, 1928-29. Residence: 2 Swan Walk, Chelsea, S.W. Office: 3 Fredericks Place, Old Jewry, London, E.C. 1, England.

WATERMAN, Dr. ALAN T., American Physicist; born June 4, 1892, Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y.; son of Frank A. and Florence (Tower) Waterman; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B. 1913, M.A. 1914, Ph.D. 1916; married Mary Mallon, Aug. 29, 1917; five children. Instructor of Physics, Univ. of Cincinnati, 1916. Pvt. to 1st Lieut., U. S. Army, Signal Corps, Science and Research Div., 1917-19. Instructor of Physics, Yale Univ., 1919-21; Asst. Prof., 1921-30; Assoc. Prof. since 1931; on leave of absence since 1941. Member, Editorial Board, Amer. Journal of Science, 1934-42. Vice Chairman, Div. D, N.D.R.C., 1942-43. Deputy Chief, Office of Field Service, O.S.R.D., 1943-45; Chief of Office of Field Service, since 1945. Head, Scientific Branch, Planning Div., Office of Research and Inventions, Navy Dept., 1946; Deputy Chief and Chief Scientist, Office of Naval Research, since 1946. Residence: 4616 Sedgwick St., N.W. Office: Office of Naval Research, Navy Department, Washington 25, District of Columbia.

WATERMAN, Dr. LEROY, American Orientalist; born July 4, 1875, Pierpont, Ohio; son of Hadley A. and Louisa (Lombard) Waterman; educated at Hillsdale (Mich.) College, A.B. 1898; Hillsdale Divinity School, B.D. 1900; Oxford, 1900-02; University of Berlin, 1906-07; University of Chicago, Ph.D. 1912; married Mabel Walrath, 1906; one daughter. Prof. of Hebrew Language and Literature, Hillsdale College, 1902-10; Prof. of Old Testament and History of Religions, Meadville Theological Seminary, 1913-15. Prof. of Semitics and Chairman, Department of Oriental Languages, 1915-45, University of Michigan. Member of American Assn. for Advancement of Science; American Oriental Society (President, 1937); Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis (Pres., 1946); Royal Asiatic Soc.; Natl. Assn. of Biblical Instructors. Annual Prof. of American Schools of Oriental Research at Baghdad, 1927-28. Member, University and Research Club of University of Michigan. Author of Vol. XIV, Harper's Assyrian and Babylonian Letters; Royal Correspondence of the Assyrian Empire, Vol. XVII, XVIII, XIX, XX, Michigan Humanistic Series; translation (with others) of the Bible, an American Translation; first and second preliminary reports of Excavations at Tel Umar, Iraq, 1931-33. Preliminary Report of University of Michigan Excavation at Sepphoris, Palestine, 1937; Religion Faces the World Crisis, 1943. Residence: 1835 Vinewood Blvd. Office: University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

WATERMEYER, Rt. Hon. ERNEST FREDERICK, South African Chief Justice; born Oct. 12, 1880, Cape Province, South Africa; son of Christian Johannes and Caroline (de Graeff) Watermeyer; educated at Cambridge University, B.A. LL.B.; married Petromella Hester Wege, April 4, 1908; three children. Began career as a barrister, 1905. President of the Income Tax Court, 1920; Judge, Supreme Court, 1922. Made Judge of Appeal, 1937; Chief Justice of South Africa, since 1943. Created K. C. in 1921; Privy Councillor, 1943. Honorary degree of LL.D., Cape Town University, 1944. Author of a chapter on a Roman Dutch law in the Cambridge History of the British Empire. Residence:

Cranborne House, Wynberg, Cape Province. Office: Appeal Court, Bloemfontein, Orange Free State, South Africa.

WATERS, EDWARD NEIGHBOR, American Musicologist; born July 23, 1906, Leavenworth, Kans.; son of Charles A. and Emma L. (Neighbor) Waters; educated at University of Rochester (Eastman School of Music), B.Mus. 1927, M.Mus. 1928; married Carrie W. Baird, Nov. 29, 1928; two children. Began career as piano teacher and organist, 1922. Appointed Assistant in Music Division, Library of Congress, 1931; Assistant Chief of Division of Music since 1937. Program Annotator, National Symphony Orchestra, 1934-35 to 1942-43. Member: Music Library Assn., (President, 1942-46); American Musicological Society (Executive Board Member, 1940, 1944, Secy., 1947-48); Council of National Library Assn. (Vice-Chmn. 1943-45, Chairman, 1946-47); American Library Assn. Author: The Wa Wan Press; An Adventure in Musical Idealism, 1943; notes of M.L.A. and Boletín Latino Américano de Musica, etc. Residence: 3613 Greenway Dr., S.E., Anacostia Station, Washington, D. C. Address: Division of Music, Library of Congress, Washington 25, District of Columbia.

WATERSON, Hon. SIDNEY FRANK, South African Minister of Transport; born June 4, 1896, London; educated at Westminster School, England; married Hilda Markus, Apr. 16, 1924; two children. Went to So. Africa, 1897; served in World War I; Member of Parliament for South Peninsula Division, 1929-38; Minister to France, 1939; High Commissioner for Union of South Africa in London, 1939-43; Minister for Commerce and Industries, 1943-48, and of Mines, 1946-48; Minister of Transport, 1948—. Address: Ministry of Tranport, Pretoria, South Africa.

WATKIN, LAWRENCE EDWARD, American Writer; born 1901. Author: On Borrowed Time, 1937; Geese in the Forum, 1940; Gentleman from England, 1941; Marty Markham, 1942. Address: c/o Alfred A. Knopf, Inc., 501 Madison Ave., New York 22, New York.

WATKINS, Hon. ARTHUR VIVIAN, United States Senator; born Dec. 18, 1886, Midway, Utah; son of Arthur and Emily A. (Gerber) Watkins; educated at Brigham Young Univ., 1903-06; New York Univ., 1909-10; Columbia Univ., LL.B. 1912; married Andrea Rich, June 18, 1913; six children. Attorney, 1914; Asst. County Attorney for Salt Lake County, Utah, 1914-17; District Judge, 1928-33; Commissioner, Utah State Bar. Counsellor and Organizer for Provo River Water Users Assn., 1935-47. Publisher of Orem-Geneva Times and Utah Valley News; fruit farmer; rancher. United States Senator from Utah, 1947—. Residence: 1433 N. Inglewood St., Arlington, Va. Office: 348 Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WATKINS, ELTON, American Lawyer; born July 6, 1887, Newton, Miss.; son of M. M. and Virginia (Williams) Watkins; educated at Washington & Lee Univ., A.B.; Georgetown Univ., LL.B.; George Washington Law School, LL.M.; married Daniela Ruth Sturges, Nov. 26, 1918; two children. With F.B.I., Dept. of Justice, Washington, D. C., 1910-12, and 1917-18. Engaged in practice of law since 1912. Asst. U. S. Attorney of Oregon, 1919-20. Congressman from Third Oregon District, 1923-25. Nominated for U. S. Senate, 1930. Presidential Elector of Oregon, 1920-36 and 1944. Residence: 2686 S.W. Vista Ave. Office: Failing Bldg., Portland, Ore.

WATKINS, FRANKLIN CHENAULT, American Painter; born Dec. 30, 1894, New York, N. Y.; son of Franklin and Shirley (Chenault) Watkins; studied at Penna. Academy of Fine Arts under Cecilia Beaux, Hugh Breckenridge, Arthur Carles, Emil Carlsen and Daniel Garber; married Ida Quigley, 1942. Awarded William E. Cresson Memorial Traveling Scholarship, 1917-18; Second Toppan Prize, 1920; First Prize and Lehman Prize, Carnegie International Exhibition, 1931; Bronze Medal of the Paris Exposition, 1937; Bronze Medal of the Musée du Jeu de Paume, Paris, 1928; First Prize and Corcoran Gold Medal in 1939; Second Prize in the unrestricted division of the International Art Exhibit at the Golden Gate Exposition (1939); the Beck Gold Medal of the Pennsylvania Academy, 1941; Lippincott Prize, 1942; Temple Gold Medal, 1944, etc. Instructor in Painting, Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. Represented in many public and private collections. Member, Natl. Inst. of Arts and Letters. Address: Care of F. K. M. Rehn Gallery, 683 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

WATKINS, Dr. GORDON S., American Economist; born Mar. 9, 1889, Bryn Mawr, Wales; son of Benjamin and Mary Ann (Davis) Watkins; educated at Univ. of Montana, A.B. 1915, LL.D. 1940; Univ. of Illinois, A.M. 1915; Univ. of Pennsylvania, Ph.D. 1918; married Anna E. Davis, May 16, 1917. With Dept. of Economics, Univ. of Illinois, 1917-25; joined Faculty of Univ. of California at Los Angeles, 1925. Dean of Summer Session, 1930-36; Prof. of Economics and Dean of Letters and Science, 1936-46. Personnel Counsellor to Title Insurance and Trust Co., Los Angeles, 1926-29; Director of Los Angeles Stock Exchange Inst., 1929-33. Arbitrator to Los Angeles Harbor, 1934-36; Investigator and Mediator to Natl. War Labor Board since 1942. Member, Enemy Alien Board, U. S. Dept. of Justice, 1941-46. Member of Natl. Ry. Labor Panel, since 1943. Author: Labor Problems and Labor Administration, 1920; Labor Problems, 1922; Labor Management, 1938; Labor Problems (with Dr. Paul A. Dodd), 1940; Management of Labor Relations (with Dr. Dodd), 1938, etc. Address: Univ. of California, Los Angeles 24, Calif.

WATKINS, Hon. HARRY E., United States District Judge; born Watson, W. Va., Nov. 6, 1898; son of Jesse T. and Molly R. (Evans) Watkins; educated at West Virginia University, LL.B. 1923; married Margaret Lehman, Aug. 20, 1927; two daughters. Engaged in practice of law, 1923-37; U. S. District Judge for Northern and Southern Districts of West Virginia, since 1937. Vice-President, West Virginia Bar Assn., 1935-36. Residence: 219 Locust Ave. Address: Box 432, Fairmont, W. Va.

WATKINS, Hon. HENRY H., American Jurist; born June 24, 1866, Laurens County, S. C.; son of Henry H. and Hannah Elizabeth (Culbertson) Watkins; educated at Furman Univ. (Greenville, S. C.), A.M. 1883, LL.D. 1922; Univ. of Virginia, 1891; Erskine College, LL.D. 1932; married Maude W. Wakefield, Dec. 27, 1892. Admitted to Bar, 1892. U. S. District Judge for Western District of South Carolina, since July 1919 (now conditionally retired). Quartermaster on Staff of Governor D. C. Heyward. Trustee: Anderson Graded School; Anderson Public Library Assn.; Furman Univ.; Anderson College. Member, Amer. Bar Assn. Captain, Co. C, 1st S. C. Regiment (1st S. C. Volunteer Infantry), during World War I. Address: 708 Boulevard, Anderson, S. C.

WATKINS, Dr. LEONARD LYON, American Economist; born Yantley, Ala.,

July 30, 1896; son of James M. and Eula B. (Lyon) Watkins; educated at Univ. of Texas, B.A., M.A.; Univ. of Michigan, Ph.D.; married Nancy K. Smith, May 12, 1918; five children. 2nd Lieut., Infantry in World War I. Manager, Southern Territory for Johnson Sales Co., Pittsburgh, Pa., 1920-21. Instr. in Economics, Univ. of Texas, 1921-22; at Univ. of Michigan, 1922-24. Asst. Prof. at Cincinnati, 1924-26; at Michigan, 1926-29; Assoc. Prof., 1929-34; Prof. since 1934. Member: Amer. Economic Assn. (Editorial Bd., 1937-38, Economic Com., 1941-44); Royal Economic Soc. (won $2,500 in triennial competition of Chicago Trust Co.); Commercial Banking Reform in the U. S., 1938. Address: University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

WATSON, Hon. ALBERT LEISENRING, Judge, United States District Court; born Montrose, Pa., Dec. 6, 1876; son of Willoughby W. and Annie M. (Kemerrer) Watson; educated at Amherst College, A.B. 1901; studied in law office; married Mabel E. Wheeler, Jan. 9, 1902 (deceased); married Effie Bradshaw Woodville, Oct. 6, 1930; two sons. Began practice of law, 1902. Served on the Commission on Investigation of Recording of Deeds, Mortgages, etc., 1917; Counsel to Workmen's Compensation Board, 1923. Elected Judge of Common Pleas Court, 1926; Judge of U. S. District Court, Middle District of Pennsylvania, since 1929. Residence: Summit Lake Rd., Clarks Summit, Pa. Office: P. O. Bldg., Scranton, Pa.

WATSON, Sir ALFRED HENRY, Kt., British Editor; born Aug. 2, 1874, Newcastle-on-Tyne; son of Aaron and Phoebe (Gibling) Watson; educated at Rutherford College, Newcastle; married Rose Ada Gros, 1940. With Press Gallery of Parliament, 1893; London Editor, Newcastle Leader, 1895; News Editor, Westminster Gazette, 1903; Manager, 1908; Managing Editor, 1922; Editor, Statesman (Calcutta), 1925-33; Times Correspondent in India. Contributor to Daily Telegraph, Sunday Times, etc. Editor, Great Britain and the East, 1940-42; Director, since 1942. Author: Political Advance in India, 1940; If Britain Quit India, 1944, etc. Fellow, Institute of Journalists. Address: 29, Malvern Court, London, S.W. 7, England.

WATSON, ARTHUR ERNEST, British Editor; born February 29, 1880, Newcastle-on-Tyne, England; son of Aaron and Phebe (Gibling) Watson; educated at Rutherford College, Newcastle-on-Tyne; Dulwich College; Armstrong College, Newcastle-on-Tyne; married Mary Elizabeth (Lily) Waugh, Apr. 2, 1904. Reporter, Newcastle Daily Leader, 1898; on the Parliamentary staff of Daily Telegraph, 1902; Sub-Editor, 1906; Night Editor, 1922; Asst. Editor, 1923; Editor since 1924. Honorary Treasurer, Institute of Journalists, 1923-28. During First World War served with the Royal Field Artillery in France; Major, 1918. Address: 135 Fleet St., London, E.C. 4, England.

WATSON, BENJAMIN PHILIP, American Surgeon; born Jan. 4, 1880, Anstruther, Scotland; son of David and Elizabeth (Philip) Watson; educated at Univ. of St. Andrews; Univ. of Edinburgh, M.D. 1905; married Angele Hamendt, 1917; two children. Prof. of Obstet. and Gynecol., Toronto Univ., 1912-22; Prof. of Midwifery and Diseases of Women, Univ. of Edinburgh, 1922-26; Prof. of Obstet. and Gynecol. at Columbia Univ. since 1926; Dir. of Sloane Hosp. for Women. Fellow and Past Pres. of Amer. Gynecol. Soc. and N. Y. Obstet. Soc. Author of many articles on Gynecological Diagnosis and Pathology. Capt., Canadian Army Med. Corps, 1914-18. Residence: 50 E. 77th St., New York, N. Y. Office: 180 Fort Washington Ave., New York, N. Y.

WATSON, Dr. CHARLES HOYT, American College President; born Dec. 12, 1888, Eudora, Kans.; son of Isaac Newton and Elizabeth Anne (Hagedorn) Watson; educated at Univ. of Kansas, A.B. 1918, M.A. 1923; grad. work at Univ. of Chicago, 1919; Univ. of Washington, 1923-26; Whitworth College, LL.D. (hon.) 1941; married Elsie Cora Waters, June 15, 1910; four children. High School Teacher, Orleans (Nebr.) Seminary, 1910-11, 1912-14; Science Teacher and Vice-Principal, Central Academy and College, McPherson, Kans., 1914-16; Asst. Prof., School of Education, Univ. of Kansas, 1918-23. Head of Science Dept., Seattle Pacific College, 1923-25; Assoc. in Education, Univ. of Washington, 1925-26; Seattle Pacific College, 1926—. Author: The Employer, the Wage Earner, and the Law of Love, 1917; Fishing for Men, 1946; Scripture Pocket-Kit for Christian Workers, Nos. I and II (miniature booklets), 1946. Residence: 3227 Third Ave., W. Office: Seattle Pacific College, Seattle 99, Washington.

WATSON, Dr. CHARLES ROGER, American University President; born July 17, 1873, Cairo, Egypt; son of Andrew and Margaret (McVickar) Watson; educated at Princeton University, A.B. 1894, A.M. 1896, D.D. 1931; Princeton Theological Seminary, 1895-96, graduate in 1899; Allegheny Theological Seminary, 1897-98; married Maria E. Powell, Nov. 20, 1902; four children. Taught at Ohio State University, 1894-95; Princeton University, 1895-96; Lawrenceville School, 1896-97. In charge of Mission Church, Allegheny, 1899-1900; ordained to U.P. Ministry, 1900. Pastor, First Church, St. Louis, 1900-02; Corresponding Secretary, Board of Foreign Missions, U.P. Church of North America, 1902-15; Honorary Corresponding Secretary, 1916-22. Secretary and President-elect, American University of Cairo, 1915-22; Pres., 1922-46; Pres. Emeritus, 1946—. Author of several books and numerous magazine articles. Residence: American University at Cairo, Egypt. Office: 801 Land Title Bldg., Philadelphia 10, Pa. Died Jan. 11, 1948.

WATSON, CLAUDE A., American Attorney; born June 26, 1885, Wexford County, Mich.; son of Joseph A. and Emma J. (Dove) Watson; educated at Alma College; LaSalle Extension Univ., LL.B.; Blackstone College, J.D.; Greenville College, LL.D.; married Maude L. Hagar, Dec. 27, 1911; three children. Attorney and an Ordained Minister of Free Methodist Church. Executive Secy. of Board of Conf. Claimants; Secy. of Executive Commn.; General Counsel, Counsel of Industrial Relations and Conference Supt. for Southern California. Pres., California Drys, Inc.; Treas., World's Christian Fundamentals Assn. Vice-Pres. nominee, Prohibition Party, 1936; Pres. nominee, 1944. Author: Digest of Free Methodist Law, 1938; A Lawyer's Faith, 1941; Traitors to America, 1944; Fifth Columnist in America, 1945; Repeal Has Succeeded, 1946. Address: 5603 N. Figueroa St., Los Angeles, Calif.

WATSON, Prof. DAVID MEREDITH SEARES, British Zoologist; born 1886; educated at Manchester Univ.; married Katherine Parker; two daughters. Lecturer in Vertebrate Palaeontology, University College, Univ. of London, 1912-21; now Jodrell Prof. of Zoology and Comparative Anatomy. Member, Agricultural Research Council, 1931-42. Lieut., R.N.V.R., 1916-18. Fellow, Royal Soc. (Vice-Pres., 1938-39; awarded Darwin Medal, 1942). Croonian Lecturer, Royal Soc., 1924; Romanes Lecturer, Oxford, 1928; Silliman Lecturer, Yale Univ., 1937. Address: University College, University of London, London, England.

WATSON, DENEEN A., American Lawyer; born Mar. 13, 1904, Elizabethtown, Ill.; son of James A. and Cora (Flannery) Watson; educated at Southern Illinois Normal Univ., 1922; Univ. of Illinois, A.B. 1924; Univ. of Illinois Law School, LL.B. 1927; married Louise Brookings, June 20, 1929; three children. Chief, Illinois Securities Dept., 1929-33; Secy., Natl. Assn. of Securities Commnrs., 1932-33. In private practice of law, Chicago, since 1933. Chairman, Taxation Section of Illinois State Bar Assn., 1936-43. Counsel, Speaker of Illinois House of Representatives, 1939; Chairman, Governor's Advisory Com. on Taxation, 1941. Republican Candidate for U. S. Senate, 1944. Natl. Chairman of Republican Postwar Policy Assn. Member: Amer., Illinois State and Chicago Bar Assns., etc. Address: 134 S. LaSalle St., Chicago, Ill.

WATSON, ELLIOT LOVEGOOD GRANT, British Author; born June 14, 1885, Staines, Middlesex, England; son of Reginald Grant and Lucy (Fuller) Watson; educated at Trinity College, Cambridge, 1906; married Katharine Hannay, 1919; two daughters. Began as biologist; on scientific expedition to North West Aust., 1910. Author: (novels) Where Bonds Are Loosed; Desert Horizon; The Contracting Circle; Moonlight in Ur; The Nun and the Bandit; Lost Man; Priest Island, etc.; (essays) English Country; Enigmas of Natural History; More Enigmas; Man and His Universe; Walking With Fancy; The Leaves Return; Arrivals and Departures; But to What Purpose. Served in British Army, 1915-18. Address: West Melville, Northern Devon, England.

WATSON, Dr. GEORGE NEVILLE, British Mathematician; born Jan. 31, 1886; educated at St. Paul's School; Trinity College, Cambridge; Sc.D. (Cambridge); D.Sc. (London); M.Sc. (Birmingham); hon. LL.D. (Edinburgh). Fellow, Trinity College, 1910-16; Asst. Prof. of Pure Mathematics, University College, London, 1915-18; Prof. of Mathematics, Univ. of Birmingham, since 1918. Fellow: Royal Soc.; Royal Astronomical Soc. Address: The University, Birmingham, England.

WATSON, Dr. GOODWIN (BARBOUR), American Educator; born July 9, 1899, Whitewater, Wis.; son of Walter S. and Ellen Daisy (Goodwin) Watson; educated at State Teachers College, Whitewater, Wis., 1916; Univ. of Wisconsin, A.B. 1920; Teachers College, Columbia Univ., M.A. 1923, Ph.D. 1925; Union Theological Seminary and Univs. of Berlin and Vienna; married Gladys M. Hipple, June 14, 1923 (divorced 1946); three children. Principal, Union School of Religion, 1923-25; successively Instructor, Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof. and Prof. at Teachers College, Columbia Univ., since 1925. Director of Research, Natl. Council Y.M.C.A., 1925-31. Chief Analyst, Foreign Broadcast Intelligence Service, Federal Communications Commn., Washington, D. C., 1941-44. Director, Consumers Union, 1937-41; Assoc. Director, Bureau of Applied Social Research, New York, 1943-45; Hamilton School, since 1934; World Study Tours, since 1941. Member: Natl. Education Assn.; Progressive Education Assn.; Amer. Psychological Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Applied Psychology; Amer. Orthopsychiatric Assn.; Soc. for Psychological Study of Social Issues (Pres. 1938); Amer. Sociological Soc., etc. Author: Education and Social Welfare in Mexico; How Good Are Our Colleges; Human Resources; Civilian Morale (editor); Case Studies for Teachers of Religion; Experimentation and Measurement in Religious Education; Reconstructing Teacher Education, etc. Address: Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

WATSON, JAMES MURRAY, British Editor; born 1888, Kirkcudbright, Scotland; son of Robert and Isobel (Robson) Watson; educated at Edinburgh Univ., first class honours, English; married Eleanor Foxley, 1935. Barrister-at-law, Lincoln's Inn, London, 1915; Editorial Asst., Weekly Scotsman, 1912; Asst. Editor, Evening Dispatch, 1912-16. Asst. Editor, The Scotsman; Deputy Editor, 1924-44; Editor since Aug. 1944. Member: Inst. of Journalists; Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs. Residence: 1 Polwarth Grove. Office: North Bridge, Edinburgh, Scotland.

WATSON, Dr. JOHN B(ROADUS), American Psychologist, Writer; born 1878. Author: Animal Education (an experimental study on the psychical development of the white rat), 1903; The Behavior of Noddy and Sooty Terns, 1908; Homing and Related Activities in Birds, 1915; Psychology from the Standpoint of a Behavorist, 1919, 2nd ed., 1924, 3rd ed., revised 1929; Behavorism, 1925; The Myth of the Unconscious, 1927; Psychological Care of Infant and Child, 1928; The Battle of Behaviorism: An Exposition and An Exposure (with William McDougall), 1928. Former Editor of The Psychological Review. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences.

WATSON, JOHN CLINTON, American Jurist; born Jan. 28, 1878, Alma, Mich.; son of William Oliver and Ella Fidelia (Chapin) Watson; educated at Alma College (Michigan), 1891-95; University of Michigan (1896-98, Ph.B.); University of Michigan Law School (1899-1900); Columbian (now George Washington) Law School (1904); married Doris Van Doren, Aug. 17, 1902; two children. Secretary to Congressman A. B. Darragh, 1901; Registrar of Deeds, Gratiot County, Mich., 1905-08. Justice, Supreme Court of New Mexico, 1925-34; Chief Justice, 1933-34. now member, law firm of Watson & Watson. Residence: 503 Sunset Ave. Office: Sena Plaza, Santa Fe, N. M.

WATSON, Sir MALCOLM, British Physician; born Aug. 24, 1873, Cathcart, Scotland; son of George and Mary (McFarlane) Watson; educated at Univ. of Glasgow, M.D., Hon. LL.D. and Hon. F.R.F.P.S. (Glasgow) and University College, London; Cambridge Univ., D.P.H.; studied geology at Imperial College of Science, London; married (1st) Jean Alice Gray, 1900; (2nd) Constance E. Loring, 1938; four children. Medical Officer in Federated Malay States Medical Service, 1900-08; practiced privately in Malaya and was Consultant Physician in India and Dutch East Indies in prevention of malaria, 1908-28. Director of Ross Inst., Putney, London, 1928-32. Director of The Ross Inst. of Tropical Medicine, London School of Hygiene at London Univ., 1934-42. Hon. Consultant at Ross Inst. Member of Malaria Advisory Board, F.M.S., 1911-28; Hon. Adviser, Malaria Prevention in Singapore, 1911-28. Member: British Medical Assn. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene; Geological Soc. of London. Received Gold Medal in 1914 from Rubber Growers Assn.; became a Knight Bachelor, 1924; Hon. Diploma from College of Medicine, Singapore, 1926; 1927 Stewart Prize of British Medical Assn.; 1928 Sir Wm. Jones Gold Medal; 1934 Mary Kingsley Med, and Albert Medal in 1939. Author: Prevention of Malaria, 1921; Rural Sanitation in the Tropics, 1915; also various articles. Served in Malay State Volunteer Rifles, 1904-28. Address: Crossways, Binfield, Berks., England.

WATSON, PAUL BARRON, American Lawyer, Author; born Morristown, N. J.; March 25, 1861; son of Dr. Barron C. and Julia W. (Willis) Watson; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1881; married Katharine H. Clarke, June 4, 1890; three sons. Engaged in practice of law since 1885. Trustee, Estate of Arioch Wentworth; Director and Treasurer, Wentworth Institute. Author: Bibliography of Precolumbian Discoveries of America, 1881; Marcus Aurelius Antoninus, 1884; The Swedish Revolution under Gustav Vasa, 1889; Tales of Normandie, 1930; Some Women of France, 1936; Our Dollar, 1940; Our National Debt, 1940; Commodore James Barron, 1942; Our Constitution, 1946. Residence: 79 Marlborough St. Office: 50 State St., Boston, Mass.

WATSON, ROBERT, American Lawyer; born in Lowell, Mass., Jan. 31, 1886; son of George B. and Delia (Reynolds) Watson; educated at Lowell Textile School; Georgetown Univ.; married Dorothy L. Eliot, Sept. 20, 1916. Chief Clerk, Dept. of Labor, 1913-17; Asst. Director, U. S. Employment Service, 1918. Asst. to Secy. of Labor, 1918-20; Director and Pres. of U. S. Housing Corp., 1920-27. In private practice of law since 1928. Address: Tower Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WATSON, ROBERT, Author; born May 28, 1888, Glasgow, Scotland; son of James and Hester (Taylor) Watson; educated at Pollok and Shawlands Acads.; Technical College of Glasgow, Scotland; married Anne McNaught, May 11, 1911; three children. Editor, The Beaver and Coy's Canadian Historian, 1922-33; Assoc. Editor, The Hollywood Spectator, one year. Journalist for British and Canadian papers, Screen Playwright, and Scottish and Canadian Technical Director. Author: My Brave and Gallant Gentlemen; The Girl of O.K. Valley; Stronger Than His Sea; Gordon of the Lost Lagoon; Me and Peter; When Christmas Came; High Hazard; Lower Fort Garry; Famous Forts of Manitoba; Indians of Manitoba; The Hudson's Bay Company; The Mad Minstrel; Canada's Fur Beavers; Dreams of Fort Garry; Screen Play—Stop, Look and Love; Tuggoat Princess; Stampede, and Secret Patrol. Fellow, Royal Geographical Soc., London. Ex-Pres., United Scottish Socs. of Manitoba, Canada. Member: Screen Writers Guild, Hollywood; Foreign Press Assn., Hollywood; Canadian Authors Assn. (Natl. Treas. and Ex-Vice-Pres.); Writers Club of Hollywood. Address: 663 Anita St., Laguna Beach, Calif.

WATSON, ROBERT BLAKE, American Educator; received A.B. degree. Associate Dean of Harvard College, Member of Faculty of Arts and Sciences and Member of Bd. of Freshman Advisers. Served as Lieut. Commander, U. S. Navy, World War II; Exec. Officer of U.S.S. Leary when torpedoed and sunk. Dec. 1943. Awarded Navy Cross for heroism during five-hour struggle of crew in icy waters. Residence: 741 Concord Ave., Belmont. Office: Harvard College, Cambridge, Mass.

WATSON, Dr. SHEPPARD ARTHUR, American University President; born Nov. 6, 1894, Oskaloosa, Iowa; son of Barclay S. and Ada (Ransome) Watson; educated at Friends Univ., A.B., 1918; Kansas State College, B.S. in Agric. 1920, and M.S., 1923; Ohio State Univ., Ph.D., 1927; married Florence Potter, June 6, 1918. Prof. of Biology at Wilmington (Ohio) College, 1920-28; at Whittier College (Calif.), 1928-40; Dean, 1937-40. Pres., Wilmington (Ohio) College, 1940-47; Pres., Friends Univ., 1947—. Minister, Soc. of Friends (Quakers). Author: Miridoe of Ohio; Trees of Whittier (with Spencer); By Grayback Trails (with others); Applied Biology (with others). Address: 1730 University Ave., Wichita, Kansas.

WATSON, THOMAS JOHN, American Industrialist; born 1874, Campbell, N. Y.; educated at Addison (N. Y.) Acad.; Elmira (N. Y.) School of Commerce; received hon. LL.D., D.Eng., D.Sc., D. C.Sc., Litt.D. and Dr. Bus. Admin.; married Jeannette M. Kittredge, April 17, 1913; four children. Connected with National Cash Register for 15 years, as Branch Manager, Special Representative and General Sales Manager. Pres., International Business Machines Corp., 1914 —. Trustee: American Scandinavian Foundation (Life Trustee); Binghamton (N. Y.) Museum of Fine Arts; Carnegie Endowment for International Peace; Council for Inter-American Cooperation; Grand Central Art Galleries; Religious Education Foundation. Director: Amer. Arbitration Assn.; Amer. Assn. for the United Nations; Carnegie Endowment in Europe, Inc.; City and Suburban Homes Co.; Commerce and Industry Assn. of New York, Inc. (Ex-Pres.); Federation of Protestant Welfare Agencies (also Vice Pres.); France-America Soc.; Guaranty Trust Co.; Metropolitan Opera Assn., Inc.; National Foreign Trade Council; Niagara Fire Ins. Co.; Norwegian-Amer. Chamber of Commerce; Swedish Chamber of Commerce in the U. S. A.; United Service Organizations. Member: Advisory Bd., Salvation Army; Finance Com., Com. for Economic Development; Executive Com., Globe-Mermaid Assn. of England and America; (Charter Member) Peruvian-American Assn.; Executive Com., Advisory Council, Girl Scout Federation of Greater New York; Canadian-Amer. Commercial Arbitration Policy Assn.; Soc. for the Advancement of Education, Inc. Internatl. Commissioner, Boy Scouts of America. National Sponsor, Y.W.C.A., Round-the-World Reconstruction Fund. Councillor, National Industrial Conf. Bd. Hon. Chairman, Far East-America Council of Commerce and Industry. Chairman, Inter-American Commercial Arbitration Commission. Hon. Vice Pres., Pan Amer. Soc. Vice President: Acad. of Political Science; Citizen's Com. for Reciprocal World Trade; Metropolitan Museum of Art; Natl. Inst. of Social Sciences (also Member of Executive Com.); Roosevelt Hospital. Hon. President: Internatl. Chamber of Commerce (President, 1937-38); Netherland-America Foundation (also Director); Ecuadorean-American Chamber of Commerce. Vice Pres., Bd. of Trustees, Lafayette College. Trustee, Columbia Univ. Advisory Board Member, Bryant College. Awards: Medal for Merit, United States War Dept., 1947; Gold Medal, National Inst. of Social Sciences, 1947; Pan American Society's gold insignia for distinguished service in the cause of Pan Americanism, 1947; Russell Colgate Distinguished Service Citation awarded by Internatl. Council of Religious Education, 1947; Kansas City Art Inst. Medal, 1941. Decorations: Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, British Empire, China, Colombia, Cuba, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Finland, France, Greece, Haiti, Hungary, Indo-China, Italy, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, Norway, Paraguay, Peru, Portugal, Sweden, Venezuela, Yugoslavia. Residence: 4 East 75th St., New York, N. Y.; New Canaan, Conn. Office: 590 Madison Ave., New York 22, N. Y.

WATSON, WARREN NEAL, American Chemist; born Apr. 4, 1889, Auburn, Minn.; son of F. O. and Florence (Neal) Watson; educated at Bates College, B.S.; Harvard Univ., A.M.; married Ruth Thomas, 1922; two children. Instructor in Chemistry, Bates College; Chief Chemist, Lewiston Bleachery and Dye Works, Arnold Print Works; Chief of Chemical Division, U. S. Tariff Commn.; 1st Lieut., Chemical Warfare Service. Now Secy. of Mfg. Chemists Assn. of the U. S. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc.; Soc. for Advancement of Science. Residence: Fairfax, Va. Office: 608 Woodward Bldg., Washington 5, D. C.

WATSON, The Very Rev. WILLIAM ALEXANDER, M.A., D.D., Northern Ireland Clergyman; born December 12, 1869, Newtonards, County Down, N. Ireland; son of Alexander and Eliza (McKie) Watson; educated at Queen's College, Belfast; Royal University of Ireland; Queen's University, Belfast; Presbyterian College, Belfast, B.A. with honors, 1891, M.A. 1912; London University, B.D. 1915, D.D. 1931; married Elizabeth Ellison Reid, Dec. 5, 1905; one daughter. Minister of Raffrey, 1895-1902; Minister of York Street, Belfast, 1902-28. Clerk, General Assembly, and General Secretary, Presbyterian Church in Ireland, 1926-42; Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, 1941-42. Residence: 22 Elmwood Ave., Belfast. Office: Church House, Fisherwick Pl., Belfast, Northern Ireland.

WATSON, Dr. WILLIAM HERIOT, British Physicist; born Dec. 12, 1899, Edinburgh, Scotland; son of Peter and Margaret (Lindsay) Watson; educated at Edinburgh Univ., M.A. (First Class Honours in Mathematics and Natural Philosophy) 1921, Ph.D. 1925; Cambridge Univ. (Caius College), 1928-31, Ph.D. 1931; married Marjorie Sowler, June 25, 1931; two sons. Lecturer in Natural Philosophy, Edinburgh Univ., 1921-28; Carnegie Research Fellow, Cambridge, 1928-31. Asst. Prof. of Physics, McGill Univ., 1931-39; Assoc. Prof. of Physics, 1939-44. Prof. and Head of Dept. of Mathematics, Univ. of Saskatchewan, 1944-46; Research Physicist, Natl. Research Council of Canada, 1946—; Principal Research Officer, Atomic Energy Project. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Canada. Author: On Understanding Physics, 1938; The Physical Principles of Wave-Guide Transmission and Antenna Systems, 1947. Residence: 5 Beach Ave., Deep River, Ont. Office: National Research Council, Chalk River, Ont., Canada.

WATSON, Dr. WILLIAM WELDON, American Physicist; received Ph.D. degree. Prof. of Physics, Yale Univeristy. Fellow of Pierson College, Yale. Director, Sloane Physics Laboratory, Sheffield Scientific School, Yale. Address: Sheffield Scientific School, Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

WATSON-JONES, Sir REGINALD, British Orthopaedic Surgeon; born Mar. 4, 1902, Brighton; son of Edward H. Jones and Alice Watson; educated at Liverpool Univ.; London and Continental Univs., 1920-26; B.Sc., M.B., Ch. B., M. Ch. Orth., F.R.C.S. (Eng.); married Muriel Cook, June 11, 1930; one daughter, one son. Orthopaedic Surgeon: Liverpool Royal Infirmary, 1927-43; Robert Jones & Agnes Hunt Orthopaedic Hosp., Oswestry, 1928; Birkenhead General Hosp., 1929-40. Consulting Orthopaedic Surgeon, North Wales Sanatorium, 1927-40. Civilian Consultant in Orthopaedic Surgery to Royal Air Force, 1940. Director, Orthopaedic and Accident Dept., London Hosp., 1943. Lecturer in Orthopaedic Pathology and Clinical Lecturer in Orthopaedic Surgery, Liverpool Univ., 1927-43. Hon. Lecturer in War Surgery, British Post-graduate Medical School, London, 1941-45. Now Consulting Orthopaedic Surgeon; Orthopaedic Surgeon to H. M. the King of England. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Medicine; Royal College of Surgeons, England (Member of Council); British Orthopaedic Assn. (Member of Council); British Medical Assn. (Vice-Pres., Section in Orthopaedics, 1930). Hon. Member: Amer. Orthopaedic Assn.; Australian Orthopaedic Assn.; Amer. Acad. of Orthopaedic Surgeons; Canadian Medical Assn.; Société Française d'Orthopédie et Traumatologie. Awards: Mitchell Banks Medallist, 1920; George Holt Medallist, 1921; Robert Gee Prizeman, 1923; George Holt Fellow in Physiology, 1923; Samuels Research Scholar in Surgery, 1926; Robert Jones Fellow in Orthopaedic Surgery, 1928; Gold Medallist in Orthopaedic Surgery, 1926; Knight Bachelor, 1945. Author: Fractures and Joint Injuries, 1940, 3rd ed., 2nd reprint, 1946; Pye's Surgical Handicraft, 14th ed. (joint), 1944; Rheumatic Diseases, 1947. British Editor, Journal of Bone & Joint Surgery. Residence: House in the Wood, Golden Valley, Hindhead, Surrey. Office: 88 Portland Place, London, W. 1, England.

WATSON-SMYTH, EDWARD, C.B.E., British Industrialist; born Dec. 17, 1883, St. Leonards-on-Sea, Sussex, England; son of Charles Edward and Annie Louise (Pittar) Smyth; educated at Cheltenham College, England, 1892-99; Liverpool Univ., 1899-1904; married Olga Wedgwood Bevis, Oct. 1, 1910; one son. Asst. to Chief Engineer, Grindsthorpe Works, Messrs. Cammell Laird & Co., Ltd., Sheffield, 1905-07; Asst. to General Manager of Cyclops Works until 1909; Works Manager, Messrs. Joshua Buckton & Co., Ltd. (Machine Tool Makers), Leeds, Yorks, 1909-14; Asst. General Manager, Messrs. Taylor Bros. and Co., Ltd., and Hunslett Iron & Steel Co., Leeds, England, 1914-16; Engineering Director and General Manager, Messrs. Taylor Bros. & Co., Ltd., Trafford Park Steelworks, Manchester, 1917-39. Chmn., Labour Supply Com., Ministry of Labour and National Service, Manchester, 1940; Principal Asst. Secy. of all Government Training, Ministry of Labour and Natl. Service, 1940-45. Joint Managing Director and Chmn., Messrs. Robert Maginnis Ltd. Silica Refractory Makers, since 1945. Fellow, Inst. of Industrial Administration. Member: Institution of Mechanical Engineers; Inst. of Fuel. Residence: The Cottage, Welshpool, Montgomeryshire. Office: Messrs. Robert Maginnis Ltd., Trevor, Wrexham, North Wales.

WATSON-WATT, Sir ROBERT (ALEXANDER), C.B., F.R.S., British Physicist; born April 13, 1892; educated at University College, Dundee; University of St Andrews; married Margaret Robertson, 1916. Superintendent, Radio Research Stations, Dept. of Scientific and Industrial Research, 1921-33; Superintendent, Radio Dept., National Physical Laboratory, 1933-36; Director of Communications Development, Air Ministry, 1938-40; Scientific Adviser on Telecommunications, Air Ministry, 1940—, and Ministry of Supply,, 1946—. Vice-Controller of Communications Equipment, Ministry of Aircraft Production, 1942—. Chief, Telecommunications Adviser, Ministry of Civil Aviation, 1946—; Scientific Adviser on Rado Aids to Navigation, Ministry of Transport, 1946—. Developed "radiolocation," the radar system effectively used by the Royal Air Force during World War II. Address: 287 Sheen Lane, London, S.W. 14, England.

WATT, ALAN S., Australian Diplomat; born Apr. 13, 1901, Croydon, N.S.W.; educated at Sydney Boys' High School; Sydney Univ.; Oxford; Rhodes Scholar for N.S.W., 1921; Oriel College; B.A. (Sydney and Oxon.); married Mildred Mary Wait, Dec. 19, 1927; four children. Barrister-at-Law, Sydney, 1933-37. With International Co-operation Section, Dept. of External Affairs, 1937; First Secy., Dept. of External Affairs, Canberra, 1940; appointed 1st Secy., Washington, D. C., 1940; Acting Secy., External Affairs. Minister to Russia, 1947—. Member, Australian Delegation, United Nations General Assembly, New York, 1946. Address: Australian Legation, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

WATT, Dr. MICHAEL HERBERT, New Zealand Director General of Health; born 1887, New Zealand; son of Michael and Isabella (Shand) Watt; educated at Otago Univ.; Univ. of New Zealand, M.B., Ch.B. 1910, M.D. 1912, D.P.H. 1916; F.R.A.C.P. 1946; married Mary Roberta McCahon, 1913; two sons. Public Health Officer since 1916. Director General of Health of New Zealand since 1930; Chairman, Medical Research Council of New Zealand. Fellow, Royal Sanitary Inst. Made Commander, Order of the British Empire. Address: Dept. of Health, Lambton Quay, Wellington, New Zealand.

WATT, WILLIAM ROBERT, C.B.E., F.G.S., British Company Director; born Apr. 29, 1884, Knockando, Morayshire, Scotland; son of Charles and Mary Ann Watt; educated at Mackie Acad., Stonehaven, 1903-06; Aberdeen Univ., 1906-11, M.A. 1910, B.Sc. 1911; Imperial College of Science and Technology, diploma, 1913; married Marion Isabel Lothian, Nov. 28, 1916; one son. Joined Cawnpore Woollen Mills Co., Ltd., 1913, which in 1920 amalgamated with other companies to form British India Corp., Ltd. Took over management of Cawnpore Woollen Mills and appointed Supt. of Cawnpore Woolen Mills in Cawnpore and New Egerton Woollen Mills at Dhariwal in Punjab, 1937; appointed Hon. Adviser to Govt. of India for the Woollen Industry, 1939. Deputy Managing Director and Vice-Chmn. of Directors of British India Corp., Ltd., and Director of Messrs. G. McKenzie & Co., Ltd., Calcutta; Messrs. Smith, Stanistreet & Co., Ltd., Calcutta; Messrs. Begg Sutherland Co., Ltd.; Messrs. The Cawnpore Sugar Works, Ltd., both of Cawnpore. Member, Com. of Upper India Chamber of Commerce, Cawnpore, since 1917, Pres., 1925-26. Fellow: Geological Soc. of London; Amer. Geographical Soc. of New York, Member of Volunteer Force, 1913, Indian Defence Force, and then Auxiliary Force, India; commanded Cawnpore Squadron, United Provinces Horse, with rank of Captain. Residence: Park House, Civil Lines, Cawnpore, India. Office: P. O. Box No. 77, Cawnpore, India.

WATTS, EDWARD EVERETT, JR., American Lawyer; born Aug. 22, 1899, Springfield, Ill.; son of Edward Everett and Louise (Gross) Watts; educated at Princeton Univ., 1917-21, A.B.; Columbia Law School, 1921-24, LL.B.; married Isabella Hardy, Sept. 14, 1940; two children. Assoc. of Cravath, Henderson & deGersdorff, 1924-27; Cravath, deGersdorff, Swaine & Wood, 1928-29; Taylor, Blanc, Capron & Marsh, 1929-33; Mitchell, Taylor, Capron & Marsh, 1933-38 (partner, 1939-43); Member, Mitchell, Capron, Marsh, Angulo & Cooney, since 1943. Trustee: Broadway Savings Bank; Princeton-Yenching Foundation; Director, Eye Bank for Sight Restoration, Inc.; Pres. and Director, Internatl. Film Foundation, Inc. Member of Graduate Council of Princeton Univ. Secy., Director and Member of Executive Com., Legal Aid Soc.; Vice-Pres., Director and Chairman of Executive Com., Travelers Aid Soc. of New York. Member: Assn. of Bar of the City of N. Y.; N. Y. State Bar Assn.; Amer. Bar Assn. Address: 20 Exchange Place, New York 5, N. Y.

WAUGH, ALEC, British Author; born July 8, 1898, London; son of Arthur and Catharine (Raban) Waugh; educated at Sherborne; Royal Military College, Sandhurst; married Joan Chirnside, Oct. 25, 1932; three children. Army Officer, gazetted to Dorset Regt., May 1917; served as Officer in campaigns, B.E.F., July 1917-Nov. 1918, B.E.F., Apr. 1940-May 1940, M.E.F., 1941-42, Paiforce, 1942-45; attained rank of Major. Awarded four campaign medals, and two general service medals. Author of many books including: The Loom of Youth, 1917; Kept, 1925; Hot Countries, 1930; Most Women, 1931; The Balliols, 1934; No Truce with Time, 1941; Unclouded Summer, 1948. Address: Edrington, Silchester, near Reading, Berkshire, England.

WAUGH, EVELYN, British Author; born 1903, Hampstead, England; son of Arthur Waugh; educated at Lancing College; Hertford College (won first History scholarship), Oxford; Heatherley's Art School; married Laura Herbert, 1937; five children. Author: Dante Gabriel Rossetti, 1927; Bachelor Abroad, They Were Still Dancing, Ninety-two Days, Waugh in Abyssinia, 1929-35 (choice material from these four books now in one volume entitled When the Going Was Good); Edmund Campion (biography of Jesuit martyr of Elizabethan era; won Hawthornden Prize in 1936); Scoop, 1938; (novels) Decline and Fall; Vile Bodies; Black Mischief; Handful of Dust; Brideshead Revisited (Book-of-the-Month selection); The Loved One, 1948, etc. Received into Roman Catholic Church, 1930. Commissioned in Royal Marines, 1939; served as Company Commander; later joined VIII Commando and went to Middle East; joined Brigadier R. E. Laycock's Staff and transferred to Royal House Guards; Member of Military Mission to Marshal Tito, 1944; discharged as Capt., 1945. Address: Piers Court, near Dursley, Gloucestershire, England.

WAUGH, Dr. LEUMAN MAURICE, American Professor of Dentistry; born March 6, 1877, New Dundee, Canada; son of David Henry and Livia (Bowman) Waugh; educated at Univ. of Buffalo, D.D.S. 1900, post-graduate work, 1901, 1902 and 1903; married Henrietta Cecelia Byers, Nov. 1902; two children. Prof. of Histology and Embryology, Univ. of Buffalo, 1901-12; Prof. of Special Pathology, 1904-14; Officer of Governing Faculty, 1908-14. Member, Organization Com., Dental School of Columbia Univ., 1915-17; Secy., Dental Faculty, 1917. Secy., Administrative Bd., Dental School and Prof. of Histology and Embryology, 1917; Prof. of Orthodontics and Chief of Orthodontic Staff of Dental School, since 1921. Assoc. Dean, School of Dental and Oral Surgery, 1927-33; Director, Orthodontic Graduate Division Dental School, since 1927. Past Pres.: Dental Soc., State of New York; New York Soc. of Orthodontists; Internatl. Assn. for Dental Research; New York Acad. of Dentistry; Amer. Assn. of Orthodontists; Amer. College of Dentists (N. Y. Section). Past Supreme Pres., Xi Psi Phi; Hon. Pres., Second Internatl. Orthodontic Congress, London, England, 1931. Dental Director (retired), U. S. Public Health Service. Author of numerous research reports in dental and medical journals. Residence: Shore Road, Pelham Manor, N. Y. Office: 931 Fifth Ave., New York, New York.

WAUGH, SIDNEY, American Sculptor, Industrial Designer; born Jan. 17, 1904, Amherst, Mass.; son of Frank A. and Alice (Vail) Waugh; educated at Amherst College, Hon. M.A.; Mass. Inst. of Technology; Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris;

Amer. Acad. in France; studied under Bowidelle and Bouchard; married Elizabeth Lake, Aug. 15, 1946. Exhibited at Spring Salon, Paris, 1928. Represented in following collections: Metropolitan Museum, N.Y.C.; Victoria and Albert Museum, London; John Herron Inst.; Chicago Art Inst.; Cleveland Museum; Toledo Museum; Kansas City Museum. Member: Natl. Sculpture Soc.; Natl. Inst. of Arts and Letters; Natl. Acad.; Municipal Art Soc., etc. Fellow, Amer. Acad. in Rome; Bronze and Silver Medals, Paris Salon. Author: The Art of Glassmaking. Capt., Air Corps, Intelligence Service World War II; Bronze Star Medal, Silver Star Medal, 2 Croix de Guerre. Office: 101 Park Ave., New York, N. Y.

WAUGH, Dr. THEODORE ROGERS, Canadian Pathologist; born June 6, 1890, St. Albans, Vt.; son of Theodore Rogers and Julia Adelaide (Reynolds) Waugh; educated at Yale Univ., B.A. 1912; McGill Univ., M.D., C.M. 1920; married Anna Maud Lawlor, Aug. 8, 1922; one son. James Douglas Fellow and Lecturer in Pathol., McGill Univ., 1921-25; Asst. Prof. until 1940; Assoc. Prof. of Pathol. since 1940; Asst. Pathol., Royal Victoria Hosp., 1925-34; Pathol., 1937-39; Pathol.-in-Chief since 1939; Consulting Pathol., Montreal Homeopathic Hosp., since 1925; Ste. Anne's Military Hosp. since 1943. Diplomate, Amer. Bd. of Pathol. Member: Amer. Assn. of Pathols. and Bacteriols.; Pathol. Soc. of Great Britain and Ireland; Amer. Med. Assn.; Canadian Med. Assn.; Internatl. Assn. of Med. Museums; Royal Astronomical Soc. of Canada, etc. Author: White Blood Cells Differential Tables, 1943; numerous articles on pathology and haematology in various medical journals. Address: Pathological Institute, McGill University, Montreal, Quebec, Can.

WAUTERS, Dr. ARTHUR JOSEPH ALEXIS, Belgian Statesman; Economist; Journalist; born August 12, 1890, Waremme, Belgium; son of Gustave and Caroline (Sera) Wauters; educated at Brussels University, Dr. in Economics; married Colette Gerris, Dec. 1928. Began career in 1908 as a journalist. He was Private Secretary of Belgian Minister of Labor, 1919; Co-Editor of Le Peuple, Brussels, 1921; Private Secretary to Ministry of Labor, 1925; Chief Editor, Le Peuple, 1929; Professor at Brussels University, 1930. Senator, 1932-36; Member of Parliament, 1936 —. Minister of Public Health, 1937; Minister of Labor, 1938; Minister of Information, 1939; Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary. Served as Permanent Delegate to UNRRA. Member, Bd. of Dirs.: Cancer Foundation; Scientific Board of Institut d'Histoire Sociale. High Commissioner of Famine Relief Committee in Russia, 1922. Author: L'Evolution du Marxisme; Réforme du Réformisme; Réforme Agraire en Europe; Guerre et Politique Sociale, etc. During World War I he served as Lieutenant in Infantry, 1914-18. Residence: 284 Boulevard Lambermont, Brussels III, Belgium.

WAVELL, Field Marshal, 1st Earl (cr. 1947), 1st Viscount (cr. 1943) of Cyrenaica and Winchester, ARCHIBALD PERCIVAL, P.C., G.C.B., G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E., C.M.G., M.C., British Army Officer; born May 1883; son of Major General Archibald G. Wavell; educated at Winchester College; Royal Military College, Sandhurst, England; married Eugenie Marie Quirk, 1915. Commissioned Second Lieutenant, Black Watch, 1901. Saw service in the Boer War; awarded medal with four clasps. Fought on India's Northwest Frontier in 1908 and in the First World War, 1914-18, where he lost the sight of one eye. Given brevet rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, 1917; assigned as Military Attaché to Russian armies in the Caucasus; became Temporary Brig.-Gen. and was assigned to British forces in Egypt and Palestine. Served through campaigns in 1917 and 1918; attained rank of Colonel in 1921; in command of the Sixth Infantry Brigade and the Second Division at Aldershot; commanded British troops in Palestine, 1938, and given the Southern Command in England, 1938, and command of British armies in the Middle East, 1939; raised to rank of full General, Oct. 1940. Commander-in-Chief in India of British Armed Forces, July 1941; appointed Allied Supreme Commander in the Soufhwestern Pacific, 1942; re-appointed Commander-in-Chief in India, March 1942 until June, 1943; Viceroy of India, 1943-47. Author: The Palestine Campaigns; Allenby, a Study in Greatness; Generals and Generalship; Allenby in Egypt; Other Men's Flowers (anthology); Speaking Generally. Address: Athenaeum Club, Pall Mall, London, England.

WAYMACK, WILLIAM WESLEY, American Editor; born in Savanna, Ill.; Oct. 18, 1888; son of William Edward and Emma Julia (Oberheim) Waymack; educated at Morningside College, B.A. 1911, Litt.D. 1939; LL.D., Drake, 1937, Grinnell, 1941; Litt.D. 1940, Parsons College; married Elsie J. Lord, June 27, 1911; one son. Joined staff, Sioux City Journal, 1911; was reporter, assistant city editor, city editor, assistant editorial writer and chief editorial writer. Associate Editor, Des Moines Register and Tribune, 1918-21; Associate Editor and Managing Editor, 1921-28; Editor and Vice-Pres., 1939-46. Member, U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, 1946—. Awarded Pulitzer Prize for distinguished editorial writing, 1937. Member of President's Committee on Farm Tenancy, 1936-37; Iowa Tenancy Committee, 1937-38; 20th Century Fund Committee on Debt Adjustment, 1938. Member: National Policy Committee (Vice-Chairman); American League of Nations Assn. (Director); Carnegie Endowment for International Peace (Director); Twentieth Century Fund (Director); International Board of Free World Assn.; Commission to Study the Organization of Peace; Russian War Relief (Director); Institute of Pacific Relations (American Council), etc. U. S. delegate to Second Inter-American Conference on Agriculture, Mexico City, 1942. Associate member, National War Labor Board, 1942; Public Member and Deputy Chairman, Board of Directors, Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, until 1946. Member, Allied Mission to Greece, 1946. Residence: R.F.D. 3, Adel, Iowa. Office: U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D. C.

WAYNE, JOHN, American Motion Picture Actor, Producer; born May 26, 1907, Winterset, Iowa; educated at Univ. of Southern California; named on All American Football Team, 1929; married Esperanza Baur. Motion pictures include: The Spoilers; Pittsburgh; Stagecoach; The Fighting Seabees; Tall in the Saddle; Back to Bataan; Dakota; Angel and the Badman (also Producer); They Were Expendable; Tycoon; Three Faces West; Fort Apache, etc. Residence: Van Nuys, Calif. Address: c/o Republic Pictures, 4024 Radford Ave., North Hollywood, Calif.

WAYS, MAX, American Editor; born 1905; son of Max Ways, Sr.; educated at Loyola College; Univ. of Maryland. Started career with the Baltimore Sun, 1926; later with Philadelphia Record as editorial writer of foreign news and national affairs. Chief of U. S. Foreign Economics Administration's Enemy Branch, World War II. Now International and Foreign News Editor of Time Magazine. Address: Time, 9 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, N. Y.

WEADOCK, JOHN C., American Lawyer; born Feb. 18, 1860, St. Marys, Ohio; son of Lewis and Mary (Cullen) Weadock; educated in common schools; married Helena F. Bertch, Sept. 15, 1886. Lawyer, since 1883. Member of following law firms: T. A. E. & J. C. Weadock, 1883; Weadock & Duffy, Bay City, Mich.; J. C. Weadock, 1907, New York City; J. C. and B. F. Weadock, 1924; Weadock & Willkie, 1929; Weadock & Whiting, 1933-40; practicing alone at New York, since 1940. Member: American, Michigan, New York City and New York State Bar Assns. Residence: 225 Central Park West. Office: 20 Pine St., New York 5, N. Y.

WEARN, Dr. JOSEPH TRELOAR, American Physician; born Feb. 15, 1893, Charlotte, N.C.; son of Joseph Henry Wearn and Ann (Treloar) Wearn; educated at Davidson College, B.S. 1913; Harvard Med. School, M.D. 1917; Davidson (N. C.) College, Hon. D.Sc. 1943; married Susan Channing Lyman, August 30, 1927; one daughter. Member of the Resident Staff, Peter Bent Brigham Hosp., Boston, 1919-21; Instructor, Dept. of Pharmacol., Univ. of Pa., 1921-23; Asst. and Assoc. Prof. of Med., Harvard Med. School, 1923-29; Dir. of Med. at Lakeside Hosp., Cleveland, since 1929; Prof. of Med. at Western Reserve Univ.; Dean, School of Medicine, 1945 —. Consultant to Secy. of War and to Surgeon General, U. S. Army. Member, Advisory Com. for Biology and Medicine, U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, 1947—. Diplomate, Amer. Bd. of Internal Med. (Adviser); a Fellow of Amer. College of Physicians; a Member of Amer. Med. Assn., Amer. Acad. of Arts and Science, Assn. of Amer. Physicians (Secy., 1943-45); Amer. Soc. of Clinical Investigation (Pres. 1935), Amer. Clinical and Climatol. Assn., Amer. Heart Assn., Amer. Physiol. Soc., Soc. for Experimental Biol. and Med. (Pres., 1939), and Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Omega Alpha, Sigma Xi. Res.: Oak Hill Farm, Hunting Valley, Chagrin Falls, Ohio. Office: Lakeside Hospital, 2065 Adelbert Rd., Cleveland, Ohio.

WEATHERBY, Dr. BENJAMIN B., American Geophysicist; born Aug. 7, 1899, Millville, N. J.; son of Henry A. and Anna Burleigh (Champion) Weatherby; educated at Haverford College, A.B. 1921, A.M. 1922, and Univ. of Penna., Ph.D. 1929; married Ethel R. Young, 1922; one daughter. Instructor in Physics at Lafayette College, 1921-23; Asst. Prof. in Physics, Univ. of Toledo, 1923-24, and Assoc. Prof., 1924-25; Instructor in Physics, Univ. of Penna., 1927-29. With Geophysical Research Corp. as Chief of Field Party, 1925-27; Division Chief in 1929, Vice-President, 1931-33; Pres., since 1933. Vice-Pres., Amer. Petroleum Corp. since 1939, a Director since 1935. Secy.-Treas. of the Holland Hall School for Girls, 1940-42. Pres. in 1942-43; Vice-Pres., Philbrook Art Museum, 1942; now Treas. Pres., Board of Trustees of Tulsa Public Library (1940-42); Co-Chairman of Hall of Science, International Petroleum Exposition (1940); President of Society of Exploration Geophysicists (1935); Chairman of War Efforts Advisory Committee, Society of Exploration Geophysicists since 1941; Consultant to National Defense Research Com., since 1942. Address: 406 S. Boulder, Box 2040, Tulsa, Okla.

WEAVER, Dr. JOHN REGINALD HOMER, British Historian; born 1882; educated at Keble College, Oxford, B.A. 1909, M.A. 1912; D.Litt., Dublin. Prof. of Modern History, Univ. of Dublin, 1911-13. Served as Fellow, Tutor and Librarian, Trinity College, Oxford; Pres., Trinity College, 1938 —. Author of Memoir of Henry William Carless Davis (1874-1928), and with Austin Lane Poole, edited a selection of his historical papers, 1933. Editor, the Dictionary of National Biography, 1912-21, 1921-27, 1928-37. Address: Trinity College, Oxford, England.

WEAVER, ROBERT AUGUSTUS, American Industrialist; born Aug. 15, 1890, Bradford, Pa.; son of Joseph Curtis and Nancy Bell (Thorne) Weaver; educated at Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio, B.S. 1912; received LL.D. 1938, Kenyon College; D.Sc. 1942, Alfred Univ.; married May Tuthill, June 23, 1914; three children. Athletic Director of DeVeaux College, Niagara Falls, N. Y., 1912-13; Asst. Advertising Manager, Eclipse Stove Co., Mansfield, Ohio, 1913; Advertising Manager, Favorite Stove Co., Piqua, Ohio, 1915-17. Sales Manager, Porcelain Enamel & Mfg. Co., Baltimore, Md., 1917-19; founded Ferro Enamel Supply Co., 1920; Pres., 1930-47; Chairman of Bd., 1947 —. Director: Amer. Stove Co.; National City Bank of Cleveland; U. S. Slicing Machine Co.; Cleveland Co-operative Stove Co.; Jim Brown Stores, Inc.; Ohio Chamber of Commerce. Trustee: The Play House, Cleveland; Kenyon College; Cleveland School of Art. Life Fellow, Cleveland Museum of Art. Member, Bd. of Overseers, Sweet Briar (Va.) College. Residence: 18128 W. Clifton Road, Lakewood 7, Ohio. Office: 4150 E. 56th St., Cleveland, Ohio.

WEAVER, Dr. SAMUEL POOL, American Lawyer; born January 20, 1882, Greensburg, Pa.; son of Jacob P. and Mary Jane (Pool) Weaver; educated at Greensburg Seminary, 1898; Gettysburg College, B.A. 1904, A.M. 1907, Litt.D., 1946; University of Michigan, LL.B. 1907; Gonzaga University, LL.D. 1940; Certificate of C.L.U., American College of Life Underwriters, 1931; married Elsa Ebernach, August 20, 1909; one son. Admitted to Michigan Bar, 1907. Began practice of law, 1909, Sprague, Wash.; moved to Spoakne, Wash., and began practice of law, 1922. Pres., Great Northwest Life Ins. Co. since 1930; elected Director, 1928; Vice-Pres., 1929; General Counsel since 1944. Prof. of Constitutional Law, Gonzaga Univ. President, Sons of American Revolution, 1933-34; President, Spokane Lions Club, 1926-47; District Governor, District No. 19, Lions International, 1927-28; Member, Spokane Defense Council; President, Farmers State Bank (Sprague, Wash.), 1916-20. Member: Spokane, Washington State and American Bar Assns.; Bar of the U. S. Supreme Court. Author: Business Law, 1926 (revised 1934). Co-author: The Law Stenographer, 1937; United States Constitution and Its Administration, 1946; Essential Principles of the Law of Business, 1947. Residence: S. 2207 Rockwood Blvd. Office: Great Northwest Life Building, Spokane, Wash.

WEAVER, Dr. WARREN, American Natural Scientist; born July 17, 1894, at Reedsburg, Wis.; son of Isaiah Weaver and Kittie Belle (Stupfell) Weaver; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, B.S. 1916, C.E. 1917, Ph.D. 1921; married Mary Hemenway, Sept. 4, 1919; two children. Asst. Prof. of Mathematics at Throop, 1917; with California Inst. of Technology, 1919; at Univ. of Wisconsin, 1920; Assoc. Prof., 1925; Prof. and Chairman of Dept., 1928. Director, Div. of Natural Sciences, Rockefeller Foundation, since 1932. Chairman, Section D2, Natl. Defense Research Com., 1940-42; Chief, Applied Mathematics Panel, National Defense Research Com., 1943 —. Member of official scientific mission to England, 1941. Former member, Div. of Physical Sciences, Natl. Research Council. Fellow: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Physical Assn. Member:

Amer. Mathematic Soc.; Mathematical Assn. Amer. Philosophical Soc. Author: (with Max Mason) "Electromagnetic Field." Contributor to scientific journals. Residence: 160 Brite Ave., Scarsdale, N. Y. Office: 49 W. 49th St., New York 20, New York.

WEBB, Dr. CLEMENT CHARLES JULIAN, British Philosopher; born June 25, 1865, London, England; son of Rev. Benjamin and Maria E. (Mill) Webb; educated at St. Peter's College, Westminster, 1876-84; Christ Church, Oxford, 1884-88, B.A. 1888, M.A. 1891, Litt.D. 1930; Hon. LL.D., St. Andrew's, 1921; Hon. Theol.D., Uppsala, 1932; Hon. D.D., Glasgow, 1937; married Eleanor T. Joseph, 1905. Fellow and Tutor, Magdalen College, Oxford, 1889-1922; Examiner, Oxford, 1906-09; Wilde Lecturer in Natural and Comparative Religion, Oxford, 1911-14; Gifford Lecturer, Aberdeen, 1918-19; Oriel Prof. of Philosophy of Christian Religion, Oxford, 1920-30; Fellow, Oriel College, Oxford, 1922-30; Riddell Lecturer, Newcastle, 1928; Stephanus Ghosh Lecturer in Comparative Religion, Calcutta, 1930; Olaus Perin Lecturer, Upsala, 1932; now Emeritus Prof., Oxford. Fellow, British Acad.; Hon. Fellow, Oriel and Magdalen Colleges, Oxford; Member, British Inst. of Philosophy. Author: Problems in Relations of God and Man, 1911, 1915; God and Personality, 1919; Religious Experience, 1945; History of Philosophy, 1915, etc. Address: Old Rectory, Pitchcott, Aylesbury, Bucks., England.

WEBB, Hon. EDWIN YATES, United States District Judge; born May 23, 1872, Shelby, N. C.; son of Rev. G. M. and Priscilla J. (Blanton) Webb; educated at Wake Forest College, A.B. 1893; studied Law at University of North Carolina, 1893-94; post-graduate (law) at University of Virginia, 1896; married Willie Simmons, Nov. 15, 1894, (2nd) Mrs. Alice Pender Taylor, Oct. 28, 1928; three children. Admitted to the Bar, 1894. Chairman of Senatorial Democratic Executive Committee, 1896; Chairman of County Democratic Executive Committee, 1898-1902; Temporary Chairman of Democratic State Convention, May 1900. Elected member of State Senate, 1900; and to U. S. House of Represenatives, 58th to 66th Congresses, from 9th North Carolina Dist., 1903-19. Judge, U. S. District Court, Western District of North Carolina, since 1919. Author of Webb-Kenyon Law, the Webb Export Act and co-author of the 18th Amendment. Residence: 331 S. Washington St. Address: Post Office Annex, Shelby, North Carolina.

WEBB, GEORGE R., Member of Canadian Parliament; born July 10, 1887, Gananoque, Ont.; son of William and Mary Webb; educated at Gananoque and Brockville High and Public Schools and College; married Violet D. Britton, Sept. 30, 1926. Insurance Broker. Member of Parliament, Dominion of Canada; Member, Standing Committees: Agriculture, Private Bills, Mines, Forests and Waters, Colonization. Mayor of Gananoque, 1933-35; Chairman, Board of Education, 1943-44; Governor of Rotary Internatl, 1941-42. Address: King St., Gananoque, Ont., Canada.

WEBB, JAMES EDWIN, United States Budget Director; born Oct. 7, 1906, Granville County, N. C.; son of John Frederick and Sarah (Gorham) Webb; educated at Univ. of North Carolina, 1923-24, 1925-28, A.B. 1928; George Washington Univ. Law School, 1933-36; married Patsy Aiken Douglas, May 14, 1938; two children. Personnel Director and Asst. to the Pres., Sperry Gyroscope Co., Brooklyn, N. Y., 1936-41. Secy. and Treas., Sperry Gyroscope Co., Inc., 1941-43; Vice-Pres. and Asst. Secy. and Asst. Treasurer of Sperry Corp., 1943-44. Commanding Officer, with rank of Major, First Marine Air Warning Group, Ninth Marine Aircraft Wing, U. S. Marine Corps, 1944-45. Attorney at Law with Gardner, Morrison and Rogers, Washington, D. C., 1945-46. Executive Asst. to Under Secy. of the Treasury, 1946. Director, U. S. Bureau of the Budget, 1946—. Residence: 3407 Rodman St. Office: Bureau of the Budget, State Department Bldg., Washington 25, D. C.

WEBB, JOSEPH JAMES, American Attorney; born in Salinas, Calif., Dec. 9, 1878; son of William H. and Augustias (Abrego) Webb; educated at public schools of Salinas, Calif.; Y.M.C.A. Evening Law School, San Francisco; married Nancy B. Turner, Dec. 31, 1912. Engaged in practice of law since 1904. Governor, Bar Assn. of San Francisco, 1923; Member, Executive Com. of Bar Assn. of California, 1924. Member, State Bar Commn., 1927; first Pres. of State Bar of California (integrated Bar), 1928. Major, A.R.C., in France, 1918. Address: 519 California St., San Francisco, Calif.

WEBB, Hon. P. C., New Zealand Political Leader. Member of House of Representatives. Served as Minister of Labour, Minister of Telegraphs and Minister of Immigration; Minister of the Crown, 1946. Address: Wellington, New Zealand.

WEBB, ROY, American Composer; born Oct. 3, 1888, New York, N. Y.; son of William E. and Juliet (Bell) Webb; educated at Collegiate School, New York City; Columbia Univ.; married Jean Finnie. Musical Conductor for musical comedies: Wildflower; Stepping Stones; Garrick Gaieties; Peggy Ann; Connecticut Yankee; Present Arms; Chee Chee; Lady Fingers; Conductor and Composer (motion picture scores): Last Days of Pompeii; Alice Adams; La Cucaracha; Age of Innocence; Sylvia Scarlett; A Woman Rebels; The Plough and the Stars; Quality Street; The Woman I Love; Vivacious Lady; Stage Door; The Mad Miss Manton; A Man to Remember; Love Affair; The Great Man Votes; Flying Irishman; The Saint (series); Bachelor Mother; Five Came Back; Hitler's Children; The Lady Takes A Chance; The Seventh Cross; Rainbow Island; I Married A Witch; Tall in the Saddle; The Master Race; Experiment Perilous; Enchanted Cottage; Body Snatchers; Bride By Mistake; Murder, My Sweet; Those Endearing Young Charms; Back to Bataan; Abe Lincoln; In Name Only; Flight for Freedom; Mr. Lucky; They Won't Believe Me; Magic Town. Received nomination for Academy Awards for Love Affair; My Favorite Wife; Kitty Foyle; Tom, Dick and Harry; The Fallen Sparrow; Fighting Seabees. Residence: 10677 Somma Way, Bel-Air, Los Angeles, Calif. Office: RKO Studios, 780 Gower St., Los Angeles, Calif.

WEBB, STELLA DOROTHEA GIBBONS, British Novelist; born Jan. 5, 1902, London, England; daughter of Charles Telford and Maude Standish (Williams) Gibbons; educated at Univ. College, London, 1920-22, diploma in journalism; married Allan Bourne Webb, 1933; one daughter. Decoder of Cables and Re-writer of Mail Stories, British United Press, 1923-25; Secy. to Editor, London Evening Standard, later Feature Writer on its Women's Page, and then Reporter, 1925-28. Editorial Asst., Dramatic Critic, Book Reviewer, Essayist and Fashion Writer for The Lady, 1928-31. Awarded Fémina Vie Heureuse Prize for book, Cold Comfort Farm. Author: The Mountain Beast (poems), 1930; Bassett, 1934; Enbury Heath, 1935; Miss Linsey and Pa, 1936; Roaring Tower (short stories), 1937; The Untidy Gnome (Children's Story), 1935; Nightingale Wood, 1938; My American, 1939; The Bachelor, 1944; The Gentle Powers, 1946. Address: 19 Oakeshott Ave., Highgate, London, N. 6, England.

WEBB, Hon. Sir WILLIAM FLOOD, Australian Jurist; born January 21, 1887, Brisbane, Queensland; son of William and Catherine (Geaney) Webb; educated at Catholic Schools; Queensland University; married Beatrice Agnew, March 17, 1917; six children. Admitted to Queensland Bar, 1913. Public Defender, 1915; Official Solicitor to Public Curator, 1916; Crown Solicitor, 1917-22; Solicitor General, 1922-25. Chairman, Central Sugar Cane Price Board, 1926-42; Chairman of Royal Commission on Traveston Railway Disaster (1925); Sugar Industry (1938), and Transport (1936). Visited England on Privy Council Appeals, 1919 and 1924. Justice, Supreme Court, since 1925; Chief Justice of Queensland, since 1940. Knighted Jan. 1, 1942. Commissioner investigating Japanese atrocities, visiting New Guinea, Aug.-Sept. 1943. Appointed Australian War Crimes Commissioner, 1944, and visited London, England, 1944-45, and appeared before United Nations War Crimes Commission to present evidence of Japanese war crimes. Presiding Justice, Internatl. Military Tribunal, Tokyo, 1946—. Residence: Abbotsleigh Rd., Holland Park, Brisbane. Office: Supreme Court, George St., Brisbane, Queensland.

WEBB-JOHNSON, Sir ALFRED EDWARD, British Surgeon; born in Stoke-on-Trent, England; son of Samuel Johnson who married Julia Ann Webb (took name of Webb-Johnson, 1915); educated at Manchester Univ.; married Cecilia Flora Macrae, 1911. Resident Medical Officer of Middlesex Hospital, 1908-11; Dean of Middlesex Hospital Medical School, 1919-25. Member of Court of Examiners of Royal College of Surgeons and of Cambridge Univ., 1926-36; Hunterian Prof. at Royal College of Surgeons, 1917. Surgeon to Middlesex Hospital since 1911. Surgeon: Queen Alexandra Military Hospital; Royal Hospital, Chelsea; H.M. Queen Mary. Pres., Royal College of Surgeons, since 1941; Vice-Pres., Middlesex Hospital; Vice-Pres., Royal Eye Hospital, Marie Curie Hospital and Royal Hospital, Wolverhampton. Member: Assn. of Surgeons; Internatl. Soc. of Surgeons; Internatl. Soc. of Urology. Created a Baronet, K.C.V.O., C.B.E.; Knight of Order of St. John of Jerusalem; received D.S.O. and T.D.; Member, Grand Cordon, Order of the Nile. Hon. F.A.C.S. and F.R.A.C.S., F.R.F.P.S. and F.R.C.S. (Edinburgh). Author: Surgical Aspects of Typhoid and Paratyphoid Fevers, 1920; Pride and Prejudice in the Treatment of Cancer, 1940; Surgery in England in the Making, 1939. Consulting Surgeon to British Army in France, 1914-19. Now an Hon. Col. in Army Medical Service and Chairman of Army Medical Advisory Board. Residence: 70 Portland Pl., London, W. 1, England.

WEBBE, Sr HAROLD, C.B.E., British Parliament Member; born September 30, 1885, Solihull, England; son of John Henry and Lucy Larr Webbe; educated at Queen's College, Cambridge, B.A. 1907; married Constance L. J. Harrison, 1910; three children. Was His Majesty's Inspector of Schools, Board of Education, 1910; served in Ministry of Munitions during First World War; received C.B.E., 1919. Member, London County Council, since 1925; Leader of Reform (Conservative) Party since 1934. Elected Member of Parliament for Abbey Division of Westminster, 1939. Knighted 1936. Residence: Ash Pollard, Merstham, Surrey. Office: House of Commons, London, S.W.1, England.

WEBBER, Rev. Dr. GEORGE G., Canadian Clergyman; born Aug. 2, 1876, Toronto, Canada; son of George and Emma (Nance) Webber; educated at Albert College; Victoria Univ., Theological Diploma, D.D. 1946; married Florence Copleston Cuthbertson, May 30, 1903; two children. Ordained Methodist Minister, 1902. Served at Toronto Methodist Conference, 1902-05, Thessalon Charge; Alberta Methodist Conference, 1905-25; at Innisfail, Okotoks, Edmonton, Stettler, Olds and Claresholm. Financial Secy. and Chairman of Districts and Member of Board of Social Service, 1907-25. Secy. of Conference, 1911-14; Pres. of Conference, 1916-17. Field Secy. in Western Canada, The Lord's Day Alliance of Canada, 1927-37; General Secy. of Lord's Day Alliance of Canada since 1937. Address: 542 Confederation Life Bldg., 17 Queen St., East, Toronto, Can.

WEBBER, Sir ROBERT JOHN, British Newspaper Publisher; born Nov. 14, 1884, Cardiff, Wales; son of Charles and Hannah (Martin) Webber; studied at the Barry School and Cardiff School of Science and Art; married Jane Bennett Perkins, December 30, 1911; one daughter. Clerk on Barry Railway General Manager's Staff, 1900; subsequently became Managing Director of Western Mail & Echo Ltd.; Director of Press Association Ltd., Kemsley Newspapers, Ltd. and Treforest Trading Estates Ltd. Past President, Newspaper Society of Great Britain and Ireland; Honorary Member, Institute of Journalists; Chairman, Federation of Southern Newspaper Owners; First Chairman, South Wales & Monmouthshire Alliance of Master Printers; Ex-Chairman, West of England & South Wales Monotype Users Assn. Member of the Court of Govs., Univ. College of South Wales. Residence: Mathern Lodge, Penylan, Cardiff Office: 102 St. Mary St., Cardiff, Glamorgan, South Wales.

WEBER, Dr. AUGUST, Economist; born Feb. 4, 1871, Oldenburg, Germany; son of Friedrich and Sophie (Westerholt) Weber; educated at Oldenburg High School; apprentice to a banking house for three years; studied at Univs. of Berlin, Jena and Marburg (law and economy), LL.D. 1895 (with honors); married Dr. Phil. Marie Meyer Cohn, July, 1914; four children. Bank manager in Dresden, 1896-1900; Director of a provincial bank in Saxony, 1900-12; Director, Mitteldeutsche Creditbank in Berlin, 1913-15; Member, 1916, and later Vice-Chairman of Board of Commerz und Privatbank, Berlin; Chairman of Deutsche Jute Industrie Organisations. Rented a farm from Prussian Govt., 1920; manager until 1933. Accountant, 1933-39; Member of German Reichstag, 1907-12; active leader of German State Party, 1929-32; opposed to Natl. Socialistic regime in Germany; found himself imprisoned seven times during years 1933-39; finally forced to flee; now living in London. Vice-Chairman, Reichsstelle of Textilwirtschaft. Member, Boards of Commerz und Privatbank of Berlin and several other institutions; Member, Praesidium of Reichsverband of German Industry. Decorated with Iron Cross, Red Cross Order; Prussian, Saxony, Oldenburg, Wurtenberg, Baden and Hessen Orders. Author: Hitler Calls This Living, 1939 (anon.; published in London); Uncensored Germany, 1940 (anon., London); A New Germany in a New Europe, 1944 (London). Served with German Army, World War I. Hon. Economic Adviser to Govt., 1914-19. Address: 16 Emerson Ct., Wimbledon Hill Rd., London, S.W. 19, England.

WEBER, FREDERICK THEODORE, American Painter, Sculptor, Etcher; born March 9, 1883, Columbia, S. C.; son of Dr. Louis and Julia (Nixon) Weber; educated at Académie Julien, Paris; École Nationale des Beaux-Arts; married Mary Louise Brown, July 6, 1936. Exhibited at the Salon de la Société Nationale des Beaux-Arts, Paris, 1906, 1912, 1913 and 1914, and in principal American shows. Represented at Metropolitan Museum, Brooklyn Museum, U. S. National Museum, Library of Congress, New York Public Library, Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris, and Museum of the City of New York. Held one-man shows at Ehrich Galleries; Warren E. Cox Gallery; Kennedy and Co.; Newhouse Gallery; U. S. National Museum, 1930, etc. Author of article on portrait painting for 14th edition of Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1929. Address: Hôtel des Artistes, 1 W. 67th St., New York 23, N. Y.

WEBER, HENRY GEORGE, Conductor; born Dec. 9, 1900, Berlin, Germany; son of George and Ida (Sohr) Weber; educated at Academy of Music, Vienna, Austria, 1911-19 and 1921-23; University of Chicago, 1919-20; University of Vienna, 1921-23; married Marion Claire, Jan. 21, 1929; one son. Debut as conductor with Municipal Opera Co., Bremen, Germany, 1919; Conductor, Chicago Civic Opera Co., 1924-29, conducted in Florence, Italy, 1929. Director of Music, WGN Radio Station, since 1934; Musical Director, Chicago City Opera Company, since 1939. Staff Producer and Conductor, National Broadcasting Company, 1933-34; Guest Conductor, Chicago Symphony Orchestra, summer 1934. Conductor, Chicago Theater of the Air programs broadcast since 1940. Conductor, Chicago Philharmonic Orchestra, since 1945. Residence: 700 Center Ave., Lake Bluff, Ill. Office: Station WGN. 441 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill

WEBER, MAX, American Artist; born April 18, 1881, Bialystock, Russia; son of Morris and Julia (Getz) Weber; educated at Brooklyn Boys H. S.; Normal Art; Pratt Institute; Julian Academy in Paris (under Jean Paul Laurens); privately with Henri Matisse, Paris; married Frances Abrams, June 27, 1916; two children. Held thirty one-man shows; participated in all important national exhibitions; also in London, Paris, Glasgow, Russia. Represented in 23 museums of U. S. and in many private collections. National Chairman, Artists Congress, 1936, 1937; Member of Painters, Sculptors and Gravers; Vice-Chairman, National Council of American-Soviet Friendship; Co-Chairman, Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, 1944-45. Received Potter Palmer Gold Medal and $1,000 Chicago Art Institute, 1928; Temple Gold Medal, Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, 1941, Philadelphia; Clark Bronze Medal and $1,000, Corcoran Galleries, Washington, D. C., 1941; first prize and $750, Chicago Art Institute, 1941. Residence: 10 Hartley Rd., Great Neck. L. I., N. Y.

WEBER, Dr. SHIRLEY HOWARD, American Professor of Classics; born Apr. 14, 1883, Petaluma, California; son of Henry and Addie (Petty) Weber; educated at Univ. of California, B.A. 1907, M.A. 1914; Princeton Univ., Ph.D. (Classics), 1917; married Elsa Grant Boughton, June 8, 1918. Instructor, Washington Univ., St. Louis, 1917; Asst. Prof., Princeton Univ., 1919-25; Assoc. Prof., 1925-29. Librarian, Gennadeion, Athens, Greece, since 1939; Prof. of Classics, Amer. School of Classical Studies, since 1940 (on leave, 1941-46). Curator of Manuscripts and Special Collections, Princeton Univ. Library, and Editor, Princeton Univ. Library Chronicle, 1942-43. Divisional Asst., Dept. of State, 1943-46 (Member of Report and Indoctrination Section of Allied Mission to Observe Greek Elections, Feb.-Apr. 1946). Member, Board of Directors, Athens College (in Athens), since 1938. Secy., Amer. Classical League, 1920-24; Pres., Classical Assn. of Atlantic States, 1936-37. Member: Amer. Philological Assn.; Amer. Archaeological Inst.; Amer. Numismatic Soc. Editor: Latin Poetry (with J. W. Basore), 1924; Supplement to Latin Poetry (with J. W. Basore), 1936; also miscellaneous articles in journals. Address: Gennadeion East House, 61 Sweden Street, Athens, Greece.

WEBERN, ANTON von, Austrian Composer, Conductor; born Dec. 3, 1883, Vienna, Austria; studied under Adler and Schönberg. Conducted leading orchestras in Austria, Germany and Czechoslovakia. Guest Conductor at various times since 1929, BBC Orchestra, London. Compositions include symphonies, chamber music, many pieces for piano, songs, etc. Address: Mödling, near Vienna, Austria.

WEBSTER, Sir CHARLES KINGSLEY, British Historian; born Apr. 25, 1886, Freshfield, Lancs., England; son of Daniel and Annie (Willey) Webster; educated at King's College, Cambridge (Scholar, Fellow), B.A. 1908, M.A. 1910, Litt.D. 1930; married Nora Violet Harvey, July 7, 1915. Fellow, King's College, Cambridge; Prof., Modern History, Univ. of Liverpool, 1914-22; served in England, France R.A.S.C., 1915-17; General Staff, W.O., 1917-19; Secy., Military Section, British Delegation, Paris Peace Conf., 1919; Prof. of Internatl. Politics, Univ. of Wales, 1922-32; Prof. of History, Harvard Univ., 1928-32; Prof. of Internatl. History, London School of Economics, since 1932. Director, British Library of Information, New York City, 1941-42. Foreign Office Research Dept., 1939-41, 1942, 1943. With Foreign Office, 1943-46. Member, British Delegation, Dumbarton Oaks, 1944, San Francisco, 1945, UNESCO Conf., Paris, 1946. Fellow, British Acad. Hon. Assoc. of Adams House, Harvard Univ., 1932. K.C.M.G., 1946. Author: Congress of Vienna, 1814-15 (1919 and many subsequent editions); The Foreign Policy of Castlereagh, 1815-22, 1925; The Foreign Policy of Castlereagh, 1813-1815, 1931; The League of Nations in Theory and Practice, 1933; Britain and the Independence of Latin America (2 vols.), 1936, etc. Address: Houghton St., Aldwych, London, W.C. 2, England.

WEBSTER, Dr. DAVID HENRY, American Ophthalmologist; born Sept. 16, 1885, Nova Scotia, Canada; son of George L. and Mary Lavina (Ramsdell) Webster; educated at Acadia Univ., B.A. 1906; Columbia Univ. College of Physicians and Surgeons, M.D. 1910; married Gladys Bulkley, July 5, 1909; two children. Interne, Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat Hosp., 1910-12; Clinical Asst. 1912; Asst. Surgeon, 1914-24; Junior Surgeon, 1924-29; Surgeon, 1929-32; Surgeon Dir. since 1932; Chairman of Bd. of Surgeon Dirs. since 1942; Attending Ophthalmol. at Ruptured and Crippled Hosp.; Clinical Prof. of Ophthalmol. at New York Univ.; Consultant in Ophthalmol. at Post Graduate Hosp.; St. John's Riverside Hosp., Yonkers; Englewood General Hosp., N. J.; St. Luke's Hosp., Newburgh, N. Y.; Mary McClellan Hosp., Cambridge, N. Y.; United Hosp., Port Chester, N. Y. and St. Joseph's Hosp. (Stamford, Conn.). Flight Surgeon, rank of Capt., Med. Corps, U. S. Army, World War I. Dir., Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat Hosp.; Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons; and Member of New York County Med. Soc.; Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Ophthalmic Research Soc.; New York Acad. of Med. (Secy. of Ophthalmic Section, 1923-25, Chairman, 1939-40); New York Ophthalmol. Soc., and Amer. Acad. of Ophthalmol. and Otolaryngol. (Universalist Trustee). Residence: 99 Van Rensselaer Ave., Stamford, Conn. Office: 140 E. 54th St., New York, New York.

WEBSTER, Dr. DAVID LOCKE, American Physicist; born Nov. 6, 1888, Boston, Mass.; son of Andrew Gerrish and Lizzie Florence (Briggs) Webster; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1910, Ph.D. 1913; married Anna Cutler Woodman, June 12, 1912; four children. Instructor in Mathematics, Harvard Univ., 1909-12; Asst. in Physics, 1911-14; Instructor in Physics, 1915-17; Asst. Prof. of Physics, Univ. of Michigan, 1917; Asst. Prof. of Physics, Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1919-20; Prof. of Physics, Stanford Univ., since 1920 (Executive Head of Dept., 1920-45). Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Physical Soc.; Inst. of Aeronautical Sciences; Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences, etc. Author: General Physics for Colleges (with H. W. Farwell and E. R. Drew), 1923; Civil Pilot Training Manual (with D. J. Brimm, Jr. and J. R. Cram), 1941; Flight Instructor's Manual (with D. J. Brimm, Jr. and J. R. Cram), 1941; numerous papers in Physical Review and other scientific journals. Lieut., Air Service, 1917; Capt., 1918. Official Investigator, N.D.R.C. Project, 1941-42; engaged in anti-submarine work as Consultant for N.D.R.C., 1942; Head Physicist, Signal Corps, U. S. Army; assigned to Wright Field and Signal Corps Radar School, 1942; Chief Physicist, Ordnance Dept., U. S. Army, research on rockets at Aberdeen Proving Ground, 1942-45. Awarded Certificate of Commendation, War Dept. Address: Department of Physics, Stanford University, Calif.

WEBSTER, HERMAN A., American Painter and Etcher; born April 6, 1878, New York, N. Y.; son of George Huntington and Ellen (Pickford) Webster; educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H.; Yale University; Académie Julien, Paris, 1905, under Jean Paul Laurens; married Doriane Delors, 1909; one son. First exhibited in Paris Salon, 1905; many one-man shows in U. S. in museums and galleries; participated in various exhibitions in Europe and America. Represented in many private and public permanent collections in England, France and America. Member: Society of American Etchers (New York); Royal Society of Painters and Etchers (London, England); Société Nationale des Beaux-Arts (Paris); Paris Section of American Artists Professional League. Honors and awards: Chevalier de la Légion d'Honneur (France); Gold Medal, San Francisco International Exposition, 1915; Noyes Prize, S.A.E. (New York); Grand Prix de Gravure, Paris International Exposition, 1937. Volunteered in French Army, 1914; Lieutenant, Captain and Major, American Expeditionary Force, 1917-19; Croix de Guerre, Verdun, 1916. Address: 39 rue d'Artois, Paris, France.

WEBSTER, Dr. JOHN CLARENCE, Canadian Physician and Historian; born Oct. 21, 1863, Shediac, N. B., Canada; son of James and Roslin (Chapman) Webster; educated at Mt. Allison Univ., 1878-82, B.A., LL.D. 1923; Edinburgh Univ., 1883-88, M.B., C.M., M.D. (Gold Medal, 1891), LL.D. 1938; Berlin Univ., 1888-89; Leipzig Univ., 1885; Univ. of Cincinnati, D.Sc. 1920; Dalhousie Univ., LL.D. 1926; Univ. of New Brunswick, LL.D. 1941; married Alice Lusk; one son. First Asst. Prof. of Midwifery and Diseases of Women at Edinburgh Univ., 1890-96. Lecturer on Gynecology, McGill Univ., and Asst. Gynecologist, Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, 1897-99. Prof. of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Rush Medical College, Univ. of Chicago, 1899-1919. Obstetrician and Gynecologist-in-Chief, Presbyterian Hospital, Chicago, Ill., 1899-1919; retired from field of medicine, 1919; engaged in work on Canadian history since 1919. Trustee, Nova Scotia Archives; Pres. of New Brunswick Museum; Governor of Canadian Authors' Foundation. Fellow: Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh; Royal Soc. of Edinburgh; Royal Soc. of Canada; Royal Soc. of Literature of United Kingdom; Amer. College of Surgeons. Chairman of Historical Sites and Monuments Board of Canada. Created a C.M.G. in 1935. Commander of Order of St. Maurice and St. Lazarus, Italy, 1936; Officier de l'Instruction Publique (France, 1930). Corresponding Member, Institut Littéraire et Artistique de France, 1934. Author of numerous books and monographs relating to obstetrics and gynecology and Canadian history. Address: Shediac, N. B., Canada.

WEBSTER, MARGARET, British Actress, Stage Director; born March 15, 1905, N. Y.; daughter of Ben and Dame May (Whitty) Webster; educated at London Univ.; studied for stage at Etlinger Dramatic School; Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., hon. Litt.D. 1942; Russell Sage College, Troy, N. Y., hon. Litt.D. 1944; Smith College, hon. D.H.L. 1945; N. J. College for Women, Rutgers Univ, hon. Litt.D. 1947. Played with John Barrymore in Hamlet, 1925; with Dame Sybil Thorndyke in Henry VIII, Macbeth and several of the Greek tragedies; The Devil's Disciple, Savoy Theatre, London, 1930; After All, 1931; Musical Chairs, 1932; Richard of Bordeaux, 1933, etc. Wrote adaptation of Molnar's Girl from Trieste. Directed: Return to Yesterday, Heads I Win, Lover's Meeting, Three Set Out, No Longer Mourn, 1935-36; Lady From the Sea, Old Music, 1937; Family Portrait and Madame, Will You Walk, 1939; for Maurice Evans, Richard II, 1937-38; Henry IV, 1938; Hamlet, 1938-40; revival of Richard II, 1940, etc. Directed The Theatre Guild production of Twelfth Night, starring Helen Hayes and Maurice Evans; directed and played in The Trojan Women (1st Experimental Theatre production) 1941. Directed: Macbeth (with Maurice Evans and Judith Anderson), 1941; Othello (with Paul Robeson), Flare Path, 1942; Counter-Attack, 1943. Played in and staged Othello (with Robeson), 1943-44; produced and directed The Cherry Orchard, 1944; produced and directed The Tempest, 1945; Therese, with Eva Le Gallienne, Dame May Whitty, 1945. Founder and Managing Director of The American Repertory Theatre, 1946 —. Author: Shakespeare Without Tears, 1942, etc. Address: American Repertory Theatre, 49 West 45th St., New York 19, N. Y.

WEBSTER, MARY MORISON, Scottish Author; born Jan. 26, 1894, Edinburgh, Scotland; daughter of Robert Smith and Eliza Ronald (Morison) Webster; educated at James Gillespie's School, Edinburgh. Went to South Africa, 1920; Book Reviewer for "Rand Daily Mail" and "Sunday Times" at Johannesburg since 1925. Author: To-Morrow (poems), London, 1922; The Silver Flute, London, 1931; Alien Guest, London, 1933; Garland in the Wind, London, 1938; The Novels Evergreen, 1929; The Schoolhouse, 1933. Poetry included in The Bookman Treasury of living poets; W. H. Davies's Twentieth Century Lyrics; W. H. Davies's More Twentieth Century Lyrics; Maurice Wollman's Modern Poetry; Sir John Squire's Mercury Book of English Verse; Francis Carey Slater's Anthology of S.A. Verse. Address: 22A Pietersen St., Johannesburg, South Africa.

WEBSTER, WILLIAM, American Utilities Executive; born Dec. 6, 1900, Bel Air, Md.; son of R. Harry and Harriet Archer (Williams) Webster; educated at U. S. Naval Academy, 1920; Mass. Inst. of Technology, S.B. 1923; S.M. 1924; married Eleanore Blodgett, April 21, 1924; one son. Naval Officer, U. S. Navy, 1920-28; Asst.

to General Manager of New England Power Assn., until 1930; Asst. to the President, Narragansett Electric Co., 1931-32; Asst. to the Pres., New England Power Assn., 1932-34; Vice-Pres., Narragansett Electric Co., 1935-42; Vice-Pres., New England Power Assn., 1942-47; Vice-Pres., New England Electric System, since 1947. Vice-Pres., United Electric Railway Co.; former Pres. and Director, Mass. Utilities Associates; Officer and Director, Mass. Power & Light Associates; Rhode Island Public Service Co.; North Boston Lighting Properties. Director, Narragansett Electric Co.; Fall River Electric Co.; Worcester County Electric Co.; Lawrence Gas & Electric Co.; Malden Electric Co.; Lowell Electric Co.; Quincy Electric Light Corp. Management Consultant, OPA, 1942; Asst. Chief, Transition Office, OSRD, 1943; Consultant to Atomic Energy Commission and The Joint Research and Development Bd., since 1946. Residence: 5 Upland Rd., Wellesley, Mass. Office: 441 Stuart St., Boston, Mass.

WECHSLER, Prof. HERBERT, American Professor of Law; born Dec. 4, 1909, New York, N. Y.; son of Samuel and Anna (Weisberger) Wechsler; educated at College of City of New York, A.B. 1928; Columbia Univ., LL.B. 1931; married Elzie Stern Stix, May 29, 1933. Instructor in Law, Columbia Univ., July, 1931; Asst. and Assoc. Prof., 1933-40; Prof. since 1945. Secy. to Mr. Justice Harlan F. Stone, 1932-33; Counsel to Minority Leader, New York Constitutional Convention, 1938; Asst. Attorney General of New York, 1938-40; Special Asst. to Attorney General of U. S., 1940-44; Executive Secy., U. S. Board of Legal Examiners, 1941-42; Asst. Attorney General of U. S., in charge of War Division, U. S. Dept. of Justice, 1944-46; Technical Adviser, Internatl. Military Tribunal, Nurenberg, 1945-46; Member, Advisory Com. on Rules of Criminal Procedure, U. S. Supreme Court, since 1940. Member: New York Law Soc.; Amer. Bar Assn., etc. Author: Criminal Law and Administration (with Jerome Michael), 1940. Participated in drafting U. S. Soldiers Voting Act, 1944. Address: Kent Hall, Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

WECHSLER, Dr. ISRAEL SPANIER, American Neurologist; born May 26, 1886, Lespedi, Roumania; son of Moses Spanier and Leah (Pascal) Wechsler; educated at N. Y. Univ. Coll. of Med., M.D., 1907; married Minnie Wechsler, June 30, 1917. Instructor in Neurol., 1917-19; Assoc., 1919-26; Asst. Clinical Prof. of Neurol., 1926-27; Assoc. Prof., 1927-31; Prof. of Clinical Neurol., 1931-40; Clinical Prof., Columbia Univ., since 1940. From 1930 to 1939 he was Attending Neurol., N. Y. Neurol. Inst.; Attending Neurol., Montefiore Hosp., 1920-38; Chief Neurol. at Vanderbilt Clinic, 1919-36. Since 1938 he has been Attending Neurol. and Chief of Neuropsych. Service, The Mt. Sinai Hosp. of N. Y.; is Consulting Neurol. at Rockland State, Montefiore and Sydenham Hosps. He is Member of the Bd. of Govs. of The Hebrew Univ., Jerusalem, Palestine. In 1918 he was Instructor in Military Neurosurg. Training School, U. S. Army; became Member of Selective Service Med. Adv. Bd., 1941. Member, Amer. Neurol. Assn. (Vice-Pres., 1944-45); N. Y. Acad. of Med.; (Chmn. of Section of Neurol. and Psych., 1925; Pres., N. Y. Neurol. Soc., 1934-36); American Psychiatric Association, etc. Author: Textbook on Clinical Neurology, 1927 (5th ed., 1943); The Neuroses, 1929; The Neurologist's Point of View, 1945, and numerous articles published in various textbooks and medical journals. Res.: 35 E. 84th St. Office: 70 E. 83rd St., New York, N. Y.

WECKER, WALTER ANDRÉ, American Manufacturer; born June 29, 1895, Peru, Ill.; son of August C. and Josephine (Leyes) Wecker; educated at public schools; married Minnie Inez Ramey, August 24, 1920; one son. Began as a clerk with the Marquette Cement Manufacturing Co., 1914, becoming credit clerk in 1915 and Credit Manager in 1916. He served as Secretary from 1921 to 1923, and as Secretary-Treasurer from 1923 to 1932, when he also became Vice-President. He has been President and Treasurer and Director since 1933; relinquished the position of Treasurer in 1943. Dir., Portland Cement Assn. (Chmn. of Board, 1941-42). Residence: Wilmot Rd., Bannockburn. Office: 20 N. Wacker Dr., Chicago 6, Ill.

WECKER, WILLIAM A., O.B.E., Canadian Industrialist; born Sept. 11, 1892, Pittsburgh, Pa.; educated at Pittsburgh Public Schools and Carnegie Institute of Technology; married; two daughters. Engaged in experimental work with Westinghouse Air Spring Company, New Haven (Conn.), 1914; Munitions Department, Union Switch & Signal Co., Pittsburgh, 1915; foreman, General Manager and President, Hayes Wheels and Forgings, Ltd. (Chatham, Ont.), 1917-36; Vice-President and Assistant General Manager, The McKinnon Industries, Ltd., subsidiary of General Motors, 1936; President and General Manager, 1940; General Manager of General Motors of Canada, 1943-45; Pres., since 1945. Chmn., Canadian Section, Soc. of Automotive Engineers, 1944-45; Member, Amer. Soc. of Metals, Canadian Manufacturers Assn. Address: General Motors of Canada, Ltd., Oshawa, Ont., Canada.

WECKLER, HERMAN L., American Industrialist; born in Pittsburgh, Pa. August 31, 1888, son of August L. and Elizabeth (Hornung) Weckler. He was educated at Carnegie Institute of Technology. He has four children: Harold L., James, Inez E., and Judy Lee. With Jones & Loughlin Steel Co., 1905; shop engineer with Amer. Locomotive Works, 1908; mechanical superintendent of Buick in 1912; General Manager in 1928. Joined Chrysler Corp. in 1932 as assistant to K. T. Keller; elected Vice-President of DeSoto Division in 1935; Vice-President of Chrysler Corp. in charge of Industrial Relations, 1937; Vice-President in charge of Operations, 1938, and a Director in 1940; also Pres., Dodge Division. Member, Soc. of Automotive Engineers. Residence: 845 Edgemont Park, Grosse Pointe, Mich. Office: 341 Massachusetts Ave., Detroit, Mich.

WECTER, Dr. DIXON, American Historian; born Jan. 12, 1906, Houston, Texas; son of John Joseph and Eugenia (Dixon) Wecter; educated at Baylor Univ., B.A. 1925, Litt.D. 1945; Yale Univ., M.A. 1926, Ph.D. 1936; Oxford Univ., Litt.B. 1930. Rhodes Scholar; married Elizabeth Farrar, Dec. 28, 1937. Instructor in English, Univ. of Texas, 1930-31; Asst. Prof., Univ. of Denver, 1933-34. Asst. Prof., Univ. of Colorado, 1934-36; Assoc. Prof., 1936-39. Prof. of English, Univ. of California at Los Angeles, since 1939. Member, Permanent Research Staff, Huntington Library, San Marino, Calif., since 1943; Chairman, since 1946. First Prof. of Amer. History in Australia, Univ. of Sydney, 1945. Member: Amer. Antiquarian Soc.; Amer. Historical Assn.; Soc. of Amer. Historians; Modern Language Assn. Author: Saga of American Society, 1937; Edmund Burke and his Kinsmen, 1939; The Hero in America, 1941; When Johnny Comes Marching Home (Life in America Prize), 1944. Residence: 1650 Orlando Rd. Office: Huntington Library, San Marino, California.

WEDBERG, Lt. Col. LARS ERIK, Swedish Civil Engineer; born Aug. 3, 1868, Parish of Lindesberg, Sweden; son of Casper Ferdinand and Mathilda Helena (Cantzler) Wedberg; educated at Royal Technical Univ., C.E. 1892; Military aspirant course, 1892; married Tyra Sofia Strandell, June 8, 1899. Engineer since 1893. Commissioned Lieut., Royal Engineer Corps (for road and canal construction), 1896; advanced to Capt., 1907, Major, 1908, Lieut. Col., 1921; retired from service 1933. Engineer and Chief, District (road and canal construction) of Provinces Norrbotten and Västerbotten, 1899-1918; Chief, District of Prov. Västerbotten, 1919-30; responsible for many roads and bridge projects. Head and Controller of many works including bridge constructions, 1903-17. Expert on surveys and projects of waterways for timber-floating, of harbours and navigable canals, inspections for exploring of waterpower, 1903-18. Member of Swedish-Russian Commn. for regulation of conditions of timber-floating in Torne and Muonio boundary-rivers between Sweden and Russia, 1908-10; Delegate to Conf. Regulating Rivers (at that time boundary-rivers between Sweden and Finland for floating of free forth-gliding timber, 1919-24, 1927-30, and for arrangement of a public floatable waterway in a fixed area in Gulf of Bothnia at mouth of Torne River, 1932-33). Engaged in surveys and projects of harbours in the Gulf of Bothnia, Prov. Norrbotten, 1916-28; Inspector of Harbour-Building at Skelleftehamn, 1915; Controller of Harbour-Building, Town of Umeå at Holmsund, 1924; Engineer at law-courts of water of Norrbygden, 1919-35. Residence: 20 c Storgatan, Umeå, Sweden.

WEDD, STANLEY MUSGRAVE, Canadian Banker; born Sept. 21, 1889, Kitchener, Ont., Canada; son of George Maynard and Mabel Alexandra (Goodman) Wedd; educated at Walkerton, Ont., High School; married Gretchen van Nostrand, Oct. 8, 1913; three children. Began career as Banker, 1905; now Vice-Pres. and General Manager, Canadian Bank of Commerce, Toronto. Director: Canadian Bank of Commerce; Penny Bank of Ontario. Clubs: Royal Canadian Yacht, Toronto Club, Toronto Golf, York (Toronto), Rideau (Ottawa). Address: 25 King St., West, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

WEDDELL, ALEXANDER WILBOURNE, American Diplomat; born Apr. 6, 1876, Richmond, Va.; son of Rev. Dr. Alexander Watson and Penelope Margaret (Wright) Weddell; educated at George Washington University, LL.B.; Universities of Catania and Lausanne, Switzerland; hon. Litt.D., Hampden-Sydney College; LL.D., College of William and Mary; LL.D., Univ. of Richmond; Rollins College, hon. L.H.D.; married Virginia Chase. Private Secy. to Amer. Minister to Denmark, 1907; American Consul at Zanzibar, East Africa, and Catania, Italy; Consul General at Athens, Greece, and Diplomatic Attaché at Cairo, Egypt; Consul General at Calcutta, India, and Mexico City, Mexico. Served as Ambassador to Argentina and to Spain. Director, First & Merchants National Bank, Richmond, Va. President, Virginia Historical Society and Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. Decorated by Governments of Greece, Italy, Serbia, Panama and Bolivia. Author: Introduction to Argentina, 1939. Address: Virginia House, Windsor Farms, Richmond 21, Va.

WEDDERBURN, Sir ERNEST MACLAGAN, Scottish Lawyer; born Feb. 3, 1884, Forfar, Scotland; son of Alexander S. and Anne (Ogilvie) Maclagan-Wedderburn; educated at George Watson's College, Edinburgh; Edinburgh Univ., M.A. 1902, LL.B. 1905, D.Sc. 1911, LL.D. 1938; married Mary Goldie, Apr. 5, 1911; four children. Writer to the Signet, Dec. 1907; Partner in Carment, Wedderburn & Watson, 1908; firm amalgamated with Guild & Shepherd under name of Shepherd & Wedderburn, 1922; Prof. of Conveyancing, Univ. of Edinburgh, 1922-35. Deputy Keeper of the Signet and Chairman of General Council of Solicitors in Scotland since 1935; Chairman of Solicitors Discipline Com., Scotland, since 1943. Chairman: Governors of Fettes College and of John Watsons School; Member of Court, Edinburgh Univ. Director: British Linen Bank; Scottish Provident Inst.; Natl. Guarantee & Suretyship Assn. Hon. Legal Adviser to Boy Scouts Assn., Scotland; Chairman, Scottish Standing Conf. of Voluntary Youth Organizations, 1942-45. Member: Royal Soc. of Edinburgh (Treasurer); Royal Meteorological Soc.; Royal Scottish Geographical Soc. (Vice-Pres.). Awarded O.B.E. 1919; Knighthood, 1942. Residence: 6 Succoth Gardens. Office: 16 Charlotte Square, Edinburgh, Scotland.

WEDDERBURN, Dr. JOSEPH HENRY MACLAGAN, American Mathematician; born Feb. 26, 1882, Forfar, Scotland; son of Alex. S. and Anne (Ogilvie) Maclagan Wedderburn; educated at Edinburgh Univ., M.A. with honours, 1903, D.Sc. 1908; Univ. of Leipzig, 1903; Univ. of Berlin, 1904; Univ. of Chicago, 1904-05. Nichol Asst., Physical Laboratory, Univ. of Edinburgh, 1902-03; Asst. to Prof. of Mathematics, Univ. of Edinburgh, 1906-09. Asst. Prof. of Mathematics, Princeton Univ., 1909-21; Assoc. Prof., 1921-28; Prof., 1928-45; Emeritus Prof. since then. Fellow, Royal Soc. of London. Member: Royal Soc. of Edinburgh; Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Mathematical Assn. of America; Edinburgh Mathematical Soc.; Royal Meteorological Soc. of London; Circolo Matematico of Palermo. Awarded Makdougall-Brisbane Prize, Royal Soc. of Edinburgh, 1922. Author: Lectures on Matrices, 1934. Capt. in British Army, 1914-19. Address: Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey.

WEDEL, Rev. Dr. THEODORE OTTO, American Clergyman; born Feb. 19, 1892, Halstead, Kans.; son of Cornelius H. and Susanna (Richert) Wedel; educated at Oberlin College, B.A. 1914; Harvard Univ., M.A. 1915; Yale Univ., Ph.D. 1918; Univ. of Marburg, Germany, 1930-31; Seabury-Western Theological School, S.T.D. 1940; married Elizabeth Cornelia Ewert, June 26, 1917 (dec.); (2nd) Cynthia Clark, May 4, 1939; two children. Ordained Priest, Protestant Episcopal Church, 1931. Instructor in English, Univ. of Texas, 1919; Instructor in English, Yale, 1919-22; Prof. of English, Carleton College, 1922-30; Prof. of Biography, 1930-34; Secy. for College Work, Natl. Council of Protestant Episcopal Church, 1934-39. Director of Studies, College of Preachers, Washington Cathedral, since 1939, and Canon Chancellor of Cathedral. Warden, College of Preachers, since 1943. Author: The Medieval Attitude Toward Astrology. Editor: Addison's Essays, 1929; The Coming Great Church, 1945. Address: 3510 Woodley Rd., Washington 16, D. C.

WEDELL, Hon. HUGO THEODORE, American Jurist; born Jan. 6, 1890, Hillsboro, Kans.; son of Franz E. and Katherine (Goertz) Wedell; educated at Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia, 1909-12; Univ. of Kansas, A.B. 1915, LL.B. 1920; married Hazel Houston, Sept. 2, 1917; one daughter. Admitted to Oklahoma Bar, 1920, to Kansas Bar, 1922; practiced in Nowata, Okla., 1920-22 with firm of Schwabe, Raymond and Wedell; member, firm Jones & Wedell, Chanute, Kans., 1922; 1927 opened own office in Chanute and Erie, Kans., and formed firm of Wedell & Donaldson, 1932; County Atty. Neosho County, Kans., 1927-31; Special State Prosecutor by appointment of Governor, 1933-34; member, Commission to revise Kansas Code of Criminal Procedure, 1934; Atty. for City of Chanute, Kans., 1935, appointed Associate Justice Supreme Court of Kansas to fill vacancy, July, 1935; elected to Supreme Court, 1936 and 1942. Residence: 1401 Collins Street. Address: State House, Topeka, Kans.

WEDEMEYER, Lieut. General ALBERT COADY, American Army Officer; born July 9, 1896, Omaha, Nebr.; graduated U. S. Military Academy, West Point, N. Y.; commissioned 2nd Lieut., Inf., 1918. Went to Europe for an observation tour of battlefields in Belgium, France and Germany, 1919. Promoted 1st Lieut., 1920; served in China, 1929-31; in Philippines, 1930-33; student, German War College, 1936-38; Member, Plans Group, War Plans Div., War Dept., General Staff, 1941; Lieut. Col. (temp.) 1941. Member, Joint Strategic Com. on Combined Subjects Committee until 1942; Assistant to Assistant Chief of Staff, Operations Division, 1942-43; promoted Col. (temp.), 1942; Brigadier General (temp.), 1942; Lieut. Col. (perm.), 1942; Major General (temp.), 1943; Lieut. General (temp.), 1945; Deputy Chief of Staff, Southeast Asia Command, 1943; Commanding General, U. S. Army Forces in China Theatre of Operations, and Chief of Staff of theatre, 1944, and concurrently Chief of Staff to Chiang Kai-shek; Commander, China Theatre of Operations, 1944; Commanding General, Second Army Command, until 1947; on Mission to China and Korea, 1947; Dir. of Plans and Operations, U. S. Army, 1948—. Awarded D.S.M. 1943. Address: War Department, Washington, District of Columbia.

WEDGE, Dr. GEORGE ANSON, American Music Educator; born Jan. 15, 1890, Danbury, Conn.; son of Anson Curtis and Cora Belle (McHan) Wedge; educated at Inst. of Musical Art of Juilliard School of Music, diplomas in organ, 1910, piano, 1914, composition, 1915. Organist, Methodist Episcopal Church, Danbury, Conn., 1903-09; St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Ridgefield, Conn., 1909-11; Madison Avenue M.E. Church, New York City, 1911-24. Instructor, Institute of Musical Art, 1909; St. Agatha's School, New York City, 1918-22; H. Witherspoon Studios, 1917-25; Accompanist to Musical Art Society, 1913-18. Instructor, New York University, 1920-27; Settlement Music School, Philadelphia, 1923; Head of Theory Department, Curtis Institute, Philadelphia, 1924-26; Manhattan School of Music, 1923; Teachers College, Columbia University, 1925-26. Instructor, Institute of Musical Art, Juilliard School of Music, since 1926. Director, Institute of Musical Art, 1937-39; Director, Juilliard Summer School, since 1932. Dean, Inst. of Musical Art, 1939-46; Dir. of Administration, 1946. Hon. Litt.D., Ursinus Coll., Pa. 1946. Author: Ear-Training and Sight-Singing, 1921; Advanced Ear-Training and Sight-Singing, 1922; Keyboard Harmony, 1924; Applied Harmony, Vol. I, 1930, Vol. II, 1931; Rhythm in Music, 1927; The Gist of Music, 1936. Residence: 350 W. 57th St., Office: 120 Claremont Ave., New York, N.Y.

WEDGWOOD, CICELY VERONICA, British Historian; born July 20, 1910, Stocksfield, Northumberland, England; daughter of Sir Ralph Lewis and Iris Veronica (Pawson) Wedgwood; educated privately in London, France and Germany; Oxford Univ., B.A. 1931. Free lance writer, since 1934. Author three historical biographies: Strafford (1935), Cromwell (1939) and William the Silent (1944, London, U. S. 1944); (general work) The Thirty Years War, London, 1938. Appointed Literary Editor, Time and Tide, 1943; Deputy Editor, since 1944. Director, Time and Tide. Governor, British Assn. for Internatl. Understanding; Fellow, Royal Historical Soc. of Great Britain. Contributed to New Statesman, Tablet, Geographical Magazine, New Writing, Horizon, etc. Residence: 30 Bedford Sq., London. Office: c/o Jonathan Cape Ltd., London, England.

WEDGWOOD, JOSIAH, British Industrialist; born Oct. 20, 1899, Newcastle-on-Tyne, England; son of (Rt. Hon. Lord) Josiah Clement and (Hon.) Ethel Kate (Bowen) Wedgwood; educated at Univ. College, London, 1916-17; London School of Economics (grad. with honours), 1919-22; married Dorothy Mary Winser, Feb. 1919; three children. With R. F. Artillery, war service, 1918. Secy., then Director, Rural Industries Bureau, 1922-26. Secy., Josiah Wedgwood & Sons (Potters), 1928; Managing Director, 1930—. Director: Bank of England, 1942-46; Josiah Wedgwood & Sons, Inc. of New York (selling company); Wedgwood Estate Co.; Wedgwood Housing Assn. Ltd.; Friends Provident and Century Life Office (Birmingham Bd.). Chmn. of Council, Royal College of Art; Member of Council of Industrial Design. Member: British Pottery Manufacturers Federation (Vice-Chmn., 1942-46); British Fine China Manufacturers Assn. Author: Economics of Inheritance, 1929 (revised ed., 1939). Residence: Stoke Grange, Stone, Staffs. Office: Barlaston, Stoke-on-Trent, Staffs., England.

WEED, CLYDE E., American Mining Engineer; born August 8, 1890, Missauke County, Mich.; son of Herbert Moores and Emma (Van Aken) Weed; educated at Michigan College of Mines, Apr. 1911; married Albertine Milan, 1930; one son. Miner, Superior Mine, Houghton, Mich., 1911-12; Mines Superintendent, Victoria Copper Mining Co., Ontonagon County, Mich., 1913-15; Superintendent, Lake Copper Co., Ontonagon County, Mich., 1915-17; Manager of Hancock Consolidated Copper Co., Hancock, Mich., 1917-20; Foreman, Live Oak Division, Inspiration (Ariz.) Consolidated Copper Co., and Assistant Manager, 1924-29; President and General Manager, Cananea (Sonora, Mexico) Consolidated Copper Co. General Manager of Mines, Anaconda Copper Mining Co., 1938-42, Vice-President in Charge of Mining Operations since 1942. President: Amico Mining Corp.; Andes Exploration Co. of Maine; Golden Reward Mining Co.; Natl. Tunnel & Mines Co. Vice-Pres., Greene Cabanea Copper Co. Director: Amer. Power & Light Co.; Andes Copper Mining Co.; Andes Exploration Co. of Maine; Butte Copper & Zinc Co.; Chile Copper Co.; Chile Exploration Co.; Golden Reward Mining Co.; Greene Cabanea Copper Co.; Internatl. Smelting & Refining Co.; Natl. Tunnel & Mines Co.; Potrerillos Railway Co.; Santiago Mining Co. Member: Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers. Residence: Naco, Ariz. Office: 25 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

WEED, J. SPENCER, American Business Executive; born Dec. 24, 1879, Middletown, N. Y.; educated at Williams College; married; three children (first marriage). In banking business in Middletown, 1897-1900; later with Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. until 1924, serving as Vice-President and Director in Charge of Operations, 1918-24. President, Grand Union Co., 1924-47; Chairman of Board, 1947—. Director, Stone & Webster; Member of the Advisory Board, Liberty Mutual Ins. Co. Served with U. S. Food Administration, 1918-19. Director: American Horse Show Assn.; National Horse Show Assn. (Pres., 1931-37). Residence: Morristown, N. J. Office: 50 Church St., New York, N. Y.

WEED, Dr. LEWIS H(ILL), American Anatomist; born November 15, 1886, Cleveland, Ohio; son of Charles Henry and Mary Frances (Lewis) Weed; educated at Yale, A.B. 1908, A.M. 1909; Johns Hopkins, M.D. 1912. Dr. Weed began his career as a Fellow in Charge of the Laboratory of Surg. Research at Harvard Med. School, 1912-13. Arthur Tracy Cabot Fellow, 1913-14; Instructor, later Assoc., then Associate Prof. of Anatomy at Johns Hopkins, 1914-19, and Prof., 1919-47; Dean of Med. Faculty, 1923-29; Dir., School of Medicine, 1929-46. Chairman, Div. of Med. Sciences, Natl. Research Council, 1947—. Capt. Med. Corps, U.S.A., Aug. 1917-May, 1919; Military Dir. of Army Neuro-Surg. Laboratory at Johns Hopkins, 1917-19; Research Assoc. at Carnegie Inst. of Wash., 1922-35. Trustee, Inst. for Advanced Study, 1930—, and of Carnegie Institution, 1935—. Member of the Med. Fellowship Bd., Natl. Research Council, 1935-39; Chmn., Div. of Med. Sciences since 1939; Member of Health and Med. Com., Council of Natl. Defense, 1940-41; Member and Vice-Chairman of the Com. on Med. Research Office of Scientific Research & Development, 1941—; Chairman of the Med. and Health Adv. Com. of Amer. Red Cross, 1943-47. Member, Yale Corp., 1947—. Awarded Medal of Merit, 1946. Hon. degrees: Sc.D., Univ. of Rochester, 1929; LL.D., Duke, 1938; Sc.D., Univ. of Pa., 1942; LL.D., Tufts College, 1943; Sc.D., Washington Univ., 1944; Sc.D., Lafayette College, 1944; LL.D., Tulane Univ., 1944. Publications: Numerous monographs and original articles on anatomical and neurological subjects, as well as articles on medical education. Res.: 3908 N. Charles St., Baltimore, Md. Office: 2101 Constitution Ave., Washington 25, D. C.

WEEDON, CHARLES J., American Manufacturer; born Nov. 21, 1893, London, England; son of Charles Frederick and Frances (Wright) Weedon; educated at London Univ.; married. Cost Accountant, 1919; now Pres., Scott & Bowne and Pres. and Chmn. of Bd. of subsidiary companies in Canada, Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Venezuela, Mexico and Cuba. Also President of J. C. Eno Inc. and Eno Companies in Canada, Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Venezuela and Mexico; President, County Perfumery Co., Inc., Chairman of Board, Rtichie & Janvier, Inc.; Pres., Beechams Pills, Inc.; Vice Pres., Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., Toronto. Member of New York Board of Trade; Toronto Board of Trade. Served with Royal Air Force, 1914-19. Residence: Lakeshore Rd., Lake Valhalla, Montville. Office: 60 Orange St., Bloomfield, N. J.

WEEKS, EDWARD A., JR., American Editor; born Feb. 19, 1898, Elizabeth, N. J.; son of Edward A. and Frederika (Suydam) Weeks; educated at Cornell Univ., 1915-17; Harvard Univ., B.S. 1922; Cambridge Univ., England, 1922-23; Hon. Litt.D., Northeastern Univ., 1938; Lake Forest College, Ill., 1939; Williams College, 1944; Univ. of Alabama, 1945; married Frederica Watriss, May 28, 1925; two children. Manuscript reader and book salesman with Horace Liveright, New York City, 1923; Assoc. Editor, Atlantic Monthly, Boston, Mass., 1924-28; Editor, Atlantic Monthly Press, 1928-37; Editor, Atlantic Monthly, since 1938. Contributor of essays, articles and book reviews to magazines. Overseer, Harvard College, since 1945; Chairman, Massachusetts Com. to Reform Book Censorship, 1929, 1930; Chairman, Peabody Radio Awards. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Author: This Trade of Writing, 1935. Editor: Great Short Novels (anthology), 1941; The Pocket Atlantic, 1946. Residence: 59 Chestnut St. Office: 8 Arlington St., Boston 16, Massachusetts.

WEEKS, Prof. ILA DELBERT, American Educator; born in Scotia, Nebr., Sept. 5, 1901; educated at State Teachers College, Kearney, Nebr., 1924; Univ. of Iowa, M.A. 1925; residence work completed for Ph.D., Univ. of Minnesota, 1930; married Virginia Shawkey, June 11, 1926; two sons. Prof. of Rural Education, Northern State Teachers College, Aberdeen, S. D., 1925-33; Supt. of Public Instruction, State of So. Dakota, 1933-35. Pres., Univ. of So. Dakota, since 1935. Author of numerous articles and original papers on higher education and methods of education. Address: University of South Dakota, Vermillion, S. D.

WEEKS, Dr. OLIVER DOUGLAS, American Political Scientist; born Sept. 4, 1896, Marion, Ohio; son of Dr. Dana O. and Gertrude (Douglas) Weeks; educated at Ohio Wesleyan Univ., B.A. 1918; Univ. of Wisconsin, M.A. 1919, Ph.D. 1924; married Julien Devereux, June 21, 1927; two children. Asst. Prof. of History and Political Science, Morningside College, Sioux City, Iowa, 1920-22; Teaching Asst., Univ. of Wisconsin, 1922-24; Instructor in Government, Univ. of Texas, 1924-25; Asst. Prof. of Political Science, Western Reserve Univ., 1925-26; Assoc. Prof. of Government, Univ. of Texas, 1926-33; Prof. of Government since 1933; also Chairman of Dept. Head of Political Science Branch, Amer. Univ. (U. S. Army), Shrivenham, England, 1945; Instructor in Political Science, Amer. Univ. (U. S. Army), Biarritz, France, 1946. Book Review Editor, Southwestern Social Science Quarterly, 1926-45. Contributor to Section on Electoral Legislation, The American Yearbook, since 1939. Author of numerous articles in the field of legislation, political science and law. Address: University of Texas, Austin, Texas.

WEEKS, RALPH EMERSON, American Publisher; born Feb. 7, 1878, Skaneateles, N. Y.; son of William T. and Martha M. Weeks. Vice-Pres. and Director, Internatl. Textbook Co., 1915; Pres. since 1916; also Pres. and Dir., Internatl. Correspondence Schools; Internatl. Correspondence Schools, Canada, Ltd.; Haddon Craftsmen Inc.; Vice-Pres. and Dir., Ralph E. Weeks Co. and Williams Bakery; Treas. and Dir., United States Lumber Co.; Mississippi Railroad Co.; J. J. Newman Lumber Co.; Director, First National Bank of Scranton, Pa.; International Educational Publishing Co.; International Correspondence Schools, Ltd. of London; International Schools Co. of Latin America; The Scranton Lackawanna Trust Co.; The Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, and The Hudson Coal Co. Serves as Director of Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce; Scranton Y.M.C.A.; Scranton-Lackawanna Chapter, Amer. Red Cross. Vice-Pres. and Trustee, Wyoming Seminary, and Scranton Public Library; Trustee, Keystone College; Y.W.C.A., and Pres., Bd. of Trustees, First Methodist Episcopal Church of Scranton Residence: 544 Jefferson Ave. Office: 1001 Wyoming Ave., Scranton, Pa.

WEEKS, Lt. Gen. Sir RONALD MORCE, British Army Officer, Industrialist; born Nov. 13, 1890, Durham, England; son of Richard Llewellyn and Susan Helen Walker Weeks; educated at Caius College, Cambridge, B.A. 1912, Hon. Fellow, 1945; Liverpool Univ., Hon. LL.D. 1946; married Cynthia Mary Cumming, Feb. 3, 1931; two children. Trainee, Pilkington Bros., St. Helens, 1912; served in World War I, 1914-18; regular commission in Rifle Brigade; on Staff of Lord Rawlinson and Lord Haig. Rejoined Pilkington Bros., 1919, becoming Works Manager, Director, then Chairman, Executive Board, 1939. Rejoined British Army; commanded 5th Battalion, T.A. Regiment, 1934-38; served in World War II, 1939-45; G.S.O., 66th Division; Brigadier General of Staff, Home Force; Major General, Director of Army Equipment, 1941; Lieut. General, Deputy Chief of Imperial General Staff, 1942-45; Deputy Military Governor of Germany, 1945; retired from Army, 1945. Deputy Chairman and Director, Messrs. Vickers Ltd.; Chairman, English Steel Corp.; Director: Finance Corp. of Industries; Disabled Persons Employment Corp; Associated Electric Industries and Pilkington Bros. Awarded Military Cross, 1916; D.S.O., 1918; Bar to Military Cross, 1918; Croix de Guerre, France, 1918; C.B.E., 1939; T.D., 1941; K.C.B., 1943. Address: c/o Vickers Ltd., Vickers House, Broadway, Westminster, London, England.

WEEMS, Rev. JAMES THOMPSON, American Clergyman; born Nov. 25, 1888, Forest, Miss.; son of W. L. and Mollie (Thompson) Weems; educated at Millsaps College, B.A. 1913; married Lilla Idom (deceased); one son; married Allie Mangum, 1914; one daughter. Began career as Minister, 1914. Pastor: Bolton, Miss., 1925-26; Anguilla, Miss., 1927-29; Richton, Miss., 1930; Tylertown, Miss., 1932-36; Waynesboro, Miss., 1937-40. Minister: Hattiesburg, Miss., 1941-42; Flora, Miss., 1943; Methodist Episcopal Church, Heidelberg, Miss., since 1946. Address: Heidelberg, Mississippi.

WEGELIN, Dr. CARL, Swiss Pathologist; born Feb. 8, 1879, St. Gall, Switzerland; son of Carl and Ernestine (Stein) Wegelin; educated at Univs. of Zurich, Munich, Heidelberg and Berne; M.D. 1904. Asst., Pathological Inst., Berne; Asst. Physician, Kantonsspital, St. Gall; Medical Clinic, Univ. of Königsberg, Prussia; Dermatological Clinic, Univ. of Berne; returned to the Pathological Inst., Berne; Privatdocent of Pathology and Pathological Anatomy, 1908; Prof. of General Pathology and Pathological Anatomy, Univ. of Berne, since 1913; Rector of University, 1924-25. Pres., Swiss Acad. of Medical Sciences, 1943. Member: Assn. of Swiss Pathologists; German Pathological Soc.; German Acad. of Explorers at Halle; (Hon.) Spanish Acad. of Medicine; (Foreign Assoc.) Société Anatomique de Paris; (Corresponding) Reale Accademia di medicina at Turin; Foreign Corresponding Member, Société d'Endocrinologie. Hon. Member, Interstate Post-Graduate Medical Assn. of North America. Author of numerous scientific papers, especially on pathology of thyroid gland in Handbuch der speziellen pathologischen Anatomie und Histologie von Henke-Lubarsch (Vol. 8); Der Knopf der weissen Ratte (with Prof. Langhans), 1919; Der endemische Kretinismus (with Prof. de Quervain), 1936. Address: Falkenweg 9, Berne, Switzerland.

WEGENROTH, STOW, American Artist. Specialist in lithography. Member: Architectural League of New York; National Academy of Design. Gave numerous exhibitions of works. Represented in various art collections. Vice President, Audubon Artists Society. Address: 51 West 10th St., New York, N. Y.

WEGLEIN, Dr. DAVID EMRICH, American Educator; born in Baltimore, Md., June 10, 1876; son of Morris and Rosa (Emrich) Weglein; educated at Johns Hopkins Univ., A.B. 1897, Ph.D. 1916; Columbia Univ., A.M. 1912. Teacher and Head of Pedagogical Dept. of Baltimore City College, 1902-06; Principal, Western High School, Baltimore, 1906-20. Instructor in Education, Johns Hopkins Univ., 1917-21; Assoc. in Education, 1921-28; Assoc. Prof. since 1928. Asst. Supt. of Schools of Baltimore, 1921-24; First Asst., 1924-25; Supt. since 1925. Member: Amer. Council on Education (Problems and Plans Com., 1930-35); Natl. Education Assn.; Amer. Assn. of School Administrators (2nd Vice-Pres.), etc. Former Member, Natl. Advisory Com. of Natl. Youth Administration. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Author: Correlation of Abilities of High School Pupils, 1916. Address: 3 E. 25th St., Baltimore, Md.

WEGMANN, Dr. EUGENE, Swiss Professor of Geology and Mineralogy; born Apr. 18, 1896, Schaffhausen, Switzerland; son of Emil and Emilia (Jezlert) Wegmann; educated at College of Schaffhausen; Univ. of Neuchâtel, Sc.D.; Univs. of Zurich, Grenoble, Paris, and Trondheim (Norway); married Cécile Hélène Rychner, Sept. 27, 1941. Asst. Geologist at Neuchâtel; served as Geologist in Norway, 1924-26; Finland, as collaborator of Prof. Sederholm, 1927-31; Member of Danish Greenland exploration, 1932-39; Prof. of Geology and Mineralogy, Univ. of Neuchâtel, since 1941; also Director of Geological Dept. Member of Com., Observatory of Astronomy, Chronometry and Seismology; Com. for Water Supply, Museum of Natural History and Ethnology (since 1941). Member: Norwegian Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Geological Soc. of Switzerland (Member of Com.); Geological Socs. of Sweden, France; Geographical Soc. of Neuchâtel (Ex-Director). Corresponding Member, Geological Socs. of Norway and Finland; Hon. Member, Scientific Soc. of Schaffhausen. Awarded Medal of Merit, Denmark. Author: Problems of the Migmatites, 1935; Geology of Christian X Land (East Greenland), 1935; Geology of Southern Greenland, 1938. Served in Swiss Army, 1915-18, and 1939-45. Residence: Fbg. de l'hôpital 43. Office: University of Neuchâtel, Bellevaux, Neuchâtel, Switzerland.

WEHBERG, Dr. HANS, Swiss Professor of International Law; born Dec. 15, 1885, Düsseldorf, Germany; son of Dr. Heinrich and Auguste (Dieckmann) Wehberg; educated at Municipal College, Düsseldorf; Univs. of Jena, Göttingen and Bonn, J.D.; married Klasina Agema, Dec. 15, 1910; two daughters. Junior Barrister, Court at Düsseldorf, 1908; Asst., Inst. for Sea-Trade and World Economy, Kiel, Germany, 1917-19; Head of Section, Deutsche Liga für Völkerbund, Berlin, since 1919; Prof. of Internatl. Law, Institut Universitaire de Hautes Etudes Internationales, Geneva, since 1928. Author: Capture in War on Land and Sea, 1911; The Problem of an International Court of Justice, 1918; The Limitation of Armaments, 1921; Die Satzung des Völkerbundes (with W. Schücking), 1921. Address: 1 Avenue de la Grenade, Geneva, Switzerland.

WEHLE, LOUIS BRANDEIS, American Attorney; born Sept. 13, 1880, Louisville, Ky.; son of Otto A. and Amy (Brandeis) Wehle; educated at Harvard, A.B. 1902; M.A., 1903; Harvard Law School, LL.B., 1904; married Mary G. P. Liddell, May 17, 1911; three children. Began as a lawyer, 1904. Partner of Wehle & Wehle (Louisville, Ky.), 1904-17; of Counsel, Gen. Munitions Board and War Industries Board, 1917-18. Special Assistant to Secretary of War, 1917; of Counsel, U. S. Shipping Bd., Emergency Fleet Corp., 1917-19; General Counsel, War Finance Corp., 1919-20; Member of Marshall, Wehle & Hinckley, 1927-32; Marshall & Wehle, 1932-42; Hooker, Goodale, Wehle & Hanson, 1942-44. Head, United States Foreign Economic Administration's Mission to the Netherlands (1944-45). Delegate at Hague International Congress of Comparative Law, 1937. Author of articles on comparative and international law, on public service regulation; on legal education; public policy as to labor, etc. Residence: 1150 Fifth Ave. Office: 14 Wall St., New York, N. Y.

WEHTJE, ERNST (JONAS), Swedish Industrialist, Politician; born July 17, 1891, Malmö, Sweden; son of Ernst and Mimmi (Ahnfelt) Wehtje; educated at Univ. of Lund; Commercial High School, Stockholm; married Britta Elfverson, 1920; three children. Asst. Manager, Hellefors Bruks A/B, 1915-18; Managing Director, A/B Ifoverken, 1918; appointed Managing Director of Skanska Cementaktiebolaget, since 1929. Member, Swedish Parliament. Member of Bd.: A/B Ifoverken, Skanska Cementaktiebolaget; General Export Assn. of Sweden; Industrial Assn. of Sweden. Member, Board of various other companies. Residence: Adolf Frederiksgatan 1, Malmö. Office: Hans Mickelsensgatan 1 B, Malmö, Sweden.

WEI, Dr. FRANCIS CHO-MIN, Chinese Educator; born Dec. 1888, Pakhoi, Kwangtung, China; educated at Boone Univ., China, B.A. and M.A.; Harvard Univ., M.A.; Univ. of London, Ph.D.; Hon. Degrees: D.C.L., Univ. of the South, U.S.A.; L.H.D., Franklin & Marshall College. Instructor in Mathematics, Boone Univ., 1911-18; Prof. of Philosophy, 1920-24. Dean, Arts & Science Faculty and Prof. of Philosophy, Hauchung Univ., 1924-27; Pres. and Prof. of Philosophy, since 1929. Haskell Foundation Lecturer, Univ. of Chicago, 1934; Visiting Prof. of Ethics, Yale Univ., 1937-38; Henry Luce Visiting Prof., Union Theological Seminary, New York, 1945-46; Hewett Lecturer in U.S.A., 1945-46. Address: Huachung University, Wuchang, China.

WEI, Dr. HSIOH-ren, Chinese Physicist; born Jan. 26, 1899, Nanking, China; son of Ching-chang Wei and Sheo-chen Chang; educated at Univ. of Nanking, B.A. 1922; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. in Physics, 1928; married Ying-bao Liu, Aug. 1, 1929; four daughters, two sons. Assoc. in Physics, Mathematics and English, Univ. of Nanking, 1922-25; Fellow, Rockefeller Foundation, 1925-28. Registrar and Prof. of Physics, Univ. of Nanking, 1928-30; Dean and Prof. of Physics, since 1930. Member of Chinese Solar Eclipse Expedition (1936). Author of first color motion picture of total eclipse on Kodachrome; Editor. China Science Service Magazine, 1944-45. Scientific Adviser, Chinese Delegation, Atomic Energy Commission, U. N., since 1946; Adviser, Chinese Delegation, General Assembly, U. N., 1946, 1947. Member, Bd. of Dirs.: Chinese Physical Soc.; Chinese Soc. of Educational Cinematography; Central Electrical Plant. Member, Coordination Com., United Service to China, U. S. A. Head, Technical Div., Microfilm Project of British, Chinese and U. S. Govts., 1943-45. Member, National Christian Council of China, 1945-46. Residence: 11 Ping Tsiang Hsian, Nanking, China. Office: Chinese Delegation to U. N., 350 Fifth Ave., New York 1, N. Y.

WEI LI-HUANG, Gen., Chinese Army Officer; born Feb. 28, 1896, Hoh Fei, Anhwei, China; son of Wei Hsu-tung and Soong Fu-lung; educated at Anhwei Military Acad., 1913; Hunan Military Inst., 1915; Field Officers' Academy, Kweilin, 1921; National War College, 1931; married Sophia C. H. Han, June 16, 1945; three sons and three daughters by previous marriage. Second Lieut., 1st Lieut., then Platoon Leader, Dr. Sun Yat-sen's Revolutionary Army, 1911; Capt., Company Commander, 1915; Major, Battalion Commander, 1918; Col., Regimental Commander, 1921; Major General, Brigadier Commander, 1923; Lt. General, Div. Commander, 1926; General, Army Commander, 1928; General, Over-All Field Commander, 1929; General, Group Army Commander, 1932; General, Deputy Commander of 2nd War Zone, 1937; General, Commanding General, 1st War Zone, 1938; General, Com. Member, Natl. Military Council, 1942; General, C. G. of Chinese Expeditionary Forces, 1943; General, Deputy C-in-C, Chinese Army, 1945. Appointed by President of China to study military affairs in U. S., England, France and other countries, 1946; Com. Member, Strategic Advisory Council, 1947—. Nationalist Army Chief in Manchuria, 1948. Awarded: Honor of Army, Class A; Honor of Defense, Class A; decoration of Sian Incident; decoration of Northern Expedition, decoration of Cloud and Banner, Class B; Medal of Tripod, Class A; Medal of Blue Heaven and White Sun; Medal of Victory; Medal of Loyalty and Diligence; Legion of Merit, U. S. Residence: 5 Yung Ching Li, Shanghai Rd. Office: Strategic Advisory Council, Nanking, China.

WEI TAO-MING, Dr., Chinese Diplomat; born 1899, Kiukang, Kiangsi; educated at Univ. of Paris, Docteur en Droit, 1924; Albion College, LL.D. 1943; Univ. of Colorado, LL.D. 1944. Practiced law in Shanghai. When National Govt. was established in Nanking, he became Secretary General of Ministry of Justice; was promoted to Vice-Minister of the same Ministry, 1928; Minister of Justice, 1928-29. From 1930 to 1931 he was Mayor of Nanking, then capital of China, and concurrently served as Member of National Reconstruction Board. Secretary General of the Executive Yuan (Chinese Cabinet) under successive premierships of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and H. H. Kung, 1937-41; also Member of Supreme Council for National Defense during early years of war until nominated to post of Chinese Ambassador to France. Chinese Ambassador to the U. S., 1942-47; Vice-Pres., Legislative Yuan, 1946-47; Governor of Taiwan, 1947—. Member, Chinese Delegation, United Nations Conf. on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Address: Government House, Taipeh, Taiwan, China.

WEI TAO-MING, Madame (Soumé Tcheng), Chinese Lawyer, Author; born February 22, 1896, Canton, Kwangtung, China; educated at Sorbonne (Paris), Doctorate in Law, 1924; married Wei Tao-Ming, August, 1927; one son. Member of Chinese delegation to Peace Conference, 1919. Practiced law in Shanghai, 1924-28; President of Shanghai District Court, 1927; later Member, Provincial Government of Kiangsu. Extraordinary Envoy of Chinese Government to France, 1928. Elected to Legislative Yuan, 1929; one of five-member commission to draft China's Civil Code, 1930. President, Shanghai Law School, 1929. Received LL.D. degree from Alabama College; Member, The Pen and Brush; Associate Member, American Newspaper Women's Club. Author: The Constitutional Movement in China (published in France), 1924; Souvenir d'Enfance et la Révolution (1916); A Girl From China (1926); My Revolutionary Years (1943). Residence: Government House, Taipeh, Taiwan, China.

WEI-TING-SHENG, Prof., Chinese Economist; born 1891, Tsao-yang Hupeh; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1916, M.B.A. 1918; Harvard Graduate School, 1918-20. Prof. of Banking and Finance, Government Teachers' College, Nanking, 1920-21; later at Communications Univ. and Yenching Univ., Peking; Economist, Bank of China, Peking Head Office; with Ministry of Finance, 1927-28; Prof. of Economics, National Fuh Tan Univ., since 1940. Member, Legislative Yuan, since 1928. Address: Legislative Yuan, Nanking, China.

WEI, Prof. YUAN-KUANG, Chinese Educator; born Dec. 11, 1894, Nan-Lo-Hsien, Hopei, China; son of Wei-Pei-Ying and Kuo Lien-Hsiang; educated at Chih-li Provincial Technical College, Tientsin, China, 1918; Syracuse Univ., M.S. 1922; married Ku Chao-Ching, 1911; one daughter and one son. Supt. of Experimental Tannery, Chih-li Bureau of Industrial Research, Tientsin, China, 1918-20; with Pulp and Paper Research Laboratory, Carthage Paper Co., Carthage, N. Y., 1920-21; Pulp and Paper Research Laboratory, Raquette River Paper Co., Potsdam, N. Y., 1922-23; Belt Dept., Sherien Leather Co., N. Y. City, 1923-24; Manager and Chief Engineer, Yih Da Leather Co., Ltd., Tientsin, China, 1924-26. Prof. at Chih-li Provincial Technical College, Tientsin, China, 1924-26; Pres., 1926-29. Pres., Hopei Inst. of Technology, Tientsin, China, 1929-37; Chairman of Com. for Planning of Establishing Central Inst. of Technology, 1936-37; Pres., Central Inst. of Technology, since 1937. Member, Board of Trustees: Hopei Tse-Tzen Middle School, Buo-Yeh-Hsien, Hopei, China; Tzu-Hwei Middle School, Tientsin, China. Member: Foundation Com., Chinese Chemical Soc.; War-time Loan Subscription Com., 1940-42; Chinese Glider Assn. (defense), 1941-43; People's Political Council since 1940; Technical Education Com., Ministry of Education, since 1939. Member of Technical Standards Com., Ministry of Economics, since 1942; Member of Educational Project Com., Chungking Municipal Government, since 1945. Member: Chinese Soc. of Vocational Education; Chinese Science Soc.; Chinese Soc. of Engineers. Author: A Discussion on the History of Chinese Technical Education, 1944; An Opinion on the Readjustment of the System of Chinese Technical Education, 1944; The Past and the Future of Chinese Technical Education System, 1945. Address: Central Institute of Technology, Chungking, Prov. of Tzechuen, China.

WEIBULL, ERIK (GUSTAF WALFRID JOHN), Swedish Company Director; born Mar. 31, 1912, Hamburg, Germany; son of John G. E. and Walborg (Olsén) Weibull; educated at high school, 1929-32; married Gudrun Rasch, 1939; two children. Served with various leather factories and business houses in Denmark, Finland, Switzerland, Great Britain and Germany, 1929, 1932-35; Travelling Salesman for Garvämmes A/B Weibull and affiliated companies, 1935-39; Vice-Director, 1941; Director, since 1945. Director, Kemiska A/B Weibull, Landskrona. Vice-Consul of The Netherlands, 1946. Residence: Skollallén 15 B. Office: Weibullsholm, Landskrona, Sweden.

WEIBULL, JOHN (GUSTAF EDWARD), Swedish Manufacturer; born Nov. 1, 1881, Landskrona, Sweden; son of Walfrid W. and Augusta (Frost) Weibull; studied tanning trade and commerce in Hamburg; married Walborg Olsen, 1910; five children. Served with A/B Lars Frosts Läderfabrik, 1896-1901; Robert Dille, Hamburg, 1902-14 (Private Secy., 1905-09, Partner, 1909-14); Owner of firm (now a sales office of Weibull Concern since 1914). Founded Garvämnes A/B Weibull, Landskrona, 1914; now Chmn. of Bd. of Directors. Residence: Fridhem, Landskrona. Office: Weibullsholm, Landskrona, Sweden.

WEIBULL, NILS RUDOLF MARTIN, Swedish Civil Engineer, born Apr. 21, 1885, Wittskövle, Sweden; son of Rickard and Gerda (Holmberg) Weibull; educated at Kungl. Tekniska Högskolan, Stockholm, 1906. C.E.; married Gulli Breitholtz, May 27, 1911; five children. Asst. Machine Engineer, Stockholm-Rimbo Järnvägs A/B, 1906; Draftsman, Wagner Electric Co., St. Louis, Mo., 1908-09, Vulcan Iron Works Co., Denver, Colo. 1910-11; Chief Draftsman, Vulcan Sheet Metal Co., 1912-15. Factory Supt., Tidaholms Bruk, 1916; Nordiska Kullager A/B, Göteborg, 1917. Dept. Manager, A/B Bofors, 1918-21; Owner and Director, Ingeniörsfirman Nils Weibull, Malmö, producing machinery for sugar industry, silos for sugar and grain, since 1921. Prof., Alnarps Lantbruksinstitut, 1932-33. Director, A/B Hässleholms Verkstäder, Hässleholm, since 1941. Member: Swedish Industrial Standardisation Com., Stockholm, since 1918; Statens Maskinprovningar, Alnarp; Bd. of Directors, Tekniska Läroverket, Malmö, since 1932; Royal Swedish Acad. of Agriculture, since 1945. Decorated Knight, Royal Vasa Order, 1934. Awarded Gold Medal, Royal Physiographical Soc., Lund, 1941. Residence: Linnégatan 147. Office: Östergatan 7, Malmö, Sweden.

WEICHEL, Hon. ALVIN F., United States Congressman; son of Otto A. Weichel and Adeline Smith Weichel; educated at Ferris Inst., Big Rapids, Michigan; Univ. of Michigan, A.B.; Michigan College of Law, LL.B. 1924. Admitted to practice of law, Ohio, 1924; Commissioner of Insolvents; Prosecuting Attorney of Erie County, 1931-37; Ohio Prosecuting Attorneys Assn.; Special Counsel for Attorney General of Ohio; Lecturer, Ohio State Univ. Member: Ohio Bar Examiners' Com. Admitted to practice in County, State and Federal Courts. Member: County, State and Amer. Bar Assns.; Amer. Legion. Elected to 78th, 79th and 80th U. S. Congresses from 13th Dist. of Ohio; Chairman, House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Com. Residence: Sandusky, Ohio. Office: House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

WEICKER, LOWELL P., American Business Executive; born Oct. 14, 1903, Stamford, Conn.; son of Theodore and Florence (Palmer) Weicker; educated at Sheffield Scientific School (Yale) B.S. 1926; married Mary Hastings Bickford, 1927; four children. With General Plastics Co., North Tonawanda, N. Y., 1926; Administrateur Delégué of Lentheric, S. A., Paris, 1927; organized Lentheric, G.m.b.H. in Berlin, Germany, 1928; Pres. and Dir., Lentheric, Inc., 1930. Director, E. R. Squibb & Sons, 1932. Vice-President, 1935. and now President. Pres. and Director: Squibb Properties Corp.; Lentheric, Inc.; Lentheric, S.A., Inc.; Lentheric, Canada, Ltd.; Lentheric Internatl. Corp. Vice-Chmn. of Board and Dir., Squibb International Corp.; Vice-Pres. and Director, Jones Estate Corp.; Chmn. of Bd. and Dir., Lentheric, S.A., Inc., and Lentheric Ltd.; Mng. Dir., Lentheric, G.m.b.H. Residence: 895 Park Ave. Office: 745 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

WEIDEL, GUSTAV, Swedish Diplomat; born March 7, 1890; educated at Lund University. Served as Commercial Attaché at Washington, 1922; Consul-General at New York, 1933-35; Minister to Brazil, 1936-43; Minister to Portugal since 1944. Address: Swedish Legation, Lisbon, Portugal.

WEIDEMAN, CARL MAY, American Lawyer; born March 5, 1898; son of Herman and Christina (May) Weideman; educated at Univ. of Michigan, 1914-17; Detroit College of Law, 1921; married Thelma May (deceased); one son. Began as lawyer, 1920. Elected Member of 73rd United States Congress. Circuit Court Commissioner for Wayne County (term expires in 1948), since 1937. Member law firm of Weideman & Kramer, Detroit, Mich. National Pres., Amer. Turners; Pres., Native Born Detroiters Club. During World War I served in the U. S. Navy. Residence: 10410 E. Jefferson Ave. Office: 104 Wayne County Building, Detroit 26, Mich.

WEIDLEIN, Dr. EDWARD RAY, American Scientist; born in Augusta, Kansas, July 14, 1887; son of Edward and Nettie (Lemon) Weidlein; educated at University of Kansas, B.A. 1909, M.A. 1910; LL.D., Pittsburgh, 1930; Sc.D., Tufts, 1924; Rutgers 1937, Waynesburg, 1939, and Wichita, 1945; married Hazel Butts, April 24, 1915; three sons. Industrial Fellow at University of Kansas, 1909-10, on the study of camphor, and from 1910 to 1912 on the study of ductless glands, investigating ephinephrin; Senior Fellow of Mellon Inst., 1912-16, and had charge of investigations in the metallurgy and hydrometallurgy of copper; appointed Asst. Dir., July, 1916; Assoc. Dir., Oct. 1916; Acting Dir. throughout World War; Dir. since Oct. 1921. Vice-Pres. of the Board of Trustees of Mellon Inst.; Trustee of Univ. of Pittsburgh, Shadyside Acad., and Valley School of Ligonier; Director of Forbes National Bank of Pittsburgh and Western Pa. Hospital. Pres., Amer. Inst. of Chemical Engineers, 1927-29; Amer. Chemical Soc., 1937. (Director, 1938-47). Received Chemical Industry Medal, 1935; Pennsylvania Meritorious Award in 1939 and the Pittsburgh Award for 1939 from the Pittsburgh Section of the American Chemical Society. Received a citation for honor in 1943 from the University of Kansas for distinguished service in his own field through the years; received Man-of-the-Year Award from the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Pittsburgh for 1941; awarded Priestley Medal of Amer. Chem. Soc., 1948. Member of the Research Advisory Committee of the Committee on Research and Patents of the National Association of Manufacturers (for 1943). He was a delegate to the International Union of Chemistry and the Tenth Internatl. Congress of Pure and Applied Chemistry in Rome, Italy, 1938. Member, Com. on Cooperation with the Natl. Defense Research Com. of the Office of Scientific Research and Development, Senior Consultant of the Chemical Division of the War Production Board, 1942-46; Technical Adviser, Rubber Reserve Co; Head Technical Consultant, Production Bd., 1942-46. Member, special com. for the examination of enemy raw materials and supplies under the War Metallurgy Committee of the National Research Council and the National Academy of Sciences (appointed Dec. 1942), and since Apr. 1943, Technical Adviser, Research and Development Division, Quartermaster Corps, U. S. Army. Member of the Research Group of the Committee on Cooperation with the Chemical Warfare Service; Member, Chemical Corps Advisory Board. Residence: 325 S. Dallas Ave. Office: 4400 5th Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.

WEIDLER, Bishop VICTOR OTTERBEIN. American Clergygman; born Jan. 27, 1887, Highspire, Pa.; son of Z. A. and Lydia Alice (Harp) Weidler; educated at Lebanon Valley College, A.B. 1910; married Dora H. Housekeeper, Jan. 27, 1920. Pastor, United Brethren Churches of Frewsburg, N. Y., Buffalo, N. Y., Minneapolis, Minn., 1913-34. General Secy. for Home Missions and Church Erection, United Brethren Church, 1934-38; Bishop of United Brethren Church since 1938. Address: 3814 The Paseo, Kansas City, Missouri.

WEIDMAN, Dr. FREDERICK DEFOREST, American Dermatologist; born Oct. 16, 1881, Bristol, Conn.; son of Herman C. and Eva L. (Stone) Weidman; educated at Univ. of Penna. School of Med., graduating in 1908; married (1st) Florence L. Krewson; (2nd) Lillian E. Hawk; two children. Asst. Demonstrator in Pathol., Univ. of Pa., 1909-14; in Normal Histol., 1909-11; Instr. of Gross Morbid Anatomy, 1914-20; Asst. Dir. of Laboratory of Dermatol. Research, 1917-23; Acting Head of Dept. of Dermatol., 1921-23. Prof. of Dermatol. Research at Univ. of Pa., since 1923 (now Prof. of Research in Dermatology and Mycology). Vice-Dean in Dermatol. and Syphilol. at Grad. School of Med. of Univ. of Pa., and Prof. of Dermatol., until 1946. Prof. of Pathol. at Woman's Med. College of Pa., 1914-17; Assoc. Pathol. at Philadelphia General Hosp., 1920—. Pres., Amer. Dermatological Assn., 1944-46; President, Society of Investigative Dermatology, 1944. Assoc. Editor of Archives of Dermatol. and Syphilol., and of Mycopathologia. Collaborator in Davis' Cyclopedia of Medicine; volume on dermatology in Appleton's "Practitioner's Library," and author of Xanthoma, 1941. Collaborator, Fox's Diseases of Wild Mammals and Birds in Captivity, and Hull's "Diseases of Animal Transmitted to Men." Author of numerous articles published in various medical journals. Res.: 20 Tenby Rd., Havertown, Penna. Office: 36 and Hamilton Walk, Medical Laboratory of University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa.

WEIGERT, HERMANN OSKAR, American Conductor; born Oct. 20, 1890, Breslau, Germany; son of Alfred and Olga (Hamburger) Weigert; married Astrid Varnay. Opera Conductor, Lubeck and Magdeburg (Germany), 1911-14. Conducted at Berlin State Opera House, 1914-33. Assistant Conductor, Metropolitan Opera, since 1934. Several engagements in Covent Garden (England), San Francisco, and Montreal (Canada), 1934-44. Coach to Kirsten Flagstad and other prominent singers (since 1934). Residence: 375 Riverside Dr., New York 25, N. Y.

WEIGLE, Dr. LUTHER ALLAN, American Theologian; born Sept. 11, 1880, Littlestown, Pa.; son of Elias Daniel and Hannah (Bream) Weigle; educated at Gettysburg College, B.A. 1900, M.A. 1903; Lutheran Theological Seminary; Yale University, Ph.D. 1905; Carleton College, D.D. 1916; Gettysburg College, D.D. 1917, LL.D. 1934; Muhlenberg College, Litt.D. 1925; Dickinson College, LL.D. 1933; Ohio University, S.T.D. 1934; Boston University, J.U.D. 1939; Queen's University, D.D. 1941; married Clara Boxrud, June 15, 1909; four children. Pastor, Lutheran Church at Bridgeport, Conn., 1903-04. Professor of Philosophy at Carleton College, eleven years; Horace Bushnell Professor of Christian Nurture, Yale University, 1916-24; Sterling Professor of Religious Education since 1924; Dean, Divinity School since 1928. Chairman Executive Committee: World's Sunday School Assn.; American Assn. of Theological Schools; Educational Commission of the International Council of Religious education; American Standard Bible Committee. Delegate to the Jerusalem Meeting of the International Missionary Council, 1928, to the Utrecht Meeting to Draft a constitution for the World Council of Churches in 1938. President, Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, 1940-42. Author: "The Pupil and the Teacher"; "Training the Devotional Life"; "Training Children in the Christian Family"; "Talks to Sunday School Teachers"; "We are Able"; "American Idealism", Vol. X in the Pageant of America; "Jesus and the Educational Method." Residence: 142 Cold Spring St. Office: 409 Prospect St., New Haven, Conn.

WEIL, Dr. ARTHUR, American Neurologist; born Oct. 3, 1887, Braunschweig, Germany; son of Abraham and Helen (Coblenzer) Weil; educated at Univ. of Munich; Univ. of Berlin, 1914; Univ. of Halle, M.D. 1917. Asst. at Univ. of Halle, 1912-13. Capt. in Med. Corps of German Army, 1914-18. Privatdozent of Physiol. at Univ. of Halle, 1919-21; Neuropathol. at Montefiore Hosp., N. Y., 1924-28; Asst. Prof. of Neuropathol. at Northwestern Univ., 1928-30; Assoc. Prof. of Neurol., 1930-44. Member: Amer. Neurol. Assn.; Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Neuropathologists (Pres. 1932-33); Amer. Soc. for Experimental Pathol.; N. Y. Acad. of Medicine, etc. Author: Internal Secretion (3 German editions, 1920-23; English, Spanish and Russian translations); Textbook of Neuropathology, 1933 (2nd ed. 1944). Member, Editorial Bd. of Journal of Neuropathology and Experimental Neurology. Address: 161 E. 71st St., New York, New York.

WEIL, FRANK LEOPOLD, American Lawyer; born Mar. 6, 1894, New York City; son of Leopold and Rebecca (Rosenstein) Weil; educated at Columbia Univ., B.S. 1915; Columbia Univ. Law School, LL.B. 1917; married Henrietta A. Simons, July 7, 1924; three sons. Admitted to New York State Bar, 1917; associated with law firm of Elkus, Gleason and Proskauer, 1917-23; Member of firm, 1923; Member, Gleason, McLanahan, Meritt and Ingraham, 1924-25; of Weil, Coursen and Manges, 1925-31; Partner of Weil, Gotshal and Manges since 1931. Member: Amer. Bar Assn.; New York State and New York City Bar Assns., etc. Trustee, Congregation Emanu-El, since 1933; Pres., Young Men's Hebrew Assn., New York, 1932-40; Member, Natl. Executive Board, Boy Scouts of America, since 1940; Vice-Pres., Co-Founder, Member, Board of Directors and Member of Executive Com., United Service Organizations, Inc., since 1940; Vice-Pres., Associated Youth Service Organizations, since 1943. Member, Board of Directors, Natl. Refugee Service; President Truman's Natl. Famine Emergency Council; U. S. Dept. of Justice's Natl. Volunteer Advisory Com. on Juvenile Delinquency, etc. Residence: 635 Park Ave. Office: 60 E. 42nd St., New York, N. Y.

WEIL, LOUIS A., American Newspaper Editor and Publisher; born June 19, 1878, Brooklyn, N. Y.; educated in high school; married and has three sons. Reporter, Detroit Tribune, 1897, and later worked for the Detroit Free Press until 1900. Founded Port Huron Press in 1900 and was Editor and Publisher until 1910. Editor and Publisher of the Port Huron Times Herald since 1910. Vice-Pres. of Federated Publications, Inc., publishers of the Lansing State Journal, the Grand Rapids Herald, and the Battle Creek Enquirer & News. Secy., National Council of Defense. Member, Port Huron Public Library Commission. Address: Port Huron, Michigan.

WEILENMANN, Dr. HERMAN, Swiss Writer; born 1893, Winterthur, Switzerland; son of Hermann and Lina (Girsberger) Weilenmann; educated at Univs. of Zurich and Geneva; Univ. of Kiel, Ph.D. 1923; married Andzia Becher, 1923; one son. Secy., Neue Helvetische Gesellschaft, 1920-21; Secy., later Director, Zurich Inst., Adult Education. Pres., Summer School of European Studies, Zurich; Vice-Pres., Schweizerische Schriftstellerverein; Pres., Board of Literature, City of Zurich; Trustee, Swiss-American Soc. for Cultural Relations. Member, PEN Club, Swiss Branch. Author: Der Befreier, 1918; Die vielsprachige Schweiz, eine Lösung des Nationalitätenproblems, 1925; Zusammenschluss zur Eidgenössenschaft, 1940; Uri. Land, Volk, Staat, Wirtschaft und Kultur, 1943. Address: Munsterhof 20, Zurich, Switzerland.

WEILER, ROYAL WILLIAM, American Newspaper Publisher; born Sept. 7, 1880, Emaus, Pa.; son of John Wilson and Mary E. (Smale) Weiler; educated in Emaus High School (1895); married Hester E. Binder, Aug. 16, 1900; one son. Public school teacher, 1900-10. Reporter, Allentown (Pa.) Democrat, 1910-13; General Manager, Democrat Publishing Co., 1913-20; Pres. and Manager, Allentown Call Publishing Co., 1920-46; Pres. and Mgr., Chronicle and News Publishing Co., 1935-46. The two companies consolidated and became Pres. and Mgr., Call-Chronicle Newspapers, Inc., 1946—. Company publishes: The Allentown Morning Call, Evening Chronicle, and The Sunday Call-Chronicle. Vice-Pres. and Dir., Lehigh Valley Broadcasting Co. Member of Associated Press; Amer. Newspapers Publishers Assn.; Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Assn.; Past Pres., Inter-State Circulation Managers Assn.; Masons (33°). Residence: 1615 Linden St. Office: 101 N. 6th St., Allentown, Pa.

WEILL, Rev. Dr. JULIEN ISAIE, French Rabbi; born March 29, 1873, Versailles, France; son of Chief Rabbi Emmanuel and Adèle (Dreyfuss) Weill; educated at Collège Rollin; Sorbonne, Paris; Lic.Litt.; Séminaire Israélite, Paris; married Hélène Kahn, Oct. 29, 1902; two children. Ordained Rabbi, 1902; Rabbi at Versailles, until 1908; Assoc. Rabbi, Paris, 1908-14; Military Chaplain, French Army, World War I; Consistorial Rabbi, Paris, 1918-33; Chief Rabbi of Paris, 1933—. Member, Conseil du Souvenir Français; Delegate, Consistoire Central des Israélites de France; Pres., Society of Jewish Studies. Knight, Legion of Honor. Author: Zadoc Kahn (biography), 1912; La Foi d'Israël, 1925; Le Judaisme, 1931, etc. Residence: 80 rue du Ranelagh. Office: 17 rue Saint-Georges, Paris, France.

WEILL, KURT, German Composer; born March 2, 1900, Dessau, Germany; son of and Emma (Ackermann) Weill; a pupil of Ferruccio Busoni; married Lotte Lenya, Jan. 28, 1928. Compositions: The Protagonist (opera), Dresden, 1926; The Czar Has His Picture Made (opera), Leipzig, 1927; The Three Penny Opera (Berlin), 1928; Mahogany (opera), Leipzig. 1930; Die Burgschaft (opera), Berlin, 1932; Der Silbersee (opera), Leipzig, 1933. Musical plays: Marie Galanta (Paris, 1934); Johnny Johnson (New York, 1936); The Eternal Road (New York, 1937); Knickerbocker Holiday (New York, 1938); Railroads on Parade (New York, 1939); Lady in the Dark (New York, 1941); One Touch of Venus (New York, 1943); The Firebrand of Florence (New York, 1945); Street Scene (American Opera, N. Y.) 1947. Residence: Brook House, South Mountain Rd., New City, N. Y.

WEILL, Dr. OSCAR, Belgian Professor of Internal Medicine; born July 8, 1883, Delme, France; son of Joseph and Clarisse (Klein) Weill; educated at Univ. of Brussels, M.D. 1908; married Jeanne Guyot, 1908; one son. Asst. at Univ. of Brussels, 1923; Lecturer, 1931; Prof. of Internal Medicine since 1933. Chief Physician, Hosp. Brugmann, since 1931. Member: Société clinique des Hôpitaux, Brussels; Belgian Soc. of Gastroenterology; Belgian Soc. of Internal Medicine; Assn. des Médecins de Langue française; Société internationale de Gastro-Enterologie. Created Knight, Order of Leopold; Officer, Belgian Crown Order; Croix de Guerre and Yser Medal. Author: Hémolyse locale et Hémolyse splénique, 1912; Biliénie Hépatique, 1913, 1922; Les Atteintes Meningées au cours de la syphilis, 1913; De la Pancréatite catarrhale, 1926; La Tachycardie Paroxystique, est-elle une maladie anaphylactique?, 1931; La Pathologie de l'Artère pulmonaire, 1933; Exploration du Fonctionnement Hépatique par la quinine, 1945. Address: Avenue de la Folle Chanson 15, Brussels, Belgium.

WEILL, Dr. RAYMOND, French Egyptologist; born Jan. 28, 1874, Elbeuf (Seine Inférieure), France; son of Hippolyte and Mathilde (Cahen) Weill; educated at Polytechnical School, 1892-94; Ecole Pratique des Hautes Etudes, 1904 (diploma); Univ. of Paris, Litt.D. 1908; married Adrienne Morato, 1935. 2nd Lieut., and Lieut., Engineer Corps, French Army, 1894-1900; Captain, 1900; in charge of French Archaeological Govt. Mission to Orient, 1904; Officer, French Army, World War I; Dir. of Egyptological Studies, Ecole Pratique des Hautes Etudes, 1919; Lecturer in Ancient History of Orient, Faculty of Letters, Paris, 1929-39; in charge of numerous archaeological Missions in Egypt and Palestine, since 1904. Pres., French Egyptological Soc.; Editor, Revue d'Egyptologie. Created Knight, Legion of Honor. Awarded Croix de Guerre, 1914-18. Author of numerous papers and articles on Egyptology and orientalism. Address: 4 bis rue Damesme, Paris XIII, France.

WEIMAN, RITA, American Author; born in Philadelphai, Pa.; daughter of Charles and Jennie (Bash) Weiman; educated at Friends Central School, Phila.; Art Students League, N. Y.; married Maurice Marks, Nov. 27, 1924. Began as a journalist; later contributed fiction and articles to Saturday Evening Post, Cosmopolitan, Good Housekeeping, Red Book, Liberty and various British magazines, etc. Works translated into French, German, Swedish, Danish and other languages. Author: Footlights (collection of theatrical stories); What Manner of Love (novel); (plays) The Acquittal; The Witness Chair, etc. Served on Council of Authors' League of America. Member: Authors' Guild; Dramatists League. Address: Wilton Rd., Westport, Conn.

WEINBAUM, MARK, Russian-American Newspaper Editor; born Oct. 20, 1890, Russia; son of Efim and Sonia (Sandegursky) Weinbaum; educated at School of Commerce, Russia; City College, N. Y.; New York Univ.; married Rose Goldenberg, July 31, 1917; one daughter. With Russkoye Slovo, Circulation and Book Dept., 1914-17; Founder and Business Manager, Russky Golos, 1917-19; Managing Editor, 1919-20. Editor & Publisher, Kolokol (Russian Bi-Monthly). Editor, Co-Owner, Novoye Russkoye Slovo (Russian Daily), 1922; Editor in Chief, since 1925. Member and Director, Russian Literary Foundation; Russian Com., United Jewish Appeal; Emergency Relief Com. Address: 243 West 56th St., New York 19, New York.

WEINBERG, SIDNEY JAMES, American Banker; born Oct. 1, 1891, New York, N. Y.; son of Pincus and Sophie (Barr) Weinberg; graduated public school; attended Browne's Business College (1907); New York Univ. and Columbia Univ. (evening sessions); married Helen Livingston, Sept. 2, 1920; two sons. With Goldman, Sachs & Co., since 1907; Partner since 1927. Director: Cluett, Peabody & Co., Inc.; Continental Can Co., Inc.; General Cigar Co., Inc.; General Foods Corp.; General Electric Co.; The B. F. Goodrich Co.; The Lambert Co.; National Dairy Products Corp.; Madison Square Garden Corp.; McKesson & Robbins, Inc.; Sears, Roebuck & Co.; Van Raalte Co., Inc. Member, New York Stock Exchange (Gov., 1938-40). Member, New York Curb Exchange. Governor, Investment Bankers Assn. of America, 1934-37, and Vice-Pres., 1937-38. Trustee, Committee for Economic Development; Director of American Arbitration Assn. and American Philanthropic Foundation. Member, Bd. of Trustees, Presbyterian Hosp.; Member, Visiting Com., Harvard Business School. Member, Business Advisory Council, U. S. Dept. of Commerce. Member, Advisory Board, N.R.A., 1934; appointed Asst. Dir. of Purchases, O.P.M., May 1941; Chief, Bureau of Industry Advisory Committees of O.P.M., June 1941; Asst. to Chmn., W.P.B., 1942-43; Vice-Chmn. of W.P.B., June-Aug. 1944. Residence: 8 Reimer Rd., Scarsdale, N. Y. Office: 30 Pine St, New York, N. Y.

WEINBERGER, JAROMIR, Czech Composer; born Jan. 8, 1896, Prague, Czechoslovakia; son of Karel and Ruzena Fantolova Weinberger; educated at Conservatories of Music of Prague and Leipzig; married Jana Lembergrova, Aug. 31, 1931. Began career as a composer, 1913. Head, Theoretical Dept., Ithaca Conservatory of Music, 1922; Stage Director of the National Theater of Bratislava, Czechoslovakia, 1924; Director, Music School of Cheb, Czechoslovakia, 1925. Member, American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers. Compositions include: (operas) Schwanda; Beloved Voice; The People From Poker Flat; Wallenstein. Orchestral Compositions: Overture To A Puppet Show; Czech Songs and Dances; Christmas; Passacaglia; Bird's Opera; Prelude and Fugue on "Dixie"; Song of the High Seas; Variations and Fugue "Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree"; Czech Rhapsody; Legend of Sleepy Hollow; The Lincoln Symphony; Prelude To A Cavalier Play. Church Music: Bible Poems; The Way To Emmaus, Psalm 150; Sonata For Organ. Address: Avery's Farmhouse, Fleischmanns, N. Y.

WEINER, JOSEPH L., American Lawyer; born Mar. 16, 1902, Russia; son of Morris and Anna (Levine) Weiner; educated at Columbia Univ., A.B. 1923, LL.B. 1926; married Ruth Lessall, Dec. 26, 1923; two children. Practiced law in New York City, 1926-33; Asst. Corp. Counsel in claims of franchises and utilities, N.Y.C., 1934-37; Counsel, Board of Transportation, N.Y., 1937-38; Special Counsel, Reorganization Division, and Director, Public Utilities Division, S.E.C., 1938-41; Asst. Administrator, O.P.A. and Civilian Supply, later Director of Civilian Supply, W.J.B., 1941-43. Engaged in private law practice, N.Y.C., since 1943. Member: Assn. of Bar, City of New York; New York City Lawyers Assn. Residence: 145 Central Park W. Office: 52 Wall St., New York, N. Y.

WEINER, Prof. LEO, Hungarian Composer and Music Teacher; born April 16, 1885, Budapest, Hungary; son of Adolf and Jenny (Diner) Weiner; studied composition under Hans Koessler. Prof., Liszt Ferenc Acad. of Music, Budapest. Author: Theory of Scales and Intervals; Theory of Harmony. Compositions include: Serenade (for orchestra); Fasching (for orchestra); Soldatenspiel (for orchestra); Suite (for orchestra); Pastorale, Phantasy and Fugue (for string orchestra); 2 Divertimentos (for string orchestra); Concertino (for piano and orchestra); theatre music to "Csongor és Tunde" by Vörösmarty; chamber music: 3 string quartets (second quartet won Coolidge Prize, 1927); 2 violin piano sonatas; Preludium, Notturno and Scherzo (for piano); Hungarian rural songs (for piano); transcriptions for orchestra of works by Bach, Liszt, Bartók, etc. Residence: 91 Király utca. Office: Academy of Music, Liszt Ferenc tér, Budapest, Hungary.

WEINIG, ARTHUR J., American Engineer; born June 10, 1883, Durango, Colo.; son of Kilian and Mary (Hartkorn) Weinig; educated at Univ. of Colorado, 1903-04, and at Colorado School of Mines, E.Met., 1908; married Mary LeGill, July 3, 1913; three children. Began as a smelter sampler and engineer, 1908; successively foreman, mill supt. and general supt. of Liberty

Bell Gold Mining Co., 1911-21; metallurgist with Metal Exploration Co., 1922-23; Director of Experimental Plant, Colorado School of Mines, 1923 —; since 1915 also consulting engineer for American Metal Co., Climax Molybdenum Co., John J. Raskob et al., London Gold Mining Co., Shenandoah-Dives Mining Co., Cuban-Amer. Manganese Co., Potash Co. of America, Basic Magnesium, Inc., et al. Awarded Gold Medal of Colorado Engineering Council, 1930; Colorado School of Mines medal for excellence in engineering, 1944. Inventions: gold and silver concentrate cynanide treatments, sulfide ore flotation processes, manganese ore flotation processes, flotation reagents and potash ore flotation processes, cement manufacture flotation processes, apparatus and process inventions on ball mills, classifiers, screens, tables, meters flotation machines and cyanidation equipment; and process for treating magnesium ores. Member: Amer. Inst. of Mining Engineers; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Mining and Metallurgical Soc. of America; Amer. Geographical Soc., etc. Publications: Trend of Flotation; Functional Size Analysis of Ore Grinds; also many articles. Residence: 509 14th Street, Golden, Colo.

WEINMAN, ADOLPH A., American Sculptor; born Dec. 11, 1870, Karlsruhe, Germany; son of Gustaf and Katherina (Weingaertner) Weinman; educated at Cooper Union Art School; Art Students League, N.Y.; under Bridgeman and Volk; married Margaret Lucile Landman, Nov. 28, 1898; three children. Exhibited at Natl. Acad. of Design, since 1898. Designed pediment groups for Wisconsin State Capital, Post Office Dept. Bldg., U. S. Archives Bldg., Scottish Rite Temple, Washington, monument to Gen. Alexander Macomb, Detroit, statue of Abraham Lincoln, statues of Alex J. Cassatt and Samuel Rea, Pennsylvania Station, N.Y.C., statues of Alexander Hamilton and DeWitt Clinton, Museum of New York City, statue of Gov. Claiborne, Baton Rouge, La.; designed U. S. half dollar and dime, various medals; taught at Natl. Acad. of Design and Beaux Arts Inst. Pres., Natl. Sculpture Soc., 1928-31; Member, N.Y.C. Art Commn., 1925-28; Member, Natl. Commission of Fine Arts, 1928-32; on Council of Natl. Acad. of Design; Architectural League of N.Y.; Natl. Sculpture Soc.; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Letters. Awarded Silver Medal, Brussels Exposition, 1910; Gold Medal, Architectural League of N.Y., 1913; Widener Gold Medal, Pennsylvania Acad. of Design, 1927; Fine Arts Medal, Amer. Inst. of Architects, 1931; Watrous Gold Medal, Natl. Acad. of Design, 1946. Residence: 236 Greenway South. Office: 234 Greenway South, Forest Hills, N. Y.

WEINSTEIN, I. M., American Business Executive; born 1887, New York City. Chairman of Board and President, Consolidated Laundries Corp., since 1943. President and Director of National Linen Service, Linen Service Corp. of Texas, and of United Linen Supply Co. Residence: 1325 Peachtree St. Office: 445 Highland Ave., N.E., Atlanta, Ga.

WEIR OF EASTWOOD, Viscount, The Rt. Hon. WILLIAM DOUGLAS, P.C., G.C.B., British Industrialist; born May 12, 1877, Glasgow, Scotland; son of James and Mary (Douglas) Weir; educated at Glasgow High School; married Alice Blanche MacConnachie, 1904; three children. Began as apprentice engineer, Scottish Director of Munitions, 1915-16; Controller of Aeronautical Supplies and Member of Air Board, 1917-18; Director-General of Aircraft Production, Ministry of Munitions, 1918; Secretary of State and President of Air Council, 1918. Chairman, Advisory Committee on Civil Aviation, 1919; Member, Cave Committee, appointed to enquire into working and effects of Trade Boards of Great Britain, 1922; Chairman of Committee appointed to report on Amalgamation of Depts. common to Fighting Service, 1924; Pioneer in Fabrication and Erection of Steel Houses in United Kingdom, 1924; Pioneer in Establishment in Great Britain of Sugar Beet Industry; Chairman of Committee appointed to review National Problem of Supply of Electrical Energy, 1925; Chairman of Committee appointed to examine economic and other aspects of Electrification of Main Line Railways of Great Britain, 1931; appointed by British Government to conduct enquiry into British Shipping Companies, 1932; Industrial Adviser at Empire Economic Conference in Ottawa; Adviser to British Government on measures for National Defence, 1936-37; Director General of Explosives and Chemical Supplies, Ministry of Supply, 1939; Chairman of Tank Board, Ministry of Supply, 1940; Director of Imperial Chemical Industries Ltd.; International Nickel Co. of Canada, Ltd.; "Shell" Transport & Trading Co., Ltd. Chairman of G. & J. Weir, Ltd.; Weir Housing Corp., Ltd.; The Cathcart Investment Trust, Ltd. Hon. Pres. of British Employers' Confederations. Created Knight, Grand Cross of Order of Bath; Commander of Legion of Honor; Knight Commander of Order of Crown of Italy; American D.S.M. Residence: Eastwood Park, Giffnock, Renfrewshire. Office: Holm Foundry, Cathcart, Glasgow S. 4, Scotland.

WEIR, Dr. CECIL JAMES MULLO, Scottish Professor of Hebrew and Semitic Languages; born Dec. 4, 1897, Edinburgh, Scotland; son of James Mullo and Minnie Augusta (Wilkins) Weir; educated at Univ. of Edinburgh, Scotland, M.A. 1923, B.D. 1926; Univ. of Marburg, Germany, 1926; Univ. of Paris, 1926-27; Univ. of Leipzig, 1927; Jesus College, Oxford, D.Phil. 1930. Tutor in Hebrew, Univ. of Edinburgh, 1921; Asst. Minister of Morningside Parish Church, Edinburgh, 1930-32; Minister of Orwell Parish, Kinrossshire, Scotland, 1932-34. Rankin Lecturer and Head of Dept. of Hebrew and Ancient Semitic Languages, Univ. of Liverpool, 1934-37; also lectured at Inst. of Archaeology until 1937. Prof. of Hebrew and Semitic Languages, Univ. of Glasgow, since 1937. Member, Senatus of Trinity College, Church of Scotland, Glasgow. Pres., Glasgow Univ. Oriental Soc.; Pres., Glasgow Egypt Soc.; Pres., Glasgow Archaeological Soc. Fellow, Soc. of Antiquaries of Scotland. Member: Royal Asiatic Soc.; Oxford Soc. of Historical Theology; Soc. for Old Testament Study. Author: A Lexicon of Accadian Prayers in the Rituals of Expiation, 1934. Served overseas with British Army, 1917-19. Address: The University, Glasgow, Scotland.

WEIR, Sir CECIL McALPINE, British Business Executive; born July 5, 1890, Bridge-of-Weir, Scotland; son of Alexander Cunningham and Isabella (McLeish) Weir; educated at Morisons Academy, Scotland; Prangins, Switzerland; Bonn, Germany; married Jenny Paton Maclay, Sept. 6, 1915; two children. Director of Union Bank of Scotland. Partner in Schrader, Mitchell & Weir (leather and hide factors, merchants, importers and exporters), Glasgow, Scotland. Controller General of Factory and Storage Premises, British Board of Trade, 1941-42; Director General of Equipment and Stores, Ministry of Supply, 1942-46. Business Member of Industrial and Export Council, 1942-46. Chairman of Empire Exhibition, Scotland, 1938, and Civil Defence Commissioner for Western Scotland, 1939-40. Formerly President of Glasgow Chamber of Commerce and Vice-President of Assn. of British Chambers of Commerce; Pres., Economic Sub-Commission, Control Commission for Germany (British Element), since 1946. Created K.B.E., and received M.C. and D.L.; awarded U. S. Medal of Freedom with Silver Palms. During World War I served in France and Gallipoli, 1914-18. Residence: 55 Park Lane, London. Office: 114 Howard St., Glasgow, Scotland.

WEIR, ERNEST T., American Industrialist; born 1875. Began career in the steel business as an office boy. At the age of 30 he went into business for himself, when, in 1905, he joined with a group of associates in purchasing a tin plate mill in West Virginia. From this beginning he built the Weirton Steel Co. into one of the major steel producing units of the country. In 1929 Weirton Steel Co., Great Lakes Steel Corp., Hanna Iron Ore Co., and The Hanna Furnace Corp. were merged to form National Steel Corp., now the fifth largest producer of steel in the U. S. Chmn. of Bd. of the Corporation and of all of principal subsidiaries. He is also an Officer or Director of many other companies. Address: Grant Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa.

WEISIGER, GEORGE BATES, American Professor of Law; born Sept. 30, 1886, Fairmount, Ill.; son of John W. and Mary (Draper) Weisiger; educated at Univ. of Illinois, LL.B. 1911, B.S. 1923; Yale Law School, J.D. 1924; married Hazel Terpening, 1912; three sons. Began practice of law, 1912. Asst. Prof. of Law, Univ. of Illinois, 1924-26; Assoc. Prof., 1926-28; Prof. since 1928. Member: Amer. and Illinois Bar Assns. Author: Manual for Use of Law Books, 1931 (3rd ed., 1940) and various articles. Address: 309 W. Vermont St., Urbana, Ill.

WEISKOTTEN, Dr. HERMAN GATES, American Medical School Dean; born September 22, 1884, Syracuse, New York; son of Eugene and Clara (Mercer) Weiskotten; educated at Syracuse Univ., Ph.B. 1906; Syracuse Univ. College of Med., M.D. 1909; married Kathryne Harrer, Sept. 24, 1912; two children. Instructor in Bacteriol. and Pathol., 1910-12; Asst. Prof. of Pathol., 1912-13; Assoc. Prof. of Pathol., 1913-17; Prof. of Pathol. since 1917; Acting Dean, 1922-25, at Syracuse Univ. College of Med.; Necrotomist of Onondaga County, N. Y., 1913-25; Commissioner of Health of Syracuse, N. Y., 1926-28. Member of N. Y. State Public Health Council; Amer. Med. Assn; (Chairman) Council on Med. Education and Hosps. of Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Pathols. and Bacteriols.; Onondaga County Med. Soc. (Past Pres.); Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Secy. of Council on Med. Education and Hosps. of Amer. Med. Assn. 1942-43. Author of numerous articles on medical education in medical and educational journals. Res.: 96 E. Genesee St., Skaneateles, N. Y. Office: 706 Irving Ave., Syracuse, N. Y.

WEISMAN, RUSSELL, American Editorial Writer; born Feb. 7, 1890, Van Wert, Ohio; son of Paul and Alice (Bausermann) Weisman; educated at Western Reserve Univ., A.B. 1912; Univ. of Chicago; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1917; married Blanche Watkins, Dec. 28, 1920; three children. Instructor, Mt. Holyoke College, 1915-17. Staff Member, Dept. of Economics, Western Reserve Univ., since 1919; now Prof. of Business and Economics. Member, Editorial Staff, 1920; Chief Editorial Writer, Cleveland Plain Dealer, since 1940. Author: Key to Recovery, 1938. Address: Plain Dealer Publishing Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

WEISS, ANDREW, American Engineer; born July 18, 1867, Wels, Upper Austria, Austria; son of John and Anna (Gmeiner) Weiss; educated at Bryant-Stratton Business College, St. Louis, home-study and preparatory courses, 1893-94; Colorado State School of Mines, E.M., 1899; married Rebecca M. Hessel, July 19, 1902; two step-daughters. Emigrated to the U. S., 1882. Engaged in farming and live stock ranching, 1882-95, in Missouri, Calif. and Colorado. Assayer, Bimetallic Smelter, Leadville, Colo., June-Sept., 1899. Asst. Prof. of Mathematics and Surveying, Colorado School of Mines, 1899-1903. Asst. Engineer, U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, 1903-07, in charge of Canal and Reservoir surveys in Ariz., Wyo. and Nebr. Project Manager, North Platte Project, U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, supervising construction and operation of that irrigation system, 1907-24; Asst. Dir. of Reclamation Economics, Jan.-Sept., 1926. Resident Engineer on construction of Don Martin irrigation projects in States of Coahuila and Nuevo León and the Conchos irrigation system in State of Chihuahua in Mexico, 1926-32. Chief Consulting Engineer, Dept. of Hydraulic Resources, since 1932. Author: The Don Martin Project, and many reports on current construction problems. Residence: Hotel Geneve, Londres 130. Office: c/o Department of Hydraulic Resources, Balderas 94, Mexico City, Mexico.

WEISS, Dr. EMIL, American Pathologist; born Feb. 26, 1893, Sisak, Yugoslavia; son of Morris and Frances (Pick) Weiss; received preliminary education in the public schools of Zagreb and Sisak, and attended the Gymnasium in Zagreb, 1903-10, and in Karlovac, 1910-11; entered Univ. of Vienna, and after three years continued his medical studies at the Univ. of Graz; M.D., Charles Ferdinand's Bohemian Univ., Prague, 1919; studied law at the Univ. of Zagreb, 1917-20; awarded Ph.D. by Univ. of Ill., 1937. Joined Med. Corps of the Austro-Hungarian Army in 1914, and served throughout World War. Asst. at the Infectious Hosp., Zagreb, 1919; 1st Asst. and Acting Head of the Royal Bacteriological Inst. in Zagreb, 1919-21, when came to U. S. Path. to Ill. General Hosp., 1921-22. Instructor in Bacteriol. and Path., Loyola Univ. School of Medicine, 1922-24; Asst. Prof. to 1928; Assoc. Prof. to 1931, and Prof. to 1933; Examiner, Natl. Bed. of Med. Examiners, 1928-32; Path. to St. Anne's Hosp., Chicago, 1922-33, and to Holy Cross Hosp., 1930-38; Assoc. in Bacteriol. and Public Health at the Univ. of Ill., 1933-40; one of 13 contestants in evaluation of diagnostic tests for syphilis, conducted by U.S.P.H.S., 1934-35. Path. to Martha Washington Hosp., 1931-43, and Chicago Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Hosp. and College, 1933-42; special consultant to U. S. Public Health Service, 1934-43. Consulting Path. to Sacred Heart Hosp., Tomahawk, Wis., 1938—; Instructor in Medicine at Northwestern Univ., 1941—; Path. to People's Hosp. of Chicago, 1943—. Fellow of Amer. College of Physicians, Amer. Public Health Assn. and the Amer. Med. Assn. Member: Soc. of American Bacteriologists, Amer. Assn. of Immunologists, Amer. Assn. of Univ. Profs., Amer. Assn. of Pathologists and Bacteriologists, Amer. Assn. for Cancer Research, Soc. of Experimental Biology and Medicine, Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Sciences, etc. Publications: Outline of Med. Bacteriology, 1932; Outline of Immunology, 1932; numerous contributions to medical journals. Address: 5036 Bernard St., Chicago 25, Ill.

WEISS, Dr. FREDERICK ERNEST, British Botanist; born Nov. 2, 1865, Huddersfield, England; son of Charles and Caroline (Pesel) Weiss; educated at Gymnasium of Heidelberg, Germany; Neuchâtel, Switzerland; Univ. College, London, B.Sc. 1888, D.Sc. 1901; Univ. of Manchester, Hon. LL.D. 1931; married Evelyn Spence Watson, Mar. 21, 1898; three daughters. Lecturer in Botany, Univ. College, London, 1889; Prof. at Owens College (now Univ. of Manchester), 1892, resigned 1930. Vice-Chancellor, Manchester Univ., 1913-15. Member: Manchester Literary & Philosophical Soc. (Pres. 1910-12); Linnean Soc. (Pres. 1931-33). Fellow, Royal Soc., since 1917; Hon. Member, Botanical Socs. of Basle and Geneva; Fellow, Royal Horticultural Soc. (Member, Council, 1935-45). Author of numerous articles in Annals of Botany, New Phytologist, North Western Naturalist. Residence: 73 Longton Ave., Sydenham, London, S.E. 26, England.

WEISS, LEWIS ALLEN, American Radio Executive; born May 8, 1893, Chicago, Ill.; son of Ignatius Joseph and Reggie (Buchs) Weiss; educated at Chicago Kent College of Law; Univ. of So. Calif.; married Sue C. Stephenson, April 22, 1922; one daughter. Account Executive, The Arizona Republic, 1932-26; Local-Natl. Adv. Man-1922-26; Local-National Advertising Manager, The Los Angeles Examiner, 1926-30; General Manager, Donn Lee Broadcasting System, 1930-32; Business Manager, WJR, The Goodwill Station, 1932-36. Vice-President and General Manager, Donn Lee Broadcasting System, 1937-47; Chmn. of Bd. since 1947. Dir.: Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce since 1943; Rotary Club of Los Angeles since 1942; Los Angeles Chapter, American Red Cross, since 1944. Commander, Military Order of World War, 1941-42. Member: National Assn. of Broadcasters; Television Broadcasters Assn. Captain, 4th U. S. Cavalry, 1917-19. Residence: 10800 Ambazac Way, Los Angeles 24, Calif. Office: 1440 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

WEISS, LOUISE, French Author; born Jan. 25, 1893, Arras, Pas de Calais, France; daughter of Paul Weiss; Agrégé of Univ. of France, 1914; divorced. Editor and Director, L'Europe Nouvelle, magazine on foreign politics, 1918-34; Pres., Commn. for Education of Peace, Institut de Coopération Intellectuelle, 1933-37; Founder and Director, Ecole de la Paix (Inst. for Higher Education, connected with Acad. of Paris), 1930-37; Pres., La Femme Nouvelle (assn. for equality of French men and women), 1934-39; Secy.-General, Refugee Com., created by Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1937-39; Chief Editor, Nouvelle République (anti-Nazi publication), 1943-44. Identified with resistance movement Patriam Recuperare as agent, 1941-44. Member, Soc. of Literary Men and Women. Created Officer, Legion of Honor. Author: La République tchécoslovaque, 1920; Délivrance, 1935; Souvenirs d'une enfance républicaine, 1938; La Marseillaise, 1945-46; Ce que femme veut, 1946. Address: 15 Avenue du Président Wilson, Paris, France.

WEISS, Dr. PAUL, American Philosopher; born May 19, 1901, New York City; son of Samuel and Emma (Rothschild) Weiss; educated at City College of New York, B.S.S. 1927; Harvard, M.A. 1928, Ph.D. 1929; married Victoria Brodkin, Oct. 27, 1928; two children. Instructor and Tutor in Philosophy at Harvard and Instructor at Radcliffe, 1930-31. Assoc. in Philosophy, Bryn Mawr College, 1931-33; Assoc. Prof., 1933-40; Prof., 1940-46; Chairman, 1944-46. Prof. of Philosophy, Yale Univ., since 1946. Nathan Culver Lecturer at Univ. of Chicago, 1941; Visiting Lecturer, Jewish Theological Seminary, 1941-42, 1944; Visiting Prof. at Yale, 1945-46. Member, Executive Board and of Council of Symbolic Logic Assn., 1936-37; Exec. Board of Amer. Philosophical Assn., 1937-40; First Internatl. Congress of Philosophy, 1944. Member: Com. on Exiled Scholars; Amer. Philosophical Assn.; (Founding) Conference of Science, Philosophy and Religion, 1940—. Contributing Editor, Philosophical Abstracts. Author: Nature of Systems, 1929; Reality, 1938; Nature and Man, 1946. Co-author of 7th International Congress of Philosophy, 1930; American Philosophy Today and Tomorrow, 1935; Philosophical Essays of A. N. Whitehead, 1936; Conference of Science, Philosophy and Religion, vol. 1, 1941, vol. 2, 1942, vol. 4, 1944; Dictionary of Philosophy, 1943; The Happy Rock, 1945. Co-Editor of Collected Works of C. S. Peirce, 6 vols., 1931-35. Address: Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

WEISS, Dr. SAMUEL, American Clinical Professor of Gastro-Enterology; born May 6, 1885, Hungary; son of Jacob and Nina (Weinberger) Weiss; M.D. 1907, Long Island College Hosp.; studied in U. S. and abroad; married Ella Margareten, Jan. 11, 1914; three children. Attending Gastroent. of Philanthropic Hosp. (now Jewish Memorial Hosp.), 1918; Adjunct Prof., 1925; Clinical Prof. and Chief of Clinic of N. Y. Polyclinic Med. School and Hosp., 1926. Consulting Gastroent. to Beth David and Long Beach (L. I.) Hosps. and others. Prof. of Medicine (Digestive Diseases), Essex College of Medicine and Surgery, Newark. Fellow of Amer. College of Physicians; Hon. Fellow, Société Gastro-entérologique de Paris, Belgian Gastroent. Soc. Diplomate of Amer. Bd. of Internal Med. Editor of Review of Gastroent. Member: Natl. Gastroent. Assn., Internatl. Soc. of Gastroent., Jewish Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Italian Gastroent. Soc. (Rome). Created Chevalier, French Legion of Honor. Autho: Diseases of Liver, Gall-Bladder, Ducts and Pancreas (1935); Clinical Lectures on the Gall-Bladder and Bile Ducts (1944); also more than 150 medical articles and contributions to major texts. Residence: 146 Central Park W., New York 23, N. Y.

WEISSMAN, ERNEST, Yugoslav Architect; born Nov. 11, 1903, Djakovo, Yugoslavia; son of Joseph and Regina (Handler) Weissman; educated at Univ. of Zagreb, Yugoslavia (Arch. & Eng.); studied under Adolf Loas and Corbusier, Paris; married Jane Gray Freeman, June 1947; one step-son. Special Consultant representing Yugoslavia on planning and design of United Nations permanent headquarters in New York City, April-Dec. 1947. Architect in charge of Yugoslav Pavilion, New York World's Fair, 1939. Engineer-Architect for Research and Planning Assn. in New York City; responsible for supervision of industrial production and site erection of prefabricated shelter. Made report to Yugoslav Govt. on Reconstruction of Homes and Communities, 1942. Member, Superior Jury, Internatl. Exposition of Arts, Paris, France, 1937. Director, Industrial Rehabilitation Div., UNRRA. Director of Industry and Materials Div., U. N. Economic Commission for Europe, 1948—. Made Hon. Citizen of the City of New York, 1939. Residence: 31 A rue de l'Athenée. Office: Palais des Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

WEITZENBOCK, Dr. ROLAND, Austrian Mathematician; born May 26, 1885, Kremsmünster, Upper Austria; educated at Real Schools in Graz, Eisenstadt and Weisskirchen; Military Academies, Vienna and Mödling; Dr. Tech. 1910; Privatdocent, Graz, 1912. Officer, Austrian Army, 1905-11; Prof., Technicum, Prague, Czechoslovakia, 1918; Prof. at Univ. of Graz, Austria, 1920; Prof. of Theory of Analytical Functions, Univ. of Amsterdam, since 1923. Member, Royal Academy of Sciences, since 1924. Author: Komplex-Symbolik, 1908; Invariantentheorie, 1923; Der vierdimensionale Raum, 1929; about one hundred papers on mathematical problems. Address: Laren, The Netherlands.

WEIZMANN, Dr. CHAIM, Israeli Statesman; born Nov. 27, 1874, Motol, Grodno, Russia; educated at Universities of Berlin and Freibourg, D.Sc., Sc.D., LL.D. Served as Lecturer in Chemistry in Geneva, and Reader in Biochemistry, University of Manchester; Director, British Admiralty Laboratories, 1916-19; now Director of Daniel Sieff Research Institute of Rehovoth, Palestine. President: World Zionist Organization, 1921-29; Jewish Agency for Palestine, 1929-31 and 1935-46; Zionist Federation of Great Britain and Ireland, 1931-47; Pres. of the Council, Govt. of Israel, May 1948 —. Chmn., Bd. of Governors, Hebrew Univ. in Jerusalem, since 1932. Awarded hon. degree by Jewish Theological Seminary of America, 1944. Honored on 70th birthday by launching of plan to found Science Institute in Palestine in his name. Address: Tel Aviv, Israel.

WELCH, Dr. DALE DENNIS, American College President; born April 19, 1896, Clayton County, Iowa; son of Oscar Eugene and Nora Ianthia (Stalnaker) Welch; educated at Univ. of Dubuque, A.B. 1921, D.D. 1947; Cornell Univ., M.A. 1928; Northwestern Univ., 1923; Coe College, Iowa, LL.D. 1936; married Margaret Lucile Aitchison, June 25, 1920; one daughter. Instr. at Epworth (Iowa) Seminary, 1918-20; Teacher at Univ. of Dubuque, 1922-28; Manager, Dubuque Clinic, 1928-36. Pres., Univ. of Dubuque, 1936-47; Alma (Mich.) College, 1947 —. Member, Bd. of Directors, Univ. of Dubuque. Address: Alma College, Alma, Mich.

WELCH, Rev. Dr. HERBERT, American Bishop; born November 7, 1862, New York, N. Y.; son of Peter Ambrose Radcliffe and Mary Louise Loveland Welch; educated at Brooklyn Collegiate and Polytechnic Institute; Wesleyan University, B.A. and M.A.; Drew Theological Seminary, B.D.; Oxford University; married Adelaide Frances McGee, June 3, 1890; two children. Served various pastorates, 1890-1905; President, Ohio Wesleyan University, 1905-16; elected Bishop of Methodist Church, 1916. Directed Methodist overseas relief, 1940-47. Author: The Christian College (with others); That One Face; College Lectures; Men of the Outposts. Residence: 520 W. 110th St. Office: 150 Fifth Ave., New York 11, N. Y.

WELCH, LEO DEWEY, American Business Executive; born April 22, 1898, Rochester, New York; son of William F. and Mary E. (Compton) Welch; educated at University of Rochester, A.B. 1919; married Veronica Purviance; one daughter. Began with National City Bank, New York, 1919, serving as Vice-President until 1944. Treasurer, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), since 1944. Decorated Commander, Order of Merit (Chile); Director, Central Bank of Argentina, 1936-37; Pres., Argentine Trade Promotion Corp., 1941-43. Member: Pan American Soc. of U. S., Inc.; Natl. Foreign Trade Council's Foreign Property-Holders Protective Com., etc. Residence: 277 Park Ave., New York, N. Y., and Lily Pond Lane, East Hampton, N. Y. Office: 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, New York.

WELCH, Dr. PAUL SMITH, American Zoologist; born Jan. 28, 1882, Oconee, Ill.; son of John N. and Emma Louisa (Smith) Welch; educated at James Millikin Univ., A.B. 1910; Univ. of Illinois, A.M. 1911, Ph.D. 1913; married Eva Grace Miller, June 20, 1921; one daughter. Instructor in Entomology, Kansas State College, 1913-14; Asst. Prof., 1914-16; Assoc. Prof., 1916-18; Asst. Prof. of Zoology, Univ. of Michigan, 1918-22; Assoc. Prof., 1922-28; Prof. of Zoology since 1928. Acting Director, Univ. of Michigan Biological Station, 1924-25; Asst. Director, 1929-30; Chairman of Great Lakes Research Inst., Univ. of Michigan, since 1945. Fellow: Entomological Soc. of America (2nd Vice-Pres. 1925); Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member: Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Amer. Soc. of Naturalists; Limnological Soc. of America (Pres. 1946-47); Ecological Soc. of America (Vice-Pres. 1934); Amer. Microscopical Soc. (Pres. 1928), etc. Author: Zoology (a textbook), 1922 (with T. W. Galloway); Limnology, 1935; Culture Methods for Invertebrate Animals (with Needham, Lutz and Galtsoff), 1937; also about sixty research papers. Address: Dept. of Zoology, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

WELCH, Hon. SAMUEL EARL, American Jurist; born January 27, 1892, Braidwood, Indian Territory (now Oklahoma); son of Charles A. and Adelia (Morton) Welch; educated at Hargrove College; Arkansas State University; married (1st) Irene Johnson, Feb. 22, 1911; married (2nd) Fern Kerr, Jan. 17, 1919; three sons. Began practice of law, 1911. State District Judge, 1926-33; Justice, Supreme Court, since 1933; Chief Justice, since 1941. Chairman, Oklahoma Judicial Council, 1944. Member, American and Oklahoma Bar Assns. Residence: Antlers, Okla. Office: State Capitol, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

WELCH, Most Rev. THOMAS ANTHONY, Roman Catholic Bishop; born Nov. 2, 1884, Faribault, Minn.; son of Thomas J. and Ellen Deasy Welch; educated at St. Thomas College, St. Paul, Minn.; St. Paul Seminary, St. Paul, Minn. Ordained June 11, 1909. Secretary to Archbishop John Ireland of St. Paul, 1909-18. Chancellor and Vicar-General, Archdiocese of St. Paul. Named Domestic Prelate by Pope Pius XI, 1924. Named Bishop of Duluth, Minn., Dec. 14, 1925; consecrated Bishop, Feb. 3, 1926. Residence: 2215 E. Second St. Office: 313 W. Fourth St., Duluth, Minn.

WELD, FRANCIS MINOT, American Financier; born Feb. 18, 1874, New York, N. Y.; son of Francis Minot and Fanny E. (Bartholomew) Weld; educated at Roxbury Latin School, Boston, 1893; Harvard, A.B. 1897, A.M. 1898; married (1st) Margaret Low White, Nov. 7, 1903; four children; (2nd) Mrs. Julia Tiffany Parker, Aug. 17, 1930. Engaged in investment banking since 1897; associated with White, Weld & Co., New York, of which he is now Partner, since 1904. Member, Board of Directors of International Minerals & Chemical Corp., Atlas Assurance Co., Ltd. Trustee of the Metropolitan Museum of Art of N. Y. and of French Inst. During World War I, served as Captain, then Major of Infantry, U. S. Army, 77th Division, A.E.F., 1917-19, and received the Silver Star and the Purple Heart. Served as Lt. Col. and Colonel in the New York City Patrol Corps, 1942-44. Residence: 660 Park Ave. Office: 40 Wall St., New York, New York.

WELD, Dr. LOUIS DWIGHT HARVELL, American Economist; born in Boston, Mass., Apr. 18, 1882; son of Stuart F. and Anna H. Weld; educated at Bowdoin College, A.B. 1905; Univ. of Illinois, A.M. 1907; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1908; married Mary Smith, July 20, 1925; two children. Instructor in Economics, Univ. of Washington, 1908-09; Instructor, Wharton School, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1909-10. Special Agent to U. S. Bureau of Census, 1910-12. Asst. Prof. of Economics, Univ. of Minnesota, 1912-15; Prof. of Business Administration, Sheffield Scientific School, Yale Univ., 1915-17. Economist to Swift & Co., 1917-26; Director of Research for McCann-Erickson, Inc., since 1926. Former Pres., Amer. Marketing Assn. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Amer. Statistical Assn. Author: Private Freight Cars and American Railways, 1908; The Marketing of Farm Products, 1916. Residence: 235 E. 73rd St. Office: 50 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, N. Y.

WELD, Dr. WILLIAM ERNEST, American Economist and Educator; born in Marysville, Ohio, Jan. 21, 1881; son of Theodore Dwight and Matilda Cochran (Smith) Weld; educated at College of Wooster, A.B. 1903; Princeton Univ., M.A. 1909; Princeton Theological Seminary, 1909; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1920; married Margaret Elder, Aug. 26, 1909; three children. Member of Faculty, Amer. Univ., Beirut, Syria, 1903-06. Prof. of Economics, Allahabad, India, 1909-18; Lecturer, Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof. and Prof. of Economics at Columbia Univ., 1919-29. Dean, College of Arts and Science, Univ. of Rochester, 1929-36; Pres., Wells College, Aurora, N. Y., since 1936. Pres., Middle States Assn. of Colleges and Secondary Schools, 1942. Author: India's Demand for Transportation; The Democratization of Land Holding in Jugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Rumania; Standard Economics (with others); A Case Book for Economics (with Alvin Tostlebe). Address: Wells College, Aurora, N. Y.

WELINGKAR, LAKSHMIKANT NARAYAN, Indian Educator; born September 19, 1909, Bombay, India; son of N. B. and Tarabai Welingkar; educated at Town School, Calcutta; Presidency College, Calcutta; University College; London; B.Sc. (Econ) with honors; married Ratanbai Borkar, March 21, 1938. Began career as Lectuer in Economics at St. Xavier's College in Bombay, 1935; Professor of Economics since 1942. Principal, Podar College of Commerce and Economics in Bombay, India, since 1943. Life Member, Shikshana Prasaraha Mandali, Poona. Elected a Member of the Managing Council of the S. P. Mandali, 1944. Fellow, Univ. of Bombay, 1946—. Second Lieutenant, First Bombay Battalion, U. O.T.C., Indian Territorial Force. Residence: Principal's Quarter, R. A. Podar College of Commerce and Economics, Bombay 19, India.

WELKER, Dr. WILLIAM HENRY, American Biochemist; born August 20, 1879, Red Hill, Pa.; son of William Alexander and Angelina Welker; educated at Lehigh Univ., A.B. 1904, Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1908; Franklin and Marshall College, Sc.D. 1942; married Evie M. Hutchinson, 1904; one daughter. Demonstrator, Physiological Chemistry, Univ. of Penna., 1907-10; Chemist to German Hosp., New York, 1910; Assoc. in Biological Chemistry, Columbia Univ., 1910-11; Asst. Prof., 1911-12; Asst. Prof. of Physiological Chemistry, Univ. of Illinois, College of Medicine, 1913; Assoc. Prof., 1919; Prof., 1921; Prof. of Biological Chemistry and Head of Dept. since 1931. Member, Graduate Teaching-Faculty, Univ. of Illinois, since 1916. Awarded (with Dr. Dittman), Gibbs' Prize ($2,000) by New York Acad. of Med., 1907. Author of numerous scientific papers on investigations in biological chemistry. Residence: 534 N. Elmwood Ave., Oak Park, Ill. Office: 1853 W. Polk St., Chicago 12, Illinois.

WELLAUER-KRATTIGER, Dr. WALTER, Swiss Lawyer; born May 3, 1892, Basle, Switzerland; son of Albert and Louise (Keller) Wellauer; educated at Realschule; Univs. of Basle and Zurich, Law Faculties; Univ. of Basle, J.D.; married Martha Krattiger, Nov. 9, 1923; one child. Began law practice at Basle, 1923; Secy., Basler Verkehrsliga (League for Traffic); Kantonaler Wirte-Verein, Basel-Stadt (Cantonal Restaurant-Keepers Union); Central Secy., Schweizerischer Drogisten Verban (Soc. of Swiss Druggists); Secy. General (Permanent), Internatl. Congress of Druggists. Member, College of Lawyers, Basle; Chairman, Natl. People's Party; Governor and Pres., Cantonal Council, Canton Basle Stadt; Member of various parliamentary commissions. Author of various papers on politics and literary works. Address: Blumenrain 1, Basle, Switzerland.

WELLBORN, OLIN III, American Lawyer; born July 15, 1896, Los Angeles, Calif.; son of Judge Charles and Leila (Jones) Wellborn; educated at Univ. of California, 1918; married Carolyn Andersen, Sept. 29, 1934; one daughter. Began as Attorney at law, 1919; identified with Wellborn law firms since 1921; Senior Partner of Wellborn, Mitchell, Barrett & Rodi since 1940. Director of the Tide Water Associated Oil Co., New York; Union Bank & Trust Co., Los Angeles, Cal.; Hogan Petroleum Co.; Los Nietos Co. and Los Nietos Producing & Refining Co., Ltd., all of Los Angeles, Calif. Vice-Pres. and Director, Community Welfare Federation. During World War I served as Ensign, U. S. Naval Reserve. Residence: 649 W. Adams Blvd. Office: 1100 Petroleum Bldg., Los Angeles 15, Calif.

WELLDON, SAMUEL A., American Banker. Chairman of the Board, First National Bank of the City of New York. Member, Executive Com. and Director: American Telephone and Telegraph Co.; Bigelow-Sanford Carpet Co., Inc.; Northern Pacific Ry.; Equitable Life Assurance Soc. of the U. S., etc. Address: First National Bank, 2 Wall St., New York 5, New York.

WELLER, Dr. CARL VERNON, Amerimian Pathologist; born Feb. 17, 1887, St. Johns, Mich.; son of Martin and Emma (Pulfrey) Weller; educated at Albion College, A.B. 1908; Univ. of Mich., M.D. 1913, M.S., 1916; married Elsie Huckle, June 26, 1913; two children. Instr. of Pathol., Univ. of Mich., 1911-16; Asst. Prof., 1916-21; Assoc. Professor, 1921-24; at University Pathol. Laboratories as Prof. of Pathol. and Asst. Dir., 1924-31; Prof. of Pathol. and Director, 1931-38; Chairman, 1938. Member of Amer. Assn. for Cancer Research; Amer. Assn. of Pathols. and Bacteriols. (Council since 1935, Acting Pres. 1938-39, Pres. 1939-40; Editor of Amer. Journal of Pathol. since 1941); Amer. College of Physicians (Editorial Council, 1926-31; Editor, Annals of Internal Med., 1931-33); Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Canadian Sec. of Internatl. Assn. of Med. Museums (Council 1922-24, 1932-39; Joint Editor of Bulletin 1918; Editorial Com. since 1933; Pres. 1938-39); Amer. Section of Internatl. Assn. of Med. History (Secy.-Treas. 1927-31; Council 1935-36); Amer. Soc. for Experimental Pathol. (Secy.-Treas. 1927-29; Council 1930-32; Vice-Pres. 1932-33; Pres. 1933-34); Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Federation of Amer. Socs. for Experimental Bio. (Secy. 1928-30); Internatl. Assn. for Geographic Pathol.; Mich. Pathol. Soc. (Pres., 1932-33); Natl. Research Council, 1934-37 (Com. on Pathology, 1947—). Member, Editorial Bd. of Physiol. Reviews, 1941-44; Society for Experimental Biology and Medicine; Society for Biological Research, School of Med. of Univ. of Pittsburgh (Hon. Member 1941); Amer. Cancer Soc. Educ. Com., 1946—. Author of The Medical Aspects of Mustard Gas Poisoning (with Dr. A. S. Warthin), 1919; and approximately 150 articles. Editor of Warthin Anniversary Vol., 1927, and Memolymph Node Chapter in Handbook of Hematology, 1938. Residence: 1130 Fair Oaks Parkway. Office: University of Michigan, Department of Pathology, Ann Arbor, Mich.

WELLER, Rt. Rev. JOHN REGINALD, Anglican Bishop; bon October 6, 1880, Chesham, England; son of Edward and Edith Emma Weller; educated at Selwyn College, Cambridge; B.A. Cantab. 1913; M.A. Cantab, 1924; married Frances Margaret Butler, August 17, 1938; two children. Ordained Deacon, 1913; Priest, 1914. Chaplain, Cambridge Mission, Delhi, 1913-14; Railway Chaplain, Lahore, 1914-16; Chaplain at Lahore, 1916-17. Territorial Chaplain to the Forces, 1917-19. Chaplain at Quetta, 1919-20. Curate, Christ Church, Greenwich, 1920-23; Chaplain, Missions to Seamen, Melbourne, 1923-29; Assistant Superintendent, Missions to Seamen, London, 1929-30; Chaplain, Superintendent, Mercy Missions to Seamen, 1930-34; Bishop of the Diocese of Falkland Islands, 1934-37. Bishop, Anglican Diocese in Argentina and Eastern South America with Episcopal Supervision of the Diocese of Falkland Islands, 1937-46; Asst. Bishop, Diocese of Southwell and Vicar of Edwalton, Nottingham, 1937. Address: Edwalton Vicarage, Nottingham, England.

WELLES, Dr. CHARLES BRADFORD, American Classicist; born Sept. 8, 1901, Saybrook, Conn.; son of Charles T. and Edith Wilder (Smith) Welles; educated at Yale Univ., B.A. 1924, Ph.D. 1928; married Eleanor Bogert, Oct. 23, 1926; two sons. Instr. in Classics, Yale Univ., 1927; Asst. Prof. of Classics, 1931; Assoc. Prof. of Classics, 1939; Prof. of Ancient History, 1940—. Member: Amer. Philological Assn.; Archaeological Inst. of America; American Historical Assn.; Middle East Inst.; Amer. Oriental Soc.; Linguistic Soc. of America, etc. Author: Royal Correspondence in the Hellenistic Period, 1934. Editor and Contributor, Excavations at Dura-Europos, Preliminary and Final Reports, 1930—. "Digest" Editor, American Journal of Archaeology, 1947—. Address: 1544 Yale Station, New Haven, Conn.

WELLES, ORSON, American Actor, Director, Producer, Writer, Journalist, Lecturer; born May 6, 1915, Kenosha, Wis.; son of Richard and Beatrice (Ives) Welles; educated at Todd School, Woodstock, Ill.; married Rita Hayworth (Margarita Cansino), Sept. 7, 1943 (divorced Nov. 10, 1947); two daughters by former marriage). Co-producer: Julius Caesar, Doctor Faustus, Horse Eats Hat, Macbeth, Shoemaker's Holiday, Heartbreak House. Producer, Director, writer and star of "Citizen Kane," 1941; produced, wrote and directed "The Magnificent Ambersons," 1942; produced and wrote "Journey Into Fear" and "Jane Eyre." Served as Assistant to the Secretary of the U. S. Treasury. Received New York Film Critics Award for "Citizen Kane" as best motion picture of 1941; Committee on Exceptional Photoplays Award for "Citizen Kane" as best picture, 1941; Bengal Film Journalists Assn. Award, Calcutta, for "Citizen Kane" as best picture, 1941; Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences Award for direction and original story of "Citizen Kane"; Academy of Motion Pictures Award for outstanding production of "Magnificent Ambersons." Co-Editor, Free World Magazine. Chairman, Board of Mercury Theatre, Inc. Produced, directed and appeared in (stage productions): Cradle Will Rock, Shoemaker's Holiday; Five Kings; Danton's Death and Native Son (Mercury Theatre). Produced, directed and starred in Mercury Wonder Show (for Army and Navy personnel), 1943; produced, directed and acted in and wrote book for musical, Around the World in 80 Days, 1946. Appeared in (motion pictures): Follow the Boys, 1944; Tomorrow is Forever, 1945; Stranger, 1946. Wrote, produced and co-starred in Lady from Shanghai. Editor, Mercury Shakespeare. Address: Mercury Productions, 427 N. Canyon Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif.

WELLES, SUMNER, American Statesman; born in New York, N. Y., Oct. 14, 1892; son of Benjamin and Frances (Swan) Welles; educated at Groton School, 1910, and at Harvard, 1914; LL.D. conferred by Columbia and Brown, 1939; Phi Beta Kappa, Harvard; Omicron Delta Kappa, University of Maryland, 1939; Doctor (honoris causa) University of Brazil, 1942; LL.D., New York University; Capt. Robert Dollar Memorial Award, 1942; Univ. of Toronto, LL.D., 1943; Lafayette College, hon. LL.D. 1944; married Mathilde Townsend; two sons. Entered diplomatic service as Secretary of Embassy at Tokyo, 1915-17; Secretary, Embassy at Buenos Aires, 1917; Assistant Chief of Latin American Affairs Division, Department of State, 1920-21; Chief, 1921-22. Commissioner to Dominican Republic, 1922; Delegate to Conference on Central American Affairs, Washington, 1922; served as personal representative of the President of United States to offer mediation in Honduras revolution, and Delegate to the Central American Conference, Amapala, Honduras, 1924; Member of Dawes Financial Mission to Dominican Republic, 1929; Assistant Secretary of State, 1933; Ambassador to Cuba, Apr. to Dec. 1933, when again appointed Assistant Secretary of State; Delegate to Inter-American Conference for Maintenance of Peace, Buenos Aires, 1936. Under-Secretary of State, 1937-43. Delegate to meeting of Foreign Ministers of American Republics, Panama, 1939; Chairman, Inter-American Financial and Economic Advisory Committee, 1939. In Feb.-Mar. 1940, as personal representative of President Roosevelt, visited Europe and conferred with the heads of governments in Italy, Germany, France and England, as well as with Pope Pius XII; Representative of United States on Provisional Administration of European Colonies and Possessions in the Americas, 1940; Member, Central Committee, American Red Cross, representing the State Department, 1941; accompanied President Roosevelt at the meeting at sea with Prime Minister Churchill, Aug. 1941; Representative of United States at Third Consultative Meeting of Ministers of Foreign Affairs of American Republics, Rio de Janeiro, 1942. Author: Naboth's Vineyard, 1928; The World of Four Freedoms, 1943; The Time for Decision, 1944; Where Are We Heading?, 1946; We Need Not Fail, 1948. Residence: Oxon Hill Manor, Oxon Hill, Maryland.

WELLESZ, Dr. EGON JOSEPH, Austrian Composer, Musicologist; born Oct. 21, 1885, Vienna; son of S. and Ilona (Loevenyi) Wellesz; educated at Vienna University, Ph.D. 1908; married Emmy Franciska Stross, 1908; two children. Began career as composer, 1909. Member, Commission of the Denkmaeler d. Tonkunst, 1911-38. Appointed Privat-Dozent, Vienna University, 1913; Professor of History of Music, 1929-38. Guest Lecturer at University of London, 1933; Royal College of Music; University of Cambridge, 1938. Fellow, Lincoln College, Oxford, since 1939. Lecturer in Music at Oxford University, 1939-44; University Lecturer in History of Music, Oxford, since 1944. Co-Editor of Monumenta Musicae Byzantinae (Royal Danish Acad.) since 1933. Member, Royal Danish Acad. of Science and Letters, 1946. Co-Editor, The New Oxford History of Music. Hon. degrees from Oxford, Mus.D. 1932, M.A. (by decree) 1939; Delegate of Privileges of University of Oxford, 1944. Author: Giuseppe Bonno, 1908; Costanza e Fortezza (by I. I. Fux, ed.), 1911; Aufgaben u. Probleme auf d. Gebiete der byzant. u. oriental. Kirchenmusik, 1923; Byzantinische Musik, 1927; Monumenta Musicae Byzant., 1937; Eastern Elements in Western Chant, 1947, etc. Composer (operas): Die Prinzessin Girnara, 1921; Alkestis, 1924; Die Opferung des Gefangenen, 1926; Scherz, List u. Rache, 1928; Die Bakchantinnen, 1931; (ballets): Das Wunder d. Diana, 1924; Persisches Ballet, 1924; Achilles auf Skyros, 1924; Die Nächtlichen, 1924; (orchestra works): Vorfrühling, op. 12; Suite for Violin, 1924; Prospero's Spells, 1936; Symphony in C, 1945; 5 string quartets, etc. Residence: 51 Woodstock Rd. Office: Lincoln College, Oxford, England.

WELLFORD, Rev. Dr. EDWIN TALIAFERRO, American Clergyman; born Dec. 6, 1870, "Belleville", Gloucester Co., Va.; son of Judge Beverly Randolph and Susan Seddon (Taliaferro) Wellford; educated at McGuires School; Richmond University; Hampden Sydney College; Union Theological Seminary, A.B., D.D.; married Courtenay Brooke Selden, Apr. 12, 1892. Licensed by East Hanover Presbytery in April and ordained, May, 1892. Began Ministry at Mission Station in Newport News in building belonging to Land Co., Pastor, 1892-1940, Pastor Emeritus since. During more than half a century, sent off four colonies, two of which have also established outposts, built or remodeled eight Churches; over 170,000 soldiers in uniform attended the First Church during World War I; over 72,000 were fed, many of them slept in the Church. Presented with a flag in recognition of services to British troops, by London War Office. Charter Member and first Moderator, Presbytery of Norfolk. Moderator, Synod of Virginia and seven times Commissioner to General Assembly. Member, Western Section, Alliance Reformed Churches. Trustee, Hampden Sydney College; Union Theological Seminary (Chairman of the Executive Committee and President of its Board of Trustees). Member, Defense Service Council, Presbyterian Church U. S. and of its Executive Committe and Chairman of its Committee on Chaplains. Member of the Permanent Judicial Committee of General Assembly, Pres. Chairman, U. S. Member, Permanent Committee on Co-operating and Union, Presbyterian Church, U. S. Author: The Lynching of Jesus; Crime and Cure. City Home: 66 33rd St., Newport News, Va Country Home: "Glen Roy," Gloucester Co., Virginia.

WELLING, RICHARD (WARD GREENE), American Lawyer, Civic Leader; born Aug. 27, 1858, North Kingstown, R. I.; son of Charles Hunt and Katherine Celia (Greene) Welling; educated at Harvard, A.B. 1880; Harvard Law School, 1880-82; New York Univ., Pd.M. Engaged in practice of Law in New York City since 1883. Original member, City Reform Club, 1882. Organizer, City Club, Good Govt. Clubs and of Natl. Municipal League. Active in every New York City Fusion Campaign from Francis M. Scott, 1890, to LaGuardia. Organized and elected Chairman, School Citizens' Com., now Natl. Self Govt. Com., 1904. Commnr. of Municipal Civil Service (N.Y.), 1910-13; First Chairman, Joint Application Board, Assn. for Improving Condition of Poor and Charity Organization Soc. Member, Harvard Com. to Examine Study of Govt., 1919-24. Pres., Civil Service Reform Assn.; Secy. and a Director, Philharmonic-Symphony Soc. of New York; Vice-Pres., City Club; Vice-Pres. and a Director of Municipal Art Soc. Formerly the only lay-member, Council of Natl. Sculpture Soc.; Vice-Pres. and Secy., Amer. Soc. for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Fellow, Acad. of Political Science. Vice-Pres. and a Director, Boys Brotherhood Republic; Hon. Vice-Pres., Natl. Municipal League. Residence: 27 W. 44th St. Office: 1 Wall St., New York, New York.

WELLMAN, Dr. HILLER CROWELL, American Librarian; born Mar. 2, 1871, Boston, Mass.; son of Joseph Hiller and Ellen Maria Crowell) Wellman; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1894; American Internatl. College, Litt.D. 1945; married Emily Anden Whiston, Sept. 20, 1900; five children. Asst. Boston Athenaeum, 1894-96; Supervisor, Boston Public Library, 1896-98; Librarian, Brookline (Mass.) Public Library, 1898-1902; Librarian, City Library, Springfield, Mass., since 1902. Pres., Springfield Adult Education Council; formerly Vice-Pres., Springfield Symphony Orchestra. Member: Mass. Free Public Library Commn., 1908-38; Soldiers & Sailors Memorial Commn.; Amer. Library Assn. (Pres. 1914-15); Mass. Library Assn. (Pres. 1901-02). Author of numerous articles and reviews in professional periodicals and Atlantic Monthly. Residence: 125 Atwater Rd. Office: City Library, State St., Springfield, Mass.

WELLONS, Dr. RALPH D., American College President; born Jan. 28, 1891, Needmore, Ind.; son of W. A. and Eva (Dillingham) Wellons; educated at Indiana Univ., A.B. 1914, A.M. 1924; Teachers College, Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1927; married Willafred Howe, Aug. 18, 1914; three children. Principal of High School, Smithville, Ind., 1910-15; Superintendent of Schools Reynolds, Ind., 1915-16. Prof. of English, Lucknow Christian College, India, 1916-23; Professor of Education and Psychology, Drury College, 1924-25; Dean and Professor of Psychology and Education, Tusculum College, 1926-29. He was Vice-President of Lucknow Christian College, 1929-31, and Pres., 1931-41. Pres. of Pembroke State College, N. C., since 1942. Author of "Organizations set up for the Control of Union Higher Educational Institutions." Address: Pembroke, N. C.

WELLS, ALBERT BACHELLER, American Business Executive; born Nov. 19, 1872, Southbridge, Mass.; son of George Washington and Mary Eliza (McGregory) Wells; educated at Southbridge Schools; Rutgers Univ., 1889-90; Harvard, 1890-91; married Ethel Burnham, April 18, 1900; one son. With American Optical Co. since 1891; Chairman, Board of Trustees, 1926-47. Residence: (Winter) Rancho Santa Fe, Cal.; (Summer) Sturbridge, Mass.

WELLS, ARTHUR WALTER, South African Journalist; born Apr. 4, 1894, Bourne, England; son of Septimus and Suie (Askew) Wells; married Muriel Jane Clark, Dec. 27, 1935; three children. Served on editorial staffs of Maryport News, Whitehaven News, Derbyshire Courier, Sheffield Independent, Westmorland Mercury, West Cumberland Times, Rochdale Observer, Survey Advertiser, England, and in New Zealand on The Dominion, Wellington. Staff Member, The Cape Argus, and The Star, and first Editor of The Outspan of South Africa. Editor-in-Chief, Friend Newspapers Inc., since 1939. Member, South African Soc. of Journalists. Author: All This Is Ended, 1936; South Africa, a Planned Tour, 1939. Address: Friend Newspapers Ltd., Bloemfontein, South Africa.

WELLS, Dr. CHARLES RAYMOND, American Dentist; born Oct. 30, 1895, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Dwight S. and Lillian I. (Myers) Wells; educated at Northwestern Univ., D.D.S. 1918; Georgetown Univ., Sc.D. 1943; married Clara L. Horn, Aug. 9, 1919; two children. Naval Dental Officer with rank of Lieut. (j.g.), 1918; served until 1925. Has engaged in private practice since 1925. Lectured on dentistry, Long Island College of Medicine, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1939-40; Director of Oral Surgery, Queens General Hospital, Jamaica, L. I., since 1935. Delegate to American Dental Assn. since 1935. Editor, Journal of N. Y. Acad. of Dentistry, 1937, and Journal of Dental Soc., State of N. Y., 1936-39. Fellow: Internatl. College of Dentists (Pres. 1941); Amer. College of Dentists; New York Acad. of Dentistry. Member: Amer. Dental Assn. (Pres. 1944); New York State Dental Soc. (Vice-Pres. 1941), etc. Hon. Member: Vermont State Dental Soc.; Costa Rica Dental Assn.; Detroit Dental Soc. Member of Medical Advisory Board, Natl. Amer. Legion, 1945. Received Award of Merit, Northwestern Univ., 1934. Author of many articles in dental journals. Chief Dental Officer, Selective Service System of U. S. with rank of Capt., U.S. N.R., 1941-45. Address: 1 DeKalb Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

WELLS, CHARLES WILLIS, American Cotton Broker; born Jan. 9, 1888, Vicksburg, Miss.; son of William L. and Emma (Deupree) Wells; educated at Marion Military Acad., 1902; Episcopal High School, 1903; Lawrenceville School, 1906; Univ. of Virginia, 1907; married Vertilee Stanton, 1910. Clerk in Cotton Office, 1907; Vice-Pres., New Orleans Cotton Exchange, 1934; Treasurer, 1932-34 and 1944-46; Partner, Wells & Stanton, Cotton Brokers, New Orleans, La. Member: New Orleans Cotton Exchange; New York Produce Exchange. Assoc. Member: Texas Cotton Shippers Assn.; Amer. Cotton Shippers Assn.; Amer. Cotton Shippers Assn. Residence: 1443 Eleonore St. Office: 408 Cotton Exchange Bldg., New Orleans, La.

WELLS, GEORGE B., American Business Executive; born October 10, 1902, Southbridge, Mass.; son of Albert B. and Ethel (Burnham) Wells; educated at Phillips Andover and at Harvard (A.B. 1924); married Ruth Dyer, 1928; three children. With American Optical Co. since 1924; President since 1936. Director, First National Bank of Boston. Residence: Eastford Rd. Office: 14 Mechanic St., Southbridge, Massachusetts.

WELLS, Dr. GUY HERBERT, American College President; born Sept. 26, 1892, Temple, Carroll County, Ga.; son of James Charles and Susan Blanche (McPherson) Wells; educated at Mercer Univ., Macon, Ga., A.B. 1915, LL.D. 1934; Teachers College, Columbia Univ., M.A. 1926; grad. work at Peabody College and Columbia Univ.; married Ruby Mae Hammond, June 17, 1916; two children. Supt. of Schools, Lumpkin, Ga., 1915-18. Public School Supt.: Richland, Ga., 1918-21; Donalsonville, Ga., 1921-22; Eastman, Ga., 1922-26. Pres.: Georgia Teachers College, 1926-34; Georgia State College for Women, 1934 —. Address: Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Ga.

WELLS, HARRY LUMM, American University Administrator; born June 23, 1889, Coshocton, Ohio; son of Charles Howard and Fannie T. (Lumm) Wells; educated at Northwestern Univ., B.S. 1913; married Viola E. Shearer, Oct. 6, 1915. Athletic Coach, Univ. of North Dakota and Northwestern Univ., 1913-15. Manufacturing Executive, B. Kuppenheimer & Co., 1915-16; Operating Executive, Hart, Shaffner & Marx, 1917-29; Vice-Pres. and General Manager, Bauer and Black Division, Kendall Co., 1929-34, Business Manager, Northwestern Univ., since 1934; Vice-Pres. and Business Manager since 1937. Voting Trustee and Director, Chicago Northwestern Railroad; Director, Blue Cross Plan for Hospital Care, since 1946. Pres., Central Assn. of University and College Business Officers, 1939-40. Trustee, Northwestern Univ., 1932-34. Address: 619 Clark St., Evanston, Illinois.

WELLS, Dr. HERMAN B., American University President; born June 7, 1902, Jamestown, Ind.; son of Granville and Anna Bernice (Harting) Wells; educated at University of Illinois, 1920-21; Indiana University, B.S. 1924, A.M. 1927; graduate ctudy, University of Wisconsin, 1927-28; hon. LL.D. from Butler University, Rose Polytechnic Institute and DePauw University (1939), Wabash College (1942). Assistant, Department of Economics, University of Wisconsin, 1927-28; Field Secretary, Indiana Bankers Assn., 1928-31; Secretary and Research Director, Study Commission for Indiana Financial Institutions, 1931-33; Supervisor, Division of banks and trust companies and division of research and statistics, 1933-36. Instructor in Economics, Indiana University, 1931-35; Assistant Professor, 1933-35; Dean and Professor, School of Business, 1935-37. Acting President, July 1, 1937; elected President, Indiana University, Mar. 12, 1938. Chairman, American Council on Education, 1944-45; Member, Exec. Com., 1945 —. Special Adviser on Liberated Areas, U. S. Dept. of State, 1944. Consultant to U. S. Delegation, San Francisco Conf. for Amer. Council on Education, 1945. Member, Allied Mission for Observation of Greek Elections, for U. S. State Dept., with personal rank of Minister, 1946; Director, Higher Education, Amer. Zone of Occupation, 1947. Trustee, Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching; President, Dept. of Higher Education, National Education Assn.; President of the State University Assn., etc. Author (with others) of the Report of Study Commission for Indiana Financial Institutions, 1932, etc. Address: Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind.

WELLS, LINTON, American Writer; born 1893. Author: Around the World in Twenty-eight Days, 1926; Blood on the Moon (autobiography), 1937; Salute to Valor (heroes of the United Nations), 1942. Address: c/o Random House, Inc., 457 Madison Ave., New York 22, N. Y.

WELLS, Dr. MYRTA ALBERTSON, American Poet; born at Franklin, Pa.; daughter of Irvin Mulholland and Mary Jane Arnold; educated at High School; Edinboro State Normal College, Pa.; received M.D. 1904; married Judge P. Albertson Wells of N. Y.; raised two orphan girls. Began writing poetry, 1915. First poem "Frost on Window" published in Oregon Journal, followed by numerous poems in various magazines and other publications. Contributor to: From The Valleys To The Mountains. Held a clinic under Hering Med. College for three years at Chicago (Stock Yards District). Organized Walt Whitman Soc., Minnesota. Pres., Eta Delphian Soc., one year. Member, Illinois Womans Press Club, Chicago. Charter Member, Minnesota Poets League; Chairman, Board of Regents, six years; Pres., Minneapolis Poetry Circle, two years. Pres., Midwest Federation of Chapparal Poets, four years. Received many awards and prizes for published poems and radio broadcasts. Address: 2005—2nd Ave. So., Minneapolis, Minn.

WELLS, PERCY LAWRENCE, Member of British Parliament; born June 8, 1891, Stone, Greenhithe, Kent, England; son of Wm. Alfred and Laura Jane (Whiskin) Wells; educated at National School, Stone; married Lily Florence Peet Fisher, Dec. 26, 1919; one daughter. Laborer, 1904; joined Royal Navy, 1907; left Navy in 1910 and travelled through Canada, U. S., Pacific Islands, New Zealand, Australia; recalled to England, 1913; appointed on Divisional Council, Independent Labour Party; appointed Kent Organiser for the Workers Union, 1920; elected to Sittingbourne & Milton U.D.C., 1936; elected to Kent County Council, 1937; appointed Justice of the Peace for Kent, 1937; appointed Sub-Controller for A.R.P., Sittinbourne, 1940. Member of Central Agricultural Wages Board, 1941; Parliamentary Secy. to Ernest Bevin since 1946; elected Member of Parliament, 1946. Member: Fabian Soc.; Transport and General Workers Union; Labour Party. Residence: Wandella, 4 Park Ave., Sittingbourne, Kent. Office: House of Commons, London, Eng.

WELLS, THEODORE A., American Engineer; born Mar. 12, 1907, Corning, Iowa; son of Arthur R. and Helen (Wilson) Wells; educated at Princeton Univ., 1925-29, B.Sc. in E.; married Margery Adair, 1930. Demonstrating salesman for Travel Air, 1927; design engineer and factory pilot, Travel Air Co., 1928; Project Engineer and Factory Pilot, 1929. Winner of $10,000 first prize, Portland, Ore. to Cleveland Air Derby in connection with National Air Races. Engineer in Charge of Experimental Development, Travel Air Co., 1930; Chief Engineer, Curtiss Wright Co., 1931; Vice-Pres. and Chief Engineer, Beach Aircraft Corp., since 1932. Director, Beech Aircraft Corp. Member, Soc. of Automobile Engineers. Address: East Central Ave., Wichita, Kansas.

WELSFORD, HUBERT GRAY, Canadian Engineer; born July 16, 1895, San Jose, Calif.; son of Herbert R. and Ada Welsford; educated in Winnipeg public schools and private tuition; married Jean Thomson Stavert, Jan. 16, 1927; two children. Junior Draftsman, 1911; Draftsman and Engineer, Dominion Bridge Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, 1911-15; Sales Engineer, 1920-22. Asst. General Manager, Dominion Engineering Works, Montreal, 1922-26; General Manager, 1926; Vice-Pres. and Member, Board of Directors, 1938. Director: Dominion Bridge Co.; Dominion Hoist & Shovel Co.; Canadian Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Co.; Wood Grinder Co.; Shawinigan Water & Power Co. Member: Engineering Inst. of Canada; Executive Com., Canadian Chamber of Commerce. Awards: Order of the British Empire (Military Div.). Author: Employment—The Foundation of All Social Security, 1943. Address: Dominion Engineering Works, Ltd., Montreal, P.Q., Canada.

WELSH, Sir ALLAN ROSS, Kt., Southern Rhodesian Politician; born July 8, 1875, Union of South Africa; son of Alexander Robert and Jessie Margaret (Solomon) Welsh; educated at Dale College, Kingwilliamstown, Union of South Africa; married Maude Marianne Smit, Oct. 15, 1901; three daughters. Articled clerk, 1893; qualified as Attorney and Notary, Cape Colony, 1896; qualified in South African Republic, 1897, and in Southern Rhodesia, 1899; practiced as Attorney and Notary, Bulawayo, Southern Rhodesia, 1899—. Elected Member of Parliament of Southern Rhodesia for Bulawayo North Constituency, 1927; re-elected 1928, 1933, 1934; elected Speaker of the Parliament of Southern Rhodesia, 1935; re-elected 1939, 1946—. Chairman: Bulawayo Public Library; Beit Central Schools Library; National Free Library Service. Residence: Grand Hotel, Main St. Office: Barclays Bank Buildings, Eighth Ave., Bulawayo, Southern Rhodesia, South Africa.

WELSH, Hon. GEORGE AUSTIN, U. S. District Judge; born August 9, 1878, Bayview, Md.; son of George and Sarah (Pickering) Welsh; educated at Temple University Law School (LL.B., Hon. LL.D. 1938); married Nellie Roos Wolff, June 27, 1906 (deceased); married (2nd) Helen Kirk, Oct. 31, 1921; five children. Court Reporter, 1905; in general law practice, 1905-32; Assistant City Solicitor and Assistant District Attorney, 1907-22; elected to the U. S. Congress, 1922; serving in the 68th, 69th, 70th, 71st and 72nd Congresses; resigned to accept appointment as U. S. District Judge for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Vice-President, Trustee and former Secretary, Temple University. Residence: 4105 Cambridge St., Philadelphia, Pa. Office: U. S. Court House, Philadelphia 7, Pennsylvania.

WELSH, JOHN, British Banker; born May 16, 1887, Scotland; son of John and Marion (Skeoch) Welsh; educated at Greenhead Grammar School; married Catalina Acuña Chaparteguy, June 17, 1915; three children. With Royal Bank of Scotland, Gasgow, 1902-08; later with London & River Plate Bank Ltd. (now Bank of London & South America Ltd.) in Uruguay, becoming Manager; transferred to Buenos Aires; appointed Chief Manager in Argentina, Uruguay and Paraguay, 1934. Appointed Member of Com. of five by Uruguayan Govt. to investigate Anglo-Uruguayan trade relations, recommending basis for agreement between Great Britain and Uruguay regarding distribution of exchange. Member: Comisión de Valores de Bolsa, Banco Central de la República Argentina; British Chamber of Commerce, Argentina. Pres of Board, Soc. Anon. Montalegre Ltda. and Cia. Colonizadora de Tierras, S.A.; Vice-Pres. of Board, Destilerias Bodegas y Viñedos El Globo Ltd.; Director, Soc. Anon. Viñedos y Bodegas Arizu. Residence: Almafuerte 863, Acarusso, Buenos Aires. Office: Bartolome Mitre 399, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

WELTE, Dr. HERBERT DAVID, American College President; born March 6, 1898, David City, Nebraska; son of Joseph and Nancy (Grafft) Welte; educated at State Teachers College, Kearney, Nebr., B.A. 1924; State Univ. of Iowa, M.A. 1925, Ph.D. 1929; married May Aletha Boulden, Nov. 26, 1927; four children. Taught in rural schools of Butler County, Nebr., 1916-19; served as Supt. of Schools at Abie and Bruno, Nebr., 1920-22; Professor of Education and Dean of Men at State Teachers College, Mayville, N. D., 1925-27; Research Asst. at State Univ. of Iowa, 1927-29; President, Teachers College of Connecticut, 1929—. Member of New Britain Teachers Club (President, 1930-31); New England Teachers Preparation Assn. (President, 1936-37); Eastern States Assn. of Professional Schools for Teachers (Secretary, 1938-41, Pres., 1941-43). Author: A Psychological Analysis of Plane Geometry; Ellis-Welte Workbook in North Dakota History and Geography; Knight-Welte Workbook in Plane Geometry. Residence: 86 Park Drive. Office: 1615 Stanley St., New Britain, Connecticut.

WELTER, CHARLES JOSEPH IGNACE MARIE, Dutch Political Leader; born April 6, 1880, The Hague. Entered civil service of Dutch East Indies in 1906; General

Secy. to Govt. of Dutch East Indies, 1921-24; Vice-Pres., Council of the Dutch East Indies, 1929-31. Pres., General Association of Enterprises in Netherland Indies, 1931-37. Minister of Colonies, 1937-41. Residence: 10 Statenplein. Office: 1 Plein, The Hague, Netherlands.

WEMYSS, General Sir HENRY COLVILLE BARCLAY, British Army Officer; born April 26, 1891; son of Alexander and Frances (Finniss) Wemyss; educated at Bedford School; Royal Military Academy, Woolwich; married Vera Mozley, Dec. 17, 1919; two children. Commissioned in British Army, 1910. Served during First World War in France, Aug.-Nov., 1914; Gallipoli, Aug. to Dec., 1915; in Egypt, Salonica and Palestine, 1916-19. Director, Mobilization, 1934-40; Adjutant-General to the Forces, 1940-41; Head, British Army Staff, Washington, 1941; Military Secy. of War Office, 1942-46; rank of General. Decorated with: Distinguished Service Order, 1914; Military Cross, 1915; Knight Commander of the Order of the Bath, 1945; Knight Commander, Order of the British Empire, 1941; Order of the Nile, Egypt, 1919. Address: Brewers Society, Portman Sq., London, England.

WEN YU-CH'ING (Y. C. Wen), Dr., Chinese Physicist, Government Official; born Nov. 11, 1894, Hongkong; son of Bing-Yi Wen and Wan-Tung Fong; educated at Tsing Hua College, Peking, graduating 1914; Harvard University, A.B. 1917, M.A. 1918, Ph.D. 1920; married Jane We-Tsung Sze, June 21, 1930; one daughter. Instructor in Physics at Tsing Hua College, 1922; Professor of Physics, Peking University, 1923-28; President of Customs College in Peking. Associated with Ministry of Communications since 1930, serving as Director of Radio Administration until 1931; Chairman of Purchasing Commission, 1933, and Director of the Bureau of International Telegraph, 1933-34; Director-General of the Department of Telephone and Telegraph since 1934. Chairman, Board of Directors, China Electric Co., since 1935. Address: Ministry of Communications, Nanking, China.

WEN, Prof. YUAN-NING, Chinese Politician, Educator; born Nov. 24, 1900, Luk Feng, Kwangtung, China; son of Wen Ching-Liang and Wang Ch'en-Lien; educated at London Univ., 1917-19; King's College, Cambridge Univ., 1919-22, B.A., LL.B. (Cantab) 1922, M.A. (Cantab) 1926; married Una Tseng, May 1926; three sons. Prof. at Peking National Univ., 1924-33; National Tsing Hwa Univ., 1927-33; Dean College for Women, Peiping, 1928-1930; Dean, Normal Univ., Peiping, 1928-31; Dean, Peking National Univ., 1928-33. Editor-in-Chief, Tien Hsia Monthly, 1935-41. Member, Legislative Yuan, since 1936. Member: Chinese Delegation on IPR Conf., 1939; Chinese Goodwill Mission to England. Member, Planning Board, Sun Yat-sen Inst. for Advancement of Education and Culture, since 1935. Director, Hongkong Office, Chinese Ministry of Information, 1937-41. Author: Imperfect Understanding, 1934. Address: Legislative Yuan, Nanking, China.

WENCHEL, JOHN PHILIP, American Lawyer; born May 24, 1886, Baltimore, Md.; son of John Frederick and Louise (Reisinger) Wenchel; educated at Baltimore City College; University of Maryland; married Ella Singewald, Aug. 28, 1907. Began practicing law in Baltimore, 1908. Attorney, U. S. Department of Agriculture, 1914-17; Assistant to Solicitor, 1917-37; Assistant General Counsel of Agricultural Adjustment Administration, 1934-36. Assistant General Counsel and Secretary, Federal Surplus Commodities Corp., 1934-37. Assistant General Counsel, Treasury Dept., 1937. Chief Counsel, Bureau of Internal Revenue since 1937. Member: American Judicature Society; American Bar and Federal Bar Assns. Author: "Laws Applicable to United States Department of Agriculture," 1935. Residence: 6805-6th St., N. W. Office: Room 5002, Internal Revenue Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WENDLING, Dr. ANDRÉ VICTOR, Canadian Physicist; born Nov. 30, 1893, Paris; son of André and Blanche (Barmoy) Wendling; educated at The Sorbonne, B.Sc. 1911, Master in Mathematics, 1921; Ecole Supérieure d'Electricité (Paris), E.E. 1924; McGill Univ. (Montreal), Ph.D. in Physics, 1937; married Brigitte Bouvier-Desnos, Nov. 11, 1925. Professor of Physics at Ecole Polytechnique and Univ. of Montreal, 1924; Professor of Epistemology, Faculty of Philosophy, Montreal, 1928; Research Associate in X-Ray Crystallography at McGill, 1938; Professor of Mechanics at Ecole Polytechnique, 1938. Prof. of Mathematical Physics, Univ. of Montreal and of Higher Mathematics at Ecole Polytechnique; head of Physics Dept. at Polytechnique. President: Société de Physique et de Chimie de Montréal, 1939; Société de Mathématiques et d'Astronomie (Montreal), 1928. Publications: "Cours de Physique," 3 volumes, 1933-35, Ecole Polytechnique; "L'Enseignement Technique de la Mécanique (Revue Technique Montréal), 1940-45; Structure of Rubidium Dithionate, Zeitschrift für Kristallographie, 1938. Residence: 80 Les Érables, Laval-sur-le-lac, Quebec. Office: 1430 St. Denis, Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

WENG, Rev. Dr. ARMIN GEORGE, American Clergyman; born in Oshkosh, Wis., Oct. 9, 1897; son of Rev. George M. and Jennie F. (Hillemann) Weng; educated at Oshkosh State Teachers College; Wartburg College, A.B. 1919; Univ. of Pennsylvania, M.A. 1922; Philadelphia Lutheran Seminary, B.D. 1923; Yale Univ., Ph.D. 1928; married Helga F. Westenberg, June 21, 1924; two children. Pastor: First English Lutheran Church, Bridgeport, Conn., until 1927; Immanuel Lutheran Church, Philadelphia, 1927-30; Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Elgin, Ill., 1930-39. Pres., Illinois Synod, since 1937; Acting Pres., Chicago Lutheran Theological Seminary, 1941-42; Secy., Natl. Lutheran Council, since 1941. Director, Chicago Medical School. Address: 77 W. Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

WENKE, Hon. ADOLPH E., American Jurist; born Jan. 22, 1898, Pender, Nebr.; son of Fred W. and Henrietta (Atens) Wenke; educated at Univ. of Nebraska, LL.B. 1923; married Gertrude H. Bauer, June 7, 1925; three children. Began as lawyer, Feb. 14, 1924; County Attorney, 1925-26; City Attorney, Stanton, 1929-33; District Judge, 1938-43; Justice of Nebraska Supreme Court, since Jan. 7, 1943. Residence: Stanton, Nebr. Office: State Capitol Bldg., Lincoln, Nebr.

WENNER-GREN, AXEL (LEONARD), Swedish Industrialist; born June 5, 1881, Uddevalla, Sweden; educated in Uddevalla public schools, 1890-97; College of Commerce, Berlin, 1902; married Marguerite Gauntier. Employee, Alfa Laval Separator, Berlin; General Agent for A.B. Lux, 1912; Founder, Swedish Electrolux Co., 1919; established subsidiaries all over the world; controlled Swedish paper-pulp trust; bought Krupp's interest in Sweden's Bofors anti-aircraft plant; Mediator for Hermann Göring during Russo-Finnish War; engaged in various business enterprises in Mexico, 1941 —. Bought Mexican Ericsson Co. and Mexicana Telephone & Telegraph Co.; combined both telephone companies by forming the new Teléfonos de Mexico, S.A.; Founder, Corporacion Continental S.A. (holding company of his Mexican interests). Sponsor of various scientific institutions; Member of Board, Wenner Grens Institute, Univ. of Stockholm; Pres., Swedish-Finnish Chamber of Commerce. Author: Vädjan till envar, 1937. Address: Teléfonos de Mexico S.A., Mexico City, Mexico.

WENNERBERG, FOLKE S., Swedish Minister to Chile; born July 10, 1892, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Sune G. and Ellis (Rehbinder) Wennerberg; educated at University of Stockholm, LL.M. 1917; married Dagmar Schlasberg, July 17, 1934; three children. Attaché at Foreign Office, 1917; in Berne, 1919; Secretary, Foreign Office, 1920; Secretary at The Hague and Brussels, 1922; Vice-Consul, London, 1923; Secretary at Tokyo, 1924; 1st Secretary, Copenhagen, 1928; Consul, Leningrad, 1931; Chief of Section, Foreign Office, 1931; Chargé d'Affaires, Prague, 1934-35; Counsellor, Washington, D. C., 1936; Chargé d'Affaires, Santiago, 1942. Minister Plenipotentiary to Chile since Mar. 1944. Author: Angkor, 1932. Sub-Lieut., Royal Svea Art. Reg. Reserve, 1912; Lieut., 1917; Capt., 1931. Residence: Avenida Ricardo Lyon 635. Office: Swedish Legation, Barros Errazuriz 1975, Santiago, Chile.

WENNSTROM, J. M., Swedish Insurance Executive; born Apr. 13, 1878, Gothenburg; educated at Inst. of Technology (M.E. 1897); Polytechnic Inst. of Univ. of Zurich (C.E. 1900); married; one son. Started with Bern-Neuchâtel Railroad Co., Switzerland, as division engineer, 1900; returned to Sweden, 1902; appointed engineer in charge of construction work of Swedish Exposition, Helsingborg, 1903. With Svea Fire and Life Insurance Co. as inspector in home dept., and foreign dept., 1907. Appointed United States Manager for Company, 1916, for Christiania General Insurance Co. of Norway, 1918. Pres., Christiania General Insurance Corp. of New York, since 1941. Pres., Hudson Insurance Co. of New York, 1919-40; Director of Swedish Chamber of Commerce of America, 1926-34. Residence: 330 W. 72nd St. Office: 102 Maiden Lane, New York, New York.

WENRICH, Dr. DAVID HENRY, American Zoologist; born June 29, 1885, Lecompton, Kans.; son of Christian K. and Frances C. (Lippy) Wenrich; educated at Univ. of Kansas, A.B. 1911, A.M. 1912; Harvard Univ., Ph.D. 1915; married Myra E. Spangler, June 19, 1916; two children. Teaching Fellow, Univ. of Kansas, 1911-12; Austin Teaching Fellow, Harvard Univ., 1912-13 and 1914-15; Instructor in Zoology, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1915-19; Asst. Prof., 1919-28; Prof. of Zoology since 1928. Trustee, Biological Abstracts, Inc. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member: Amer. Genetics Assn.; Amer. Micological Soc. (Pres. 1930); Amer. Soc. of Naturalists; Amer. Soc. of Parasitology (Pres. 1940); Amer. Soc. of Tropical Medicine; Amer. Soc. of Zoologists (Vice-Pres. 1940); Ecological Soc. of America; Linnological Soc. of America; Bermuda Station for Biological Research; Marine Biological Laboratory, etc. Author of articles in scientific journals and books on spermatogenesis in grasshoppers, morphology and taxonomy of ciliated protozoa, morphology and host-parasite relations of intestinal protozoa of man, rodents and other animals, techniques for protozoa, etc. Address: Dept. of Zoology, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

WENT, Dr. FRITS WARMOLT, American Plant Physiologist; born May 18, 1903, Utrecht, Netherlands; son of F. A. F. C. and C. J. (Tonckens) Went; educated at Univ. of Utrecht, 1920-27, A.B. 1922, M.A. 1925, Ph.D. 1927; married Catherina H. van de Koppel, Nov. 25, 1927; two children. Botanist with Botanic Gardens of Buitenzorg, Java, 1928-30; Director of Foreigners Laboratory, Buitenzorg, Java, 1930-32; Instructor of Medical College, Batavia, Java, 1930-31; Asst. Prof. of Plant Physiology, California Inst. of Technology, 1933-35; Prof. since 1935. Author: Phytohormones, 1937. Member, National Academy of Sciences. Address: California Institute of Technology, Pasadena 4, Calif.

WENTE, CARL FREDERICK, American Banker; born Mar. 27, 1889, Livermore, Calif.; son of Carl Heinrich and Barbara (Trautwein) Wente; educated in Livermore grammar and high schools; married Jessie Huldah Orelup, Jan. 19, 1915. Runner for Central Bank, Oakland, Calif., 1907; Asst. Cashier, First National Bank, Livermore, Sept. 1, 1907; entered employ of Bank of Italy, Feb. 1, 1918, with Madera branch; held various positions with organization, which later became Bank of America N. T. & S. A.; resigned June 1, 1934 as Supervisor of Credits, and became Pres. of First National Bank of Nevada. Pres., Central Bank at Oakland, 1937-43; Senior Vice-Pres., Bank of America, 1943—. Member of Exec. Com. and of Bd. of Directors. Director, First National Bank of Portland; California State Chamber of Commerce. Residence: 537 Marina Blvd. Office: 300 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Calif.

WENTE, Dr. EDWARD CHRISTOPHER, American Physicist; born Jan. 2, 1889, Denver, Iowa; son of Christian W. and Sophia (Biesterfeld) Wente; educated at University of Michigan, A.B. 1911; Massachusetts Institute of Technology, B.S. 1914; Yale University, Ph.D. 1918; married Sophia Brockman; two sons. Member, Engineering Dept., Western Electric Co., 1914-16, 1918-25; Research Physicist, Bell Telephone Laboratories, Inc., since 1925; developed condenser microphone for quantitative acoustic measurements, 1917, which marked beginning of modern acoustics; developed light valve, 1925, used in recording of sound for most motion picture productions; in charge of development of original test model of electrical director, used by army for its large calibre anti-aircraft guns. Member: American Physical Society; National Defense Research Council; Acoustical Society of America (Pres., 1942-43), etc. Awarded: Wetherill Medal, Franklin Institute, 1931; received first award of Society of Motion Picture Engineers, 1935; Modern Pioneer tories, Inc., Murray Hill, N. J.

WENYON, CHARLES MORLEY, C.M.G., C.B.E., British Scientist; educated at Victoria Univ., Leeds; Univ. College, London; Guy's Hospital; received M.B., B.S. and B.Sc. (London). Director-in-Chief, Wellcome Research Institution, London. Fellow, Royal Society. Address: Wellcome Research Institution, 183 Euston Road, London, N.W. 1, England.

WENZEL, Hon. HENRY G., JR., American Jurist; born Aug. 1, 1889, New York City, N. Y.; son of Henry G. and Caroline (Demmerle) Wenzel; educated at St. Lawrence Univ., LL.B. 1911, LL.M. 1912; married Blanche Ducroiset, Jan. 30, 1915; two sons. Associated with Palmer & Serles, New York City, 1909-16; with George F. Haendel, New York City, 1916-23; Elected Justice, Municipal Court, New York City, 1924; Justice Supreme Court of New York State since 1932. Residence: 115-01 85th Ave., Richmond Hill, N. Y. Office: General Court House, Jamaica, N. Y.

WENZL, Prof. ALOYS, German Philosopher; born Jan. 25, 1887, Munich, Bavaria, Germany; educated at Luitpold Gymnasium, 1908; Univ. of Munich (Mathematics and Physics) Ph.D. 1912; studied philosophy and psychology, 1926; married Dorothea Reinlein, May 1928; three sons. Privatdocent, Univ. of Munich, 1926; Extraordinary Prof., 1926-28; discharged for political reasons, 1938; Head of Section on Higher Education, Ministry of Education, 1945-46; Prof. of Philosophy, Univ. of Munich, 1946; Dean, Philosophical Faculty, 1947; Rector of the University, 1947-48; Chairman of Philosophical Seminary. Member, Bavarian Acad. of Sciences. Recipient, Avenarius Prize, 1932. Author: Verhältnis der Philosophie der Gegenwart zur Einsteinschen Relativitätstheorie, 1923; Theorie der Begabung, 1935; Wissenschaft und Weltanschauung, 1936; Philosophie der Freiheit, 1947. Residence: Bonnerstrasse, 24/11. Office: Universität, Geschwister-Schollplatz, Munich, Bavaria, Germany.

WERDER, Dr. HERMANN, Swiss Surgeon; born May 4, 1901, St. Gall, Switzerland; son of Gustav and Magdalena (Schroeder) Werder; educated at Univs. of Basle, Königsberg and Heidelberg; M.D.; married Dr. Irma Gassman, Feb. 26, 1931; six children. Asst. Surgeon, University Clinic of Profs. Hotz and Henschen, Basle; Cantonal Hosp., Grabs; Surgical Clinic of Prof. Brunner, St. Gall; engaged in private practice of surgery at Speicher (Appenzell); Surgeon Hosp. of Irogen; Chief Surgeon, Cantonal Hosp., Grabs, St. Gall, since 1936. Member: Swiss Soc. of Surgeons; Swiss Red Cross. Lieut. Col., Swiss Army (Medical Corps). Residence: Buchs, St. Gall. Office: Kantonales Krankenhaus, Grabs, St. Gall, Switzerland.

WERENSKIOLD, Dr. WERNER, Norwegian Geographer; born Apr. 28, 1883, Paris, France; son of Erik and Sophie M. S. (Thomesen) Werenskiold; educated at Univ. of Oslo, M.A. 1907, Doctor's degree, 1924; studied physical geography under Prof. Albrecht Penck in Berlin, 1910-11; married (1st) Ingeborg Elieson, 1910; married (2nd) Belle Quiller, 1940; four children (by first marriage) and two children (by second marriage). Asst. in Geological Survey, 1907-17. Asst. teacher in physical geography, Univ. of Oslo, 1910; Docent, 1915; Prof. of Geography since 1925. Worked on archaean Telemark formation and praecambrian sparagmite series; later engaged in physical geography; took part in Norwegian Spitsbergen expeditions as geologist and topographer, 1917-24. Director, Geographical Inst. of Univ. of Oslo. Member of Board of Soc. for Natural and Scenic Preservation and of "Free Air" Council of Oslo and environs. Member: Acad. of Science, Oslo; Geological Soc., Oslo; Polytechnical Soc., Oslo. Corresponding member of Svenska Sällskapet for Antropologi och Geografi, Stockholm; Geographical Soc., Leningrad. Author (textbook): Fysisk Geografi, 1924-43. Editor, "Norge, vart land", 1936-37. Address: Blindern, V. Aker, near Oslo, Norway.

WERFEL, ALMA MARIA MAHLER, born Aug. 31, 1889, Vienna, Austria; daughter of Emil J. and Anna (van Bergen) Schindler. Her father, a famous painter, had a monument dedicated to him in Vienna. Alma M. M. Werfel studied composition and counterpoint with Alexander Zemlinsky in Vienna; conducted salon in Vienna which was meeting place for all its famous musicians and composers; married (1st) the composer, Gustav Mahler; (2nd) Franz Werfel, the writer. Mrs. Werfel is composer of about 100 songs (Universal Edition in Vienna, Austria). Instrumental in promoting Arnold Schoenberg and Alban Berg in early days of their careers. Address: 610 N. Bedford Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif.

WERIN, Dr. ALGOT GUSTAF, Swedish Publisher; born in W. Sallerup, Sweden, Oct. 19, 1892; son of Jons and Emma (Anderson) Werin; educated at Univ. of Lund, Litt.D., 1923; married Ada Hjelme-Lundberg, 1924; two children. Librarian, University Library of Lund, 1920-28; Reader in History of Literature, Univ. of Lund, 1929-34; Director, publishing house C. W. K. Gleerup, since 1939. Secy., New Society of Letters, Lund, 1929-32; elected Vice Pres., 1933. Author: C. J. L. Almquist, 1923; Esaias Tegner, 1934; Svensk Idealism, 1938. Residence: Gerdagatan 2. Office: C.W.K. Gleerup Bokforlag, Lund, Sweden.

WERKMAN, Dr. CHESTER H., American Bacteriologist; born June 17, 1893, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; son of John C. and Ada Alice (Groves) Werkman; educated at Purdue Univ., B.S. 1919, Hon. D.Sc, 1944; Iowa State College, Ph.D., 1923; married Cecile A. Baker, 1913; one son. Bacteriologist, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Bureau of Chemistry, 1919; Asst. Prof. of Bacteriology, Univ. of Idaho, 1919-21; Asst. Prof. of Bacteriology, Massachusetts State College, 1924; Head, Dept. of Bacteriology, Iowa State College, since 1945. Member: Soc. for Experimental Biology and Medicine; Amer. Soc. of Biological Chemists; Biochemical Soc. of Great Britain; Soc. of Amer. Bacteriologists; Amer. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Natl. Acad. of Science; Sigma Xi, etc. Author of over 250 scientific articles. Address: Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa.

WERNER, Rev. ARNOLD (ISRAEL), Swedish Clergyman; born Dec. 1, 1895, Milwaukee, Wis.; son of Per Efraim and Emmy Olivia (Oertegren) Werner; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, cand. theol. 1922, Pastoral examination, 1922; studied dogmatics at Uppsala; Marburg Univ., Germany, summer 1920; married Vera Christina Wretlind, Apr. 9, 1923; three sons. Secy., Student Christian Movement, Sweden, 1921-28; Secy., Swedish Ecumenical Council, 1936-37 and since 1939; Treas. since 1936; Secy., Synod of Church of Sweden, 1934, 1936 and 1941; Leader of Information Dept., World Conference on Life and Work, Stockholm, 1925; Delegate at Ecumenical World Conferences, Oxford and Edinburgh, 1937. Author: The Lord's Prayer, 1931; Our New Hymn Book, 1937; Doctrine of Faith for Candidates for Confirmation, 1945. Address: Arbetargatan 21, Stockholm, Sweden.

WERNER, Dr. CHARLES, Swiss Philosopher; born Feb. 26, 1878, Geneva, Switzerland; son of Auguste and Juliette (Archinard) Werner; educated at College of Geneva; Univs. of Geneva, Jena, Paris and Berlin; Univ. of Geneva, Litt.Lic. 1900, Litt.D. 1909; married Edith Gourd, 1909; three children. Prof. of Philosophy and History of Philosophy, Faculty of Letters, Univ. of Geneva, since 1909. Dean, Faculty of Letters, 1914-20; Rector, Univ. of Geneva, 1928-30. Member, Permanent Internatl. Com. of Philosophical Congress. Author: Aristote et l'idéalisme platonicien, 1910; Etudes de philosophie morale, 1917; La philosophie grecque, 1938; Le problème du mal dans la pensée humaine, 1944 (2nd ed.) 1946. Address: 4 route de Florissant, Geneva, Switzerland.

WERNER, FRITZ, American Portrait Painter; born April 7, 1898, Vienna, Austria; son of Steven and Elisabeth (Klem) Werner; educated Academies of Fine Arts in Vienna, Munich, Paris, Rome; under Prof. Hugo von Haberman, Munich, Prof. Rudolph Bacher, and Prof. Hans Tichy, Vienna; married Emmy Smetzka, June 13, 1935. Became a naturalized U. S. citizen, 1935. Gave one-man shows at Le Salon, Paris, 1923; Terzia Biennale Romana, Rome, 1925; International Art Exhibition, Cairo, 1926; Galleria Whitcomb, Buenos Aires, 1930; Stendahl Art Galleries, Los Angeles, 1932, and Wildenstein Art Galleries, 1934, 1936, National Academy of Design, N. Y., 1932, 1936; Detroit Museum of Art, 1940; Cincinnati Art Museum, 1943. Represented in: Supreme Court of Ohio, Columbus, Ohio; Circuit Court of Appeals, Cincinnati, Ohio; University of Cincinnati; A. O. Smith Corp., Milwaukee, Wis., General Mills, Inc., Minneapolis, Minn., etc. Portrait paintings include those of Chief Justice Hugh L. Nichols; Lt. Gen. William S. Knudsen; F. H. Ecker, Chairman of Metropolitan Life Insurance; Mrs. Sewell Avery, Chicago, Ill.; Charles Livingood, President of Cincinnati Art Museum; E. W. Edwards, Cincinnati, Ohio; Walter Douglas, Chairman of Phelps Dodge Mining, N. Y.; James Roosevelt; George Warrington, President of University of Cincinnati, and A. O. Smith and L. R. Smith of A. O. Smith Corp., Milwaukee, Wis.; Harry Bullis, Pres. of General Mills, Inc. Portraits in foreign countries include those of H.R.H. Prince Barbu Stirbey, former Prime Minister of Roumania; H. E. Ziwar Pacha, former Prime Minister of Egypt. Awarded Gundel Portrait Prize and Scholarship Prize of Academy of Fine Arts, Vienna. Residence: Hotel Plaza, Fifth Ave., New York 19, New York.

WERNER, M. R., American Writer; son of Samuel and Fannie Werner; studied at Columbia Univ. School of Journalism; married Hazel Hawthorne, July 2, 1932. With New York Tribune, 1919; Special Correspondent in China for New York Tribune, 1920. Free lance writer until 1935; with Works Progress Administration, 1935-36. On staff of Newsweek, 1941-42, Official, Office of War Information Overseas Branch in New York, 1942-44; New York correspondent, Yorkshire Post, Leeds, England, since 1941. During World War I served in U. S. Army Medical Corps (Base Hospital No. 2) in France. Member: Authors League of America; Amer. Historical Assn. Author: Barnum (1923); Brigham Young (1925); Tammany Hall (1928); Bryan (1929); Orderly! (1930); To Whom It May Concern (1931); Little Napoleons and Dummy Directors (1933); Privileged Characters (1935); Julius Rosenwald (1939); The Admirable Trumpeter (co-author), 1941; The House Near Paris (co-author), 1946. Editor, "Stalin's Kampf" (1940). Address: c/o Harcourt, Brace & Co., 383 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

WERNER, SIGVART, Danish Naturalist; born June 13, 1872, Copenhagen, Denmark; son of T. M. and Vilhelmine (Aagaard) Werner; married Inger Marie Jantzen, May 18, 1897; two children. Partner, firm of T. M. Werner, 1903-31. Hon. Member, Central Board of Danmarks Naturfredningsforening. Edited a number of books describing Danish nature with contributions of well known authors and illustrated with photographs. Address: Schimmelmansv. 43, Charlottenlund, Denmark.

WERNETTE, Dr. J(OHN) PHILIP, American Educator; born Oct. 29, 1903, Imlay City, Mich.; son of J. I. and Bessie (Barris) Wernette; educated at Univ. of California, A.B. 1924; Univ. of Southern California, M.A. 1926; Harvard Univ., M.A. 1929, Ph.D. 1932; married Eleanor De Courcy, Aug. 17, 1940; one son and one daughter. Instructor, Univ. of Southern California, 1924-26; Faculty Member, Harvard Univ., 1927-45; Member, Commn. of Financial Advisers, Republic of Colombia, 1929, and Republic of Peru, 1931. Fellow, Social Science Research Council, 1932-33; War Goods Price Coordinator, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., 1942-43; Pres., Univ. of New Mexico, since 1945. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Univ. Profs. Author: Money, Business and Prices, 1933; Control of Business Cycles, 1940; Financing Full Employment, 1945. Address: University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

WERNICKE, Dr. RAUL (ERNESTO ALBERTO), Argentine Biological Chemist; born Sept. 28, 1888, Rosario, Argentina; son of Augusto Jorge and Arsenia (Roldán) Wernicke; educated at Natl. College of Rosario; Natl. Univ. of Buenos Aires, D.Chem.; Univ. of Berlin (Germany); married Martha Quaintenne, Dec. 22, 1917; Prof. of Physics and Chemistry, Normal School of Lomas, 1915-20; Prof. of Mathematics, Liceo Nacional de Señoritas, 1915-29; Prof. of Physics, 1925-34; Acting Prof. of Physics, Faculty of Agronomy and Veterinary Medicine, 1915; Chief of practical studies, Laboratory of Experimental Chemistry, Faculty of Agronomy, 1918-19; in charge of physical courses, 1918-29; Chief of Studies on Biological Chemistry, Faculty de C.E.F.N., 1921; Docent in Biological Physics, Faculty of Medical Sciences, 1921; Prof. of Physics, Faculty of Agronomy and Veterinary Medicine, 1922; Acting Prof. of Physics, F.C.E.F. y N., 1923-25; Asst. in Biological Physics, Faculty of Medical Sciences, 1925-28, 1928-31, 1931-34; Director of Chemical Inst., Natl. Dept. of Hygiene, 1934-46. Asst. Prof. of Chemical Physics, Faculty de C.E.F. y N., 1934. Founding Fellow, Argentine Chemical Soc.; Pres., Argentine Chemical Assn., 1924-26, 1936-38, 1942-44; Organising Com., 2nd Natl. Conf. on Hygiene of Milk, Buenos Aires, 1945; Hon. Member, Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Univ. of Chile, 1945; Vice-Pres., Argentine Com. (Physiological Section), etc. Corresponding Fellow, Brazilian Soc. of Chemistry and Uruguayan Assn. of Chemistry and Pharmacy. Foreign Corresponding Member: Acad. of Exact, Physical, Natural Sciences, Madrid; Chemical Assn. of Brazil; Colombian Soc. of Chemistry; Peruvian Chemical Soc. Delegate of Faculty of Agronomy and Veterinary Medicine, 1944; Natl. Dept. of Public Health, 1944; Argentine Scientific Assn., 1944; Natl. Univ. of Buenos Aires, 1944. Contributor of numerous papers on various scientific subjects published in Argentine and foreign professional journals. Author: Curso de Física Biológica (1st ed. 1931, 2nd ed. 1940, 3rd ed. 1943). Address: Pampa 3821, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

WERRENRATH, REINALD, American Operatic Baritone and Teacher; born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 7, 1883; son of George and Aretta (Camp) Werrenrath; educated at New York University, A.B. 1905, Mus.Doc., 1932; married Frances M. Aston; three children by a previous marriage. Church baritone soloist, 1899; soloist with Worcester Festival, 1907. Made more than 3500 concert appearances, singing in every state in the U. S. and most of the European music centers, since 1907. Made many appearances with every major symphony orchestra in the U. S. and several foreign ones. On tour with Geraldine Farrar, 1915-16. Debut with Metropolitan Opera Co., Feb. 19, 1919. Vocal Supervisor for NBC, 1929-32. Vocal Instructor, Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, Md. (summers), 1937-41. Maintains vocal studios in Washington, D. C., Albany, N. Y. and New York, N. Y. Conductor, Mendelssohn Club (male voices), Albany, the National Press Club Chorus, Washington, and the Glee Club of the New York Athletic Club. Editor: The New Arion, 1917; One Hundred Scandinavian Songs, 1926. Composed two male choruses, Cavaliers Song, and Siesta, and several arrangements for male voices. Residence: 131 Riverside Dr. Office: 915 Carnegie Hall, New York, N. Y.

WERRING, BIRGER TUXEN, Norwegian Company Director; born Feb. 16, 1886, Kristiansund, Norway; son of Emil and Laura (Johnsen) Werring; educated at Handelshochschule in Stuttgart, Germany; passed examination, 1906; married Anna Augusta Dall, 1911; two children. Managing Director: A/S Werring & Werring, Kristiansund, since 1927; Werring Canning Co. A/S, Kristiansund, since 1930. Director of Norges Bank; Past-Pres., Norwegian Fish Exporters Assn. Former Member, Board of Norges Handelsstand; Member of Kristiansund City Council. Consul of Netherlands in Kristiansund, since 1918. Address: Kristiansund, Norway.

WERRING, NIELS (R. H.), Norwegian Shipowner; born Aug. 4, 1897, Kristiansund, Norway; son of Edvard and Gina (Heyerdahl) Werring; educated at Oslo Handelsgymnasium, 1916; married Else Wilhelmsen, 1926; four children. Partner, firm of Wilh. Wilhelmsen, shipowners, Oslo, since 1930. Member of Bd. of Directors of Wilhelmsen Companies; Member of Bd. of Representatives of Aker Mekaniske Verksted Hünsfoss Papir-fabriker Norsk Aluminium Co. Member of Exec. Bd., Norwegian Shipowners Assn. since 1945, and of Bd. of Directors of Oslo New Shipowners Assn., since 1940. Member of Bd. of Directors: Det Norske Radium Hospital; Friend of National Gallery; Oslo Kunstindustrimuseum. Residence: Munkebakken, Lysaker, Norway. Office: Toldbodgaten 20, Oslo, Norway.

WERTH, LÉON, French Author; born 1878, Remiremont, Vosges, France; educated at Lyceum Ampère, Lyon. Author: La Maison blanche, 1912; Clavel soldat; Clavel chez les Majors; Yvonne et Pijallet; Les Amants invisibles; Dix neuf ans; Pijallet danse; Voyage avec ma pipe; Le monde et la ville; Quelques peintres; Danse, danseurs, dancings; Cochinchine; Cour d'Assises, 1945; La Peinture et la Mode; Déposition, 1947. Address: 66 rue d'Assas, Paris VI, France.

WERTHAM, Dr. FREDERIC, American Psychiatrist and Neurologist; born 1895, Germany; educated at King's College, London, Eng.; Univs. of Erlangen and Munich, Germany; Univ. of Wurzburg, M.D. 1921; post-graduate studies in London and Vienna; married Florence Hesketh. Assoc. in Psych., Johns Hopkins Hosp. and Med. School, 1922-29; Fellow of Natl. Research Council, Washington, D. C., 1931-32; Senior Psych., N. Y. Dept. of Hosps., since 1932; Asst. Prof. of Clinical Psych., N. Y. Univ., and Physician in Charge of Psych. Clinic, Court of General Sessions, N. Y. C., 1932; Senior Psych., Bellevue Hosp., since 1933; Dir. of Mental Hygiene Clinic, Bellevue Hosp., since 1936; Dir. of Mental Hygiene Clinic, Queens General Hosp., since 1939; Consultant Psych. to Triborough Hosp. Director, Dept. of Neuropsych., Horace Harding Hosp., N. Y., 1946. Fellow: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; N. Y. Acad. of Med.; Natl. Research Council. Member: Amer. Neurol. Assn.; Amer. Psych. Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Neuropathols.; Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Diseases; Assn. for Advancement of Psychotherapy (Pres. 1943, 1944, 1945, 1946). Founded Lafargue Clinic in Harlem, 1946. Author: Brain as an Organ (with Florence Wertham), 1935; Dark Legend, 1941; many papers and monographs. Address: 44 Gramercy Park, New York, N. Y.

WESCOAT, L. S., American Petroleum Executive; born 1889, Bridgeton, N. J. President, Pure Oil Co., since 1947; also Member of Executive Com. and Director. Residence: 181 Lake Shore Drive. Office: 35 E. Wacker Drive, Chicago 1, Ill.

WESCOTT, GLENWAY, American Writer; born 1901, Kewaskum, Wis.; studied at Univ. of Chicago. Lived for one year in New Mexico; then in Germany; eight years in France. Member, National Inst. of Arts and Letters. Author: The Bitterns (a book of 12 poems), 1920; The Apple of the Eye, 1924; Natives of Rock (poems, 1921-1922), 1925; The Grandmothers (a family portrait), 1927 (Harper Prize Novel); Good-bye Wisconsin, 1928; The Babe's Bed, 1930; Fear and Trembling, 1932; The Pilgrim Hawk (a love story), 1940; The Dream of Audubon (libretto of a ballet in three scenes), 1940; Apartment in Athens (Book-of-the-Month Club selection), 1945. Address: c/o Harper & Bros., 49 E. 33rd St., New York 16, N. Y.

WESLEY, Dr. ARTHUR FREDERICK, American Bishop; born Oct. 26, 1885, North Branch, Mich.; son of Frederick Newton and Elizabeth Louise (Melvin) Wesley; educated at Albion College, Mich., B.A. 1913, D.D. (hon.) 1933; Garrett Biblical Inst., 1913-14; Northern Baptist Theological Seminary, Chicago, S.T.B. 1916, Th.D. 1921; Univ. of Michigan, M.A. 1925; married Grace Margaret Shaw, Aug. 20, 1908; four children; married (2nd) Luisa Teresa Bissio, March 16, 1945; two daughters (twins). Ordained Methodist Minister, 1916. Pastor: Woodmere Methodist Church, Detroit, Mich., 1908-10; Marengo and Osseo, Mich., 1910-13. Teacher in Chicago Evangelistic Inst. and Northern Baptist Theological Seminary, 1913-18. Pastor: Willard Memorial Methodist Church, Oak Park, Ill., 1917-18; in Montevideo, Uruguay, 1919-24. Founder, Pan American Inst., Montevideo, 1919; Founder, Sweet Memorial Inst., Santiago, Chile, 1926. Prof. and Treasurer, Union Theological Seminary, Santiago, Chile, 1927-28; Boca Mission, Buenos Aires, 1929-44. Bishop for South America, 1944 —; assigned to Buenos Aires area, (Argentina, Bolivia and Uruguay). Author: The Gospel of the Holy Spirit, 1922; Sabbath Observance, 1923; White Magic, 1923. Editor, La Revista Evangelica, 1923-32. Edited and translated over 30 books from English into Spanish. Residence: Necochea, 24, Lomas de Zamora. Office: Rivadavia, 4044, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

WESLEY, Dr. CHARLES H., American University President; born Dec. 2, 1891, Louisville, Ky.; son of Charles Snowden and Matilda (Harris) Wesley; educated at Fisk Univ., B.A. 1911; Yale, 1913; Harvard, Ph.D. 1925; Wilberforce Univ., D.D. 1928; Allen Univ., LL.D. 1932; Virginia State College, LL.D., 1943; married Louise Johnson, Dec. 25, 1915; two daughters. University Scholar at Yale, 1911-13; Austin Scholar at Harvard, 1920-21; Guggenheim Fellow, London, England, 1930-31. Instructor at Howard Univ., 1913-17; Asst. Prof. of History, 1917-20; Assoc. Prof., 1920-21; Prof. and Head of Dept. of History, 1921-41; Director, Summer School in 1937; Acting Dean of The Graduate School, Howard Univ., 1937-38; Acting Dean of The College of Liberal Arts, Jan.-Oct., 1938; Dean of The Graduate School, 1938-41; Pres., Wilberforce Univ., since 1942. Pastor and Presiding Elder, A.M.E. Church, 1918-38. Army Y.M.C.A. Secy. in 1918-19. Director of Research Project, Inst. of Social and Religious Research, N. Y., 1927. Trustee of Fisk Univ. Member: Exec. Council, Assn. for the Study of Negro Life and History; National Council of the Social Studies, National Education Association, Society for the Advancement of Education, American Association of School Administrators; American Historical Association, etc. Author: Negro Labor in the U. S.: 1850-1925; A study in American Economic History (Vanguard Press), 1927; The History of Alpha Phi Alpha: A Development in Negro College Life (Howard U. Press), 1930; The History of Alpha Phi Alpha (Second Edition), revised and enlarged (The Foundation Publishers, Washington, D. C.), 1935; Richard Allen: Apostle of Freedom (Associated Publishers, Washington, D. C.), 1935; The Collapse of the Confederacy (same), 1938; The History of Alpha Phi Alpha (Third Edition, revised and enlarged), 1939, 1942; The Negro in the Americas (ed.), 1940; A Manual of Research and Thesis-Writing for Graduate Students, 1941. Address: Wilberforce University, Wilberforce, Ohio.

WESLEY-SMITH, HARRY, Argentine Publisher; born Mar. 3, 1893, Gualeguaychu, Entre Rios,; son of Henry Smith and Ana V. M. Wesley; educated at Charterhouse, England, 1906-11; B.A. in Mechanical Science, Trinity College, Cambridge Univ., 1914; married Sylvia Haynes, Dec. 12, 1928. Returned to Argentina, 1914; served as Asst. and Manager on Estancias pertaining to Estancias Wesley Smith, Ltd., until 1928. Joined firm of Empresa Editorial Haynes, Ltda., S. A., Pres., since 1929. Publisher, daily newspaper "El Mundo," the weeklies "El Hogar" and "Mundo Argentino," and monthly "Selecta." Director, Broadcasting Station L.R.I. (Radio El Mundo). Pres., Estancias Wesley Smith Ltda., since 1922. Residence: José C. Paz 710, San Isidro, F.C.C.A. Office: Calle Rio de Janeiro, 300, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

WESSELS, Hon. PIETER JURIE, South African Senator and President of the Senate; born July 25, 1878, Orange Free State; son of Hendrick Wessels and Anna (Swanepoel) Wessels; educated at Government Schools; married Susanna Liversage, 1904; six children. Began career in 1895 as a telegrapher, and in 1897 became Postmaster and Telegraphist of the South African Republic. Heliographist with General Botha's forces during the Boer War. Member of firm of Myburgh & Wessels, Convevances, which he has operated since 1903. Member of the Natal Provincial Council, 1916-27; elected Senator, 1927. Residence: Paulpietersburg, Natal, Union of South Africa.

WESSON, Major-General CHARLES MACON, American Army Officer; born July 23, 1878, St. Louis, Mo.; son of Charles Macon and Caroline Moye (Dancy) Wesson; educated at U. S. Military Acad., B.S. 1900; Ordnace School of Technology, graduated 1911; attended Army War College, 1925; Stevens Inst., Dr. Eng. 1941; married Virginia Day Rowland, Apr. 12, 1926. Cadet, U. S. Military Acad., 1896; promoted 1st Lieut. Instructor, Dept. of Philosophy, U. S. Military Acad., 1903-07; Capt., Ordnance Dept., 1907; promoted Major in Ordnance Dept., 1911; appointed Temporary Lt. Col., Ordnance Dept., 1918. Officer in charge of Construction and Maintenance of Ordnance with A.E.F., stationed at Tours, France, latter part of 1918; commanded Ordnance Repair Shops in Mehun-sur-Yevre, 1919; resigned commission, 1919. Appointed Major in Ordnance Dept., 1920; promoted Lt. Col., 1923; Col., 1933; Chief of Ordnance, U. S. Army, with rank of Major-General, 1938; retired June, 1942. Appointed Special Asst. to Lend-Lease Administrator, Sept. 1942. Director, USSR Branch, Foreign Economic Administration, 1943; transferred to inactive duty, Jan. 1, 1946. Awards: Distinguished Service Medal (two oak leaf clusters); Officer, Order of the Black Star of France; Commander of the British Empire. Residence: 2408 California St. N.W., Washington, D. C.

WEST, ARTHUR BENJAMIN, American Utilities Executive; born April 18, 1875, Rochelle, Ill.; son of Benjamin and Catherine (Rhodes) West; educated at Leland Sanford Jr. Univ., A.B. 1899; Graduate Work in Law at Denver Univ., 1900; married Grace Campbell, Feb. 12, 1905; five children. Admitted to Colorado Bar, 1901; engaged in private law practice in Denver until 1913. Member of the law firm of Potter, West & Potter, 1910-12. Vice-Pres. and Asst. to Pres. of Nevada-Calif. Power Co. and Southern Sierras Power Co., 1913-16. General Manager of Southern Sierras Power Co. and associated companies, 1923-44; Pres. of Nevada-Calif. Electric Power Corp. and subsidiaries, 1929-41; Pres. and Dir. of California Electric Power Co. and subsidiaries, 1941-46; Dir. and Member of Exec. Com. and Consultant, 1946—. Residence: 6116 Hawarden Dr. Office: 3771 Eighth St., Riverside, Calif.

WEST, Sir JAMES GREY, British Architect; born 1885, Cardiff, Wales; son of William Henry and Mary Emily (Grey) West; educated at Cardiff High School and privately; married (1st) Margaret Wathen, 1911; (2nd) Ivy Farrant Good, 1934; three children. Entered H.M.'s Office of Works as Architectural Assistant, 1904; appointed Chief Architect, 1934 (H.M.'s Office of Works merged with the Ministry of Works, 1940); appointed Director, Postwar Building, and Chief Architect of Ministry of Works, 1941. Chief Architectural Adviser since 1944. One of four members of British Building Mission to U. S. A., 1943. Fellow, Royal Institute of British Architects. Created Knight Bachelor, 1936. Residence: Fairwater, Orchard Gate, Esher, Surrey, England.

WEST, Dr. JOHN BERNARD, American Oral Surgeon; born in Keeneyville, Pa., Aug. 30, 1881; son of John E. and Olive I. (Croft) West; educated at Keuka Institute, 1900; Univ. of Buffalo, D.D.S. 1904; Northwestern Univ. Dental School (grad. study), 1913; Univ. of Buffalo Med. School, 1925; D.Sc. Keuka College, 1941; married Verna E. Wood, Sept. 3, 1902; two children—J. Richard West, A.B., M.D. and Mrs. Harrison K. Tubbs Voorhees, A.B. Began practice as a dentist, Buffalo, 1904. Went to Groton in 1905; in Elmira since 1911. Instructor at Univ. of Buffalo Dental School, 1905; Clinical Instructor, 1912-14. Examiner in physiology to N. Y. State Board of Dental Examiners, 1914-26. Chairman of Chemung County Preparedness League of American Dentists; member, Med. Advisory Board, No. 46, World War I. Trustee, Keuka College (Chairman of Executive Com., 1936-46); Trustee, First Baptist Church, Elmira, N. Y. Fellow, Amer. College of Dentists. Member: Amer. Dental Assn.; N. Y. State Dental Assn. (Executive Committee, 1912-16); Amer. Acad. of Periodontology; Sixth District Dental Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Acad. of Political and Social Science., etc. Fellow, Amer. Geographical Soc. Author: Oral Prophylaxis-Dental Cosmos, 1908; Treatment of Pyorrhea Aveolaris in Practical Oral Hygiene, Prophylaxis and Pyorrhea Aveolaris by Robin Adair, D.D.S., M.D., 1915; Health Service Through Better Cooperation of the Medical and Dental Professions, 1936, etc. Residence: 823 W. First St. Office: 306 W. Church St., Elmira, N. Y.

WEST, Dr. JOHN CHESTER, American University President; born Dec. 25, 1885, Clearwater, Minn.; son of William Preston and Martha Jane (Moore) West; educated at State Teachers College, St. Cloud, Minn., 1903-07; Univ. of North Dakota, M.S. 1926, Ed.D. 1930; Wesley College, LL.D. 1944; married Edith Jane Enke, July 8, 1908; two children. Teacher, Rural Schools, 1904-07; Supt. of Village Schools, Minnesota and North Dakota, 1907-18; Superintendent, City Schools, Sauk Centre, Minn., 1919-20; Bemidji, Minn., 1920-29; Superintendent, City Schools, Grand Forks, N. D., 1929-33. President, University of North Dakota, since 1933. Acting President, State Agricultural College, Fargo, N. D., 1937-38; Consulting Engineer, Northern Appraisal Co., 1928-33. Taught at summer schools, Moorhead and Bemidji, State 1918-20; Bemidji, Minn., 1920-29; Superin-Teachers College, 1912-16, 1920-25; Prof. of Education, University of North Dakota, summers, 1928-33. President, Minnesota Superintendents Association, 1925; Vice-President, Minnesota Education Association, 1926; President, North Dakota Superintendents Association, 1932; Lieutenant Governor, Kiwanis Club, 1927. President, National Association of State Universities, 1944; State Chairman of Education Division, War Bond Drive, 1943-44; Chairman of Education, State Planning Board (North Dakota), 1943-44. Author: A Handbook for Boards of Education (with others), 1931. Address: University Campus, Grand Forks, N. D.

WEST, Dr. OLIN, American Physician; born July 12, 1874, Gadsden, Ala.; son of Rev. Dr. Anson and Sarah Bryant (Kittrell) West; educated at Howard College; Vanderbilt Univ., Ph.C., M.D. 1898; married Susie P. Hunter, July 25, 1906; two sons. Instructor, then Assoc. Prof., Vanderbilt Med. Dept., 1895-1910; Dir., Rockefeller Sanitary Commn., and Internatl. Health Bd. in Tenn., 1910-18; Exec. Secy., Tenn. State Bd. of Health, 1918-22. Field Secy., Amer. Med. Assn., 1922; Secy. and General Manager, 1924-46; Pres., 1947. Residence: 6700 Crandon Ave. Office: 535 N. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

WEST, OSWALD, American Lawyer, Ex-Governor; born May 20, 1873, Guelph, Ont., Canada; son of John G. and Sarah (McGregor) West; educated at public schools, Salem and Portland, Ore.; married Mabel Hutton, Sept. 1897; two children. Began career as a cow hand; bank clerk, 1889-1903; State Land Agent, 1903-07; State Railroad Commissioner, 1907-10; Governor of Oregon, 1911-15. In private practice of law since 1915. Residence: 636 N. W. 20th Ave., Portland, Ore.

WEST, REBECCA, British Author; born Dec. 21, 1892, London, England; daughter of Charles Fairfield and Isabella Mackenzie; educated at George Watson's Ladies College, Edinburgh; married Henry Maxwell Andrews, Nov. 1, 1930. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Literature. Member, Library Com., Bucks. County Council. Director, Time and Tide. Author: Henry James, 1916; The Return of the Soldier, 1918; The Judge, 1922; The Strange Necessity, 1928; Lions and Lambs (with Low; used pseudony Lynx), 1928; Harriet Hume, 1929; D. H. Lawrence, an Elegy, 1930; Ending in Earnest, 1931; St. Augustine, 1933; The Rake's Progress (with Low), 1934; The Harsh Voice, 1935; The Thinking Reed, 1936; Black Lamb and Grey Falcon, 1942; The Meaning of Treason, 1947. Address: Ibstone House, Ibstone, near High Wycombe, Bucks., England.

WEST, ROSCOE LAMBERT, American College President; born Feb. 20, 1892, Wilton, Maine; son of Melvin J. and Sara C. (Hamm) West; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1914; Harvard Graduate School of Education, Ed.M. 1923; married Edith F. Richardson, Sept. 2, 1915; four children. Supt. of Schools: Farmington and Wilton, Maine, 1914-16; Rockland and Rockport, Maine, 1916-19; Needham, Mass., 1919-21. Director of Elementary Education, City of Trenton, N. J., 1921-26; Asst. Commissioner of Education in charge of Elementary Schools, State of New Jersey, 1926-28; Director of Teacher Education, State of New Jersey, 1928-30; Pres., New Jersey State Teachers College, since 1930. Ex-Pres., N. J. Council of Education. Author: International Civics (with Pitman B. Potter), 1927; Geography of New Jersey (with Ella Huntting), 1929; Real Life Arithmetic (with others) 1938, etc. Address: New Jersey State Teachers College, Trenton 5, N. J.

WEST, ROY OWEN, American Lawyer; born 1868, Georgetown, Ill.; son of Pleasant and Helen Anna (Yapp) West; educated at DePauw University. A.B. 1890, LL.B. 1890, A.M. 1891, LL.D. 1939; married (1st) Louisa Augustus, June 11, 1898 (died 1901); (2nd) Louise McWilliams, June 8, 1904 (died 1942); two children. Attorney for City of Chicago, 1895-97; Member, Board of Reviews of Assessments, Cook County, Ill., 1898-1914; Partner, law firm of West and Eckhart, 1902-43. Secretary of the U. S. Dept. of Interior, 1928-29. Served as Member and Secretary. Republican National Committee; Chairman, Illinois State Republican Committee, 1904-14. Member, firm of West, Leaton, and West. Residence: 5633 S. Woodlawn Ave. Office: 38 S. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

WEST-WATSON, Most Rev. CAMPBELL WEST, Archbishop and Primate of New Zealand; born Apr. 23, 1877, Birkenhead, England; son of Adam West and Caroline (Campbell) West-Watson; educated at Birkenhead School; Emmanuel College, Cambridge; Ridley Theological College, Cambridge, B.A. 1899, M.A. 1903, Hon. D.D. 1910; married Emily Mabel Monsarrat, Aug. 24, 1905 (dec.). Ordained Deacon, Church of England, 1902; Priest, 1903; consecrated Suffragan Bishop of Barrow-in-Furness, 1909; Lecturer and Bursar, Ridley Hall, Cambridge, 1902-03; Fellow and Theological Lecturer, Emmanuel College, Cambridge, 1903-09; Chaplain, 1903-07; Dean, 1907-09; Bishop, Barrow-in-Furness (Carlisle Diocese), 1909-26; Residentiary Canon of Carlisle, 1909-21; Rector of Aldingham, 1921-26; Chaplain and Sub-Prelate of Honourable Order of St. John, 1938. Bishop of Christchurch, New Zealand since 1926; Archbishop and Primate of New Zealand since 1940. Author: Commentary for Schools on Acts of the Apostles, 1908. Address: Church House, 173 Cashel St., Christchurch, New Zealand.

WESTBROOK, TREVOR CRESSWELL LAWRENCE, British Consulting Engineer; born Jan. 14, 1901, Clapham Common, London; son of Ernest and Amy Lawrence (Davis) Westbrook; educated at Epsom College; married Sheilah Gillam, Jan. 9, 1942; one child. Apprentice with Vickers Aviation, 1916; in charge of Production Control of Vickers Aviation, 1923; Joint Asst. Works Manager, 1926-28. Made preparations for first flights to Australia and the Cape; Works Manager, Vickers Supermarine Aviation Co., 1929-31; General Manager, 1931-36. General Manager, Aviation Section and Works at Vickers, Armstrongs, Weybridge, Chester and Blackpool, 1936-40. Technical Adviser to Minister of Aviation Production in charge of Repairs and Aircraft Production, and later responsible for Purchases of Aircraft in U.S.A. and Canada, and English Aircraft Production Programme, 1941. Mechanical Adviser to Intendant General, Egypt, 1941-42. Production Adviser to Minister of Supply; accompanied Prime Minister Churchill on first mission to U.S.A., 1941-42. Production Controller, de Havillands in charge of Ace Mosquito and other aircraft production, 1942-45. Production Adviser to de Havillands, Canada, 1945-46. Engineering Consultant, 1946. Member: Inst. of Production Engineers; London Assn. of Engineers; Inst. of Metals. Fellow, Assoc. Royal Aeronautical Soc. Residence: 20 Chesham Pl. Office: 177 Regent St., London, W. 1, England.

WESTCOTT, Rt. Rev. FOSS, Bishop of Calcutta and Metropolitan of India, Burma and Ceylon; born in Harrow, England, Oct. 23, 1863; son of Brooke Foss and Sarah Mary (Whithard) Westcott; educated at Cheltenham College; Peterhouse, Cambridge, B.A. 1885, M.A. 1887, D.D. 1920; Oxford, D.D. 1930. Curate of St. Peter's, Bishopwearmouth, 1886; went to Cawnpore, U.P., India, as S.P.G. Missionary, 1889; Bishop in Chota Nagpur, 1905-19; Bishop of Calcutta and Metropolitan of India, Burma and Ceylon, 1919-45; resigned Bishopric, Sept. 1, 1945. Address: c/o Bishop's House, 51 Chowringhee, Calcutta, Bengal, India.

WESTERBERG, GÖSTA, Swedish Chief Engineer; born Göteborg, Sweden; son of Erik and Ketty (Landgren) Westerberg; educated at Technological Univ., 1909; married Ragnhild Magnuson, Oct. 15, 1912; one daughter. Engineer with Vattenbyggnadsbyrån, Stockholm, 1909; with Powerstation, Trollhättan, 1909. Supt.: Power Development Lilla Edet, 1919-26; Yargön Power Station, 1926-36; Stadsforsen Power Station, 1936-39. Chief Engineer, Royal Board of Waterfalls, since 1939. Member of Directorate, Inst. for Research in Building Science, 1944. Board Member, Geotechnical Inst., 1944; Chairman, Swedish Natl. Com. of Grandes Barrages, 1940; Vice-Pres., Executive Com., Grandes Barrages, 1946. Member: Swedish Assn. of Technologists; Amer. Concrete Inst. Created Knight, North Star Order; Commander, Wasa Order 2nd class. Residence: Grönviksvägen 63, Höglandstorget, Sweden. Office: Vattenfallsstyrelsen, Karduansmakaregatan, Stockholm, Sweden.

WESTERBERG, PER OLOF, Swedish Tobacco Monopoly Director; born Sept. 17, 1885, Gothenburg, Sweden; son of Johan August and Jemima Marshall (Anderson) Westerberg; educated at schools in Gothenburg; commercial studies abroad; married Kerstin Ahlund, Apr. 12, 1912; three children. Clerk with Sten Mark & Co., Gothenburg, 1907; Partner, Gust. F. Bratt & Co., 1909-29. Managing Director, Svenska Oljeslageriaktiebolaget (Swedish Oil Mills, Ltd.), 1929-39; Managing Director, Swedish Tobacco Monopoly, since 1939. Managing Director of Linoljeslagerienas Foersaeljningsaktiebolag, 1930-1939; Vice-Chmn., Gothenburg Chamber of Commerce, 1937-39; Chmn., Bourse Soc. of Gothenburg, 1937-39. Chmn., Advisory Com. to Directors of Swedish Tobacco Monopoly, 1939—. Director, Trafikaktiebolaget Graengesberg-Oxelosund, since 1941; Deputy Director, Luossavaara-Kirunavaara A/B, since 1941; Director, Skandinaviska Banken A/B, since 1941; Director, Hellefors Bruks A/B, since 1944. Residence: 91 Karlavaegen. Office: A/B Svenska Tobaksmonopolet, Stockholm, Sweden.

WESTERBERG, STEN AXELSSON, Swedish Engineer; born Aug. 2, 1884, Upsala, Sweden; son of Axel and Malla (Pettersson) Westerberg; educated at Royal Technical Univ., Stockholm, 1907; married Britta Bernhardt, 1908. Manager, Jästfabriken Svea, 1907; Nässjö Jästfabrik, 1910; Jästfabriken Activ, 1911; Managing Director of AB. Elektrosalpeter, 1916; Svenska Jästfabriks AB since 1918. Pres.: AB Svenska Metallverken; Sveriges Kemiska Industrikontor. Vice-Pres., AB Svenska Handelsbanken. Member of Boards: Svenska Cellulosa A.B.; AB Saltsjöqvarn; AB Nordiska Kompaniet; AB Östrands Sulfatfabrik; AB Fannyudde; AB Bästa Fören. för Svensk Kulturhistoria; Bellmanssällskapet. Member, State Industrial Research Board; Board Member, Royal Technical Univ., Stockholm. Member, Ingeniörsvetenskapsakademien; Pres., Svenska Teknologföreningen, 1937-40. Awards: KNO 2 kl., KVO 1 kl., KFinl LO 1 kl., KDDO 2 gr., K Finl VRO, KÖHT. Residence: Beatelund, Ingarö, Sweden. Office: Kammakargatan 62, Stockholm, Sweden.

WESTERBORN, Dr. ANDERS, Swedish Chief Surgeon; born Sept. 5, 1888, Bollnäs, Sweden; son of Olof Persson and Kristina (Andersson) Westerborn; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, 1911-20; married Ella Mårtensson, July 10, 1922; three children. Asst. Surgeon, Sabbatsbergs Hospital, Stockholm, 1919-23; Asst. Surgeon, Surgical Clinic, Univ. of Uppsala, 1923-28; Asst. Prof. of Surgery, Univ. of Uppsala, 1928-31. Chief Surgeon: Hospital of Varberg, 1931-39; Sahlgrens Hospital, Gothenburg, since 1939 (Director of Surgical Clinic II, since 1939). Member: Swedish Assn. of Surgeons; Nordic Assn. of Surgeons; Internatl. Assn. of Surgeons. Awarded North Star Order, Finska Frihetskorset, Finska lejonorden (Commander). Author: Die Entstehung von Miliartuberkulose nach Systoskopierung und Sondierung, 1926; Ein Beitrag zur Röntgendiagnose abgekaselter, intraperitonealer Eiteransammlungen, 1927; Beiträge zur Kenntnis der Beckenbrüche, 1928; On the Importance of Radiografic Examination in Acute Cases of Circumscribed or Diffuse Peritonitis, 1931; Trendelenburgs Operation for Pulmonary Embolism, 1931; Zwei mit Erfolg opertierte Fälle von wiederholten Arterieembolien, 1932; Die prolongierte Evipannarkose, 1934; Ueber die Emboliegefahr bei injektionsbehandlung von Varizen, 1937; Embolie in Art. renalis mit Bericht über einen operierten Fall, 1937; Om etoleinets och varicocidens allergiska reaktioner, 1941; Ueber Indikationsstellung, Technik und Resultate der Prostatektomi, 1941; Einige Erfahrungen ueber Zehnjährigen Anwendung der Evipannarkose, 1944; Nailing in the Marrow Cavity in Cases of Recent Fractures and Pseudarthrosis, 1944, etc. Residence: Södra Vägen 2. Office: Sahlgrenska Hospital, Gothenburg, Sweden.

WESTERDAHL, NILS (AUGUST EDVARD), Swedish Company Director; born May 1, 1885, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Hans Julius and Emma (Lindström) Westerdahl. Managing Director: A/B Öhmanska Bageriet (bread factory), 1907-41; A/B Julius Westerdahl (trust company), Stockholm. Chmn. of Bd. of Directors: A/B Stille-Werner, Stockholm; Näringslivets Granskningsnämnd, Stockholm. Deputy Chmn. of Bd. of Directors, A/B Goteborgs Bank, Göteborg; Member of Bd. of Directors, A/B Kema, Stockholm; Stockholms Stads Brandförsäkringskontor; Svenska Bensin & Petroleum A/B; Reinholds Nya Angbageri & Konditori, A/B; A/B Stockholms Bryggerier; Barnängens Tekniska Fabrikers, A/B; A/B Fabriken Tomten; Stockholms Superfosat A/B; Nämden mot mutor & bestickning. Member, Church Council: Kungl. Lantbruksakademien of Stockholm; Chamber of Commerce, Stockholm. Address: Bondegatan 21 A, Stockholm, Sweden.

WESTERDIJK, Prof. JOHANNA, Dutch Phytopathologist; born Jan. 4, Nieuwer Amstel, The Netherlands; daughter of Dr. B. and Aleida (Scheffer) Westerdijk; educated at Univs. of Amsterdam, Munich and Zurich, Ph.D. 1906. Director, Phytopathological Laboratory "Willie Commelin Scholten", Amsterdam; laboratory was moved to Baarn, 1920; Prof. of Phytopathology, Univ. of Utrecht, since 1911; at Univ. of Amsterdam since 1930. Laboratory is also in charge of Central-Bureau voor Schimmelcultures (originally founded by Internatl. Assn. of Botanists, 1906; Dutch Foundation supported by State of Netherlands, since 1930; supported by national and internatl. scientific and industrial organiaztions and by UNESCO). Member: All Netherlands Botanical Societies; French, Swiss, English, American and German botanic and mycological societies. Foreign Member: Linnean Soc.; German Botanical Soc. Awarded Netherlands Lion Order; Portuguese Order of Science. Author: Mededelingen Laboratorium Willy Commelin Scholten; Angewandte Botanik, etc. Address: 4 Javalaan, Baarn, The Netherlands.

WESTERFIELD, Dr. RAY BERT, American Economist; born Feb. 6, 1884, Bradner, Ohio; son of John Harmon and Ella Melinda (Bierly) Westerfield; educated at Ohio Northern Univ., B.A. 1907, Sc.D. 1935; Yale Univ., M.A. 1911, Ph.D. 1913; married Mary Beatrice Putney, June 17, 1924; two children. Instructor of Political Economy, Yale Univ., 1916-22; Asst. Prof. and Prof. since 1922. Westinghouse Prof. in Italian Univs. (Rome, Milan, Turin, Naples, etc.), 1927-28. Member: Amer. Economic Assn. (Secy.-Treas. 1920-24, Editorial Board, 1927-30, Executive Com., 1938-41); Amer. Statistical Assn.; Amer. Marketing Assn.; Natl. Bureau of Economic Research, Financial Division; Natl. Assn. of Manufacturers; Economic Principles Commn.; Foundation for Economic Education. Chairman, Federal Section, Com. of U. S. Savings Loan League. Author: Middlemen in English Business, 1915; Early History of American Auctions, 1921; Banking Principles and Practice (5 vols.), 1921; Incidence of Federal Corporation Income Tax (2 vols.), 1928-29; Money and Banking, 1932; Problems of Money, Credit and Banking, 1928; Money and Banking (in Financial Banking), 1933; Our Silver Debacle, 1936; Money, Credit and Banking, 1938; Bibliography of Money, Credit and Banking, 1940; Branch Banking, 1941. Address: Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

WESTERGAARD, Dr. HARALD MALCOLM, American Engineer; born Oct. 9, 1888, Copenhagen, Denmark; naturalized U. S. citizen, 1920; son of Harald and Thora (Koch) Westergaard; educated at Royal Technical Coll., Copenhagen, B.S. in Civil Eng., 1911; Univ. of Göttingen, Germany, 1913; Technische Hochschule, Munich, Germany, 1914; Univ. of Illinois, Ph.D. 1916; Munich, Dr.Ing. 1925; Copenhagen, hon. Dr.Tech., 1929; Lehigh Univ., hon. Sc.D., 1930; Harvard Univ., hon. M.A. 1942; married Rachel Talbot, Sept. 15, 1925; two children. Civil Engineer, 1911. Held various positions, mainly in design of reinforced concrete, in Copenhagen, Hamburg and London, 1911-14. Instr. in Theoretical and Applied Mechs., Univ. of Illinois, 1916-19; Assoc., 1919-21; Asst. Prof., 1921-24; Assoc. Prof., 1924-27; Prof., 1927-36. Gordon McKay Prof. of Civil Engineering, Harvard Univ. since 1936; Dean of Graduate School of Engineering, 1937-46. Engaged in design studies for Boulder Dam as Sr. Mathematician, U. S. Bureau of Reclamation; Consulting Engineer, 1930-32. Consulting Structural Engnr. to Bureau of Yards and Docks, Navy Dept., 1935-37; Consultant, Panama Canal, 1946-47. Fellow: Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Member: Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Amer. Soc. of Civil Engnrs.; Amer. Soc. of Mech. Engnrs., etc. Awarded: Wason Medal by Amer. Concrete Inst., 1922; Cross Medal, Amer. Soc. of Civil Engnrs., 1934. Lieut.-Commander, U. S. N., 1936-39; Commander, 1939; Capt., 1946, C.E.C., U.S.N.R. Address: Harvard Univ., Pierce Hall, Cambridge 38, Mass.

WESTERGAARD, Dr. WALDEMAR CHRISTIAN, American Historian; born Feb. 4, 1882, Buffalo, N. D.; son of Jacob and Kirstine (Andersen) Westergaard; educated at Univ. of North Dakota, A.B. 1906; Univ. of California, M.L. 1910, Ph.D. 1915; Cornell Univ., A. D. White Fellow in Amer. History, 1911-12; also in Copenhagen, Denmark; married twice. Head of History Dept., Santa Barbara High School and Junior College, 1914-16; of Pomona College, 1916-25; Prof. of History, Univ. of California, since 1925; Chairman of Dept., 1937-39. Participated in Fifth Internatl. Historical Congress at Brussels, 1923; Sixth Congress at Oslo, 1938; Eighth Congress at Zurich, 1938; Northern Historical Congress at Gothenburg, 1923; Stockholm in 1935, etc. Cultural Attaché, U. S. Legation in Copenhagen, and Head of U. S. Information Service, 1945-46. Member: Amer. Historical Assn. (Pres., Pacific Coast Branch, 1941); Economic History Soc. of London. Fellow: Royal Historical Soc. Member: Historical Socs. of Sweden, Denmark and Norway; Hanseatic Historical Soc.; Medieval Acad. of America, etc. Hon. Corresponding Member: Institut Historique et Héraldique de France; Conference of Historical Socs. in U. S. and Canada. Author: The Danish West Indies, 1917; Denmark and the Schleswig Question, 1848-1864 (1946); The First Triple Alliance, 1668-72, etc. Address: 405 Hilgard Ave., Los Angeles 24, Calif.

WESTERGREN, Dr. ALF V. A., Swedish Physician; born Dec. 17, 1891, Stockholm; son of A. A. and Elsa (Stalhammar) Westergren; educated at Nya Elementarskolan; Karolinska Inst., Stockholm, M.D. 1924; married Gerd Hansson, Jan. 28, 1919; four children. Asst. Physician, Soderby Hosp., 1919. Asst. Physician at various Stockholm Hosps. including the Serafimer Hosp., 1920-29. Chief Physician, Medical Policlinic, Serafimer Hosp., 1929-31; Chief, Medical Dept., St. Erik's Hosp., 1932-34. Chief Physician, Tuberculosis and Internal Medicine Depts. of St. Gorans Hosp., Stockholm, since 1934. Asst. Prof., Karolinska Inst., since 1926; Medical Adviser to Royal Insurance Council since 1931; to Royal Swedish Board of Medicine since 1939. Pres., Stockholm Students' Union, 1916-17; Pres., Swedish Soc. of Internal Medicine, 1938-39; Pres., Twelfth Scandinavian Congress of Phthisiology, 1941. 1941. Author of some 100 books and articles on various phases of internal medicine and tuberculosis (on sedimentation reaction and other blood investigations, on focal infections, on multiple infections and complex etiology, especially in tuberculosis and rheumatism, on treatment of pleurisy, etc.). Surgeon Commander, Royal Swedish Navy. Address: St. Görans Sjukhus, Stockholm, Sweden.

WESTERMAN HOLSTIJN, Dr. ANTONIE JOHAN, Dutch Psychotherapist; born Nov. 7, 1891, Purmerend, Netherlands; son of Jan and J. (van der Poest Clement) Westerman Holstijn; educated at Leyden; Univ. of Würzburg, M.D. (Leyden), 1929; married C. H. Vissering, Oct. 13, 1924; two children. Asst. Physician in Psychiatry, Leyden, 1919; Psychotherapist in Amsterdam since 1921; University Lecturer in Psychoanalysis, Amsterdam, since 1936. Secy.-General, Nederl. Vereeniging v. Psychiatrie en Neurologie; Pres., Nederl. Vereeniging v. Psychopathologie en psychiatrische Psychoanalyse. Hon. Member, Société de Médecine Mentale de Belgique; Société royale de Médecine de Gand. Author: Grondbegrip der Psychoanalyse, 1936; Leven en Dood, 1939; Medische Psychologie, 1940; Psychologische Entwicklung Vincent van Goghs, 1923. Residence: Albrecht Dürerstraat 10. Office: P.C. Hoofstraat 143, Amsterdam, Holland.

WESTERMANN, Prof. WILLIAM LINN, American Historian. Prof. of Ancient History, Columbia Univ. Member of Amer. Philosophical Soc. Publications: The Story of the Ancient Nations (a textbook for high schools), 1912; Greek Papyri in the Library of Cornell Univ. (edited with translations and notes; with Casper J. Kraemer, Jr.), 1926; Upon Slavery in the Ptolemaic Egypt (Editor), 1929; Tax Lists and Transportation Receipts from Theadelphia (edited with introduction and notes; with Clinton Walker Keyes), 1932; Zenon Papyri (business papers of the Third Century B.C. dealing with Palestine and Egypt; edited wtih introduction and notes; with Elizabeth Sayre Hasenoehrl), two vols., 1934-40, etc. Residence: 23 Donellan Road, Scarsdale, N. Y. Office: Columbia University, 116th St. and Broadway, New York, N. Y.

WESTERMARK, Dr. (JOHAN) HERBERT, Swedish Naval Surgeon; born Aug. 30, 1891, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Prof. Frans and Maggie (Chattingius) Westermark; educated at Medical Schools of Karoline Medico-Chirurgical Inst., Stockholm, and Univ. of Uppsala, cand. med. 1913, lic. med. 1918, M.D. 1926; married Elly Carlström, May 20, 1920; four sons. Asst. Surgeon, Gynecological Clinic, Stockholm, 1917; Hospital, Wexiö and Obstetrical Clinic, Stockholm, 1917; Hospital of Karlskrona, 1919-21; Obstetrical Clinic, Stockholm, 1921-23; Gynecological Clinic, Stockholm, 1923-25; Specialist in Gynecology and Obstetrics, practicing in Stockholm privately, 1925-37; joined Royal Swedish Navy, 1915; Lieut., 1918; Commander, 1920; Captain, 1936; Commodore (Marinöverläkare) and Chief of Naval Medical Service since 1937. Trustee, Svenska Läkaresällskapet, since 1930; Allm. Änke- och Pupillkassan i Sverige, since 1943; Medical Officer, L. M. Ericsson Manufactories, Stockholm, 1930-44. Created Knight Commander, Vasa Order 2nd class; Knight, North Star Order; received GV:sol M, SvRKSM. Author: On the Weight of the Human Placenta Relative to That of the Foetus Under Various Circumstances (academic dissertation), 1925; papers concerning naval and military medicine, gynecology and obstetrics. Residence: Lunnégatan 7. Office: Marinledningen, Stockholm 80, Sweden.

WESTGREN, Dr. ARNE FREDRIK, Swedish Chemist; born July 11, 1889, Arjaeng, Sweden; son of Anders and Selma (Hammar) Westgren; educated at Univ. of Upsala, Ph.D. 1915; Göttingen, Germany, 1915-16; married Elsa Nilsson, 1915; three children. Lecturer in Physical Chemistry, University of Upsala, 1917-19; Metallographist, SKF Ball Bearing Co., Goeteborg, 1918-20; Research Fellow, Metallographic Institute, Stockholm, 1920-27; Professor of General and Inorganic Chemistry, University of Stockholm, 1927-43; Secretary, Nobel Committees for Physics and Chemistry, 1926-43. Secretary, Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences in Stockholm, since 1943. Member, Nobel Committee for Chemistry, since 1942; Chairman of Committee since 1944. Member, Nobel Foundation, Stockholm, since 1943. Member: Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences; Royal Physiographic Society of Lund; Royal Society of Sciences of Upsala, etc. Hon. Dr. Ing. degree in Darmstadt, 1936; Hon. Ph.D., Tartu, Estonia, 1939. Residence: K. Vetenskapsakademien, Stockholm 50, Sweden.

WESTIN, Dr. PER GUNNAR, Swedish Church Historian; born Nov. 20, 1890, Torp, Medelpad, Sweden; son of Gullick and Anna (Thalén) Westin; educated at Uppsala Univ., can.phil. 1918, cand.theol., 1921, doctorate in theology, 1929; married Esther Nordenström, May 14, 1921; three children. Teacher, Bethel Seminary, 1919; appointed Docent, Uppsala University, 1930; Regius Professor of Church History since 1937. Chairman of Church History Society of Sweden. Editor, Kyrkohistorisk Arsskrift since 1937. Author: George Scott och hans verksamhet i Sverige (I), (II) Handlingar tal och Brev; Religionens statsrättsliga ställning i Amerikas Förenta Stater; Protestantismens historia i Amerikas Förenta Stater; Negotiations About Church Unity, 1628-1634; Svenska Kyrkan och de protestantiska enhetssträvandena under 1630-talet; Lutheraner, Anglikaner, Reformerta; John Wyclif och hans reformidéer; The Protestant Church in Germany and Sweden; Kampen om religionsfuheben; Trossamfund i Sverige, etc. Residence: Dragarbrunnsgatan 75. Office: Uppsala, Sweden.

WESTMAN, Dr. KNUT BERNHARD, Swedish Professor of Missions and Far Eastern Religions; born Mar. 10, 1881, Harnosand, Sweden; son of J. Karl and Karin (Sparre) Westman; matriculated at Harnosand, 1899; Univ. of Uppsala, cand. phil. 1902, cand. theol. 1905, lic. theol. 1910, Th.D. 1915; married Ingeborg Borgstedt, June 3, 1911; four children. Ordained Minister, Church of Sweden (Lutheran), 1927. Asst. Prof. of Church History, Univ. of Uppsala, 1911; Secy., Swedish Branch, World Alliance for Internatl. Friendship Through the Churches, 1918-22; sent to China and India as Special Representative, Church of Sweden Mission, 1920-21; Missionary, Church of Sweden Mission in China, 1923-30. Pres., Lutheran College, Tachwalun, Yiyang, Hunan, China, 1923-29; Vice-Pres. 1929-30. Olaus Petri Lecturer, Uppsala Univ., 1927; Prof. of Missions and Far Eastern Religions, Uppsala Univ., since 1930. Pres., Student Christian Movement of Sweden, 1921-23; Member, Ad Interim Com., Internatl. Missionary Council, since 1932; Vice-Pres. of Council since 1938; Member of Church of Sweden Mission Home Board since 1937. Chairman, Swedish Missionary Council, since 1934. Editor, Svensk Missionstidskrift (Swedish Review of Missions), since 1933. Author: Birgittastudier (Vol. 1), 1911; Den svenska kyrkans utveckling fran S:t Bernhards tidevarv till Innocentius III's, 1915; Reformationens genombrottsar i Sverige, 1918; Den kinesiska odlingens huvudepoker, 1929, etc. Address: Ovre Slottsgatan 10, Uppsala, Sweden, WESTMAN - OSTROGORSKY, CLARA INGEGERD, Swedish Educator; born March 26, 1903, Stockholm, Sweden; daughter of Hjalmar and Gertrud (Sandquist-Dahlström) Westman; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, phil.Cand. 1925, phil. mag. 1927; Univ. of Cambridge, 1924; Heidelberg, 1926; Jena, 1930; Paris, 1922, 1923, 1939, 1946; married Dr. Constantin Ostrogorsky, July 3, 1937. Teacher: Nya Elementarskolan för Flickor, Stockholm, 1926; Norra Latinläroverket, Stockholm, 1935-37; Bromma Läroverk, Stockholm, since 1937. Educational Broadcaster (in French language), since 1946; French Expert, Commn. on Reorganization of Public Instruction, 1941-43. Member, Internatl. Com., Swedish Assn. of Internatl. Federation of University Women, 1932-40. Vice-Pres., Assn. of Modern Language Teachers, Stockholm, since 1944. Author: Version och Tema, 1942; Prosateurs Français Modernes (with M. Bouvier), 1945; Franska i Radio, 1946. Residence: 3 Pontoniergatan, Stockholm. Office: Bromma Läroverk, Stockholm, Sweden.

WESTMORE, REGINALD DINES, Australian Chamber of Commerce Secretary; born Mar. 15, 1885, Wawick, Queensland; son of James William Clarke and Margaret Green (Dines) Westmore; educated at State Government Schools; married Vera Iva Tapfield, Oct. 7, 1907 (deceased); five children. Settlers' Representative of Advisory Com. for Water Conservation and Irrigation Commn., 1924; Secy., Tariff Section, Sydney Chamber of Commerce, Inc., 1930-36. Secy., Sydney Chamber of Commerce, since 1936; Joint Secy., Federal Clothing & Textile Advisory Council, since 1943; Joint Secy., Machine Tool Merchants' Federal Council; Hon. Secy. of N.S.W. Bag and Sack Merchants' Assn., and Standing Advisory Com. on Wheat. Author: Australian Customs Tariff, 1933; and of numerous pamphlets dealing with necessity of moderation in tariffs. Served with Australian Imperial Force, 1915-19. Residence: 112 Frederick St., Ashfield. Office: 36 Grosvenor St., Sydney, N.S.W., Aust.

WESTON, EDWARD FARADAY, American Manufacturer; born Oct. 24, 1878, Newark, N. J.; son of Edward and Wilhelmina (Seidel) Weston; educated at Columbia University, School of Engineering; married Edith R. Parker, May 9, 1906; two children. With Weston Electrical Instrument Co. since June, 1900. After gaining experience in all departments, he successively advanced to Secretary, Second Vice-President, Vice-President; elected President, 1925; Chairman of Board, 1944. Director of Fidelity Union Trust Co., Newark, N. J.; Vice-President and Director of Newark District Telegraph Co.; Director, Motor Finance Corp., Newark, N. J.; Regional Director of American Mutual Liability Ins. Co. and Boston Mfrs. Mutual Fire Ins. Co. Pres. of Governors Board, Newark College of Engineering. Director of New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce; Mt. Pleasant Cemetery Assn. Residence: 40 Wayside Pl., Montclair, N. J. Office: 614 Frelinghuysen Ave., Newark, N. J.

WESTON, HAROLD, American Painter; born Feb. 14, 1894, Merion, Pa.; son of S. Burns and Mary (Hartshorne) Weston; educated at Harvard Univ., B.A. (magna cum laude), 1916; married Faith Borton, May 12, 1923; three chidlren. First exhibition Babhdad, Iraq, 1918; first one-man show, New York, 1922; one-man exhibitions one or more times, 1926-40, Paris, France: New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Chicago, San Francisco and many other cities. Executed 22 murals for Procurement Division Building, Washington, D. C., 1936-38. Paintings in: London War Museum; Memorial Art Gallery, Rochester, N. Y.; Pennsylvania Acad. of Fine Arts; Yale Museum of Fine Arts; Columbia Univ. Library; Phillips Memorial Gallery, Washington, D. C.; Edward Root Collection, Clinton, N. Y.; San Francisco Museum of Art; Fogg Art Museum, Cambridge, Mass.; etc. Received third prize in American painting, Golden Gate Exposition, San Francisco, 1939. Organized and directed Reconstruction Service Com., 1942-43; organized and executive director of Food for Freedom, Inc., 1943-47; editor of Food for Freedom Weekly News Service, 1945-47. Residence: St. Huberts, N. Y.

WESTON, JAMES FRANCIS, Canadian Insurance Executive; born April 12, 1868, Gagetown, N. B., Canada; son of George W. and Frances (Dingee) Weston; married Bessie P. D. Allingham, Jan. 27, 1923. Mr. Weston began as local agent, Manu- New Brunswick, 1888; Inspector for Manufacturers Life Insurance Co., St. John, time Provinces until 1894; called to Head Office, Toronto, as Superintendent of Agencies; resigned, 1913 to become General Manager of the Imperial Life Assurance Co. of Canada; elected to Board and became Managing Director, July 1914; Vice-Pres., Nov. 1934; Pres., 1936-47; Chmn. of Board, 1947—. Ex-Pres. of Canadian Life Insurance Officers Assn. and Dominion Mortgage and Investments Assn. Vice-President of Colonization Finance Corp. of Canada, Ltd.; Member of The Life Insurance Institute of Canada. Residence: 242 Douglas Dr. Office: 20 Victoria St., Toronto 1, Ont., Canada.

WESTON, Dr. SIDNEY ADAMS, American Editor; born in Sharon, Mass., Dec. 9, 1877; son of Rev. Henry Crosby and Clara Amelia (Loring) Weston; educated at Yale Univ., A.B. 1900, M.A. 1901, Ph.D. 1903; married Millie Louise West, July 12, 1905; one daughter. Asst. Editor, Congregational Publishing Soc., 1904; appointed Managing Editor, 1909; Editor-in-Chief, 1915; Business Manager, 1921; General Secy. since 1936. Author: The World a Field for Christian Service; Problems of Youth in Social Life; Studies in the Books of Ruth and James, etc. Address: 14 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

WESTON, WILLARD GARFIELD, British Company Director, Politician; born 1898, Toronto, Ont.; son of George and Emma Maude Weston; educated at Harbord Collegiate Institute, Toronto; married Reta Lila Howard; nine children. Elected President of George Weston Ltd., 1924; George Weston Bread & Cake Ltd., 1926; and of Weston Biscuit Co., 1929. Chairman of George Weston Holdings Ltd., 1936; Chairman of Allied Bakeries Ltd. and Subsidiaries. Member of British Parliament, 1930-45. During First World War served with the Canadian Army, 1917-19. Residence: Wittington, Marlow, Bucks. Office: Weston Centre, 40 Berkeley Sq., London, W.1, England.

WESTON, Dr. WILLIAM HENRY, JR., American Botanist; born Jan. 24, 1890, N. Y.; son of Wm. Henry and Frances (Pope) Weston; educated at Dartmouth, A.B. 1911; Harvard, A.M. 1912, Ph.D. 1915. Instructor, Biology, Western Reserve University, 1915-17. Pathology Inspector, Federal Horticulture Board, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1917-21; Asst. Professor, Botany, Harvard, 1921-27; Associate Professor, 1927-28; Professor since 1928; Chairman, Dept. of Botany, 1927-32. Delivered Darwin Anniversary Address at Michigan State University, 1942. Fellow: American Assn. for the Advancement of Science; American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Member: American Mycological Society (President, 1932); New England Botany Club (President, 1931-33), etc. Vice-President, Mycology section, 6th International Botanical Congress, Amsterdam, 1935. Corresponding Member, 3rd International Microbiological Congress. Address: Biological Laboratories, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

WESTRING, Hon. CLAES, Swedish Diplomat; born Jan. 30, 1893, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Hjalmar and Countess (Stackelberg) Westring; educated at Univ. of Upsala, LL.B. 1916; married Evelyn Dieden, Dec. 3, 1927; two children. Attaché, Foreign Dept., 1918; Vice-Consul, Antwerp, 1919-20; Secy., Legation at Warsaw, 1920-22; First Secy., Swedish Legation at Berlin, 1923-25; Copenhagen, 1925-28; Foreign Dept., 1928-30; Chief of Law Section, Foreign Dept., 1930-36; Counsellor of Legation, Chargé d'Affaires; Kovno, 1935-40; Consul General, Oslo, Norway, 1940-45; Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Poland, since 1945. Delegate, Internatl. Commission for the River Oder, 1925-36; Secy. to the Chairman, League of Nations Commission for Codification of International Law, 1925-28; Chairman, State Com. for Relief to Swedes returning from abroad, 1934-36. Address: Bagatella 3, Warsaw, Poland.

WESTRUP, Prof. JACK ALLAN, British Musicologist; born July 26, 1904, London, England; son of George and Harriet Sophia (Allan) Westrup; educated at Dulwich College, 1917-22; Balliol College, Oxford (Nettleship Scholar), B.A. 1926, B. Mus. 1926, M.A. 1929, and Hon. D.Mus. 1944; married Solweig Maria Rösell, Dec. 28, 1938; three children. Asst. Master in Classics, Dulwich College, 1928-34. Editor, "Monthly Musical Record", 1933-45. Asst. Music Critic on "Daily Telegraph", 1934-40; Lecturer in History of Music, Royal Acad. of Music, London, 1918-40; Lecturer in Music, King's College, Newcastle-upon-Tyne (Univ. of Durham), 1941-44; Peyton and Barber Prof. of Music, Univ. of Birmingham, 1944-46; Heather Prof. of Music, Oxford Univ., since 1946. Vice-Chairman, Corp. of Trinity College of Music, London, since 1946. Vice-Pres., Royal Musical Assn. Member: Music Com. of British Council and Mendelssohn Scholarship Com. Fellow, Royal College of Organists and Fellow of Trinity College of Music (honoris causa). Author of a chapter on Song in Oxford History of Music, 2nd ed. vol. II, 1932; Purcell in Master Musicians series, 1937; Sharps and Flats (essays), 1940; British Music (for the British Council), 1944; The Meaning of Musical History, 1946. Chairman, Editorial Board, New Oxford History of Music. Address: Wadham College, Oxford, England.

WESTRUP, Z. S. PRZYBYSZEWSKI, Swedish Diplomat; born 1895; educated at Universities of Cambridge (Pembroke College), Lund and Stockholm. Cavalry Officer, 1915-20. Secy. of Legations in Paris, 1923, Brussels and The Hague, 1924, and Berlin, 1925; Vice-Consul in London, 1927; Director of Staff and Administrative Department of Foreign Affairs, 1935-40; Minister to Switzerland, 1940-46; Director of family estate, 1946—. Address: Rydsgård, Sweden.

WESTWOOD of GOSFORTH, Baron, (William Westwood), British Admiralty Adviser; born August 28, 1880, Dundee, Scotland; son of William and Elizabeth (Shaw) Westwood; educated at Bunces Business College, Dundee, 1907-08; married Agnes Helen F. Downie, 1918; three sons and two daughters. Began apprenticeship in shipbuilding industry, 1897; joined trade union and appointed Branch Secretary, 1900; later served in official positions in Dundee branch, and represented union at National Congresses and Conferences. Unsuccessful Labour candidate for Dundee Town Council, 1909. Served on Armaments Committee, General Munitions Tribunal for Scotland, Appeals Committee, etc., 1914-18; Chairman, Ministry of Labour Local Employment Committee, Govan. Founder and First Secretary, Industrial Advisory Council, Glasgow; contested Sutton Division of Plymouth in Parliamentary election, 1929, and at Perth Division at General Election, 1922; unsuccessful in both. Elected General Secretary of Ship Constructors and Shipwrights Assn., 1929; Member, National Maritime Board, since 1929. Joined Admiralty in 1940; President, Engineering & Shipbuilding Federation, 1933-36; elected 1st President, Confederation of Shipbuilding and Engineering Unions, 1936. Chairman, Shipbuilding Group Council, and Member of Engineering Group Council and Joint Engineering Trades Negotiating Committee. Appointed Member of Advisory Council, London, 1936. Joined the Admiralty as Principal Materials Officer, Mar. 1940; Principal Labour Adviser, July, 1940; Director of Contract Labor, 1941; Chief, Industrial Adviser, 1942. Chief Industrial Adviser to Board of Admiralty, 1942-46; Lord in Waiting to H.M. the King, 1945-47; represented Scottish Office, Home Office and Admiralty in House of Lords, 1945-46. Appointed Chairman, Govt. Mineral Development Com., 1946. Director: The Finance Corp. for Industry Ltd.; The North Eastern Trading Estates, Ltd. Address: Invertay, Gosforth, Newcastle-on-Tyne 3, England.

WETHERILL, SAMUEL PRICE, American Engineering Executive; born May 13, 1880, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Samuel Price and Christine (Northrop) Wetherill; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania, B.S. 1903; Upsala College, Hon. LL.D. 1938; married (1st) Edith Bucknell, June 7, 1902; three children; (2nd) Alice G. Constable, Aug. 9, 1941; four children. Chemist for N. J. Zinc Co., 1903. Pres. and Director: Wetherill Engineering Co.; Hyper-Humus Co. Member, Board of Governors, Pennsylvania Soc., Sons of the Revolution; Hon. Pres., Philadelphia Art Alliance; Chairman of Board, Philadelphia College of Pharmacy & Science. Graduate Member, Business Advisory Council, Dept. of Commerce. Vice-Pres., American Swedish Historical Foundation. Organizer and First Pres., Regional Planning Federation of the Phila. Tri-State District, 1928-33. During World War I, Major Q.M. Reserve Corps, 1917; Asst. Chief Motor Transport Officer in battles of Argonne and St. Mihiel; Member, Hagood Commn.; Lt. Colonel, 1919. Author (pamphlets): Inter-Dependence, 1921; Public Guidance in Urban Land Utilization, 1930; Citizen Support for Planning, 1936; Counter Gravity Die Casting of High Melting Point Metal, 1937; Criteria o. Effective Citizenship, 1940: Mutualism (some Subjective Factors affecting Industrial Recovery), 1934; Early Swedish Influence in the Delaware Valley, 1946. Address: 1203 Morris Bldg., Philadelphia 2, Pennsylvania.

WETMORE, Dr. ALEXANDER, American Biologist; born June 18, 1886, North Freedom, Wis.; son of Nelson Franklin and Emma Amelia (Woodworth) Wetmore; educated at University of Kansas, A.B. 1912; George Washington University, M.S. 1916, Ph.D. 1920, D.Sc., 1932; D.Sc., Univ. of Wisconsin, 1945. married Fay Holloway, Oct. 13, 1912; one daughter. Assistant in the University Museum, University of Kansas, 1905-08; with Colorado Museum of Natural History, 1909; returned to University of Kansas, 1910; Field Assistant, Bureau of Biological Survey, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1910-12; Asst. Biologist, 1913; Biologist, 1924. Superintendent, National Zoological Park, 1924-25; Asst. Secretary, Smithsonian Institution and Director of U. S. National Museum, 1925-44; Secretary, Smithsonian Institution, since 1945. Appointed by Pres. Truman, Chmn., Departmental Com. on Research and Development, 1948. Trustee: Natl. Geographic Soc. (Vice-Chmn., Research Committee, Member of Executive Committee); Textile Museum of Washington, D. C.; American Schools of Oriental Research. Director and Executive Officer, Canal Zone Biological Area; Member, Advisory Committee, International Wild Life Protection. Representative of U. S. on Inter-American Committee for Nature Protection and Secretary-General of Eighth American Scientific Congress, 1940. Hon. Member of numerous scientific societies in the U. S. and abroad. Member, Natl. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Received citation for Distinguished Service, Univ. of Kansas, 1941; Alumni Achievement Award, George Washington Univ., 1945. Otto Herman Medal, Isidore Geoffrey St. Hilaire Medal. Author: Observations on the Birds of Argentina, Paraguay, Uruguay and Chile, 1926; The Migration of Birds, 1926; The Birds of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, 1927; Our Migrant Shorebirds in Southern South America, 1927; The Birds of Haiti and the Dominican Republic, 1931; Birds (a general popular account), 1931; Ornithology (in 14th edition, Encyclopedia Britannica), 1933; Systematic Classification for the Birds of the World, 1934; The Book of Birds (with Gilbert Grosvenor), 1937; Observations of the Birds of Northern Venezuela, 1939; Checklist of the Fossil Birds of North America, 1940; The Birds of Southern Veracruz, Mexico, 1943. Residence: 204 Maple Ave., Takoma, Md. Office: Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C.

WETMORE, Dr. RALPH HARTLEY, American Botanist; born April 27, 1892, Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, Canada; son of Herman A. and Josephine C. (Moses) Wetmore; educated at Acadia Univ., B.S. 1921; Harvard Univ., M.A. 1922, Ph.D. 1924; married Marion G. Silver, June 23, 1923 (deceased); (2nd) Olive I. (Hawkins) Smith, June 20, 1940; two daughters. Asst. Prof. of Biology, Acadia Univ., 1926-27. Asst. Prof. of Botany, Harvard Univ., 1926-32; Assoc. Prof., 1932-42; Prof. of Botany, 1942—; Chairman, Dept. of Botany, 1927-28, 1932-34; Director, Botanical Laboratories, Harvard Univ., 1933-34; Chairman, Dept. of Biology, 1946—. Member; Botanical Soc. of Amer.; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; New York Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Soc. of Plant Physiologists; Soc. for the Study of Growth and Development; Torrey Botanical Club; Biological Stain Commn., etc. Address: Harvard University, Biological Laboratories, Cambridge, Mass.

WETTEN, ALBERT HAYES, American Realtor; born July 26, 1869, Downers Grove, Ill.; son of Valentine and Hulda (Bartel) Wetten; married Marion Batten, June 20, 1901; two daughters. Engaged in real estate business in Chicago since 1888. Member, firm of Rounds & Clough, 1890-96; Rounds & Wetten, 1896-1912; Head of Albert H. Wetten & Co., since 1912. Director: First National Bank, Commonwealth Edison Co. Pres., Chicago Real Estate Board, 1909. Trustee, Field Museum of Natural History, Children's Memorial Hospital, St. Luke's Hospital and Newberry Library. Residence: 209 Lake Shore Dr. Office: 141 W. Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

WETTER, Prof. ERNST, Swiss Statesman; born Aug. 27, 1877, Winterthur, Switzerland; educated at Univ. of Zurich and in Paris and London. Prof., Cantonal School of Commerce at Zurich, 1914-20; Director, Division of Commerce, Swiss Federal Department of Public Economy, 1920-24; Delegate, Swiss Federation of Commerce and Industry, since 1924. Elected to Swiss National Council, 1929, and to Federal Council, Dec. 1938. Served as Head of Swiss Finance and Customs Department; President of the Swiss Federal Government, 1941. Address: Federal Council, Berne, Switzerland.

WETTER, Rear Admiral (STEN) ERIK (P:SON), Swedish Naval Officer, Shipping Executive; Politician; born Apr. 4, 1889, Stockholm, Sweden; son of G. A. Petersson and Ada Wetter; married Maja Carlander, Dec. 17, 1924; one son and four daughters. Commissioned Sub-Lieut., Royal Swedish Navy, 1908; Lieut., 1911; Commander, 1918; A.D.C. to H.R.H. the Crown Prince of Sweden, 1927; retired from active service, 1931; Captain, Naval Reserve, 1931-43; Rear Admiral, 1943-45. Deputy Director, Royal Swedish Navy Bd.; Director, Swedish Orient Line. Vice-Managing Director, Angfartygs A/B Tirfing. Member of the Bd.: Angbats A/B Ferm; A/B Brostroms Linjeagentur; Insurance Company Gauthiod; Swedish American Line; Swedish East Asiatic Co.; Swedish Ball-bearing Co. SKF. Pres. of Bd., A/B Bofors. Member, First Chamber of Riksdag (the Swedish Parliament), 1945; also Member, Royal Air Bd. Residence: Gotabergsgatan 34. Office: Brostomia, Gothenburg, Sweden.

WETTERBERG, Dr. SVEN GUNNAR, Swedish Librarian; born June 8, 1883, Sanne, Bohuslän, Sweden; son of Dean Sven and Gabriella (Carlson) Wetterberg; educated at Univ. of Lund, B.Div. 1907, Lic. Div. 1919, Hon. D.D. 1935; married Olga Borg, June 23, 1924; three sons. Asst. Librarian, Univ. Library of Lund, 1907; 2nd Librarian, 1919; Principal Librarian since 1932. Librarian, Faculty of Theology, Univ. of Lund, 1910-39. Awarded Swedish Red Cross Medal, 2nd class, 1919; appointed Hon. Member of Gothenburg Nation, Lund, 1937; Knight of the Order of the Star of the North, 1945. Edited Handbook of Swedish Ecclesiastical Jurisprudence, 5th ed. 1944; The Swedish Elementary Education Code, 5th ed. 1945; The Swedish Child Welfare Code, 2nd ed. 1945; Autobiography of Bishop Jesper Swedberg in Skara, 1941; The Autobiography of Dean G. W. Carlson, 1943; Catalogue of F. Hallgren's Library (with K. Gierow). 1945. Address; Bankgatan 32B, Lund, Sweden.

WETTERGREN, (KARL) ERIK (WILHELM FREDRIK), Swedish Art Museum Director; born April 16, 1883, Arboga, Sweden; son of Dr. Carl and Anna (Steinberg) Wettergren; educated at Uppsala Univ., fil.cand. 1908; married (1st) Ellen Nisser, 1908; (2nd) Gertrud Pålson, 1925; four children. Museum Asst., 1909; Actor, 1911-13; Assistant at the Royal Household Collections, 1916-17; Curator, National Museum of Arts, Stockholm, 1918; Managing Director, Royal Dramatic Theatre, Stockholm, 1928-34. Chief Director, National Museum of Arts, Stockholm, since 1942. Chairman, The School of Arts in Books and Advertising, Märta Måås-Fjetterström Weaving Co. Arranged several Swedish exhibitions of arts and crafts in Sweden and abroad and was a member of their organization committees (Helsingfors, 1924, Paris, 1925, 1937, London, 1931, Chicago and New York, 1927, 1934, Warsaw and Prague, 1938, Copenhagen, 1942). Former President, Swedish Assn. of Arts and Crafts. Hon. Member: Royal Academy of Arts in Sweden; The Swedish Stage Society. Member of several associations concerning museums, arts and crafts. Member of the Board, Swedish Institute for Cultural Exchange with Foreign Countries. Author: Reinhold Norstedt, 1914; Georg von Rosen, 1919; Modern Swedish Decorative Art, 1926; Sceneries: Travels, Art, Theatre, 1927; Modern Swedish Glass, 1943. Received numerous decorations. Lieut. in the Royal Regiment of Grenadiers No. 1, 1905-08. Residence: Katarinavaegen 19. Office: National Museum, Stockholm, Sweden.

WETTERGREN, VOLMAR, Swedish Bookseller; born Feb. 15, 1887, Gothenburg, Sweden; son of Carl and Agnes (Lidbeck) Wettergren; educated at University of Gothenburg, 1907; married Hildur Bergman, June 9, 1917; two sons. Began as volunteer in bookseller trade, 1906; Director of Wettergren & Kerbers Bokhandels A.B. since 1917. Chairman of Robert Lidbeck & Co., Ltd. Chairman of Swedish Booksellers Assn.; Vice-Chairman of Swedish Book Trade Council; Member of Freemasons. Author of various publications and articles published in trade journals. Residence: Gibraltargatan 12. Office: Västra Hamngatan 22, Gothenburg, Sweden.

WETTERLIND, ÅKE, Swedish Textile Manufacturer and Merchant; born Sept.

29, 1895, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Josef and Fredrique (Eriksson) Wetterlind; educated at Commercial High School, 1917-18; married Märta Sundström, Apr. 21, 1923; five children. Salesman, 1919. Manager: Josef Wetterlind Inc. (wholesale textiles), since 1932; Sidenkonfektion, since 1935; Wedekonfektion, since 1946. Pres.: Swedish Wholesalers and Importers Assn.; Swedish Textile Merchants Assn. Member of Bd., Chamber of Commerce, Stockholm. Residence: Djursholm, Sweden. Office: Nybrogatan 19, Stockholm, Sweden.

WETTSTEIN de WESTERSHEIMB, Dr. JOHN, Hungarian Diplomat; born June 20, 1887, Budapest, Hungary; son of Jules and Vilma Wettstein de Westersheimb; educated at Univs. of Budapest, Berlin, Paris and Oxford; J.D., Budapest, 1910, Dr. rer. pol., Budapest, 1912; married Baroness Margit Boernemisza de Kászon, 1933. Entered Hungarian Civil Service, 1910; Austro-Hungarian Diplomatic Service, 1913; Secy., Austro-Hungarian Legation at Durazzo, Albania, 1914; Captain, Hussar Regiment, No. 8, Austro-Hungarian Army, 1914-17. With Foreign Office, Vienna, 1917-18; entered Hungarian Diplomatic Service, 1919; Secy., Hungarian Peace Delegation, 1920-21; Chargé d'Affaires, The Hague, 1921-23; Delegate to 1st Conf. with Russia, The Hague, 1921; Chief of Cabinet, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1923-25; Counsellor, Legation at Berlin, 1925-33; Minister in Prague, 1933-39; Minister in Berne, 1939-43. Awarded Military Cross; 1st class Hungarian Cross of Merit; created Commander, Royal Dutch Orange Nassau Order; Royal Hungarian Privy Councillor. Lieut., Imperial and Royal Austo-Hungarian Hussar Regiment No. 8 (Reserve), 1907; First Lieut., 1914; Captain, 1917; Major, 1935. Address: Casa Ametta, Ascona, Switzerland.

WETTSTEIN, Dr. OSCAR, Swiss Journalist, Politician; born March 26, 1866, Zurich, Switzerland; son of Markus and Babette (Schuler) Wettstein; educated at Gymnasium, Winterthur; Universities of Zurich, Montpellier (France), Strasbourg, Leipzig and Erlangen (J. D. 1889); married Erica Abeljanz, May 4, 1898; one son. Began career as journalist in Berlin, Germany, 1890; Chief-Editor of "Züricher Post," Zurich, 1895-1914. Member, City Council, Zurich, 1897-1914 (Pres., 1904); Cantonal Council, 1902-14 (Pres., 1913); Government of Canton Zurich, 1914-35; Member of Senate, 1914-35 (Pres. 1928). Docent of Journalism, University of Zurich, 1903-38; received Honorary Dr. Oec. public degree. President, Swiss Water Economy Society, since 1917; President, Nordostschweizerische Kraftwerke, 1931-42; Vice-President, Rhätische Bahn (Railway), Chur. Member of Board; Hypothekarbank, Winterthur; Schweizerische Mobiliarversicherung (Insurance), Bern. President, Court of Honor, Fédération Internationale des Jouralistes; Hon. Member of Swiss Press Society, etc. Author: Die Schweizer Presse, 1902; Über das Verhältnis Zwischen Staat und Presse, 1904; Die Schweiz (3rd ed.), 1933. Address: Heliostreet 6, Zurich, Switzerland.

WEVE, Dr. HENRICUS JACOBUS MARIE, Dutch Ophthalmologist; born Apr. 19, 1888, Nijmegen, Holland; son of Jan Jacob Weve and Maria van Heukelum; educated at Univ. of Amsterdam, M.D. 1912; married Regina Hermina Marie Terwindt, June 20, 1916; four children. Asst. Surgeon, Ophthalmology, Univ. of Amsterdam, 1912-14; Chief Surgeon, Rotterdam Eye Hospital, Inrichting voor Ooglyders, 1916; Prof. of Ophthalmol., Univ. of Utrecht, 1929; Director, Nederlandsch Gasthuis voor Ooglyders, Utrecht, since 1929; Dean, Faculty of Medicine, Utrecht Univ., 1941-43. Pres., The Netherlands Ophthalmological Soc., 1931-34 and 1939-42. Trustee, General Hospital; St. Antonius Gasthuis, Utrecht, since 1930; Trustee, Centraal Museum, Utrecht (Museum of Art). Editor-in-Chief, "Ophthalmologica". Mem-Nederlandsche Maatschappy ter Bevordering van Geneeskunde; Nederlandsch Oogheelk. Gezelschap; Société Française d'Ophthalmologie; British Ophthalmological Soc.; Bataafsch Genootschap te Rotterdam; Provinciaal Utrechtsch Genootschap voor Kunsten en Wetenschappen; Kon. Vlaamsche Academie voor Geneeskunde. Delivered Bowman Lecture, 1939 (London). Hon. Member, Soc. d'Ophth. de Madrid and of Budapest Medical Soc. Author: Leerboek der Oogheelkundige Onderzoekingsmethodes, 1942; some 200 publications in various ophthalmic periodicals. Volunteer Medical Officer, Netherlands Army, 1914-19. Address: Ned. Gasthuis voor Ooglijders, F. C. Dondersstraat 65, Utrecht, The Netherlands.

WEVER, Prof. ERNEST GLEN, American Psychologist; born Oct. 16, 1902, Benton, Ill.; son of Ernest S. and Mary (Shurtz) Wever; educated at Illinois College, A.B., 1922; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1924, Ph.D. 1926; married Suzanne Rinehart, 1927. Instr. in Psychology, Univ. of California, 1926-27. Instr. in Psychology, Princeton Univ., 1927-29; Asst. Prof., 1929-31; Assoc. Prof., 1931-41; Prof., since 1941; Dorman T. Warren Prof., since 1946. Member: Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Psychological Assn.; Soc. of Experimental Psychologists; Acoustical Soc. of America. Awarded Warren Medal, 1936. Author: The Electrical Responses of the Ear, 1939. Address: Princeton University, 110 Eno Hall, Princeton, N. J.

WEXLEY, JOHN, American Writer; born 1907, New York, N. Y.; educated at New York Univ., B.A. Author: The Last Mile (play in three acts), 1930; They Shall Not Die (play in three acts), 1934; Angels With Dirty Faces (screenplay; with Rowland Brown), 1938; The Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse (screenplay; with John Huston), 1938; Running Dogs, 1939; Footsteps in the Dark (screenplay; with Lester Cole), 1940; Hangmen Also Die (screenplay), 1942; Cornered (screenplay), 1945, etc. Address: c/o RKO-Radio Studios, 780 Gower St., Hollywood, Calif.

WEYBRIGHT, VICTOR ROYER, American Editor; born Mar. 16, 1903, Keymar, Md.; son of Samuel Royer and Lillie (Fogle) Weybright; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania and Univ. of Chicago; married Hildegarde Fillmore, May 30, 1928. Assoc. Editor, Butterick Publishing Co., 1927-34; Managing Editor, Survey Associates, 1934-42; Consultant to Readers Digest and other publications, 1934-42; Special Representative, Office of War Information, London, 1942-45; Chairman and Editor, Penguin Books, Inc., New York, since 1945. Trustee, English Speaking Union; Director, Friends of Land. Author: Spangled Banner, 1935. Residence: Hollow Rock Farm, Keymar, Md. Office: 245 Fifth Ave., New York, New York.

WEYEMBERG, Dr. PAUL, Belgian Jurist and Editor; born July 13, 1898, Brussels, Belgium; son of Dr. and Julia (Pareja) Weyemberg; educated at Univ. of Brussels, LL.D. Began his career as a lawyer; Judge at Wavre, 1925-40; Civilian Judge, Belgian Court Martial in England, 1941-44. Editor, Message Revue Internationale, London and Brussels, since 1941. Founder in 1928 and Chairman since then of Groupement des Plus Grand Mutilés de la Guerre, 1914-18 and 1940-45. Honors: Commander, Order of Leopold; Officer, Legion of Honor. Author: Le Code de la Route humoristique, 1933; Poèmes, 1944. Served in Belgian Army during World War I; lost both legs, 1917. Addresses: 110 Fleet Street, London, E.C. 4, England; 18 Avenue de la Toison d'Or, Brussels, Belgium.

WEYERHAEUSER, FREDERICK KING, American Business Executive; born Jan. 16, 1895, Rock Island, Ill.; son of John Philip and Nellie (Anderson) Weyerhaeuser; educated at St. Paul Acad.; Hill School; Yale Univ.; married Vivian O'Gara, Mar. 22, 1923; two children. Began career in the retail lumber business, 1919. District Manager, Weyerhaeuser Sales Co., 1925-30; Pres. and Director since 1930. Director: Weyerhaeuser Timber Co.; The Northwest Paper Co.; General Timber Service, Inc.; Great Northern Railway Co.; Northwest Bancorporation; First National Bank Co. of St. Paul First Trust Co. of St. Paul. Trustee of Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Co. Office: 2062 First National Bank Building, St. Paul, Minn.

WEYERHAEUSER, JOHN PHILIP, JR., American Industrialist; born 1899; graduated Yale Univ.; married; four children. Served in World War I. Joined Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. (world's largest lumber firm), 1920; Executive Vice Pres., 1946-47; Pres., 1947—. Pres. and Dir., Weyerhaeuser Steamship Co. Address: Weyerhaeuser Timber Co., Tacoma, Wash.

WEYGAND, General MAXIME, French Army Officer; born Jan. 21, 1867, Brussels, Belgium; educated at Saint-Cyr. At the outbreak of World War I, attached to 5th Hussars as Lieut.-Colonel; later Chief of Staff to Marshall Foch, until 1923. After Battle of Marne, promoted to Col.-General, 1916. French Military Representative at Versailles, 1918. After War was sent to Warsaw to reorganize the Polish Army; High Commissioner in Syria in 1923; Director of the Centre des Hautes-Etudes Militaires and member of the Higher Council of War, 1924; Chief of General Staff of French Army, 1930; Vice-Pres. of the Higher Council of War and Commander in-Chief of the Army, 1931-35. After France and England declared war on Germany in Sept., 1939, was appointed Commander of the French Army in Syria; succeeded General Gamelin as Commander-in-Chief of the Allied Forces, May 18, 1940; after fall of France, appointed Minister of Defense in first Cabinet organized by Marshal Pétain, July 1940; Member, French Academy, since 1931. Address: Paris, France.

WEYGANDT, Hon. CARL V., American Jurist; born June 14, 1888, Wayne County, Ohio; son of Judge William E. and Cora Belle (Mock) Weygandt; educated at College of Wooster, Ph.B., LL.D.; Lake Erie Law School, D.C.L.; Western Reserve Univ., LL.B.; Wilberforce Univ., LL.D.; married Jessie May Silver, June 14, 1915; three children. Began as lawyer, 1918; Member, General Assembly of Ohio, 1921-22; Judge, Court of Common Pleas, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, 1924-30; Judge, Court of Appeals, Ohio, 8th Appellate Dist., 1930-33; Chief Justice, Ohio Supreme Court, since 1933. Pres., Judicial Council of Ohio. Member of Bd. of Trustees: College of Wooster; Cleveland Legal Aid Soc.; St. Luke's Hosp.; Negro Welfare Assn.; Musical Arts Assn. of Cleveland; Northern Ohio Opera Assn., etc. Member: Amer. Bar Assn. (Chmn., Judicial Section, 1936-37); Cleveland, Columbus and Ohio State Bar Assns., etc. Author: Weygandt's Ohio Charges to Juries, 1927. Residence: 17208 Edgewater Dr., Lakewood, Ohio. Office: Supreme Court Chambers, Columbus, O.

WEYL, Dr. HERMANN, American Mathematician; born Nov. 9, 1885, Elmshorn, Germany; son of Ludwig and Anna (Dieck) Weyl; educated at Univ. of Munich; Univ. of Göttingen, Ph.D. 1908; Dr.Phil., Oslo Univ., 1929; Dr.Ing., Stuttgart, 1929; D.Sc., Univ. of Penna., 1940; married Helene Joseph, September 1, 1913; two sons. Privat Dozent, University of Göttingen, 1910-13; Professor of Mathematics, Eidgenössiche Technische Hochschule, Zurich, 1913-30. Thomas D. Jones Research Professor of Mathematical Physics, Princeton University, 1928-29; Professor of Mathematics and Director of Mathematical Institute, University of Göttingen, 1930-33; Professor of Mathematics, Institute for Advanced Study, since 1933 Member: American Mathematical Society; American Philosophical Society; American Academy of Arts and Sciences; National Academy of Sciences· Gesellschaft der Wissenschaften at Göttingen; Koninklijke Ak. van Wetenschappen of Amsterdam; Academia Nacional de Ciencias Exactas de Lima; Naturforschende Gesellschaft, Zurich. Foreign Member, Royal Society of Britain. Honorary Member: Spanish, Swiss and London Mathematical Societies; Corresponding Member: Swedish Royal Academy of Science; Academia Sevillana de Buenas Letras. Received Lobatschewski Prize, Kazan, 1925; Author: The Open World, 1932; Mind and Nature, 1934; The Classical Groups, Their Invariant and Representations, 1938; Algebraic Theory of Numbers, 1940; Meromorphic Functions and Analytic Curves, 1943, etc. Address: Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, N. J.

WEYSSE, Dr. ARTHUR WISSWALD, American Scientist; born Nov. 16, 1887, Machias, Me.; son of Jacob and Margaret (Larrabee) Weysse; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1891, A.M. 1892, Ph.D. 1894; Univ. of Basel, Switzerland, M.D. 1907; Univs. of Leipzig, Berlin, Paris, Naples and London. Asst. in Biol. and Zool. at Harvard and Radcliffe Colleges, 1892-94; Parker Fellow of Harvard, 1894-96; Instructor in Zool. at Mass. Inst. of Technol., 1896-1907; Prof. of Experimental Physiol., Boston Univ. School of Med., 1899-1924; Prof. of Biol. at Boston Univ. College of Liberal Arts, 1904-41; Prof. Emeritus, 1941—. Lecturer on Venereal Diseases at Boston Univ. School of Med., 1915-24; Dean of Boston Univ. Grad. School, 1917-33. Fellow of Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Author: Epitome of Human Histology, 1898; Synoptic Textbook of Zoology, 1904, 1909, 1911. Translator of Thoinot's "Medico-Legal Moral Offenses", 1911. Collaborated on Our Wonder World, 1914; Grossman's Exceptional Child, 1917; Fitch, Diet Therapy, 1918, and Cleveland, Modern Scientific Knowledge, 1929. Address: 291 Mishawum Rd., Woburn, Mass.

WHALEN, GROVER A., American Business Executive; born June 2, 1886, New York City; son of Michael Henry and Esther (deNee) Whalen; edcated at DeWitt Clinton H. S., Clason Point Military Acad., Packard Commercial Inst., and N. Y. Law School; married Anna Dolores Kelly, Apr. 23, 1913; three children. General Manager of John Wanamaker, New York; Vice-President and General Manager of the American Trans-Oceanic Co.; Chairman of the Board, Schenley Distillers Corp. He served as President and Commissioner General of the New York World's Fair, 1939 and 1940. Now Chairman of the Board of Directors of Coty, Inc., and Coty International Corp. Chmn., Mayor's Com. for World's Fashion Center and Manhattan Chairman of the Com. for Economic Development. Chmn., United Nations Com. of City of New York; Chmn., Mayor's Reception Com. Trustee of the Manhattan Savings Bank; Public Dir., Interborough Rapid Transit Co.

Trustee: Bache Art Foundation; College of New Rochelle; Guggenheim Dental Clinic; St. Vincent's Hospital; Salvation Army; Travelers Aid Society; Member, Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York; Director, Fifth Ave. Association, and Merchants Assn. of New York. Formerly served as Secretary to Mayor Hylan, as Commissioner of Plant and Structures; Director, Municipal Broadcasting System; Chairman, Board of Purchase; Member, New York-New Jersey Tunnel Commission; Commissioner, Police Dept. of New York City; Chairman, Mayor's Committee on Airport Development; Gasoline and Fuel Oil Coordinator; Mayor's Committee for Mobilization of "New York at War," and Mayor's Com. for World Fashion Center. Served as N.R.A. Administrator, New York, and Chmn., New York Retail Code Authority. Chmn., Mayors Com. for the Commemoration of the Golden Anniversary of the City of New York, 1948. Residence: 998 Fifth Ave. Office: 730 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

WHALEY, Hon. RICHARD SMITH, American Jurist; born July 15, 1874, Charleston, S. C.; son of Wm. B. and Helen (Smith) Whaley; educated at Episcopal H. S. (Alexandria, Va.); Univ. of Va., LL.B. 1897. Elected Member of House of Representatives (South Carolina), 1900; re-elected five successive times. Speaker of House, two terms; Presiding Officer, Democratic State Convention, 1910; Delegate to Democratic National Convention (Baltimore), 1912, and San Francisco, 1920. Elected to Sixty-third Congress, 1913-15, from First South Carolina District; re-elected to Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth and Sixty-sixth Congresses, 1915-21. Chairman, Rent Commission of District of Columbia, 1923-25; Commissioner, Court of Claims, 1925-30. Appointed Judge of Court of Claims, 1930; Chief Justice of U. S. Court of Claims, 1939—. Residence: Shoreham Hotel. Office: U. S. Court of Claims, 17th and Pennsylvania Aves., N.W., Washington, D. C.

WHALLON, Rev. Dr. WALTER LOWRIE, American Clergyman; born Sept. 23, 1878, Vincennes, Ind.; son of Edward P. and Margaret Ellen (Kitchell) Whallon; educated at Hanover (Ind.) College, A.B. 1899, A.M. 1903, D.D. 1916; Princeton Theological Seminary, 1903; married Irene Snyder, Oct. 26, 1905; two sons. Pastor: Broad Ave. Church (Altoona, Pa.), 1903-10; Central Church (Zanesville, Ohio), 1910-25; Roseville Presbyterian Church (Newark, N. J.) since 1925. Exchange Preacher in London, England, 1928. Trustee: Princeton Theological Seminary; Bloomfield Theological Seminary (Pres. of Board); College of Wooster, 1916-25. Member: Permanent Judicial Comm. of Presbyterian Church, 1916-19; General Assembly's Comm. on Princeton Theol. Sem., 1926-28; Board of Managers, Lord's Day Alliance of U. S. (Pres. 1943); Board of Foreign Missions, Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. Address: 30 Roseville Ave., Newark 7, N. J.

WHAM, BENJAMIN, American Lawyer; born June 11, 1891, nr. Centralia, Ill.; son of Henderson Boycan and Nancy Jane (Stonecipher) Wham; educated at Univ. of Illinois, A.B. 1915, J.D. 1917; married Virginia Chowning Buffington, June 27, 1931; two children. Engaged in the practice of law in Chicago since 1920; now member of law firm of Wham, Rose & O'Brien. Trustee, Illinois Institute of Technology; Director of various business corporations. Vice-President, Chicago Crime Commission. Former President Illinois State Bar Association; Member, House of Delegates of American Bar Assn.; Member, Reorganization Committee and Secretary of Corporation, Banking and Mercantile Section, Amer. Bar Assn. First Lieut. in U. S. Army, 1917-19. Residence: 811 Sunset Rd., Winnetka, Ill. Office: 231 S. LaSalle St., Chicago, Ill.

WHAM, Hon. FRED LOUIS, U. S. District Judge; born June 15, 1884, Marion Co., Ill.; son of Henderson Boyakin and Nancy Jane (Stonecipher) Wham; educated at Southern Illinois State Normal University, 1901-04; University of Illinois, LL.B. 1909; post-graduate study at George Washington University Law School, 1916-17; married Carrie Clifton Hitch, June 16, 1909 (dec. 1917); one son; married (2nd) Nina B. Shanklin, Aug. 18, 1918; two children. Admitted to the Illinois and Arkansas Bar, 1909; practiced at Ft. Smith and Fayetteville, Ark., 1909-15; Attorney (civil service) in the Solicitor's Office, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Washington, 1915-17; moved to Centralia, Ill., 1917. Member, law firm of Wham & Wham, 1917-27. Judge, U. S. District Court, of Eastern District of Illinois, since 1927. Residence: 611 E. 3rd St. Office: P. O. Bldg., Centralia, Ill.

WHARTON, JOHN FRANKLIN, American Attorney; born July 28, 1894, Newark, N. J.; son of Charles Adolphus and Lenna I. (Lyon) Wharton; educated at Williams College, A.B. 1915; Columbia Law School, LL.B. 1920; married Carolin G. Bumiller, Dec. 6, 1924; two children. Associated with Rounds, Hatch, Dillingham & Debevoise in New York City, 1920-23. Member, firm of Weiss & Wharton, New York, 1923-27; firm merged with Cohen, Cole & Weiss, forming Cohen, Cole, Weiss & Wharton, 1927; firm name changed to Paul, Weiss, Wharton & Garrison, 1946. Pres., Dir. and Counsel, The Playwrights Producing Co., Inc. Director and Vice-Pres.; Pocket Books, Inc.; Simon & Schuster, Inc. Director and Counsel: Farnsworth Television & Radio Corp.; Benson & Hedges, etc. Member, Assn. of Bar of the City of New York. With British Ministry of Shipping, World War I; Consultant to the Board of Economic Warfare, World War II. Author: This Road to Recovery, 1932; The Theory and Practice of Earning a Living, 1945, etc. Address: 61 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

WHATMOUGH, Prof. JOSHUA, American Philologist; born June 30, 1897, Rochdale, Lancs., England; son of Walter and Elizabeth (Hollows) Whatmough; educated at Univ. of Manchester, England, B.A. 1919; Emmanuel College, Univ. of Cambridge, B.A. 1921, M.A. 1926; Harvard Univ., hon. M.A.; married G. Verona Taylor, Oct. 24, 1930; two children. Lecturer in Classics, Univ. of Wales, 1921; Prof. of Latin, Univ. of Cairo, Egypt, 1925; Prof. of Comparative Philology, Harvard Univ., since 1926. Visiting Prof. of Comparative Philology, Univ. of Chicago, 1930, 1948. Member, Advisory Council, Yenching Univ., Peiping, China; Member, Visiting Com. on Modern Languages, Mass. Inst. of Technology. Author: Liber Glossarum, 1926; Scholia Vallicelliana, 1926; Prae-Italic Dialects of Italy, 1933; Foundations of Roman Italy, 1937; Keltika, 1944; Dialects of Ancient Gaul, 1948; also articles in Encyclopaedia Britannica, Oxford Classical Dictionary, etc. Address: Harvard University, 791 Widener Library, Cambridge 38, Mass.

WHEATLEY, DENNIS YEATS, British Author; born Jan. 8, 1897, London; son of Albert David Wheatley and Florene, Lady Newton; educated at Dulwich College, 1909; Naval Cadet in H.M.S. Worcester, 1910-12; private tuition in Germany, 1913; married Nancy Robinson, 1923; one son; (2nd) Joan Johnstone, 1930. Engaged in wine business, 1914-31. Commissioned, Royal Field Artillery, 1914; transferred to 36th (Ulster) Div., 1917; invalided from Army, 1919; re-commissioned in R.A.F. (VR) to fill specially created post, Dec. 1941; first non-regular officer to be appointed to Joint Planning Staff; Wing Commander in Offices of War Cabinet, three years. Member, Soc. of Authors; Fellow, Royal Soc. of Arts. Inventor (with J. G. Links) Crime Dossier Fiction War Games: "Invasion" 1938 and "Blockade" 1939. Awarded Bronze Star Medal (U.S.A.), 1945. Author: The Forbidden Territory; Old Rowley (Private Life of Charles II), 1933; Black August; The Fabulous Valley, 1934; The Devil Rides Out; They Found Atlantis; Murder Off Miami (with J. G. Links); Who Killed Robert Prentice (with J. G. Links); Red Eagle (Life of Marshal Voroshilov), 1937; The Golden Spaniard, 1937; The Quest of Julian Day, 1938; The Scarlet Imposter, 1939; Uncharted Seas; Herewith the Clues (with J. G. Links); Sixty Days to Live; Three Inquisitive People; Faked Passports; The Black Baroness, 1940; The Sword of Fate, 1941; Total War, 1942; V for Vengeance; Mediterranean Nights (short stories), 1942; Gunmen, Gallants and Ghosts (short stories), 1943; The Man Who Missed the War, 1945; Come into My Parlour, 1946; The Launching of Roger Brook, 1947; The Shadow of Tyburn Tree, 1948. Address: Grove Place, Lymington, Hampshire, England.

WHEATLEY, JOHN LAVIERS, British Art Gallery Director; born Jan. 23, 1892, Abergavenny, Wales; son of Sir Zechariah and Martha (Laviers) Wheatley; educated at Taunton School and Univ. College; married Edith Grace Wolfe, 1912; one daughter. Asst. Teacher of Painting at Slade School of Fine Art, Univ. College, London, 1920; Teacher of Drawing and Painting, 1919-25, then Michaelis Prof. of Fine Art, Univ. of Cape Town, 1925-38; Director of Natl. Gallery of South Africa, 1927-38. Director, City Art Galleries and Ruskin Museum, Sheffield, Yorks., since 1938. Ex-Chairman of Trustees for Natl. Gallery; Trustee, Michaelis Collection of South Africa; Director, Natl. Gallery, Cape Town; Dean of Faculty of Fine Art and Architecture at Univ. of Cape Town. Assoc., Royal Soc. of Painters in Water Colours; Assoc., Royal Acad. Member, Royal Fine Art Commn., since 1946. Served in Artists Rifles, 1915-18; Major of 15th Bn., Derbyshire Home Guard, since 1940. Address: Graves Art Gallery, Surrey Ct., Sheffield, Yorks., Eng.

WHEELER, BURTON KENDALL, American Lawyer, Ex-Senator; born Feb. 27, 1882, Hudson, Mass.; son of Asa Leonard and Mary Elizabeth (Tyler) Wheeler; educated at Michigan Univ. of Law, LL.B.; married Lulu M. White, Sept. 7, 1907; six children. Admitted to the practice of law in 1905; subsequently opened offices in Butte, Mont. Elected to Montana Legislature, later served as U. S. District Attorney under President Wilson. Elected to U. S. Senate, 1922-45. Served as Chmn. of Interstate Commerce Com., and Member, Senate Committees on Agriculture, and Forestry, Indian Affairs, Pensions, Territories and Insular Affairs and the Senate Steering Committee. Consultant, Senate War Investigating Com., 1947. Residence: Butte, Montana.

WHEELER, CHARLES THOMAS, British Sculptor; born Mar. 14, 1892, Codsall, England; son of S. P. and A. F. (Crowther) Wheeler; educated at the Royal College of Art, London; married Muriel Bourne, 1918; two children. Executed sculptures on the rebuilt Bank of England; the Winchester War Memorial; and on many other well-known buildings. Three of his works have been purchased by the Chantrey Trustees. Royal Academician, 1939. Trustee, Tate Gallery, London. President, Royal Society of British Sculptors. Member, Royal Fine Art Commission. Residences: 21 Tregunter Rd., London, England; Greywings, Fairlight Cove, Sussex, England.

WHEELER, Dr. DONALD, American University Professor; born Feb. 9, 1885, New Lebanon, Pa.; son of Lorenzo Dow and Eva Annette (Blatt) Wheeler; educated at Grove City College, A.B. 1905, Litt.D. 1924; Leland Powers School of Dramatics, 1908; The Sorbonne, Paris, 1922-24. Master in Lawrenceville School, 1910-22; Instr. of Speech at Princeton Theological Seminary and at Princeton Univ., 1924-29. Prof. of Speech at the Seminary, 1929 —. Director of the Summer Theatre at Martha's Vineyard, 1925-31. Member, Amer. Acad. of Political and Social Science. Residence: 36 Hibben Road, Princeton, N. J.

WHEELER, Sir EDWARD OLIVER, British Engineer; born April 18, 1890, Ottawa, Canada; son of Arthur Oliver and Clara (Macoun) Wheeler; educated at Trinity College School, Port Hope, Canada; Royal Military College, Kingston, Canada; married Dorothea S. Danielsen, Mar., 1921; one son. Officer, Royal Engineers, 1910; served in Corps of Royal Engineers, 1914-18. Entered Survey of India, 1919; participated in Everest Expedition, 1921; Surveyor General of India, 1941-46; retired 1947. Received Knighthood, 1943. Address: c/o Canadian Bank of Commerce, Victoria, B. C., Canada.

WHEELER, JOHN NEVILLE, American Newspaper Executive; born Apr. 11, 1886, Yonkers, N. Y.; son of Charles and Kate (Neville) Wheeler; educated at Columbia Univ., A.B., 1908; married Elizabeth Wood Thompson, Jan. 30, 1918; one daughter. With New York Herald, 1908-12. Established Wheeler Syndicate, 1913; sold out in 1916. Established Bell Syndicate, Inc., 1916; President and Director. Pres., North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc. Exec. Vice-Pres. and Dir., Associated Newspapers, Inc.; Director, Consolidated News Features, Inc. Formerly Exec. Editor, Liberty Magazine. Second Lieut., later 1st Lieut., F. A., U. S. Army, 1917-19; with A.E.F. in France, 1918-19. Residence: Spring Valley Farm, Ridgefield, Conn. Office: 247 W. 43rd St., New York, N. Y.

WHEELER, LESLIE ALLEN, American Agricultural Economist; born December 20, 1899, Ventura, Iowa; son of Frank E. and Lottie M. (Rankin) Wheeler; educated at Pomona College, A. B. 1921; Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, M.B.A. 1923; married Louise Price, Nov. 17, 1927. Special Agent for U. S. Dept. of Commerce, 1923. Research and investigational work in Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, until 1926; served in Bureau of Agricultural Economics, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture as Associate, Senior and Principal Agricultural Economist and Chief of Foreign Agricultural Service, 1926-39; Director, Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations, since July 1, 1939. Residence: 810 Dorset Ave., Chevy Chase, Md. Office: U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

WHEELER, Dr. POST, American Diplomat, Writer; born Aug. 6, 1869, Oswego, N. Y.; attended Rugby; Wm. Penn Charter School, grad.; Princeton Univ., A.B. 1891, Litt.D. 1893; medical course, Univ. of Penna.; graduate work, Sorbonne, 1894-95; married. Second Secy., Tokyo, 1906; Secy. of Embassy, Petrograd, 1909; at Rome, 1912, Tokyo, 1914; Counsellor of Embassy, Tokyo, 1917; Stockholm, 1919; London, 1921; on leave of absence from 1924; Counsellor of Embassy, London, 1921; on leave of absence from 1924; Counsellor of Embassy, Madrid, 1925; on leave from Dec. 1925; Counsellor of Embassy, Rio de Janeiro, 1929; E.E. and M.P., Paraguay, 1929; Albania, 1933; retired, 1934. Author: Albanian Wonder Tales, 1936; The Golden Legend of Ethiopia (the love story of Mâqedâ, virgin queen of Axum and Sheba, and Solomon the Great King), 1936; India and Some Historic Parallels, 1940; Hathoo of the Elephants, 1943; India Against the Storm, 1944; Dragon in the Dust, 1946, etc. Address: 7300 Hollywood Blvd., Hollywood, California.

WHEELER, Lt. General RAYMOND ALBERT, American Army Officer; born July 31, 1885, Peoria, Ill.; educated at U. S. Military Acad., West Point, N. Y.; commissioned 2nd Lieut., Engineers, 1911. Promoted 1st Lieut., 1913, and subsequently advanced through the various grades to rank of Lieutenant General. Served at various army posts, 1911-18. Participated in various campaigns in France, 1918; served as Regimental Commander and Division Engineer with Occupation Army in Germany; with American Commission to Negotiate Peace and with War Damages Board, Italy, 1919. Engineer of Maintenance, Panama Canal, 1940-41; Acting Assistant Chief of Staff, Washington, D. C., 1941; with Army Group, Washington, D. C., 1941; went overseas with a military mission; in command of Headquarters, Services of Supply, China-Burma-India Theatre of Operations 1942-43; Principal Administrative Officer, Southeast Asia Command, since 1944; Deputy Supreme Allied Commander, Southeast Asia Command, since Nov. 1944; Commander, India-Burma-Theater, since June, 1945; Chief of Engineers since Oct. 1945. Awards: Distinguished Service Medal; Oak Leaf Cluster, 1943. Address: War Department, Washington, D. C.

WHEELER, Dr. THOMAS SHERLOCK, Irish Chemist; born Apr. 30, 1899, Dublin, Ireland; son of Martin R. and Brigid (Sherlock) Wheeler; educated at Royal College of Science of Ireland (Fellow), 1924; London Univ., Ph.D. 1924; National Univ. of Ireland, D.Sc. 1938; married Una Brigid Sherlock, Mar. 20, 1926; two children. Demonstrator in Chemistry, Royal Technical College, Glasgow, 1920; Research Chemist, Royal Naval Cordite Factory, Dorset, England, 1921-23; Research Chemist, Royal Arsenal, Woolwich, England, 1923-28; Group Leader, Winnington Laboratories, Imperial Chemical Industries, Ltd., 1928-31; Principal and Prof. of Organic Chemistry, Royal Inst. of Science, Bombay, 1931-38; State Chemist, Ireland, 1938-45; Prof. of Chemistry, University College, Dublin, since 1945. Fellow: Royal Inst. of Chemistry; Inst. of Physics; Natl. Inst. of Sciences of India (Ex-Vice-Pres.). Member: Institution of Chemical Engineers; Royal Irish Acad. (Member of Council); Governing Board, School of Theoretical Physics, Dublin Inst. for Advanced Physics; Eire Industrial Research and Standards Committees. Director: Irish Alcohol Factories, Ltd.; Turf Development Board. Ltd. as a nominee of Government of Eire. Member of Eire Emergency Scientific Research Bureau during World War II. Author of research papers on chemistry. Co-author: Systematic Organic Chemistry (with Cumming and Hopper); Physico-Chemical Methods (with Reilly and Rae). Address: University College, Dublin, Ireland.

WHEELER, WALTER H., JR., American Manufacturer; born Feb. 21, 1897, New York, N. Y.; son of Walter Heber and Charlotte (Dutton) Wheeler; educated at Harvard, 1918; married; two sons. With Universal Stamping Machine Co., Stamford, Conn., predecessors of Pitney-Bowes, Inc., 1919; factory worker, inspector, serviceman, salesman, Special European Representative, New York Branch Manager and General Manager; elected Vice-President and General Manager at a later date; Pres. and Dir., since 1938. Pres. and Dir., Pitney-Bowes of Canada, Inc. Served with French in 1916 as member of Amer. Ambulance Field Service; decorated with Croix de Guerre; with U. S. Navy, 1917-18, as Lieut. commanding Submarine Chaser Unit in the Adriatic; awarded Navy Cross. Deputy Dir., Div. of Contract Distribution, Office of Production Management, Washington, D. C., Oct.-Dec. 1941; Chief, Contract Distribution Branch, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Jan. through May, 1942; New England Regional Director, War Production Board, 1942-44. Member of Business Advisory Council, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C.; Member of Patent Office Advisory Committee, Department of Commerce, 1938-44; Director, Office Equipment Manufacturers Inst., 1935-44. Chmn., Industrial Com. and Dir., New England Council; Chmn., Stamford-Greenwich Mfrs. Council; Dir., Stamford Chamber of Commerce, etc. Residence: Soundview Ave. Office: Corner of Walnut, Pacific and Crosby Sts., Stamford, Conn.

WHEELER, WALTER HALL, American Consulting Engineer; born April 15, 1883, Potsdam, N. Y.; son of Charles Hall and Frances Spencer (Knowles) Wheeler; educated at Univ. of Minn., E.M. 1906; married Eva M. Blasdell, Feb. 1, 1911; one son. Mining and construction engineer, Colorado Fuel & Iron Co., 1906. Superintendent, Construction of the Dawson Fuel Co., a subsidiary of the Phelps Dodge Corp., 1907. Member, engineering and contracting firm, Jones & Wheeler, Denver, 1908; Secretary-Treasurer and Chief Engineer of Jones-Wheeler-Cranmer Engineering Co., 1908-12. Engaged in independent practice as a designing and consulting engineer with offices in Minneapolis, since 1912. Important commissions: Fort Snelling-Mendota Bridge Project near Minneapolis, largest bridge of reinforced concrete multiple rib arch construction in the world, 4-119 feet long, 60'8" wide, 120 feet high, caisson foundations 60 to 90 feet deep, also connecting highways. Engineer and architect, Cream of Wheat Factory and Office in Minneapolis, Athletic Stadium, University of North Dakota, Mabeth Paige Hall in Minneapolis, and of various industrial buildings. Invented the "smooth ceilings" system of beamless reinforced concrete floor construction for fireproof buildings, 1929. Residence: 4209 Dupont Avenue, S. Office: 802 Metropolitan Life Bldg., Minneapolis 1, Minn.

WHEELER, WILMOT FITCH, American Industrialist; born Aug. 23, 1882, Trumbull, Conn.; son of Wilmot Clark and Sarah Fitch (Curtiss) Wheeler; educated at Yale, LL.B., 1903; married Hulda D. Chapman, Dec. 31, 1921; two children. Admitted to Connecticut Bar, 1903. With American Chain & Cable Co., Inc., since 1916; Director, since 1919; Treas., 1920; Exec. Vice-Pres. and Treas., 1936, Pres., 1946—. Pres. and Dir., Wilson Mechanical Instrument Co.; Chmn. of Bd., Maryland Bolt & Nut Co. Vice-Pres. and Director: American Fabrics Co.; Owen Silent Spring Co.; Dominion Chain Co., Ltd. Niagara Falls, Ont., Canada. Pres. and Dir., C. O. Jelliff Mfg. Corp. Director: American Mutual Liability Ins. Co.; Bridgeport City Trust Co.; Michigan Chemical Co. (St. Louis, Mich.); Centennial Development Co. Trustee, Bridgeport Orphan Asylum; The William T. Morris Foundation; The Wilmot Wheeler, Foundation. Residence: Sasco Hill Road, Southport, Conn. Office: Bridgeport, Conn.

WHEELER-BENNETT, JOHN W., British Historian; born Oct. 13, 1902, Keston, Kent, England; son of John W. and Christina Hill (McNutt) Wheeler-Bennett; educated at Wellington House, Westgate-on-Sea, Kent, 1912-17; Malvern College, Worcestershire, 1917-20; married Ruth Harrison Risher, Mar. 26, 1945. Asst. Publicity Secy., League of Nations Union, 1923-24; Founder and Hon. Secy., Information Service on Internatl. Affairs, 1924-30; Hon. Information Secy., Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs, 1927-31; Founder and Editor, Bulletin of Internatl. News, 1924-32; Lecturer on Internatl. Law and Relations, Univ. of Virginia, 1937-39; Adviser to British Library of Information, New York, 1939-40; Asst. Director, British Press Service, New York, 1940-41; Special Asst. to Director-General, British Information Services, New York, 1941-42; Head of New York Office of British Political Warfare Mission in U. S., 1942-44; European Adviser and Asst. Director-General, Political Intelligence Dept., Foreign Office, London, 1944-45; Asst. to British Political Adviser to SHAEF, 1944-45; Consultant to British War Crimes Executive (European Section), 1946. Lecturer in Internatl. Relations, New College, Oxford, 1946-47. Member: Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs; Internatl. Law Assn. Officer, Order of British Empire (O.B.E.), 1946. Author: Reduction of Armaments, 1925; The Problem of Security, 1927; Renunciation of War, 1928; The Reparation Settlement, 1930; Disarmament and Security Since Locarno, 1932; The Wreck of Reparations, 1933; Disarmament Deadlock, 1934; The Pipe-Dream of Peace, 1935; Hindenburg, the Wooden Titan, 1936; Brest-Litovsk, the Forgotten Peace, 1938; Munich, Prologue to Tragedy, 1947; The Nuremberg Trials, 1945-46. Address: Garsington Manor, nr. Oxford, Eng.

WHEELOCK, JOHN HALL, American Writer; born 1886. Author: The Human Fantasy, 1911; The Beloved Adventure (poems), 1912; Love and Liberation (the Songs of Adsched of Meru and Other Poems), 1913; Dust and Light, 1919; A Bibliography of Theodore Roosevelt, 1920; The Black Panther (poems), 1922; The Bright Doom (poems), 1927; Poems, 1911-1936, 1936, etc. Member, National Inst. of Arts and Letters. Address: 350 E. 57th St., New York, N. Y.

WHELAN, Most Rev. LAWRENCE PATRICK, D.D., Canadian Ecclesiastic; born October 16, 1899, Montreal, Quebec, Canada; son of Thomas H. and Elzire (Lacroix) Whelan; studied in Montreal College of St. Sulpice; Seminary of Philosophy (B.A., B.Sc. 1921); Seminary of Theology (1921-25). Ordained 1925. Professor of English, Montreal College, 1925-30; Assistant Pastor, St. Augustine's Church, 1930-32; Chancellor, Diocese of Montreal, 1932-40; Professor of Sociology, Technical Institute, 1934-40; Canon, Cathedral Chapter, 1938. Vicar General of Diocese, Nov. 1940; consecrated Bishop of Opos and Auxiliary Bishop of Montreal, Aug. 1941. Hon. President of St. Mary's Hospital; Chairman of Board, Marianopolis College; Director, Canadian National Institute of the Blind, and Province of Quebec Society for Crippled Children; Hon. President of Federation of Catholic Charities; National Chaplain, Knights of Columbus; President, Montreal College Alumni. Member of Canadian Catholic Historical Association; Patron, Cathespian Guild; Chairman of Board, Catholic Centre; Patron of Xavier Apostolic Guild; Secretary, Diocesan Camp Corporation; Chaplain-General of International Apostolate of the Sea. Address: Archbishop's House, Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

WHERRY, Hon. KENNETH SPICER, U. S. Senator (for Nebraska); born Feb. 28, 1892, Liberty, Neb.; son of David E. and Jessie (Comstock) Wherry; educated at University of Nebraska, A.B. 1914; studied law at Harvard University, 1915-16; married Marjorie Colwell, Sept. 15, 1920; two children. Partner in Wherry Bros., 1915; engaged in sale of autos, farm machinery and furniture, and in undertaking, 1918-30; licensed undertaker in Kansas, Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska. Served on Pawnee City Council, 1927-29; Mayor of Pawnee, 1929-31 and from 1938-43. State Senator for 10th District, 1929-32; Republican Candidate for Governor, 1933. Republican Candidate for United States Senate, 1935. Served on the State Central Committee, 1938-42; Republican State Chairman, 1939. Western Director for Republican National Committee, 1941-42. Elected to United States Senate, Nov. 1942, term ending 1949. Republican Whip of Senate. During First World War, served with the U. S. Naval Flying Corps. Residence: 444 Argyle Dr., Alexandria, Va. Office: 109 Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WHIDDEN, Rev. Dr. HOWARD PRIMROSE, Canadian Clergyman, Editor, Educator; born July 12, 1871, Antigonish, N. S.; educated at Acadia Univ.; McMaster Univ.; Univ. of Chicago; received B.A. D.D., LL.D. and D.C.L. degrees; married Katherine Louise Ganong, Oct. 4, 1894; six children. Held pastorates in Morden, Man. and Galt, Ont., until 1900. Prof. at Brandon College, 1900-03; Pastor, First Baptist Church, Dayton, Ohio, 1904-12; Pres., Brandon College, 1912-23. Chancellor, McMaster Univ., (Hamilton), 1923-41. Now Editor, The Canadian Baptist. Unionist Member of House of Commons, 1917. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Canada. Address: 233 Church St., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

WHIDDINGTON, Dr. RICHARD, British Physicist; born Nov. 25, 1885, London, England; son of Richard and Ada (Fitzgerald) Whiddington; educated at St. John's College, Cambridge, B.A. 1908, M.A 1911, D.Sc., London, 1913; married Katherine Reochgrant, 1919; two children. Asst. Demonstrator, Cavendish Laboratory, 1909; Fellow, St. John's College, Cambridge, 1911-19; Scientist, Royal Aircraft Factory, Farnborough, 1914-15; Lt. and Captain, R.F.C., 1916; Major, R.A.F., 1918; Cavendish Prof. of Physics, Leeds Univ., since 1919. In Admiralty Scientific Service, 1940-42; Deputy Director, Scientific Research, Ministry of Supply, 1942-45; Scientific Editor, Leeds Philosophical Soc. Proceedings. Fellow: Royal Soc. of London; Cambridge Philosophical Soc.; Inst. of Physics. Member, Leeds Philosophical and Literary Soc. Decorated C.B.E. Author of numerous papers for learned societies since 1910. Address: The University, Leeds, Yorkshire, England.

WHIPPLE, Dr. ALLEN OLDFATHER, American Surgeon; born 1881, educated at Princeton Univ., B.S. 1904; Columbia Univ., College of Physicians and Surgeons, M.D. 1908, Sc.D. 1929. Served as Valentine Mott Prof. of Surgery, Columbia Univ. College of Physicians and Surgeons; Dir. of Surigcal Service, Presbyterian Hosp., New York City; retired 1946. Member of Medical Faculty and Trustee, American Univ. of Beirut, Lebanon, 1946 —. Fellow, American College of Surgeons; Hon. Fellow, Royal College of Surgeons; Member, Amer. Med. Assn., etc. Address: 111 E. 75th St., New York, N. Y.

WHIPPLE, CHARLES JOHN, American Industrialist; born July 10, 1885, Chicago, Ill.; son of Charles Backus and Almira Elizabeth (Hayward) Whipple; educated at Chicago Manual Training School; Univ. of Michigan, B.S. in E.E. 1907; married Elsa Kempf, April 2, 1910; two children. With Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co., since 1908; Salesman, 1908-12; Supt., 1913-16; General Manager, 1916-20; Vice-President, 1920-26; Pres., 1926-46; Chairman since 1946. Director, First National Bank of Chicago; Protection Mutual Fire Ins. Co.; Atchinson, Topeka & Santa Fe Ry. Co.; H. Channon Co.; Western Electric Co.; Columbia Mills, Inc.; Northern New York Power Corp. Trustee: Northwestern Mutual Life Ins. Co.; St. Luke's Hospital. Director: Chicago Home for the Friendless. Pres., Chicago Board of Education, 1947. Residence: 233 East Walton Place. Office: 211 East North Water St., Chicago, Ill.

WHIPPLE, Dr. FRED LAWRENCE, American Astronomer; born Nov. 5, 1906, Red Oak, Iowa; son of Harry L. and Celestia (MacFarland) Whipple; educated at Occidental College, 1923-24; Univ. of California, Berkeley, Ph.D. 1931; married Dorothy Woods, July 7, 1927 (divorced, 1935); one son. Lectured at Stanford Univ. (summer session), 1929; Univ. of California (summer session), 1931; on Staff of Harvard Univ. since 1931; now Assoc. Prof. of Astronomy. Research Assoc., Radio Research Laboratory of N.D.R.C. of O.S.R.D., 1943-45. Member: Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Amer. Astronomical Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Awarded six Donahue Medals for independent discovery of comets. Author: Earth, Moon and Planets, 1941. Address: 60 Garden St., Cambridge, Mass.

WHIPPLE, Dr. GEORGE HOYT, American Pathologist; Co-Winner of Nobel Prize in Medicine (1934); born August 28, 1878, Ashland, N. H.; son of Ashley Cooper and Frances (Hoyt) Whipple; educated at Yale A.B. 1900; Johns Hopkins Univ., M.D. 1905; married Katharine Ball Waring, June 24, 1914; two children. Asst. in Pathol., Johns Hopkins Med. School, 1905-06 and Instr., 1906-07. Pathol., Ancon Hosp., Panama, 1907-08; Assoc. in Pathol., 1909-11, and Assoc. Prof., 1911-14, Johns Hopknis Med. School; Res. Pathol., Johns Hopkins Hosp., 1910-14; Prof. of Research Med., Univ. of Calif.; Dir., Hooper Foundation for Med. Research, Univ. of Calif., 1914-21; Dean, Univ. of Calif. Med. School, 1920-21. Prof. of Pathol. and Dean, Univ. of Rochester School of Med. and Dentistry, since 1921. Trustee, Rockefeller Foundation, 1927-43; Member, Board of Scientific Directors, since 1936, and Member, Board of Trustees, since 1939; The Rockefeller Institute for Med. Research; Member and Trustee, General Education Board, 1936-43. Member of National Academy of Sciences; American Philosophical Society. Hon. Member, Pathological Soc. of Great Britain and Ireland. Author of two hundred publications on anemia, pigment metabolism, blood plasma proteins, bile salt metabolism, liver injury and repair, shock and related subjects. Res.: 320 Westminster Rd. Office: 260 Crittenden Blvd., Rochester, N. Y.

WHISKARD, Sir GEOFFREY GRANVILLE, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., British Civil Servant; born Aug. 19, 1886, London, England; son of Ernest and Lucy (Sutton) Whiskard; educated at Wadham College, Oxford, B.A. 1909, M.A. 1935; honorary LL.D. Melbourne University, 1937; married Cynthia Reeves, 1915 (died 1940); three children. Civil Servant, 1911. Clerk in Home Office, 1911; Private Secretary to Secretary of State for Home Affairs, 1915-20; Assistant Secretary in the Office of the Chief Secretary for Ireland, 1920-22; Assistant Secretary, Dominions Office, 1922-32. Assistant Under-Secretary of State for Dominion Affairs, 1932-36; High Commissioner, Commonwealth of Australia for H.M. Government in United Kingdom, 1936-41. Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Works, 1941-43; Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Town and Country Planning, London, 1943—. Author: How We Are Governed, 1926. Residence: 156 Sloane St., London, England.

WHITAKER, ALBERT WILLIAM, JR., Canadian Engineer; born Apr. 4, 1892, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Albert William and Anna (Rienert) Whitaker; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania, B.S. in Ch.E. 1913, Chemical Engineer, 1930; married Seveda Hales, June 29, 1915; two sons. Research engineer, 1913; electrode plant supt., 1918-28; alumina plant supt., 1928-30; with Aluminum Co. of Canada, Ltd., since 1927; Manager of Arvida Works, 1930-39; Chief Engineer, 1939-41; General Manager, 1941-43; Vice-Pres. and General Manager, Aluminum Co. of Canada, Ltd., since 1943. Director: Roberval and Saguenay Railway Co.; Saguenay Terminals Ltd.; Chaguaramas Terminals Ltd.; Demerara Bauxite Co., Ltd.; Saguenay Electric Co.; Aluminum Goods Ltd.; Newfoundland Flurospar Ltd.; Saguenay Transmission Co., Ltd.; Alma & Jonquieres Railway Co. Address: 1700 Sun Life Bldg., Montreal, Quebec, Can.

WHITAKER, Dr. BENJAMIN PALMER, American Economist; born July 30, 1899, Newburgh, N. Y.; son of Lewis S. and Mary Elizabeth (Palmer) Whitaker; educated at Colgate Univ., A.B. 1921; Yale Univ., M.A. 1925, Ph.D. 1931; married Helen Frances Johnson, Sept. 5, 1925; four children. Instructor in Economics, Yale Univ., 1925-29; Visiting Prof., 1930-31; Staff Member, Brookings Institution, 1931-33; Research Director, Connecticut Special Tax Commn., 1933-35; Director of the Budget, State of Connecticut, 1937-39; Prof. of Economics, Union College, since 1939. Comptroller, Union College, 1943-45; Acting Pres., 1945-46. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Amer. Statistical Assn.; National Tax Assn.; Amer. Soc. for Public Administration. Author: Taxation Sections of Reports on Administrative Reorganization of States of Mississippi, 1931, Alabama, 1932, New Hampshire, 1932, and Iowa, 1933 (by Brookings Institution); Report of Connecticut Comm. on Reorganization of State Departments, 1937. Address: Union College, Schenectady, New York.

WHITAKER, Dr. DOUGLAS MERRITT, American Biologist; born Mar. 5, 1904, Stanford Univ., Calif.; son of Albert C. and Mary (Merritt) Whitaker; educated at Stanford Univ., A.B. 1926, Ph.D. 1928; Columbia Univ., 1927; Carnegie Research Assoc., Tortugas Laboratory, summer 1926; married Edith Morgan, Aug. 2, 1928; two children. Instructor in Physiology, Stanford Univ., 1928-29; Asst. Prof. of Experimental Zoology, Columbia Univ., 1929-31 (on leave, 1929-30); Natl. Research Council Fellow, Harvard Univ., 1929-30; Assoc. Prof. of Biology, Stanford Univ., 1931-32; Prof. of Biology since 1932; Acting Dean of School of Biological Sciences since 1946. Instructor in Embryology, Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Mass., summer 1938; Executive Secy., Division of Biology and Agriculture, Natl. Research Council, Washington, D. C., 1943; Chief of Science Section, Amer. Univ. of the U. S. Army, Shrivenham, England, 1945. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Soc. for Experimental Biology and Medicine; Western Soc. of Naturalists; Amer. Genetics Assn., etc. Author of numerous research and review papers in many biological journals. Address: Stanford Univ., Calif.

WHITAKER, FREDERIC, American Painter; born Jan. 9, 1891, Providence,

R. I.; son of Edward and Ada (Hands) Whitaker; educated in public school; married Marie Tiedge, Sept. 20, 1912; one son, one daughter. Represented in permanent collections of museums at: Auburn, N. Y.; Pocatello, Idaho; Providence, R. I.; Atchison, Kansas; New York City. Pres., Providence Water Color Club, 1936-37; Audubon Artists, New York, 1944-47. Director: Amer. Artists Professional League; Amer. Water Color Soc.; Audubon Artists; Municipal Art Soc.; Fine Arts Federation of New York. Member. Natl. Acad. of Design (Assoc.); National Soc. of Mural Painters (Hon.); Salmagundi Club; Allied Artists of America; Architectural League of New York, etc. Awards: Oakland, Calif. (3); New York (5); Gloucester, Mass.; Washington, D. C.; Bridgeport, Conn. (2); Parkersburg, W. Va., etc. Residence: Wickford, R. I. Office: 107 Chambers St., New York, 7, New York.

WHITAKER, JOHN CLARK, American Industrialist; born Aug. 7, 1891, Winston-Salem, N. C.; son of William Asbury and Anna (Bitting) Whitaker; educated at Univ. of North Carolina, B.A. 1912; married Elisabeth Norman, July 17, 1936; three children. Associated with R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. since 1913; Manager of Cigarette Dept., 1913-17; Manager of Personnel Dept., 1919-37; Member, Bd. of Directors, 1935—; Vice-Pres., 1937-48; Pres., 1948—. During World War I served in U. S. Navy, 1917-19. Residence: Brookstown Road. Office: R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.

WHITAKER, Dr. MARTIN D., American University President; born 1902, Ellenboro, N. C.; graduated Wake Forest College, 1927; Univ. of North Carolina, Master's degree in Physics, 1930; New York Univ., Ph.D., 1935; married Helen Williams; two daughters. Acting Chmn., Dept. of Physics, New York Univ., until 1942, when joined Metallurgical Lab., Univ. of Chicago, to work on program leading to development of first atomic bomb; Director of Clinton Laboratories, Oak Ridge, Tenn., until 1946. Pres., Lehigh Univ., since 1946. Author of numerous papers on nuclear physics. Fellow: Amer. Physical Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Address: Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa.

WHITAKER Dr. MILTON C., American Chemical Engineer; born Dec. 16, 1870, Frazeysburg, O.; son of Reuben B. and Jennie (Magruder) Whitaker; educated at Univ. of Colo., B.S. 1898, M.S. 1900, LL.D. 1913; University of Pittsburgh, D.Chem. Engineering, 1915; married Mabel Martin, July 9, 1900, (2nd) Frances Strader Culver, June 16, 1934; two sons. Instructor in Chemistry, University of Colorado, 1898; Instructor in Chemistry, Columbia University, 1902; Chemist, 1903; General Superintendent of Welsbach Co., 1903-10; Professor of Chemical Engineering, Columbia Univ., 1911-17. Vice-Pres., of U. S. Industrial Alcohol Co. and as President of U. S. Industrial Chemicals, Inc., 1917-27; engaged in consulting practice in New York City, 1927-30. Vice-Pres. and Dir. of American Cyanamid Co., 1930-46; Consultant, 1947—. Awarded Perkin Medal "for distinguished services to applied chemistry," 1923. Member: American Institute of Chemical Engineers (President, 1914); American Institute of Chemists; American Chemical Society; Society of Chemical Industry; American Association for the Advancement of Science; Expansion of Chemical Industries (Advisory Committee); Chemical Warfare Service (Advisory Board); Chemists Club. Residence: Elk Neck Highway, North East, Md. Office: 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, N. Y.

WHITAKER, Hon. SAMUEL E., American Jurist; born September 25, 1886, Winchester, Tenn.; son of Madison Newton and Florence Jarrett (Griffin) Whitaker; educated at University of Virginia, 1905-06; University of Chattanooga, LL.B. 1909; married Lillian Nelson Chambliss, June 30, 1913; three children. Admitted to Tennessee Bar, 1909; practiced privately in Chattanooga until 1917; Captain, United States Army, 1917-19. Attorney, United States Department of Justice, 1919; Attorney for the Bureau of Internal Revenue, 1920; practiced privately in Chattanooga, 1921-37; City Attorney of Chattanooga, 1923; member, law firm of Whitaker & Whitaker, 1924-37; Special Assistant to the Attorney-General of the U. S., 1933-37; Assistant Attorney-General of the U. S., 1937-39; Judge, United States Court of Claims, since 1939. Residence: 4921 Quebec St., N. W., Washington 16, D. C. Office: 17th and Pennsylvania Ave., Washington 16, D. C.

WHITAKER, THOMAS PLEASANT, American Lawyer; born September 3, 1899, Franklin, Ga.; son of Daniel Brittain and Minnie Beatrice (Armstrong) Whitaker; educated at Atlanta Law School, LL.B. 1923; married Ruth Hutcheson, August 25, 1925; two children. Admitted to the Bar of Florida, 1923. Member, Charter Board for City of Tampa (Florida), 1927. Member, Florida State Board of Law Examiners, 1928-32. Member, firm of Whitaker Brothers (Pat, Tom and D. B. Whitaker), since 1923. Member: Hillsborough County and Tampa Bar Assn.; Florida State Bar Assn. Served in Marine Corps during First World War. Residence: 3405 Almeria Ave. Office: 310 Tampa Gas Bldg., Tampa, Fla.

WHITBY, Dr. GEORGE STAFFORD, British Chemist; born May 26, 1887, Hull, England; son of Stafford B. and Harriet (Smith) Whitby; educated at Royal College of Science, London, 1903-10, A.R.C. Sc., B.Sc.; McGill University, Montreal, M.Sc., Ph.D., D.Sc. Research Chemist, 1906. Demonstrator, Imperial College of Science and Technology, 1906-10; Chemist, Sociéte Financière des Caoutchoucs, 1910-17; became Asst. Professor, McGill University, 1920-21; Associate Professor, 1921-23; Professor of Organic Chemistry, 1923-29. Director, Division of Chemistry, National Research Council, Ottawa, 1929-39. Director, Chemical Research Laboratory, Dept. of Scientific and Industrial Research, Teddington, England, 1939-42. Professor, Rubber Chemistry and Director, Rubber Research, University of Akron, since 1942. President: Canadian Institute of Chemistry, 1927; Canadian Chemical Assn., 1928. Member, American Chemical Society (Associate Editor, 1934-39). Chairman, Canadian Synthetic Rubber Technical Advisory Committee. Received Colwyn Gold Medal from the Institution of the Rubber Industry; Officier d'Académie; Hon. LL.D., Mt. Allison University. Fellow, Royal Society of Canada. Author: Plantation Rubber and the Testing of Rubber, 1920; Rubber, Gutta-Percha and Balata in International Critical Tables, 1926; Synthetic Rubber, 1933, etc. Address: University of Akron, Akron, Ohio.

WHITCHURCH, Rev. Dr. IRL GOLDWIN, American Theologian; born Sept. 7, 1889, Marissa, Ill.; son of Joseph C. and Caroline S. (Hackmeister) Whitchurch; educated at Northwestern Univ., A.B. 1916, M.A. 1917; Garrett Biblical Inst., B.D. 1919; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1921; married Anna Dean Kellman, Aug. 2, 1917; one son. Ordained Methodist Minister, 1912. Student pastorates in McLean, Ill., 1913-14; Creston, Ill., 1914-15; Elmhurst, Ill., 1915-16; Chicago, Ill., 1917-19;

Ithaca, N. Y., 1919-21, and in Glencoe, Ill., 1921-23. Taught Ethics and Philosophy of Religion, Garrett Biblical Inst., Evanston, Ill., 1921-45; Dean and Prof. of Christian Theology, Graduate School of Religion, Univ. of Southern California, since Sept. 1945. Member: Amer. Philosophical Assn.; Amer. Theological Soc. Pres., Midwestern branch, 1938; Secy.-Treas. 1941-45). Author: The Religious Situation (Theology and Modern Life), 1940; Christian Ethics (Church Looks Ahead), 1933; Philosophical Basis of Asceticism, 1923; An Enlightened Conscience, 1941; also numerous articles on philosophy of religion. Address: 3551 University Ave., Los Angeles 7, Calif.

WHITCOMBE, Major Gen. PHILIP SIDNEY, British Army Officer; born Oct. 3, 1893, Windsor, Berkshire, England; son of the late Robert Henry (Bishop of Colchester) and Annie (Evans) Whitcombe; educated at Winchester College, 1907-10; married Madeleine Leila B. Symonds, Oct. 23, 1919; two sons. Entered Royal Army Service Corps as 2nd Lieut., 1914; served in France, Belgium, 1914-18; promoted Lieut., 1915; Captain, 1917; returned to England, 1920; graduated Staff College, 1926; in India, as Brigade Major, 1927-32; promoted Brevet Major, 1933; DAAG Northern Command, York, 1934-36; G.S.O. 2 War Office, 1936-38; promoted Brevet Lieut.-Col., 1939. During World War II, served in France, 1939-40; Gibraltar, 1941-42 as Brigadier (Administration); promoted Col., 1942; Major General, 1943; M. G. A. Eastern Command since 1943. Awarded O.B.E., 1941; C.B., 1944. Mentioned in despatches, 1940. Residence: Earlscourt House, Amesbury, Wiltshire, England. Office: M. G. A. Eastern Command, London, England.

WHITE, Dr. ALBERT EASTON, American Engineer; born March 12, 1884, Plainville, Mass.; son of Albert N. and William (Easton) White; educated at Brown University, A.B. 1907, (hon.) Sc.D. 1925; Harvard, 1907-08; married Margaret Belle Arnold, 1911 (deceased); (2nd) Elsie Speckman Hauswald, 1935; one son. Engineer with Jones & Laughlin Steel Co., 1908-11; on Faculty, University of Michigan, since 1911. Instructor in Chemical Engineering, 1911-13; Assistant Professor, 1913-17; Head, Metallurgical Branch, Insp. Div., 1917-19; Head, Metal. Branch, Tech. Staff, Ordnance Dept., U. S. Army, 1919; Capt., Major, Lt.-Col. Prof. since 1919. Dir. of Engineering Research since 1920. Consulting Engineer for: Detroit Edison Co.; Philadelphia Electric Co.; American Gas and Electric Service Corp., Consolidated Gas Electric Light & Power Co., etc. Ex-Chairman, Metallurgical Section, National Defense Research Committee; Member, War Metallurgy Committee, National Defense Research Committee, Office of Scientific Research and Development. Ex-President, American Society for Testing Materials. Fellow and Ex-Pres., Amer. Soc. of Metallurgical Engineers. Address: 2034 E. Engineering Bldg., Ann Arbor, Mich.

WHITE, Dr. ALFRED HOLMES, American Engineer; born April 29, 1873, Peoria, Ill.; son of Samuel Holmes and Jennie Elison (McLaren) White; educated at Univ. of Michigan, A.B. 1893, B.S. (Ch.E.) 1904; Federal Polytechnic Institute at Zurich, Switzerland, 1896-97; Northwestern University, Sc.D. (Hon.) 1942; married Rebecca Mason Downey, July 28, 1903; two children. Member of Faculty, Chemical Engineering, University of Michigan, since 1897. Chairman, Dept. of Chemical and Metallurgical Engineering, 1914-42. Director of Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. President: American Institute of Chemical Engineers, 1929-31; Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, 1941-42. Author: Technical Gas and Fuel Analysis, 1st ed., 1913, 2nd ed., 1920; Engineering Materials, 1939. Residence: 608 Onondaga St. Office: University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

WHITE, ALLEN HUNTER, American Lawyer; born April 13, 1896, Springerton, Ill.; son of John Monroe and Lee Jane (Hunter) White; educated at Univ. of Cincinnati, 1915-17; University of Pennsylvania, LL.B. 1922; married Caroline Yale Crouter, Aug. 4, 1924; three children. Admitted to the bar, 1922; engaged in law practice to date. Librarian, Law Secretary at the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, 1922-25; associated with the law firm of Ballard, Spahr, Andrews & Ingersoll, Philadelphia, since 1925; member of firm since 1931. Member: American Law Institute; Third Federal Circuit Judicial Conference; American Bar Assn.; Pennsylvania Bar Assn. (Committee on work of American Law Institute); Philadelphia Bar Assn. (Chairman of Committee on International and Foreign Law); American Judicature Society; American Society of International Law (member of Executive Council). Delegate to Inter-American Bar Assn. Conf., Havana. Trustee, The Shipley School. Residence: Fenimore Lane, St. David's, Pa. Office: 1935 Land Title Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa.

WHITE, ARTHUR FRANK, Canadian Banker; born March 7, 1884, Markham Ont.; son of M. and Alice (Hook) White; educated in public elementary and secondary schools of Markham; married Florence Lillian McGlashan, Mar. 25, 1925; two daughters. Junior clerk with Standard Bank of Canada, 1900; held various posts with institution until 1911; joined Dominion Securities Corp. Ltd., 1911; Pres., 1929-45. Director, Standard Bank, 1923; Pres., 1924; upon merger of Standard Bank with Canadian Bank of Commerce, became Vice-Pres., 1928. Chmn., St. Lawrence Corp.; Pres., Brompton Pulp & Paper Co. Ltd.; Vice-Pres. and Managing Dir., St. Lawrence Paper Mills Co. Ltd. and Lake St. John Power & Paper Co. Ltd.; Pres., The Trusts and Guarantee Co. Ltd. Director: Tri-Continental Corp.; National Investors Corp.; General Shareholdings Corp.; Confederation Life Assn.; Toronto Mortgage Co.; Dominion & Anglo Investment Corp.; Debenture & Securities Corp.; Union Gas Co. of Canada, Ltd.; Provincial Paper Ltd.; Sangamo Co. Ltd.; Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines Ltd. Trustee, Hospital for Sick Children; Member. Corp. of Trinity College; Member, Investment Com., St. James's Cathedral. Residence: 5 Hawthorne Gardens. Office: 15 King St., West, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

WHITE, Dr. CARL MILTON, American Librarian; born Aug. 12, 1903, Burnet, Okla.; son of Josiah M. and Jennie (Patterson) White; educated at Okla. Baptist Univ., A.B. 1925; Mercer Univ., M.A. 1928; Cornell University, Ph.D. 1933; Columbia University, B.S. in L.S. 1934; married Ruth E. Bennett, Aug. 5, 1928; two daughters. Principal, Bacone College, 1925-26; Acting President, 1926-27. Instructor, Burleson College, 1928-29. Librarian, Fisk University, 1934-38; Librarian, Chairman of Division of Library and Library School and Professor of library science at University of North Carolina, 1938-40; University Librarian, Director of the Library and the Library School, University of Illinois, 1940-44; Director of Libraries and Dean, School of Library Service, Columbia University, since 1944. Address: Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

WHITE, Most Rev. CHARLES DANIEL, Catholic Bishop; born Jan. 5, 1879, Grand Rapids, Mich.; son of Patrick and Catherine (Bolger) White; educated at St. Francis Seminary, Milwaukee, 1905-05; Univ.

de Propaganda Fide, Rome, Italy, Ph.D. 1907, S.T.D. 1911; University of Portland, LL.D. 1940. Ordained Sept. 24, 1910. Assistant Pastor, St. Andrew's Cathedral, Grand Rapids, Mich., 1911-19; Rector, St. Joseph's Seminary, 1919-26. Made Domestic Prelate with title of Monsignor by Pope Pius XI, 1925; appointed Bishop, Diocese of Spokane by Pope Pius XI, Dec. 20, 1926. Residence: E 238 13th Ave. Office: S 317 Howard St., Spokane, Wash.

WHITE, Dr. CHARLES JAMES, American Dermatologist; born Dec. 26, 1868, Boston, Mass.; son of James Clarke and Martha Ann (Ellis) White; educated at Harvard, A.B. 1890, M.D. 1893; married Olivia A. Richardson, June 29, 1893; three children. Studied medicine in London, Paris and Vienna, two years; began practice of Dermatol., Boston, Mass., 1895; Asst. Physician of Diseases of Skin, Mass. General Hosp., 1895-1903; Physician, 1903; then Chief of Dermatol. Dept., 1925-27; Bd. Consultant, 1927-39; Hon. Physician, 1939. He was Asst. in Dermatol., Harvard Med. School, 1898-1902; Instructor, 1902-11; Asst. Prof., 1911-16; Prof., 1916-27; now Prof. Emeritus. Member, Bd. of Dirs. of Archives of Dermatol. and Syphilol.; Member of Editing Bd. of two German dermatological journals. Hon. Member: Amer. Dermatol. Assn. (Pres., 1915-16); New England Soc. of Dermatol. and Syphilol. and Amer. Acad. of Dermatol. and Syphilol.; Member of Amer. Med. Assn. (Chairman of Section on Dermatol. 1910-12); Mass. Med. Soc. (Chairman of Section on Dermatol., 1938); London Dermatol. Soc.; British Assn. of Dermatol. and Syphilol.; French Dermatol. Soc.; Vienna Dermatol. Soc. and British Royal Soc. of Med.; Danish Dermatol. Soc. Author of numerous articles in various medical and scientific journals. Address: 259 Marlborough St., Boston, Mass.

WHITE, CHARLES McELROY, American Industrialist; born June 13, 1891, Oakland, Md.; son of Charles Franklin and Estella Virginia (Jarboe) White; educated at Univ. of Maryland, M.E.; married Helen Gordon Bradley, 1918; one daughter. Asst. Supt. of Blast Furnaces at Eliza Works of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., 1915; Master Mechanic, 1918-20; transferred to South Side Works as Asst. to General Supt.; General Supt., Montana, Connecticut & Alliquippa & Southern Railroads of Jones & Laughlin, 1922-26; Asst. General Supt., two years prior to appointment as General Supt. of Alliquippa Works in 1929. Asst. Vice-Pres. in charge of Operations of Republic Steel Corp., 1930-35; Vice-Pres. in charge of Operations, 1935-45; Pres., 1945—; also Director. Pres. and Director: Truscon Steel Co.; Union Drawn Steel Co., Ltd.; Republic Collieries Co.; Susquehanna Ore Co. Dir., Amer. Iron & Steel Inst.; Member, Natl. Industrial Conference Board. Residence: 16670 S. Park Blvd., Shaker Heights. Office: Republic Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio.

WHITE, CLARENCE CAMERON, American Violinist, Composer; born Aug. 10, 1880, Clarksville, Tenn.; son of Dr. James W. and Jennie C. (Scott) White; educated at Oberlin (Ohio) Conservatory of Music; studied violin with M. Zacherawitzch in London; composition with S. Coleridge-Taylor in London; composition with Raoul LaParra in Paris; married Pura Belpre, Dec. 26, 1943. Made concert debut in Washington, D. C., 1906. Director of String Dept., Washingon Conservatory of Music, 1903-06; appeared in concert recitals in Europe and America, 1908-10; had studio in Boston, Mass., 1912-23; Director, Music Dept., W. Va. State College, 1924-30; appeared in Haiti and Paris, 1930-32; Director of Music Hampton Institute (Va.), 1932-35; Music Specialist National Recreation Assn., 1936-41. Appeared in violin recitals and did much composition work, 1943; guest conductor of own compositions with New Haven (Conn.) Symphony Orchestra, 1944 and with the Boston "Pops" Orchestra, 1944. Member: American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers; American Assn. of Composers and Conductors; Composers and Authors Guild. Received hon. M.A., Atlanta University, 1928; Doctor of Music, Wilberforce University, 1933; the Harmon Award, 1929; the Bispham Medal for Opera "Ouanga," 1932, and the Rosenwald Fellowship, 1930. Author of articles on music in Etude and Music Observer. Numerous musical compositions published for various orchestral and vocal combinations, include: Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen; Sometimes I Feel Like A Motherless Chile; Down By the Riverside; I'm Goin' Home; Bear De Burden and many others, in the Negro spiritual field. Other compositions include: Kutamba; Rhapsody for Orchestra; Twilight; Valse Coquette and others. Works have been performed by Fritz Kreisler, Jascha Heifetz, Albert Spalding, Paul Robeson and programmed by well-known symphonies and popular concert orchestras throughout the country. Residence: 409 Edgecombe Ave., New York, N. Y.

WHITE, CYRIL TENISON, Australian Botanist; born Aug. 17, 1890, Brisbane, Queensland; son of Henry and Louisa (Bailey) White; educated at State School, South Brisbane; married Henrietta Duncan Clark, Oct. 21, 1921; two children. Pupil Asst. to Grandfather, F. M. Bailey, Govt. Botanist, 1905; appointed Acting Govt. Botanist, 1917; Govt. Botanist for Queensland, since 1918. Past Pres.: Royal Soc. of Queensland; Queensland Naturalists Club; Royal Geographical Soc. of Australasia, Queensland Branch; Horticultural Soc. of Queensland; Queensland Govt. Professional Officer's Assn. Author: Elementary Text Book of Australian Forest Botany, 1925; Principles of Botany for Queensland Farmers, 1938; numerous papers on botany of Australia and New Guinea. Address: Botanic Museum and Herbarium, Botanic Gardens, Brisbane, Queensland, Australia.

WHITE, DUDLEY ALLEN, American Newspaper Publisher; born Jan. 3, 1901, New London, Ohio; son of Albert Union, 2nd and Bertha E. (Triffit) White; educated in public schools; Bowling Green State Univ., hon. LL.D., 1940; married; two children. With Norwalk Reflector-Herald, daily newspaper, since 1925; Publisher, Reflector-Herald, Norwalk, Ohio; Pres., Sandusky Broadcasting Co.; Pres., Sandusky Newspapers, Inc. Director: Citizens National Bank; Northern Ohio Telephone Co. Dir. of Recruiting and Induction for U. S. Navy, World War II; Ohio Dept. Commander, American Legion, 1929-30. Member, Natl. Naval Affairs Com. Member of U. S. Congress, 13th Ohio dist., 1937-41; Dir., Natl. Speakers' Bureau, Republican Natl. Com., 1940 Campaign. Member: Ohio Newspaper Assn.; United Press Assn.; Associated Press Assns.; Amer. Newspaper Publishers Assn. Residence: 10 S. Pleasant St., Norwalk, Ohio. Office: Register-Star News, Sandusky, Ohio.

WHITE, Sir DYMOKE, Bt. British Parliament Member; born 1888, Portsmouth, Hampshire; son of Woolmer and Edith Wittcomb (Monck) White; educated at Cheltenham College; Trinity, Cambridge, B.A. 1910, M.A. 1944; London School of Pharmacy, M.P.S. 1911; married Isabelle Stuart MacGowan, 1912; four children. Engaged in farming since 1928. Elected Member of Parliament for Fareham Division of Hampshire, 1939. Life Member of the Council of Cheltenham College; Member, Hampshire County Council, since 1928; Hon. Treasurer, Royal Portsmouth Hospital, since 1932; High Sheriff for Hampshire, 1935. Created Deputy Lieutenant for Hampshire, 1941. During World War I served as Major, Hampshire Carabiniers Yeomanry. Address: Southleigh Park, Havant, Hampshire, England.

WHITE, EGBERT, American Publisher; born Mar. 7, 1894, Kansas City, Mo.; son of Rev. Benjamin P. and Ina (Miles) White; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania; Columbia Univ. and New York Univ.; married Estelle Shepard, July 10, 1919; three children. Account Executive, Vice-Pres. and Director, Batten, Barton, Durstine & Osborn, New York, 1916-46; served as Colonel in U. S. Army, World War II; Officer-in-Charge of Yank, 1942; Stars & Stripes, 1942-44. Publisher and General Manager, U. N. World, Inc. Director: Telecasting Publications, Inc.; BRX (1935) Consolidated Mines; U. N. World, Inc. Residence: 99 Plymouth Ave., Tuckahoe, N. Y. Office: 385 Madison Ave., New York, New York.

WHITE, FRANCIS THURMAN, American Lawyer; born June 9, 1889, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of John Joseph and Eleanor Hannah (Bracken) White; educated at College of City of New York, 1907-09; St. Lawrence Univ., 1909-12; Université de Toulouse, France, 1918-19; Columbia College, 1922-23; married Marguerite Genevieve Yates, Aug. 16, 1928. Admitted to Bar: New York State, 1913; Bar of Supreme Court of U. S., 1933; admitted to practice before U. S. Patent Office, 1924; before U. S. Treasury Dept., 1924. Practicing lawyer, since 1914. Member: Brooklyn Bar Assn. (Member of Com. on Criminal Courts; Com. on Patents, Trade-Marks and Unfair Competition). Author: County Government, 1934., Residence: 426 63rd St. Office: 385 Flatbush Ave., Ext., Brooklyn Paramount Bldg., Brooklyn 1, New York.

WHITE, Dr. FRANKLIN WARREN, American Physician; born Oct. 23, 1869, Boston, Mass.; son of Elisha Mann and Amelia (Hopkins) White; educated at Mass. Inst. of Technology, B.S. 1890; Harvard Med. School, M.D. 1895; married Ethel Plummer Bowen, Sept. 1, 1904; two children. Faculty Member, Harvard Univ. Med. School, since 1900; Visiting Physician to Boston City Hosp. since 1914; Prof. of Medicine, Dartmouth Univ., 1911-16. Past Secy. and Past Chairman of Gastroenterol. Section of Amer. Med. Assn.; Past Secy. and Past Pres. of Amer. Gastroenterol. Assn. Member: Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Amer. Roentgen Ray Soc.; Internatl. Soc. of Gastroenterol., etc. Author of more than 100 research papers on diet and digestive diseases; several chapters in Nelson's Loose Leaf Medicine. Residence: 322 Marlborough St., Boston, Mass.

WHITE, GEORGE, American Producer. Produced "George White Scandals" and other musical successes for stage and screen; also arranged dance routines for revues; discovered many now-famous musical comedy stars. Address: Hollywood, California.

WHITE, GEORGE AVERY, American Financier; born May 14, 1896, Worcester, Mass.; son of Avery and Mary F. (Stowell) White; educated at Williams College; Harvard, LL.B., 1922; married Katharine Bradley, Sept. 6, 1921; two children. Began practice of law, 1922; associated with Smith, Gage & Dresser, Worcester, until 1925, when firm became Gage, Hamilton, June & White; withdrew from firm to engage in banking. Pres., Worcester County Trust Co., 1935-42; now a Director. Pres., State Mutual Life Assurance Co., since 1942; Director, since 1933. Pres. and Dir., Associated Charities of Worcester; Vice-Pres. and Dir., Community Chest of Worcester; Pres., Worcester War Relief Fund, Inc. Former Member, Exec. Council of American Bankers Assn.; Ex-Pres. of Mass. Bankers Assn.; Former Chmn., Bankers Com. of New England Council, and Chmn. of Nominating Com. for Directors of Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. Trustee, Williams College. Ensign, U.S.N., in foreign waters in World War I. Residence: 28 Westland St. Office: 340 Main St., Worcester, Mass.

WHITE, Hon. GERALD VERNER, C.B.E., Canadian Senator; born July 6, 1879, Pembroke, Ont., Canada; son of Hon. Peter and Janet (Thomson) White; educated at McGill University, B.Sc. in M.E. 1901; married Mary Elizabeth Trites, Aug. 15, 1906; three children. Served with Dominion Iron & Steel Co., Sydney, Nova Scotia, 1902-03. Director, Pembroke Lumber Co., 1905-21. Elected to House of Commons for North Renfrew, 1906; re-elected in General Elections, 1908 and 1911. Served in the Senate of Canada since 1919. Director and Vice-President, The Steel Equipment Co. Ltd.; Director, Quebec Manitou Mines Ltd.; President, Pembroke Branch, 1945; Life Member, Ottawa Branch Canadian Legion; Hon. Lieut.-Col., Lanark and Renfrew Scottish Regiments. Served overseas with rank of Col. during World War I. Address: 348 Pembroke St., E., Pembroke, Ont., Canada.

WHITE, Dr. GILBERT FOWLER, American College President; born Nov. 26, 1911, Chicago, Ill.; son of Arthur E. and Mary (Guthrie) White; educated at Univ. of Chicago, B.S. 1932, M.S. 1934, Ph.D. 1942; married Anne E. Underwood, Apr. 28, 1944; one son. Geographer, U. S. Government, 1934. Researcher: Mississippi Valley Com., P.W.A., 1934; Natl. Resources Board, 1934-35; Natl. Resources Planning Board, 1935-40. Lecturer, Graduate School, American Univ., 1938-40; Reviewer of Legislation, Executive Office of Pres., Bureau of Budget, 1941-42; Asst. Prof. of Geography, Univ. of Chicago, 1945-46; Member, Amer. Friends Service Com. (relief work in Vichy, France, and under German military occupation, interned in Germany), 1942-46; Member, Mission of Amer. Voluntary Agencies to open relief in Germany, 1946; Secy., Amer. Relief for India, 1945-46; Pres., Haverford College, since 1946. Member: Amer. Geophysical Union; Assn. of Amer. Geographers; Amer. Inst. of Planners. Author: Articles on conservation of natural resources in U. S.; Technical Secy., committee preparing comprehensive inventory of land and water resources of U. S. Address: Haverford College, Haverford, Pa.

WHITE, Dr. GOODRICH COOK, American University President; born Nov. 13, 1889, Griffin, Ga.; son of George B. and Florence R. (Cook) White; educated at Emory College, B.A. 1908; Columbia Univ., A.M. 1911; University of Chicago, Ph.D. 1927. Professor, Kentucky Wesleyan College, 1911-13; at Wesleyan College (Ga.), 1913-14; member: Faculty of Emory University, 1914; Professor, Psychology, 1920-42; Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, 1923-38; Dean, Graduate School, 1929-42. Vice-President, 1938-42; President, since 1942. Trustee, Clark College, Gammon Theological Seminary and Wesleyan College (Ga.). President, Georgia Academy of Science, 1939. Member, Southern Regional Committee, Social Science Research Council, 1932-38. Trustee, Atlanta Univ. Dir., Southern Bell Tel. and Tel. Co. Member: Senate of Phi Beta Kappa, 1937—; Methodist Univ. Senate, 1946—; President's Commission on Higher Education, 1946—. Office: Emory University, Georgia.

WHITE, Dr. HELEN CONSTANCE, American Author; born Nov. 26, 1896, New Haven, Conn.; daughter of John and Mary J. (King) White; educated at Radcliffe College, B.A. 1916, M.A. 1917; Univ. of Wisconsin, Ph.D., 1924; Hon. LL.D., Scholastica College and Rockford College; Litt.D., Mt. St. Mary College, Wilson College and Smith College. Asst. in English, Smith College, 1917-19; Instr., Univ. of Wisconsin, 1919; Asst. Prof., 1925; Assoc. Prof., 1934; Prof., since 1936. Received Laetare Medal, 1942; Siena Medal, 1944; Achievement Award (for Education) of Graduate Chapter, Radcliffe Alumni Assn., 1947. Pres., Amer. Assn. of University Women, 1941-47; Vice-Pres., International Fed. of Univ. Women, 1947—. Acad. Member, Gallery of Living Catholic Authors. Member: Bd. of Directors, Natl. Conf. of Christians and Jews; Advisory Bd. of College English; Exec. Com., Amer. Council on Education; U. S. Natl. Commn. for UNESCO; U. S. Bd. of Foreign Scholarships; U. S. Delegation, Fifth Meeting of Preparatory Commn. for UNESCO, London, 1946; Education Mission to Germany, 1946. Author (four novels): A Watch in the Night, 1933; Not Built with Hands, 1935; To the End of the World, 1939; Dust on the King's Highway, 1947; The Mysticism of William Blake, 1927; Victorian Prose (joint editor), 1930; English Devotional Literature (Prose), 1600-1640, (1931); The Metaphysical Poets: A Study in Religious Experience, 1936; Social Criticism in Popular Religious Literature of the Sixteenth Century, 1944. Address: University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.

WHITE, HENRY ARTHUR, American Business Executive; born Jan. 9, 1897, Honolulu, Hawaii; son of Clarence Mortimer and Esther (Spring) White; educated at McKinley High School, 1911-12; Punahou Academy, 1912-13; married Margaret E. Thrum, June 1, 1925; two daughters. Clerk with Lewers & Cook, Ltd., 1913-15; with the Hawaiian Electric Co., Ltd., 1915-21; with Castle & Cooke, Ltd., 1921-41; successively Treasurer, Director and Vice-President, Hawaiian Pineapple Co., Ltd., since 1932; Vice-Pres., 1931-41; became a Director, 1932; now President. Director: Castle & Cooke, Ltd.; Honolulu Gas Co.; Andrade & Co., Ltd.; Superway, Ltd.; Honolulu Chamber of Commerce. Residence: 3263 Diamond Head Rd. Office: Iwilei Rd. (P.O. Box 3380), Honolulu, Hawaii.

WHITE, The Rt. Hon. H(ENRY) GRAHAM, P.C., British Political Leader; born Aug. 26, 1880, Birkenhead, Cheshire; son of John Arnold and Annie (Sinclair) White; educated at Birkenhead School; Liverpool Univ.; married Mary Irene Heath, Sept. 8, 1910; three children. Member of Parliament (Liberal) for Birkenhead East, 1922-24 and 1929-45. Asst. Postmaster-Gen., 1931-32; Member, Executive Com., League of Nations Union, 1923-24, and 1930. Member, Indian Round Table Conference, 1930; Broadcasting Committee, 1935; Rent Restriction Acts Committee, 1937; Distress for Rent Committee, 1938; Select Committee on National Expenditure in 1940. Chairman, British Assn. for Labor Legislation; Advisory Committee on War Risks Insurance. Member: Council of the Royal Institute of International Affairs; Council on Aliens; Executive Committee of the British Council. Chairman, Com. of Seamen's Welfare in Ports; Member, Curtis Com. on Care of Children, 1945. Address: Mere Cottage, Birkenhead, England.

WHITE, Prof. HERBERT MARTYN OLIVER, Professor of English Literature; born 1885, Magherally, Co. Down, Ireland; son of Rev. Robert and Anna Maria (Matthews) White; educated at Trinity College, Dublin, Modern Language Scholar 1911, Senior Mod., B.A. Modern Literature 1914, M.A. 1919. Pres., Univ. Philosophical Soc., 1912; English Lecturer, Ecole Normale Supérieure, Paris, 1919-20; Lecturer in English Language and Literature, Sheffield, 1920-31; Lecturer in English Literature, Queen's Univ., Belfast, 1931-39; Prof. of English Literature, Universidad Internacional de Verano, Santander, 1933, 1934; now Prof. of English Literature, Univ. of Dublin. Member: Royal Irish Acad. Editor, Works of Thomas Purney, 1933. Address: 39 Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland.

WHITE, JOHN BAKER, Member of British Parliament; born Aug. 12, 1902, West Malling, Kent, England; son of John Wilfred Baker and Katherine (Blythe) White; educated at Stubbington House, Fareham; Malvern College; married Sybil Irene Graham, Oct. 21, 1925; two children. Farm laborer and circus hand, 1920-22; studied industry and social work among unemployed, 1922-24; in coal industry, 1924-26; Director, Economic League, 1926-39; elected to Parliament as Conservative Member for Canterbury, July, 1945. Governor, Kent and Canterbury Hospital. Member, Central Council, Economic League; Vice-Pres., Council of Retail Distributors; Fellow, Royal Economic Soc.; Member, Royal United Services Institution. Author: Red Russia Arms, 1932; Denmark, 1935; Dover-Nurnberg Return, 1937; Denmark Revisited, 1939; It's Gone for Good, 1941; A Soldier Dares to Think, 1941; Fascism Comes to Britain, 1945; Nationalisation: Chaos or Cure, 1946. Joined Territorial Army, 1934; With Rifle Brigade, War Office; with Political Intelligence Dept. of Foreign Office; with Political Warfare Executive, Middle East, retiring as Lt. Col. Residence: Ham Manor, Ham, Eastry, Kent. Office: 2 Great Peter St., London, England.

WHITE, JOHN CAMPBELL, American Diplomat; born March 17, 1884, American Legation, London; son of Henry and Margaret Stuyvesant (Rutherford) White; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1907; married Elizabeth Moffat, Apr. 9, 1921; one daughter. Private Secretary to American Embassies in Rome and Paris, 1906. Engaged in newspaper work, 1909-13; Secretary of the Legation and Consulate General, Santo Domingo, 1914; Secretary of Embassy or Legation, 1915; assigned to Petrograd, 1915; Athens, 1916; Tokyo, 1917; Chargé d'Affaires, Bangkok, 1918; Warsaw, 1919. Assistant Chief of Near Eastern Affairs, Department of State, 1920; assigned to Caracas, 1921; to Prague, 1923; to Riga, 1924; Foreign Service Officer, July 1924; Counsellor of Legation, Riga, 1925; with Department of State, 1926; Counsellor of Embassy, Buenos Aires, 1928, at Berlin, 1933; Consul General at Calcutta, 1935; Kabul, 1935; Diplomatic Agent and Consul General at Tangier, 1940; Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Haiti, 1940; Ambassador to Haiti, 1943; Ambassador to Peru, 1944-45. Address: Chester, Md.

WHITE, Rt. Rev. JOHN CHANLER, American Bishop; born May 21, 1867, Laurens Co., South Carolina; son of Thomas Grimke and Martha P. (Edings) White; educated at St. Stephens College (now Bard College), D.D.; General Theological Seminary of New York, S.T.D.; married Katherine Dresser; two children. Missionary, Diocese of Springfield, and Secretary to Bishop Seymour, 1891-99. Rector and Builder, St. Paul's Church, East St. Louis, Ill., 1900-09; Archdeacon of Springfield, Ill., 1910-22; elected Bishop of Springfield, 1924. Secretary of Diocese and Editor of Diocesan paper for 25 years. Address: 821 South Second St., Springfield, Ill.

WHITE, LAWRENCE GRANT, American Architect; born Sept. 26, 1887, New York City; son of Stanford and Bessie Springs (Smith) White; educated at Harvard Univ., cum laude 1908; Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris, diploma, 1913; married Laura Astor Chanler, June 19, 1916; eight children. Member, McKim, Mead & White, since 1919; now senior partner, Principal Works: P.R.R. Station, Newark, N. J.; 52 Wall Street, N. Y.; Regimental Barracks, Governor's Island, N. Y.; Hotel National, Havana, Cuba; Girard Trust Co. Offices, Philadelphia. Director: Railroad Federal Savings & Loan Assn.; Amer. Scenic & Historical Preservation Soc.; Garden City Co.; Hempstead Plains Co. Trustee: Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital; Grand Central Art Galleries. Member: Amer. Inst. of Architects; Soc. Architectes Diplômes, French Govt.; Natl. Acad. of Design (Assoc.). Awards: Italian Naval War Cross; Knight Officer of the Order of SS. Maurice and Lazarus; Chevalier, Crown of Italy. Author: Sketches and Designs by Stanford White, 1920; Metrical Translation of Dante's Divine Comedy. Lt. (s.g.), U.S.N.R., aviator No. 176; naval aide to Pres. Wilson, World War I; Lt. Comdr., U.S.N.R., World War II. Elected Member, Natl. Acad. of Design, 1948. Address: 101 Park Ave., New York 17, New York.

WHITE, Dr. LEONARD DUPEE, American Political Scientist; born Jan. 17, 1891, Acton, Mass.; son of John S. and Bertha H. (Dupee) White; educated at Dartmouth College, B.S. 1914, M.A. 1915; Harvard Univ., 1916, 1917; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1921; married Una L. Holden, June 17, 1916; one daughter. Instructor in Government, Clark Univ., 1915-18; Instructor and Asst. Prof. of Political Science, Dartmouth College, 1918-20; Assoc. Prof. of Political Science, 1920-25; Prof. of Political Science, Univ. of Chicago, 1925-30; Prof. of Public Administration, Univ. of Chicago, since 1930. Member, U. S. Civil Service Commn., 1934-37; Member, President's Com. on Civil Service Improvement, 1939-41. Vice-Pres., Natl. Civil Service Reform League, since 1939. Member: Amer. Political Science Assn. (Pres. 1944); Amer. Soc. for Public Administration, etc. Editor-in-Chief, Public Administration Review, 1940-43. Author: Introduction to Study of Public Administration, 1926, 1939; The City Manager, 1927; An Experiment in Social Science Research (editor with T. V. Smith), 1929; The New Social Science (editor), 1930; The Civil Service and Modern State, 1930; Further Contributions to the Prestige Value of Public Employment, 1932; Trends in Public Administration, 1933; Whitley Councils in the British Civil Service, 1933; Government Career Service, 1935; The British Civil Service (in Civil Service Abroad), 1935; The Frontiers of Public Administration (with M. E. Dimock and J. M. Gaus), 1935; Politics and Public Service (with T. V. Smith), 1939; The Future of Government in America (editor), 1942; Civil Service in Wartime (editor), 1945. Address: 1126 E. 59th St., Chicago, Ill.

WHITE, Dr. LESLIE A., American Anthropologist; born Jan. 19, 1900, Salida, Colo.; son of Alvin L. and Mildred (Millard) White; educated at Louisiana State Univ., 1919-21; Columbia Univ., A.B. 1923, A.M. 1924; New School for Social Research, 1922-24; Univ. of California, summer 1923; Université de Dijon, France, summer 1924; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1927; married Mary Augusta Pattison, Feb. 9, 1931. Instructor in Anthropology and Sociology, Univ. of Buffalo, N. Y., 1927-28; Asst. Prof., 1928-30; Curator of Anthropology, Buffalo Museum of Science, 1927-30; Asst. Prof. of Anthropology, Univ. of Michigan, 1930-32; Assoc. Prof., 1932-43; Prof. and Chairman of Dept. since 1943. Asst. Prof. of Anthropology, Univ. of Chicago, summer 1931; Leader of Ethnological Field Party, Laboratory, Santa Fe, N. M., summer 1932; Guest Lecturer, Yenching Univ., Peiping, China, fall of 1936. Member: Amer. Anthropological Assn. (Pres., Central States Branch, 1939); Amer. Folklore Soc. (Treas. 1931, 2nd Vice-Pres. 1941-42); Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (Fellow), etc. Author: The Acoma Indians, 1932; The Pueblo of Santo Domingo, New Mexico, 1935; The Pueblo of Santa Ana, New Mexico, 1943; Pioneers in American Anthropology, 1940; Extracts from the European Travel Journal of Lewis H. Morgan (ed.), 1937. Address: University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

WHITE, Dr. LYNN TOWNSEND, JR., American College President; born Apr. 29, 1907, San Francisco, Calif.; son of (Rev.) Lynn Townsend and Mary (Tarrant) White; educated at Stanford, A.B. 1928; Union Theological Seminary, M.A. 1929; Harvard Univ., Ph.D. 1934; MacMurray College, Hon. LL.D.; married Maude Catherine McArthur, Sept. 10, 1940; four children. Instr. in History, Princeton Univ., 1933-37. Asst. Prof. of History, Stanford Univ., 1937-40; Prof. of History, 1940-43. Pres., Mills College, 1943—. Author: Latin Monasticism in Norman Sicily, 1938. Address: Mills College, Oakland 13, Calif.

WHITE, NELIA (GARDNER), American Writer; born 1894, Andrews Settlement, Pa.; educated at Syracuse Univ. Author: Jen Culliton, 1927; Tune in the Tree, 1929; Hathaway House, 1931; Family Affair, 1934; No Trumpet Before Him (winner of the $8,000 1947 Westminster Press Award; also People's Book Club selection), 1948, etc. Address: New Hartford, Conn.

WHITE, Dr. NEWMAN IVEY, American Educator, Writer; born 1892; received A.B., A.M. and Ph.D. Prof. of English, Duke Univ. Author: American Negro Folksongs, 1928; The Unextinguished Hearth (Shelley and his contemporary critics), 1938; Shelley, 1940; Portrait of Shelley, 1945. Edited an Anthology of Verse by American Negroes (with Walter Clinton Jackson), 1924. Residence: 1003 Lamond Ave. Office: Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

WHITE, Dr. PAUL DUDLEY, American Cardiologist; born June 6, 1886, Boston, Mass.; son of Herbert Warren and Elizabeth (Dudley) White; educated at Harvard, A.B. 1908, M.D. 1911; married Ina Reid, 1924; two children. Physician, Mass. General Hosp. Research Fellow, Instructor, Asst. Prof. and Lecturer in Medicine at Harvard Med. School; Harvard Travelling Fellow, 1913-14 and 1928-29; Chairman of Section on Pharmacol. of Amer. Med. Assn., 1924. Pres. of New England Heart Assn. and Amer. Heart Assn.; Chairman of Sub-Com. on Cardiovascular Diseases of Natl. Research Council, 1940-46. Member: Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Royal Soc. of Med. (England); Heart Assns. of France, Great Britain, Ireland, Czechoslovakia, Mexico, Argentina and U. S.; Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Amer. Clinical and Climatological Assn.; Soc. for Clinical Investigation. Author: Heart Disease (3 eds.: 1931, 1937, 1944); Heart Disease in General Practice (1937); (co-author) Electrocardiography (1941), 2nd ed. 1946; also numerous articles and papers. 1st Lieut., Med. Corps, B.E.F., 1916, and with the A.E.F. in France as Capt. of U.S.A. Med. Corps, 1917-19. Address: Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, Mass.

WHITE, Dr. PHILIP R(ODNEY), American Physiologist; born July 25, 1901, Chicago, Ill.; son of Henry K. and Mary J. (Pattee) White; educated at Univ. of Montana, A.B. 1922; Univ. of Washington, 1922-23; École Normale d'Instituteurs, Valence, Drôme, France (Certificate, 1924); Johns Hopkins Univ., Ph.D. 1928; Research Assoc., Univ. of Berlin, 1930-31; married Caroline D. M. Smith, Nov. 22, 1935; two children. Lecteur d'Anglais, École Normale d'Instituteurs, France, 1923-24; Research Asst. and University Fellow, Johns Hopkins Univ., 1924-26; Microscopic Technician, Small Fruits Investigation, Bureau of Plant Industry, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1925-26; Special Investigator, United Fruit Co., 1926-28; Asst. Prof. of Botany, Univ. of Missouri, 1928-29; Natl. Research Fellow, The Boyce Thompson Inst. for Plant Research, 1929-30; Rockefeller Foundation Fellow, Univ. of Berlin, 1930-31. Fellow, Dept. of Animal and Plant Pathology, Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research, Princeton, N. J., 1932-34; Asst., 1934-38; Assoc., 1938-45. Director, Division of General Physiology, Inst. for Cancer Research, Philadelphia, Pa., since 1945. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (winner of Annual Prize, 1937). Member: Amer. Soc. of Plant Physiologists (winner of Stephen Hales Award, 1940); Amer. Botanical Soc.; Amer. Soc. of Naturalists; Soc. for Study of Growth and Development; Soviet Amer. Medical Soc.; Amer.-Soviet Science Soc., etc. Author: A Handbook of Plant Tissue Culture, 1942. Co-author: Micrurgical and Germ-free Methods, 1943. Address: Institute for Cancer Research, Girard and Corinthian Ave., Philadelphia 30, Pa.

WHITE, ROBERT CULIN, American Railroad Executive; born Feb. 8, 1881, Bertrand, Mo.; son of Jesse K. and Anne (Barry) White; educated at Missouri State Univ., 1900-02; U. S. Military Acad., 1902-05; married Carlotta Newbrandt, June 15, 1910 (dec.). With Missouri Pacific R.R. Co. since 1905; Asst. Div. Engnr. (Sedalia, Mo.) 1906-07; Roadmaster, various divisions, 1907-08; Division Engineer, various divisions, 1908-12; Assistant Engineer on special work, 1912-13; General Roadmaster 1913-14; District Engineer, Southern District, 1914-17, and Division Superintendent, 1917-18. He was Chief Engineer, U. S. War Department, in charge of Construction of Camp Pike, Ark., June to Nov. 1917. Asst. Chief Engineer, Missouri Pacific R.R. Co., 1918-21; Gen. Supt., Eastern District, 1921-24, and Engineer Maintenance of Way System, 1924-25. Asst. General Manager, 1925-41; Chief Operating Officer since 1941. Director: Missouri-Illinois R.R. Co.; Missouri Pacific R.R. Corp. in Nebraska. Member of Board of Control of Texarkana Union Station Trust. Dir., Kansas City Terminal Railway; New Orleans, Texas and Mexico Railway; New Orleans and Lower Coast Railroad; Missouri Pacific Transportation Co.; Boonville, St. Louis & Southern Railway; Mississippi River & Bonne Terre Railway; Memphis Union Station Co., and First Bank of East Prairie, Mo. Residence: 14 N. Kingshighway. Office: Missouri Pacific Bldg., St. Louis, Mo.

WHITE, Rev. ROBERT JAMES, American Law School Dean; born September 12, 1895, Concord, Mass.; son of Patrick J. and Mary E. (Dowd) White; educated at Harvard University, A.B. 1915, LL.B. 1920; Catholic University, S.T.B. 1933, J.C.D., 1934. Admitted to the Bar, 1920; practiced law in Boston until 1927. Appointed Assistant District Attorney of Middlesex County, 1927. Ordained a priest in 1931. Professor of Law in the Catholic University Law School, since 1931, Dean of Law School, since 1937. National Commander of the American Legion, 1933-34. Ensign, and Lieut, Jr. and Sr. Grades, U. S. Navy, World War I; during World War II, Commander Chaplain Corps, Sr. Capt., later Commodore, Chaplain Corps, U. S. Naval Reserve; Fleet Chaplain, Mediterranean Fleet; Past-National Chaplain, Amer. Legion; Amer. Vice-Pres., Fédération Interalliée des Anciens Combattants. Member: Amer. Bar Assn.; N. Y. Catholic Lawyers' Guild. Awarded Bronze Star and Secy. of Navy Commendation. Author: "The Lawyer and His Profession"; "The Legal Effects of Ante-Nuptial Promises in Mixed Marriages"; "Confession and the Law." Residence: Catholic University. Office: Catholic Universtiy Law School, Washington, D. C.

WHITE, ROBERT VOSE, American Financier; born Dec. 26, 1886, Boston, Mass.; son of Charles McIntosh and Caroline L. (Vose) White; educated at Harvard, A.B. 1909, LL.B. 1912; married Jean Robb Stewart, 1917; two daughters. Practiced law with Cravath, Henderson and DeGersdorff, 1912-18; Partner in investment banking firm of J. & W. Seligman & Co., 1918-35, and of brokerage firm of Jackson & Curtis, 1937-38. Pres. of Lehigh Coal & Navigation Co. since 1938; Chmn. of Bd., Lehigh & New England Railroad Co. Director: Amer. Home Fire Assurance Co., Automatic Coal Burner Co., Broad Street Investing Corp., Capital Administration Co., Ltd., Furnaceman, Inc., General Shareholdings Corp., Globe & Rutgers Fire Insurance Co., Insurance Co. of State of Pennsylvania, Lehigh and Hudson River Rwy. Co., National Investors Corp., Philadelphia Natl. Bank; Selected Industries, Inc.; Tri-Continental Corp.; Union Service Corp.; Westmoreland Coal Co.; Westmoreland, Inc.; Whitehall Fund, Inc. Governor of New York Stock Exchange, 1935-38, and Chairman of Stock List Com. in 1938. Residence: "Rohallion," Rumson, N. J. Office: Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa.

WHITE, ROY BARTON, American Railroad Executive; born Aug. 8, 1883, Metcalf, Ill.; son of John M. and Anna (Maxfield) White; educated at high school; married Flora E. Auman, 1908; two children. Telegraph operator and agent with the Indiana, Decatur & Western Railway, 1902; train dispatcher, C. H. & D. Ry., Indianapolis, 1902-08; chief train dispatcher in 1908-09; chief clerk to general superintendent at Cincinnati in 1909-10, and Superintendent at Cincinnati, 1910-15. Supt., B. & O. RR. at Flora, Ill., 1915-16, at Seymour, Ind., 1916-17, and at Philadelphia and Baltimore, 1917-21. General Supt. at Baltimore, 1921-23; General Manager at New York City, 1923-26. Senior Vice-Pres., C.R.R. of N. J., 1926; Pres., 1926-33. Pres., Western Union Telegraph Co., 1933-41. Pres. and Dir., B. & O. R.R., 1941—. Chairman of Board and Director, Reading Co., Central R.R. of N. J.; Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Ry. Co.; Chmn. of Bd., Pres. and Dir., Baltimore and Ohio Chicago Terminal R.R. Co. Pres. and Dir., Buffalo & Susquehanna RR. Corp., Staten Island Rapid Transit Ry. Co., and Washington Terminal Co. Trustee, Bank of N. Y. Dir.: Richmond-Washington Co., Richmond, Fredricksburg & Potomac RR. Co.; Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific Rwy. Co., Lehigh & Hudson River Rwy. Co.; Western Union Telegraph Co., etc. Residence: 211 Lambeth Rd. Office: Baltimore & Ohio Bldg., Baltimore, Md.

WHITE, Dr. S(OLON) MARX. American Physician; born July 16, 1873, Ho-kah, Minn.; son of Solon C. and Anna Clayanna (Armstrong) White; educated at Univ. of Illinois, B.S. 1896 (as of 1894); Northwestern Univ. Medical School, M.D. 1897; married Sara Miner Abbott, July 25, 1900 (dec. 1931); three children. Demonstrator of Pathology and Bacteriology, Univ. of Minnesota. 1898; successively Instructor, Asst. Prof. and Assoc. Prof. of Pathology and Bacteriology until 1908. Assoc. Prof. of Medicine, 1908-15; Prof., 1915-42; Prof. Emeritus, Univ. of Minnesota, since 1942. Chief, Dept. of Medicine and in charge of Medical Services of University Hospitals, 1921-25. One of Founders, Director and Chief of Dept. of Medicine at Nicollet Clinic, since 1921. Fellow and Life Member: Amer. College of Physicians (Pres. 1931-32); Amer. Medical Assn. (Vice-Chairman, Section on Practice of Medicine, 1929). Member: Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Amer. Heart Assn.; Minnesota Soc. of Internal Medicine (Pres. 1931-32); Minnesota Acad. of Medicine (Pres. 1909), etc. Author of contributions to medical journals and chapter on heart and blood vessels in "The Normal Chest of the Adult and Child," 1897. Address: The Nicollet Clinic, 1009 Nicollet Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

WHITE, STEWART EDWARD, American Writer; born 1873. Author: The Claim Jumpers (a romance), 1901; The Blazed Trail, 1902; Conjuror's House, 1903; Camp and Trail, 1907; Arizona Nights, 1907; Adventures of Bobby Orde, 1910; The Killer, 1910; The Cabin, 1912; Gold, 1913; African Camp Fires, 1913; The Grey Dawn, 1915; The Leopard Woman, 1916; Simba, 1918; The Forty-niners (a chronicle of the California trail and El Dorado), 1921; Daniel Boone, Wilderness Scout, 1922; The Glory Hole, 1924; Credo, 1925; Back of Beyond, 1926; Dog Days, Other Times, Other Dogs (autobiography of a man and his dog through four decades of changing America), 1930; The Forest, 1931; The Long Rifle, 1932; Folded Hills, 1934; Pole Star, 1935 The Betty Book (excursions into the world of other-consciousness, made by "Betty" (pseudonym between 1919-1936), 1937; Old California, in Picture and Story, 1937; Anchors to Windward (stability and personal peace— here and now), 1943, etc. Member, Natl. Inst. of Arts and Letters.. Address: Box 7, Burlingame, Calif.

WHITE, THEODORE H., American Writer; born May 6, 1915, Boston, Mass.; educated at Boston Latin School; Harvard Univ., grad. summa cum laude. Sailed for China, arriving in Jan. 1939; free lance writing for a while. Started writing publicity for Chinese Ministry of Information. Set up bureau for Time Magazine in Orient; full time correspondent for Time Magazine, since 1940. Reported: Indian uprisings of 1942; Honan famine of 1943; return of Sinkiang to China, 1943; last battles for the Burma Road and rode up the re-opened road wiht first convoy in 1945. Covered Chiang K'ai-shek, etc. Senior Editor, The Republic. Author: (with Annalee Jacoby) Thunder Out of China (Book-of-the-Month Club selection), 1946. Address: c/o William Sloane Associates, Inc., 119 W. 57th St., New York 19, N. Y.

WHITE, The Hon. THOMAS WALTER, D.F.C., V.D., Australian Politician; born April 26, 1888, Melbourne, Vict.; son of Charles James Richard and Emily Jane (Jenkins) White; educated at Moreland School and privately; married Vera Deakin, March 22, 1920; four children. Managing Dir., C. J. White & Sons Pty. Ltd., 1920-32. Member of House of Representatives of Australia for Balaclava since 1929. Minister for Trade and Customs in Federal Government, 1933-38; Member of Ministerial Trade Delegation to Great Britain, 1938; Ministerial Delegate to Economic Conference in New Zealand and had been Acting Minister for External Territories and for Repatriation, 1937. Conducted an Economic and Defence Survey of New Guinea in 1937. Australian Delegate to Evian Refugee Conf., 1938. Served with Australian Flying Corps in Mesopotamia, World War I. Commanded Royal Melbourne Regiment as Lieut.-Col., 1926-31; resigned and in 1940 became Flight Lieut. of RAAF; made Wing Commander, 1941; served with RAAF and RAF overseas in Britain, until 1943; Instructor at RAAF Air Staff School, 1943-45. Author: Guests of the Unspeakable (England and Australia), 1928; Sky Saga, 1943-44. Residence: 241 Domain Rd., S.Y., Melbourne. Office: Parliament House, Canberra, Australia.

WHITE, Hon. WALLACE H., JR., United States Senator; born in Lewiston, Me., Aug. 6, 1877; son of Wallace H. and Helen E. (Frye) White; educated at Bowdoin College, A.B.; LL.D. from Bowdoin and Bates; married Nina L. Lunn, Nov. 1, 1917. Admitted to the Bar of District of Columbia, 1902, and of Maine, 190? Elected to House of Representatives for 65th to 71st Congresses. Elected United States Senator from Maine, Sept. 1930; re-elected 1936 and 1942. Chairman, Senate Com. on Interstate and Foreign Commerce and Member, Senate Com. on Foreign. Minority Floor Leader of the Senate, 79th Congress; Majority Leader of the Senate, 80th Congress. Appointed by Pres. Coolidge as a delegate to the Pan American Electrical Communications Conference in Mexico City, 1924; by Secretary of State as a delegate to the International Telegraph Conference in Paris, 1925, and as an unofficial observer of the United States at the International Juridical Conference on Wireless Telegraphy, Geneva, 1927; later elected a member of International Committee and President of the American section. Appointed delegate to the International Radio Telegraphic Conference, Washington, D. C., 1927; Chairman, United States delegation to the International Conference on Safety of Life at Sea held in London, 1929. Chairman of meeting of the International Technical Consulting Committee on Radio Communications, Copenhagen, 1931. Chairman, United States delegation to the International Telecommunications Conference, Cairo, 1938. Served as Vice-President of Inter-Parliamentary Union. Member, Bd. of Overseers, Bowdoin College. Residence: Auburn, Me. Office: Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WHITE, Dr. WALTER, American Sociologist, Author; born July 1, 1893, Atlanta, Ga.; son of George W. and Madeline (Harrison) White; educated at Atlanta Univ., B.A. 1916; special student at College of City of New York; hon. LL.B., Howard University, 1939; LL.D., Atlanta University, 1942; married Leah Gladys Powell, Feb. 15, 1922; two children. Appointed Asst. Secretary, National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People, 1918; Acting Secretary, 1929-30. Secretary since Mar., 1931. Delegate to the 2nd Pan-African Congress, England, Belgium and France, 1921. Appointed by President Roosevelt to the Advisory Council for Government of Virgin Islands in 1934, resigning in 1935. Fellow, John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation for creative writing in prose, in France, 1927-28. Author: Fire in the Flint, 1924; Flight, 1926; Rope and Faggot; A Biography of Judge Lynch, 1929; A Rising Wind, 1945. Awarded 23rd Spingarn Medal, July 2, 1937. Member of Board: Council for Democracy, Freedom House, Council Against Intolerance in America, Writers' War Board, National Public Housing Conf. Residence: 409 Edgecombe Ave. Office: 20 W. 40th St., New York 18, N. Y.

WHITE, WILLIAM, American Railroad Executive; born Feb. 3, 1897, Midland Park, N. J.; son of Garrett and Anna (Amos) White; graduated from Midland Park Grade School; from Ridgewood (N. J. H. S.; married Margaret Elizabeth Crane, April 16, 1918; two daughters. Entered railroad service in 1913, as a clerk with the N.Y.S. & W. R.R.; clerk and secy. with that road and the Erie until 1920. Appointed Office Manager of the Erie at Youngstown, Ohio, in 1920, and was advanced to Trainmaster in 1923, Assistant Superintendent in 1926, Superintendent in 1927, Assistant General Manager in 1929, Asst. Vice-Pres., 1934, General Manager, 1936. Vice-Pres., Virginian Railway, Norfolk, Va., 1938-40. Pres. and Dir., Delaware, Lackawanna & Western RR. since 1940. Dir. of company's subsidiaries and of the First National Bank of Scranton, Pa., Manufacturers and Traders Trust Co. of Buffalo, N. Y., and the Lehigh & Hudson River Railway Co. Served in U. S. Army in World War I. Residence: 77 Eagle Rock Way, Montclair, N. J. Office: 140 Cedar St., New York, N. Y.

WHITE, WILLIAM ARTHUR, SR., American Newspaper Publisher; born 1894, Danbury, Conn.; son of Leclaire G. and Emma (Selleck) White; educated at Phillips Exeter Acad., 1911-14; Dartmouth College, 1914-15; Columbia Univ., 1917; married Katherine Schmidt, May 12, 1917; two children. Assoc. of Charles Hardy, Inc. (metals & minerals), New York, 1917; Treas., 1920. Vice-Pres., Palm Beach National Bank, 1923; Pres., 1925. Organized William A. White Realty Co. (Palm Beach), 1923; William A. White Realty Co. (Danbury, Conn.), 1936. Pres. and Director, Danbury-News Times Co. since 1938. Administrative Director, Union Mines Development Corp. (a Unit of Union Carbide & Carbon Corp., New York City). Residence: Brushy Hill Road. Office: 288 Main St., Danbury, Conn.

WHITE, WILLIAM BEW, American Lawyer; born Apr. 16, 1888, Albany, N. Y.; son of John Jay and Charlotte Eliza (Bew) White; educated at Cornell Univ., LL.B. 1909; married Mary Lee Drennen, Nov. 10, 1914; three children. Admitted to New York Bar, 1909; associated with Davies, Auerbach & Cornell, New York City, until 1913; admitted to Alabama Bar, 1913; Assoc. of Tillman, Bradley & Morrow, Birmingham, Ala., 1913-16; junior member of firm, 1916-25; senior member of firm (now White, Bradley, Arant & All) since 1925. Director: Birmingham Trust & Savings Co.; Birmingham Fire Insurance Co.; Continental Gin Co.; Pacific American Investors, Inc.; Tutwiler Hotel Co.; Birmingham Electric Co.; Southern Airways Co., etc. Member: Amer., State of Alabama and Birmingham Bar Assns.; Assn. of Bar of the City of New York (non-resident), etc. Author of Alabama Banking Legislation (during and following Bank Holidays and reopenings, 1933). Address: 2100 Comer Bldg., Birmingham 3, Ala.

WHITE, Dr. WILLIAM CRAWFORD, American Surgeon; born 1886; educated at Wesleyan Univ., B.S., 1908; Columbia Univ., College of Physicians and Surgeons, M.D., 1912. Clinical Prof. of Surgery, Columbia Univ., College of Physicians and Surgeons. Attending Surgeon, Roosevelt Hosp. Consulting Surgeon: Woman's Hosp., New York; Tuxedo Memorial Hosp., Tuxedo Park. Pres., N. Y. County Medical Soc., 1946. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons. Member, Amer. Med. Assn. Residence: 103 E. 86th St. Office: 107 E. 85th St., New York, N. Y.

WHITE, WILLIAM LINDSAY, American Editor, Writer; born June 17, 1900, Emporia, Kans.; son of William Allen and Sallie (Lindsay) White; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1924; married Kathrine Klinkenberg, Apr. 29, 1931; one daughter. Engaged in newspaper work, since 1924; Editor, The Emporia (Kansas) Gazette, since 1943. Member, Kansas Legislature, 1931. War Correspondent, 1939-46. Roving Editor, Readers Digest, 1942. Director, Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Assn. Author: What People Said, 1938; Journey for Margaret, 1941; They Were Expendable, 1942; Queens Die Proudly, 1943; Report on the Russians, 1945; Report on the Germans, 1947; Lost Boundaries, 1948. Residence: 160 E. 66th St. ,New York 21, N. Y. Office: The Emporia Gazette, Emporia, Kansas.

WHITE, Rev. Dr. WILLIAM RICHARDSON, American Clergyman; born near Brownsboro, Texas, Dec. 2, 1892; son of Gibson and Kittie (Dorman) White; educated at Howard-Payne College, A.B. 1917, D.D. 1927; Southwestern Baptist Seminary, Th.M. 1922, Th.D. 1924; Baylor Univ., D.D. 1930; married Edna V. Woods, Jan. 17, 1916. Ordained Minister, Baptist Church, 1911. Pastor: Goldthwaite, Texas, 1917-19; Royce City, 1919-23. Prof. of Missions, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, 1923-27. Pastor: First Baptist Church, Greenville, Texas, 1927-28; First Baptist Church, Lubbock, Texas, 1928-29. Executive Secy., Baptist General Convention of Texas, 1929-31. Pastor: Broadway Church, Fort Worth, Texas, 1931-35; First Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, Okla., 1935-40. Editorial Secy., Sunday School Board, Southern Baptist Convention, 1943-45; Pastor, First Baptist Church, Austin, Texas, since 1945. Director, Foreign Mission Board, Southern Baptist Convention, 1931-35; Executive Secy., United Forces Against the Liquor Traffic, 1932-35. Address: First Baptist Church, 10th and Colorado, Austin, Texas.

WHITE, Rt. Hon. Sir WILLIAM THOMAS, G.C.M.G., P.C., Canadian Banker; born Nov. 13, 1866, near Bronte, Halton Co., Ont.; son of James and Elizabeth (Graham) White; educated at Univ. of Toronto, B.A.; graduated Osgoode Hall, Toronto; married Annie Isabel Silverthorne, Sept. 20, 1890. Member, Bar of Ontario. Elected to House of Commons for Leeds, 1911; re-elected 1917; resigned seat, 1921; Minister of Finance, 1911; resigned in 1919. Acting Prime Minister during absence from Canada of Sir Robert Borden in attendance at Paris Peace Conf., 1918-19. Director: Canadian Bank of Commerce; Canada Life Assur. Co. (Toronto); Steel Co. of Canada (Hamilton, Ont.). Vice-Pres. and Director, National Trust Co. Ltd. (Toronto). Residence: 175 Teddington Park Ave. Office: 25 King St., W., Toronto 1, Ont., Canada.

WHITE, Dr. WILSON HENRY STOUT, American College President; born Dec. 1, 1881, Weston, W. Va.; son of Remington B. and Malinda E. (Knight) White; educated at West Virginia Univ., A.B. and A.M.; Salem College, Ped.D., and Johns Hopkins; married Grace E. Yoke, Aug. 22, 1908; five children. Began teaching, 1900. Principal, Cowen (W. Va.) H. S., 1908-10; Superintendent at Kingwood, 1910-11, Piedmont, 1913-18; Logan, 1918-20. Pres., Shepherd College, since 1920. Member: Shepherdstown City Council; Chairman, Eastern Panhandle Assn. for George Washington Bicentennial; Member, General Conference of the Methodist Church. Pres., West Virginia State Education Assn., 1927; Governor, West Virginia District of Kiwanis, 1930; Grand Master, West Virginia Masons, 1936; Grand Secy., Royal Arch Chapter, R. A. M. of W. Va., 1946—. Author: The Bishop's Story, Horse Shoe Ridge, etc. Address: Shepherdstown, West Virginia.

WHITEHAIR, FRANCIS PRESTON, American Lawyer; born Oct. 1, 1900, Chapman, Kans.; son of Ira A. and Edna (Burns) Whitehair; educated at John B. Stetson Univ., LL.B., 1921; Columbia Univ., Dr. Pol.Sc., 1943; married Nina L. Bizzelle, Apr. 2, 1924; three children. Law clerk, with Landis, Fish & Hull (DeLand, Fla), 1921; Junior Member, firm of Landis, Fish, Hull & Whitehair, 1926; Senior Member, firm of Hull, Landis & Whitehair, 1927-42; City Attorney, various cities in Volusia County, Fla.; Attorney, County Bd. of Public Instruction, at intervals, 1927-42; Special Asst. Attorney General of U. S., 1934-35; Member and Attorney, U. S. Govt. Control Com.; Pres., Stetson Alumni Assn., 1938; Pres., Volusia County Bar Assn., 1939. Member, State Bd. of Law Examiners of Florida, 1940-42. Director: Florida Citrus Exchange, 1932-36; St. Johns County Bridge Co., 1930-36; DeLand Chamber of Commerce, 1936. Pres., Central Florida State Baseball League, DeLand Baseball Assn., 1939. Member, Congressional Bd. of Appeals, Selective Service, 1940-41. Member: Volusia County, Florida State and Amer. Bar Assns.; Amer. Judicature Soc. Runner-up for Governor of Florida, Democratic primary, 1940. Awarded Bronze Star Medal, U. S. Navy, 1945; four authorized combat stars, Pacific duty, 1943-45. Author: Basic Science Law, 1939; Law regulating Florida Funeral Directors, 1937; insurance laws, 1931-39. Co-author: Amendments to AAA Act. Residence: 800 W. Voorhis Ave. Office: Pioneer Bldg., Drawer 690, DeLand, Fla.

WHITEHEAD, ALFRED, British Musician; born July 10, 1887, Peterborough, England; son of Alfred and Elizabeth (Wyles) Whitehead; educated at Peterborough Cathedral, under Dr. Haydn Keeton; Univ. of Toronto, Hon. Mus.D. 1922; married Amy Mosher, Dec. 25, 1913; one daughter. Organist, Trinity Congregational Church, Peterborough, 1905; Asst. Director, Mt. Allison Conservatory, Sackville, N. B., 1912; Organist and Director, Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal, since 1922. Composer for Protestant Church, published in London, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and in regular repertory of Westminster Abbey, London, St. John the Divine of New York, Washington Cathedral. Judge and Recitalist at music festivals and conventions in U. S. and Canada. Conductor of choir, The Cathedral Singers (160 voices), gave 1st Montreal performance of Bach's B Minor Mass. and Bach's St. Matthew Passion (1st Canadian). Pres., Canadian College of Organists, 1930, 1935, 1936. Fellow, Royal College of Organists of London (awarded Carte de LaFontaine prize for 1st place). Composer of motets, anthems, chorals, songs, and arrangements of old church melodies. Address: 1463 Bishop St., Montreal, Que., Canada.

WHITEHEAD, Lieut. General ENNIS CLEMENT, American Air Force Officer; born Sept. 3, 1895, Westphalia, Kans.; educated at Univ. of Kansas B.A. 1920. Commissioned 1st Lieut., Aviation Section, Signal Reserve, 1917; went to France; stationed at Issoudun, at the 3rd Aviation Instruction Center; Instructor and Test Pilot; Asst. Chief Test Pilot; entered Regular Army, 1920, with rank of 1st Lieut.; Capt., 1931; Major, 1939; Lieut. Col., 1941; Col. (temp.), 1942; Brigadier General (temp.), 1942; Major General (temp.), 1943; Lieut. General (temp.), 1945. Chief of Field Service Section, Supply Div., Office of the Chief of Air Corps, Washington, D. C., 1938; on duty in Balkans and Near East Section, Military Intelligence Division, War Dept. General Staff, Washington, D. C., 1938-40; Chief of Aviation Section, Military Intelligence Div., 1940-41; Commanding Officer, Air Corps Advanced Flying School, Phoenix, Ariz., 1941-42; Deputy Commander, Fifth Air Force, Southwest Pacific, 1942-44; Com. General, Fifth Air Force, 1945; Com. General, Far Eastern Air Forces, Dec. 1945—. U. S. Awards: D.S.C., 1943; D.F.C., 1927; D.S.M., 1944; Silver Star, 1943; Air Medal, 1946; Oak Leaf Cluster to Air Medal, 1946; also many foreign decorations. Address: War Department, Washington, D. C.

WHITEHEAD, Dr. JOHN BOSWELL, American Engineer; born Aug. 18, 1872, Norfolk, Va.; son of Henry C. and Margaret W. (Taylor) Whitehead; educated at Johns Hopkins University, E.E. 1893, A.B. 1898, Ph.D. 1902; married Mary E. Colston, Apr. 14, 1903; two children. Electrical Engineer, Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co., 1893-96; Niagara Falls, N. Y., Power Co., 1896-97. Instructor, Applied Electricity, 1897-1900; Associate, 1901-04, Associate Professor, 1904-10, Dean, School of Engineering, 1919-38, Director of School of Engineering, 1938-42; Professor, Johns Hopkins University, since 1910. President, American Institute of Electrical Engineers 1933-34. Member: Natl. Acad. of Sciences. Fellow: American Institute of Electrical Engineers; American Physical Society. Awarded: Edward Longstreth Medal of The Franklin Institute, 1917; Triennial Prize, Institut Electrotechnique Montefiore, Liège, Belgium, 1922 and 1925; Elliott Cresson Medallist, The Franklin Institute, 1932; Médaille de l'Université, University of Nancy, France, 1927; Medal of Meritorious Achievement, Advertising Club of Baltimore, 1933; Edison Medal, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, 1942. Associate Editor, Journal of Applied Physics, 1939-40. Author: Electric Operation of Steam Railways, 1909; Dielectric Theory and Insulation, 1927; Impregnated Paper Insulation, 1935; Electricity & Magnetism—Introduction to Mathematical Theory, 1939. Address: Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md.

WHITEHEAD, Prof. JOHN HENRY CONSTANTINE, British Mathematician; born Nov. 11, 1904, Madras, India; son of Henry and Isabel (Duncan) Whitehead; educated at Eton; Balliol College, Oxford, 1923-26; Princeton Univ. Graduate College, 1929-32; married Barbara Smyth, July 30, 1934; one son. Commonwealth Fund Fellow, 1929-32. Fellow and Tutor, Balliol College, Oxford, 1933-46. Waynflete Prof. of Pure Mathematics and Fellow of Magdalen College, Oxford, 1947—. Fellow, Royal Soc., London. Member: London Mathematical Soc., Amer. Mathematical Soc. With Admiralty and Foreign Office, 1941-45. Author: Foundations of Differential Geometry (with Prof. O. Veblen); also various articles on mathematics. Residence: 22 Charlbury Road. Office: Magdalen College, Oxford, England.

WHITEHORN, Dr. JOHN CLARE, American Psychiatrist; born December 6, 1894, Spencer, Neb.; son of Geneo and Laura E. (Smith) Whitehorn; educated at Doane College, A.B. 1916; Harvard University, M.D. 1921; married Jeannette Miller, June 22, 1921; three children. Assistant in Physiol. Chemistry at McLean Hospital, Waverly, 1921-23; Physiol. Chemist until 1938; Dir. of Laboratories, 1930-38; Research Fellow in Psych., Mass. General Hosp., 1935; then Assoc. Psych., 1936-38; Special Instructor in Social Psychiatry, Simmons College, 1936-38; Instructor of Psych., Harvard Univ. Med. School, 1936-38; Prof. of Psych., Wash. Univ., St. Louis, 1938-41; Psych. in Chief, Barnes Hosp., 1938-41; Head, Wash. Univ. Psych. Service of Malcolm A. Bliss Psychopathic Institute of St. Louis City Hosp., 1939-41; Henry Phipps Prof. of Psych. and Dir. of Dept. of Psych. at Johns Hopkins Univ. and Psych.-in-Chief of Johns Hopkins Hosp. since 1941. Fellow of Amer. Psych. Assn. and Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member: Natl. Research Council; Com. on Neuropsych. of Natl. Research Council; Sub-com. on Personal Relationships in Industry of Natl. Research Council; Amer. Bd. of Psych. and Neurol. (Pres. 1946); Amer. Med. Assn.; Natl. Com. for Mental Hygiene; Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Disease; New York Acad. of Science; Pres., Johns Hopkins Med. Soc., 1944-45; Pres., Amer. Soc. Research in Psychosomatic Problems, 1945. Member Editorial Bd. of Archives of Neurol. and Psych., Psychosomatic Med., and Amer. Journal of Psych. Residence: 210 Northfield Pl. Office: Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md.

WHITEHOUSE, Dr. FREDERICK W., Australian Geologist; born Dec. 20, 1900, Ipswich, Queensland; son of Frederick W. and Florence A. (Terrey) Whitehouse; educated at Univ. of Queensland, B.Sc. 1922, M.Sc. 1924, D.Sc. 1931; Univ. of Cambridge, Ph.D. 1925. Govt. Geologist, Geological Survey of Queensland, 1925. Lecturer in Geology, Univ. of Queensland; Palaeontologist to Geological Survey of Queensland and Hon. Palaeontologist to Queensland Museum, since 1926. Seconded to Queensland Govt. in charge of underground water researches, since 1939. Business Manager, Brisbane Repertory Theatre Soc., 1926-29; Commnr. for Central Brisbane in Boy Scouts Assn., 1931-34. Councillor: Royal Soc. of Queensland (Pres. 1941); Field Naturalists Soc. of Queensland (Pres. 1926); Great Barrier Reef Com. Received Gold Medal of Univ. of Queensland; Walter Burfitt Prize, Royal Soc. of New South Wales. Carried out exploratory surveys in Central Australia annually since 1930. Author of numerous scientific papers on geology, geography, underground waters and palaeontology of Queensland. Address: University of Queensland, Dept. of Geology, Brisbane, Queensland, Australia.

WHITELAW, Dr. WILLIAM MENZIES, Canadian Historian; born May 13, 1890, Valcartier, Que.; son of James Menzies and Sarah (McEwen) Whitelaw; educated at Univ. of Toronto, B.A. 1910; Union Theological Seminary, B.D. 1914; Columbia Univ., A.M. 1921, Ph.D. 1934; married Doris Frances Smith, 1938; two children. Instructor of History, Columbia Univ., 1925-26; Asst. Prof. of History, Rutgers Univ., 1926-33. Asst. Prof. of History, McGill Univ., 1933-35; Executive Secy. of Public Archives of Canada, 1937-40. Prof. of History, Univ. of Saskatchewan, 1940-46; Prof. of History and Acting Chairman of Dept., United College, Winnipeg, 1946—. Author: The Maritimes and Canada Before Confederation, 1934. Address: United College, Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

WHITELEY, Rt. Hon. WILLIAM, P.C., British Politician; born October 3, 1882, Littleburn, Co. Durham, England; son of Samuel and Ellen (Bragan) Whiteley; educated at Elementary School, Brandon Colliery, evening classes; received diplomas in shorthand, bookkeeping, accountancy and business economics; married Elizabeth Swordy Jackson, May 10, 1902; two children. Began career in 1893 as a miner. Financial Secretary and Insurance Secretary of Durham Miners Assn., 1912-22; President, Durham Aged Mineworkers Assn. since 1926 and of Durham Miners Approved Society since 1923. Candidate for the Labour Party, 1918; elected to Parliament in 1922; Labour Party Whip, 1926; Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, 1929-31; Comptroller of the Royal Household, 1940-42; Joint Parliamentary Secretary to Treasury and Labour Chief Whip, 1942; Chief Government Whip and Parliamentary Secretary to Treasury, 1945. Made Privy Councillor in 1943. Treasurer, Workers Educational Assn. Residence: Blaydon, Ashtrees Gardens, Gateshead-on-Tyne. Office: 12 Downing St., London, S.W. 1, England.

WHITEMAN, PAUL, American Musical Director, Composer; born March 28, 1891, Denver, Colo.; son of Wilberforce J. and Elfrida Whiteman; educated at Denver High School; Denver University; married Margaret Livingston; two children. Made concert debut in Aeolian Hall, Feb. 1924, where he introduced Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue; made concert tours of U. S., 1924-26; Europe, 1926; played hotel and theatre engagements throughout United States since 1920; conducted various radio programs; Director of Music, The Blue Network. Guest Conductor with the San Francisco Symphony and Los Angeles Symphony; appeared in motion pictures, "King of Jazz," "Atlantic City," "Rhapsody in Blue." Co-Author: (with Mary Margaret McBride) "Jazz," 1926. Residence: Walking Horse Farm, Rosemont, N. J.

WHITING, JACK, American Actor, Singer and Dancer; born June 22, 1901, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Dr. Albert D. and Laetitia (Perot) Whiting; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania; Philadelphia Business College; married Beth Sully, June 27, 1929. Appeared in following shows: Ziegfeld Follies, 1922; Orange Blossoms; Aren't We All; Stepping Stones; Annie Dear; Rainbow Rose; The Ramblers; Yes, Yes, Yvette; She's My Baby; Hold Everything; Heads Up; America's Sweetheart; Take a Chance; Calling All Stars; Hooray for What; Hold on to Your Hats; Arsenic and Old Lace; The Overtons; The Red Mill. Played in London productions of Anything Goes; Rise and Shine; On Your Toes. Appeared in motion picture films: Top Speed; College Lovers; Life of Party; Men of Sky; Give Me a Sailor; Sailing Along (in London; appeared in television and radio. Residence: 325 E. 57th St. Office: c/o The Lambs, 130 W. 44th St., New York, N. Y.

WHITING, JOHN TALMAN, American Industrialist; born Aug. 1, 1887, Detroit, Mich.; son of Alexander T. and Louise (Martine)) Whiting; educated at Univ. of Michigan, M.E. 1909; married Ruth Clare, July 6, 1918; two sons. Pres. and Director of Rainey Wood Coke Co. (Conshohocken, Pa.). Director: Birdsboro Foundry and Machine Co. (Birdsboro, Pa.); Norristown-Penn Trust Co. American Iron & Steel Inst. Member: Eastern States Blast Furnace & Coke Oven Assn.; Amer. Inst. of Mechanical Engineers. Director, American Coke & Coal Chemicals Inst.; Deputy Director, Steel Division, War Production Board, May, 1943; Director of Division, July 1, 1943. Residence: Parkes Run Lane, Ithan, Pa. Office: Conshohocken, Pa.

WHITING, JUSTIN R., American Lawyer, Utilities Executive. Engaged in practice of law in New York City. President, Commonwealth and Southern Corp. (succeeding late Wendell L. Willkie), 1940—. President, Consumers Power Co. in Michigan. Director: Bankers Trust Co.; Michigan Gas Storage Co.; Savannah River Electric Co., etc. Address: Commonwealth and Southern Corp., 20 Pine St., New York, New York.

WHITLEY, SAMUEL HENRY, Ameri-College President; born in Cleburne, Tex., Sept. 1, 1878; son of Albert H. and Mary Elizabeth (Shipley) Whitley; educated at Trinity Univ., B.L. 1901, B.A. 1925; Austin College, Litt.D. 1925; Southern Methodist Univ., M.A. 1926; Trinity Univ., LL.D. 1929; married Lucy Braden Love, Dec. 27, 1904; three children. Taught in rural public schools of Texas, 1898-1903. Supt. of Public Schools, Thornton, Tex., 1903-06. High School Principal at Mexia, Tex., 1906-09, and at Corsicana, Tex., 1909-14. Asst. Supt. of Public Instruction of State of Texas, 1914-19; Dean of East Texas State Teachers College, 1919-24; Pres. since then. Pres. of Amer. Assn. of Teachers College, 1930-31, and Southern Assn. of Colleges and Secondary Schools, 1940-41. Pres., Texas Soc. for Crippled Children, since 1935. Governor of Rotary Internatl., 48th District, 1929-30; Mason. Author of numerous magazine and newspaper articles. Address: Commerce, Texas.

WHITLOCK, ALBERT NEWLON, American Lawyer; born near Richmond, Ky., Sept. 1, 1887; son of James V. and Alice F. (Baker) Whitlock; educated at Univ. of Kentucky, A.B. 1906, M.A. 1908; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1911; married Charlotte Thurston, Aug. 29, 1912. Began practice of law, 1911. Prof. of Law, Univ. of Montana, 1913-35; Dean, Law School, 1915-18. Member, law firm of Murphy & Whitlock, 1917-39. General Attorney at Seattle, Wash. of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific R.R. Co., 1935-39; Counsel for Trustees at Chicago, 1939-45; Vice-Pres. and General Counsel since 1945. Ex-Pres., Montana Bar Assn. Member: Amer., Illinois, Chicago, Montana and Washington Bar Assns. Residence: 300 Sheridan Rd., Kenilworth, Ill. Office: 888 Union Station Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

WHITLOCK, WILLIAM ARTHUR, New Zealand Editor and Publisher; born July 2, 1891, Nelson, N. Z.; son of William Charles and Mary Saul (Alexander) Whitlock; educated at Canterbury College; married Gertrude Beryl Gallien, Jan. 12, 1916; two sons and one daughter. Office boy to Town Clerk of Stratford, N. Z.; Accountant, Hastings Standard, 1908-12; Secy.-Manager, Hawke's Bay Tribune (which incorporated Hastings Standard), 1912-16; Sub-Editor, Hawke's Bay Tribune, 1919-23; Foreign News Editor, The Sun, Christchurch, 1923-27; News Editor, The Sun, Auckland, 1927-30; News Editor, The Dominion, Wellington, 1930-33; succeeded father as Managing Director and Editor, Hawke's Bay Tribune (which merged with Hawke's Bay Herald); Chmn., Provincial Section, New Zealand Newspaper Proprietors' Assn., since 1933; Director, New Zealand Press Assn. Leader of party of New Zealand journalists invited by British Govt. to visit Britain and war fronts, 1943-44. With New Zealand Expeditionary Force, 1916-18; wounded in France, 1918; second in command, Home Guard Battalion, Pacific War crisis, 1940-43. Residence: Te Mata Rd., Havelock, N. Z. Office: Karamu Rd., Hastings, N. Z.

WHITMAN, ARTHUR HANDFIELD, Canadian Business Executive; born May 7, 1870, Annapolis Royal, Nova Scotia; son of Thomas and Louisa (Tobias) Whitman; educated at high school; married Nellie E. Gates, 1892; four children. Began with Thos. Whitman, Halifax, 1892; Secy., Collas, Whitman Co., 1900; Managing Director, Chas. Robin Collas Co., 1905; Managing Director, Robin, Jones & Whitman, Ltd., 1910, Pres. since 1930. Pres. Mortgage Corp., Nova Scotia; Director, Nova Scotia Light & Power Co. ,Member, Advisory Board, Royal Trust Co. Organizer and Ex-Pres., Halifax Community Chest; Ex-Pres., Halifax Welfare Bureau; Ex-Pres., Halifax Board of Trade; Ex-Vice-Pres., Canadian Chamber of Commerce; Ex-Chairman, Nova Scotia Fire Prevention Board; Ex-Commnr., Victoria General Hospital. Fellow, King's College (Member, Exec. Com. and Chairman of Finance Com.). Residence: 108 Oakland Rd. Office: Robin's Wharf, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

WHITMAN, EZRA B., American Consulting Engineer; born Feb. 19, 1880, Baltimore, Md.; son of Ezra B. and Belle Cross (Slingluff) Whitman; educated at Cornell Univ., C.E. 1901; married Fanny Glenn, Oct. 15, 1906; three children. Member, firm of Williams and Whitman, 1902-06; Division Engineer, Baltimore Sewerage Commn. on design and construction of sewage treatment works, 1906; Chief Engineer and Pres. of Water Board of Baltimore (design and construction of Filtration Plant and Loch Raven Dam), 1911-14. Member: firm of Grenier and Whitman, 1914-16; firm of Norton Bird and Whitman, 1916-25; Whitman, Requardt and Smith, 1925-44; Whitman, Requardt and Associates since 1944. Member and Chairman of Public Service Com. of Maryland, 1921-27. Chairman, Maryland State Roads Com., 1939-45. Trustee, Cornell Univ., since 1921; Director, Amer. Soc. of Civil Engineers, 1923-25. Chairman, Efficiency and Economy Commn. of Baltimore, appointed by Mayor to reorganize City Govt., 1924-28; Chairman, Efficiency and Economy Commn. of Pittsburgh, Pa., 1933-34. Member: Amer. Soc. of Civil Engineers (Pres. 1943); Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers; Amer. Inst. of Electrical Engineers; Amer. Assn. of Water Works; Amer. Public Health Assn. Major, Construction Division, Army, 1917-19. Residence: 139 West Lanvale St. Office: 1304 St. Paul St., Baltimore, Md.

WHITMAN, Prof. WALTER G., American Chemical Engineer; born in Winthrop, Mass., Nov. 30, 1895; son of John T. and Ida M. (Alexander) Whitman; educated at Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, B.S. 1917, M.S. 1920; married Martha T. Key, June 7, 1921; three children. Instructor, Dept. of Chemical Engineering, M.I.T., 1918-20; Asst. Prof., 1920-25; Head of Dept. since 1934. Asst. Research Director, Standard Oil Co. (Indiana), 1926-30; Assoc. Director of Research and Development, 1930-34. Consultant to War Production Board (formerly OMP), 1941-42; Asst. Chief, Chemicals Branch, 1942. Chairman, Sub-Com. on Aircraft Fuels and Lubricants, Natl. Advisory Commn. for Aeronautics (1940-45); Director, Amer. Inst. for Chemical Engineers. Address: Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass.

WHITMER, THOMAS CARL, American Composer, Conductor, Author; born in Altoona, Pa., June 24, 1873; son of Rev. A. Carl and Susanna (Fairer) Whitmer; educated at Franklin & Marshall College; married Helen Maison Crozier, May 19, 1898. Organist, St. James P. E. Church, Philadelphia, 1892-97; Pine Street Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg, Pa., 1898-99. Director of Music, Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., 1899-1909; Pennsylvania College for Women, Pittsburgh, 1909-16. Organist, Sixth Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, 1916-32. Composing since 1932. Author: The Way of My Mind, 1917; The Way of My Heart and Mind, 1920; The Art of Improvisation (third edition, 1941. Musical works include: Mary Magdalene (music drama), from which Syrian Night was played by Philadelphia Orchestra under Stokowski; Four Women (choral symphony); Out of the Night (for chorus and orchestra); Eternity, When God Laughed, Love (choral triptych for chorus and strings); Suite for Flute and Piano; Pilgrimage Towards Light (for mixed, male and children's choruses, and for full orchestra); Tone Poem: I Walk by the Three Rivers, etc. Residence: Orchard House, La Grangeville, N. Y.

WHITNEY, CORNELIUS VANDERBILT, United States Asst. Secretary for Air; born Feb. 1899; educated at Groton School, 1917; Yale Univ., 1922; married Eleanor Searle, June 1941; one son by present marriage; three children by former marriage. Commissioned 2nd Lieut., U. S. Army, World War I; pursuit pilot and flying instructor at Benbrook Field, Fort Worth, Texas. Founded Pan American Airways Corp. and was Chmn. of Bd. of Directors, 1928-1941; resigned to enter Army, World War II. Chmn., Bd. of Dirs., Hudson Bay Mining and Smelting Co., since 1931. Appointed Asst. Secy. for Air by President Truman, 1947—. Founded Marine Studios, 1935; now Chmn. of Bd. President: Whitney Industries, Inc.; C. V. Whitney Farms. Director, Metropolitan Opera Co. of New York. Trustee: Amer. Museum of Natural History; Whitney Museum of American Art. Candidate on Democratic ticket for U. S. Congress, 1932. Commissioned Major, Army of U. S., Air Corps, World War II; Colonel, 1943; served 14 months overseas in India with 9th U. S. Air Force at Alamein and throughout Egyptian Libyan campaign; at Cairo-Teheran Conf., Dec. 1943; on assault of Iwo Jima, 1945. Decorations: Bronze Battle Star on European Theater ribbon; Bronze Star and invasion arrow head on Pacific Theater ribbon; Legion of Merit; Distinguished Service Medal. Residence: Old Westbury, L. I., N. Y. Office: Dept. of the Air Force, Washington, D. C.

WHITNEY, GEORGE, American Financier. President of J. P. Morgan & Co., Inc.; also Member of the Board of Directors. Serves as Board Member of nmerous other financial and industrial enterprises, including General Motors Corp. and The Dscount Corp. of New York. Resigned as member of Board of Directors, Montgomery Ward & Co., 1948. Member of Board, John and Mary Markle Foundation, since 1944; Vice-Pres., 1945-48; President, 1948—. Address: 23 Wall St., New York, New York.

WHITNEY, Dr. HASSLER, American Mathematician; born Mar. 23, 1907, New York, N. Y.; son of Edward B. and Josepha (Newcomb) Whitney; educated at Yale, Ph.B. 1928, Mus.B. 1929; Harvard, Ph.D. 1932; Yale Univ., hon. Sc.D., 1947; married Margaret R. Howell, May 1930; one son, two daughters. Instr. in Mathematics, Harvard Univ., 1930-31. National Research Fellow, 1931-33. Instr. in Mathematics, Harvard Univ., 1933-35; Asst. Prof., 1935-40; Assoc. Prof., 1940-46; Prof. of Mathematics, since 1946. Member: Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Philosophical Soc. Member, Applied Mathematics Panel, National Defense Research Com., 1943-45. Author of numerous publications in mathematical research journals. Address: Dept. of Mathematics, Harvard University, Cambridge 38, Massachusetts.

WHITNEY, ROBERT AVERY, American Association Executive; born Nov. 7, 1912, Buffalo, N. Y.; son of John Boardman and Cora Edith (Avery) Whitney; educated at Univ. of Berlin, 1931-32; Univ. of Buffalo, 1933; Hobart College, A.B., 1935; married Georgina Hodgins, Apr. 22, 1939; (2nd) Vivien Avelin Runge, Oct. 14, 1944; two daughters. Sales Representative, Wilson & Co., Stamford, Conn., 1935-37; Statistician, Francis I. DuPont, New York, 1937; Eastern Sales Manager, Simplicity Prevue Mag., New York, 1937-40; Sales Promotion and Advertising Manager, Corning (N.Y.) Glass Works, 1940-43. Promotion Director, McGraw Hill Publishing Co., New York, 1943-46. Director of Encyclopedia Britannica Press, Chicago and New York, 1946-47. Exec. Dir., Natl. Federation of Sales Executives, New York, 1947-48; Pres., 1948—. Trustee and Member of Alumni Council, Hobart College. Chief of Controlled Materials Plan Div., War Production Bd., 1942-43. Special Consultant to Dir. of Reconstruction Finance Corp., 1944-45; Adviser to War Assets Administration, 1944-45; Consultant to Dir. of Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion, 1945-46. Residence: Pelham Biltmore, Pelham Manor, N. Y. Office: National Federation of Sales Executives, Hotel Shelton, New York 17, N. Y.

WHITNEY, Dr. WILLIS RODNEY, American Chemist; born Aug. 22, 1868, son of John J. and Agnes (Reynolds) Whitney; educated at Mass. Inst. of Technology; Univ. of Leipzig; D.Sc. from Union Univ., 1919; Syracuse Univ., 1925; Univ. of Michigan, 1927; Univ. of Rochester, 1932; Ch.D. from Univ. of Pittsburgh, 1919; LL.D., Lehigh Univ., 1929; married Evelyn Jones, 1890; one daughter. Began career in 1890 as a chemist. Director of the Research Laboratory of General Electric Co., 1900-32; Vice-Pres. in charge of research. Hon. Vice-Pres. since 1940. Taught Theoretical Chemistry at M.I.T. Among honors which have been accorded him are the Willard Gibbs Medal in 1916, the Chandler Medal in 1920, the Perkin Medal in 1921, the old Gold Medal of the National Institute of Social Sciences in 1928, the Franklin Medal in 1931, the Edison Medal and the Distinguished Service Gold Key of the Légion d'Honneur in 1937, and the Therapy in 1935, the title of Chevalier of the Legion d'Honneur in 1937, and the Marcellus Hartley Award of the National Academy of Sciences in 1938; also the John Fritz Medal of 1943; Industrial Research Inst. Medal, 1946. Member: Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Natl. Acad. of Sciences. Residence: R. D. 1. Office: Schenectady, New York.

WHITTAKER, DOUGLAS ARTHUR, Canadian Manufacturer; born June 21, 1889, Morrisburg, Ont., Canada; son of Charles Theodore and Mary (Colquhoun) Whittaker; educated at Morrisburg Collegiate Inst.; married Gertrude Isobel Ballantyne, June 2, 1920; two sons. Junior clerk, 1905; Pres. and Managing Director, Sherwin-Williams Co. of Canada, Ltd., since 1940. Pres. and Director: Canada Paint Co., Ltd.; Carter White Lead Co. of Canada, Ltd. Director: Martin-Senour Co., Ltd.; Lowe Brothers Co., Ltd.; Winnipeg Paint & Glass Co., Ltd. Pres., Maritime Paint & Varnish Co., Ltd. Residence: Apt. 15—3493 Atwater Ave. Office: 2875 Centre St., Montreal, Que., Canada.

WHITTAKER, Dr. EDMUND TAYLOR, British Mathematician; born Oct. 24, 1873; son of John and Selina (Taylor) Whittaker; educated at Cambridge Univ., Eng.; married Mary Boyd; five children. Fellow, Trinity College, 1896-1906, Royal Astronomer, Ireland, 1906-12. Professor, Mathematics, Edinburgh University, since 1912. Received Hon. LL.D. from St. Andrews and California Universities; Hon. Sc.D., Dublin, Manchester and Royal University of Ireland. Fellow, Royal Society; Hon. Fellow, Faculty of Actuaries; Hon. Foreign Member, Royal Accademia dei Lincei; Pontifical Academy of Sciences; Royal Academy of Naples; American Philosophical Society; Indian Mathematical Society; Royal Society of Edinburgh (President, 1939-44). Past President, London Mathematical Society; Mathematical Assn. Sylvester Medallist, Royal Society; De Morgan Medallist, London Mathematical Society; Rouse Ball Lecturer, Cambridge University, 1926; Hitchcock Professor, University of Calif., 1934. Donnellan Lecturer, Dublin University, 1946; Tarner Lecturer, Cambridge University, 1947. Author: Modern Analysis; Analytical Dynamics; History of the Theories of Ether and Electricity; Calculus of Observations; Beginning and End of the World; Space and Spirit. Address: Edinburgh University, Edinburgh, Scotland.

WHITTEMORE, HERBERT LUCIUS, American Mechanical Engineer; born Oct. 1, 1876, Milwaukee, Wis.; son of Lucius Lorenzo and Charlotte Elizabeth (Hanson) Whittemore; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, B.S. in M.E. 1903, M.E. 1910; married Elizabeth Amanda Kittredge, Mar. 31, 1923; two children. Engineer with A. P. Hanson Co., Berlin, Germany, 1905. Production Engineer, British Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co., Manchester, England, 1906; Instructor in Engineering Mechanics, Univ. of Illinois, 1906-10; Engineer of Tests, Watertown Arsenal, Mass., 1910-12; Instructor in Mechanics, Columbia Univ., 1912-16; Prof. of Mechanics, Univ. of Oklahoma, 1916-17; Chief of Engineering Mechanics Section, Natl. Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C., since 1917. Member: Amer. Assn. of Engineers; Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers; Amer. Soc. for Testing Materials; Amer. Welding Soc., etc. Awarded Morehead Medal by Internatl. Acetylene Assn., 1927; Longstreth Medal, Franklin Inst., 1937. One of the first to investigate strength of oxyacetylene welds, 1910; joint inventor of proving ring widely used for calibrating testing machines which apply loads. Residence: 3906 McKinley St. N.W. Office: National Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C.

WHITTEMORE, LAURENCE F., American Railroad Executive; born June 8, 1894, Pembroke, N. H.; son of Frederick B. and Candace (Norton) Whittemore; educated at Pembroke Acad.; married Evelyn D. Fulford, 1923; three sons. Started with Boston & Maine R.R. as a clerk, 1913. Municipal Accountant and Asst., New Hampshire Tax Commn., 1919-22; Member and Secy., 1925-29. General Manager, Fellows & Sons Lumber Co., 1922-25. General Representative, Boston & Maine & Maine R.R., and of Maine Central R.R., R.R., 1929-32; Asst. to the Pres. of Boston 1932; Pres., New York, New Haven & Hartford R.R., July 1948—. Pres., Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. Director: New England Power Co.; Connecticut River Power Co.; St. Maurice Power Co.; Brown Corp.; Boston Garden-Arena Corp.; Northern R.R.; Suncook (N.H.) Mills, etc. Address: New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, Hartford, Conn.

WHITTEMORE, Rt. Rev. LEWIS BLISS, American Bishop; born June 17, 1885, Hartford, Conn.; son of William Emmons and Mary Bliss (Robinson) Whittemore; educated at Yale University, B.A. 1907; Episcopal Theological School, B.D. 1915; Kenyon College, D.D. (honorary), 1939; married Helen Marie Crawford, 1917; three children. Supervising Teacher in the Philippine Islands, 1907-10; Master at Brent School, Baguio, P. I., 1910-12. Assistant at Christ Church, New York City, 1915-17; Associate Rector, Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, 1917-23. Rector: Trinity Church, Detroit, 1923-27; Grace Church, Grand Rapids, 1927-36. Elected Bishop Coadjutor, Western Michigan, 1936; Bishop of Western Michigan since 1937. Residence: 442 Madison Ave. Office: St. Mark's Cathedral, 134 N. Division Ave., Grand Rapids, Mich.

WHITTEN, Hon. JAMIE LLOYD, U. S. Congressman; born April 18, 1910, Cascilla, Miss.; son of Aylmer Guy and Nettie (Early) Whitten; educated at University of Mississippi; married Rebecca Thompson, June 20, 1940; one son. School Principal, 1930-31; elected to Mississippi House of Representatives, 1931; District Attorney, 17th District of Mississippi, 1933; re-elected in 1935 and 1939 without opposition to State House. Elected to the 77th and successive Congresses. Residence: Charleston, Miss. Office: 1215 House Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WHITTINGHAM, Sir HAROLD E., British Air Marshal; born Oct. 3, 1887, Portsmouth, Hampshire, England; son of Rear Admiral William and Annie (Crowley) Whittingham; educated at Christ's Hospital School, London; Greenock Acad.; Glasgow Univ., M.B., Ch.B. 1910, Hon. LL.D. 1943, F.R.F.P.S. 1926, F.R.C.P. 1930, Hon. F.R.C.S. 1945; Univ. of London, Public Health Diploma, 1919, Tropical Medicine and Health Diploma, 1920, F.R.C.P. 1940; married Agnes Seright, June 11, 1912; two children. Pathologist and Asst. Director of Research, Royal Cancer Hospital, Glasgow; Pathologist, Scottish Natl. Red Cross Hospital, Glasgow, 1915. Member, Royal Army Medical Corps, India and Mesopotamia, 1915-18. Pathologist, Royal Air Force, 1919; Director of Pathology, Royal Air Force, 1925-30; Consultant in Pathology and Tropical Medicine, 1930-39; Director of Hygiene, 1939-41; Director-General, Royal Air Force Medical Services, 1941-46; now Medical Adviser, British Red Cross Soc. Lecturer in Biochemistry, London School of Tropical Medicine; Chief Executive Officer, Flying Personnel Research Com., 1939-41; now Pathologist, Royal Buckinghamshire Hospital, Aylesbury. Hon. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Medicine, London; Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh; Royal Inst. of Public Health and Hygiene, London. Fellow: Royal College of Physicians, London; Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh; Royal Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow; Royal Soc. of Tropical Medicine of London. Member: Assn. of Military Surgeons, U. S. (Hon.); Pathological Soc. of Great Britain. Awards: Knight Commander of the Bath, 1945; Knight of British Empire, 1941; Knight of St. John, 1945; Commander, Legion of Merit of U. S. A., 1945; Commander, Cross and Star of Polonia Restituta, Poland, 1945; John Jeffries Awards, Insts. of Aeronautical Sciences, 1944; North Persian Memorial Medal, 1923; Chadwick Gold Medal, 1925. Address: British Red Cross Society, 14 Grosvenor Crescent, London, England.

WHITTINGTON, Dr. DORSEY, American Pianist; born March 30, 1899, Effingham, Ill.; son of Thomas A. W. and Effie (Wallace) Whittington; educated at Inst. of Musical Art; studied piano wtih Heinrich von Stein, Edwin Hughes, Richard Buhlig, Ernest Hutcheson, Carl Friedberg; composition with Percy Goetschius, and conducting with Dr. Damrosch; married Frances Kohn, 1923; three children. Made debut as concert pianist at Aeolian Hall, New York, 1922; taught at Institute of Musical Art, 1921-24; Head of Piano Department, Brooklyn Academy of Musical Art, 1922-26; held summer master classes at Winthrop College, 1926-31; University of Alabama, 1932-33. President, Birmingham Conservatory of Music, since 1930; Conductor, Birmingham Civic Symphony, since 1933; toured America in 1923, 1924, 1925, Europe in 1926, 1927, 1928. Since 1935 has been giving occasional recitals and two-piano recitals with his wife in the Southern States. Guest Artist Teacher for National Music Camp and University of Michigan at Interlochen, Mich., since summer of 1945; Chairman for Piano Contests, National Federation of Music Clubs, for 1946. Member, National Assn. of Music Schools (Vice-President, 1935-36). Recipient of Mus.D., Boguslawski College of Music. Compositions include works for piano and orchestra, Children's Suite for Orchestra, Homage à César Franck for orchestra, Etudes, Valse Viennoise, March Grotesque, Fantasie, Sonata for piano, etc. Address: Silver Lake, Mt. Pinson, Ala.

WHITTINGTON, Hon. WILLIAM MADISON, U. S. Congressman; born May 4, 1878, Franklin Co., Miss.; son of Alexander Madison and Margaret I. (McGehee) Whittington; educated at Mississippi College, Clinton, Miss. (first honors, 1898); Univ. of Mississippi, LL.B. 1899; married Anna Ward Aven, July 20, 1910; three children. Attorney at law, 1900; State Senator, 1916 and 1924; Member, U. S. House of Representatives, since 1925. Pres., Baptist Education Commn. of Mississippi. Member, Board of Trustees, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Ky. Residence: Greenwood, Miss. Office: 226 House Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WHITTLESEY, Dr. CHARLES RAYMOND, American Economist; born Sept. 24, 1900, Roseburg, Ore.; son of Charles Terrill and Penelope (Skinner) Whittlesey; educated at Philomath College, A.B. 1921; American Univ. of Beirut, A.M. 1924; Princeton Univ., Ph.D. 1928; married Mary Weaver Fox, June 19, 1929; one daughter. Instructor, American Univ. of Beirut, 1921-24; Instructor to Assoc. Prof., Princeton Univ., 1928-40; Economist, U. S. Tariff Commn., 1928; Research Staff, Natl. Bureau of Economic Research, 1942-44; Research Staff, Council on Foreign Relations, 1944-45. Prof. of Finance and Economics, Univ. of Pennsylvania, since 1940. Economist, Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., since 1941. Trustee, Lincoln Univ. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Royal Economic Soc. Author: Governmental Control of Crude Rubber, 1931; International Monetary Issues, 1937; Golden Avalanche (co-author), 1939; National Interest and International Cartels, 1946; also monographs, etc. Address: University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa.

WHITTON, Dr. JOHN BOARDMAN, American Professor of International Law; born Feb. 25, 1892, Oakland, Calif.; son of Charles Francis and Helen (Blakeslee) Whitton; educated at Univ. of California (A.B. 1916, J.D. 1920); married Eve Laguerre, 1926; one daughter. Began legal career 1920; engaged in private practice of law at San Francisco, until 1923. Studied international law in Europe (Aix-en-Provence, Paris, The Hague, and Geneva), 1923-26; lectured at Institut des Hautes Etudes Internationales, Paris, 1927, 1932 and 1934, at the Academy of International Law, The Hague, 1927, 1934. Director, Geneva Research Center, Professor at the Graduate Institute of International Studies, Geneva, 1936-38; now Associate Professor of International Law, Princeton University. Member: Board of Editors of American Journal of International Law; Revue Internationale française du droit des gens (Paris). Member: American Society of International Law; International Diplomatic Academy (Paris); International Institute of Constitutional History (Paris), etc. Author: "Neutralité et la Société des Nations," 1927; "La Doctrine de Monroe," 1933; "Propaganda by Short Wave" (co-author, 1941); "The Second Chance: America and the Peace," (editor and co-author, 1944). Address: Princeton University, Princeton, N. J.

WHITWILL, MARK, British Shipowner; born 1889, Bristol, England; son of Mark and E. R. (May) Whitwill; educated at Clifton College; Univ. College, Oxford; married M. E. Turner, 1915; one son and three daughters. Junior, firm of Mark Whitwill & Son, Ltd., 1910; Director since 1919; now Chairman of Board of Directors. Director: Avon Steam Ship Co., Ltd.; Frank S. Dawson, Ltd.; Cardiff, Jubilee Steam Navigation Co., Ltd.; Cardiff, F. L. Dawson, Ltd.; Newcastle-on-Tyne, Beverly Steamship Co., Ltd.; Walton Steamship Co., Ltd.; Edwardian Steamship Co., Ltd. Regional Controller of South Western Region, Ministry of Production, since 1944. Member of Council, Chamber of Shipping; Ex-Pres., Bristol Steamship Owners Assn. Served in Territorial Army, World War I; awarded D.S.O. and M.C.; mentioned in despatches. Residence: Kelston Knoll, Bath. Office: Mill Ave., Queen Sq., Bristol, England.

WHITWORTH, GEOFFREY ARUNDEL, C.B.E., British Dramatist; born Apr. 7, 1883, London; son of William and Phyllis Mary (Draper) Whitworth; educated privately; New College, Oxford; M.A. (Oxon.); married Phyllis Mary Bell; two children. Art Editor, Chatto and Windus, Publishers, 1907-28. Founded British Drama League, 1919; Director, until 1948; Chmn., 1948—. Hon. Secy., Shakespeare Memorial National Theatre Com. Governor, Shakespeare Memorial Theatre, Stratford-upon-Avon. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Literature. Broadcaster, B.B.C., London. Author: Bells of Paradise (novel), 1918; The Art of Nijinsky, 1918; Father Noah (play), 1919; The Theatre of My Heart, 1930; Haunted Houses (play), 1935; Theatre in Action, 1938; The Great Refusal, 1942. Contributor to Encyclopedia Britannica and to various periodicals. Residence: 24 Old Court Mansions, London, W. 8, England.

WHORF, JOHN, American Painter; born Jan. 10, 1903, Winthrop, Mass.; son of Harry C. and Sara (Lee) Whorf; studied under Charles Hawthorne and George Elmer Brown; Boston Museum School, under Hale and James; Grande Chaumière, Paris; Académie Colorossi, Paris; married Vivienne Wing, 1925; four children. Exhibited at Grace Horne Gallery, Boston, 1923. Held one-man shows in Boston and New York, 1923-46. Represented in: Metropolitan Museum, New York; Brooklyn (N. Y.) Museum; Boston Art Museum; Chicago Art Inst.; National Museum, Copenhagen, Denmark; Pitti Gallery, Florence, Italy; St. Louis, Andover, Montclair, San Francisco, Baltimore and Seattle Museums; Museum of Modern Art, Whitney Museum, Harkness Memorial; Fogg Museum, Harvard; Inst. of Technology, Mass.; Dodd Collection, Worcester, Mass. Member: National Acad.; Boston Watercolor Soc.; New York Watercolor Soc. Awards: M.A., Harvard Univ.; Logan Prize, Chicago Art Inst.; Sanity in Art Prize, Chicago; Natl. Acad. of Design. Address: 52 Commercial St., Provincetown, Massachusetts.

WHYBURN, Dr. WILLIAM MARVIN, American College President; born Nov. 12, 1901, Lewisville, Texas; son of Thomas and Eugenia Elizabeth (McLeod) Whyburn; educated at Univ. of Texas, A.B. 1922, M.A. 1923, Ph.D. 1927; married Marie Barfield, Dec. 29, 1923; two children. Asst., Prof. of Mathematics, Texas Technological College, 1925-26. Natl. Research Fellow, Mathematics, Harvard Univ., 1927-28. Asst. Prof. of Mathematics, Univ. of California, Los Angeles, 1928-30; Assoc. Prof., 1930-38; Prof. and Chmn., Dept. of Mathematics, 1938-44; Pres., Texas Technological Colleeg, 1944 —. Educational Superv., Univ. of Calif., engineering science, management war training program, 1941-44; Chief, Operations Analysis Section, Headquarters of 3rd Air Force, 1944. Member: Amer. Mathematical Soc. (Member of Council, 1939-43); Mathematical Assn. of America (1st Vice-Pres., 1944-45); Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (Member of Council, 1948), etc. Corresp. Member, La Academia Nacional de Ciencias Exactas, Fisicas y Naturales de Lima, 1943. Author: Basic Mathematics for War and Industry (with P. H. Daus and J. M. Gleason), 1944. Address: Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas.

WHYTE, WILLIAM, Canadian Financier; born July 17, 1883, Toronto, Ont.; son of William and Jane (Scott) Whyte; educated at Upper Canada College, Toronto, 1899-902; married Marguerite M. Blair, Sept. 4, 1907; four children. Clerk, Osler, Hammond & Nanton, Winnipeg, 1912; with W. J. Christie & Co., Winnipeg, 1910; with Huron & Erie Mortgage Corp. and Canada Trust Co. since 1913. Director: Winnipeg Electric Co.; Manitoba & Saskatchewan Coal Co. (Pres.); Sovereign Life Assurance Co. (Vice-Pres.). Member: Board of Regents, United College, Winnipeg; Welfare Supervision Board of Manitoba; Sanatorium Board of Manitoba; Winnipeg Community Chest Board (Chairman, 1940-41). Residence: 66 Kingsway. Office: Cor. Portage Ave. & Fort St., Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

WHYTE, WILLIAM FARMER, Australian Editor; born Dec. 13, 1879, Bombala, N.S.W.; son of Henry P. and Constance S. (Ricketts) Whyte; educated at Bombala State School; Orange Hill School; married Hilda G. Cusack, 1909; four children. Member of Reporting Staff of Daily Telegraph, Sydney, 1897-1909; Sub-Editor, New Zealand Herald, 1909-10. Engaged in reporting and sub-editorial work on Sydney Morning Herald, 1911-18. Editor of Daily Mail, Brisbane, 1918-21, and of Daily Telegraph, Sydney, 1921-23. Established Federal News Service, Canberra, 1927; presently Managing Editor. Member: Australian Journalists Assn.; Inst. of Journalists of New South Wales; Fellowship of Australian Writers. Author: With Stevenson in Samoa (with H. J. Moors), 1909; Whyte's Australian Parliamentary Handbook, 1947; Life of Right Hon. William Morris Hughes, C.H., P.C., M.P.; also various pamphlets on literary and Australian historical subjects. Residence: Barton, Canberra, A.C.T. Office: Parliament House, Canberra, Australia.

WIBAUT, Prof. JOHAN PIETER, Dutch Organic Chemist; born Feb. 20, 1886, Middelburg, The Netherlands; son of F. M. Wibaut and M. Berdenis van Berlekom; educated at Univ. of Amsterdam, D.Sc. 1912; married (2nd) A. J. P. van Gastel; four daughters. Asst., Univ. of Amsterdam, Laboratory of Organic Chemistry, 1912. Chemist, gas works in Amsterdam, 1913. Privatdocent of Organic Chemistry, Univ. of Amsterdam, 1915; research chemist on nitrogen fixation; Lecturer on Organic Chemistry, Univ. of Amsterdam, 1920; Prof. of Organic Chemistry and Director of Laboratory for Organic Chemistry since 1925. Member: Chemical Soc. of The Netherlands; Chemical Soc. of London; Amer. Chemical Soc.; Société chimique of France; Swiss Chemical Soc. Author of several editions of Holleman-Wibaut, a textbook of organic chemistry. Editor of several editions of Wibaut van Gastel's Practicum for Organic Chemistry. Contributor of more than 100 papers (mostly with collaborators) to Récueil des travaux chimiques des Pays-Bas. Address: University of Amsterdam, Nieuwe Achtergracht 189, Amsterdam, Netherlands.

WIBERG, (FRANS) MARTIN, Swedish Metallurgist; born Mar. 22, 1894, Uppsala, Sweden; son of Frans Olof and Eva Fredrika (Hammarstrom) Wiberg; educated at Royal Inst. of Technology, Stockholm, Metallurgical Engineer, 1917; married Greta Hartzell, Nov. 27, 1931. Metallographist, Domnarvet Iron Works, Sweden, 1917; Lecturer of Metallury, Mining and Metallurgy School, Falun, Sweden, 1917-30; Consulting metallurgical engineer, 1930-35; Lecturer of Metallurgy, Mining and Metallurgy School, Filipstad, Sweden, 1935-40; Prof. of Metallurgy, Royal Inst. of Technology, Stockholm, Sweden, since 1940. Inventor of new methods for production of sponge iron, electric pig iron and steel. Member: Board of Metallografiska Instituet, Stockholm, Sweden; Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers; Royal Swedish Acad. of Engineering Sciences; Iron and Steel Inst., London; Svenska Teknologföreningen, Stockholm. Awards: Brinell Gold Medal, Royal Swedish Acad. of Engineering Sciences, 1940. Author: A new method for the production of iron sponge, 1927. Address: Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, Sweden.

WIBERG, Dr. (GEORG) GUNNAR (FREDRIK), Swedish Orthopedist; born Nov. 24, 1902, Göteborg, Sweden; son of Nils and Ellen Wiberg; educated at Karolinska Inst., Stockholm, cand. med. 1924, lic. med. 1928, M.D. 1939; married Stina Guttormsen, 1929; three children. Asst., Surgical and Roentgenological Dept., Serafimerlasarettet, Stockholm, 1929; Asst., County Hosp., Mariestad, 1930-33; Hälsingborg, 1933-37; Orthopaedic Clinic, Stockholm, 1937-44; Chief of Orthopaedic Clinic, Lund, since 1945. Prof. of Orthopedics, Univ. of Lund, 1947—. Director, Swedish Gymnastic Inst., Lund. Member: Svenska Läkarsällskapet; French Orthopedic Soc.; Internatl. Soc. of Orthopedic Surgery and Traumatology; Argentine Soc. of Orthopedic Surgery. Awarded: Finnish Freedom Cross, 4th class; Finnish Memorial Medal (Pro benignitate humana); Knight of Finland White Rose, 1st class. Author: Studies on dysplastic acetabula and congenital subluxation of the hip joint, 1939; Roentgenographic and anatomic studies on the femoro-patellar joint with special reference to chondromalacia patellae, 1941. Residence: Studentgatan 22. Office: Lasarettet, Lund, Sweden.

WIBERG, Dr. JOHAN CHRISTIAN KOREN, Norwegian Museum Director; born Oct. 10, 1870, Bergen, Norway; son of Johan Wilhelm and Bolette Marie (Kohler) Wiberg; educated at Cathedral School and the Technical School, Bergen; University of Hamburg, Ph.D. (Hon.); married (1st) Signe Thomsen, 1901 (divorced 1911); (2nd) Mary Hamil Gjertz, 1914. Painter, 1890-1900; later studied architecture, art and crafts in Denmark, Germany and Italy. Founded Art and Craft School of Bergen, 1909, served as Director until 1933. Director, Hanseatic Museum, Bergen, since 1916. Honors: Knight of Norwegian Order of St. Olav; King Haakon's Gold Medal of Merit; Knight of the Danish Order of Dannebrog; Knight of Order of the Italian Crown; German Red Cross. Author of four novels, four scientific works which he also illustrated, a dramatic work produced by The Bergen Theatre in 1913, various translations, etc. Residence: Fjellvein 52. Office: Tyskebryggen, Bergen, Norway.

WIBERG, JOHN AKE TRULS, Member of Swedish Parliament; born Mar. 30, 1902, Gothenburg, Sweden; son of Yngve and Thyra (Flodin) Wiberg; educated at Gothenburg, 1920; Univ. of Lund, fil. kand. 1921, jur. kand. 1924; married Märta Holmström, Dec. 21, 1931; three children. Solicitor, 1924-40. Director, Aktiebolaget Malmö Strumpffabrik, 1934-40; Manager since 1940; Manager, Aktiebolaget Barnstrumpor, since 1940; Slipers Aktiebolaget, since 1940; Aktiebolaget Herman Gotthardt, since 1942. Pres., Sveriges Trikafabrikanters Foerening; Member, Board of Directors in Textilradet, Sveriges Industrifoerbund, and Svenska Textilfabri-kantfoereningen. Member, Malmö Town Council, 1930-46; Member, Swedish Parliament since 1940. Pres., Swedish State Council of Art (Statens Konstrad); Inspector of Malmö Borgarskola; Member, Nya Saellskapet, Stockholm. Decorated Knight, North Star Order and Vasa Order; Finnish Lion Order. Author: Bjarasläkten, 1944. Address Banérgatan 4, Stockholm, Sweden.

WIBERG, OSCAR ANTON, Swedish Engineer; born July 4, 1886, Ullånger, Sweden; son of Olof and Maria Kristina (Sandström) Wiberg; educated at Technical College, Härnösand; married Anna Elisabet Trägårdh, July 23, 1889. Designer, A.B. Ljungströms Ångturbin, Stockholm, 1908-12; Chief Designer, Svenska Turbinfabriks AB Ljungström, Finspong, 1912-16, Chief Engineer, since 1916; Managing Director, A.B. Borggårds Bruk, Borggård, since 1926. Member: Royal Swedish Acad. of Engineering Sciences; Royal Swedish Engineering Soc. (awarded Gold Medal). Knight, Royal Vasa Order; Order Stella Polaris. Author: The Reversing Clutch Marine Turbine, 1921; High Pressure Water Tube Boilers, 1925; Recent Development of Radial Flow Turbines for High Outputs, 1929; High Pressures and Temperatures for Steam Prime Movers, 1929; Förutsättning för en sund ekonomisk utveckling, 1935; Angturbiner av i dag, 1937; Economy of Heat Engines—a Material Question, 1945. Address: Finspång, Sweden.

WICANDER, CARL AUGUST, Swedish Manufacturer; born Aug. 13, 1885, Berlin, Germany; son of Hjalmar and Anna Wicander; passed examination for entry in university, 1904, and attended military school, 1904-06, later serving as Lieutenant of Royal Horse Guards of Sweden; married Vera Kosma, Nov. 23, 1913. Chairman of A. B. Wicanders Korkfabriker, Stockholm, and of A. B. Alka Aluminiumkapslar, Linköping. Director: Linoleum A. B. Forshaga, Göteborg; A. B. Svenska Handelsbanken, Stockholm; A. B. Järnförädling, Hälleforsnäs; Skand. Jutespinneri & Väfveri A. B., Oskarström; Sjöförsäkrings A. B. Agir, Stockholm; Continentale Linoleum Union, Zurich; N. V. Nederlandsche Linoleumfabriken, Krommenie. Member of Boards of various companies in Sweden, Finland, Germany, Holland, Belgium, France, Spain, Portugal, Switzerland, Great Britain and the United States, in cork, linoleum, textiles, iron, aluminum and banking. Residence: Harpsund Mellösa. Office: Stockholm 17, Sweden.

WICHERS, Dr. WYNAND, American Educator; born Feb. 15, 1886, Zeeland, Mich.; son of William and Wilhelmina (Pyle) Wichers; educated at Hope College, A.B. 1909, LL.D. 1931; Univ. of Michigan, A.M., 1918; Hon. L.H.D., Central College; Litt.D., Rutgers, 1940; married Alyda M. de Pree, June 25, 1912; two children. Prof. of History, Hope College, 1913-25; Instructor, Univ. of Michigan, 1917-18; Exec. Vice-Pres., 1st State Bank of Holland, 1925-31; Pres., Hope College, 1931-45. Member, Michigan State Bd. of Education, 1935-45. Vice-Pres., Western Michigan College of Education, 1945—. Created Knight, Order of Orange Nassau (Netherlands). Author: The Dutch in Western Michigan; Reformed Church Education in the West. Residence: 949 Walwood Pl., Kalamazoo, Mich.

WICHFELD, HUBERT, Danish Diplomat; born Dec. 15, 1886, Engestofte, Marribo; son of Henning and Ellen (Brun) Wichfeld; educated at Metropolitan School, 1904, cand.jur. 1910; married Brita W. Toll, Nov. 15, 1930. Served as Secretary, Consulate General, Hamburg, 1913; with Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1914-16 and 1919; First Vice-Consul, London, 1917; Vice-Consul, 1919; Secy. to Legation in Paris, 1921; Tokyo, 1921; Stockholm, 1924; Washington, D. C., 1930; Rome 1934; Chargé d'Affaires in Switzerland, 1940-45; now Minister in Athens. Address: Danish Legation, Athens, Greece.

WICK, MYRON ARMS, American Manufacturer; born Apr. 14, 1883, Youngstown, Ohio; son of Henry and Mary (Arms) Wick; educated at Yale Univ. (Sheffield School), Ph.B. 1904; married Lillian D. Schuttler, Mar. 2, 1910; two children. Secy.-Treas., Youngstown Furnace & Supply Co., 1905; Vice-Pres., Delaware River Steel Co., 1909-12; Vice-Pres. and Treas., Elyria Iron & Steel Co., 1914-27 (name of company changed to Steel & Tubes, inc.), elected Pres., 1928-30; Asst. to Tom H. Girdler, Pres. and Chairman, Republic Steel Corp., 1930-31. Vice-Pres. in charge of Finance, Republic Steel Corp., 1931-41. Pres. and Director: Jefferson Mining Co., Witch Hazel Coal Co., Shuttlewick Investment Corp. Member, Soc. of Plastic Industry, Inc. Residence: 655 Park Ave., New York, N. Y. Office: 280 Fairfield Ave., Stamford, Conn.

WICKARD, Hon. CLAUDE RAYMOND, American Administrator; born Feb. 28, 1893, Carroll Co., Ind.; son of Andrew Jackson and Iva L. (Kirkpatrick) Wickard; educated at Purdue University, B.S. 1915, Dr.Agr. 1941; married Louise Eckert, 1918; two daughters. Member, Indiana State Senate, 1933 (resigned). Assistant Chief, corn and hog section, A.A.A., Department of Agriculture, 1933-35; Chief, 1935-36. Assistant Director of North Central Division, 1937, and Director, 1937-40. Appointed Under Secretary of Agriculture, Feb. 1940; Secretary of Agriculture, Sept. 1940-June 1945. Appointed by President Truman, Administrator of Rural Electrification Administration, May 23, 1945. Member, Indiana Farm Bureau Federation; National Farm Bureau Federation; National Grange; Farmers Educational and Cooperative Union, etc. Residence: The Westchester. Office: Rural Electrification Administration, Washington, D.C.

WICKERSHAM, CORNELIUS WENDELL, American Lawyer; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B., 1906; Harvard Law School, LL.B., 1909. Admitted to New York Bar, 1909. Member of firm, Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft. Member, American Law Inst., etc. Address: 14 Wall St., New York 5, N. Y.

WICKES, FORSYTH, American Lawyer; born Oct. 26, 1876, New York, N. Y.; son of Edward A. and Mary (Forsyth) Wickes; educated at Yale Univ. and Columbia Law School; married Marian A. Haven, April 27, 1905; four children. Admitted to the Bar, 1900. Member of the firm of Wickes, Riddell, Bloomer, Jacobi & McGuire since its organization. Prior thereto he was a member of the predecessor firms of Wickes & Neilson, and Wickes Neilson & Riddell. Director: Shell Union Oil Corp.; Detroit Hillsdale & Southwestern R.R. Co.; Fort Wayne & Jackson R.R. Co.; Pilgrim Exploration Co. Guantanamo Sugar Co. Trustee: New York Historical Soc.; Trustee and President, French Inst.; Director and Board Chairman, French Lycée. Residence: Newport, R. I. Office: 60 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

WICKEY, HARRY H., American Sculptor, Etcher and Lithographer; born Oct. 14, 1892, Stryker, Ohio; son of Victor E. and Alice (Besancon) Wickey; educated at Detroit Acad. of Fine Arts, under John P. Wicker; New York School of Industrial Art, under Arthur Covey; Ferrer Modern School, N.Y.C., under George Bellows; married Maria Rother, 1921. Exhibited at Natl. Acad., N.Y.C., 1920. One-man shows: Civic Club, N.Y., 1929; Weyhe Gallery, N.Y.C., 1939; Cincinnati Museum of Art, 1940; Dayton Museum of Art, 1940; Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center, 1940; Associated American Artists Gallery, N.Y., 1941. Represented in permanent collections: Metropolitan Museum, N.Y.; New York Public Library; Whitney Museum, N.Y.; Boston Museum of Fine Arts; Philadelphia Museum of Art; Library of Congress; Chicago Art Museum; Wichita Museum of Art; Nebraska Art Assn.; Addison Gallery; Phillips Andover Acad.; Carnegie Inst., Pittsburgh, Pa. Instructor in Etching, Life Drawing and Composition, Art Students League of N.Y., 1929-33; Artist-in-Residence, Bucknell Univ., since 1942. Awards: Guggenheim Fellowships in Sculpture, 1939-40; Hon. Member, Amer. Soc. of Etchers, 1944; Shaw Prize for Etching, Salmagundi Club, 1925; Logan Prize for Etching, Chicago Soc. of Etchers, 1926; Bronze Medal for Etching, Sesquicentennial Exposition, Philadelphia, 1926; Noyes Prize for Etching, Amer. Soc. of Etchers, 1934; Author: Thus Far, an autobiography (American Artists Group), 1940. Address: Cornwall Landing, N. Y.

WICKEY, Dr. NORMAN JAY GOULD, American Clergyman; born Sept. 25, 1891, Eshcol, Pa.; son of William O. and Jennie A. (Hartman) Wickey; educated at Gettysburg College, A.B. 1912; Lutheran Theological Seminary of Gettysburg, B.D. 1915; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1916, Ph.D. 1923; married Ethel R. Basehoar, Aug. 29, 1917; four children. Pastor, Georggetown Lutheran Church of Washington, D. C., 1916. Prof. of Philosophy, Concordia College (Minn.), 1920-26; Pres. of Carthage (Ill.) College, 1926-29; Executive Secy., Lutheran Board of Education, since 1929; General Secy., Council of Church Boards of Education, since 1935; General Secy., Natl. Commn. on Christian Higher Education; Executive Secy., Amer. Assn. of Theological Schools, 1942-46. Editor, Christian Education; Handbook on Christian Higher Education (1940). Co-author, Going to College, 1936. Residence: 7516—16th St., N.W. Office: 744 Jackson Pl., N.W., Washington, D. C.

WICKHAM, FLORENCE, (Mrs. F. W. Lueder), American Composer and Singer; born at Beaver, Pa.; daughter of John J. Wickham; educated at Beaver College and Musical Inst., Beaver, Pa.; studied voice with Albert Groff, Philadelphia; married Eberhard L. Lueder, 1912. Made debut as an opera singer at Grand Opera, Wiesbaden; appeared at Royal Opera in Munich; as Kundry in H. W. Savage's English production of Parsifal; in Berlin; Schwerin Mecklenburg; Covent Garden, London; Metropolitan Opera, New York; as Allan-a-Dale in De Koven's production of Robin Hood; retired from stage after marriage and has since devoted her time to composing. Compositions include many songs, a musical version of Shakespeare's "As You Like It," 1936 (produced at Carmel, N. Y. in 1938, Dresden, Germany, 1938), and various ballets, three of which, "Indian Summer," "Carnival in Prison," and "Gift of Laughter," produced at Chautauqua, 1945. Awarded Gold Medal for Excellence in Music, Beaver College; Decoration for Arts and Sciences, Europe. Address: Little Silver, N. J.

WICKHEM, Hon. JOHN DUNNE, American Jurist; born May 25, 1888, Beloit, Wis.; son of James George and Mary (Dunne) Wickhem; educated at Beloit College (A.B. 1910, LL.D. 1930); University of Wisconsin (LL.B. 1916, LL.D. 1940); married Mary Luella Carroll, Sept. 11, 1920; two sons. Member, law firm of Lenicheck, Boesel & Wickhem in Milwaukee, 1917-30. Assistant Professor of Law, University of Wisconsin, 1919-22; Associate Professor, 1922-25, Professor, 1925-30. Justice, Supreme Court of Wisconsin, since 1930, Commissioner on Uniform Laws, 1928-30. Chief, Editorial Div., Bureau of War Trade Intelligence during First World War. Member, Council American Law Institute, Consultant on the Code of Evidence, Advisor on Restatements of Security and Restitution and the Commercial Code. Residence: 716 Edgewood Ave., Madison, Wis. Office: Supreme Court Chambers, Madison, Wis.

WICKMAN, CARL ERIC, American Transportation Executive; born Aug. 7, 1887, Sweden; son of Carl V. and Anna (Martis) Wickman; married Olga Rodin, 1916; two children. Began as a diamond drill operator, 1906. Started a shuttle service between Hibbing, Minn., and the mine, 1914; sold a substantial share of the Northland Transportation Co. to the Great Northern Rwy., 1925; incorporated Motor Transport Corp., which in 1927, following a period of expansion, was renamed the Greyhound Corp., of which is now Chairman. Director: Atlantic Greyhound Corp., Capitol Greyhound Lines, Central Greyhound Lines, and of Dixie, Florida, Great Lakes Illinois, New England, Northland, Northwestern, Pacific Pennsylvania Richmond, Southwestern, and Western Canadian Greyhound Lines. Awarded Royal Order of Vasa, 1st Class. Residence: Wilmette, Ill. Office: Board of Trade Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

WICKS, Dr. ROBERT RUSSELL, American Clergyman; born June 3, 1882, Utica, New York; son of Russell H. and Mary C. (Head) Wicks; educated at Hamilton College, A.B. 1904, M.A. 1908, D.D. 1919; Union Theological Seminary, B.D. 1908; Williams College, D.D. 1925; Yale University, D.D. 1926; Rutgers University, D.D. 1937; married Eleanor McMaster Hall, Oct. 18, 1910; five children. Pastor: Arlington Avenue Presbyterian Church, East Orange, N. J., 1908-14; Second Congregational Church of Holyoke, Mass., 1914-28. Chaplain, Mt. Holyoke College, 1926-28; Dean, Princeton University Chapel, 1928-47. Trustee, Union Theological Seminary of New York. Author: Reason for Living, 1934; One Generation and Another, 1939; What is a Man? 1947. Address: University Chapel, Princeton, New Jersey.

WICKSER, PHILIP JOHN, American Lawyer; born April 4, 1887, Buffalo N. Y.; son of John G. and Katherine A. (Houck) Wickser; educated at Cornell University, A.B. 1908; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1911; married Margaretta M. Fryer, Feb. 3, 1915; three children. Admitted to the Bar of New York State in 1912; Bar of the Supreme Court of the United States, 1926; began practice in Buffalo with Kenefick, Cooke, Mitchell & Bass, 1912; member firm of Palmer, Houck & Wickser, since 1914. (Palmer, Garono, Houck & Wickser, 1921-32). Specialized in general, corporate, estate and administration practice. Appointed Secretary and Treasurer of the New York Board of Law Examiners, 1921, member, Federal Board of Legal Examiners, 1941-43. Secretary and later Chairman of the New York State Temporary Emergency Relief Administration, 1931-32. Appointed by Governor Lehman as Vice-Chairman of the Governor's Commission on Unemployment Relief, 1934-36. President: Bar Association of Erie County, 1926; Federation of Bar Associations of Western New York, 1928. Member, Board of Governors, American Bar Association, 1939-42. Organized and was Chairman, National Conference of Bar Examiners, 1931; Chairman, Conference of Bar Association Delegates in 1932. Charter member, American Law Institute. Director, American Judicature Soc. Chmn. of Bd., Buffalo Ins. Co., 1928—. Director: Marine Trust Co..; Marine Safe Deposit Co.; Dunlop Tire & Rubber Co. Author: "Bar Examinations"; "Law Schools and the Law"; "Bar Associations"; "Representative Government in the American Bar Association." Residence: 245 Nottingham Terrace. Office: 6 Buffalo Insurance Bldg., Buffalo 3, New York.

WICKSTROM, JOSEPH ERNEST, American Consulting Engineer; born Aug. 1, 1883, Clay County, Kans.; son of Frederick Matson and Elizabeth (Miles) Wickstrom; educated in public and private schools and under private tuition; a Registered Professional Civil-Electrical-Mechancial and Hydraulic Engineer; Registered Public Accountant. Electrical and civil engineer, engaged in installing electric power at Coeur d'Alene Mines, 1901-02; engaged in mining, 1900-04; electrical engineer for Alaska Treadwell Gold Mines, 1904-06 Asst. to Supt. of Seattle-Tacoma Power Co.., 1906-08; Pres., Snohomish Electric Co., 1909-10, and of the Shelton Electric Co. 1910-12, and sold to West Coast Power Co. of which was Pres., 1912-14; Pres., Northwest Telephone Co., 1914-22. Produced first portable radio and the first radio-phonograph, 1923-27; Pres., Great Northern Power Co., 1927-29; consulting engineer since 1908. Designed Lake Cushman development and aerial electric-transmission span at Tacoma, longest in the world. Pres. and Dir., Wedgewood Co., Wickstrom & Co., Security Ins. Agency, Guaranteed Bonds Corp., Amer. Mines and Smelters Corporation, Realty Founders Corp., and Director of Willapa Pulp & Paper Mills. Residence: Wedgewood Court. Office: 760 Empire Bldg., Seattle, Wash.

WIDDEMER, MARGARET, American Novelist and Poet; born in Doylestown, Pa.; daughter of Rev. Howard Taylor and Alice (DeWitt) Widdemer; educated privately; (hon.) M.A., Middlebury; Litt.D., Bucknell University; married R. H. Schauffler (divorced). Lecturer, Breadloaf Writers' Conference, 1928-32; Colorado and Durham Writers' Conferences since 1933. Lecturer, New York University, since 1943, etc. Vice-President, Poetry Society of America. Received Poetry Society of America Award (later Pulitzer Prize) for the best book of poems, and the Trimmed Lamp Award for best lyric, 1917; awarded Literary Review Prize for best satire, Tree With A Bird, 1923, etc. Author: Rose Garden Husband, 1915; Why Not?, 1916; Wishing Ring Man, 1917; Boardwalk, 1919; I've Married Marjorie, 1930; Year of Delight, 1921; Graven Image, 1923; Charis Sees It Through, 1924; Gallant Lady, 1926; More Than Wife, 1927; Rhinestones, 1929; Loyal Lover, 1930; All the King's Horses, 1931; Truth About Lovers, 1932; Golden Rain, 1933; Years of Love, 1933; Back to Virtue Betty, 1932; Other Lovers, 1935; Eve's Orchard, 1935; Marriage Is Possible, 1936; This Isn't The End, 1937; Hand On Her Shoulder, 1938; Ladies Go Masked, 1939; She Knew Three Brothers, 1939; Some Day I'll Find You, 1940; Let Me Have Wings, 1941; Angela Comes Home, 1942; Constancia Herself, 1944; Factories and Other Poems, 1916; Old Road to Paradise, 1918; Hill Garden, 1937; Do You Want To Write, 1937. Residences: 1 W. 67th St., New York; Canada Lake, N. Y. Office: 232 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

WIDDER, Dr. DAVID VERNON, American Mathematician; born March 25, 1898, Harrisburg, Pa.; son of David H. and Edith (Drabenstadt) Widder; educated at Harvard College A.B. 1920; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1923, Ph.D. 1924; Univ. of Chicago; Vice Inst., Texas, 1926-27; Cambridge University, England, 1936. Associate in Mathematics, Bryn Mawr College, 1924; Asst. Professor, 1927; Professor and Head, Mathematics Dept., 1929. Professor, Mathematics at Harvard University, since 1931; also Chairman of Dept. Analysis. Editor, Duke Mathematical Journal, since its foundation. Member: American Mathematical Society; Mathematical Assn. of America; American Academy of Arts and Sciences, etc. Author: Laplace Transform, 1941; Advanced Calculus, 1947. Address: Widener 572, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

WIDEN, ALBIN, Swedish Author; born May 24, 1897, Gardveda, Sweden; son of Karl A. and Hanna (Jonsson) Widen; educated at Univ. of Stockholm, fil.lic. 1936; attended universities in Europe and U. S.; married Ann Sofi Fransson, Apr. 14, 1928; three sons. Began as writer, 1918; visited U. S., 1935, collecting historical data on Swedish immigrants; Director, Augustana Inst. of Swedish Culture, Rock Island, Ill., 1941-42; Manager, Swedish Information Bureau, Minneapolis, since 1942. Trustee: Folk Art Foundation of America; Amer. Inst. of Swedish Arts, Literature and Science, Minneapolis. Received great Swedish Novel Prize for novel "Nu blommar prarien" (Now Blooms the Prairie), 1945. Author: Hem vill jag ater rida, 1936; Gustaf Vasa och djavulen, 1939; Nu blommar prarien (translated into several languages), etc. Address: 411 New York Life Bldg., Minneapolis, Minn.

WIDENHORN, Dr. H. L., American Surgeon; born Aug. 14, 1902, Goerwihl, Germany; son of Lambert and Emma (Haer) Widenhorn; educated at Univ. of Freiburg, Germany, M.D. 1926; studied at St. Hedwig's Hosp., Berlin; Rockefeller Fellow in Surgery at Johns Hopkins Hosp., 1930-31; married Marianne Widenhorn, 1934. Surgeon and Instructor, Surgical Univ. Clinic, Freiburg, 1928-34; Assoc. Clinical Prof. of Surgery, Loyola Univ. School of Med. in Chicago, since 1934. Staff Member, Henrotin Hosp., Chicago. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. College of Surgeons; College of Anesthesia; Internatl. Anesthesia Research Soc. Author of many scientific papers on general surgery, surggical pathology, bone histology, fractures and stomach surgery. Residence: 2600 N. Lakeview Ave. Office: 30 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

WIDESTEDT, ERIC RAGNAR, Swedish Actor, Director, Composer and Translator; born May 3, 1887, Sundsvall, Sweden; son of Erik Waldemar and Louise (Kronberg) Widestedt; educated at Gainford Acad., Eng.; Dramatique Theatre School, Stockholm, 1906-07; studied in English, French and German theatres; divorced; one daughter. Actor since 1907. Appeared at Swedish Theatre of Helsingfors, in Finland, 1913-16; Albert Ranft, Gothenburg, 1916-18; Intim Theatre, Stockholm, 1918-19; Albert Ranfts Theatres, Stockholm, 1919-26; made several tours. In 1930 joined Paramount Film Co. at Joinville, Paris. Has directed several Swedish films, also playing parts in them; in broadcasting work; translated plays from Danish, English, German into Swedish. Played Jan Hansson, Erik and Anders in "Vermlänningarna," Octavius Robinson in "Man and Superman," Dick Dudgeon in "The Devil's Disciple," Bluntschli in "Heroes" (by Bernard Shaw), Algernon Montford in "The Importance of Being Ernest" (by Oscar Wilde), the ghost in "Hamlet," Harlequin in "Twelfth Night," Tybald in "Romeo and Juliette," Cassio in "Othello," Benedict in "Much Ado About Nothing," etc. Composed about sixty songs under signature of Eric Wide. Member: Swedish Theatre Assn., STIM, SKAP, TSO, Par Bricole, W:Sex, Svea-Orden, etc. Address: Sveavägen 104, 1, Stockholm, Sweden.

WIDGERY, Prof. ALBAN GREGORY, American Philosopher; born May 9, 1887, Bloxwich, England; son of John T. and Ellen (Thomas) Widgery; educated at Univs. of Cambridge, M.A. 1912, Jena and Paris; married Marion Wilkins, July 21, 1915; three children. Lectured in Philosophy and Education,, Univ. of Bristol, 1908-10; Asst. Lecturer in Moral Philosophy, Univ. of St. Andrews, 1914-15; Prof. of Philosophy and Comparative Religion, Baroda College, Univ. of Bombay, 1915-22; Stanton Lecturer in Philosophy of Religion, Univ. of Cambridge, 1922-28; Tallman Lecturer, Bowdoin College, 1928-29; Prof. of Philosophy, Cornell Univ., 1929-30; Prof. of Philosophy, Duke Univ., and Head of Dept., since 1930. Upton Lecturer in Philosophy and Religion, Manchester College, Oxford, 1937. Pres., Baroda Univ. Commn., 1926; Pres., Amer. Theological Soc., 1940; Vice-Pres., Soc. for Study of Religions, London; Amer. Philosophical Assn., etc. Translator and author of Introduction, of Life's Basis and Life's Ideal (by R. Eucken, London), 1911. Author (with H. Weinel): Jesus in the XIXth Century and After, 1914; Human Needs and the Justification of Religious Beliefs, 1918; The Comparative Study of Religions: A Systematic Survey, 1922; The Contemporary Thought of Great Britain, 1926; additional chapter for 6th edition of H. Sidgwick's History of Ethics, 1930; Living Religions and Modern Thought, 1936; Christian Ethics in History and Modern Life, 1940. Address: Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

WIDMER, HANS LEOPOLD, Swiss Engineer; born Feb. 23, 1901, Zofingen, Switzerland; son of Friedrich and Maria (Müller) Widmer; educated at Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule, Zurich, 1920-23; Electrochemistry, Technische Hochschule, Dresden, Germany, 1923-25 (diploma); married Katharina Brügger, Nov. 26, 1932; two children. Chemist and Manager of Sauerstoff-und-Wasserstoffwerke A.G. Lucerne (Genf-Chatelaine Branch), 1926; Manager of electro-chemical plant, Oscar Neher & Cie., Mels, 1926; Director, Alea-Farbenfabrik A.G., Sargans, 1928; Manager, Aluminiumwerke A.G. Rorschach, a subsidiary of Aluminium Ltd. of Canada, 1930; Director of Internationale Siegwartsalken-Gesellschaft since 1932; Delegate of its Board of Directors since 1933. Delegate, Board of Directors of Packmat A.G. Olten, since 1940, and of Favre & Cie. A.G., Zurich, since 1945. Member of Board, Kalk-und Steinfabrik A.G., Beckenried; Sand & Kies A.G., Alpnachstad; Sand & Kies A.G. Horw.; Cofrumi S.A., Geneva. Member: Swiss Soc. of Architects and Engineers, etc. Residence: Bellerivestr. 33. Office: Internationale Siegwartsalken Gesellschaft, Lucerne, Switzerland.

WIDSTRAND, Dr. CLAES AXEL, Swedish Physician; born Aug. 26, 1866, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Claes August and Brigitta (Bendixson) Widstrand; educated at Karolinska Inst., Stockholm, M.D., 1898; married Ester Sterner. Physician, since 1898; engaged in private practice of medicine at Stockholm, 1903-38. Served in Swedish Navy, Medical Corps, holding various ranks, 1893-1936; Medical Inspector, 1919-36; now in retirement. Pres., Soc. of Swedish Physicians, 1927-28; Corresp. Member, Internatl. Assn. against Tuberculosis, 1907. Awarded: K.N.O., 2nd class, R.V.O., T.M.O., 4th class, Great Gold Medal (Soc. of Swedish Physicians, 1935). Author: Sveriges Läkarhistoria, 1931-35; Svenska Läkare, 1890-1942; Svenska Läkare i Ord o. Bild, 1939; Almanack o. minnesb. f. läkar, 34 arg., 1906-38. Residence: Strandv. 49, Stockholm, Sweden

WIDTSOE, Dr. JOHN ANDREAS, American Agricultural Chemist, Church Leader; born on the Island of Froyen, Norway, January 31, 1872; son of John A. and Anna C. (Gaarden) Widtsoe; educated at Brigham Young College, 1891; Harvard, B.S. 1894; University of Gottingen, M.A. and Ph.D. 1899; Polytechnicum, Zurich, 1900; Traveling Fellow, Graduate School of Harvard, 1898-1900; LL.D., Utah Agricultural College, 1914; University of Utah, 1921; married Leah Eudora Dunford, June 1, 1898; two daughters. Professor of Chemistry, Utah State Agricultural College, 1894-1905; Chemist, Utah Agricultural Experiment Station, 1894-1900; Director, 1900-05. Director, School of Agriculture, Brigham Young University, 1905-07. President, Utah State Agricultural College, 1907-16; University of Utah, 1916-21. Member of Council of Twelve since 1921; President, European Mission, 1928-33. President, International Dry-Farming Congress, 1912; Vice-President, National Irrigation Congress and of the National Education Assn. Author: Dry Farming; Principles of Irrigation Practice; Western Agriculture; Success on Irrigation Products; A Rational Theology; Program of the Church; Discourses of Brigham Young, etc. Residence: 1425 Sigsbee Ave. Office: 47 East South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah.

WIECZOREK, MAX, American Artist; born Nov. 22, 1863, Breslau, Germany; son of Joseph W. and Bertha (Gaertner) Wieczorek; educated at Karlsruhe Art Acad., under Ferdinand Keller; Weimar Art Acad., under Max Tedy; married Ida Luer; two children; (2nd) Gertrud Besser, Mar. 14, 1929; exhibited at Paris Salon; Crystal Palace, London; Société Royale, Antwerp; Panama-Pacific Internatl. Exposition, San Francisco, 1915; Pennsylvania Acad. of Fine Arts; Philadelphia Water Color Club; Art Inst. of Chicago; Milwaukee Art Inst.; Cincinnati Museum; New York Water Color Club; American Water Color Club; Baltimore Water Color Club; Art Assn. of San Francisco; Palace of Fine Arts; Panama-California Exposition, San Diego, 1915; Architectural League, N.Y.; Fine Arts Gallery, San Diego; Pacific Southwest Exposition, Long Beach, Calif., 1928. Pres., Foundation of Western Art, Los Angeles, Calif. Member: New York Water Color Club; California Art Club; Amer. Federation of Arts; California Water Color Soc.; Painters' and Sculptors' Club; Chicago Galleries Assn.; Painters of the West; Bookplate Assn. Internatl.; Water Color Soc. of America; Amer. Artists Professional League; Fine Arts Soc., San Diego; Laguna Beach Art Assn. Awards: Silver Medal, California-Panama Exposition, San Diego, 1915; William Preston Harrison Prize, California Art Club, 1918; Merit Prize, Laguna Beach Art Assn., 1920; Merit Prize, Arizona State Exhibition, 1920-22; A. J. Ackerman Prize, California Art Club, 1920; H. E. Huntington Prize, California Water Color Soc., 1923; Award of Merit, Bookplate Assn. Internatl. 1926; 2nd prize, California State Fair, 1927; 2nd prize, Los Angeles County Fair, 1927; Gold Medal, Pacific Southwest Exposition, Long Beach, 1928. Address: Hollingsworth Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif.

WIEDMER, Dr. FRITJOF ARMIN, Finnish Ministry of Defense Official; born July 10, 1905, Elimäki, Finland; son of Adolf and Martha (Augustin) Wiedmer; educated at Gymnasium, Lahti, Finland, 1921-24; studied law at Univ. of Helsinki, 1924-30; Univ. of Paris, 1930-31; J.D. 1933; married Maja-Brita (Aschan) Wiedmer, Mar. 25, 1934; three children. Notary, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, 1934; Notary at Supreme Court of Justice until 1936; Head of Information Dept., Finnish Central Chamber of Commerce, 1936-41; Secy. General for Finland, World Exposition, Paris, 1936-37; Assoc. Director, Helsinki Magasinsaktiebolag (Free Port Soc.), Helsinki, 1941-45; Head of War Indemnity Dept., Ministry of Defence, since. Pres.: State Com. for War Indemnities; State Com. for indemnity of ships destroyed by the war, 1941-44; State Com. for indemnity of motor cars destroyed by war, 1941-44. Vice-Pres., State Com. for indemnity of peoples emigrated from East and North Finland, 1944. Member, Finnish Trade Assns. Vice-Pres., Finnish Philatelists' Assn. Member of several philatelic associations in Finland. Knight, Legion of Honor, 1937. Awarded Liberty Cross, 1940; Liberty Cross 4th class, 1943. Captain in Finnish Army, World War II. Residence: Vuorimiehenkatu 7, Helsinki. Office: Ministry of Defense, Helsinki, Finland.

WIEGHARDT, PAUL, Artist; born Aug. 26, 1897, Germany; son of Johan Carl August and Auguste (Bergfeld) Wieghardt; studied in School of Fine Arts, Cologne, under Paul Klee; Academy of Fine Arts, Dresden; married Nelli Bar, June 1, 1933. Settled in Paris, 1931; exhibited until outbreak of World War in Salon d'Automne, Salon des Indépendants and Salon des Tuileries; represented in French Group, Exposition Internationale, 1937; generally accepted as French artist. Travelled and studied in Spain, Portugal, France, England and Scandinavia; came to U. S., 1940. Held one-man shows in Berkshire Museum, Pittsfield, Mass.; Harvard University; Germanic Museum; St. Paul (Minn.) Gallery of Art; Phillips Memorial Gallery (Washington); Knoedler Galleries of New York; Museum of Fine Arts of Springfield, Massachusetts; Robert Carlen Gallery, Philadelphia, etc. Represented in collections of Smith College Museum of Art, Phillips Memorial Gallery, Albright Art Gallery of Buffalo, Berkshire Museum, The Barnes Foundation (Merion, Pa.), Lessing Rosenwald Collection (Jenkintown, Pa.), and private collections. Instructor in Painting, Art Inst. of Chicago. Address: Wilmette, Ill.

WIELAND, Dr. HEINRICH (OTTO), German Chemist, Nobel Prize Winner; born June 4, 1877, Pforzheim, Baden Germany; son of Theodor and Elise (Blum) Wieland; educated at Gymnasium Pforzheim; Univs. of Munich and Berlin; Ph.D. (Munich) 1901 Docent, 1904; hon. Dr., Univs. of Freiburg, Athens and Technical High School, Darmstadt. Prof., Technical High School, Munich, 1917; married Josefine Bartmann, March 31, 1908; four children. Privatdocent, Munich, 1904; Prof., Univ. of Freiburg, Baden, 1921-25; Univ. of Munich 1925; Nobel Prize winner in chemistry, 1927; Silliman Lecturer, Yale Univ., 1931. Director, Chemical Laboratory, Univ. of Munich, since 1925. Member: Bavarian Acad. of Sciences; Prussian Acad. of Sciences; Academies of Göttingen and Heidelberg. Hon. Member, London Chemical Soc. Fellow, Royal Soc. Foreign Member: National Acad. of Sciences (U. S.); Roumanian Soc. of Chemistry. Corresp. Member, Russian Acad. of Science. Awarded Lavoisier medal, Paris, 1938. Author: Die Knallsäure, 906; Die Hydrazine, 1910; new edition of Gatterman's Praxis des organischen Chemikers (translated into English, Spanish, Italian, Russian and Japanese. Residence: Schiesstätt Strasse 12, Starnberg. Oberbayern. Office: Luisen Strasse 14, Munich, Germany.

WIEMAN, Dr. HENRY NELSON. American Professor of Philosophy of Religion; born Aug. 19, 1884, Richhill, Mo.; son of William Henry and Alma (Morgan) Wieman; educated at Park College, A.B. 1907; Univs. of Jena and Heidelberg (Germany); Harvard Univ., Ph.D. 1917; married Anna Orr, 1912 (dec. 1930); (2nd) Regina Wescott, 1931; five children. Prof. of Philosophy, Occidental College, 1917-26; Prof. of Philosophy of Religion, Univ. of Chicago, since 1927. Member: Amer. Philosophical Assn.; Amer. Theological Soc. (Pres. 1936), etc. Author: Religious Experience and Scientific Method, 1926; Wrestle of Religion With Truth, 1927; Methods of Private Religious Living, 1929; The Issues of Life, 1931. Co-author: Normative Psychology of Religion, 1934; American Philosophies of Religion, 1938; Growth of Religion, 1940; Now We Must Choose, 1941; The Source of Human Good, 1946. Address: University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

WIENER, Dr. ALEXANDER S., American Clinical Pathologist; born Mar. 16, 1907, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of George and Mollie (Zuckerman) Wiener; educated at Cornell Univ., A.B. 1922; Long Island College of Medicine, M.D. 1936; married Gertrude R. Rodman, June 30, 1932; two daughters. Head of Blood Transfusion Division, Jewish Hospital, Brooklyn, since 1935; Serologist and Bacteriologist, Office of Chief Medical Examiner of New York City, since 1938; Member of Faculty, Dept. of Forensic Medicine, New York Univ. College of Medicine, since 1940; Member of Editorial Board, Journal of Immunology, since 1935; Owner and Director, Wiener Laboratories, since 1935. Member, Com. on Human Heredity, Natl. Research Council, 1938-41, etc. Proposed theory of inheritance of allergic diseases, 1936; co-discoverer (with Dr. Karl Landsteiner) of Rh factor, 1939; discovered eight Rh blood types and proposed theory to explain their heredity, 1943; demonstrated (with Dr. Peters) role of Rh in blood transfusion reactions. Fellow, Amer. College of Physicians. Member: Amer. Medical Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Immunology; Soc. for Experimental Biology and Medicine; Amer. Soc. of Clinical Pathologists; Amer. Board of Pathology; Amer. Genetic Assn., etc. Awards: Silver Medal, Amer. Soc. of Clinical Pathology, 1941; Alvaranga Prize, College of Physicians of Philadelphia, 1945; Ward Burdick Prize, Amer. Soc. of Clinical Pathology, 1946. Author: Blood Group and Transfusion (3rd ed.), 1943; also numerous articles on blood grouping, transfusion, human heredity (since 1929). Residence: 64 Rutland Rd., Brooklyn 25, N. Y.

WIENER, Dr. MEYER, American Ophthalmologist; born Jan. 10, 1876, St. Louis, Mo.; son of Isidor and Julia (Meyer) Wiener; educated at Mo. Med. College, M.D. 1896; Univs. of Berlin (1897-98), Heidelberg (1898), and Paris (1898-99); Royal Ophthalmological Hosp., London; married Marguerite E. Lesser, Dec. 28, 1915; three children. Instructor, Wash. Univ. Med. School, 1900; Chief of Eye Clinics and Asst. Prof., Prof. of Clinical Ophthalmol. (1910—); Instructor in Ophthalmologigal School for Plastic Surgery and School of Neuro-Surgery for Army at Wash. Univ., 1917-18; commissioned Major, Med. Officers Reserve Corps, 1918; organized and served as Dir. of School of Ophthalmol., Med. Officers Training Group, Camp Greenleaf, Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., during World War I; Chief of Eye Service at General Hospital No. 14, Ft. Oglethorpe; Chief of Plastic Surgery of Eye at General Hosp. No. 11, Camp May, New Jersey. Now Ophthalmic Surgeon to Missouri Pacific Hosp.; Consulting Ophthalmic Surgeon at Jewish Hosp., Barnes Hosp., Bethesda Hosp., St. Louis Children's Hosp., and St. Vincent's Sanitarium; Honorary Consultant to Bureau of Med. and Surgery, United States Navy.

Member: Amer. Acad. of Ophthalmol. and Otolaryngol. (Past Exec. Vice-Pres). Editor-Chief, "Ophthalmology in the War Years." Assoc. Editor, Quarterly Review of Ophthalmology. Publications: Surgery of Eye; numerous contributions to medical literature, chiefly on eye surgery; former Editor of St. Louis Med. Review and Annals of Ophthalmology; Assoc. Editor of Amer. Journal of Ophthalmology and Mississippi Valley Medical Journal. Address: 321 Alameda Blvd., Coronado, Calif.

WIENER, PAUL LESTER, American Architect and Designer; born May 2, 1895, Leipzig, Germany; educated in Leipzig; Royal Acad. of Berlin; Paris and Vienna; married Alma Morgenthau; two children. Worked in Europe and America until 1927. Co-Founder of Contempora, group of international artists, 1928; Executive Director, Contempora Exposition of Art and Industry, N. Y., 1928-29; engaged in architectural, housing, graphic and industrial design until 1932. Designed Music Room, Philco Radio Exposition, 1935; also Carolyn Bacon Room, New School for Social Research; New Standard Electrical Typewriter for Underwood Elliott Fisher Co. Designer of U. S. Government Building and its interiors for International Exposition in Paris, 1937; Technical Advisor to U. S. Commission to that Exposition. Commissioned by Foreign Minister of Brazil, 1938, to organize and design interiors and exhibits for Brazilian Pavilion at N. Y. World's Fair; also commissioned by Govt. of Ecuador. Awarded 3 Grand Prix for Public and Private Architecture; also for Interior Decoration by International Jury of Paris International Exposition of Arts and Sciences, 1938. Author of Creative Architecture, 1930. Collaborating Member, Congrès International d'Architecture Moderne. Guest Prof., Univ. of Brazil, Rio de Janeiro, 1944. Residence: 399 Park Ave. Office: 33 W. 42nd St., New York, N. Y.

WIERCZYNSKI, Prof. Dr. STEFAN VRTEL, Polish Librarian, Literary Historian; born Dec. 26, 1886, Hanowce, Poland; son of Józef and Sidonia (Sowa) Vrtel; educated at Classical College, 1897-1905; Univ. of Lwow, 1905-09, Ph.D. 1915; married Janina Anc, July 11, 1914; two children. Asst., Ossolineum Library, Lwow, 1906-09; College Teacher, 1909-19; Librarian, Univ. Library, Cracow, 1919-20; Univ. Library, Lwow, 1920-27; Director, Univ. Library, Poznán, 1927-37; Director, Natl. Library, Warsaw, since 1937. Lecturer and Prof. of Bibliography and History of Polish Literature, Univ. of Lwow, 1923-27, Poznán, 1928-39, Warsaw, since 1939. Member: Warsaw Soc. of Sciences; Literary Commn. and Commn. of History of Education of Polish Acad. of Sciences; Assn. of Polish Librarians and Archivists. Author: Bibliography of the Polish Literature for years 1905, 1919, 1922; Bibliography, its essence, matter and beginnings, 1923; The Polish Mediaeval Lay Literature, 1923; The Ancient Polish Legend of St. Alexis, 1937; Choice of Ancient Polish Texts, Middle Ages to 1543, 1930. Residence: Kazimierzowska 50. Office: Biblioteka Narodowa, Rakowiecka 6, Warsaw, Poland.

WIERZYNSKI, KAZIMIERZ, Polish Writer; born Aug. 27, 1894; studied philosophy at university; married Bronislawa Wijuk-Kojallowicz, 1923. Served in Austrian Army, World War I. Author: Wiosna i wind, 1921; Granice swiata, 1933; Ziemla-Wilczyca, 1941; Róza Wiatrów, 1942; Wspólczesno literatura polska na emigracji, 1943; The Forgotten Battlefield, 1944; Pobjowisko, 1944; Ballada o Churchillu, 1944, etc. Address: c/o Roy Publishers. 25 W. 45th St., New York 19, New York.

WIESCHHOFF, Dr. HEINRICH ALBERT, American Anthropologist; born Aug. 1, 1906, Hagen, Germany; son of Heinrich and Eugenia (Retberg) Wieschhoff; educated at Univ. of Vienna; Univ. of Frankfurt, Ph.D. 1933; married Mary Virginia Graves, June 28, 1939; three children. Assistant in the African archives of Univ. of Frankfurt, 1928-35. Lecturer in Dept. of Anthropology, Univ. of Penna., 1936-37. Instructor, 1937-41; Curator of the African Section at Univ. Museum since 1941. Chief, Research Section, Trusteeship Div., United Nations. Consultant to British Empire Section, Office of Strategic Services, Washington, D. C., 1942—. Member of Amer. Anthropological Assn. (Council), Sigma Xi, American Assn. for Advancement of Science, Philadelphia Anthropological Society (Secretary, 1939-41), Philadelphia Oriental Society (Secretary, 1941-42), American Assn. for Negro History, Committee on African Anthropology of the National Research Council, Philadelphia Art Alliance, and The 30 Club. He has written several books and numerous articles on African subjects, and is Editor of the "African Handbooks." Contributor to Encyclopedia Britannica. Residence: Valley Forge, Pa. Office: University Museum, Univ. of Penna., Philadelphia, Pa., and United Nations, Lake Success, New York.

WIESE, AUGUSTO N., Peruvian Financier; born Dec. 6, 1886, Trujillo, Peru; son of Guillermo and Sofía (Eslava) Wiese; educated at Seminary of San Carlos and Lima High School; married Virginia de Osma, 1923; five children—Augusto Felipe, Guillermo, María Virginia, Clotilde and Sylvia. Entered firm of A. y F. Wiese S.A., Lima as clerk, 1902; now Pres., holding controlling interest. With brother Fernando, built the Wiese Building, first concrete steel structure in Peru, 1923; the Gran Hotel Bolivar S.A., 1924; floated the Sindicato Wiese in 1927 and formed the Cía. Exploradora Cotabambas in 1932, first gold mining company solely supported by Peruvian capital. Director: Banco de Reserva del Perú; Banco Italiano del Perú (now Banco de Crédito); Lima Chamber of Commerce. Formed the Cía. Aurífera Alpacay in 1936, Cía. Aurífera Chala in 1938; established the Fábrica Peruana Eternit (asbestos cement productions), 1941; bought the S.A. Proprietaria of the Country Club of Lima in 1942, reorganizing the same, and 1943 founded the Banco Wiese Ltdo., of which he is President. Residence: Paseo Colón 250. Office: Edificio Wiese, Lima, Peru.

WIESER, EDWIN, Swiss Author and Editor; born July 29, 1896, Zurich, Switzerland; son of Daniel and Ida (Brandenberger) Wieser; studied medicine at Univs. of Zurich and Berlin. Editor, Schewizer Illustrierte Zeitung, 1924-32; Founder and Editor, Sie und Er (illustrated magazine); engaged in free lance writing since. Editor, Film-Revue, Basle, since 1947. Literary Contributor to Welt-Magazin. Author: Mann und Weib, 1922; Das Reich ist nicht von dieser Welt (drama), 1938; Der Auferstandene Gott (drama), 1940; Triumph des Geistes, 1945; Im Banne der Magie, 1948; Treuesekenntnis zum Rütli-Geist, 1941. Director of cultural lectures, including; Die grandiosen neuesten Erfolge der Medizin; Geheimnisse der Meerestiefen; Die Hormone; Die geheimnisvollen Erhalter des Lebens (Vitamine); Aus dem Leben der Frau, etc. Member: Zurich Soc. of Authors; Swiss Press Assn. Address: Arosastrasse 10, Zurich 8, Switzerland.

WIGFORSS, ERNST JOHANNES, Swedish Minister of Finance; born Jan. 24, 1881; educated at Lund University. Assistant Professor at Lund Junior College and at the Gothenburg Junior Latin College. Member, First Chamber of the Riksdag, 1919-28; served in the Second Chamber since 1929. Minister without Portfolio, 1924-25; Minister of Finance, 1925-26, 1932-36, and since Sept. 1936. Member, Governing Board of the Social-Democratic Party since 1920; Member of its Executive Committee since 1928. Author of books on folklore, history, sociology and finance. Address: Ministry of Finance, Stockholm, Sweden.

WIGGER, Rev. WILLIAM, Catholic Priest; born Sept. 9, 1889, Holtwick, Westfalia, Germany; son of William and Carolina (Luelf) Wigger; educated at High School and College, Coesfeld, Westfalia, 1902-11; Univ. of Freiburg, Baden, 1911; Univ. of Munster, Westfalia, 1912-16 and 1919-23, Ph.D. Ordained Roman Catholic Priest, 1926 at Milwaukee, Wis.; Asst. Pastor, Holy Trinity Church, Milwaukee, Wis., 1926-27; Pastor, St. Bonaventure, Underwood, N. D., since 1927; Defensor vinculi of Diocese of Bismarck, 1930-40; Promotor justitiae since 1940. Member: Propagation of Faith; Catholic Near East Welfare Assn.; Priests Eucharistic League; Knights of Columbus. Address: Underwood, North Dakota.

WIGGERS, Dr. CARL JOHN, American Physiologist; born May 28, 1883, Davenport, Iowa; son of George and Margaret (Kuendel) Wiggers; educated at Univ. of Michigan, M.D. 1906, Sc.D. 1941; Resident Student at Physiological Inst. of Munich, 1911; married Minnie E. Berry, Aug. 17, 1907; two sons. Instructor in Physiology at Univ. of Mich., 1906-11; was Instructor (1911-13), and Asst. Prof. of Physiology (1913-18) at Cornell Univ., and has been Prof. and Dir. of Dept. of Physiology at Western Reserve Univ. since 1918. Fellow of American College of Physicians; Member, Internatl. Congress of Physiology; Amer. Physiological Soc.; Amer. Heart Assn.; Sociedad Argentina de Biologia; Academia Nacional de Medicina (Buenos Aires); Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science, etc. Publications: Brief Text of Physiology, 1910; Circulation in Health and Disease, 1914, 1923; Pressure Pulses in Cardiovascular System, 1928; Principles and Practice of Electrocardiography, 1929; Physiology in Health and Disease, 1934 (4th ed., 1944); numerous contributions to Nelson's Loose-Leaf Medicine, 1920; Abt's Pediatrics, 1924; Levy's Diseases of Coronary Arteries and Cardiac Pain, 1936; over 300 research papers published in professional journals. Res.: 1360 Cleveland Hts. Blvd. Office: 2109 Adelbert Rd., Cleveland, Ohio.

WIGGINS, A(RCHIBALD) LEE M(ANNING), American Railroad Executive, Financier; born April 9, 1891, Durham, N. C.; son of Archie Lee and Margaret (London) Wiggins; educated at University of North Carolina, A.B. 1913; hon. LL.D. Univ. of So. Carolina, 1944; married Pauline Lawson, April 28, 1915; four children. Advertising Mgr., J. L. Coker & Co., 1913-21, when assumed present post as Gen. Manager, Treas., J. L. Coker & Co., 1918-38; Vice-President and Managing Director since 1938. Sales Manager, Pedigreed Seed Co., 1915-20; Vice-President and Managing Director, Trust Co. of South Carolina, 1921-41, becoming President, 1941; Vice-President, Bank of Hartsville, 1921-32, President since 1932. Owner of Hartsville Press; Treasurer, Coker's Pedigreed Seed Co.; also publishes Hartsville Messenger; lectures at Graduate School of Banking, Rutgers University. Trustee and Treasurer, Endowment Fund, Coker College; Chairman, Board of Trustees, Hartsville Community Center Building Commission and Hartsville Memorial Library Commission. President, South Carolina Bankers Association, 1931-32; Under-Secy., U. S. Treasury, 1947-48; Chmn. of Board, Atlantic Coast Line and Louisville and Nashville Railroads. President, American Bankers Association, 1943-44; Member, Executive Committee, 1935-41. Awarded Certificate of Merit for distinguished service to agriculture by Clemson Agricultural College, 1940. Residence: 1002 Home Ave., Hartsville, S. C.

WIGGINS, Dr. DOSSIE MARION, American College President; born Dec. 9, 1895, Crowley, La.; son of Robert Bruce and Ruth (Jordan) Wiggins; educated at Hardin-Simmons, Abilene, Texas, B.A. 1919, LL.D. 1943; Yale Univ., M.A. 1925, Ph.D. 1930; Univ. of Chicago, 1925-26; married Winnie Lee Kinard, May 7, 1918. Principal: Burkburnett (Texas) High School, 1917; Vernon (Texas) High School, 1919. Supt., Canadian (Texas), 1920-25. Dean and Prof. of Education, Hardin-Simmons Univ., 1926-35; Visiting Prof., Univ. of Mississippi, summer of 1935. Pres., College of Mines and Metallurgy, El Paso, Texas, 1935—. Address: College of Mines and Metallurgy, El Paso, Texas.

WIGGINS, WILLIAM MARTIN, British Industrialist; born Aug. 4, 1870, Burnham, Somersetshire, England; son of William and Catherine Anne (Palmer) Wiggins; educated privately; married Flora Isabel Coleman, July 31, 1896 (died Feb. 5, 1916); (2nd) Elizabeth Hayhurst, July 12, 1917. Entered employ of T. B. Wood & Son Ltd. as a junior clerk, Mar. 1, 1883; appointed salesman, 1888; Secy., 1891; Manager, 1895; Director, 1909; Governing Director, 1931. Chmn. of Directors, Cromer Ring Mill (1920) Ltd., Carr Hill Mill Co., Ltd., and of Pimhole Mills Co., Ltd. Chmn., Albany Spinning Co., as well as Chmn. of Local Bd. of Union Assurance Soc. Member of Parliament for County Borough of Oldham, 1925-29. Pres., Federation of Master Cotton Spinners Assn., 1935-45. Pres., Internatl. Federation of Cotton Spinners, 1935-37; re-elected Pres., 1939; Pres., Natl. Confederation of British Employers Organizations, 1939. Office: 5 Suffield St., Middleton, Lancs., England.

WIGGLESWORTH, Hon. RICHARD B., U. S. Representative; born April 25, 1891, Boston, Mass.; son of George and Mary Catherine (Dixwell) Wigglesworth; educated at Harvard University, A.B. 1912, LL.B. 1916; married Florence Joyes Booth, Apr. 30, 1931; three daughters. Asst. Private Secretary to Hon. W. Cameron Forbes, Governor General of Philippine Islands, 1913; lawyer; Capt., Seventy-sixth Div., World War I. Legal Adviser to Asst. Secretary of the Treasury in charge of foreign loans and railway payments and Secretary of World War Foreign Debt Commission, 1922-24. Assistant to Agent General for Reparation Payments, Berlin, 1924-27; Paris Representative and General Counsel for organizations created under the Dawes Plan, 1927-28. Elected to Congress since Nov. 1928. Residence: 203 Adams St., Milton, Mass. Office: House Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WIGHT, CHARLES A., American Business Executive; born 1899, Platteville, Wis.; educated at Yale Univ., 1922. Vice Pres., Bankers Trust Co. until 1948; Chairman, Executive Com., Freeport Sulphur Co., since 1948. Director: Wood Newspaper Machinery Corp.; Grumman Aircraft Engineering Corp.; Salvage Process Corp.; Fifth Avenue Assn.; McGraw-Hill Publishing Co., Inc. Trustee and Treasurer, Lenox Hill Hospital. Residence: 156 E. 78th St. Office: Freeport Sulphur Co., 122 E. 42nd St., New York, N. Y.

WIGHT, MARK HARRISON, American Law Librarian; born August 1, 1886, St. Law County, New York; son of Charles Lester and Mary (Whitney) Wight; educated at Utah University; Syracuse University; married Maude Seneco, Oct. 2, 1915; one daughter. Admitted to practice law, Utah, 1909; Washington, 1915. Assistant Attorney General for State of Washington, 1922-28. Washington State Law Librarian since Dec. 1, 1928. Chairman, Washington State Code Revision and Recompilation Committee, since 1941. Member, School Board, 1931-37; President, Public Library Board, 1931-44. President, Rotary Club, 1932-33; Chairman, Community Chest Budget Committee, 1935-36. Member: American Bar and Washington State Bar Assns.; American Law Librarians' Assn.; American Legion; Rotary. Author of Washington State Workmen's Compensation, 1942. Served in U. S. Army during World War I, 1917-19; Washington National Guard, 1920-21. Residence: 2501 Columbia St. Office: Temple of Justice, Olympia, Wash.

WIGHTMAN, FLORENCE, American Harpist; born Jan. 7, 1903, Philadelphia, Pa.; daughter of Edgar A. and Adele Wightman; studied piano under Ralph Lewars and Mauritz Leefson; harp under Carlos Salzedo; Graduate of Curtis Inst. of Music. Debut, piano and harp recital, Witherspoon Hall, Philadelphia, 1914. Asst. to Carlos Salzberg, Faculty of Curtis Inst., Philadelphia; Instructor, Rittenhouse School, Philadelphia. First Harpist: Roxy Theatre Orchestra; Cleveland Symphony Orchestra; Natl. Broadcasting Co. Solo Harpist, Metropolitan Opera Assn., since 1937. Soloist: Cleveland Orchestra (with Edward Johnson); N.B.C. Symphony (under Damrosch, Black); WOR Symphonietta (under Wallenstein); N.B.C. Network. Toured Puerto Rico, Havana, Venezuela and U. S. Member: Philadelphia Art Alliance (Hon.); Beethoven Assn. Transcribed for harp solo, also classic and modern works for flute, cello and harp. Address: 1973 E. 32nd St., Brooklyn, New York.

WIGNELL, (JOHAN EINAR) WALTER, Swedish Educator; born Dec. 13, 1902, Gothenberg, Sweden; son of Carl Andréason-Wignell and E. Christina Magnuson; educated at Chalmers Tekniska Högskola, Gothenburg, Mech.Eng. 1925. Constructing Engineer, A.B. Götaverken, Gothenburg, 1926-38; Asst., Chalmers Tekniska Högskola, Gothenburg, 1930-38; Teacher, Högre Tekniska Läroverket, Örebro, 1938-39. Rector: Högre Tekniska Läroverket at Eskilstuna, 1939-43; Eskilstuna Yrkesskolor, 1939-43; Högre Tekniska Läroverket, Borås, since 1943. Member: Svenska Teknologoföreningen; Tekniska Samfundet, Gothenburg; Tekniska Förbundet, Borås. Address: Sven Erikson-Platsen, Borås, Sweden.

WIGNER, Dr. EUGENE PAUL, American Mathematical Physicist; born in Budapest, Hungary, Nov. 17, 1902; son of Anthony and Elizabeth (Einhorn) Wigner; educated at Muegyetem, Budapest; Technische Hochschule, Berlin, C.E. 1924, Dr. Eng. 1925; married Mary Wheeler, 1941; one son. Asst. at Technische Hochschule, Berlin, 1926; Privatdocent, 1928; Visiting Prof. at Princeton, 1930-36; Prof. of Physics, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1937-38; Thomas D. Jones Prof. of Mathematical Physics, Princeton Univ., since 1938. Member: Amer. Physical Soc.; Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Address: Princeton Univ., Princeton, N. J.

WIGRAM, Baron, Col. the Rt. Hon. Clive Wigram, P.C., G.C.B., G.C.V.O., C.S.I., Permanent Lord-in-Waiting to King George VI; born 1873; educated at Winchester; married Nora Chamberlain, 1912; two children. Served as Colonel in the Indian Army; Assistant Private Secretary and Equerry to King George V, 1910-31; Private Secretary and Extra Equerry to the King, 1931-35; Private Secretary and Keeper of H.M. Privy Purse, 1935-36; Lord-in-Waiting to King George VI since 1936. Deputy Constable and Lieutenant-Governor, Windsor Castle; Keeper of the King's Archives, 1936-45. Extra Equerry. Fellow, Winchester College; Governor of Haileybury and Imperial Service College; Pres., Westminster Hosp.; Vice-Pres., Westminster Hosp.; Vice-President, Windsor Hosp.; Trustee, Nuffield Provincial Hospitals Trust; Member, Imperial War Graves Commission, and War Memorials Advisory Council, etc. Address: 62 Avenue Road, Regent's Park, London, N.W. 8, England.

WIHURI, ANTTI TAAVETTI, Finnish Counselor of Shipping; born Oct. 9, 1883, Kustavi, Finland; son of David Jansson and Josefina Osterberg; educated at Navigation Inst., 1904-08; married (1st) Jenny Makela, Dec. 19, 1920; (2nd) Rakel Hellberg, May 27, 1945; four children. Began as sailor, 1895; Master Mariner, rank of Captain, 1908-11; Shipbroker and Stevedore, Oleaborg, 1912, at Brahestad, 1913-20; Shipowner, Brahestad, 1915-20; Stevedore, Helsinki, 1920-24; Shipbroker and Forwarding Agent, Helsinki, 1924-38; Shipowner, Helsinki, since 1926. Ex-Member, Helsinki Town Council. President, Finska Angfartygs Ab.; Finska Tankfartygs A.B.; Merihoulto Oy; Bunker Kunta r.l; Finska Bergning AB Neptun; O.Y. Fredrickshamm Stevedoring Ltd.; O.Y. Wihurichart Ltd.; O.Y. Shipbroker. Director: Helsingfors Aktiebank; OY Stockmann AB; Tukkukauppojen OY; Aarnio Oy; Finska Sjoforsakrings A.B.; Aero Oy; Baltic and Internatl. Maritime Conf.; O.Y. Uusi Suomi; Aarnio O.Y.; Founder and President, Jenny and Antti Wihuri Foundation and Wihuri Scientific Research Inst. Founder and Ex-Pres., Finnish Ship Owners Assn.; Board Member: Finnish Life Savings Assn.; Finnish Maritime Assn.; Finnish Aero-Nautical Assn.; Central Chamber of Commerce; Helsinki Chamber of Commerce. Address: Kulosaari, Helsinki, Finland.

WIIG, GUSTAV, Norwegian Company Director; born July 5, 1898, Bergen, Norway; son of N. J. M. and Margrethe (Bull) Wiig; educated at Univ. of Oslo, received cand. jur. degree, 1920; married Ingrid Kindt Kieding, 1927; three children. Appointed Advokat, 1925; engaged in practice of law until 1936. Director, Det Bergenske D/S., since 1937. Director and Chairman of the Insurance Companies Vesta and Hygea; Chairman of Board of Representatives of Bergens Privatbank, Bergen. Pres., Ole Bull Foundation. Address: Det Bergenske D/S, Bergen, Norway.

WIJDEVELD, HENDRICUS THEODORUS, Dutch Architect; born Oct. 4, 1885, The Hague, Holland; son of Hendricus Theodorus and Maria (Bleys) Wijdeveld; educated at Amsterdam, London, Paris and Germany; married Ellen Schoenfeld-Kohn; three children. With various architects in Holland, 1898-1904; in England, 1905-08; built Peace Palace, The Hague, 1908-11, in France, 1911-13. Established as Architect in Holland in 1914; Architect for Dutch Pavilion, Paris World Exhibition, 1924. Leader, art magazine Wendingen. Built workmen's houses, Dutch Pavilion, World Exhibition, Antwerp, 1930. Leader, Académie Européenne Méditèrranée, France, 1933. Leader, high school for architecture and decorative art, Elckerlyc, since 1936. School and works destroyed by war, 1940-45. Awarded Chevalier de la Légion d'Honneur; Officier de l'Ordre de Leopold II. Hon. Pres., Faculty of Arts. Author: Wendingen (intern, Art Mag.), 1916-25; Cultuur en Kunst; Towards an International Guild; The Life Work of Frank Lloyd Wright; Concerto Grosso; De Bevrijding; Inventies; Vita Nova Nata est Nobis. Address: Wolfhezerweg 10, Oosterbeek (near Arnhem), The Netherlands.

WIJK, ERIK B., Swedish Shipping Executive; born June 29, 1906, Gothenburg, Sweden; son of Bertil and Sigrid (Carlsson) Wijk; educated at Gothenburg Comercial Inst., 1926-27; practiced in London and Paris, 1927-29; married Kerstin Broström, Sept. 23, 1930; two children. Manager, Svenska Telegrambyrån, Gothenburg, 1930-32; Pres., Nordisk Travel Bureau, 1933-46; Vice-Pres., Swedish American Line, since 1944. Director: Swedish Lloyd Steamship Co.; Atlantica Insurance Co.; Scandinavian Airways; Nordisk Travel Bureau; Swedish Traffic Assn.; Swedish American Line; Tirfing Shipping Co.; Swedish Intercontinental Air Traffic Inc. Address: Hotellplatsen 2, Gothenburg, Sweden.

WIJKANDER, EVERT, Swedish Industrialist; born Feb. 16, 1891, Ramen, Sweden; son of Berndt Wijkander and Hilda Spangenberg; educated at Technical Univ. of Stockholm; married Hild Soderlind, 1922; four children. Apprentice, Homestead Steel Works in Pittsburgh, Pa., U. S. A., 1914-16; in Germany, 1916-17. Open Hearth Supt., Hagfors, Uddeholm A/B, Sweden, 1920-24; General Supt. of Fagersta Steel Works, 1924-34; Managing Director, Bofors Works, Sweden, since 1934. Member, Board of Directors: A/B Bofors & Auxiliary Companies; Skandinaviska Banken A/B. Address: Bofors, Sweden.

WIJKMAN PER, Swedish Diplomat; born Dec. 22, 1895, Sweden; son of Gustaf and Elisa (Enequist) Wijkman; educated at Uppsala Univ., graduating in law, 1917; married Ruth Elizabeth Wallace, Oct. 1, 1935; four children. Attaché, Swedish Foreign Office, 1918; 2nd Secy., 1921; 1st Secy., 1925; Commercial Counsellor of Swedish Legation, Washington, D. C., 1933; Chargé d'Affaires, Mexico; Counsellor, Swedish Legation at Helsinki, 1937; Asst. Chief of Commercial Division, Swedish Foreign Office, 1940; Consul General, Montreal, 1941; Minister to Canada, 1943—. Secy., Swedish Delegation: World Economic Conf., Geneva, 1927; Conf. in Paris (regarding treatment of foreigners), 1929; League of Nations Assembly, 1930-33; Conf. regarding an international custom convention, Geneva, 1931. Member, Swedish Delegation, European Commission in Geneva, 1931; participated in conferences on commercial questions, etc. Address: 720 Manor Ave., Rockefeller Park, Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

WIJKMAN, Major SVEN (OSCAR), Swedish Newspaper Executive; born January 17, 1884, Västerås, Sweden; son of Oscar and Selma (Nyquist) Wijkman; educated at Artillery High School, Military Academy. Artillery Officer, 1902; Managing Director, Göteborgs Handels-och Sjöfarts Tidning, 1923; Managing Director, Aftonbladet, 1930; Managing Director, Swedish Press Bureau Co., since 1931. Chairman: Svea Advertising Agency; Gothenburg, Target Shooting Circuit; Orgryte Athletic Club. Chief, Voluntary Motorcycle Corps. Received Order of the Finnish Liberty Cross; Svärdsorden; Vasaorden. Sub-Lieutenant, Svea Artillery Regiment, 1904; Captain, General Staff, 1916; Captain, Gota Artillery Regiment, 1920; Major, 1934—. Residence: Scheelegatan 17. Office: Klara Strand 4, Stockholm, Sweden.

WIKANA, Indonesian Political Leader; born Oct. 16, 1914, Sumedang, Indonesia; son of Sulaiman and Rusina; educated in secondary school; married Asminah, April 1941; two children. Reporter of left-wing nationalist periodical Fikiran Rakjat, Banrung, Indonesia, 1932. Editor of weekly Pedoman Masiarakat Baru, Surabaia, 1935. Editor of daily Kebangunan, Jacarta, 1938. Minister of State (3rd, 4th and 5th Indonesian Republican Cabinets), 1946-47; Military Governor of Surakarta, Aug. 1947—. Member of Council, Partai Indonesia, 1932. Second General Secy., Executive Com., Gerakan Rakjat Indonesia, 1938. Member of underground resistance organization against Japanese occupation known as Angkatan Baru. Leader of Angkatan Pemuda Indonesia; later affiliated with other youth organizations to Pemuda Sosialis Indonesia. Vice-Pres., Pemuda Sosialis Indonesia. Residence: 4 Jalan Opak. Office: 5 Gondolayu, Jogjakarta, Indonesian Republic.

WIKANDER, Dr. HUGO (CHRISTIAN), Swedish Jurist; born Nov. 28, 1879, Asker, Sweden; son of Fridolf Olof Gustaf and Hélène Sofia (Sjögren) Wikander; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, LL.D. 1909; attended Univs. of Berlin, Munich, Zurich, Berne and Heidelberg, 1911, 1913; married Karin Elisabeth Franzén, July 2, 1931. Clerk at Court of Appeal, Jönköping. Academic Docent of Civil Law, Univ. of Uppsala, 1909; Constituted Prof. of Civil and Internatl. Law, 1909-17; Judge of Court of Appeal, Stockholm, 1918. Pres., Maritime Law Division, Court of Appeal, 1937. Member: Ecclesiastic Chapter of Stockholm, 1941; Swedish branch of Internatl. Law Assn. and Internatl. Maritime Com. Honors: Knight Commander, North Star Order, Vasa Order, Danish Dannebrog Order, Finnish White Rose Order and Norwegian St. Olaf Order. Address: Briger Jarlstorg 16, Stockholm, Sweden.

WILBUR, Hon. CURTIS DWIGHT, American Jurist; born May 10, 1867, Boonesboro, Iowa; son of Dwight L. and Edna (Lyman) Wilbur; educated at U. S. Naval Acad., 1884-88, B.S. 1888; married (1st) Ella T. Chilson, Nov. 9, 1893 (deceased, 1896); (2nd) Olive Doolittle, Jan. 13, 1897 (deceased 1942); one daughter and four sons. Admitted to Bar, 1890; practiced law until 1899. Chief Deputy District Attorney (civil matters), Los Angeles County, Calif., 1899-1903; elected Superior Court Judge, 1902, re-elected 1908 and 1914; appointed Assoc. Justice, Supreme Court of California, 1918; elected one twelve-year term, 1918; Chief Justice, 1922-24; Secy. of the Navy of the U. S., 1924-29; Judge, U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals for Ninth Circuit, 1929-45. Author: California Juvenile Court Law, 1909; amendments to law of 1903; amendment to proposed Juvenile Court Law, 1915. Residence: 241 Frederick St., San Francisco, California.

WILBUR, Dr. RAY LYMAN, American Educator; born at Boonesboro (now Boone), Iowa, Apr. 13, 1875; son of Dwight L. and Edna M. (Lyman) Wilbur; educated at Stanford, A.B. 1896, A.M. 1897; Cooper Medical College, M.D. 1899; Frankfurt, London and Munich; LL.D., California, 1919; Arizona, 1919; Pennsylvania, 1925; New Mexico, 1928; Pittsburgh, 1929; Chicago, 1929; Duke, 1930; Maryland, 1930; Princeton, 1930; Rochester, 1930; Tusculum, 1931; Yale, 1931; New York, 1931; Univ. of State of New York (Albany), 1931; Southern California, 1931; Dartmouth, 1932; Illinois Wesleyan, 1932, and Puerto Rico; Sc.D., Syracuse, 1924, and Western Reserve, 1931; A.M. Hahnemann Med. College, 1930; married Marguerite M. Blake, Dec. 5, 1898 (died Dec. 24, 1946); five children. Asst. in Physiology at Stanford, 1894-96; Instr., 1896-97; Asst. Prof. from 1900 to 1903; Professor of Medicine, 1909-16, and Dean of Stanford School of Medicine, 1911-16; Pres., 1916-41; Chancellor, 1942—. Secy. of the Interior in cabinet of Pres. Herbert Hoover, 1929-33. President of California State Conference of Social Agencies in 1919, and of Council of Social and Health Agencies, San Francisco, 1922-25; Vice-President of San Francisco Community Chest from 1927 to 1929, and is now a Director. He was on the California State Park Commission in 1928-29; Trustee of Rockefeller Foundation from 1923 to 1940, and of General Education Board from 1930 to 1940. Member of American Academy of Medicine (President, 1912-13); American Medical Association (President, 1923-24); Association of American Medical Colleges (President, 1924), and California Academy of Medicine (President, 1917-18). He is a Member of the Medical Council of U. S. Veterans Bureau (Chairman, 1924-29), and of the Medical Advisory Board of American Leprosy Foundation; Vice-President, Research Council on Problems of Alcohol, 1944—; Chairman, Baruch Committee on Physical Medicine, 1943—; Office of Civilian Defense, Youth Advisory Committee, 1943-46; Member, Natl. Exec. Board, Boy Scouts of America, 1939-45; Vice-Pres. of Natl. Council since 1942; Chmn., Health Committee of Boys Clubs of America since 1940; President of California Physicians Service, and of American Social Hygiene Assn. Chmn. of the White House Conf. on Child Health and Protection, 1929-31, and of Federal Oil Conservation Board, 1929-33; Chairman of Central Committee, World Citizens Association, 1938-40. National Pres. of Motion Picture Research Council; Chmn., Advisory Com. of Army Specialized Training Program since 1943. Chmn., Bd. of Trustees, Amer. Inst. of Pacific Relations, 1948—. Publications: Hoover Dam Contracts (with Ely), 1933; Construction of Hoover Dam (with Mead), 1933; Conservation (with DuPuy), 1931; Stanford Horizons, 1936; Hoover Policies (with Hyde), 1937; March of Medicine, 1938, and Human Hopes, 1940. Address: Stanford Univ., California.

WILBY, Major Gen. FRANCIS BOWDITCH, American Army Officer and Engineer; born Apr. 24, 1883, Detroit, Mich.; son of Richard Clark and Margaret Ann (Ingersoll) Wilby; educated at Harvard Univ., 1900-01; U. S. Military Acad., West Point, B.S. 1905; Army Engineer School, 1908; School of Line, Honor Graduate, 1922; General Staff School, 1923; Army War College, 1924; Clarkson College of Technology, Hon. Eng.D. 1942; married Dorothy Langfitt, May 25, 1911; one son. Served overseas, 1907; second occupation of Cuba and in Philippines and China, 1909-10; Recorder, Ohio River Board, 1914; in charge of construction of Lock Dam, Ohio River, Ravenswood, W. Va., 1915-17; with First Engineers in France, 1917; Director, First Corps Engineer School; later Asst. in charge of Military Engineering, Office of Chief Engineer, A.E.F.; commanded First Engineer Regiment; First Division Engineer, with rank of Col., Corps of Engineers, National Army; participated in battles of Cambrai, Aisne-Marne, St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne; returned to grade of Major, Regular Army; served at various bases; promoted through ranks to Brig. General, Oct. 1, 1940. Commanding General, First Corps Area, Boston, Mass., 1941; promoted to Major General, Sept. 29, 1941; Supt., U. S. Military Acad., West Point, 1942; Commanding General, Fort Belvoir, Va., Sept. 1945; retired as Major General, Jan. 31, 1946. Chairman, Power Authority of State of New York, since Feb. 13, 1946. Member: Soc. of Amer. Military Engineers; Amer. Soc. of Civil Engineers; (Hon. Life) Military Order of World Wars. Awards: Distinguished Service Medal; Croix de Guerre with Palm, France; Fourragere, France; Legion of Merit; Oak Leaf Cluster to Distinguished Service Medal; Ecuadorian Star of Abdón Calderón, 1st Class, etc. Residence: 91 St. Clair St., Geneva, N. Y. Office: 80 Centre St., New York State Power Authority, New York, N. Y.

WILCOCKS, Dr. RAYMOND WILLIAM, Principal, University of Stellenbosch; born Jan. 23, 1892, Vryburg, So. Africa; son of David and Aletta (van der Merwe) Wilcocks; educated at Victoria College, Stellenbosch, B.A. 1912; Univ. of Berlin, Ph.D. 1917; married Beatrice Zerffi, Feb. 16, 1917. Prof. of Psychology, Stellenbosch Univ., 1917-34; Chmn. of the Senate, 1933-34; Principal, 1935—. Trustee, South African Natl. Art Gallery. Member, Carnegie Commission on Poor White Problem in South Africa, 1928-32; Union of South Africa Commission on Cape Colored People, 1935-37 and Union of South Africa Commission on Mixed Marriages, 1938. Member of Com. on Veterinary Services, 1945, and of Commn. of Investigation of Radio Services, 1946-47. Author of Zur Erkentnistheorie Hegel's in der Phaenomenologie des Geistes, 1917; The Poor White, 1932, etc. Address: De Vos St., Stellenbosch, Union of South Africa.

WILCOX, Dr. CLAIR, American Economist; born Jan. 29, 1898, Cuba, N. Y.; son of Frederick Lown and Estelle (Wilcox) Lown; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania, B.S. 1919, Ph.D. 1927; Ohio State Univ., M.A. 1922; married Florence Chapman; two children. Instructor in Economics, Lafayette College, 1919-20; Asst. Prof. of Economics, Ohio Wesleyan Univ., 1920-23; Instructor in Economics, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1923-26; Exec. Secy., Pennsylvania State Parole Commission, 1926-27. Asst. Prof., Swarthmore College, 1927-29; Assoc. Prof., 1929-31; Prof. since 1931. Contributing Editor, St. Louis Post Dispatch, 1930-35; Director of Research, Natl. Commn. on Law Observance and Enforcement, 1930-31; Special Adviser and Member, General Code Authority; Director, Code Administration Studies, Natl. Recovery Administration, 1934-35; Principal Consulting Economist, Social Security Board, 1936-37; Economic Expert, Temporary Natl. Economic Com., 1939-40; Price Exec., Iron and Steel Branch, and Director, Industrial Materials Division, Office of Price Admin., 1942-43; Chairman, Conf. of Price Research, Natl. Bureau of Economic Research, 1944-45; Editorial Staff Member, Fortune Magazine, 1944; Director, Office of Internatl. Trade Policy, U. S. Dept. of State, since 1945. Chairman, U. S. Delegation, Preparatory Com. for Internatl. Conf. on Trade and Employment, London, 1946. Member, Amer. Economic Assn. Residence: 510 Ogden Ave., Swarthmore, Pa. Office: Main State Dept. Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WILCOX, GAYLORD PARKE, American Business Executive; born Aug. 5, 1881, Lihue, Kauai, Hawaii; son of Samuel W. and Emma (Lyman) Wilcox; educated at Univ. of Louisiana; married Ethel Wilcox, March 10, 1909; two children. Identified with the sugar industry throughout entire career; now retired but active in an advisory capacity in companies with which has been connected for many years. Pres. and Dir., Grove Farm Co. Vice-Pres. and Dir.: Bishop Natl. Bank of Hawaii; Bishop Trust Co., Ltd.; Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., Ltd.; Kekaha Sugar Co., Ltd. Director: American Factors, Ltd.; Pacific Chemical & Fertilizer Co., Ltd.; Chas. Brewer Estate, Ltd.; The Lihue Plantation Co., Ltd.; Oahu Sugar Co. Ltd.; The Koloa Sugar Co.; Olaa Sugar Co., Ltd.; Hawaiian Airlines, Ltd.; Kauai Pineapple Co., Ltd.; Hawaiian Canneries Co. Ltd., etc. Pres., George N. Wilcox Memorial Hosp. Lihue, Kauai; Kauai Public Library Assn. Trustee, Children's Hosp., Honolulu. Residence: Puhi, Kauai. Office: Bishop Trust Co., Ltd. King & Bishop Streets, Honolulu, T. H.

WILD, Dr. PAYSON S., JR., American Political Scientist; born Apr. 15, 1905, Chicago, Ill.; son of Payson S. and Caroline (Peabody) Wild; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, A.B. 1926; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1927, Ph.D. 1931; married Marian F. Lewis, June 18, 1932; three children. Instructor in Govt., Harvard Univ., 1935-39; Asst. Prof., 1939; Assoc. Prof., 1939-46; Prof. since 1946; Assoc. Dean, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, 1943-46; Dean, since 1946. Counsellor for Foreign Students, 1943-44. Staff Member, U. S. Naval War College, 1938-46. Trustee: Radcliffe College, since 1943; World Peace Foundation, since 1941. Pres., Massachusetts United Nations Assn., 1944-45. Member: Amer. Political Science Assn.; Amer. Soc. of Internatl. Law. Author: Sanctions and Treaty Enforcement, 1934; Machinery of United Nations, 1942; International Law Situations, 1938-39. Address: 24 Quincy St., Cambridge, Mass.

WILDBERG, JOHN J., American Theatrical Producer; born Sept. 4, 1902, New York, N. Y.; son of Jacob and Joan (Schwartz) Wildberg; educated at Columbia College, A.B. 1921, LL.B. 1923; married Ellen Moe, Apr. 17, 1944. Associated with production of The Milky Way, 1934; Hangman's Whip (Brady & Kondolf), 1934; White Horse Inn, 1936. Co-producer with Cheryl Crawford at Maplewood Theatre, 1940-42; Porgy and Bess, 1941-45; One Touch of Venus, 1943-45. Producer: Anna Lucasta, since 1944; Memphis Bound (with Vinton Freedley), 1945. Cited by Chicago Defender, 1945 Honor Roll, and Natl. Negro History Foundation, 1946, for contributions towards inter-racial understanding. Address: 206 East 30th St., New York 16, N. Y.

WILDE, CORNEL, American Motion Picture Actor; born Oct. 13, 1915, New York, N. Y.; married Pat Knight; one daughter. Began career on stage. Motion pictures include: A Song to Remember; A Thousand and One Nights; Centennial Summer; Leave Her to Heaven; Bandit of Sherwood Forest; Forever Amber; It Had to Be You, 1947; Walls of Jericho, 1948, etc. Address: c/o 20th Century Fox Studios, Box No. 900, Beverly Hills, Calif.

WILDE, PERCIVAL, American Writer; born 1887. Publications: The Line of No Resistance, 1913; Confessional and Other American Plays, 1916; The Unseen Host and Other War Plays, 1917; A House of Cards, 1919; Eight Comedies for Little Theatres, 1922; The Toy Shop, 1924; The Dyspeptic Ogre, 1924; The Inn of Discontent and Other Fantastic Plays, 1924; The Enchanted Christmas Tree, 1925; Kings in Nomania, 1926; Dawn, 1927; Rogues in Clover, 1929; The Devil's Booth, 1930; The Moving Finger, 1931; There Is a Tide (novel), 1932; Pawns, 1932; Lady of Dreams, 1934; Comrades in Arms, 1935; An Affair of Dishonor (one-act satire), 1935; Glamour, 1935; World Without End, 1936; Blood of the Martyrs (one-act play: based on short story by Stephen Vincent Benét), 1937; Ordeal by aBttle, 1938; Inquest, 1940; Mr. F., 1941; Bridge Blackouts (based on articles by S. Tupper Bigelow), 1942; Tinsley's Bones, 1942, etc. Address: c/o Random House, Inc., 457 Madison Ave., New York 22, N. Y.

WILDENSTEIN, GEORGES, French Art Critic; born 1892, Paris, France; son of Nathan and Lanse (Levy) Wildenstein; married Jane Levy; two children. Editor-Publisher, Gazette des Beaux-Arts, New York; also Editor of Arts, Paris, France. Pres., Société des Amis de l'Ecole Libre des Hautes Etudes de New York; Chairman, Organizing Com., Exhibition of Five Centuries of History. Member, Board of Dirs., Société d'Histoire de la Révolution Française. Decorated Commander, French Legion of Honor; holds awards from French Academy of Arts and Letters and Univ. of Paris. Author: Chardin; Lancret; Le Peintre Aved. etc. Address: 113 E. 64th St., New York. Offices: 19 E. 64th St., New York, N. Y.; also 140 Fbg. St. Honoré, Paris, France.

WILDER, AMOS NIVEN, American Theologian; born in Madison, Wis., Sept. 18, 1895; son of Amos Parker and Isabella (Niven) Wilder; educated at Yale, A.B. 1920, B.D. 1924, Ph.D. 1933; Univ. of Brussels; Mansfield College, Oxford; Hamilton College, D.D. 1933; married Catharine Kerlin, June 26, 1935; two children. Entered ministry, 1925. Minister: First Church of Christ (Congregational), North Conway, N. H., 1925-28. Assoc. Prof. of Religion, Hamilton College, 1930-33; Norris Prof. of New Testament Interpretation, Andover Newton Theological School, 1933-43. Fellow, Belgian Amer. Foundation in Belgium, 1920-21; Fellow, Natl. Council on Religion in Higher Education. Prof. of New Testament Interpretation, Chicago Theological Seminary, and at Federated Faculty of Theology of Univ. of Chicago since 1943. Author: Arachne: Poems, 1928; Eschatology and Ethics in the Teaching of Jesus, 1939; Spiritual Aspects of the New Poetry, 1940; The Healing of the Waters: Poems, 1943. Address: 5757 University Ave., Chicago 37, Illinois.

WILDER, BILLY, American Film Writer and Director; born June 22, 1906, Austria; son of Max and Eugenie Dittler Wilder; educated in Viennese Schools; married Judith Coppicus, Dec. 20, 1936 (divorced); one daughter. Reporter, Berlin Nachtausgabe; Author of script, People on Sunday (produced for $5,000), 1928; also Emil, the Detective (included in collection of Museum of Modern Art of New York). Director, Mauvaise Graine, France, 1933. Scenarist, Paramount Pictures, since 1936. Writer or collaborator on scripts: Bluebeard's Eighth Wife; Midnight; Arise, My Love; Hold Back the Dawn; Ball of Fire; Ninotchka. Director and co-writer: The Major and the Minor; Five Graves to Cairo; Double Indemnity; The Lost Weekend. Address: Paramount Pictures, Inc., 5451 Marathon St., Hollywood 38, Calif.

WILDER, Dr. RUSSELL MORSE, American Professor of Medicine; born Nov. 24, 1885, Cincinnati, Ohio; son of William Hamlin and Ella (Taylor) Wilder; educated at Univ. of Chicago, B.S. 1907, Ph.D. 1912; Rush Med. College, M.D. 1912; grad. study, Univ. of Chicago, 1913; Vienna, 1914; married Lucy Elizabeth Beeler, Mar. 18, 1911; two children. Instructor in Anatomy and Pathology, Univ. of Chicago, 1909-10; practice at Chicago, 1912; Resident, Presbyterian Hosp., Chicago, 1915-17; Instructor in Medicine, Rush Med. College, 1915-17; Member, Mayo Clinic, 1919-29; Asst. Prof. of Medicine, Mayo Foundation, Univ. of Minn., 1919-22; Assoc. Prof., 1922-23; Prof., 1923-29; Prof., Medicine and Chmn., Dept. of Medicine, Univ. of Chicago, 1929-31; Prof. of Medicine and Head Dept. of Medicine, Mayo Foundation, and Member, Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., since 1931. Chief, Civilian Food Requirements Branch, Food Distribution Admn. U. S. War Food Admn., 1943. Member: Natl. Research Council (Member Com. on Med. 1940-46, Chairman 1940, Member, Food Nutrition Board 1940, Chairman, 1940-41); Amer. Medical Assn. (Member, Council on Foods); Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Amer. Soc. of Clinical Investigation; Amer. Physiological Soc.; Inst. of Nutrition; Amer. Diabetes Assn. Fellow, Amer. College of Physicians. Author: Clinical Diabetes Mellitus and Hyperinsulinism, 1940; A Primer for Diabetic Patients, 8th ed., 1946. Contributor to magazines on nutrition and diseases of metabolism; collaborator on several medical books. Address: Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota.

WILDER, SALMON WILLOUGHBY, American Chemical Engineer; born Feb. 10, 1870, Lawrence, Mass.; son of Salmon W. and Rose E. (True) Wilder; educated at Mass. Inst. of Technology, S.B. in Chemical Engineering, 1891; married Marcia R. Sawyer, Oct. 17, 1895; two children. Chemical Engineer with Russell Paper Co. and Fall Mountain Paper Co., 1891-98. With Merrimac Chemical Co., Boston, 1898-1931; appointed Manager, 1899; Treas., 1899-1906; Pres., 1906-29; Chairman of the Board, 1929-31. Trustee, Newton Centre Savings Bank. Member of Corp., M.I.T., 1925-30; Member, Advisory Board of U. S. Chemical Warfare Service. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc. (former Chairman, Northeastern Section); Manufacturing Chemists Assn. of U. S. (former Chairman, Exec. Com.); Synthetic Organic Chemists Assn. of U. S. (former Chairman, Board of Governors); Soc. of Chemical Industry (former Chairman, New England Section). Address: 21 Institution Ave., Newton Centre 59, Mass.

WILDER, THORNTON NIVEN, American Author; born April 17, 1897, Madison, Wis.; son of Amos Parker and Isabella Thornton (Niven) Wilder; educated at Oberlin College, two years; Yale, B.A. 1920; Princeton, M.A. 1928; New York University, Litt.D. 1929. Taught at Lawrenceville (N. J.) School, 1921-27; University of Chicago, 1931-37. Member: American Institute of Arts and Letters; American Academy of Arts and Letters. Author: The Cabala; Heaven's My Destination; The Bridge of San Luis Rey (awarded novel Pulitzer Prize, 1928); The Woman of Andros, 1930; Our Town (Drama Pulitzer Prize, 1938; The Skin of Our Teeth (Drama Pulitzer Prize 1943); The Ides of March, 1948, etc. Major U. S. Army Intelligence Air Corps, World War II. Address: 50 Deepwood Dr., Hamden 14, Conn.

WILDERMUTH, ORA LEONARD, American Attorney; born Oct. 15, 1882, Star City, Ind.; son of Elias and Olive (Herrick) Wildermuth; educated at Indiana Univ., LL.B. 1906; married Cordelia Wilds, Sept. 1907 (died Apr. 1940); one daughter; married (2nd) Mae R. London, 1942. Began practice of law, 1906; First City Judge of Gary, 1910-14. Member: Amer. and Indiana Bar Assns. Vice-Pres. and Director, Barnes Ice & Coal Co.; Secy. and Pres., Assn. Gov. Bds. of State Univs., 1939-40; Secy.-Treas. since 1943. Vice-Pres. and Director, Indiana Univ. Foundation; Trustee, Waterman Inst. for Scientific Research. Pres. of Trustees, Gary Public Library; Pres. of Trustees, Indiana Univ. Chairman, Governor's Commn. on Unemployment Relief, 1933-34. Awarded Citation of Merit by Amer. Library Assn., 1943. Author: Legal Status American State Universities, 1940. Address: 690 Broadway, Gary, Ind.

WILDES, WILLIAM HENRY, American Business Executive; born Jan. 11, 1893, Maine; son of William H. and Abbie (Keene) Wildes; educated in public schools; married Marie Gould, Apr. 8, 1920; two children. Vice-Pres., E. H. Rollins and Sons, Boston, 1916-30. Exec. Vice-Pres., Central Public Service Corp., Chicago, Ill., 1930-32; Exec. Vice-Pres. and Director, Consolidated Electric and Gas Co., 1932-33. Pres., Republic Natural Gas Co., since 1935. Member, Board of Directors: Republic Natural Gas Co.; Republic National Bank of Dallas; Independent Natural Gas Assn. of America; Independent Petroleum Assn. of America; Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Assn. of Texas. During First World War served as Captain in 33rd Inf. Div., U.S.A. Residence: 4242 Bordeaux St. Office: 1505 Federal St., Dallas, Tex.

WILDMAN, Dr. CLYDE EVERETT, American Educator; born Mar. 8, 1889, Greensburg, Ind.; son of John W. and Eugenia (Chapman) Wildman; educated at DePauw Univ., A.B. 1913; Boston Univ., Ph.D. 1926, D.Sc. in Education, 1944; Boston Univ. School of Theology, S.T.B. 1916; Cornell College, Iowa, D.D. 1926; Northeastern Univ., LL.D. 1927; Wabash College, LL.D. 1938; Northwestern Univ., S.T.D. 1941; married Forest Kyle, June 18, 1917; one daughter. Pastor, East Saugus M. E. Church, East Saugus, Mass., 1917-19. Prof. of Bible and Religion, Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Ia., 1920-26; Dean, 1924-26. Prof. of Bible, Syracuse Univ., 1926-30; Prof. of Old Testament History and Religion, Boston Univ. School of Theology, 1930-36. Pres., DePauw Univ., since 1936. Member, University Senate, Methodist Church, since 1936. Pres., Natl. Assn. on Methodist Schools and Colleges; Chairman, Division on Social Forces; Member, Advisory Council on Operation of G.I. Bill under State Board of Education, etc. Address: DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana.

WILDS, WILLIAM NAYLOR, American Sugar Manufacturer; born Dec. 28, 1879, Fernandina, Fla.; son of Wesley Curtis and Mary Rebecca (Higginbotham) Wilds; married Eoline Cassibry, Oct. 27, 1910 (deceased); one daughter. Began career with Seaboard Airline as clerk, 1898. Identified with Amer. Crystal Sugar Co. since 1908, when started as clerk; successively Chief Clerk, Assistant Auditor, Auditor, Comptroller, Secretary, Vice-President, and President since 1934; also Director of the Company. Pres. and Dir., Ventura County Railway Co., Calif. Served in militia of State of Florida three years. Residence: Park Lane Hotel. Office: 600 Boston Bldg., Denver, Colo.

WILE, Dr. UDO JULIUS, American Physician; born 1882; educated at Johns Hopkins Univ. School of Medicine, M.D. 1907. Prof. of Dermatology and Syphilology, Univ. of Michigan Med. School; resigned as Chairman, Dept. of Dermatology and Syphilology, 1946. Consultant, U S. Public Health Service. Fellow, American College of Physicians. Diplomate, American Bd. of Dermatology and Syphilology. Address: 9 Geddes Heights, Ann Arbor, Mich.

WILES, Rt. Hon. THOMAS, P.C., British Administrator: born 1864, St. Albans, Herts.; son of Joseph and Jane (Young) Wiles; educated at Amersham Hall School; married Winifred Crassweller; three children. Member, County Council, 1899-1907;

Member of Parliament (Liberal) 1906-19. Vice-Chairman, Port of London Authority, 1939-41; Chairman, 1941-46. Life Chairman, J. Wiles & Son, Ltd.; Chairman, Anglo-Portuguese Bank; Chairman, Corn Exchange; Chairman, W. Mellwich (Proprietors) Ltd. Chairman, Royal Surgical Aid Soc. Residence: Stoke Court, Stoke Poges, Bucks. Office: London House, London, E.C. 2, England.

WILEY, Hon. ALEXANDER, U. S. Senator; born May 26, 1884, Chippewa Falls, Wis.; son of Alexander and Sophia (Ekern) Wiley; educated at Augsburg College, 1902-04; University of Michigan Law School, 1904-06; University of Wisconsin Law School, LL.B. 1907; married May Jenkins, Nov. 25, 1909; four children. Practicing lawyer at Chippewa Falls, Wis., 1907. Elected District Attorney, Chippewa County, 1908, twice re-elected. Republican candidate for Governor of Wisconsin, 1936. Elected to United States Senate, 1939; re-elected, on Republican ticket, in the Democratic landslide of 1944, leading his opponent by 97,000 votes. Chmn. of Senate Judiciary Com. and Member of Foreign Relations Com. Represented U. S. as Delegate to Inter-Parliamentary Union Conf., Oslo, Norway, 1939, and British Empire Parliamentary Conf., Bermuda, 1946. Residence: 420 W. Willow St., Chippewa Falls, Wis. Office: Senate Office Bldg., Washington, District of Columbia.

WILEY, Dr. H. ORTON, American Educator and Clergyman; born Nov. 15, 1877, Marquette, Neb.; son of John Thompson and Alice Chloe (Johnston) Wiley; educated at College of the Pacific, A.B. 1910; Pacific School of Religion, B.D. 1910, S.T.M. 1917, S.T.D. 1929; Pasadena College, Hon. D.D. 1926; married Alice M. House, Nov. 1902; four children. Held pastorates in San Jose and Berkeley, Calif., 1905-10; Dean, Pasadena College, 1910-13; Pres., 1913-16, 1926-29 and since 1933. Pres., Northwest Nazarene College, 1916-26; Editor, Herald of Holiness, 1928-36; Chairman, Dept. of Education, General Board, Church of the Nazarene, since 1928. Author: Christian Theology (3 vols.); Introduction to Christian Theology (with Dr. Paul T. Culbertson), both courses of study for ministers. Address: Pasadena College, Pasadena 7, California.

WILEY, HUGH, American Writer; born 1884. Author: The Wildcat, 1920; Jade and Other Stories, 1921; Lady Luck, 1921; Lily, 1922; The Prowler, 1924; Fo' Meals a Day, 1927; Manchu Blood, 1927; Here's Luck, 1928. Address: c/o Alfred A. Knopf, Inc., 501 Madison Ave., New York 22, New York.

WILEY, JOHN COOPER, American Ambassador to Portugal; born Sept. 26, 1893, Bordeaux, France; son of John McClure and Virginia E. (Cooper) Wiley; educated at Union College, 1916; married Irena Monique Baruch, Apr. 24, 1934. Clerk in the American Embassy, Paris, 1913; Secretary, Embassy, Paris, 1916; assigned to The Hague, 1918, Santiago, 1919, Buenos Aires, 1920, Caracas, 1920, Copenhagen, 1921, Madrid, 1922, Lima, 1923 and 1924, Berlin, 1926, Warsaw, 1930; assigned as Counsellor of Warsaw Embassy, Apr. 1930; Berlin (temporary), 1931, Madrid, 1932; U. S. Dept. of State, 1933; Counsellor of Embassy, Moscow, 1934; Consul General, Antwerp, 1935; Chargé d'Affaires, Vienna, 1937; Consul General, Vienna, 1938. American Minister to Latvia and Estonia, 1938; assigned to Dept. of State, 1941-44; Ambassador to Colombia, 1944-47; Ambassador to Portugal, 1947 —. Address: American Embassy, Lisbon, Portugal.

WILGRESS, LEOLYN DANA, Canadian Diplomat; born October 20, 1892, Vancouver, B. C., Canada; son of Henry T. and Helene M. (Empey) Wilgress; educated at schools in Yokohama, Japan, and Victoria, B.C.; McGill University, B.A. 1914; married Olga Buergin, June 4, 1919; three children. Junior Trade Commissioner, 1914; Canadian Trade Commissioner, Omsk, Russia, 1916; Trade Commissioner, Vladivostok, Siberia, 1918; Trade Commissioner, Hamburg, Germay, 1922; Director, Commercial Intelligence Service, Ottawa, Canada, 1932; Adviser at Ottawa Imperial Conference, 1932; Adviser at World Economic Conference at London, 1933; Negotiator in Washington for Canada - U. S. Trade Agreement, 1935-38; Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce. Appointed Minister to the U.S.S.R. 1942-43; Ambassador to Moscow 1943-47; Minister to Switzerland, 1947 —. Member: Foreign Exchange Control Board, Canada, 1939; Advisory Com. on Economic Policy, 1939; Shipping Board (Chairman, 1940); Wartime Prices and Trade Board, 1941. Canadian Rept., United Nations Preparatory Commn., 1945; Chief of Canadian Delegation, Internatl. Trade Conf., Geneva 1947. Residence: 371 Mariposa Ave., Rockcliffe, Ottawa, Canada. Office: Canadian Legation, Berne, Switzerland.

WILGUS, Dr. A(LVA) CURTIS, American Historian; born Apr. 2, 1897, Platteville, Wis.; son of James Alva and Flavia (McGurer) Wilgus; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, B.A. 1920, M.A. 1921, Ph.D. 1925; Univ. of California; State Teachers College of Wisconsin (Platteville); married Beatrice Bruhnke, June 24, 1922; one son. Assoc. Prof. of History, Univ. of South Carolina, 1924-30; Assoc. Prof. of Hispanic American History, George Washington Univ., 1930-40; Prof. since 1940. Lectured in Northwestern Univ., College of the City of New York, Univs. of Chattanooga, Iowa, Maine, Missouri, Virginia, Ohio, etc. Latin American Expert to U. S. Office of Education, 1941, and Program Officer and Consultant, Division of Education and Teacher Aids, Office of Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, 1943-45. Pres., Inter-American Bibliographical and Library Assn.; Director, Pan-Amer. Foundation; on Board of Directors of Instituto de las Españas; Latin Amer. Economic Inst.; Acad. of World Economics. Corresponding Member: Academia Colombiana de Historia; Academia de la Historia de Cuba; Academia Nacional de la Historia de Venezuela; Centro de Investigaciones Sociales y Económicas de Panamá; Cuban-American Council of University Studies, Havana; Hispanic Soc. of America; Instituto de Estudios Económico-Sociales de México, D.F.; Sociedad Dominicana de Estudios e Investigaciones Históricas, etc. Decorated by Venezuela (Medalla de Honor de la Instrucción Pública). Author: The Development of Hispanic America, 1941, 1944; Outline History of Latin America (co-author, 1939, 1941, 1944); Histories and Historians of Hispanic America, 1936, 1942; Latin America in Maps, 1943; Readings in Latin Civilization, 1946. Editor of Studies in Hispanic American Affairs (5 vols., 1933-37) and of Inter-American Bibliographical Review, World Affairs, The Caravan, Latin American Supplement of Week-by-Week; Latin American editor of several encyclopedias, etc. Address: The George Washington University, Washington, D. C.

WILHELMINA, Queen of the Netherlands; born Aug. 31, 1880. Succeeded to throne upon the death of her father, Wilhelm III, Nov. 23, 1890. Crowned Queen of the Netherlands, Sept. 6, 1898; married Prince Henry of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Feb. 7, 1901 (died 1934). Heiress to the throne is Princess Juliana, Her Majesty's only daughter, born June 29, 1911. After German invasion of Holland, 1940, she continued military opposition against the enemy, directing war efforts from England, the United States and Canada. Abdicated in favor of her daughter, Sept. 4, 1948. Address: Royal Palace, The Hague, Netherlands.

WILHELMJ, Dr. CHARLES M., American Physiologist; born in 1896, East St. Louis, Illinois; son of Dr. C. F. and Emma (Martel) Wilhelmj; educated at St. Louis University, M.D. 1922, B.S. 1922, M.S. 1923; married Irene Bergen, 1916. Dr. Wilhelmj was Teaching Fellow in Anatomy, St. Louis Univ., 1918-22; Instructor in Bacteriol. and Immunol., 1924-25. Fellow in Med., Mayo Foundation, 1925-27; Assoc., Div. of Experimental Surgery and Pathol., and Member, Permanent Staff; Instructor in Physiol., Univ. of Minn., 1927-30. Prof. of Physiol., Creighton Univ., since 1930; also Dean, School of Med. Fellow of Amer. Med. Assn. Member of Amer. Gastro-Enterol. Soc.; Amer. Physiol. Soc.; Sigma Xi; Alpha Omega Alpha. Author of 70 papers on carbohydrate and protein metabolism, physiology of thyroid gland, uric acid metabolism, gastric test meals, experimental peptic ulcer, etc. Address: 306 N. 14th St., Omaha, Nebr.

WILINSKY, Dr. CHARLES F., American Hospital Administrator; born Dec. 20, 1882, Warsaw, Poland; son of Adolph and Alta (Bloom) Wilinsky; educated at Baltimore Univ., M.D. 1904; Hon. A.M., Harvard Univ., 1941; married Lillian Isenberg, Jan. 29, 1921; three children. District Health Officer, Boston, 1916-24; Organizer and Dir. of Blossom Street Health Unit, 1916; Dir. of Boston's chain of Health Centers since 1922; Deputy Health Commnr., City of Boston, in charge of Child Hygiene and Health Units, since 1925; Executive Dir., Beth Israel Hosp. of Boston, since 1928; Lecturer in Public Health Administration, Mass. Inst. of Technology, since 1933; Lecturer in Public Health Administration, Harvard Univ., 1937-39. Trustee of Amer. Hosp. Assn., since 1942; Member of Executive Bd. of Amer. Public Health Assn. Member: Amer. College of Hospital Administrators; Amer. Hospital Assn.; Amer. Public Health Assn.; Massachusetts Board of Health since 1928; Amer. Med. Assn.; Mass. State Public Health Council. Awarded Boston City Club Medal, 1942. Author: Health Survey of Palestine, 1927; Health Units of Boston, 1923 (revised 1945); also many articles on public health and hospital administration in various medical journals. Address: 330 Brookline Ave., Boston, Massachusetts.

WILKERSON, JAMES H., American Lawyer; born December 11, 1869, Savannah, Mo.; son of John W. and Lydia (Austin) Wilkerson; educated at DePauw University, A.B. 1889, LL.D.; Illinois Wesleyan University, D.C.L.; married Mary Roth, Aug. 21, 1891; one son. Practiced law in Chicago, 1893-1922. Member, Illinois House of Representatives, 1902; County Attorney for Cook County, Ill., 1903-04; Special Assistant to the Attorney General of the U. S., 1906-11; U. S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, 1911-14; Chairman, Public Utilities Commission of Illinois, 1919-21; United States District Judge for the Northern District of Illinois, 1922-41. Residence: 924 Bluff St., Glencoe, Ill. Office: 231 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Ill.

WILKERSON, Dr. MARCUS MANLEY, American Professor of Journalism; born Jan. 10, 1896, Boyce, La.; son of Columbus F. and Martha Jane (Cudd) Wilkerson; educated at Louisiana State Univ., A.B. 1924, A.M. 1926; Univ. of Wisconsin, Ph.D. 1931; married Helen Crowell, Sept. 14, 1922. Instructor in Journalism, Louisiana State Univ., 1924-26; Asst. Prof. of Journalism and Prof. since 1926. Director, University Press, since 1935. Legislative Correspondent, New Orleans States and Shrevesport Times, 1926; Legislative Correspondent, Associated Press, 1928 and 1930. Editor, Louisiana Leader, 1933-42; Associate Editor, Journalism Quarterly, since 1938. Author: Public Opinion and the Spanish-American War; A Study in War Propaganda, 1932; Thomas Duckett Boyd; The Story of a Southern Educator, 1935. Address: Louisiana State University Press, University Station, Baton Rouge, La.

WILKES, Prof. JOSUE TEOFILO, Argentine Musicologist; born Jan. 8, 1883, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Jorge Wilkes and Antonia Blanco de W.; educated at Colegio Nacional; Conservatorio de Buenos, Gran Premio "Europa"; Academia Nacional de Bellas Artes; Schola Cantorum de Paris; married Petrona Elvira Lauro, Nov. 17, 1917; three children. Prof. of Music, Escuela Primaria, 1907; Prof., Escuela Normal Mixta de Maestros de Gualeguay, Provincia de Entre Rios, and Asst. of Secretariat and Librarian. Prof., Escuela No. 8, Twentieth Scholastic Council 1936. Vice-Pres., Asociación Euritmia. Member: Inst. Interaméricano de Musicologia. Author: Doce Canciones Coloniales; Ensayo sobre Clasificación Ritmica del Cancionero; Criollo; Estudio sobre "El Cielito"; Eufonía y Euritmia—acepción de estas voces en la oratoria y la música; La X Cantiga de Alfonso el Sabio y su armenización por J. Ribera, Particularidades Ritmica del Cancionero Músical Popular Argentino, Estudios Sobre la Música del Cancionero cuyano, Genesis Hispánica del Cancionero Músical Rioplatense and Estudios sobra la Música del Himna Nacional Argentina. Compositions: Humahuaca (orchestral suite); Noche Persa (comic opera); Por el Cetro y La Corona (opera); "La Cautiva" Oratorio; compositions for piano, Caprice for Piano and String Quartet and three female voices; Caprice for Piano, Harmonium and Cello; Efluvios Pampeanos (for piano); Kamarinskaia (Slavonic dance for piano and harmonium and string octet), Canciones Argentinas de Cámara and 50 Canciones populares cuyanas, etc. Address: Espinosa No. 2372, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

WILKIN, Hon. ROBERT N., American Jurist; born in New Philadelphia, Ohio, May 4, 1886; son of Supreme Court Judge J. Foster and Virginia (Smith) Wilkin; educated at Law School of University of Virginia, LL.B. 1908; married. Began the practice of law, 1908; Was Senior Member, firm of Wilkin, Fisher and Limbach, New Philadelphia, Ohio. President, Muskingum-Tuscarawas Improvement Association (which organized and developed the Muskingum Watershed Conversancy District) 1930-34. Judge, Supreme Court of Ohio, 1934; U. S. District Judge for the Northern District of Ohio, 1939. Member, Judicial Council of Ohio until 1934; Chairman of the Committee appointed by Governor White to revise Conservation Laws of Ohio, 1935-38. Director of American Judicature Society. Member: the American and Ohio State Bar Assns., American Law Institute, etc. Author: The Spirit of the Legal Profession, 1938; Eternal Lawyer — A Legal Biography of Cicero, 1947. Address: 338 Federal Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio.

WILKINS, Dr. ERNEST HATCH, American Educator; born Sept. 14, 1880, Newton Centre, Mass.; son of Samuel Francis and Laura Elizabeth (Hatch)

Wilkins; educated at Amherst College, A.B. 1900; A.M. 1903; Litt.D. 1920; Harvard University, Ph.D. 1910; Beloit College, LL.D. 1928; University of Chicago, LL.D. 1928; Western Reserve University, LL.D. 1928. Instructor in Romance Languages, Amherst, 1900-04; Instructor, Harvard University, 1906-12; Associate Professor, Chicago, 1912-16; Professor, 1916-27; Dean of College of Arts, Literature and Science, 1923-26; President, Oberlin College, 1927-46. President: Assn. of American Colleges, 1931; Ohio College Assn., 1942-43. Fellow, A.A.A.S. and American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Member, Modern Language Association of America (President, 1946); Medieval Academy of America; Dante Society; Committee for the Study of the Organization of Peace. Author: Dante — Poet and Apostle; The Trees of the Genealogia Deorum; The University of Chicago Manuscript of the Genealogia Deorum; The Changing College; Above Pompeii; The College and Society; A Platform for Life; Living in Crisis; From Peace to War; Toward Unity. Joint author: Concordance to Latin Works of Dante. Translator: Papini's Four and Twenty Minds. Address: 177 Homer St., Newton Centre, Mass.

WILKINS, Sir HUBERT, Australian Explorer; born Oct. 31, 1888, So. Australia; son of Harry and Louisa (Smith) Wilkins; educated at School of Mines and Industries of Adelaide, South Australia; married Suzanne Evans, August, 1929. Correspondent with the Turkish troops during the Balkan War (1912-13); Second in Command of Stefansson's Party, Canadian Arctic Expedition, 1913-17. Commissioned Captain, Australian Flying Corps; Navigator, Blackburn Kangaroo Airplane in the England-Australia Flight, 1919; Second-in-Command, British Imperial Antarctic Expedition, 1920-21; Naturalist with the Shackleton Antarctic Expedition, 1921-22. Leader, Wilkins Australia and Island Expedition, 1923-25; Leader, Detroit Arctic Expedition, 1925-26; Detroit News Arctic Expedition, 1926-27; led the Detroit News-Wilkins Arctic Expedition, flying from Point Barrow to Spitzbergen over the Arctic Sea, 1927-28; Leader, Wilkins-Hearst Antarctic Expedition (was, with Mr. Eielson, first to fly a plane in the Antarctic), 1928-29; during Wilkins Expedition, discovered more than 1,500 miles of coastline and several islands, 1929-30. Commander, Nautilus Submarine Expedition to the Arctic, 1931; in command of the M.S. "Wyatt Earp" on four Ellsworth Antarctic Expeditions, 1933-39. Decorated (for military service) with the Military Cross and Bar; created Knight Bachelor, 1928; Companion of the Order of St. Maurice and St. Lazarus of Italy in 1933. Holds honor medals from the Geographical Societies of London, New York, Berlin, Belgium, Cuba, etc., Awarded the Explorers' Club Medal, 1939. Received medals from the aeronautical Societies of France, Norway, and the International League of Aviators, etc. Member: American Philosophical Society; Royal Geographical Society, the Royal Meteorological Society, etc. Author: Undiscovered Australia (1926); Flying the Arctic (1928); Under the North Pole (1931); Thoughts Through Space (Co-author, 1942), etc. Consultant to the Military Planning Division of the U. S. Army, since 1942. Residence: "Walhalla," R.F.D. No. 4, Montrose, Pa.

WILKINS, Hon. RAYMOND S., American Jurist; born May 24, 1891, Salem, Mass.; son of S. Herbert and Marietta B. (Rowell) Wilkins; educated at Harvard University, A.B. 1912, LL.B. 1915; married Mary Louisa Aldrich, Sept. 22, 1923; three sons. Began career as a lawyer, Sept. 2, 1915. Associated with Storey, Thorndike, Palmer & Dodge (later Palmer, Dodge, Wilkins & Davis), 1915-44; Associate Justice, Supreme Judicial Court, Massachusetts, since 1944. Residence: 25 Cabot St., Winchester, Mass. Office: 1312 Court House, Boston, Mass.

WILKINSON, ANDY G., American Librarian; graduated Univ. of California. Served as Member of Staff, University of California Library and Bancroft Library at Univ. of California. Head of Library Service and Director of the Benjamin Franklin Library, Mexico City, 1947 —. Member, Amer. Library Assn., etc. Address: Benjamin Franklin Library, Reforma 34, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

WILKINSON, Rev. ARTHUR HENRY, Anglican Clergyman; born Sept. 8, 1885, Whitworth, Durham, England; son of John and Elizabeth Wilkinson; educated at Balliol College, Oxford, B.A. 1908; Egerton Hall, 1908-10; Manchester Univ., B.D.; married Edith McQuhae, 1916; three children. Ordained Deacon, Church of England, 1911; Priest, 1912. Secy., Student Christian Movement, Manchester, 1910-11; Curate, 1911-12; at Bradford, Manchester, 1912-14. Missionary in West China, 1914-22; Principal, C.M.S. College, and Dean of Arts, West China Union Univ., 1918-22; Curate, Platt, Manchester, 1922-24; Vicar of Poynton, Cheshire, 1924-29; General Secy., British and Foreign Bible Soc., since 1929. Address: 146 Queen Victoria St., London, England.

WILKINSON, GEORGE LAWRENCE, American Attorney; born Sept. 9, 1868, Washington, D. C.; son of A. George and Lue Burman (Wilson) Wilkinson; educated at Columbian Univ., B.S. 1888, LL.B. 1891, LL.M. 1892; married Adele Enloe, Oct. 30, 1895; four children. Began as an examiner in the U. S. Patent Office, 1889. Law clerk, 1901; with Chamberlin & Wilkinson, 1901-07; with Sheridan & Wilkinson, 1907-17; with Wilkinson & Huxley and then Wilkinson, Huxley, Byron & Knight, since 1917. President, Chicago Patent Law Assn.; Chairman, Patent Sec. American Bar Assn. Residence: 1027 Greenwood, Evanston, Ill. Office: 38 So. Dearborn, Chicago, Ill.

WILKINSON, NORMAN, British Artist; born Nov. 24, 1878, Cambridge, England; son of Thomas and Emma Johnson (Lole) Wilkinson; educated at Berkhamstead School, 1891-94; married Evelyn Harriet Mackenzie, 1918; two children. Exhibited at Royal Acad., London, 1906; later at Prince's Galleries, London. Represented in permanent collections at Santiago (Chile), Auckland (New Zealand), Glasgow, Birmingham, Hull, Buckingham Palace. He was Art Adviser to London, Midland and Scottish Railway, 1924-44. Pres., Royal Inst. of Painters in Water Colours. Member: Royal Inst. of Painters in Oil Colours; Soc. of Marine Painters. Created Knight, Belgian Crown Order; Order, British Empire (Mil. Div.). Author and Illustrator of "The Dardanelles." Served in British Navy, 1915-18 (originator of Naval Camouflage, adopted by all Allied Nations). Inspector of Camouflage with rank of Hon. Air Commodore, 1939-41; commissioned Lieut., R.N. V.R., 1944; took part in "D-Day" Landing at Normandy. Address: 43 Sheldon Ave., Highgate, London, England.

WILKS, JOHN ALEXANDER, British Librarian; born June 28, 1889, London, England; son of Harry and M. A. (Keen) Wilks; educated at Univ. of London, M.A.; married G. B. Baker, 1917; one daughter. Library Asst., Univ. College, London, 1910; now Librarian. Member: Library Assn.; Bibligraphical Soc.; English Goethe Soc. Residence: White House

Farm, Potter St., near Harlow, Essex. Office: Gower St., London, England.

WILKS, Prof. SAMUEL S(TANLEY), American Mathematical Statistician; born June 17, 1906, Little Elm, Tex.; son of C. C. and Bertha May (Gammon) Wilks; educated at North Texas State Teachers College, B.A. 1926; Univ. of Texas, M.A. 1928; Univ. of Iowa, Ph.D. 1931; Columbia Univ.; Cambridge Univ.; London Univ. (Natl. Research Council Fellowship); married Gena Orr, Sept. 1, 1931; one son. Instructor in Mathematics, Princeton Univ., 1933-36; Asst. Prof. of Mathematics, 1936-38; Assoc. Prof., 1938-44; Prof. of Mathematical Statistics since 1944. Member of Advisory Com., Applied Mathematics Panel, N.D.R.C., O.S.R.D., World War II. Editor, Annals of Mathematical Statistics, since 1938. Member: Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Amer. Statistical Assn. (Vice-Pres. 1946); Mathematical Assn. of America; Inst. of Mathematical Statistics (Pres. 1940); Psychometric Soc.; Econometric Soc.; Amer. Soc. for Quality Control. Author: Statistical Inference, 1937; Mathematical Statistics, 1943; also about 35 articles in mathematical and statistical journals. Address: Princeton University, Princeton, N. J.

WILLARD, Dr. ARTHUR CUTTS, American Educator; born August 12, 1878, Washington, D. C.; son of Alexander D. and Sarah (Cutts) Willard; educated at National College of Pharmacy, 1898-1900; Massachusetts Institute of Technology, S.B. 1904; Case School of Applied Science, Dr. of Engn. 1934; George Washington Univ., LL.D. 1934; Northwestern University, LL.D. 1934; University of Illinois, LL.D. 1946; married Sarah Lamborn, Nov. 26, 1907. Instructor, Industrial Chemistry, California School of Mechanical Arts, San Francisco, 1904-06; Asst. Prof. of Mechanical Engineering, George Washington Univ., 1906-09; Asst. Sanitary and Heating Engineer, U. S. Quartermaster Corps, 1909-11; Sanitary and Heating Engineer, 1911-13. Asst. Prof. of Heating and Ventilation, Univ. of Illinois, 1913-17; Prof. of Heating and Ventilation, 1917-34; Head, Dept. of Mechanical Engineering, 1920-34; Acting Dean, College of Engineering and Acting Dir., Engineering Experiment Station, 1933-34. Pres. of the Univ. of Ill., 1943-46; Emeritus, 1946—. Consulting Engineer, Natl. Army Cantonments, summer 1917; Bureau of Mines at Washington, 1921. Consultant to The Chemical Warfare Service, 1926; Consultant to the U. S. Public Health Service, 1927; Consultant on Ventilation, to the Chicago Subway in 1930; Consultant on Ventilation, Holland and Lincoln Tunnels, N. Y. C., since 1920. Advisor to the Research and Development Branch, Office of the Quartermaster General, Washington, D.C., 1945; Pres., National Assn. of State Universities, 1945. Author: Mechanical Equipment of Building (with L. A. Harding); Heating and Ventilation, 1916, revised 1929; Power Plants and Refrigeration, 1918; Heating, Ventilating and Air Conditioning (with L. A. Harding), 1932. Address: 1203 W. Nevada St., W. Urbana, Ill.

WILLARD, ARTHUR De WALT, JR., American Association Executive; born Sept. 15, 1904, Frederick, Md.; son of Arthur De Walt and Mary Ella (Stoner) Willard; educated at Univs. of Virginia and Baltimore; married Georgianna Courtney, June 23, 1928; two children. Rept., Bradstreet Co., 1924-27; Announcer and Program Director, radio station WCAO, Baltimore, 1927-28; Business Manager, radio station WFBR, 1928-30; partner in firm of Willard, Barrett & Nolley, advertising agency, Baltimore, 1930-31; Member of Staff, WJSV (now WTOP), Washington, D. C., 1932; Sales Manager, 1937-42; General Manager, WBT, Charlotte, N. C., 1942-45; Executive Vice-Pres., Natl. Assn. of Broadcasters, since 1945. Address: 1771 N St., N.W., Washington 6, D. C.

WILLCOCK, Hon. JOHN COLLINGS, Australian Political Leader; born Aug. 9, 1879, Frogmoor, N.S.W.; son of Joseph and Ellen (Webb) Willcock; married 1907; four children. Minister of Railways and Justice, 1924-30 and 1933-36; Member, Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, 1917. Premier of Western Australia since 1936. Residence: 45 Rockwood St., Mt. Lawley, Western Australia.

WILLCOCKS, MARY PATRICIA, British Novelist and Biographer; born Mar. 17, 1869, Joybridge, Devonshire; daughter of John and Sarah (Hensleigh) Willcocks; educated at London Univ., B.A. Began career as a novelist, 1899. Author: Man of Genius; Wingless Victory; Eyes of the Blind; Wings of Desire; Sleeping Partner; Keystone; Worlds Apart; The Way Up; Husbandry in Heaven; Ropes of Sand; Lives of Mme. Roland and Mary Queen of Scots; Bunyan Calling; Between the Old World and the New; Life of Henry Fielding. Member, P.E.N. Club. Residence: Pennsylvania Crescent, Exeter, Devonshire, England. Office: c/o P.E.N., The Porch, Tring, Herts., England.

WILLCOX, Prof. JEROME KEAR, American Librarian; born 1902; received B.S. in Library Science; M.A. Librarian, College of the City of New York. Publications: Sources of Current Reviews of Scientific and Technical Books, 1930; United States Reference Publications' Guide to the Current Reference Publications of the Federal Government, 1931; Bakelite (a bibliography), 1931; Cellophane (a bibliography), 1391; Guide to the Official Publications of the New Deal Administrations (mimeograhped and printed), 1934; Bibliographical Guides, Directories and Authority Lists for Studying the New Deal, 1935; Manual on the Use of State Publications, 1940; Official Defense Publications: Guide to State and Federal Publications, vols. 1-9, 1941-45, etc. Address: College of the City of New York, Broadway and 139th St., New York, N. Y.

WILLCOX, Prof. WALTER F., American Statistician; born 1861; received A.B. degree. Prof. of Economics and Statistics, Emeritus, Cornell Univ. Author: The Divorce Problem (a study in statistics), 1891; Area and Population of the U S. at 11th Census, 1897; Proportions of the Sexes in the United States, 1904; Negroes in the United States, 1904; The Development of the American Census Office since 1890, 1914; John Shaw Billings and Federal Vital Statistics, 1926; Introduction to the Vital Statistics of the U. S., 1900-1930, 1933; Studies in American Demography, 1940, etc. Address: Cornell University, College of Arts and Sciences, Ithaca, N. Y.

WILLE, Dr. GEORGE, K.C. South African Professor of Law; born 1880, at Graaff Reinet, Cape of Good Hope; educated at Graaff Reinet College; St. Leonards, England; Christ's College, Cambridge University; B.A., LL.B. 1902, LL.D. 1929. Began career as advocate at Johannesberg, 1903; Professor of Law, University of Cape Town, 1920-45. Author: Landlord and Tenant in South Africa, 1909, third edition, 1938; Mercantile Law of South Africa, 1917 (11th ed., 1945); Mortgage and Pledge in South Africa; Principles of South African Law, 1937 (2nd edition, 1946). Address: Waldere, Banksia Road, Rosebank, Cape Town, South Africa.

WILLE, Dr. JACOBUS, Dutch Literary Historian; born Apr. 8, 1881, Koudekerk a.d. Rijn, The Netherlands; son of Willem and Dima (Batelaan) Wille; educated at Univ. of Leiden, Ph.D. 1924; married Elisabeth Vershave, Aug. 27, 1908; four children. Taught Dutch Language and General History, Christian Gymnasium, The Hague, 1908-09; Lecturer on Dutch and Old Germanic Language and Literature, Free Univ., 1914-25; Prof. of Dutch and Old Germanic Language and Literature, Free Univ., since 1925. Director, Library of Free Univ. and Bilderdyijk Museum. Member: Council of Scientific Libraries of the Govt.; societies for literary and historical sciences at Leiden, Amsterdam, Utrecht and The Hague. Author: Marnix' Byencorf, 1919; Aesthetisch of Puriteinsch?, 1925; Heiman Dullaart, 1926; Da Gereformeerden en het Tooneel tot 1620, 1930; Taalbaderf door de school van Kolbewijn, 1935; De literator R. M. van Goeuw en zijn kring, 1924, 1937. Address: Free University, Keizersgracht 162, Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

WILLEBRANDT, MABEL WALKER, American Lawyer; born Woodsdale, Kansas, May 23, 1889; daughter of David William and Myrtle S. (Eaton) Walker; educated at University of Southern California, LL.B. 1916, LL.M. 1917; LL.D. conferred by the University of Southern California, Lincoln Memorial University, Dickinson College, Baylor University, and Hillsdale College; one daughter. Admitted to the bar of California, 1915; practiced law in Los Angeles and Dist. of Columbia since. Was attorney in about 2,000 cases as public defender for City and County of Los Angeles. Assistant Attorney General of the United States, 1921-29. Member, Amer. Law Inst. Address: Title Insurance Building, Los Angeles, California.

WILLERT, Sir ARTHUR, British Writer; born May 19, 1882, Oxford, England; son of Paul F. and Henrietta (Crofts) Willert; educated at Eton College; Balliol College, M.A. Oxford; married Florence McKay Simpson, 1908; one son. Member, Staff, London Times, London, 1905; Washington Correspondent, London Times, 1910-20; Washington Secy., British War Mission, 1917-18; Head of News Dept. & Press Office, British Foreign Office, 1921-35; Writer, Lecturer, Traveller, 1935-39; Head of Southern Regional Office, British Ministry of Information, 1939-45. Created Knight of British Empire, 1918. Author: Aspects of British Foreign Policy, 1927; Frontiers of England, 1935 (Amer. ed., as What Next in Europe?), 1936; The Empire in the World (part author), 1937. Address: Trackways, Boris Hill, Oxford, England.

WILLET, HENRY LEE, American Stained Glass Artist; born Dec. 7, 1899, Pittsburgh, Pa.; son of William and Anne (Lee) Willet; educated at Princeton Univ.; Wharton School, Univ. of Pennsylvania; Europe, 1924-27; married Muriel Crosby, 1927; three children. Designer of stained glass since 1920. Pres., Willet Stained Glass Co. Executed windows at numerous chapels and churches. Natl. Pres., Stained Glass Assn. of America, 1942-44; Republican Committeeman since 1943. Member, Board of Directors: Philadelphia Federation of Churches, since 1938; Philadelphia Art Alliance (Chairman, Crafts Com.), since 1940; Natl. Conference of Christians and Jews, since 1944. Secy., Com. on Social Education and Action, Philadelphia Presbytery; Commnr. to General Assembly, Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., 1935, 1943; Vice-Pres., Ambler (Pa.) Public Library; Chairman, Board of Managers, Philadelphia City-wide Inter-Racial Com. Member: Amer. Inst. of Architects; Architectural League of New York; Amer. Federation of Art; Pennsylvania Museum of Art. Address: 3900 Girard Ave., Philadelphia 4, Pa.

WILLEY, FREDERICK T., British Parliament Member; born Nov. 13, 1910, Durham, England; son of Frederick and Mary E. (Thompson) Willey; educated at St. John's College, Cambridge, B.A., LL.B.; married Eleanor Snowdon, Nov. 18, 1939; two children. Barrister-at-Law; Member of Parliament for Sunderland, since 1945; Member, Parliamentary Delegation to Hungary; Member, Select Com. on Statutory Rules and Orders and on Estimates; Parliamentary Private Secy. to Secy. of State for Home Affairs. Residence: 45 High Cliff Dr., Leigh, Essex. Office: 5 Paper Bldgs., Temple, London, England.

WILLEY, Dr. MALCOLM MACDONALD, American Sociologist; born Nov. 13, 1897, Portland, Me.; son of Carlton Bartlett and Helen Maar (Macdonald) Willey; educated at Clark Univ., A.B. 1920, L.H.D. 1945; Columbia Univ., A.M. 1921, Ph.D. 1926; married Nancy Burnham Boyd, Feb. 6, 1924. Instructor in Sociology, Dartmouth College, 1923-24; Asst. Prof., 1924-27; Assoc. Prof., 1927-29; Prof. of Sociology, Univ. of Minnesota, 1929-34; University Dean and Asst. to Pres., 1934-43; Vice-Pres., Academic Administration and Prof. of Sociology since 1943. Investigator, President's Research Com. on Social Trends, 1931; Director of Studies for Com. on Effect of Depression and Recovery on Higher Education, AAUP, 1934-35. Member: Com. on Organization for Research in Social Sciences; Social Science Research Council. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member: Sociological Soc.; Sociological Research Assn. Author: The Country Newspaper, 1926; An Introduction to Sociology (with Jerome Davis and others), 1927; Readings in Sociology (with Wilson D. Wallis), 1930; Communication Agencies and Social Life (with S. A. Rice), 1933; Depression, Recovery and Higher Education, 1937; The Newspaper in the Contemporary Scene (with Ralph D. Casey), 1942; Higher Education and the War (with T. R. McConnell), 1944. Address: University of Minneapolis, Minneapolis 14, Minnesota.

WILLEY, RAYMOND, American Industrialist; born in 1879, in Newtonville, Mass.; studied in public and high schools, and attended Mass. Inst. of Technology; married Elma Currier, 1906; two sons. Began career in 1898 as clerk in Boston, with Consular Service in Hungary, 1899-1902. Entered Harbison-Walker Refractories Co., 1902, where was successively Supt., District Supt., Asst. to Vice-Pres. and Vice-Pres.; Pres. since 1939. Director: Farmers Deposit National Bank of Pittsburgh. Residence: 6516 Beacon St. Office: Farmers Bank Bldg. Pittsburgh, Pa.

WILLGING, Most Rev. JOSEPH CLEMENT, American Bishop; born Sept. 6, 1884, Dubuque, Iowa; son of Henry P. and Elizabeth A. (Hanover) Willging; educated at St. Mary's Parochial School, Dubuque, 1891-98; Loras Academy and College, Dubuque, 1898-1905, A.B.; St. Mary's University, Baltimore, S.T.B. 1905-08; Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., 1908, 1912; Chicago University, 1913. Bishop Willging began as Principal of S. Aloysius Institute, Helena, Mont., Sept. 8, 1909. Treasurer and Professor, Mt. St. Charles College, Helena, Mont., 1909-12; Secretary to Bishop of Helena, 1913; Chancellor, Diocese of Helena, 1914-27; Pastor, Immaculate Conception Parish, Butte, Mont., 1927-42. Bishop of Pueblo, Colo., since 1942. Director of Pueblo Community Chest and Pueblo Red Cross; President of Catholic Charities, Inc. Appointed Papal Chamberlain by Pope Benedict XV, and Domestic Prelate by Pope Pius XII. Address: 325 W. 15th St., Pueblo, Colo.

WILLIAM, Prince of Sweden, born June 17, 1884, Tullgarn, Sweden; educated at Naval College and High School. Began as midshipman, 1898; Sub-Lieut., 1904; Capt., 1920; Admiral in retirement, 1938; Editor of Cailorem Journal, 1924-42; Member of Svenska Dagbladets, daily paper; producer of documentary films since 1930. Member, Swedish Section, P.E.N.; Pres. since 1944. Member, Swedish Authors Assn.; Swedish Journalists Assn. Hon. Member, Swedish Musical and Scientific Acad. Author of four volumes of poetry, four volumes of fiction (short stories), three plays, 11 volumes of travel, etc. Address: Stenhammar, Flen, Sweden.

WILLIAMS, ALBERT NATHANIEL, American Industrialist; born June 14, 1888, Denver, Colo.; son of Arthur Henry and Dora B. (Sanford) Williams; educated at Sheffield Scientific School, M.E. Yale, 1910; married Clara Skeel, Oct. 24, 1912; three children. Began as rodman with Denver and Salt Lake R.R. 1904; President and General Manager, C. & W. I. R.R. and Belt Ry. Co. of Chicago, 1932-39; Chairman of Board and Executive Vice President, Lehigh Valley R.R., 1939-40; Pres., 1940-41; Pres., Western Union Tel. Co., 1941-45; Vice Chairman of Board, Westinghouse Air Brake Co. and Union Switch and Signal Co., 1945-46; Pres. and Dir. since 1946. Pres. and Director, Amer. Brake Co., Westinghouse Pacific Coast Brake Co.; first Vice Pres. and Director, Bendix-Westinghouse Automotive Air Brake Co. Director: American Express Co.; American Express Co., Inc.; American District Tel. Co.; Avco Mfg. Corp.; Canadian Westinghouse Co., Ltd.; Lehigh Valley R.R. Co.; Magor Car Corp.; Manning, Maxwell & Moore, Inc.; Mfrs. Trust Co.; N. Y. Shipbuilding Corp.; Peoples First Natl. Bank and Trust Co.; Western Union Tel. Co. Residence: Park Mansions, Frew St., Pittsburgh 13, Pa. Office: Westinghouse Air Brake Co., Wilmerding, Pa.

WILLIAMS, ALBERTO, Argentine Pianist, Conductor and Composer; born Nov. 23, 1862; son of Jorge Orlando Williams and Eloisa Alcorta de W.; studied in Conservatorio de la Provincia de Buenos Aires, and at Paris Conservatory as a Pensioner of Argentine Govt., 1882-89; trained by George Mathias and César Franck; married Irma Paats, Apr. 27, 1899; four children. First showed interest in the piano at age of eight, and shortly thereafter began to create own compositions. Founded and for a time directed the symphonic concerts of the Athenaeum, the Library Concerts, and the concerts of the Buenos Aires Conservatory. In 1900 he appeared with the Berlin Philharmonic in a performance of several of his early works. In 1919 special performances of his works were conducted in the famed Teatro Colón of Buenos Aires, and in 1930 three festivals of his compositions were presented in the Paris Conservatory. On his 75th birthday (1937), the Teatro Colón organized a music festival in his honor under the direction of the Argentine conductor José Gil, who interpreted his Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Symphonies, while in 1940 the N.B.C. Symphony (National Broadcasting Company, New York) performed his Seventh Symphony under the baton of Arturo Toscanini. He was warded the French Legion of Honor in 1939. He has completed nine symphonies, two concert overtures, five "Milongas" (characteristic dances), two marches, ten choral works (a capella) for male voices, numerous minor vocal works, and a long series of compositions for piano, one trio (for piano, violin and 'cello), three sonatas for violin and piano, one sonata for 'cello and piano, and one for flute (or violin) and piano. Compositions have now reached Opus No. 131. Residence: 11 de Septiembre No. 1500. Study: Avda. las Heras No. 2120, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

WILLIAMS, Dr. ALFRED HECTOR, American Economist, Banker; born Feb. 28, 1893, Horatio, Jefferson County, Pa.; son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Powell) Williams; educated at Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, Univ. of Pennsylvania, B.S. 1915, A.M. 1916, Ph.D. 1924; married Mabel Baker Fisher, Nov. 26, 1917. Instructor in Industry, Wharton School, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1915-16, 1919-20; Asst. Prof., 1920-21; Prof., 1921-41. Consultant, Dennison Manufacturing Co., in revision of managerial profit-sharing plan, 1925-26; Dean, Wharton School, 1939-41. Pres., Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, since 1941. Assoc. Trustee, Univ. of Pennsylvania. Director: Amer. Acad. of Political and Social Science; Cheyney Training School for Teachers; Samuel S. Fels Fund; Inst. of Local and State Govt.; Pennsylvania State Planning Board; Philadelphia Award; United China Relief; United Nations Council. Chairman, Victory Fund Com., 1942-43; Director, Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade, Philadelphia, 1942-45; General Chairman, Community Chest of Philadelphia and Vicinity, 1947 Campaign. Residence: Providence Rd., Wallingford, Pa. Office: 925 Chestnut St., Philadelphia 1, Pennsylvania.

WILLIAMS, Rt. Rev. ALWYN TERRELL PETRE, Anglican Bishop; born July 20, 1888, Barrow-in-Furness, Eng.; son of John Terrell and Adeline Mary (Peter) Williams; educated at Jesus College, Oxford, B.A. 1910, M.A. 1913, D.D. 1925; honorary D.D., Durham and St. Andrews; married Margaret Grace Stewart, 1914. Began as a clergyman, 1913. Second Master, Winchester College, 1916-24; Head Master, 1924-34; Chaplain to His Majesty the King, 1931-34; Dean, Christ Church, Oxford, 1934-39. Consecrated Bishop of Durham, 1939. Hon. Fellow, Jesus College, Oxford. Address: Auckland Castle, Bishop Auckland, England.

WILLIAMS, Hon. ARNOLD, Governor of Idaho; born May 21, 1898, Fillmore, Utah; son of William and Annie Mariah (Rutherford) Williams; educated at Hennigers Business College, Salt Lake City; married Louella Huskinson, July 2, 1919; two children. County Commissioner, 1933-37; Member, School Board, Rexburg, 1938-45; elected to House of Representatives, Idaho Legislature, 1937, 1939, 1941; Majority Leader, last term; Lieut. Governor, State of Idaho, 1944; Governor of Idaho since Nov. 17, 1945; re-elected June, 1946; Democratic candidate for Governor, 1946. One of eight Governors to attend President Truman's Highway Safety Conference, Washington, D. C., May, 1946. Member, Amer. Legion, past 26 years; Past Commander, Palisade Post No. 64, Rexburg, Idaho. Residence: 303 No. 12th St. Office: State House, Boise, Idaho.

WILLIAMS, Prof. (ARTHUR FREDERIC) BASIL, British Historian; born April 4, 1867, London, England; son of Frederic G. A. and Mary Katharine (Leman) Williams; educated at Marlborough College, 1881-86; New College, Oxford, 1886-90, M.A.; married Dorothy Caulfeild, Dec. 19, 1905; two sons. Secy., Transvaal Education Dept., 1903-04; Special Correspondent of The Times at South African Convention, 1908-09; Vice-Chairman, Borough Polytechnic Inst., 1920. Liberal Candidate for Parliament, Mid-Sussex, Jan. 1910, for Rugby Division, Dec. 1910. Capt., R.F.A. July 1915; Major on General Staff, 1918-19. Ford Lecturer at Oxford, 1921; Prof. of History at McGill Univ., 1921-25; Prof. of History, Edinburgh Univ., 1925-37. Fellow, British Acad. Member, Royal Historical Soc. Author: Life of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham, 1913; Volume IV of the Times History of the South African War, 1918; Life of Cecil Rhodes, 1921; The British Empire, 1928; Life of Lord Stanhope, 1932; The Whig Supremacy in Oxford History of England, 1939; Carteret and Newcastle, 1943; Botha, Smuts and South Africa, 1946, etc. Address: The Athenaeum, Pall Mall, London, S.W. 1, England.

WILLIAMS, AUBREY WILLIS, American Administrator; born Aug. 23, 1890, Springville, Ala.; son of Charles E. and Eva (Taylor) Williams; educated at Maryville (Tenn.) College, 1911-16; University of Cincinnati, A.B. 1920; University of Bordeaux, France, 1919; married Anita Schreck, Dec. 18, 1920; four children. In community service in Cincinnati, 1920-22. Executive Director, Wisconsin Conference of Social Work, 1922-32; Field Representative of American Public Welfare Assn., 1932-33. Field Representative of Federal Emergency Relief Administration, 1933; Asst. Administrator (and of Civil Works Administration), 1933-35. Appointed Assistant Works Progress Administrator, May 1935; Executive Director of NYA, June 1935; Deputy Administrator, WPA, Jan. 31, 1936; Administrator, NYA, Dec. 1938. Publisher, Southern Farmer. Served with the 5th F. A.; 1st Division, A.E.F., 1918-19, World War I. Address: Southern Farmer, Montgomery, Ala.

WILLIAMS, BEATTY BRICKER, American Industrialist; born Aug. 22, 1876, Shelby, Ohio; son of Benjamin Julius and Ida (Whiting) Williams; educated at Oberlin Acad., 1895, and Oberlin College, A.B. 1899; married Amy Fairchild, Oct. 24, 1900; one son. Served as President of Cooper-Bessemer Corp. until 1943 when became Chmn. of Board of Directors and Chairman of the Executive Com. Director, First Knox Natl. Bank, Mt. Vernon, Ohio. Trustee: Oberlin College, Mt. Vernon Public Library, Mt. Vernon, Ohio. Residence: "Maplehurst." Office: N. Sandusky St., Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

WILLIAMS, BEN AMES, American Author; born Mar. 7, 1889, Macon, Miss.; son of Daniel Webster and Sarah Marshall (Ames) Williams; educated at Dartmouth College, A.B. 1910; married Florence Trafton Talpey, Sept. 4, 1912; three children. Newspaper reporter, 1910; later took up fiction writing. Author: All the Brothers Were Valiant, 1919 (reprinted 1929); Splendor, 1927 (republished 1941); Great Oaks, 1930; Honeyflow, 1932; Hostile Valley, 1934; Small Town Girl, 1935; Crucible, 1937; The Strumpet Sea, 1938; Thread of Scarlet, 1939; The Happy End (collection of short stories), 1939; Come Spring, 1940; Strange Woman; Time of Peace; Leave Her to Heaven, 1944; House Divided, etc. Address: 124 Chestnut Hill Road, Chestnut Hill, Mass.

WILLIAMS, BEN J., American Cotton Merchant; born Sept. 20, 1891, New Orleans, La.; son of Benjamin Williams and Leontine (Maine) Williams; educated at local public schools; married Edna Ayraud, Feb. 17, 1917; one daughter. Office boy in Cotton Office of Ed. Eisenhauer & Co. of New Orleans, 1906; admitted as Junior Partner, 1916. Organized Pape, Williams & Co., 1917. Member, New Orleans Public Belt Railroad Commn. for 20 years, latterly as Chairman of the Exec. Com. Vice-Pres., New Orleans Cotton Exchange (1923-24); Vice-Pres., Southern Cotton Shippers Assn. (Pres., 1937); Vice-Pres. and Pres., New Orleans Assn. of Commerce and of American Cotton Shippers Assn. (1940-41). Chairman, Louisiana Council of U. S. Chamber of Commerce; Director, Amer. Cotton Shippers Assn.. Member: Panel of Arbitrators of Inter-American Commercial Arbitration Commn. of New York. Vice-Chairman: Com. on Exports of Natl. Cotton Council of Amer.; New Orleans Chapter of American Red Cross (Chairman of War Fund). Residence: 6120 Marquette Pl. Office: 820 Union St., New Orleans, La.

WILLIAMS, Dr. BENJAMIN HARRISON, American Educator; born Mar. 23, 1889, Eugene, Ore.; son of John M. and Jennie M. (Gwin) Williams; educated at Univ. of Oregon, B.A. 1910, M.A. 1912; Harvard Law School, 1912-13; Univ. of California, Ph.D. 1921; married Helene F. Ogsbury, Nov. 18, 1917; two children Statistician to Oregon State Industrial Accident Commn., 1914-16; Secy. of Social Welfare, Univ. of Oregon Extension Division, 1916-17; Instructor in Political Science, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1921-23; Lecturer in Politics, Bryn Mawr College, 1923; Asst. Prof. of Political Science at Univ. of Pittsburgh, Pa., 1923-27; Assoc. Prof., 1927-30; Prof. of Political Science, 1930-43. Research Analyst, Office of Chief of Staff, U. S. Army and later Divisional Asst. in Dept. of State; transferred to Army Industrial College (later Industrial College of the Armed Forces) where he became Asst. Director, Dept. of Research. Assoc. Editor, Scholastic, 1927-28. Member: Amer. Soc. of Internatl. Law; Amer. Political Science Assn., etc. Author: Economic Foreign Policy of the United States; The United States and Disarmament; The London Naval Conference; Foreign Loan Policies of the United States since 1933; American Diplomacy, Policies and Practice, etc. Residence: 4404—34th St., S., Arlington, Va. Office: 1E608 The Pentagon, Washington, D. C.

WILLIAMS, CAMILLA, American Singer; born Danville, Va.; daughter of Booker and Fannie (Cary) Williams; educated at Virginia State College, B.S. Pub. Sch. Mus.; Univ. of Pennsylvania, student of languages; studied under Mme Marian Szekely-Freschl; Ralph Berkowitz; Cesare Sodero. Made operatic debut (first Negro to sing Madama Butterfly with major opera company), New York City Center, under direction of Laszlo Halasz, May, 1946; fall season, Nedda in Pagliacci. Soloist: Chicago Symphony, 1946; Scranton Symphony, 1947. Made debut at Town Hall, Jan. 12, 1947; soloist in Scranton, Pa., New London, N. H., Middlebury, Conn., Miami, Fla., So. Carolina, Vermont, Mass., 1947. Winner of Marian Anderson Award, 1943-44; Winner, Philadelphia Orchestra Youth Concert Audition, 1944-45; appeared with Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, RCA Victor Red Seal Recording Artist. Received Newspaper Guild of New York Page One Award as First Lady of American Opera for 1946; scholarship from Virginia State College Alumni of (Virginia State) Philadelphia Chapter and all Alumni contributed to her musical training. Residence: 4826 Aspen St., Philadelphia, Pa. Office: Arthur Judson-Columbia Concerts, Inc., 113 W. 5th St., New York, N. Y.

WILLIAMS, CHARLES, British Political Leader; born April 21, 1886; son of John Charles and Mary C. Williams; educated at Eton and Trinity College, Cambridge, B.A.; married Mary Frances Bolitho, 1915. Lieut.-Commdr., R.N.V.R., during First World War; served at Antwerp and Gallipoli. Member of Parliament (Conservative) for Tavistock Division of Devon, 1918-22, and for Torquay Division since 1924. Deputy Chairman and Deputy Speaker, House of Commons, 1943-45; Deputy Speaker and Chairman, 1945. Address: Caerhays Castle, Gorran, Cornwall, England.

WILLIAMS, CHARLES LAIDLAW, American Attorney and Banker; born in New York, N. Y., Feb. 9. 1884; son of Charles Eugene and Addie B. (James) Williams; educated at Columbia, A.B. 1906, A.M. 1908, LL.B. 1908; married Gertrude E. Marshall, Aug. 14, 1915; one daughter. Practicing attorney, 1908. Member, firm of Sommer, Colby & Whiting, Newark, N. J., until 1913. Prof. of Law, Cornell Univ., 1913-14. Associated with Morris Plan Corp. of America and its affiliated corporations in national development of industrial banking since 1915. Vice-Pres. and Counsel and Director, Morris Plan Corp. of America, American Installment Credit Corp. and Collateral Discount Corp. Pres. and Director of Industrial Finance Co. of France, Paris; Vice-Pres. and Director, Industrial Acceptance Corp. of South America; Vice-Pres., General Contract Purchase Corp. of America. Director. First Industrial Loan Co. of New Jersey; Morris Plan Insurance Soc.; Realty Acceptance Corp.; General Engineering and Manufacturing Corp.; Aero Units, Inc.; Worth Engineering Corp.; National Industrial Credit Corp.; Hamilton Fire Insurance Co. Founded Juvenile Court System of New Jersey, 1911-12. Address: 420 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y.

WILLIAMS, EDGAR IRVING, American Architect; born Oct. 5, 1884, Rutherford, N. J.; son of William George and Raquel Helen (Hoheb) Williams; educated at Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, B.S. 1908, M.S. 1909; Fellow, Amer. Acad. in Rome, Italy, 1912; married Hulda Gustafva Olson, Sept. 16, 1913; four children. Architectural Designer: Welles Rosworth, N. Y.; Guy Lowell, Boston; E. P. Mellon, N. Y., 1912-17. Partner, Williams & Barratt, 1919-28; private office since 1928. Assoc. Prof. of Architectural Design, Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1913-15; Staff Member, School of Architecture, Columbia Univ., 1921-28; Assoc. in Design, since 1937. Designer: Manton B. Metcalf Memorial Bldg., Orange, N. J.; Paul Starrett residence, Greenwich, Conn.; C. R. Holmes Estate, Port Washington, N. Y.; Railroad Station, Valley Stream, N. Y.; (co-designer) Administration Bldg., New York World's Fair, 1939. Director, Amer. Inst. of Architects (Fellow), 1942-44; Vice-Pres., Fine Arts Federation, N. Y., 1941-43 (Trustee); Pres., New York Chapter, Amer. Inst. of Architects, 1941-42; Pres., Architectural League of N. Y., 1939-41; Trustee, Amer. Acad. in Rome, 1918-37; Member, Board of Governors, New York Building Congress; Pres., Henry Bacon Memorial Foundation; Vice-Pres., National Sculpture Soc. Awards: Order of Vasa; Knight, First Class of Sweden. Address: 126 E. 38th St., New York, N. Y.

WILLIAMS, EDMUND RANDOLPH, American Lawyer; born May 1, 1871, Richmond, Va.; son of John L. and Maria Ward (Skelton) Williams; educated at Univ. of Virginia, B.L. 1893; married Maude Stokes, Nov. 22, 1902; two children. Member, Hunton, Williams, Anderson, Gay & Moore, Richmond, Va. Director: First & Merchants National Bank, Richmond, Va.; Virginia Electric & Power Co., Richmond, Va. General Counsel, Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac R.R. Co. Vice-Pres. and Trustee, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts; Executive Com., Virginia Historical Soc. Pres. and Director, Children's Home Soc. of Virginia for many years. Member: Amer. Bar Assn.; Virginia State Bar Assn.; Richmond Bar Assn.; Assn. of Bar of the City of New York. Address: 1003 Electric Bldg., Richmond 12, Va.

WILLIAMS, Dr. EDWARD I. F., American Educator; born June 22, 1886, Wooster, Ohio; son of E. Garver and Mary Ellen (Miller) Williams; educated at Heidelberg College, Ph.B. summa cum laude 1914; Teachers College, Columbia Univ., A.M. 1920, Ph.D. 1941. Served as Principal and Supt. of schools; Instructor in Education, Heidelberg College, 1915-20; Prof. and Head of Dept. of Education since 1920; Registrar, College, since 1938. Prof. of Education, summer sessions, Bowling Green Univ., Ohio, 1921-23; West Virginia Univ. for four summers; New York State College for Teachers, Albany, ten summers; Lecturer, State Teacher Colleges, San Diego, and Chico, Calif., summer of 1930; Member, General Advisory Com., Ohio State Dept. of Education, 1930-31. Member, Board of Directors, Horace Mann League of Amer.; Amer. Youth for European Youth; Weller Memorial Commission, Tiffin, Ohio. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Hon. Member, Supervisors of Student Teaching (Natl. Secy.-Treas., 1923-24). Member: Amer. Assn. of School Administrators; Natl. Soc. for Study of Education; College Teachers of Education, Amer. Collegiate Registrars; Natl. Education Assn. (Member of Com., Horace Mann Centennial), etc. Editor, The Educational Forum, since 1942; Editor, Kappa Delta Pi Lecture Series, since 1942. Author: Horace Mann, educational statesman, 1937; Actual and Potential Use of Laboratory Schools in State Teachers Colleges, 1942; more than 600 book reviews and many magazine articles. 2nd Lieut., Ordnance Dept., U. S. Army, 1918-19. Address: Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio.

WILLIAMS, Hon. EDWARD JOHN, British High Commissioner in Australia; born 1890, Victoria, Mo.; educated in elementary schools; Labour College, London; married Evelyn James, 1916; two daughters. Started as miner at 12. Secretary to Great Western Collieries, 1909-13; returned to mining, 1917; checkweigher, 1918; Miners' Agent, to Garw District of South Wales Miners' Federation, 1919-31. Elected Labour Member of Parliament, 1931; Minister of Information, 1945-46; High Commissioner to Australia, 1946—. Address: U. K. High Commissioner, Canberra, Australia.

WILLIAMS, EDWARD LOCKE, American Lawyer; born Feb. 24, 1891, Lunenburg, Va.; son of Oscar and Sally Page (Ingram) Williams; educated at Univ. of North Carolina, A.B. 1911; Univ. of South Carolina, LL.B. 1914; Columbia Univ.; married Louise DuBose Blakeney, Dec. 11, 1915; two children. Practiced law in Kershaw County, S. C., 1914-17. With firm of Cravath & Henderson of New York; associated with McAdoo, Cotton & Franklin, 1921; partner, 1922-43; Pres. of Insurance Executives Assn. since 1943. Address: 116 John St., New York, N. Y.

WILLIAMS, EDWIN MOSS, American Journalist; born Sept. 12, 1903, Columbia, Mo.; son of Walter and Hulda (Harned) Williams; educated at Culver Military Acad., 1922; Univ. of Missouri, B.J. 1925; married Evelyn Branch, Sept. 29, 1931; two children. Business Manager, Gulfcoast (Miss.) Guide, 1925; Secy., Press Congress of World, Geneva, Switzerland, 1925; Publisher, Marfa (Texas) Sentinel, 1926; Publisher, The Border Times, Presidio, Texas, 1926. Southwestern Representative, United Press Assns., Kansas City, 1927; Manager, Southern Division, Atlanta, Ga., 1929; General Sales Manager, New York City, 1935; Vice-Pres., 1938; Vice-Pres. and General Business Manager, United Press Assns., since 1941. Awarded Medal for Distinguished Service in Journalism, Univ. of Missouri School of Journalism, 1946. Residence: 435 E. 52nd St. Office: 220 E. 42nd St., New York, N. Y.

WILLIAMS, EMLYN, British Actor and Playwright; born Nov. 26, 1905, Mostyn, N. Wales; son of Richard and Mary (Williams) Williams; educated at Christ Church College, Oxford, M.A.; married Molly O'Shann, 1934; two chidlren. Began career as an actor, 1927. Authored following plays, appearing in several: Full Moon, 1927; A Murder has been Arranged, 1930; Vessels Departing, 1932; Spring, 1600, 1933; Night Must Fall, 1935; He was born Gay, 1936; The Corn is Green, 1938; The Light of Heart, 1940; The Morning Star, 1941; New Adaptation of a Month in the Country, 1942; The Druid's Rest, 1943; The Wind of Heaven, 1945. Address: Park End, North Moreton, Didcot, Berks, England.

WILLIAMS, ESTHER, American Painter; born Feb. 19, 1907, Boston, Mass.; daughter of Oliver E. and Esther (Baldwin) Williams; educated in private schools, Boston; pupil of Philip L. Hale, 1925-27; student of André Lhote, Paris, 1928. One-man shows: Worcester (Mass.) Art Museum, 1936; Kraushaar Galleries, New York, N. Y., 1941, 1944 and 1947; Montclair Art Museum, 1943; Academy of Arts and Letters, New York, 1944, etc. Exhibited in major national exhibitions. Represented in many permanent collections including: Whitney Museum of American Art; Metropolitan Museum of Art; Boston Musuem of Fine Arts; Penna. Academy of Fine Arts; Worcester Art Museum; Addison Gallery of American Art; New Britain (Conn.) Art Museum; also represented in private collections. Awards: Lambert Purchase Prize, Penna. Acad., 1935; 2nd Purchase Prize, Worcester Art Museum, 1945; Norman Waite Harris Award Bronze Medal and Award, Chicago Art Inst., 1938; grant by Amer. Acad. of Arts and Letters and by National Inst. of Arts and Letters, 1944. Residence: 92 Mt. Vernon St., Boston, Mass. Studio: 6 West 8th St., New York 11, N. Y.

WILLIAMS, Sir EVAN, Bt., British Industrialist; born July 2, 1871; son of Thomas and Mary (Harry) Williams; educated at Christ College, Brecon; Clare College, Cambridge, M.A., LL.D.; married Charlotte Mary Lackie, Sept. 1903. Pres.: South Wales and Monmouthshire Coalowners Assn., since 1918; Mining Assn. of Great Britain, 1919-44. Hon. Life Pres., British Employers Confederation, 1925-26. Vice-Pres., Federation of British Industries. Director: Lloyds Bank, Ltd., 1923—; Powell Duffryn Ltd., 1921—; Steel Co. of Wales, etc. Address: Glyndwr, Pontardulais, S. Wales.

WILLIAMS, Dr. E(VAN) CLIFFORD, British Scientist; born 1892, Hull, Eng.; son of Thomas R. and (Evans) Williams; educated at Christ's Hospital (London), 1905-11, and Manchester Univ., 1911-14 and 1916-17; married Lillian H. Baxter, 1918; three children. Research Chemist, British Dyestuffs Corp. (now I.C.I.), 1917-22, serving as Mgr. of the Intermediate Products Division. He was Head of Research for the Joint Research Committee of National Benzole Association and University of Leeds, 1922-23; Ramsay Professor of Chemical Engineering (First) Univ. of London, 1923-28. Vice-Pres. and Director of Research, Shell Development Co., 1928-40; Vice-Pres. and Dir. of Research, General Mills, Inc., 1941-42; Vice-Pres. and Dir. of Research General Aniline & Film Corp., 1942-45; Vice-Pres. in charge of Research and Development and Dir., Schenley Corp., 1945—. Dir., U. S. Industrial Chemicals, Inc. Member: American Chemical Society, American Institute of Chemical Engineers, The Institute of Physics, American Petroleum Institute, A.A.A.S., British Chemical Society, Institution of Chemical Engineers (London), The Institute of Physics of America, etc. He served as a Captain with the East Yorkshire Regiment (British), 1914-16. Residence: 280 Park Ave. Office: Schenley Corp., 350 Fifth Ave., New York, New York.

WILLIAMS, FRANCIS, British Journalist; born Mar. 10, 1903, St. Martins, Shropshire; son of John Edmund and Sarah (Francis) Williams; educated at Queen Elizabeth's Grammar School, Middleton, Lancashire; married Jessie Melville Hopkin, 1926; two children. Reporter, Bootle Times, 1921; Liverpool Daily Courier, 1922; Special Writer, London Daily Herald, 1924-25; Sunday Express, 1925-27. Financial Columnist, London Evening Standard, 1927-29. Financial Editor, Daily Herald, 1929-36; Editor in Chief, 1935-40. Controller of News and Censorship, Ministry of Information, 1940-45; Chief Press Adviser, British Delegaton to United Nations Conf., San Francisco, 1945; Chairman, Technical Advisory Com. on Information, United Nations Assembly, London, 1945; now Adviser on Public Relations, British Prime Minister. Director, Labour Book Service. Member: Fabian Soc.; Natl. Univ. of Journalists. Author: Plan for Peace, 1936; Raw Materials and the Prevention of War, 1938; War by Revolution, 1940; Democracy's Battle, 1941; Ten Angels Swearing—or Tomorrow's Policies, 1942; The Democratic Idea, 1942; No Man Is An Island, 1945; Press, Parliament and People, 1946. Address: 42 Gordon Sq., London, England.

WILLIAMS, FREDERICK BALLARD, American Artist; born Oct. 21, 1871, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of John Kline and Jane (Conover) Williams; educated at New York Inst. of Artist Artisans; National Acad. of Design (studied under Edgar Ward, Francis Jones, and C. Y. Turner); married Marion Gerry Duncan, Oct. 16, 1901; two sons. Exhibited at all important exhibitions in U. S. for many years; also at International Exhibitions in London, Paris, Venice, Rome, etc. Represented in many American public galleries and in numerous private collections. Member: Municipal Art Com., City of New York; Salmagundi Club (Ex-Pres.); Lotus Club; National Art Club. Treasurer, National Acad. of Design. Founder and Pres., Amer. Artists Professional League. Ex-Pres., Montclair Art Museum. Awarded Medals and Prizes, National Acad., Buffalo Pan American Exposition; Medal of Honor, Salmagundi Club, 1943. Address: 31 Highland Ave., Glen Ridge, N. J.

WILLIAMS, GEORGE WASHINGTON, American Lawyer; born Dec. 12, 1885, Fredericktown, Md.; son of George Washington and Caroline (Cohee) Williams; educated at Baltimore Law School (now Univ. of Maryland), LL.B. 1908; married Ewin Davis, May 3, 1927; one daughter. Engaged in general practice in Baltimore, 1908-21. Instructor in Constitutional law, Baltimore Law School, 1910-11. Police Judge, 1912; Assistant City Solicitor, 1918. Legal Adviser to Government of Virgin Islands, 1921-24; Municipal Judge, St. Thomas, 1921-24; United States District Judge of Virgin Islands, 1924-30. Trial Staff member, Federal Trade Commission, since 1938. Residences: 2150 Wyoming Ave., Washington, D. C.; 805 St. Paul St., Baltimore, Md. Office: c/o Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D. C.

WILLIAMS, Gen. Sir GUY CHARLES, K.C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., British Army Officer; born September 10, 1881, Bangalore, India; son of Col. R. F. and Laura E. Manners (Smith) Williams; educated at Sherborne School; Royal Military Academy; married Ruth E. Coode, Aug. 17, 1912; two children. 2nd Lieut., Royal Engineers, 1900. Director of Surveys, East Africa Protectorate, 1912-14; Controller of Mines, 1st Army, B.E.F., 1916-17; commanded 199th Infantry Brigade, B.E.F., 1918-19; Deputy Military Secretary at War Office, 1922-25; commanded Bareilly Brigade, 1925-28; Army Instructor, Imperial Defense College, 1930-33. Chief Engineer, Aldershot Command, 1933-34; Commandant, Staff College, Quetta, 1934-37. Commanded 5th Division, 1937-38, Eastern Command, 1938-41; Military Adviser to Government of New Zealand, 1941., Establishment Officer, B.B.C., 1942; Commandant, Middlesex Army Cadet Force, 1943. Address: 27 Queen's Grove, London, N.W. 8, England.

WILLIAMS, HAROLD HERBERT, British Author; born July 25, 1880, Tokio, Japan; son of Rev. James and Mary (Grinrod) Williams; educated at Christ's College, Cambridge, B.A. 1903, M.A. 1906; became a Barrister-at-Law of Inner Temple, London, 1920; married Jean Paterson Chalmers, Aug. 4, 1913. Delivered Univ. Extension Lectures for Univs. of Cambridge and London, 1908-14; lectured in the United States. Pres. of Bibliographical Soc., 1938-44; Pres., Johnson Club, 1943. Fellow, British Acad. Author: Two Centuries of the English Novel, 1911; Modern English Writers, 1918, 1925; Outlines of Modern English Literature, 1920. Edited Collected Works of Herbert Trench and Selected Poems of Herbert Trench, 1924; Bibliographical, bicentenary editions of Gulliver's Travels, 1926. Wrote: Book Clubs and Printing Societies, 1929; Dean Swift's Library, 1932; The Toast, 1932. Edited: Poems of Jonathan Swift, 1937; The Journal to Stella, 1947. During First World War, served with English Forces, rank of Acting Major, 1915-19. Address: Aspenden House, Buntingford, Hertfordshire, England.

WILLIAMS, Rear Admiral HENRY, American Naval Officer; born Aug. 12, 1877, Hagerstown, Md.; educated at Johns Hopkins Univ., two years; U. S. Naval Acad., Annapolis, 1894-98; married Anna Maud Steers; one son. Commissioned Ensign, 1900; progressed in grade to Rear Admiral, 1930. Joined USS Massachusetts, 1898; with Atlantic Fleet, Spanish-American War, West Indian area; at Santiago, Cuba, during blockade and bombardment of Spanish Fleet; assisted in landing of U. S. Expeditionary Forces, Cuba and Puerto Rico. Graduate of Ecole du Génie Maritime, Paris, France, 1901. Various Naval Assignments, 1900-17. Superintending Constructor, U. S. Navy, Fore River Shipbuilding Co., Quincy, Mass., World War I; at Bureau of Construction and Repair, Navy Dept., 1920-23; Manager, Navy Yard, Norfolk, Va., 1923-28; at Bureau of Construction and Repair, 1928-32; attended Army Industrial College, 1932-33; Manager, Navy Yard, Philadelphia, Pa., 1935-37; Asst. to Chief, Bureau of Construction and Repair, Navy Dept.; Head, Administrative Division, Bureau of Ships, 1940-41; transferred to line of Navy, 1940; Administrative Officer, Office of Secy. of Navy, Navy Dept.; transferred to Retired List of Navy, 1941; reported for duty in Office of Procurement and Material as Special Asst. to Vice Admiral Samuel M. Robinson, 1942, with duties as Navy Representative, Requirements Com., War Production Board; Special Asst. to Vice Admiral Emory S. Land, Chairman, U. S. Maritime Commn., 1945-46. Ex-Pres., Amer. Soc. of Naval Engineers; Vice-Pres., Soc. of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers. Pres., Soc. of Amer. Military Engineers, 1946. Awards: Commendation Ribbon; Spanish Campaign Medal; Sampson Medal with four bars; Victory Medal, Salvage Clasp; American Defense Service Medal; American Area Campaign Medal; World War II Victory Medal. Address: 1714 Q St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

WILLIAMS, Sir HERBERT GERAINT, British Economist, Politician; born Dec. 2, 1884, Hooton, Cheshire, England; son of Dr. Thomas and Mary Ann (Thomas) Williams; educated at University of Liverpool, B.Eng. 1906, B.Sc. 1907, M.Eng. 1908, M.Sc. 1909; married Dorothy Frances Jones, Jan. 29, 1916; two children. Electrical engineer, 1907. Secretary, Machine Tool Trades Assn., 1911-28; Parliamentary Secretary, Board of Trade, 1928-29. Director, Incorporated Assn. of Electric Power Companies, 1934-42; became Secretary, 1929, then Hon. Secretary of Empire Economic Union. Member of Parliament for Reading, 1924-29, and for Croydon, 1932-45. Created Knight Bachelor, 1939. Author: Politics and Economics, 1925; Through Tariffs to Prosperity, 1931; Post War Economic Policy, 1945. Served in Royal Engineers, 1902-07, and as Lieutenant, R.A.O.C., 1918-19. Residence: 80 Ashley Gardens. Office: 145 Abbey House, Victoria St., London, England.

WILLIAMS, Dr. HERMANN (WARNER), JR., American Art Gallery Director; born Nov. 2, 1908; son of Hermann Warner and Helen Chilton (French) Williams; educated at Harvard Univ.; Univ. of London; Courtauld Inst. of Art, 1933-35, Ph.D.; New York Univ.; Inst. of Fine Arts, 1935-41; married Alice Barrett Farley, Aug. 1942; one daughter. Assoc. Curator, Renaissance and Modern Art, Brooklyn Museum, 1936; Asst. Curator of Paintings, Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1937-46; Director, Corcoran Gallery of Art, Washington, D. C., since 1947. Member, Assn. of Art Museum Directors. Secy., Council of Museums of District of Columbia. Served in U. S. Army, 1942-46; Chief of Historical Properties Section, 1945-46; Major, C. E. Reserve. Published numerous articles in art publications and one book (with Bartlett Cowdrey), "William Sidney Mount." Address: Corcoran Gallery of Art, Washington 6, D. C.

WILLIAMS, Prof. HORACE JAMES, American Otolaryngologist; born at Chincoteague, Virginia, July 2, 1885; son of James F. and Georgie (Pepper) Williams; educated at Univ. of Delaware, 1908; Jefferson Medical School, M.D. 1912. Otolaryngologist: Germantown Dispensary and Hosp. since 1919; Lutheran Orphanage in Germantown, and to Philadelphia Hospital for Contagious Diseases since 1922, and to Memorial Hospital since 1923. Assoc. in Otolaryngology at Graduate School of Med. Univ. of Penna., since 1919, and Professor of Otology at Jefferson Medical College since 1937, serving also as Otologist to Jefferson Hospital since that date. Fellow: Amer. Laryngological Soc., Amer. Otological Soc., College of Physicians of Phila., Phila. Laryngological Society, American College of Surgeons, American Laryngological, Rhinological and Otological Society, and American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology. Member of Amer. Med. Assn., Penna. State Med. Soc., Phila. County Med. Soc., etc. In World War I served as First Lieut., M. C., U. S. Army. Address: 5908 Greene St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WILLIAMS, Dr. HOWEL, American Geologist; born Oct. 12, 1898, Liverpool, England; son of William and Laura (Davies) Williams; educated at Univ. of Liverpool, B.A. 1920, M.A. 1922, D.Sc. 1928; Royal School of Mines, London, D.I.C., 1924; Univ. of California, 1926-29; married Roberdeau Hoffmann, Aug. 1930. Demonstrator, Royal School of Mines, 1929-30; Assoc. Prof. of Geology, Univ. of California, 1930-37; Prof. of Geology since 1937 and Chairman of Dept. since 1945. Member: Seismological and Geological Socs. of America; Amer. Geophysical Inst., etc. Author: Methods in Geological Surveying; Crater Lake, the Story of Its Origin; also numerous papers on volcanology in the Pacific region. Address: University of California, Berkeley, Calif.

WILLIAMS, IOLO ANEURIN, British Journalist, Author; born June 18, 1890, Middlesbrough, Yorkshire; son of Aneurin and Helen Elizabeth (Pattinson) Williams; educated at Rugby School; King's College, Cambridge, B.A. 1914; married Francion Elinor Dixon, Sept. 4, 1920; three children. Free lance writer since 1914. Served with Army, 1914-20. Bibliographical Correspondent, London Mercury, 1920-39. Associated with The Times since 1936; now Member of Editorial staff. Trustee: Watts Gallery, Compton. Member of Council, Zoological Soc. of London, 1946—. Vice-Pres., Bibliographical Soc., 1944—. Author: Poems, 1915; New Poems, 1919; Byways Round Helicon, 1922; Shorter Poems of the 18th Century, 1923; Seven 18th Century Bibliographies, 1924; Elements of Book-collecting, 1927; Poetry Today, 1927; The Firm of Cadbury, 1931; Points in 18th Century Verse, 1934; English Folk Song and Dance, 1935; Flowers of Marsh and Stream, 1946, etc. Residence: West Hall, Kew Gardens, Surrey. Office: c/o The Times, Printing House Sq., London, E.C. 4, England.

WILLIAMS, IRA JEWELL, American Lawyer; born Nov. 20, 1873, Pennsville, Pa.; son of David and Magdalen (Herr) Williams; educated at Deland (now Stetson) Univ., Deland, Fla., 1885-87; Univ. of Pennsylvania Law School, LL.B. 1897; married Mary Harton Jones, Feb. 17, 1898; two children. Engaged in practice of law since admission to Bar. Member, firm of White & Williams. Director: Fidelity-Mutual Life Insurance Co.; Central-Penn National Bank; Proctor & Schwartz, Inc. Former Chairman, Com. on Constitutional Law and Com. on Judicial Authority of Pennsylvania Bar Assn. Member, Board of Directors, English-Speaking Union; Member of Advisory Board, Philadelphia Home for Incurables. Member: Pennsylvania Bar Assn.; Philadelphia Bar Assn.; Amer. Bar Assn.; Bar of City of New York. Residence: 444 W. Chestnut Hill Ave. Office: 1900 Land Title Bldg., Philadelphia 10, Pa.

WILLIAMS, IRMA, Argentine Pianist, Composer, Teacher; born Buenos Aires, Argentina; daughter of Alberto and Irma Paats de Williams; studied in "Conservatorio de Musica de Buenos Aires" under father. Began career at age of nine as a composer and pianist; dictated music to father, Alberto Williams, who wrote "Canción Primera"; continued composing by intuition while learning elements of composition. Composed works for piano, solo singer, violin, and many songs and piano pieces. Appointed Vice President of Conservatorio de Musica de Buenos Aires by father, 1941; conducts elementary, secondary and higher courses in piano in that institution. Member of "Asociacion Argentina de Compositores," since 1930. Compositions performed by various musical societies. Appeared in concerts on various occasions. Residence: Calle 11 de Septiembre No. 1500. Office: Avda. Las Heras No. 2100, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

WILLIAMS, JACK, American Editor and Publisher; born July 26, 1879, Castle Hayne, N. C.; son of Thomas Holmes and Ellen Elizabeth (Johnston) Williams; educated at Preparatory School Cape Fear Acad., Wilmington, N. C., graduated from Oak Ridge (N. C.) Inst.; married Ethel Woodard of Martin, Tenn., June 19, 1912; five children. Clerk for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, Wilmington, N. C., 1899. Editor, Publisher and Owner, Waycross Daily Journal-Herald and Waycross Weekly Journal, since 1915. Editor, Publisher and Owner of La Grange (Ga.) Daily and Weekly Reporter, 1924-27; Editor, Publisher and Owner of Blackshear Times, 1924-26, and Hogansville News, 1925-28. Pres., Radio Station WAYX, since 1939, and of South Georgia Radio Network since 1941. State Senator from the 5th Senatorial District, 1937-38; Member of the State Legislature, 1939-41, and State Senator from 5th Senatorial District, 1942-44; Member of the State Legislature, 1944-45. Board Member of the Progressive Life Ins. Co. Vice-Pres., Railroad YMCA, since 1933, and Member of the Board of Education since 1933. Received award of the Barnard Knight Cup for Community Service in 1923, and Miller Medal for Community Service in 1932. Pres. of Georgia State Press Assn., 1932-33; State Vice-Pres. of National Editorial Assn., 1931-33. Residence: Cherokee Dr., Waycross, Ga. Summer home: Saint Simons Island, Ga. Office: Journal-Herald Bldg., Waycross, Ga.

WILLIAMS, JOHN CASTREE, II, American Merchant; born May 31, 1903, New York City; son of Dr. Percy H. and Alice Gertrude (Castree) Williams; educated at Princeton, 1925; Harvard Business School; married Virginia Cooper, 1928; two daughters. Rug buyer, R. H. Macy & Co., 1927; Merchandise Councillor, 1930; Advertising Manager, 1933. Joined L. Bamberger & Co., as Merchandise Administrator and Executive Vice-Pres., 1938; Vice-Pres. and Secy., 1939; Acting Pres., 1943; Pres. since 1945. Director: Firemen's Ins. Co.; Fidelity-Union Trust Co. Vice-Pres., N. J. State Chamber of Commerce (Chmn., Finance Com); Chmn. Newark Chapter, Amer. Red Cross; Trustee, Essex County Legal Aid Assn.; Treas., Welfare Council; Member, Advisory Com., National Consumer-Retailer Council; Trustee, Hospital Service Plan of New Jersey; Vice-Pres., Salvation Army Assn. of Newark. Received Newark's Outstanding Citizen Award, 1946. Residence: 87 Library Pl., Princeton, N. J. Office: 131 Market St., Newark, N. J.

WILLIAMS, Dr. JOHN DAVIS, American University Chancellor; born Dec. 25, 1902, Newport, Ky.; son of Victor O. and Lucy (Davis) Williams; educated at Univ. of Kentucky, A.B. 1926, M.A. 1930; Teachers College, Columbia Univ., Ed.Dr. 1940; West Virginia Wesleyan College, LL.D.; married Ruth Link, June 14, 1924; one daughter. Teacher, California, Ky., 1923. Principal, Elementary School, Southgate, Ky., 1923-25. Supt.: Crab Orchard School, Crab Orchard, Ky., 1926, 1927; Falmouth (Ky.) Public Schools, 1928-29. Principal, Danville (Ky.) High School, 1929-34. Supt. of Education, TVA School, Norris, Tenn., 1934-35. Prof. of Education, Univ. of Kentucky, 1935-42. Pres., Marshall College, Huntington, W. Va., 1942-46. Chancellor, Univ. of Mississippi, since 1946. Address: University of Mississippi, University, Miss.

WILLIAMS, JOHN FRED, American Educator; born Sept. 7, 1904, Volga, Ky.; son of James Marion and Jennie (Vaughn) Williams; educated at Univ. of Louisville, A.B. 1931; Univ. of Chicago, 1934; Univ. of Cincinnati, 1938 and 1941; married Carrie Bennett Cecil, Mar. 29, 1929; two children. Principal of Oil Springs High School, Johnson County, 1934-35; County Supt., Johnson County Schools, 1935-43; Supt. of Public Instruction, State of Ky., since 1944. Member, Board of Trustees, Univ. of Kentucky. Chairman, Board of Regents of Morehead, Eastern, Western and Murray State Teachers Colleges; Member, Board of Directors, Kentucky State Teachers Retirement System; Secy., State Textbook Commn.; Chairman, State Board of Education. Residence: 110 Arnett Ave. Office: Capitol Bldg., Frankfort, Ky.

WILLIAMS, Dr. JOHN HENRY, American Economist; born June 21, 1887, Wales, United Kingdom; son of John Hamer and Margaret (Hamer) Williams; educated at Brown Univ., A.B. 1912, hon. Sc.D. 1935; Harvard University, A.M. 1916, Ph.D. 1919. Instructor in English, Brown Univ., 1912-15; Assistant Professor of Economics, Princeton Univ., 1919-20; Associate Professor of Banking, Northwestern Univ., 1920-21; Assistant Professor, Harvard University, 1921-25; Westinghouse Professor in Italy, 1925-26. Assistant Professor, Harvard Univ., 1925-29; Nathaniel Ropes Professor of Political Economy since 1933; Dean, Graduate School of Public Administration, Harvard Univ. since 1937. Economist, American Bankers Assn., 1922-23. U. S. delegate on Preparatory Commission of the World Monetary and Economic Conference, 1932-33. Economic Adviser, Federal Reserve Bank of N. Y., 1933-36, 1947 —; Dir., Council on Foreign Relations. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Amer. Statistical Assn., etc. Author: Argentine Internatl. Trade under Inconvertible Paper Money, 1920; Postwar Monetary Plans and Other Essays, 2nd ed., 1945. Vice-Pres., Federal Reserve Bank of N. Y., 1936-46. Fellow: Brown Univ.; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Residence: 148 Coolidge Hill. Office: Federal Reserve Bank of New York, 33 Liberty St., New York, N. Y.

WILLIAMS, Hon. JOHN J., United States Senator; born May 17, 1904, near Frankford, Del.; graduated Frankford High School; married Elsie E. Steele, May 4, 1924; one daughter. Entered grain business at 18. Elected to the U. S. Senate, Nov. 1946 for term ending Jan. 1953. Republican. Member, Masons (Shriner). Residence: Millsboro, Sussex County, Del. Office: Senate Office Building, Washington, District of Columbia.

WILLIAMS, KENNETH B., American Lawyer; born Oct. 18, 1902, Webster, Md.; son of Leonard S. and Susan S. (Stinchfield) Williams; educated at Suffolk Univ. Law School, LL.B. 1927, LL.M. 1938; married Helen E. Clark, Sept. 6, 1925; two daughters. Admitted to practice, 1927; Asst. in Research and Review Dept., Suffolk Law School (Boston), 1928-34; Prof. of Law, Suffolk Law School since 1930. Partner of Williams & Morley, since 1934. Pres., Charles Choate Memorial Hospital, 1941-46. Member, Executive Com., YMCAs of Mass. and R. I., since 1941; Member, Natl. Council of YMCAs since 1943; Pres., Warren Acad., since 1941. Author: Insurance Law in Massachusetts (1st ed. 1935; 2nd ed. 1939); Notes on Conflict of Laws, 1931, 1938; Notes on Carriers, 1930, 1938. Address: 89 State St., Boston, Mass.

WILLIAMS, LANGBOURNE MEADE, JR., American Corporation President; born Richmond, Va., Feb. 5, 1903; son of Langbourne Meade and Susanne Catherine (Nolting) Williams; educated at Univ. of Virginia A.B. 1924; Graduate School of Business Administration, Harvard, M.B.A. 1926; married Elizabeth Goodrich Stillman, Sept. 27, 1930. With Lee, Higginson & Co., New York, 1926-27; with banking firm of John L. Williams & Sons, Richmond, Va., 1927-30. Vice-Pres. and Treas., Freeport Sulphur Co., 1930-33; President, 1933 —. Pres. and Dir. of the Cuban-American Manganese Corp., Nicaro Nickel Co., Virginia Central Railway, and The Bottled Gas Corporation of Virginia. Trustee of the Bank of New York; Director, B. F. Goodrich Co., National Aviation Corp., Sulphur Export Corp., and United States Guarantee Co. Vice-Chairman of the Board of Governors and on the Executive Committee of the National Indus. Conf. Board. Trustee, Amer. Church Inst. for Negroes; Director of the Southern Churchman Co.; Member, Chemical Warfare Service Advisory Board; Member of Board of Governors of Society of New York Hospital, and Trustee of The Church Society for College Work. Residence: 71 E. 71st St. Office: 122 E. 42nd St., New York, N. Y.

WILLIAMS, LEWIS BLAIR, American Banker; born Oct. 16, 1880, Kent, Ohio; son of Scott Taylor and Harriet (Converse) Williams; educated at Western Reserve Acad.; Western Reserve Univ., A.B. 1902, H.H.D. 1941; married Helen E. Croxton, Oct. 8, 1908; one son. Engaged in investment banking business, 1903-33; later Chairman of Board and Federal Reserve Agent, Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland; now Chairman of Board, National City Bank of Cleveland. Director: National City Bank of Cleveland; General Electric Co.; International General Electric Co.; Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co.; Youngstown Steel Door Co.; Industrial Rayon Corp.; Anchor Hocking Glass Corp.; Cleveland Twist Drill Co.; National Life Insurance Co. of Vermont; Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. Vice-Pres., Chairman, Finance Com., Cleveland Museum of Art; Pres. and Trustee, Elisabeth Severance Prentiss Foundation; Trustee and Chairman, Finance Com., St. Luke's Hospital Assn.; Trustee and Member, Finance Com., University Hospitals; Vice-Pres. and Chairman, Investment Com., Musical Arts Assn.; Trustee and Chairman, Finance Com., Musical Arts Assn.; Trustee and Chairman, Finance Com., Lake Erie College. Trustee and Member: Finance Com., Western Reserve Univ.; Finance Com., Western Reserve Acad. Director, Northern Ohio Opera Assn.; Trustee and Member, Exec. Com., Cleveland Chapter, American Red Cross; Pres. of Board and Chairman, Finance Com., John Huntington Art & Polytechnic Trust; Trustee, John Huntington Benevolent Fund; Member, Board of Control, John Huntington Polytechnic Inst.; Trustee and Vice-Pres., Horace Kelly Art Fund. Trustee: Cleveland School of Art; Cleveland Museum of Natural History. Residence: 2491 Marlboro Road, Cleveland Heights, Ohio. Office: 615 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

WILLIAMS, LEWIS CATLETT, American Lawyer; born Aug. 26, 1875, Orange County, Va.; son of John G. and Catherine M. (Lewis) Williams; educated at Univ. of Virginia, B.A., M.A. 1897; studied law, 1897-98; married Maria W. Skelton Williams, Jan. 9, 1902; eight children. Engaged in practice of law, New York City 1899-1900; in practice in Virginia since 1902. Member of Williams, Mullen & Hazelgrove, Richmond. On Richmond City Council, 1904-06. Member, Board of Visitors, University of Virginia, by appointment of Governors, 1922-46. Trustee of Woodberry Forest School and Church Schools in Diocese of Virginia; Chairman, Local Board, St. Catherine's. Chairman, Alien Enemy Hearing Board for Eastern Dist. of Virginia, by appointment of Attorney-General Biddle, World War II. Director of Virginia Life and Casualty Co. Member of Richmond, Virginia (President 1938-39) and American Bar Assns. Hon. Member of West Virginia Bar Association. Interested in organization of Henrico County Government; took leading part in establishing county manager form of government and in carrying case through courts to establish constitutionality of law. Author of "The Gay Nineties" at University of Virginia; also articles on tobacco taxes and their effect on the South. Residence: 5315 Carey St. Rd. Office: 1001 E. Main St., Richmond 19, Virginia.

WILLIAMS, Dr. MERTON YARWOOD, Canadian Geologist; born June 21, 1883, Bloomfield, Ont., Canada; son of Edwin A. and Caroline Elizabeth (Bowerman) Williams; educated at Queens Univ., B.Sc. 1909; Yale Univ., Ph.D. 1912; married Lula Maud Philp, Dec. 23, 1915; three children. Asst., Yale Forestry School, 1910-12; Asst. to Geologist, Geological Survey of Canada, 1912-21; Assoc. and Prof. of Paleontology and Stratigraphy, Univ. of British Columbia, 1921-35; Head, Dept. of Geology and Geography, since 1936. Pres., IV Section, Royal Soc. of Canada (Fellow), 1942; 2nd Vice-Pres., Geological Soc. of America, 1946. Fellow: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Paleontological Soc. of America; Geological Soc. of America. Member, Professional Engineers of British Columbia. Author: Memoirs of Geological Survey 60, 111 and 163; also some 75 articles. Address: University of British Columbia, Vancouver, B. C., Canada.

WILLIAMS, NATHAN BOONE, American Lawyer; born Aug. 26, 1873, near Whitener, Ark.; son of Garrett and Belle Wilson; graduated from Hindsville Acad., 1892; studied law privately; married Lida Ware, Apr. 6, 1899; three children. Began practice of law, 1899. U. S. Commissioner, 1899-1908; Special Law Asst. to House of Representatives Com. on Expenditures, P. O. Dept., 1911; Counsel to Senate Com. Investigating Pneumatic Mail Tubes, 1912; Special Law Asst. to House Com. on Judiciary, 1913-15. Assoc. Counsel, Natl. Assn. of Mfrs., 1918-28; in private practice, since 1928. Member, Commn. on Uniform State Laws by appointment of Governor of Arkansas, 1912-16. Author: The American Post Office, 1910; Laws on Trusts and Monopolies; Administrative Agencies in Government, 1935; A Constitutional Catechism, 1936; The Dust Bin, A Study in American Government, 1938; We The People, 1944, etc. Address: 1010 Vermont Ave., Washington, D. C.

WILLIAMS, Dr. OWEN HERBERT, British Surgeon; born Jan. 2, 1884, Anglesey, N. Wales; son of Owen and Jane Williams; educated at Univ. of Edinburgh, M.B., Ch.B., 1906; F.R.C.S., Edinburgh, 1909; D.P.H., Oxford, 1911, and F.R.C.S., England, 1923; married Ethel Kenrick Thomas, 1916; two children. Surgeon since 1906. Prof. of Surgery, Univ. of Liverpool, since 1939. Senior Hon. Surgeon, Royal Southern Hospital, Liverpool; Hon. Surgeon, Liverpool Radium Inst.; Hon. Consulting Surgeon of Caernarvonshire and Anglesey Infirmary, Bangor, N. Wales. Member, Council of University of Liverpool and of Univ. College of N. Wales. Fellow. Assn. of Surgeons of Great Britain and Ireland: Ex-Pres., Liverpool Med. Institution. Author: Treatment of Compound Fracture of Femur occurring in the Trenches, 1918; First Aid Extension Brace for use with Thomas Splint, 1919; Prostatic Obstruction, 1928; Treatment of Perforated Peptic Ulcer (with C. H. Walsh), 1930; Electro-Coagulation of the Prostate, 1934. Major, and Surgical Specialist, 51st (Highland) Casualty Clearing Station, World War I, 1914-18. Residence: White Gables, N. Mosseley Hill Rd. Office: 84 Rodney St., Liverpool, England.

WILLIAMS, RANSOME JUDSON, American Ex-Governor; born January 4, 1892, Cope, S. C.; son of T. D. and Ida (Smoak) Williams; educated at Charleston Medical College, Ph.G. 1916; married Virginia Allen, Oct. 11, 1916; two daughters. Mayor of Mullins, S. C., eight years; Member, State House of Representatives, 1931-32. Elected Lieutenant Governor, South Carolina, 1942; elected Governor of South Carolina in 1944. Delegate to National Democratic Convention, Houston, Texas. Trustee of Coker College. District Manager, Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Co.; Trustee and Board President, University of South Carolina; State Chairman, South Carolina National War Fund. Sponsored legislation for higher education, higher teachers' salaries, longer sessions for students and further development of State educational institutions. Address: Columbia, S. C.

WILLIAMS, Air Marshal Sir RICHARD, Australian Civil Aviation Director; born Aug. 3, 1890, Moonta, South Australia; son of Richard and Emily (Hodge) Williams; educated in public school, Moonta, South Australia; married Constance E. Griffiths, Aug. 21, 1915. Lieut., Staff, Australian Army, 1912; Adjutant, 73rd Inf. Battalion, 1913-14; training and graduating as Pilot, Aug.-Nov. 1914; Adjutant, Training Depot, 1914-15; Flight Commander, No. 1 Squadron Australian Flying Corps—Palestine, until June 1917; Commanded Squadron to June 1918; Commanded 40th (Army) Wing, R.A.F., until Jan. 1919; Director, Air Services, Army Hqs., Australia, until 1921; transferred to Air Force (R.A.A.F.) on its formation, 1921; Director, Operations and Intelligence, 1921-25; Chief of Air Staff, 1925-38; grad. at Army and Air Force (Staff Colleges in United Kingdom, 1923-24; grad. at Imperial Defence College, London, 1934; Air Officer-in-Charge, Administration, Coastal Command, R.A.F., 1939-40; Air Member, Organization and Equipment, Air Board, R.A.A.F., 1940-41; Air Officer Commanding R.A.A.F. Overseas, London, 1941-42; Air Force Rept., Chiefs of Staff, Washington, D. C., 1942-46; retired from R.A.A.F., 1946; apptd. Director General of Civil Aviation in Australia. Awarded numerous decorations. Residence: "Myoora", Irving Road, Toorak. Office: c/o Department of Civil Aviation, Little Collins St., Melbourne, Australia.

WILLIAMS, ROBERT, American Newspaper Publisher; born Jan. 27, 1892, Paterson, N. J.; son of Robert and Alice W. (Ingham) Williams; educated at Newark Academy, 1905-11; Princeton University, 1911-15; New Jersey Law School, LL.B. 1919; married (2nd) Frances Roche, Jan. 1, 1938; four children. Newspaper special writer, 1923. Director, Paterson Morning Call, since 1915; Vice-President, 1918-21; Secretary - Treasurer, 1921-23; President and Publisher since 1923. Literary Editor since 1930. Trustee, Paterson Free Public Library, since 1925 (Vice-President, 1935-45); Chairman, Paterson Museum, since 1929; President, Passaic County Board of Taxation, 1925-35 and 1943-46. Delegate, Republican National Convention, 1928; Boxing Coach, Princeton University, 1934-38; Director, Paterson Y.M.C.A. Vice-President, New Jersey Assn., A.A.U., 1937; Vice-Chairman, Paterson Chapter, American Red Cross. During World War I served as Captain and Battalion Adjutant, 2nd New Jersey Field Artillery, through 1918. Author: In Fields Afar with Traveler; Rare Books From an Old Library; Pageant of Printing in Picture and Prose. Residence:

555 E. 27th St. Office: 33 Church St., Paterson, N. J.

WILLIAMS, ROBERT JOHN, Australian Editor; born Feb. 1, 1901, Devonport, Tasmania; son of William and Magdalene Williams; educated at Devonport High School and privately; married Mona Mapley Triffitt, July 15, 1925; two children. Reporter; Political roundsman, the Mercury, Hobart; Foreign Editor, Daily Mail, Brisbane; Sub-editorial, political and special writing, "Argus," Melbourne; Editor, Examiner, Launceston, since 1938. Chairman, Progressive Education Group; Vice-Pres., United Nations Assn. Branch. Address: The Examiner, Paterson St., Launceston, Tasmania, Australia.

WILLIAMS, ROBERT R., American Chemist; born Feb. 16, 1886, Nellore, India; son of Robert Runnels and Alice E. (Mills) Williams; educated at Ottawa Universtiy, 1903-05; University of Chicago, B.S. 1907, M.S. 1908; married Augusta C. Parrish, Mar. 27, 1912; four children. Chemist, Bureau of Science, Manila, P. I., 1909-15; Bureau of Chemistry, Washington, D.C., 1915-18; Chemical War Service and Air Service, 1918; Melco Chemical Co., 1919, and Western Electric Co., 1919-24. Chemical Director, Bell Telephone Laboratories, 1925-45, Chemical Consultant, Director of Grants, Research Corp. of America, 1945—Fellow, American Assn. for Advancement of Science. Director, American Bureau for Medical Aid to China; Member: American Philosophical Soc., Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Chemical Society, etc. Co-Founder, Williams-Waterman Fund for Combat of Dietary Diseases. Received Hon. D.Sc. from Ottawa University, 1935; Ohio Wesleyan University, 1938; Chicago University, 1941; Columbia, 1942, and Yale, 1942. Awarded: Willard Gibbs Medal, 1938; Elliott Cresson Medal, 1940; Modern Pioneer, National Assn. of Manufacturers, 1940; Eighth Annual Award, Assn. of Grocery Mfrs., 1941; John Scott Medal, 1942; Chandler Medal, 1942; Perkin Medal, 1947. Author: Vitamin B1 and Its Use in Medicine (with Tom D. Spies); also 80 scientific papers on chemistry, insulations, vitamins and nutrition. Residence: 297 Summit Ave., Summit, N. J. Office: 405 Lexington Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

WILLIAMS, ROBERT ROYCE, American Merchant; born May 1, 1882, Markesan, Wis.; son of David D. and Louisa (Moore) Williams; educated in public and high schools and later attended business college; married Edith Pickering, 1909 (died 1942); two sons; (2nd) Mrs. Maude Voris Campbell, 1943. Entered S. S. Kresge Co., 1908, and two years later was appointed buyer; elected to the Board of Directors, 1916, becoming Vice-Pres. in Charge of Merchandising in 1920, and President in 1938; retired as Pres., 1946; now Director and Chmn. of Executive Com. Director: S. S. Kresge Co., Ltd.; The National Bank of Detroit; Mt. Clemens Pottery Co. Secy., Florence Crittenden Hospital. Residence: 1261 Chicago Boulevard, Detroit, Mich.

WILLIAMS, Dr. ROBERT SEATON, American Metallurgist; born July 11, 1880, Hartford, Conn.; son of Robert Edwards and Helen (Seaton) Williams; educated at Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, S.B. 1902; Univ. of Goettingen, A.M., Ph.D. 1907; married Bertha Downes, Jan. 29, 1910; two sons. Asst. in Analytical Chemistry, Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1902; Instructor, Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof. and Prof. of Analytical Chemistry and of Physical Metallurgy until 1946: Head of Dept. of Metallurgy since 1937 and Deputy Dean of Engineering, 1942-46; Prof. of Metallurgy, Emeritus, and Dean of Army and Navy Students since 1946. Member: Amer. Acad. of Arts and Science; Soc. for Promotion of Engineering Education; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Metallurgical Soc. of America; Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers; Amer. Soc. for Metals, etc. Author: Examination of Iron, Steel and Brass (with W. T. Hall), 1924; Principles of Metallography (4th ed. 1939, with V. O. Homerberg). Adviser to Quartermaster General of the U. S. Army. Address: Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass.

WILLIAMS, Dr. ROGER JOHN, American Biochemist; born Aug. 14, 1893, Ootacumund, India; son of Robert Runnels and Alice Evelyn (Mills) Williams; educated at Univ. of Redlands, B.S. 1914, Hon. D.Sc. 1934; Univ. of Chicago, M.S. 1918, Ph.D. 1919; Columbia Univ., Hon. D.Sc. 1942; married Hazel Elizabeth Wood, Aug. 1, 1916; three children. Research Chemist, Fleischmann Co., 1919-20; Asst. Prof. of Chemistry, Univ. of Oregon, 1920-21; Assoc. Prof., 1921-27; Prof., 1928-31; Prof. of Chemistry, Oregon State College, 1932-39. Prof. of Chemistry, Univ. of Texas, since 1939; Director of Biochemical Inst. since 1941. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Soc. of Biological Chemists; Biochemical Soc. of London; Amer. Assn. for Cancer Research; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Natl. Acad. of Sciences, etc. Received Mead Johnson Award of Amer. Inst. of Nutrition, 1941; Chandler Medal of Columbia Univ., 1942. Author: An Introduction to Organic Chemistry, 1927, 1931, 1935, 1941; A Laboratory Manual of Organic Chemistry (with R. Q. Brewster), 1926, 1934, 1939; An Introduction to Biochemistry, 1931; Textbook of Biochemistry, 1938, 1943; What to Do About Vitamins, 1945; The Human Frontier, 1946. Made many research contributions concerned with use of micro-organisms in discovery of new vitamins (pantothenic acid, folic acid) and in microbiological determination of B vitamins. Residence: 303 Moore Blvd. Address: University of Texas, Austin 12, Texas.

WILLIAMS, ROWLAND L., American Railway Company President; born September 19, 1888, Salem, Illinois; son of John Parry and Laura (Ruton) Williams; received grade and high school education; married Ruth Bogan, May 25, 1912; one son. Entered railroad service in 1903 as messenger boy with B. & O. Southwestern (now B. & O. R.R. Co.), serving until 1905; became freight and yard clerk, and telegrapher with the railroad, 1905-07, and operator of C. & E. I., 1907. From 1907 to 1918 he was associated with C. & E. I. as transportation timekeeper, chief accountant, Illinois Division; assistant chief clerk and chief clerk to division superintendent, and chief clerk to division engineer. He was Chief Statistician and Special Representative of President of the C. & E. I., 1918-32, serving as Assistant to President, 1932-35; Senior Executive Assistant, 1935-36; Executive Vice-President, 1936-39. Became Chief Executive Officer of Chicago and North Western Railway, and President of Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Railway, 1939. President, C. & N. W. Ry. System since 1944; also Member of Finance Committee and Director, C. & N. W. Ry. and C. St. P. M. and O. Ry. Director: Indiana Harbor Belt Railway; Peoria & Pekin Union Railway Co.; Continental Illinois Bank & Trust Co. Residence: 593 Arbor Vitae Rd., Winnetka, Ill. Office: 400 West Madison St., Chicago 6, Illinois.

WILLIAMS, ROWLAND THOMAS DRYLL, Australian Chemist; born Jan. 28, 1885, Williamstown, Victoria, Aust.; son of William Dryll and Ann Mortimer (Davies) Williams; educated at Port Pirie School of Mines, South Australia (in conjunction with South Australian School Mines & Adelaide Univ.), 1902-06; married Ida Wentworth Barnett, Feb. 20, 1912; two children. Junior in Assay Office of Broken Hill Pty. Coy., Port Pirie, South Australia, 1903; Chief Chemist at Paramatta & Yelta M Mining & Smelting Coy., Moonta, So. Australia, 1906; Research Chemist, Amalgamated Zinc Co., Broken Hill, N.S.W. (Development of Mineral Flotation), 1907-17; Supt., Research Electrolytic Zinc Coy., Hobart, Tasmania, Aust., since 1917. Foundation Assoc. Member, Aust. Chem. Inst., 1919, elected Fellow 1944. General Pres., Australian Chemical Inst., 1944-45 (Pres., Tasmania Branch, 1944-46). Member, Faculty of Science, Tasmania Univ., 1939-46. Organiser of Voluntary Training Scheme for Air Force Reservists in Tasmania, May 1940, before official Commonwealth Govt. scheme was inaugurated; Vice-Chairman, Tasmanian Govt. Hobart Technical College, since 1941; Member of Engineering Board of Management (Tasmanian Univ. and Hobart Tech. College), since 1925. Author of numerous scientific papers. Residence: 4 Tower Rd., New Town, Hobart, Tasmania, Australia.

WILLIAMS, SAMUEL CLAY, American Lawyer, Industrialist; born Sept. 24, 1884, Mooresville, N. C.; son of Thomas Jefferson and Willie Ada (McCulloch) Williams; educated at Davidson (N. C.) College, A.B. 1905; Univ. of Virginia, LL.B. 1908; hon. LL.D. Davidson College, 1941; married LuTelle Sherrill, Nov. 23, 1910; two children. Admitted to North Carolina Bar, 1908; began practice, Greensboro, N. C. Member of law firms Sapp & Williams, 1910-14, and of Brooks, Sapp & Williams until 1917, when he moved to Winston-Salem, N. C. With R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. since 1917, starting as Asst. General Counsel; Gen. Counsel, 1921-25; Vice-Pres. and Gen. Counsel, 1925-31; Pres., 1931-34; Vice-Chmn., Board of Dirs., 1934-35; Chmn. of the Board, 1935—. Chmn. for Industry of National Labor Board, 1933-34; Chairman of National Industrial Recovery Board from Sept. 1934-Mar. 1935; Natl. Indus. Conf. Bd., 1943-45. Director of Security Life & Trust Co., American Telephone and Telegraph Co., and U. S. Chamber of Commerce, 1937-39; Director and Vice-President of National Association of Manufacturers, 1936-38. Since 1933 he has been active on Business Advisory Council of the Department of Commerce (Chairman 1934). He serves as Trustee of Davidson College; Trustee and Executive Committee Member of Infantile Paralysis Foundation as set up by President in 1936; Member of American and North Carolina State Bar Associations, etc. Residence: Robert E. Lee Hotel and Willsherr Lodge, Winston-Salem. Office: Winston-Salem, N. C.

WILLIAMS, TENNESSEE (Thomas Lanier), American Playwright; born March 26, 1914, Columbus, Miss.; son of Cornelius C. and Edwin (Dakin) Williams; educated at Univ. of Missouri; Univ. of Iowa, B.A. 1938. Screen writer for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, 1943. Author: Battle of Angels, 1941; The Glass Menagerie (received New York Drama Critics Award for best play of year), 1945; A Streetcar Named Desire (New York Drama Critics Circle Award for best play of year; also Pulitzer Prize), 1948. Member: Dramatists Guild; Screen Writers Guild. Received Rockefeller Grant and grant from Amer. Academy and National Inst. of Arts and Letters. Address: 53 Arundel Place, Clayton, Mo.

WILLIAMS, Rt. Hon. THOMAS, P.C., British Political Leader; born March 18, 1888, Blackwell, Derbyshire; son of James and Mary Ann (Parton) Williams; educated in public schools; married E. S. Andrews, Sept. 7, 1910; two children. Began career in 1899 as a coal miner. Member of Parliament since 1922. Parliamentary Private Secretary to Minister of Agriculture, 1924; to Minister of Labour, 1929-31. Parliamentary Secretary to Ministry of Agriculture, 1940-45. Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, 1945—. Residence: "Cartref", 46 Town Moor Ave., Doncaster. Office: 55 Whitehall, London S.W.1, England.

WILLIAMS, Hon. WAYNE CULLEN, American Author, Attorney; born Sept. 20, 1878, near Indianola, Ill.; son of Daniel J. and Katherine (Stockton) Williams; educated at Univ. of Denver, LL.B. 1906; married Lena B. Day, Dec. 1, 1909 (dec. 1932); four sons. Began practice of law in Denver, 1906; elected County Judge of Denver, 1912; Member, Colorado State Industrial Comm., 1915-17. Asst. District Attorney-General of Denver, 1913-15; Attorney-General of Colorado, 1923-25. Special Asst. to Attorney General of U. S., 1933. Author: Bryan, a Study in Vindication, 1923; Life of Wm. Jennings Bryan, 1936; American Tomorrow, 1939; Life of Governor Wm. E. Sweet, 1943; also numerous articles in law journals. Address: 2383 Albion St., Denver, Colo.

WILLIAMS, WHEELER, American Architect, Sculptor; born in Chicago, Ill.; son of Lawrence and Adele Holbrook (Wheeler) Williams; educated at Yale Univ., Ph.B. 1918; Harvard Univ., M.Arch. 1922; Beaux Arts, Paris, 1923; married Margaret McManus, May 29, 1933; two daughters. Architect and Sculptor, 1920. Most important works include: Rhythm of the Waves Fountain, Grosse Point, Mich.; Pediment, Interstate Commerce Bldg., Washington; Fountain, Regents Park, London; Steeds of Imagination, Reader's Digest Tower, Chapaqua, N. Y.; Settlers of the Seaboard, Fairmount Park, Philadelphia; Fountain of Youth, the Norton Gallery of Art, West Palm Beach, Fla.; American Eagle Lectern for Army Camps; Stephen Potter Memorial Medal, Phillips Exeter Academy; Chester Plimpton Memorial Medal, Yale University; Tablets to the French Explorers, Michigan Avenue Bridge, Chicago, Past Vice-President, National Sculpture Society (Member of Council). Member: Architectural League of New York (Vice-President, 1938-40); Beaux Arts Institute of Design; National Academy of Design. President, Fine Arts Federation of New York. Address: 15 W. 67th St., New York, New York.

WILLIAMS, Dr. WILLIAM CARLOS, American Physician, Poet; born 1883. Author: The Tempers, 1913; A Book of Poems, Al Que Quiere! 1917; Kora in Hell (improvisations), 1920; Sour Grapes (a book of poems), 1921; Spring and All, 1923; The Great American Novel, 1923; In the American Grain, 1925; A Voyage to Pagany, 1928; The Knife of the Times and Other Stories, 1932; A Novelette and Other Prose (1921-1931), 1932; An Early Martyr and Other Poems, 1935; Adam and Eve and the City, 1936; White Mule, 1937; The Complete Collected Poems of William Carlos Williams, 1906-1938, 1938; Life Along the Passaic River, 1938; In the Money (White Mule, Part II), 1940; The Broken Span, 1941; The Wedge, 1944; Consultant on Poetry in English, Library of Congress. Received Dial award of $2,000 for services to American Literature, 1926; Guarantor's Prize (awarded by Poetry), 1931; Russell Loines Memorial Award ($1,000), National Inst. of Arts and Letters, 1948. Address: Rutherford, N. J.

WILLIAMS, WILLIAM EMRYS, C.B.E., British Author; associated with Penguin Books since 1935; now Editor-in-Chief. Director, Army Bureau of Current Affairs, London, 1941-46. Author: Learn and Live; Radio's Listening Groups; The Craft of Literature, etc. Radio Critic of "The Observer"; contributor to various publications, including The Times, The New Statesman, The Listener, The Journal of Education. Director, Bureau of Current Affairs. Member, Arts Council of Great Britain and of the British Council. Address: 117 Piccadilly, London, England.

WILLIAMS, Dr. WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON, Canadian Mathematician; born Oct. 3, 1888, Friendship, Kansas; son of Nathan and Amanda D. (Truex) Williams; educated at Haverford College, B.A. 1910; Oxford Univ., B.A. 1913, M.A. 1916; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. magna cum laude 1920; Univ. of Montreal, Hon. docteur ès sciences, 1945; married Anne Christine Sykes, June 13, 1916; two children. Taught at: Miami Univ., Oxford, Ohio, 1913-18; Pennsylvania College, 1918-19; College of William and Mary, 1919-20; Cornell Univ., 1920-24. Staff Member, McGill Univ., Montreal, since 1924; now Prof. of Mathematics. Visiting Prof., Univ. of Chicago, summer 1926; Univ. of Pennsylvania, summer 1930; Connecticut College, summer 1944. Rhodes Scholar, Merton College, Oxford, 1910-13; engaged in research, Heckscher Foundation, Cornell Univ., 1922-23. Chairman, Finance Com., and Treas., Canadian Mathematical Congress; Joint Chairman, Save the Children Fund, Quebec. Member, Amer. Mathematical Soc. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Canada. Author of mathematical papers in Transactions of American Mathematical Society, Annals of Mathematics, Transactions of Royal Society of Canada, Philosophical Transactions (Cambridge), Mathematical Gazette (London), Proceedings of International Mathematical Congress, Toronto, etc. Address: Engineering Bldg., McGill University, Montreal, Canada.

WILLIAMS-ELLIS, AMABEL, British Author; born 1894, Guildford, Surrey, England; married Clough Williams-Ellis Friba, 1915; two children. Began career as Literary Editor of "Spectator". Member: P.E.N. Club; Authors Soc. Author: An Exquisite Tragedy; Noah's Ark; Voyage of the Beagle in South America; A History of English Life; Fairies and Enchanters; In and Out of Doors; How You Began; The Wall of Glass; The Big Firm; To Tell the Truth; Learn to Love First; Men Who Found Out; Courageous Lives; An Anatomy of Poetry; The Pleasures of Architecture (with Clough Williams-Ellis); Volcano (short stories), etc. Address: Plas Brondanw, Penrhyndeudraeth, N. Wales, Great Britain.

WILLIAMS-ELLIS, CLOUGH, British Architect; born May 28, 1883, Northants; son of J. C. and Ellen Mabel (Greaves) Williams-Ellis; educated at Trinity College, Cambridge; married Amabel Strachey; three children. Architect and Planning Consultant, since 1906. Fellow, Royal Inst. of British Architects. Member, Town Planning Inst. Fellow, Inst. of Landscape Architects (Vice-Pres.); Member: Design and Industry Assn. (Ex-Pres.); Town Planning Inst.; Council for the Preservation of Rural Wales (Chairman); Welsh Advisory Council on Reconstruction; Govt. Com. on Natl. Parks. Author: The Pleasures of Architecture; The Tank Corps; Cottage Building; England and The Octopus; The Architect; Britain and The Beast; Sir Laurence Weaver; Architecture Here and Now; The Adventure of Building. Address: Plas Brondanw, Penrhyndeudraeth, North Wales.

WILLIAMS-TAYLOR, Sir FREDERICK, Canadian Banker; born Oct. 23, 1863, Monckton, N.B., Canada; son of Ezekiel Moore and Rosalind (Beatty) Taylor; educated privately; hon. LL.D., Univ. of New Brunswick; married Jane Fayrer Henshaw, June 2, 1888; one daughter. Junior Clerk, Bank of Montreal, 1878; Asst. Inspector, Montreal, 1894; Joint Manager, Chicago, 1903; Manager, London, 1905; General Manager, 1913-29; Director since 1928. Director: Dominion Textile Co. (Montreal); London & General Investors, Ltd. Chairman, London Advisory Com., Royal Trust Co. Decorations: Officer of Legion of Honor; Commander of Order of St. Olaf (Norway); Order of St. Sava (Serbia). Hon. Pres., Canadian Bankers Assn. Address: Ritz-Carlton Hotel, Montreal, P. Q., Canada.

WILLIAMSON, ALAN HOLMES, Canadian Financier; born April 28, 1895, Toronto; son of John and Louise (Holmes) Williamson; educated at Collegiate Inst., Toronto; Univ. of Toronto Schools; Univ. of Toronto; married Agnes Kersley Scott, May 4, 1918; one daughter. Associated with investment banking firm of Wood, Gundy & Company Ltd. since 1914; Dir., Western branches, resident in Vancouver. Vice-Pres. of Wood, Gundy & Co. Ltd., Toronto. Director: British Columbia Packers, Ltd.; Federal Grant, Ltd.; Western Grain Co., Ltd.; Powell River Co., Ltd.; Sidney Roofing & Paper Co., Ltd. Member, Advisory Com., Yorkshire & Pacific Securities, Ltd. Vice-Pres., The Investment Dealers' Assn. of Canada, 1927-30; Pres., 1931-32; Vice-Pres., 1947. Appointed Controller of Supplies and Vice-Chmn., Wartime Industries Control Board of the Dept. of Munitions and Supply of the Canadian Govt., Aug. 1941. Residence: 3989 Pine Crescent, Vancouver, B. C., Canada.

WILLIAMSON, Dr. EDMUND G., American Psychologist; born Aug. 14, 1900, Rossville, Ill.; son of Oliver G. and Annabelle (Fred) Williamson; educated at Univ. of Illinois, A.B. 1925; Univ. of Minnesota, Ph.D. 1931; married Lorraine Elizabeth Fitch, 1928; three children. Asst. in Psychology, Univ. of Minnesota, 1926-30; Asst. Prof., 1930-38; Assoc. Prof., 1938; Director, Univ. Testing Bureau, 1932-38; Coordinator of Student Personnel Services, 1938-41; Dean of Students and Prof. of Psychology, since 1941. Chairman, Advisory Com., U. S. Armed Forces Inst., 1942-46; Member, Editorial Board, Journal of Educational and Psychological Measurement, 1944-45. Member: Amer. Psychological Assn.; Amer. College Personnel Assn. (Pres. 1941-45); Amer. Assn. for Applied Psychology; Amer. Council on Education (Chairman). Awards: Citation from Army and Navy Depts., personally signed by Secretaries of War and Navy, for patriotic services, 1946; letter of commendation, Gen. Vandergrift, U. S. Marine Corps. Author: Students and Occupations, 1937; Student Personnel Work (with J. G. Darley), 1937; Student Guidance Technique (with D. G. Paterson and G. G. Schneidler), 1938; How to Counsel Students, 1939; Introduction to High School Counseling (with M. E. Hahn), 1940, etc. Address: 213 Administration Bldg., University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

WILLIAMSON, Rev. Dr. EDWARD WILLIAM, British Bishop; born April 22, 1892, Wallasey, Cheshire, England; son of Edward Williamson and Florence (Tipton) Williamson; educated at Westminster School; Christ Church College, Oxford, B.A. 1914, M.A. 1917; Wells Theological College. Curate in Potternewton, Leeds, and Lambeth, London, 1915-22. Fellow, St. Augustine's College of Canterbury, 1922-26; Warden, St. Michael's Theological College, Llandaff, 1926-39; Canon, Llandaff Cathedral, 1930-39; Bishop of Swansea and Brecon since 1939. Received D.D. from Archbishop of Canterbury, 1939. Author: The Letters of Osbert of Clare, Prior of Westminster (1929); The Story of Llandaff Cathedral (3 eds.). Residence: Ely Tower, Brecon, South Wales, Wales.

WILLIAMSON, GEOFFREY, British Editor and Author; born Oct. 7, 1897, Hornsey, London, England; son of William and Betsy Ann (Hebron) Williamson; educated at Merchant Taylors School; married Margaret Lloyd Roberts, Mar. 12, 1926; one son. Publicity Man with Film Agency, 1914. Asst. Editor, Passing Show; Fiction Reader for "20 Story Magazine," 1924. Special Writer for "John Bull," 1926; Editor, "Passing Show", 1927. Special Writer and News Editor, "John Bull," 1928; Asst. Editor, 1936. Editor, "John Bull," 1937-45. Now Special Writer, Odhams Periodicals. Member, Natl. Union of Journalists. Author: The Lovable Out-Law, 1930; Grand Trunk Knight, 1933; and some 200 short stories. Served in India and Iraq, 1916-20. Residence: Croxley, Sandy Lodge Rd., Moor Park, Herts. Office: 93, Long Acre, London, England.

WILLIAMSON, GEORGE EMERY, American Manufacturer; born Sept. 11, 1878, Worcester, Mass.; son of Frank Emery and Ida May (Moore) Williamson; educated at Worcester Polytechnic Inst., B.S. 1900; married (1st) Alice May Lytle, June 9, 1903 (deceased); (2nd) Florence Sargeant Clark, Sept. 7, 1938; three children. With Amer. Writing Paper Co., Holyoke, Mass., 1901; Chemist, Production Foreman, Head of Mechnical Dept. and Engineer of Works, Union Metallic Cartridge Co., 1902-11. Chief Engineer, Strathmore Paper Co., W. Springfield, Mass., 1911-26; Asst. to President, 1926-28; Director, since 1926; Treasurer, 1928-42; Vice-Pres. and Treasurer, 1942-46; Pres., since 1946. Director: Rising Paper Co., since 1928; Premoid Products, Inc., since 1928 (Treasurer, 1928-45; Pres., since 1945). Pres. and Director, Agawam Chemicals, Inc., since 1945. Director, Old Colony Envelope Co., 1947. Member: Joint Com. on Vocational Education, Pulp & Paper Industry of U. S. and Canada, since 1918 (Chairman, since 1942); Exec. Com., Associated Industries of Mass., since 1939; Board of Directors, National Assn. of Manufacturers, 1943-45. Pres., Springfield Y.M.C.A., 1935-45 (Dir., since 1928); Pres., Worcester Polytechnic Inst. Alumni Assn., 1923-25 (Trustee, 1926-36); Trustee, Springfield College, since 1943. Consulting Engineer, Ordnance Dept., U. S. Army, 1918. Residence: 22 Maplewood Terrace. Office: Front St., W. Springfield, Mass.

WILLIAMSON, GEORGE EVANS, South African Industrialist; born Jan. 14, 1887, Malvern, England; son of George Henry and Elizabeth Ann (Clark) Williamson; educated at Trinity College, Cambridge, M.A., LL.B. 1908; married (1st) Lina Katherine Goddard, 1915; (2nd) Rita Sanders, 1934; two children. Barrister-at-Law, 1909; succeeded father as Managing Director, G. H. Williamson & Sons Ltd., 1918; Chairman, Berrows Worcester Journal Co., 1918-34; Director, Metal Box Co. Ltd., England, 1930-38; went to South Africa, 1934, as Chairman and Managing Director, Maythams Ltd. and Metal Box Co. of South Africa Ltd. War Time Activities: Secy., South African Food Canners Council; Official Adviser to Controller of Food on the Canning Industry; Member, Canning Board. Chairman, Standard Canners & Packers Ltd., Cape Town, since 1945. Director: Pan African Mineral (Pty.) Ltd.; Table Mountain Canning Co. Ltd.; African Organic Fertilizers & Associated Industries Ltd. Member, Exec. Council, Cape Technical College, since 1936 (Chairman, Finance Com., 1938-39, 1946; Vice-Chairman of Council), 1940. Pres., South African Federated Chamber of Industries, since 1945; Life Vice-Pres., Cape Chamber of Industries (Pres., 1938-40). Pres., South African Food Canners Council, 1938. Captain, East Surrey Regiment, British Army, 1914-17. Residence: Oakhurst, Stellenberg Ave., Kenilworth, Cape Town. Office: 30 Riebeek St., Cape Town, Union of South Africa.

WILLIAMSON, HENRY, British Writer; born 1897. Author: The Lone Swallows ad Other Essays of the Country Green, 1926; The Old Stag (stories), 1927; The Pathway, 1929; The Wet Flanders Plain, 1929; The Beautiful Years, 1929; Dandelion Days, 1930; The Dream of Fair Women, 1931; The Labouring Life, 1932; The Star-Born, 1933; One Foot in Devon (or Guidance and Gossip), 1933; The Linhay on the Downs, and Other Adventures in the Old and New World, 1934; Salar the Salmon, 1935; Devon Holiday, 1935; Tarka the Otter (his joyful water-life and death in the country of Two Rivers), 1936; Goodbye, West Country, 1938; The Children of Shallowford, 1939; Genius of Friendship: T. E. Lawrence, 1941; The Story of a Norfolk Farm, 1941; The Sun in the Sands, 1945; Tales of a Devon Village, 1945, etc. Address: c/o Faber & Faber, Ltd., 24 Russell Square, London, W.C. 1, England.

WILLIAMSON, JOHN FINLEY, American Musician; born June 23, 1887, Canton, Ohio; son of William and Mary (Finley) Williamson; educated at Otterbein Conservatory of Music, Westerville, Ohio, 1911, under Herbert Wilbert Greene, David Bisham and Herbert Witherspoon; Wooster Univ., Hon. Mus.D. 1928; Otterbein College, Westerville, LL.D. 1935; married Rhea Parlette, June 20, 1912; three children. Director and Founder, Westminster Choir (40 voices), 1921; Pres. and Founder, Westminster Choir College, Princeton, N. J., since 1926. Member: Natl. Assn. of Organists; Amer. Hymn Soc. (Hon.). Editor, Westminster Series. Address: E. Nassau St., Princeton, N. J.

WILLIAMSON, WILLIAM, American Attorney; born Oct. 7, 1875, Mahaska Co., Ia.; son of William and Mary (Erland) Williamson; educated at Univ. of South Dakota, B.A. 1903, LL.B. 1905; married Clara Victoria Dice, 1910; three adopted daughters. Appointed State's Attorney for Lyman County, South Dakota, 1905. Convicted "Buffalo" (William) George, most noted cattle and horse thief produced in South Dakota; again elected State's Attorney, 1910; resigned in 1911 to become Circuit Judge, 11th District, S. D., serving until 1921. Delegate to the Republican National Convention in 1912 and supported Theodore Roosevelt for the nomination. Elected to Congress, 3rd South Dakota District, 1920, continuing until 1933. In private practice in Rapid City, S. D., 1933-39; Assistant Attorney General, South Dakota, assigned as General Counsel for the Public Utilities Commission since 1939; also engaged in private practice at Rapid City. Admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the U. S. President, Lyman County Abstract Co. since 1908; Director, Dusek Investment Company, Rapid City; Rushmore Mutual Life Insurance Co., Rapid City; also General Counsel for both companies. Member, Mount Rushmore National Memorial Commission (since created by Congress). President State Historical Society. Member, Pennington County Bar and South Dakota State Bar Assns. Author of numerous newspaper editorials and newspaper and magazine articles. Residence: 409 N. Grand Ave. Office: The Capitol, Pierre, South Dakota.

WILLIER, Dr. BENJAMIN HARRISON, American Biologist; born Nov. 2, 1890, Weston, Ohio; son of David and Mary Alice (Richard) Willier; educated at College of Wooster, B.S. 1915; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1920; D.Sc., College of Wooster, 1941; married Helen Beatrice Shipman, Sept. 11, 1919; two children. Instructor, Biology, College of Wooster, 1915-16; Associate in Zoology, University of Chicago, 1919-20; Instructor, 1920-24; Asst. Professor, 1924-27; Associate Professor, 1927-31, Professor, 1931-33. Professor of Zoology, Head of Dept. and Chairman of Div. of Biological Sciences at University of Rochester, 1933-40; Henry Walters Professor of Zoology and Director, Biology Laboratories, Johns Hopkins University, since 1940. Trustee of Marine Biological Laboratory since 1933; Member of Board of Directors of Long Island Biological Assn. since 1942. Member, Natl. Academy of Sciences. Editor, Quarterly Review of Biology, since 1941. Member, Editorial Board of Physiological Zoology and of Growth. Co-author of Sex and Internal Secretions, 1932 (revised ed. 1939); contributed numerous articles to various scientific journals. Address: The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore 18, Md.

WILLINK, Rt. Hon. HENRY URMSTON, British Lawyer, Ex-Minister; born Mar. 7, 1894; son of William Edward and Florence Macan (Urmston) Willink; educated at Eton College (King's Scholar, Newcastle Scholar); Trinity College, Cambridge (Entrance and Senior Scholar); married Cynthia Frances Fletcher, 1923; four children. Called to the Bar (Inner Temple) 1920, K.C. 1935. Special Commnr., London Region, 1940-43; Chancellor of Diocese of Rochester, 1942-43. Minister of Health, 1943-45. Member of House of Commons for Croydon N. During First World War served in R.F.A., 1914-19, with rank of Acting Major (Mil. Navy Cross, mentioned in dispatches and French Croix de Guerre with Palm). Residence: 102 Hamilton Terrace, London, N.W. 8, England.

WILLINSKY, Dr. BERNARD, Canadian Surgeon; born Nov. 29, 1900, Toronto, Ont., Canada; son of Meyer Lionel and Sarah Rebecca (Vise) Willinsky; educated at Royal College of Dental Surgeons, Toronto, 1918-22; Univ. of Toronto, L.D.S., D.D.S., M.D. 1928; University College Hospital, Medical School, London, England, F.R.C.S. Eng. 1928-31; married Mona Olga Woods, May 1937; two sons. Senior Attending Surgeon, Mt. Sinai Hosp. since 1931; Surgeon in Chief since 1945. Member, Board of Directors. Member: Mt. Sinai Hosp. Clinical Soc.; Toronto Acad. of Medicine; Ontario and Canadian Medical Assns.; Royal College of Surgeons of England (Fellow); Royal College of Surgeons of Canada (Fellow), etc. Awards: Univ. of Toronto Gold Medal; Ellen Mickle Fellowship; J. J. McKenzie Prize in Pathology; Chapelle Prize in Surgery. Author: Changes in Blood Platelets following operations and injury, 1929. Address: 569 Spadina Ave., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

WILLIS, ALBERT CHARLES, Australian Politician; born May 24, 1876, Toneyrefail, Wales; son of James and Louisa (Morse) Willis; educated at Board School, Bryhmaur; Out-Student at Ruskin College, Oxford; attended King's College, London; married Alice Maud Parker, 1900; three children. Coal miner, 1887; served in official capacities, 1903-11, including President of Western District of Monmouthshire, Wales, Miners' Union; Member, Abertillery District Council and Monmouthshire County Council; arrived in Sydney, Australia, 1912; commenced in Balmain Colliery, 1912; elected President, Southern Colliery Employees' Assn., 1913 and 1st General Secretary, Australasian Coal and Shale Employees' Federation, 1916-25; entered Parliament, 1926. Trustee, Central Labor College, London, 1910; Founder and Managing Director, Labor Daily Newspaper in Sydney, 1923-33; Leader, Legislative Council in N.S.W. and Vice-President, Executive Council, 1926-27, 1929-30; appointed Agent-General for New South Wales in London, 1930-31; A.R.P. Divisional Warden and Lecturer, 1941-43. Commonwealth Conciliation Commissioner and Central Industrial Authority under Coal Production (War-time) Act, 1944. Member, British Empire Parliamentary Assn.; President, Australian Labor Party, N.S.W.; 1st Secretary, Australian Trades Union Council. Fellow of Royal Empire Soc. Residence: "Bryn-Eirw," Gannons Rd., Burraneer Bay, Sydney. Office: 142 Phillip St., Sydney, Australia.

WILLIS, Admiral Sir ALGERNON USBORNE, K.C.B., D.S.O., British Naval Officer; born May 17, 1889, Hampstead, London; son of Herbert B. and Edith F. (Moore) Willis; educated at Eastbourne College, 1902-03; H.M.S. Britannia, 1904-05; married Olive Christine Millar, Sept. 7, 1916; two children. Cadet, Royal Navy, 1904. During World War I participated in battle of Jutland and in the operations in the Baltic, 1919; promoted Commander, 1922; Captain, 1929; Staff Member, Royal Navy War College, 1930. Commodore 1st class and Chief of Staff to Commander-in-Chief in Mediterranean, 1939-41; Rear-Admiral, 1940; took part in Mediterranean Fleet operations against Italy, 1940-41; Acting Vice-Admiral, 1941; Commander-in-Chief, South Atlantic Station, 1941-42. Second in Command of Eastern Fleet, 1942-43; Vice-Admiral and became Commander of Force "H" in the Mediterranean, 1943, participating in Tunisian, Sicilian and Italian campaigns. Appointed Commander-in-Chief of Levant Station, Oct. 1943; Second Sea Lord of the Admiralty and Chief of Naval Personnel 1944-46; Admiral 1945; Commander-in-Chief, Mediterranean Station, 1946—. Residence: Weybrook House, Sherborne St. John, Hampshire, England.

WILLIS, Dr. BAILEY, American Geologist; born May 31, 1857, Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y.; son of N. P. and Cornelia (Grinnell) Willis; educated at German Oberrealschule, 1871-74; School of Mines, Columbia Univ., E.M. 1878. C.E. 1879; Ph.D., Berlin, 1910; Columbia Univ., D.Sc. 1929; married (1st) A. H. Grinnell, 1882; (2nd) M. D. Baker, 1898; four children. Asst. Geologist, Geologist, Asst. to Director, U. S. Geol. Survey, 1879-1916. Geologist, Northern Trans-continental Survey, 1881-84. Geologist to Minister of Public Works, Argentine Republic, 1910-14; Prof. of Geology, Stanford Univ., 1915-22, Emeritus Prof. since 1922; Research Assoc. in Seismology, Carnegie Inst. of Washington, D. C. since 1922. Member: Amer. Inst. of Mining Engineers; Geological Soc. of Amer.; Seismological Soc. of Amer.; Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Natl. Research Council. Hon. Member: Royal Geog. Soc., London; Société Géol. de Belgique. Foreign Corresponding Member: Geol. Soc., London; Wiss Gesellschaft Munich; Gesellschaft z. Erdkunde, Berlin. Received gold medal, Société géogr. de France, 1910; Penrose Medal, Geological Soc. of Amer., 1944. Commander, Order of Leopold II, 1932, Belgian Legion of Honor, 1936. Author: (monographs): Research in China, 1907; Earthquake Conditions in Chile, 1924; East African Plateaus and River Valleys, 1931; (books of travel): Living Africa, 1934; Yanqui in Patagonia, 1946. Address: Box 1365, Stanford University, California.

WILLIS, Dr. HUGH EVANDER, American Professor of Law; born Feb. 27, 1875, Stratton, Vt.; son of Evander H. and Lucy (Sprague) Willis; educated at Yankton College, A.B. 1897, A.M. 1899, LL.D. 1925; Univ. of Minnesota, LL.B. 1901, LL.M. 1902; married Esther Louise De Coster, Sept. 21, 1910. Instructor in Law, Univ. of Minnesota, 1902; Asst. Prof., 1906; Prof., 1910. Dean and Prof. of Law, Southwestern Univ. Law School, 1913-15; Prof. of Law, Univ. of North Dakota, 1917-22; Prof. of Law since 1922; Acting Dean, School of Law, Indiana Univ., 1942-44. Member: Com. on Uniform State Laws, 1920-22; Amer. Bar Assn.; Indiana Bar Assn.; Amer. Law Inst. Author: Principles of the Law of Damages; Farmers' Manual of Law; Cases on Bailments; Carriers and Public Callings; Law of Social Justice; Introduction to Anglo-American Law; Indiana Annotations on Restatements of Law of Contracts; Constitutional Law of the U. S.; Constitution of the U. S. at the End of 150 Years. Address: Maxwell Hall, Indiana Univ. Law School, Bloomington, Ind.

WILLIS, Dr. JOHN CHRISTOPHER, British Botanist; born Feb. 20, 1868, Birkenhead, England; son of Richard Charles and Jane Bruce (Steel) Willis; educated at Univ. College, Liverpool, 1883-86; Cambridge Univ., Gonville & Caius College, B.A. 1889, M.A. 1894, D.Sc. 1904; Harvard Univ., Hon. D.Sc.; married Minnie Baldwin, Oct. 12, 1897; three daughters. Demonstrator in Botany, Cambridge, 1890; Asst. to Prof. of Botany, Glasgow Univ., 1894-96; Dir. of Royal Botanic Gardens, Ceylon, 1896-1911; Dir. of Botanical Garden, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, 1912-15; Editor, "Empire Cotton Growing Review," London, 1924-39. Fellow: Royal Soc. of London; Linnean Soc. Corresponding Member, Deutsche Botanische Gesellschaft. Author: Dictionary of Flowering Plants and Ferns (6th ed. 1931); Age and Area, 1922; The Course of Evolution, 1940; The Origin and Dispersal of Plants, 1947. Residence: Les Terrages, Avenue Des Alpes, Montreux, Switzerland.

WILLIS, PAUL S., American Trade Association Executive; born Nov. 8, 1890, Hallettsville, Tex.; son of Dick and Joanna Willis; educated at high school and at business school; married Pocahontas Schroeder. Vice-Pres. and General Manager and Director of Comet Rice Mills, Inc., 1912-32; Pres. and Executive Dir. of Grocery Mfrs. of America, Inc., since 1932. Past Pres. of the N. Y. Assn. of Mfrs. Representatives; formerly Director and Chairman of the National Food Grocery Conf. Com. Director of Food Industry War Com. Director, Amer. Trade Assn. Executives. Residence: 3 Brooklands Ave., Bronxville, N. Y. Office: 205 E. 42nd St., New York, N. Y.

WILLIS, Hon. SIMEON S., American Governor; born Dec. 1, 1879, Lawrence County, Ohio; son of John H. and Abigail (Slavens) Willis; educated in public and normal schools, and studied law in a law office; married Idah Lee Millis, Apr. 14, 1920; one daughter. Taught school. Began practice of law, 1901; established offices in Ashland, Ky. Served as City Solicitor, Ashland; Member, State Board of Bar Examiners; and as Judge, Kentucky Court of Appeals. Governor of Kentucky since Dec. 7, 1943. Member: American, Kentucky and Boyd County Bar Assns. Awarded Hon. LL.D. from the University of Kentucky and from Kentucky Wesleyan College. Editor of Thornton's Law of Oil & Gas (5th Edn., 1930); and supplements since. Residence: 1608 Bath Ave., Ashland, Ky. Office: State Capitol, Frankfort, Ky.

WILLISON, GEORGE FINDLAY, American Writer; born July 24, 1896, Denver, Colo.; son of Robert and Anna (Brunton) Willison; educated at Univ. of Colorado, A.B. 1918, hon. M.Litt., 1946; Univ. of Oxford (Rhodes Scholar), Diploma in Economics and Political Science, 1923; Univ. of Paris, 1924; married Florence G. Hauser, Sept. 15, 1928; one son. Engaged in journalism, 1925-27. Member, Classics Dept., St. John's College, Annapolis, Md., 1928-29. With Hessian Hills School, Croton on Hudson, 1929-35; Teacher, Co-Director (1933-34) and Member, Bd. of Trustees (1930-35). Writer, editor and national editor-in-chief, Federal Writers' Program, 1936-41. Writer and public relations consultant, Civil Aeronautics Administration, Washington, D. C., 1942-43. Writer and Asst. Publicity Dir., Democratic National Com., Washington, D. C., 1944-46. Member, Authors League. Received hon. M.Litt., Univ. of Colorado, 1946. Author: Here They Dug the Gold, 1931, 1935, 1946 (British ed., 1948); Why Wars Are Declared, 1936; Let's Make A Play, 1940; Saints and Strangers, 1945 (Book-of-the-Month Club edition, 1946, British ed., 1946). Address: South Hill, R. D. No. 3, Ballston Spa, N. Y.

WILLISON, Dr. NILS, Canadian Theologian; born Aug. 24, 1880, Sweden; son of Peter and Johanna (Nilsson) Willison; educated at Toronto Univ., diploma 1908; Queen's Univ., B.A. 1926; Evangelical Lutheran Seminary of Canada, diploma 1914; Univ. of Western Ontario, B.D. 1935, Hon. 1944; Chicago Lutheran Seminary, S.T.M. 1941; Hon. Litt.D., Carthage College, 1924; married Margaret Elizabeth White, 1904; six children. Principal, West Ward School, Gravenhurst, 1903-06; Principal of Schools, Coldwater, Ont., 1908-11; Pastor, Bethesda Church, Unionville, Ont., 1914-18; Principal, Waterloo College School, 1918-24; Registrar and Head, English Dept., Waterloo College of Arts, 1924-28; Pastor, Trinity Lutheran Church, Hamilton, Ont., 1928-36; Pres. and Dean, Lutheran College and Seminary, Saskatoon, Sask., since 1936. Chairman, Eastern Section, Canadian Lutheran Commn. for Soldiers and Sailors Welfare, 1918; Chairman, Canadian Commn. for War Service, since 1940; Provisional Chairman, Canadian Lutheran Council, since 1944. Member: Canadian Lutheran World Relief, 1945; Lutheran World Federation, Amer. Section, since 1946. Canadian Delegate, Lutheran World Convention, Copenhagen, Denmark, 1929; Delegate, Lutheran World Federation Convention, Lund, Sweden, 1947. Joint Author: Epistle Messages, 1935; Lutheran Lyrics, 1938; The Day's Worship, 1933; Muskoka Echoes, 1946. Editor-in-Chief, The Canada Lutheran, 17 years. Address: 1502 8th St. E., Saskatoon, Sask., Canada.

WILLISTON, ARTHUR LYMAN, American Educator; born Oct. 11, 1868, Cambridge, Mass.; son of Lyman Richards and Ann E. (Gale) Williston; educated at Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, S.B. 1889, graduate study, 1889-90; married Irene L. Simmons; (2nd) Mary DeForest Denny, Dec. 9, 1925. Asst. to Engineer of Maintenance of Way, Union Pacific Rd., 1890-91; First Asst. to Chief Engineer, C.C.C. & St. L. Ry. in charge of bridges, 1891; Instructor of Steam Engineering, Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1891-92; Mechanical Engineer, Lockwood Greene & Co., Boston; Mass. Power Plant & Mill Design, 1892-93; Prof. of Applied Mechanics and Machine Design and Director of Industrial Arts, Ohio State Univ., 1893-98; Secy., College of Engineering, 1895-98; Director, School of Science and Technology, Pratt Inst., Brooklyn, N. Y., 1898-1910; organized Wentworth Inst. of Boston, Mass., 1910, Principal, 1910-24; Director of Education and Industrial Survey, Norwood, Mass., 1924-25; Asst. to Director, Amer. Council on Education, Washington, D. C., 1927-33. Member, Expert Advisory Com., Carnegie Tech. Schools, Pittsburgh, Pa., 1902-05; Expert for Reed College, Portland (Ore.), Boston School Comm., 1906; for New York Public Schools, 1908-09; Wentworth Inst., Boston, Mass., 1908-09; Ohio Mechanics Inst., Cincinnati, Ohio, 1909. Member: Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers (Pres., Boston Section), 1915-17; Natl. Education Assn. (Pres., Vocational and Practical Arts Dept. 1912-14; Science Dept. 1918-19); Soc. for Promotion of Engineering Education (Secy. 1907-09, Vice-Pres. 1909-10); Natl. Soc. for Promotion of Industrial Education. Amer. Delegate, World Federation on Education, Edinburgh, 1925; to Amer. Conf. on Adult Education, Denmark, 1926. Author of numerous published articles and reports on Industrial, Engineering and General Education; also of Beyond the Horizon of Science, 1944. Educational Director of New England, Com. on Education and Special Training of General Staff, U. S. Army, 1918-19; Secy., Natl. Council for Citizens Com. for a Natl. War Service Act, since 1943. Residence: 986 High St., Dedham, Mass.

WILLISTON, Prof. SAMUEL, American Law Educator; born Sept. 24, 1861, Cambridge, Mass.; son of Lyman Richards Williston and Anna Eliza (Gale) Williston; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1882; Harvard Law School, LL.B. in 1888; awarded LL.D.'s from Harvard, Amherst, Yale and Williams; married Mary Fairlie Wellman, Sept. 12, 1889; two daughters. Began legal practice in 1888; Professor of Law at Harvard University, 1890-1938, (Dane Professor since 1919); Emeritus Professor since 1938. Prepared legislative acts to make uniform the law of Sales, Warehouse Receipts, Bills of Lading and Stock certificates; Commissioner for Massachusetts to promote Uniform State Laws, 1910-29. Vice-President for Massachusetts of the American Bar Assn., 1923-25; Reporter on Contracts for the American Law Institute, 1923-32. Author: Treatise on Law of Sales (1909, 3rd Ed. 1948); Treatise on Law of Contracts (4 vols. 1920, Revised Edition 8 vols. 1936-37); Case Books on Contracts, Sales, Bankruptcy; Life and Law—An Autobiography, 1941. Residence: 17 Berkeley St., Cambridge, Mass. Office: Harvard Law School, Cambridge, Mass.

WILLITS, Dr. JOSEPH HENRY, American Economist; born June 16, 1889, Ward, Delaware County, Pa.; son of Francis Parvin and Elizabeth Anna (Paschall) Willits; educated at Swarthmore College, A.B. 1911, A.M. 1912, LL.D. 1937; Univ. of Pennsylvania, Ph.D. 1916, LL.D. 1939; married Ruth Clement Sharp, May 3, 1913; three children. Instructor in Geography and Industry, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1912-17; Asst. Prof., 1919-20; Prof., 1920-39; Dean, Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, 1933-39. Director for Social Sciences, Rockefeller Foundation, since 1939. Expert in study of unemployment for Philadelphia, 1915; Secy. and Vice-Pres., Philadelphia Assn. for Discussion of Employment Problems, 1915-21; Employment Supt., U. S. Naval Aircraft Factory, 1917-19; Director, Industrial Research Dept., Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1921-39; Expert in Charge of Studies in Labor Relations, U. S. Coal Commn., 1922-23. Member: Editorial Advisory Board, John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation, 1924-28; President's Emergency Com for Employment, 1930-31. Pres., Natl. Bureau of Economic Research, 1933. Executive Director, 1936-39. Former Member, Federal Advisory Council, U. S. Employment Service; Member, President's Emergency Board on Railway Wages, 1941. Member: Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Amer. Statistical Assn.; Amer. Economic Assn.; Amer. Management Assn.; Amer. Philosophical Soc. Author: The Unemployed in Philadelphia, 1915; What the Coal Commission Found (with others), 1925; Studies of Labor Relations for U. S. Coal Commission; also brochures on labor subjects. Editor (3 vols.), Annals of Amer. Acad. of Political and Social Sciences. Residence: Creemer Rd., Armonk, N. Y. Office: 49 W. 49th St., New York 20, N. Y.

WILLIUS, Dr. FREDERICK ARTHUR, American Physician; born Nov. 24, 1888, St. Paul, Minn.; son of Gustav Willius and Emma (Klausmeyer) Willius; educated at Univ. of Minnesota, B.S. 1912, M.D. 1914, M.S. in Medicine, 1920; married Stella Mae Popple, Sept. 26, 1917; three children. Asst. in Medicine and Electrocardiography, Mayo Clinic and Mayo Foundation for Medical Education and Research, 1916-20; Assoc. in Medicine, Mayo Clinic, 1920-22; Head, Section on Cardiology, since 1922. Prof. of Medicine, Mayo Foundation for Medical Education and Research; Senior Consultant in Medicine. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Heart Assn.; Central Soc. for Clinical Research; Central Interurban Clinical Club, etc. Author: Clinical Electrocardiography, 1922; Clinical Electrocardiograms, 1927; Cardiac Classics (with T. E. Keys), 1941; Cardiac Clinics, 1941; also 300 published articles in various medical journals. Address: Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota.

WILLKIE, H. FREDERICK, American Business Executive; born Sept. 30, 1890, Elwood, Ind.; son of Herman Francis and Herietta Trisch Willkie; educated at Univ. of Indiana, A.B. 1912; married Helen Fowler Hall, June 10, 1944. Chemist, Fajardo Sugar Co., Puerto Rico, 1912-16; Research Chemist, Celluloid Company of America, Newark, New Jersey, 1916-17; Research Chemist, U. S. Industrial Alcohol and Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md., 1917-24. Assistant Plant Manager, Canadian Industrial Alcohol Co., 1924-27; General Superintendent, Hiram Walker & Sons, Ltd., 1927-33; Vice-President and Director, Hiram Walker-Gooderham and Worts, Ltd., 1933-37 (builder of Peoria, Illinois and Dumbarton Scotland Distilleries); Vice-President in charge of production and Director, Distillers Corp.-Seagrams Ltd., since 1937. Member of Industrial Alcohol Producers Advisory Committee, War Production Board; Member, Louisville Board of Trade; Chicago Board of Trade; Member, Executive Committee, Kentucky Distillers Association and Maryland Distillers Association; Director, Louisville Philharmonic Symphony Association; Kentucky Post-War Advisory Planing Commission. Member: American Association for Advancement of Science; American Institute of Chemical Engineers; National Farm Chemurgic Council, Inc.; Kentucky Farm Bureau; American Farm Bureau Federation; The Newcomen Soc. (British); Masons. Author: Food for Thought; Fundamentals of Distillery Practice; Outline for Industry; A Rebel Yells; also many articles. Recipient of following patents: Process of Recovering Glycerine; Improvement in Varnish, Paint, or Cement and Processes of Making Same; Purification of Propyl Alcohols; Process of Purifying Acetone; Purification of Esters; Purification of Fusel Oil and Amyl Alcohol; Method of Manufacturing Alkyl Esters; Improvements in Solvent Compositions; Improvements in Enameling Compositions; Process of Purifying Distilled Alcoholic Spirits; Process for the Dehydration of Moisture-Containing Compounds; Process of Low Temperature Distillation. Residence: The Puritan Apartments, S. Fourth St. Office: Box 240, Louisville, Ky.

WILLNERS, Dr. (KARL) GUNNO, Swedish Physician; born Feb. 18, 1897, Stockholm, Sweden; son of John and Marianne (Ryding) Willners; educated at Caroline Inst., Stockholm, cand. med. 1919, lic. med. 1922; married Margit Sköldberg, 1924; one son. Asst. Physician, Sävsjö Sanatorium, 1924-25; Hospital St. Göran, 1925-28; Hospital St. Erik, 1930-31; General Clinic for Dermatology, Hospital St. Göran, Stockholm, 1932-41; Chief Physician and Director, Hospital, Eira, Stockholm, since 1941; Practicing Physician, Stockholm, since 1932; Asst. First District Physician, County of Stockholm, 1932-39; Surgeon, Office of Finnish Volunteers, 1940. Secy., Assn. of Swedish Physicians. Editor, Sv. Läkartidning, 1930-37. Awards: Hungarian Memorial Medal; Finnish Liberty Cross with Red Cross emblem. Author of about thirty articles on medical and social-medical questions. Residence: Strindbergsgatan 53. Office: Västra Trädgårdsgatan 19B, Stockholm, Sweden.

WILLOUGHBY, Dr. HAROLD RIDEOUT, American Theologian; born March 3, 1890, North Haverhill, N. H.; son of Ezra Bartlett and Florence Alberta (Rideout) Willoughby; educated at Wesleyan Univ., A.B. 1915, M.A. 1916, Litt.D. 1946; Garrett Biblical Inst., B.D. 1918, D.D. 1933; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1924; Princeton Manuscript Seminar, 1929, 1935, 1940; Univ. of Berlin, 1936; Amer. Acad. in Rome, 1937. Squire Teaching Fellow in Greek at Wesleyan University, 1915-16. Instructor of New Testament at University of Chicago, 1924-26; Assistant Professor, 1926-29; Associate Professor, 1929-43. Professor of Christian Origins at University of Chicago, since 1943. Bennett Lecturer at Garrett Biblical Institute, 1929 and 1938; Special Lecturer at American School of Oriental Research, Jerusalem, 1937. In 1933 he engaged in Iconographic Research in Leningrad for American Council of Learned Societies. Member: Archaeological Institute of America; College Art Assn.; Mediaeval Academy of America; Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis (President, Mid-West Section, 1942-43); Chicago Soc. for Biblical Research (Pres., 1945-46); Chicago Philological Soc., Seminarium Kondakovianum; Amer. Assn. Univ. Profs. Author (books): A Short Introduction to the Gospels (with Ernest D. Burton), 1927; Religious Thought in Last Quarter Century (with others), 1927; Pagan Regeneration, 1929; The Rockefeller McCormick New Testament (with E. J. Goodspeed and D. W. Riddle, 3 vols.), 1932; Codex 2400 and Its Miniatures, 1933; The Coverdale Psalter and the Quatrocentenary of the Printed English Bible, 1935; The Four Gospels of Karahissar (with E. C. Colwell, 2 vols.), 1936; Environmental Factors in Christian History (with others), 1939; The Elizabeth Day McCormick Apocalypse (with E. C. Colwell, 2 vols.), 1940; The First Authorized English Bible and the Cranmer Preface, 1942; The Rockefeller McCormick Manuscript and What Came of It, 1943; Soldiers' Bibles Through Three Centuries, 1944; Munera Studiosa (with others), 1946; The Study of the Bible Today and Tomorrow (ed.), 194. During First World War, Sergeant, Field Artillery of U. S. Army, 1918. Address: Disciples Divinity House, University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois.

WILLOUGHBY, Dr. LEONARD ASHLEY, British Educator; born June 4, 1885, Bonby, Lincs.; son of W. H. and F. A. Willoughby; educated at Lycée Carnot, Paris; Realschule, Ohligs, Germany; City of London School; Univ. College, London; Univs. of Vienna and Bonn; M.A., D.Litt. (London), Ph.D. (Vienna); married Lucie Edith Berthon, 1916; one son. Lecturer in English, Univ. of Cologne, 1908-10; Senior Taylorian Lecturer in German, Univ. of Oxford, 1910-19; Lecturer in charge of German, Univ. of Sheffield, 1919-30; Henry Simon Prof. of German Languages and Literature, Univ. of Manchester, 1930-31. Fielden Prof. of German, Univ. College, London, since 1931. Secy., English Goethe Soc.; Editor of its publication; Editor, German Life and Letters. Author: D. G. Rossetti and German Literature, 1912; Samuel Naylor and Reynard, the Fox, 1914; Von dem jungesten tage, 1918; Schiller's Die Räuber, 1922; The Classical Age of German Literature, 1926; The Romantic Movement in Germany, 1930; Goethe Urfaust & Fragment, 1943; Schiller, Kabale und Liebe, 1944. Address: University College, London, England.

WILLOUGHBY, Dr. WILLIAM FRANKLIN, American Economist; born 1867. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Author (monographs on American Social Economics): Building and Loan Assns., 1900; Bureaus of Labor Statistics, 1900; Industrial Arbitration and Conciliation, 1900; Inspection of Factories and Workshops, 1900; Inspection of Mines, 1900; Regulation of the Sweating System, 1900; also Territories and Dependencies of the United States (their government and administration), 1905; The Problems of a National Budget, 1918; The Movement for Budgetary Reform in the States, 1918; An Introduction to the Study of the Government of Modern States, 1919; Government Organizations in War Time and After, 1919; The National Budget System with Suggestions for Its Improvement, 1927; The Legal Status and Functions of the General Accounting Office of the National Government, 1927; Financial Conditions and Operations of the National Government, 1921-30, 1931; Principles of Legislative Organization and Administration, 1934; The Government of Modern States, 1936, revised and enlarged, 1936. Address: c/o American Academy of Arts and Sciences, 26 Newbury St., Boston 16, Massachusetts.

WILLS, EDITH AGNES, M.P., British Parliament Member; born Nov. 21, 1892, Newent, Gloucestershire, England; daughter of John Philip and Henrietta (Hook) Wood; educated at Aston and Birmingham; married Frank Wills, Nov. 19, 1921; one son. Trade Union Branch Secy., 1911; Trade Union Rept., Government Trade Board, 1913; Secy., Women's Co-operative Guild, 1921; Councillor, Birmingham City Council, 1930; Director, Birmingham Co-operative Soc., Ltd. since 1932; Director, Birmingham Printers, Ltd. since 1934; Justice of the Peace, City of Birmingham, 1934; Trustee, John Whittinghams Charity, 1928-46. Governor: Birminghams Univ.; Birmingham Royal Inst. for Blind; City of Birmingham Orchestra. Member: Birmingham Education Com., 1930-45; Birmingham Civil Defence Com., 1939-45; Town Planning Com., 1938-45; Birmingham Airport Com., 1939-45; Special Schools for Handicapped Children since 1930. Member: Inter-Parliamentary Union; Co-operative Co-partnership Federation; Housing and Town Planning Parliamentary Group; Road Safety Assn.; Home Office Schools Assn. Address: 42-44 Hill St., Birmingham 5, England.

WILLS, ROYAL BARRY, American Architect; born Aug. 21, 1895, Melrose, Mass.; son of George Augustin and Mabel Grace (Barry) Wills; educated at Mass. Inst. of Technology, B.S. in Architecture, 1918; married Marguerite Waggett, June 19, 1920; two sons. Assoc., Wm. Cramp & Sons Shipbuilding Co., Philadelphia, 1919; Designing Engineer, Turner Construction Co., Boston, 1919-25. Awards: 1st Regional Prize, Natl. Better Homes Competition, 1929; Gold Medal, presented by Pres. Herbert Hoover, for best small house of 1932; Medals, Better Homes in America Competition, 1934-35; Grand Sweepstakes Prize, Natl. Homes Contest of Better Homes & Gardens, 4th Prize, 1935. Hon. Mention, House Beautiful Competitions, 1934, '35, '36, '38, '39, '41; 2nd Prize, 1938; 3rd Prize, 1941. Two 2nd Prizes, Jordan Marsh Co. competition, 1935; Award from Pencil Points, Modernize Main Street Competition; one of eight leading architects in 1938 to design house for Life Magazine; designed 300-dwelling Govt. Housing Project, 1942. Member: Amer. Inst. of Architects; Boston Soc. of Architects; Mass. Assn. of Architects. Director, Congress Co-operative Bank of Boston; Trustee, Sherwood Forest Trust. Author: Houses for Good Living; Better Houses for Budgeteers; Houses for Homemakers; Planning Your Home Wisely; This Business of Architecture. Address: 3 Joy St., Boston 8, Mass.

WILLSON, MEREDITH, American Musical Conductor; born May 18, 1902, Mason City, Ia.; educated at Damrosch Inst. of Musical Art; private studies with Henry Hadley and Georges Barrère. Played flute with John Philip Sousa's Band (1921-23); New York Philharmonic and New York Chamber Music Society (1924-29). Musical Director, American Broadcasting Co. (1929-30); Musical Director, KFRC, San Francisco (1930-33); Musical Director, NBC Western Division (1933-37). Conducted: Seattle Symphony, San Francisco Symphony, Hollywood Bowl, Los Angeles Philharmonic; Musical Director, Maxwell House and MGM Radio programs, 1937-42; other radio programs included Ford Sunday Evening Hour, Johnson's Wax, Standard Symphony Orchestra, etc. Compositions include: Symphony No. 1, Symphony No. 2, Nocturne, Jervis Bay. (for piano). O. O. McIntyre Suite; (for voice), Song of Steel; (for band), America Calling, Mail Call March; (popular songs), You and I, Two In Love, Yankee Doodle Girl, Hit the Leather, Iowa, The same Little Chapel. Author: What Every Young Musician Should Know. Major AUS in the Armed Forces Radio Service. Residence: 202 N. Canon Dr., Beverly Hills, California.

WILLUMSEN, JENS FERDINAND, Danish Artist (painter and sculptor); born Sept. 7, 1863, Copenhagen, Denmark; son of Hans Christian and Anne Christine (Jensen) Willumsen; attended Académie des Beaux Arts, 1880-84. Works include (paintings): Bathing Children; The Mutilated Soldiers; The Evening Soup; The Ascentioniste (girl); Italians, Spaniards, Arabs; (portraits) The Mountain; The Sea; (etchings) woodcuts; (sculptures) The Great Relief; Monument for Statesman Horup. Represented in: The Art Museums in Copenhagen, Aarhus, Oslo, Stockholm, Gothenburg; (in Copenhagen): Royal Theatre. Hirschsprungs Museum, Hagemanns College, Kemp's Collection; Art industri museum. Thiells Collection, Stockholm, etc. Residence: Lido, Route de Frejus, Cannes, France. Studio: Strandagervej 28, Copenhagen, Denmark.

WILMEROTH, Dr. JOHN WILLIAM von, American Publisher and Psychologist; born Dec. 22, 1916, Chicago, Ill.; son of Charles William and Alice Dixon (Bell) von Wilmeroth; educated at Lawrenceville School; Stanford Univ., Ph.D. 1941; George Washington Univ.; Occidental College; Andhra Univ., hon. D.H.L.; Univ. of Grenoble, hon. LL.D.; Vice-Pres., C. W. Wilmeroth Co. since 1938. Pres.: Colorado Publishing Co. since 1940; Twin River Ranch Co. since 1938. Chairman of Board, News and Views, Inc., since 1946. Governor, Occidental College. Trustee: Memorial Cancer Hospital, Los Angeles; Wesley Memorial Hospital, Chicago. Member: United Nations Assn., Washington, D. C.; Newspaper Publishers Soc.; Colorado Press U. S. Chamber of Commerce; California Assn.; Washington, D. C. Press Assn.; (hon.) Comité Cultural de Argentina; Soc. de Belas Letras do Brasil; (hon.) Luxemburg Red Cross; Comité National de Luxembourg, Second Lieut., 1st Lieut., Major, U. S. Med. Dept., 1942-46. Created: 17th Baron of Louvain; Commander, Order of St. John the Baptist; Knight, Grand Cross Order of Saint Lazarus of Jerusalem. Awarded: Order of Chapultepec, Mexico; Grand Prix Humanitaire de Belgique; Order of Isabella the Catholic from Spain. Residence: Pinecrest, Wash., D. C. Offices: 2010 R St., N.W., Washington, D. C., and 6455 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, Calif.

WILMETH, JAMES LILLARD, American Lawyer; born Oct. 10, 1870, Chewalla, Tenn.; son of Benjamin F. and Isabella B. (DePoyster) Wilmeth; educated at Natl. Univ., LL.B., 1906; married Alpha B. Moore, Nov. 5, 1896; two sons, one daughter. Clerk, Treasury Dept., Washington, D. C., 1895-1910; Chief Clerk of entire dept., 1910-17; Dir. of Bureau of Engraving and Printing, 1917-22; Executive Secy., Natl. Council of Junior Order of United American Mechanics, since 1923. Mayor of Takoma Park, two terms. Pres., Penna. Missionary Soc., two terms; member, Bd. of Managers of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, since 1936. Author of Book of Addresses, 1935; also of a book on his family history, and is Editor of the Junior American. Residence: 108 Englewood Rd., Upper Darby, Pa. Summer home: 211 Grant Ave., Cape May, N. J. Office: 3029 N. Broad St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WILMOT, Rt. Hon. JOHN, P.C., M.P., British Minister of Supply; born Apr. 2, 1895; contested East Lewisham, 1924, 1929, 1931; Member of Parliament (Labour Party) for East Fulham, 1933-35; Kennington Division of Lambeth, 1939-45; Parliamentary Private Secy. to Minister of Economic Warfare, 1940-42; Secy. to Pres. of Board of Trade, 1942-44; Joint Parliamentary Secy., Ministry of Supply, 1944-45. Served in Royal Naval Air Service, World War I. Member: Executive Com., Labour Party, 1940, 1941; Executive Com., Workers Travel Assn.; Cohen Com. on Company Law Reform; Select Com. on Rebuilding Houses of Parliament, 1944. Alderman, London County Council, 1937-45; Chairman, Parliamentary Com., 1944; Chairman, London Fire Brigade, 1939-42; British Minister of Supply since 1945. Author: Control of Banking and Finance, 1935; also numerous papers on political, historical and financial subjects. Address: House of Commons, London, S.W. 1, England.

WILNER, Rt. Rev. ROBERT FRANKLIN, American Protestant Episcopal Bishop; born April 10, 1889, Forty Fort, Pa.; son of George Mortimer and Lillian (Price) Wilner; educated at Temple Univ., two years in medical dept., 1910-12; Philadelphia Divinity School, 1927-28; awarded D.D. (hon.) 1947; married Alfaretta Amburn Stark, April 10, 1917; two children. Ordained Deacon, 1928, Priest, 1929, Protestant Episcopal Church. Lay Missionary, China, 1916-27. Asst. in St. Stephen's Chinese Mission, Manila, 1928-29. Rector, Easter School (for Igorot Boys and Girls), Baguio, Philippines, and Asst. Priest, Church of the Resurrection, Baguio, 1929-38. Consecrated Suffragan Bishop of Philippine Episcopal Church, 1938. Vice Chmn., Board of Governors, St. Luke's Hospital, Manila. First Vice Pres., Amer. Guardian Assn., Manila, 1947. Editor, The Diocesan Chronicle, 1947. Address: St. Luke's Hospital, 1015 Magdalena St., Manila, Philippines.

WILSHAW, Sir EDWARD, K.C.M.G., J.P., British Company Chairman; born June 3, 1879; married Myn Moar, 1912; two daughters. Govt.-approved Chairman and sole Managing Director, Cable and Wireless, Ltd. (Operating Company), since 1936. Director: Cable and Wireless (Holding) Ltd.; Eastern Telegraph Co., Ltd.; Western Telegraph Co., Ltd.; Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Co., Ltd., and other companies. Member of Grand Council and Executive Committee, Federation of British Industries; one of his Majesty's Lieutenants, City of London; General Commissioner of Income Tax and of Land Tax, County of Essex. Address: Arundel House, Arundel St., London, W. C. 2, England.

WILSON, ALAN HARRIS, British Scientist; born July 2, 1906, Wallasey, Cheshire; son of Herries and Anne (Bridges) Wilson; educated at Emmanuel College, Cambridge, B.A. 1926, M.A. 1929; married Margaret Constance Monks, 1934; two sons. Fellow, Emmanuel College, Cambridge, 1929-34. Rockefeller Fellow, 1931. Fellow, Trinity College, Cambridge, 1934-45. Univ. Lecturer in Mathematics, Univ. of Cambridge, 1934-45. Director of Research and Development, Courtaulds Ltd., 1945—. Fellow: Royal Soc.; Cambridge Philosophical Soc.; Faraday Soc.; Chemical Soc. of Chemical Industry; Soc. of Dyers and Colourists. Member, London Mathematical Soc. Author: The Theory of Metals, 1936; Semi-Conductors and Metals, 1939. Residence: Tudor Lodge, Gibbet Hill, Kenilworth, Warwickshire. Office: Courtaulds Ltd., 16 St. Martins-le-Grand, London, E.C. 1, England.

WILSON, Dr. ALICE EVELYN, Canadian Geologist; born Aug. 26, 1881, Coburg, Ontario, Canada; daughter of Richard and Adelia (Kingston) Wilson; educated at Univ. of Toronto, B.A. 1911; Chicago Univ., Ph.D. 1929. Asst., Geological Survey of Canada, 1911-19; Asst. Paleontologist, 1919-36; Asst. Geologist, 1936-40; Assoc. Geologist, 1940-45; Geologist since 1945. Fellow: Geological Soc. of America; Royal Soc. of Canada (first woman). Created M.B.E. Author: An Upper Ord. Fauna From the Rock Mountains, 1926; Ordocician Fossils From the Regional of Cornwall, 1932; Gastropods From Akpatok Island, Hudson Straits, 1938; Sedimentary Basins of Ontario, Possible Sources of Oil and Gas (with J. S. Stewart and J. F. Caley), 1941, etc. Geology of the Ottawa-St. Lawrence Lowland, 1946; Echinodermata of the Ottawa Formation of the Ottawa-St. Lawrence Lowland. 1946. Address: Geological Survey of Canada, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada.

WILSON, Hon. ANTHONY DASH, Jr., Liberian Senator; born April 3, 1898, Harper City, Cape Palmas, Liberia; son of Anthony Dash and Rachel Ann (Tubman) Wilson; educated at Cuttington College, B.A. (cum laude), 1921; Liberia State College. M.A. (hon.) 1941; married Frances Cecilia Morgan, Feb. 19, 1943 (first marriage dissolved in 1939); seven children by first marriage, one by second. Ledger Clerk and Asst. Accountant, Treasury Dept., Monrovia; Bookkeeper, Office of General Receiver of Customs, R.L.; Bookkeeper, War Dept., Clerk, Circuit Court in Maryland County, Liberia; Chief Clerk, Bureau of Trade and Commerce; Prof. at Monrovia College. Retired as General Practitioner of Liberian Legal Bar. Elected to House of Representatives, Liberian National Legislature, 1932; re-elected 1935. Elected Senator, National Legislature of Liberia, 1938; reelected 1941, 1947. Delegate to Second General Assembly, United Nations, Lake Success, N. Y., 1947; Vice Chmn., Social, Humanitarian and Cultural Com., 1947; presided several times over Working Com. of United Nations. Member and Second Vice Pres., Bd. of Trustees, Liberia State College. Member, Special Liberian Mission to U. S. responsible for successful negotiation of Joint American-Liberian Co. known as "Liberia" Co. Commander of African Redemption: Commander, Order of Star of Africa; Commander, "Honneur et Mérite" Republic of Haiti, 1947. Residence: South Reevy St., Harper City, Cape Palmas, Liberia. Office: Liberian Senate, Monrovia, Liberia.

WILSON, ARNOLD JORDAN, American Industrialist; born Oct. 22, 1886, LaSalle, Ill.; son of George Alexander and Frances L. (Tomb) Wilson; educated at University of New York, and Merchants of tions. Clubs: University of Chicago; Deer Park Country; Tavern of Chicago; Unisity of Chicago, Ph.B. 1907; married Marianne Van Rennselaer, 1935; one son by previous marriage. With General Time Instruments Corporation since 1931; President since 1944. President and Director of Western Clock Co., Ltd.; Stromberg Time Corp., and Stromberg Time Recorder Co. of Canada, Ltd. Director, The Seth Thomas Clock Corp.; Chairman and Director, LaSalle National Bank and Trust Co.; Secretary and Director, Eureka Building Association. Trustee and Treasurer, Hygienic Institute; National Councilor of LaSalle Illinois Chamber of Commerce and Illinois Valley Mfg. Assn. Director of Illinois and Illinois Valley Manufacturers' Associations. Residence: Deer Park, La Salle, Ill. Office: 109 Lafayette St., New York 13, New York.

WILSON, ARTON, British Government Official; born July 16, 1893, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Septimus and Mary (Hall) Wilson; educated at Carpenter's School, London; Central Foundation School, London; married Enid Beatrice Barnard, June 14, 1920; three children. Clerk, General Post Office, 1909; Clerk, Board of Agriculture & Fisheries, 1912; Asst. Principal, Ministry of Labour, 1920; First Class Officer, 1928; Chief Inspector, 1936. Director of Establishment, Ministry of Economic Warfare, 1940; Director of Establishments, Ministry of Labour and Natl. Service, since 1941. Fellow, British Empire Soc. Created Companion, Order of the Bath. Residence: Great Parndon, Harlow, Essex. Office: 8 St. James' Sq., London W., England.

WILSON, The Hon. CAIRINE REAY, Canadian Senator; born in Montreal, Que., Canada, Feb. 4, 1885; daughter of Robert and Jane (Baptist) Mackay; educated at Misses Symmers & Smith's School; Trafalgar Institute; Acadia University, D.C.L. 1941; Queen's University, hon. LL.D. 1943; married Norman F. Wilson. Feb. 22, 1909; eight children. President of the League of Nations Society in Canada, 1937-42. President, National Federation of Liberal Women; Vice-President of Ottawa Welfare Bureau; Director, Health League of Canada; Vice-President, Victorian Order of Nurses in Canada. Hon. President, Ottawa Y.W.C.A. Chmn., Canadian Natl. Com. on Refugees. Summoned to Canadian Senate, Feb. 1930. Residence: Manor House, Manor Road, Rockliffe, Ottawa; also "Clibrig," St. Andrews, New Brunswick. Office: The Senate, Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

WILSON, CARROLL L., American Engineer; born 1910; graduated Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1928. Asst. to Dr. Karl T. Compton (Pres. of Mass. Inst. of Technology), eight years; Special Asst. to Dr. Vannevar Bush at M.I.T. in developing a program of administration of patents on inventions by M.I.T. staff members, 1936. One of two original members of National Defense Research Com., 1940; later Executive Asst. to Dr. Bush in Office of Scientific Research and Development; loaned to State Dept., and assisted in preparation of Acheson-Lilienthal report on atomic energy control, 1945. Consultant, Atomic Energy Commission, 1946; General Manager, 1947—. Residence: Framingham, Mass. Office: Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D. C.

WILSON, CHARLES EDWARD, American Industrialist; born 1886, New York, N. Y. Joined Sprague Electrical Works, a Gen. Elec. Co. subsidiary, at age of 12 as office boy; subsequently made a factory hand; studied accounting at night, and at age of 20 became Production Manager; the following year was made Assistant Superintendent of the plant. When G.E. added new plants at New Kensington, Pa., and Maspeth, L. I., he was placed in charge; transferred to Bridgeport (Conn.) Works, 1923, and later became Manager, Merchandise Department, and then Vice-President. In 1937 was transferred to New York as Executive Vice-President and on Jan. 1, 1940 was elected President and Director. Served as President until Sept. 18, 1942, when he resigned to become Executive Vice-Chairman of War Production Board, from which post he resigned in Sept. 1944, and again was elected President of General Electric Co. Protestant Co-Chmn., Natl. Conf. of Christians and Jews, 1947—; Member, Natl. Labor Management Panel, Washington, D. C., 1948—. Address: 570 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y.

WILSON, CHARLES ERWIN, American Industrialist; born July 18, 1890, Minerva, Ohio; son of Thomas E. and Rosalind (Unkefer) Wilson; educated at Carnegie Inst. of Technology, Electrical Engineer, 1909; married Jessie Ann Curtis, Sept. 11, 1912; six children. Student Apprentice, Westinghouse Elec. & Mfg. Co.; Student Asst. to B. G. Lamme, Chief Engineer of Westinghouse, etc.; remained with Westinghouse for ten years. Designed first automobile starting motors made by Westinghouse. 1912; in charge of all its automobile electrical equipment engineering, 1916; during World War I was in charge of design and development of Westinghouse radio generators and dynamotors for Army and Navy. Joined General Motors as Chief Engineer and Sales Manager of Automobile Div., Remy Electric Co., a General Motors subsidiary, 1919; Chief Engineer of company and initiated a redesigning program that helped in putting Remy Electric operation on a sound financial basis; appointed Factory Manager, Dec. 1921; General Manager, Feb. 1925; Pres. and General Manager, newly organized Delco-Remy Corp. (now a div. of General Motors), 1926; Vice Pres., General Motors, Dec. 1928; arranged for purchase of many properties and businesses, and for minority interests in Bendix Aviation Corp., and what is now North American Aviation Corp.; Exec. Vice-Pres., General Motors, 1939; Acting Pres., 1940; Pres. of General Motors, 1941—; Chief Executive Officer, 1946—. Member, Soc. of Automotive Engineers. Converted a number of east coast automobile plants into Eastern Aircraft Div. which manufactured many thousands of carrier aircraft for the Navy, World War II. Served as Adviser for many military and industrial bodies of the government, including congressional committees on use of resources and manpower. Office: General Motors Corp., 3044 West Grand Blvd., Detroit 2, Mich.

WILSON, CHARLES MORROW, American Writer; born 1905. Author: Meriwether Lewis of Lewis & Clark, 1924; Backwoods America, 1934; Roots of America (a travelogue of American personalities), 1936; Rabble Rouse, 1936; Aroostok: Our Last Frontier (Maine's pictureseque potato empire), 1937; Money at the Crossroads (an intimate study of radio's influence upon a great market of 60,000,000 people), 1937; Country Living—Plus and Minus, 1938; Landscape of Rural Poverty (corn bread and creek water), 1940; Challenge and Opportunity (Central America), 1941; Ambassadors in White (the story of American tropical medicine), 1942; Trees and Test Tubes (the story of rubber), 1943; Middle America, 1944; Oil Across the World (the American saga of pipelines), 1946; Liberia, 1947; Empires in Green and Gold (the story of the American Panama Trade), 1947. Compiler, Books About Middle America (a selected bibliography), 1942. Address: c/o H. Holt & Co., Inc., 257 Fourth Ave., New York 10, N. Y.

WILSON, CHARLES THOMSON, American Importer; born Houston, Tex., July 25, 1879; son of Andrew and Mary (Longcope) Wilson; educated at common schools; married Dorothy M. Johnston, Feb. 21, 1917; one son. Salesman in 1896; exploited a new crude rubber found in the desert country of northern Mexico, called Guayule, 1904-11; represented various producers and dealt for own account. Engaged in importation of crude rubber as an individual, 1911-14; President and Director of Charles T. Wilson Co., Inc., importers of crude rubber and foreign producers, since 1914. Director of Rubber & Producers Traders Ltd., London, and Centennial Insurance Co., New York, Atlantic Mutual Indemnity Co. and a Trustee of the Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co., New York. Member, War Service Com. of the rubber industry during first World War; connected with War Trade Board ($1-a-year-man). Past Pres., Mexican Chamber of Commerce of the U. S., Inc. Awarded Order of Aztec Eagle by Mexican Govt., 1945. Residence: Lake Boulevard, Lake Mahopac, N. Y. Office: 120 Wall St., New York, N. Y.

WILSON, CHARLES THOMSON REES, C.H., British Physicist; Nobel Prize Winner; born Feb. 14, 1869, Glencorse, Midlothian, Scotland; educated at Owens College, Manchester and Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge (Fellow); M.A., Cantab.; Hon. LL.D., Aberdeen and Glasgow; Hon. Sc.D., Manchester and Liverpool; married Jessie Fraser Dick, 1908; three children. Engaged in research on condensation nuclei, ions and atmospheric electricity, since 1895. Professor of Natural Philosophy, University of Cambridge, 1925-34. Awarded Nobel Prize in Physics, 1927; also the Hughes Medal (1911), Royal Medal (1922), and Copley Medal (1935), of the Royal Soc.; Franklin Medal of the Franklin Inst. (1929). Fellow of the Royal Society since 1900 (Vice-President, 1928-29). Address: 196 Grange Loan, Edinburgh 9, Scotland.

WILSON, Dr. CURTIS LAWS, American Metallurgist; born Aug. 29, 1898, Baltimore, Md.; son of Eugene Lee and Josephine Amelia (Seibert) Wilson; educated at Montana School of Mines, E.M. 1920; Columbia University, 1923, 1924; Ph.D., University of Göettingen, 1928; married Ruth Marion Range, June 8, 1922; one daughter. Metallurgical Engineer, 1920. Assistant Research Engineer, Anaconda Copper Mining Co., Anaconda, Mont., 1920-21. Instructor, Montana School of Mines, 1921; Asst. Professor, Associate Professor and Professor of Metallurgy, until 1941; Dean, Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy, since 1941. Co-author: Metallurgy of Copper, 1942. Address: School of Mines and Metallurgy, Rolla, Mo.

WILSON, Hon. DAVID, New Zealand Political Leader; born July 6, 1880, Glasgow, Scotland; son of William John Wilson; educated at State Primary School of Glasgow; married Rosa Wright, Sept. 3, 1903; two children. Began career in 1891 as a tailor's cutter and designer, 1891; President of the Tailor and Tailoresses Union, 1891; later Secretary, Trades Council in Derby, England. Went to Auckland, New Zealand, where President, Cutters and Pressers Union; Secretary of Labor Representation Committee. Became National Secretary of The New Zealand Labour Party at Wellington, N.Z. Delegate to World Migration and Labour Congress held in London (1926). Member, Legislative Council, 1937; Leader, Legislative Council, 1939. Member War Council, 1940-42; Minister of the Crown, 1939-44; Minister of Man Power, 1940; Minister of Immigration, 1940-44; Associate Minister, National Service, 1940; Minister of Broadcasting, 1941-44; Civil Defense, 1942-44; Minister of Fire and Life Insurance Departments, 1940-44; Chairman, War Publicity Committee, 1940-44; resigned posts in 1944. High Commissioner of New Zealand in Canada, 1944-47. Delegate, United Nations Conf. on Internatl. Org., San Francisco, 1945; U. N. Gen. Assembly, N. Y., 1946. Vice-Chmn., U. N. Social Commission, 1947. Awarded Coronation Medal. Author: History in the Making, 1937; What New Zealand Labor Means to You (Pamphlet), 1938. Residence: 40 Everest St., Khandallah, N. 5, New Zealand.

WILSON, Dr. DAVID WRIGHT; American Physiological Chemist; born Jan. 4, 1889, Knoxville, Iowa; son of James E. and Katherine (Wright) Wilson; educated at Grinnell College, B.S. 1910; Univ. of Illinois, M.S. 1912; Yale Univ., Ph.D. 1914; married Helene Connet, Nov. 24, 1921; two children. Asst., Assoc. and Assoc. Prof. of Physiological Chemistry, Johns Hopkins Medical School, 1914-22. Prof. of Physiological Chemistry, Univ. of Pennsylvania, since 1922. Member: Amer. Soc. of Biological Chemists; Amer. Physiological Soc.; Amer. Chemical Soc.; Soc. for Experimental Biology and Medicine, etc. Author of numerous papers in scientific journals. 1st Lieut. and Capt., Chemical Warfare Service, World War I. Address: 37th and Hamilton Walk, Philadelphia, Pa.

WILSON, Hon. EARL, U. S. Congressman; born April 18, 1906, Huron, Indiana; son of James E. and Anna (Hill) Wilson; educated at Coyne Electrical School, 1927; Indiana University, A.B. 1931, M.S. 1938; attended Purdue University, 1936; married Elsie Bex, June 15, 1931; two children. School Instructor and Administrator, 1931-40. Elected to U.S. House of Representatives since 1940. Residence: Bedford, Ind. Office: 1338 New House Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WILSON, Dr. E(DGAR) BRIGHT, JR., American Chemist; born Dec. 18, 1908, Gallatin, Tenn.; son of E. Bright and Alma (Lackey) Wilson; educated at Princeton Univ., B.S. 1930, M.A. 1931; California Inst. of Technology, Ph.D. 1933; Hon. A.M., Harvard Univ., 1942; married Emily Buckingham, 1935; three children. Research Fellow, California Inst. of Technology, 1933-34; Junior Fellow, Soc. of Fellows, Harvard Univ., 1934-36; Asst. Prof., Harvard Univ., 1936-39; Prof. since 1939. Research Director, Underwater Explosives Research Laboratory, Woods Hole, 1942-43; Chief of Division 2, Natl. Defense Research Com., 1944-46. Received Amer. Chemical Soc. Award, 1937. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Physical Soc.; Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Amer. Academy of Arts and Sciences; National Academy of Sciences. Author: Introduction to Quantum Mechanics (with Linus Pauling); also papers on molecular structure, infra-red spectra and physical chemistry. Address: 12 Oxford St., Cambridge 38, Mass.

WILSON, EDMUND, American Writer; born 1895. Author: Discordant Encounters (plays and dialogues), 1926; I Thought of Daisy, 1929; Axel's Castle (a study in the imaginative literature of 1870-1930), 1931; The American Jitters (a year of the slump), 1932; This Room and This Gin and These Sandwiches (three plays), 1937; The Triple Thinkers (ten essays on literature), 1938; Karl Marx (play), 1938; To the Finland Station (a study in the writing and acting of history), 1940; The Wound and the Bow (seven studies in literature), 1941; The Boys in the Back Room (notes on California novelists), 1941; Note-Books of Night, 1942; Ellen Terhune, 1942; Memoirs of Hecate County, 1946; Europe Without Baedeker (sketches among the ruins of Italy, Greece and England), 1st edition, 1947, etc. Address: c/o Doubleday & Co., Inc., Garden City, New York.

WILSON, Rev. Dr. EDMUND GRAHAM, American Clergyman; born in Philadelphia, Pa., June 2, 1884; son of Louis Martin and Annie Eliza (Smith) Wilson; educated at Lafayette College, B.A. 1907, M.A. 1917, D.D. 1931; Hartford Theological Seminary, B.D. 1910; New York Univ., D.D. 1931; Grove City College, LL.D. 1937; married Clara Rice, June 2, 1908; one son and one daughter. Religious Work Secy., West Side Y.M.C.A., New York City, 1910-17; Executive Secy., 1917-26. Treas., Board of Natl. Missions, Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., 1926-30; General Secy. since 1930. Member, General Council, Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., since 1930; on Board of Directors, Amer. Com. for Christian Refugees (Chairman of Executive Com.). Author: Religious Work Directorship of the Young Men's Christian Assn. Address: 156 5th Ave., New York, N. Y.

WILSON, EDWARD ARTHUR, American Illustrator and Painter; born March 4, 1886, Glasgow, Scotland; son of Edward Joseph and E. Evangeline (Murray) Wilson; educated at Art Institute of Chicago and under Howard Pyle; married Dorothy Roe, Oct. 24, 1913; two daughters. Held one-man show at Architectural League, 1926, and Illustrators, 1930; participated in national exhibitions. President, Artists Guild, 1934; 1st Vice-President, Illustrators, 1930-31. Awards: Isidor Prize, Shaw Prize, Award of Merit, Bookplate Institute; Art Directors Medal, 1926; 1st Hon. Mention, 1924; A.D. Medal, 1930; Hon. Mention, Chicago Art Directors, 1943. Author and Illustrator: The Pirates Treasure, 1926; Blow High Blow Low, 1941. Illustrator: Iron Men and Wooden Ships; Full and By; The Magnificent Idler; Two Years Before the Mast; The Last of the Mohicans; The Hunting of the Shark; Green Mansions; The Shropshire Lad; The Man Without A Country; Backwater Voyage; Anthony Adverse; Ranging the Maine Coast; Wings for Words; The Tempest; Treasure Island; Longfellow's Poems; Jane Eyre, etc. Residence: (summer) Truro, Mass. Office: 3406-81st St., Jackson Heights, L. I., N. Y.

WILSON, Dr. EDWARD HARLAN, American Orthopedic Surgeon; born May 31, 1891, Columbus, Ohio; son of Edward James and Ida (Tudor) Wilson; educated at Dartmouth College, B.S. 1915; Harvard Med. School, M.D. 1920; married Dorothy Hewitt, Oct. 7, 1922; three children. Prof. of Orthopedic Surg., College of Med., Ohio State Univ.; Senior Orthopedic Surgeon to University, Children's and Mt. Carmel Hosps.; Hon. Fellow of Exeter College; Chief Surgeon at Amer. Hosp. in Britain, 1942. Chairman of Med. Adv. Bd., State Rehabilitation Council; Member of Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Orthopedic Assn.; Amer. Acad. of Orthopedic Surgeons; Clinical Orthopedic Soc. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons. Certified by Amer. Bd. of Orthopedic Surg., 1936. Author of articles in current medical journals. Address: 395 E. Broad St., Columbus, Ohio.

WILSON, Dr. EDWIN BIDWELL, American Statistician; born 1879; received A.B. and Ph.D. degrees. Prof. of Vital Statistics, Emeritus, Harvard University. Fellow, American Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Member: American Philosophical Soc.; National Acad. of Sciences. Author: The Revolution of a Dark Particle About a Luminous Center, 1907; Note on Statistical Mechanics, 1908; On the Principle of Relativity, 1908; The Equilibrium of a Heavy Homogeneous Chain in a Uniformly Rotating Plane, 1908; Advanced Calculus, 1912; Aeronautics (a class text), 1920; Least Squares and Laws of Population Growth, 1933. Residence: 42 Brington Rd., Brookline, Mass.

WILSON, EDWIN CARLETON, American Ambassador to Turkey; born Feb. 7, 1893, Palatka, Fla.; educated at University of Michigan, 1911-14, and Harvard, 1914. Ambulance service in France, 1915-16; Second Lieut., U. S. Army, 1917-19. In diplomatic service since 1920; served at Santiago, Tegucigalpa, Paris; Minister to Uruguay, 1939; Adviser to American Delegation, Meeting of Foreign Ministers of American Republic for Consultation, Panama, 1939; Chairman of American Delegation to 5th Pan-American Congress of Architects, Montevideo, 1940; Ambassador to Panama, 1941; U. S. Representative, with rank of Ambassador, to Politico-Military Commission at Algiers, Oct. 1943; U. S. Representative, with rank of Ambassador, to French Committee of National Liberation at Algiers, Nov. 1943; Director, Office of Special Political Affairs, Department of State, May, 1944; Member of U. S. group, Dumbarton Oaks Conversations on International Organization, Washington, 1944; Ambassador to Turkey since 1944. Chief of U. S. Mission supervising expenditure of $100,000,000 voted by U. S. Congress to aid Turkey, 1947—. Address: American Embassy, Ankara, Turkey.

WILSON, EUGENE EDWARD, American Aviation Executive; born Aug. 21, 1887, Dayton, Wash.; son of Eugene Talmadge and Clara (Pomeroy) Wilson; educated at U. S. Naval Acad., Annapolis, Md., 1904-08; Columbia, A.M. 1915; Trinity College, Hon. D.Sc. 1942; Hon. D.Eng., Rensselaer Polytechnic Inst., 1944, and Worcester Polytechnic Inst., 1946; married Genevieve Speer, Feb. 7, 1911. Served in U. S. Navy, 1904-30, from Ensing through grades to Commander; resigned in 1930. Formerly Dir. and Vice-Chmn. of United Aircraft Corp.; now Chmn., Bd. of Govs., Aircraft Industries Assn. of America. Director: Hartford National Bank & Trust Co.; Dime Savings Bank; Aetna Life Ins. Co. and Affiliated companies of Hartford, Conn.; Southern New England Telephone Co.; Hartford Electric Light Co. Author: Air Power for Peace, 1946. Residence: 22 Fernwood Rd., W. Hartford 5, Conn. Office: Aircraft Industries Assn., Washington, District of Columbia.

WILSON, Dr. EUGENE HOLT, American Librarian; born May 13, 1909, Harrison, Ark.; son of Claude E. and Hester (Holt) Wilson; educated at Univ. of Arkansas; Arkansas State Teachers College, B.A. 1930; Univ. of Illinois, B.S. 1932, M.A. 1933, Ph.D. 1937; Yale Univ., 1940-41; married Jane M. Stoddard, Aug. 10, 1937; three children. Cataloguer, Univ. of Illinois Library, 1933-37; Librarian, Ohio Wesleyan Univ., 1937-38; Asst. Librarian, Iowa State College, 1938-42; Chief, Division of Technical Processes, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture Library, 1943; Director of Libraries, Univ. of Colorado, since 1943; Director, Summer Session, since 1946; Instructor, Columbia Univ. School of Library Service, summer 1946. Member: Bibliographical Soc. of Amer; Amer. Library Assn.; Special Libraries Assn.; Colorado Library Assn. (Pres. 1946); Amer. Assn. of Univ. Profs. Contributor to professional journals. Address: University of Colorado, Boulder, Colo.

WILSON, Hon. FRANCIS STEVENS, American Jurist; born February 7, 1872, Youngstown, Ohio; son of Hon. David M. and Griselda E. (Campbell); educated at Western Reserve University (Cleveland) LL.B., 1896; married Caroline E. Siegfried, Nov. 18, 1903; two sons. Began law career 1896. Nominated for Judge of Probate Court (Mahoning County, Ohio), 1896; removed to Chicago, 1897; nominated for Judge, Municipal Court of Chicago on independent ticket, 1906; County Attorney, Cook County, 1911-12. Member, law firm of Darrow, Masters & Wilson for a number of years; Felsenthal & Wilson, until 1920. Judge, Circuit Court, Cook County, 1920; appointed Justice, Appellate Court, 1st Illinois District, 3rd Div., 1927; presiding Justice, 1930. Justice, Supreme Court of Illinois since 1936. Residence: 1340 E. 48th St. Office: 30 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

WILSON, FRANK J., American Security Official; born May 19, 1887, Buffalo, New York; son of John F. and Mary A. (McGreevy) Wilson; educated at the University of Buffalo; married Judith M. Barbaux, Oct. 27, 1926. Chief Investigator, U. S. Food Administration, 1917-18; Special Agent in charge of Intelligence Unit, U. S. Treasury Department, 1920-36; Chief, U. S. Secret Service, 1936-46; Consultant, U. S. Atomic Energy Commn., 1947. Member, Executive Committee, International Assn. of Chiefs of Police, since 1938; Hon. Member, Chief Constables Assn. of Canada since 1941. Served in the U. S. Army, World War I. Residence: Miami, Fla. Office: U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D. C.

WILSON, Dr. FRANK N(ORMAN), American Professor of Medicine; born Nov. 19, 1890, Wayne County, Mich.; son of Norman O. and Mary (Holtz) Wilson; educated at Univ. of Mich., B.S. 1911, M.D. 1913; married Juel A. Mahoney, Aug. 6, 1914; one daughter. Asst. in Medicine, Univ. of Mich., 1913; Instr., 1914-16, and at Washington Univ., 1916-20; served as 1st Lieut. and Capt., Med. Corps, U. S. Army, 1917-19. Returned to Univ. of Mich. as Assoc. Prof. of Med. in 1920, and has been full Prof. since 1924. Fellow of American College of Physicians, Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Science, and Amer. Med. Assn. Member of many medical and scientific organizations. Author of some 90 articles dealing with various aspects of electro-cardiography. Residence: 804 Lawrence St. Office: University Hospital, Ann Arbor, Mich.

WILSON, Dr. FRANK PERCY, British University Professor; born Oct. 11, 1889; educated at Univ. of Birmingham, D.Litt.; Univ. of Oxford, B.Litt. and M.A.; married Joanna Perry-Keene, 1924; four children. Lecturer at Birmingham Univ., 1919-21; Lecturer and later Reader, Univ. of Oxford, 1921-29; Prof. of English Literature, Univ. of Leeds, 1929-36; Visiting Scholar, Huntington Library, California, 1933; Carnegie Visiting Prof., Columbia Univ. and Smith College, 1943. Alexander Lecturer, Univ. of Toronto, 1943; Hildred Carlile Prof. of English Literature, Univ. of London, 1936-46; Merton Prof. of English Literature, Univ. of Oxford, since 1947. Fellow, British Acad. Author: Shakespeare and the Diction of Common Life, 1941; Elizabethan and Jacobean, 1945, etc. Served as Lieut. in Royal Warwickshire Regt. Address: Merton College, Oxford, England.

WILSON, Dr. FREDERICK TAYLOR, American Lawyer, Author, Lecturer; born Nov. 10, 1881, Carthage, Tenn.; son of John Burr and Elenora (Kelly) Wilson; educated at Vanderbilt Univ., B.A., 1910; Houston School of Law, LL.B. 1916; LL.D., John R. Neal College of Law, Knoxville, Tenn., 1941; Litt.D., Salem (W. Va.) College, 1943; married Irene Davis, Oct. 25, 1911; one son. Began as page, Tennessee House of Representatives, 1901; served as Assistant Clerk of the House in 1905, 1907, 1909, and as Chief Clerk in 1911. During 1905-12 he was Field Representative, Belmont College for Young Ladies, Nashville, Tenn. He was Anti Ku Klux candidate for County Judge, Harris County, Texas, in 1924. In 1916 and during 1918-19 he was Teacher of History, Central High School, Houston, Texas, and Member of the Faculty, Houston Law School, 1929-31. He served as Government Attorney in Washington and Chicago from May, 1934 to August, 1936. Since 1936 engaged in special research at Library of Congress and lecture work at schools, colleges and civic clubs. Ex-President, Tennessee Land Co., the Belle-Court Land Co., and the Capitol Lumber Co., Houston, Texas. Author: Select After Dinner Stories, 1923; Pen Pictures of the Presidents, 1932; Our Constitution and Its Makers, 1937; These Three Alone, 1941 (last three books have been put into Braille. Private research address: Library of Congress, Washington, D. C. Offices: 356 W. 34th St., New York, N. Y.; 826 So. Wabash, Chicago, Ill.

WILSON, GEORGE A., American Attorney-at-Law; born Feb. 1, 1910, Mansfield, La.; son of George and Elizabeth (Pitts) Wilson; educated at Centenary College, A.B. 1930; Tulane Univ. of La., LL.B. 1933. Prof. of Law, Tulane Univ. College of Law, 1933-41. Sterling Lecturer in Law, Yale Law School, 1938. Special Asst. Attorney General, State of La., and General Counsel, Louisiana Dept. of Minerals, 1940-41. Chief Counsel, Standard Oil Co. of La., Shreveport, 1941-45; while on leave-of-absence, served as a member of staff, Petroleum Administration for War, 1942-45; Natl. Director, Petroleum Supply and Transportation, 1943-45. Pres., Interstate Natural Gas Co. Inc., since Jan. 1946. Member, Executive Com., La. Civil Service League; Trustee, Tulane Law Review Assn., 1938-42; Member, Council of La. State Law Inst.; Member and Director, Executive Com., Mid-Continental Oil and Gas Assn. Member: Amer. Gas Assn.; Amer. Petroleum Inst.; Amer. and Louisiana State Bar Assns. Address: 444 Florida Street, Baton Rouge, La.

WILSON, Hon. GEORGE ALLISON, U. S. Senator; born near Menlo, Iowa, Apr. 1, 1884; son of James H. and Martha G. (Varley) Wilson; educated at Grinnell College; University of Iowa; married Mildred Zehner, Dec. 8, 1921; four children. Began practice of law, 1907. Served as Assistant County Attorney and County Attorney, and as a District Court Judge. Member, State Senate of Iowa, 1925-36. Governor of Iowa, 1939-43; United States Senator since 1943. Residence: 704 Dorset Ave., Kenwood, Chevy Chase, Md. Office: 362 Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WILSON, Dr. GEORGE GRAFTON, American Professor of International Law; born March 29, 1863, Fairfield, Connecticut; son of Archibald A. and Betsey (Brown) Wilson; educated at Brown University, A.B. 1886, A.M. 1888, Ph.D. in 1889, LL.D. 1911; LL.D. from University of Vermont, 1911; University of Hawaii, 1937; studied at Heidelberg, Berlin, Paris, and Oxford, 1890, 1891. Married Elizabeth Rose, June 30, 1891 (deceased 1941); four children. Professor at Brown, 1891, came to Harvard 1910; Professor Emeritus since 1936. Member, Faculty, Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy since 1933. Taught at U. S. Naval War College, 1900-37, University of Hawaii, 1937. American Delegate Plenipotentiary, London Naval Conference, 1908-09. Exchange Professor to France, 1912-13; American Commissioner, U. S. and Netherlands, 1928. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Author: International Law (Wilson & Tucker), 9 editions; International Law (Hornbook Series), 3 editions; International Law, Naval War College, 36 volumes. Editor-in-Chief, American Journal of International Law, 1924-43. Residence: Grafton, Vt. Address: Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass

WILSON, Dr. GODFREY HAROLD ALFRED, British Educator; born Oct. 29, 1871, Victoria, Australia; son of Daniel and Alice (Jackson) Wilson; educated at Trinity College, Univ. of Melbourne, 1889-92; Clare College, Univ. of Cambridge, 1892-96, M.A. (5th Wrangler, 1895); Durham Univ., Hon. D.C.L.; married Margaret Mabel Bartlett, 1899. Fellow, Clare College, Cambridge, 1897. Fellow and Mathematical Lecturer, Clare College, 1899-1914; Bursar of College, 1912-24; Treas., Cambridge Univ., 1922-29; Master of Clare College, 1929-39. Member of Parliament for Cambridge Univ., 1929-35; Vice-Chancellor of Cambridge, 1935-37; retired 1939. Fellow of Clare College, Cambridge; Chairman of Court, Durham Univ., England, 1938-46; Chairman of Governing Body, Lowther College, North Wales. Created O.B.E. (Military), 1919 Served with General Staff, War Office, 1914-19; in France during 1918-19; rank of Brevet Lt. Col. Address: Hemingford Grey, Huntingdon, England.

WILSON, Dr. GRAHAM SELBY, British Bacteriologist; born Sept. 10, 1895, Newcastle-on-Tyne; son of Ralph Graham Ward and Elizabeth Caroline (Dalgliesh) Wilson; educated at Epsom College; King's College, London; Charing Cross Hospital; M.B., B.S. 1916, M.D. 1919, F.R.C.P. 1930, D.P.H. 1920; married Mary Joyce Ayrton, Jan. 12, 1924; two children. With Royal Army Medical Corps, 1916; Specialist in Vaccine Dept., Royal Army Medical College, 1919-20; Demonstrator in Bacteriology, Charing Cross Hospital Medical School, 1920-22; Lecturer in Bacteriology, Dept. of Public Health and Preventive Medicine, Univ. of Manchester, 1923-27; Reader in Bacteriology, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, 1927-30; Prof. of Bacteriology as applied to hygiene, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, since 1930; Director of Emergency Public Health Laboratory Service (Medical Research Council) since 1941. Hon. Physician to H.M. the King, 1944. Member: Council, Royal College of Physicians, 1938-40; Pathological Soc. of Great Britain and Ireland, etc. Awarded Gold Medal, Charing Cross Hospital, 1916; University Gold Medal, 1916; William Julius Mickle Fellowship, Univ. of London, 1939; Weber-Parkes Prize, Royal College of Physicians, 1942. Author: Tuberculous Bacillaemia (Medical Research Council), 1933. Co-author: The Principles of Bacteriology and Immunity, 1929 (3rd ed. 1946); The Bacteriological Grading of Milk (Medical Research Council), 1935; The Pasteurization of Milk, 1942; also numerous papers in various scientific publications. Lieut., R.A.M.C., 1916-17; Capt., 1917-20; received General Service Medal, Overseas Medal and Coronation Medal (1937). Address: Medical Research Council, 38 Old Queen St., London, S.W.1, England.

WILSON, Dr. HAROLD ALBERT, American Physicist; born Dec. 1, 1874, York, England; son of Albert W. and Ann (Gill) Wilson; educated at Leeds Univ., M.Sc. 1897; Cambridge Univ., M.A. 1904; London Univ., D.Sc. 1904; Univ. of Berlin. Fellow, Trinity College, Cambridge, 1901-07; Prof. of Physics, King's College, 1905-09; at McGill Univ., 1909-12; Prof. of Physics, Rice Inst., since 1912; Prof. of Natural Philosophy, Glasgow Univ. (Scotland), 1925-26. Technical Expert on anti-submarine devices with U. S. Navy, 1917-19. Research Physicist with O.S.R.D., working on atomic bomb problems, 1942-43. Member: Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Amer. Physical Soc.; Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Royal Soc. of London; Physical Soc. of London; Société de Physique de France. Author: Electrical Properties of Flames (1912); Experimental Physics (1914); Mysteries of Atoms (1934); Modern Physics (1928); Electricity (1940); "Electricity" in the Encyclopedia Britannica, etc. Address: Rice Institute, Houston, Texas.

WILSON, Rt. Rev. HENRY ALBERT, Anglican Bishop; born Sept. 6, 1876, Port Bannatyne, Bute, Scotland; son of Thomas Alexander and Mary (Proctor) Wilson; educated at Corpus Christi College, Cambridge; married Dorothy Mary Daniels, 1905; four children. Ordained priest of Church of England, Dec. 21, 1899. Curate, Christ Church, Hampstead, 1899-1904; Vicar, St. Peters, Norbiton, 1904-06; Rector and Rural Dean of Cheltenham, 1916-29; Chaplain to Bishop of Gloucester; Canon, Gloucester Cathedral, 1934; now Bishop of Chelmsford. Author: Episcopacy and Unity, 1916; It Can Happen Here, 1942; Your Faith or Your Life, 1940; Christian in World of Tomorrow, 1943. Address: Bishops Court, Chelmsford, England.

WILSON, Lord, (HENRY MAITLAND), G.B.E., K.C.B., D.S.O., A.D.C., British Field Marshal; born 1881, Stowlangtoft Hall, Suffolk, England; educated at Eton; married Hester Mary Wykeham, 1914. Joined Rifle Brigade, 1900; saw service in Boer War; during World War I, served in France and Belgium, 1915-18; mentioned in despatches three times; advanced to the rank of Lieut.-Colonel; Brigadier, 1934; Major-General, 1935; Commander, Britain's first fully mechanized brigade; promoted to Lieut.-General, 1938; organized defense of the Western Desert, 1939; commanded Britain's Nile Army; Military Governor of Cyrenaica; Commander, British troops in Greece; in charge of British forces in Palestine and Trans-Jordan; occupation of Syria; Commander-in-Chief, newly formed Ninth Army, 1941; Commander, British Forces, Iraq and Persia, 1942; Commander-in-Chief, Middle East, Feb. 1943; appointed Supreme Allied Commander in the Mediterranean Theatre, Jan. 1944. Field Marshal, 1945. Head of Joint Staff Mission. Address: War Office. London, England.

WILSON, Dr. HOWARD EUGENE, American Educator; born Oct. 10, 1901, Bluffs, Ill.; son of J. Frank and Bella (Vandeventer) Wilson; educated at Illinois College, 1919-21; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.B. 1923, M.A. in History, 1928; Harvard Univ., Ed.D. 1931; married Florence Heden, Aug. 7, 1926; two children. Teacher, High School, Stevens Point, Wis., 1923. Instructor, Laboratory Schools, Univ. of Chicago, 1925-28. Instructor, Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof., Harvard Graduate School of Education, 1928-45. Asst. Dir., 1945-47; Assoc. Dir., Division of Education, Carnegie Endowment for Internatl. Peace, since 1947. On leave as Deputy Executive Secy., Preparatory Commission, UNESCO, 1946. Dir., UNESCO Summer Seminar on Education, 1947. Editor, Harvard Educational Review 1937-45. Pres., 1934, and now Member, Bd. of Dirs., National Council for Social Studies. Chairman, Commission on Education, National Conf. of Christians and Jews, 1943-47. Chairman, Com. on Asiatic Studies, Amer. Council on Education, since 1941 (Secy., 1945-47; Chmn., Com. on Internatl. Education). Co-Secy., Canada-United States Com. of Education, since 1944. Member: National Council for Social Studies; National Education Assn.; American Historical Assn. Fellow, Amer. Geographical Soc. Author: Mary McDowell, Neighbor, 1929; Fusion of Social Studies in Junior High Schools, 1933; Education for Citizens, 1937; Our Ways of Living Series, 1937; This America, 1942; Latin America in School and College Teaching Materials, 1943; American History, 1947. Residence: 460 Riverside Drive. Office: Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, 405 West 117th St., New York 27, New York.

WILSON, IRVING WHITE, American Industrialist; born Sept. 26, 1890, Bloomington, Ill.; son of J. J. S. and Lucy (White) Wilson; educated at Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1911; married Catherine Whalen, 1917; three daughters. With Aluminum Co. of America since 1911; started in Niagara Falls plant; Asst. Supt. of Reduction in Massena (N. Y.) plant, 1915; transferred to Niagara Falls plant, 1919; joined the Pittsburgh office, 1920; General Supt. of Reduction Plants, 1921; elected Vice-Pres. in Charge of Operations, 1931, also a Director. Vice-Pres. and Dir. of a number of subsidiaries of Aluminum Co. of America. During First World War served in charge of detachments of Chemical Warfare Service at Philadelphia and Astoria, L. I. Major, U. S. Army, 1917-19. Residence: 1201 Murrayhill Ave. Office: 801 Gulf Bldg., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

WILSON, JAMES, O.B.E., Canadian Industrialist; born March 5, 1875, Sanquhar, Scotland; son of James R. and Agnes (Smith) Wilson; educated at Crichton School, Sanquhar; married Muriel Forbes Weir, 1909; one son. With Royal Bank of Scotland, Sanquhar, Scotland, 1891; Mercantile Bank of India, London, England, serving as clerk 1897; Drummond McCall and Co., Montreal, Quebec. Chief Accountant, The Shawinigan Water and Pipe Co., Montreal, 1911; Secy., 1914; Secy. and Dir., 1930; Vice-Pres., Secy. and Dir., 1933; Vice-Pres., General Manager and Dir., 1937; Pres. since 1939. President: United Securities Limited; The Canadian Light and Power Co.; St. Maurice Power Corp. and Quebec Power Co.; chief executive of other associated and affiliated companies; Member of Advisory Board, Sun Insurance Office Limited and its affiliated companies. Director: Montreal Trust Co.; Saguenay Power Co. Ltd.; Dominion Bridge Co., Ltd.; Dominion Engineering Works, Ltd.; Provincial Transport Co.; Montreal Tramways Co.; Boys' Farm and Training School, Shawbridge, P. Q. Governor: The Montreal General Hosp.; Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital; McGill Univ. Hon. Treas., Montreal Anti-Tuberculosis League. Residence: 488 Mount Pleasant Ave., Westmount 6, P. Q. Office: 107 Craig St., W., Montreal, Que., Canada.

WILSON, Hon. JAMES CLIFTON, U. S. District Judge; born June 21, 1874, Palo Pinto, Tex.; son of Tom and Margaret (Loving) Wilson; educated at University of Texas, LL.B. 1896; married Esther English, Dec. 19, 1905; three children. Began practice of law, 1896; appointed Assistant County Attorney of Parker Co., 1898; County Attorney, 1902; Assistant District Attorney of Tarrant Co., Tex., at Fort Worth, 1912; U. S. District Attorney, Northern District of Texas, 1913; elected to the U. S. House of Representatives, 1916; re-elected 1918. U. S. District Judge for Northern District of Texas, since 1919. Residence: Worth Hotel. Office: U. S. Courthouse, Fort Worth 2, Texas.

WILSON, JAMES EDWARD, American Engineer; born Nov. 6, 1906, Cleveland, O.; son of Edward and Helene (Rhinelander) Wilson; educated at Mich. State Teachers College, Ypsilanti, 1923-24; Western St. Teachers College, 1925; University of Chile, 1925-26; Univ. of Mich.; married Louise Pollard, June 27, 1929; one son. Engineer, Chile Exploration Corp., 1925-28; Chief, Inspector, Reo Motor Car Co., 1928-30; Sales Manager, Standard Oil Co., 1930-35; Division Manager, Airtemp Div., Chrysler Corp., 1935-41; Vice-President, Public Service Oil Co., 1941; Deputy Regional Director, War Production Board, 1941-44. Member of National Council, Boy Scouts of America; Member Board of Directors, Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts; Chairman of Camping and Activities, Detroit Area Counncil, Boy Scouts. Member, Mayor's Fact-Finding Committee, 1943; Detroit Victory Council, 1944, and Inter-Allied South American Safety Council. Member, Detroit Board of Commerce; Honorary Member, Electrical Assn. of Detroit. Now Pres., Mich. Engineering & Mfg. Co. Residence: 15781 Ferguson Ave. Office: 604 Maccabees Bldg., Detroit 2, Mich.

WILSON, JAMES HAROLD, Member of British Parliament; born Mar. 11, 1916, Milnsbridge, Yorkshire, England; son of James Herbert and Ethel (Seddon) Wilson; educated at Jesus College, Oxford, 1934-37, Gladstone Memorial Prize; married Gladys Mary Baldwin, Jan. 1, 1940; one son. Lecturer in Economics, New College, Oxford, 1937; Fellow, University College, 1938; Praelector in Economics and Domestic Bursar, 1945. Economic Asst., War Cabinet Secretariat, 1940-41; in Ministry of Labour and Mines Dept.; Director, Economics and Statistics, Ministry of Fuel Power, 1943-44; Joint Secy., Greene Board of Investigation into Miners Wages; Joint Secy., Anglo-American Coal Com. Member of Parliament for Ormskirk since July, 1945; Parliamentary Secy., Ministry of Works, 1945-47; Secy. of Overseas Trade, 1947; Pres., Board of Trade, 1947—. Awarded O.B.E. Author: New Deal for Coal, 1945. Residence: 133 Banbury Road, Oxford. Office: Board of Trade, London, England.

WILSON, Dr. JAMES WALTER, American Biologist; born June 17, 1896, Manchester, N. H.; son of James Walter and Genieve Beatrice (Knight) Wilson; educated at Brown Univ., Ph.B. 1918, Ph.D. 1921; married Hope Elizabeth Burgess, 1922; one daughter. Instructor in Biology, Brown Univ., 1921-22; Asst. Prof. of Biology, 1922-29; Assoc. Prof., 1929-44; Prof. of Biology and Chairman of Dept. since 1944. Instructor at Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y. (biological laboratory), 1919-24. Member, Corp. of Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Mass. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Soc. of Experimental Biology and Medicine; Soc. for the Study and Development of Growth; History of Science Soc., etc. Author of various papers in Journal of Experimental Zoology, Journal of Biological Chemistry, Journal of General Physiology, Isis, Annals of Medical History. Address: Brown University, Providence 12, Rhode Island.

WILSON, Rev. Dr. JESSE R., American Clergyman; born May 22, 1892, Fort Worth, Texas; son of Nathaniel and Jessie R. (Pierce) Wilson; educated at Univ. of Texas, A.B. 1915; Southern Baptist Theological Seminary; Yale Univ. Divinity School, B.D. 1921; Berkeley Baptist Divinity School, D.D. 1937; married Louise Perkins, Sept. 25, 1917; four children. Ordained Baptist Minister, 1917. State Student Secy., Y.M.C.A. in Texas, 1915-17; Travelling Secy., Student Volunteer Movement, 1919-20. Missionary to Japan, Amer. Baptist Foreign Mission Soc., 1921-26; Assoc. General Secy. of Student Volunteer Movement, 1926-27; General Secy., 1927-36. Assoc. Secy., Amer. Baptist Foreign Mission Soc., 1936-40; Home Secy. since 1940. Author: I Am a Christian, 1935; Forward Through the Ages, 1938; The Church Serves the World, 1941; Missionary Mosaic, 1944. Address: 152 Madison Ave., New York 16, N. Y.

WILSON, Dr. JOHN ALBERT, American Orientalist; graduated Princeton University; also received Ph.D. Chairman, Dept. of Oriental Languages and Literature, and Prof. of Egyptology at the Oriental Inst., Univ. of Chicago. Director, Chicago Oriental Inst., Univ. of Chicago, 1936-46. During World War II served with Office of Strategic Services and with the Cultural Relations Office of the State Dept. Address: Oriental Inst., Univ. of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

WILSON, JOHN ARMITSTEAD, Canadian Air Official; born November 2, 1879, Broughty Ferry, Scotland; son of William Brown Wilson and Ann Isabel (Wilson); educated at St. Andrew's University, 1900-01; married Henrietta Laetitia Tuzo, Nov. 12, 1907; three children. Began career as Mechanical Engineer, 1896; Engineer for Bird & Company, Calcutta, India, 1902-05; for National Cement Co., Ottawa, Canada, 1905-09. Director of Stores, Department of Naval Service, Ottawa, 1910-19; Assistant Deputy Minister, Dept. of Naval Service, Canada, 1918-20. Secretary, Canadian Air Board, 1920-22; Secretary, Royal Canadian Air Force, 1922-26. Controller of Civil Aviation, 1926-40. Director of Air Services, Department of Transport, 1941-45. Director, Trans-Canada Air Lines; Vice-President, Canadian Geographical Society. Secretary, Ottawa Branch of Canadian Institute of International Affairs, 1926-37; President, Ottawa Branch, 1937-38. Member, Engineering Institute of Canada. Awarded "Julian C. Smith" medal and Trans-Canada Trophy, 1944. Residence: 179 Rideau Terrace, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada.

WILSON, JOHN DOVER, C.H., British Educator; born July 13, 1881, London, England; educated at Lancing College; Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge, B.A. 1903, M.A. 1908; hon. Litt.D. Prof. of Education, Univ. of London, King's College, 1924-35; Chairman, Board of Studies in Pedagogy, Univ. of London, 1928-31.

Hon. Fellow, Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge. Regius Prof. of Rhetoric and English Literature, Univ. of Edinburgh, 1936-45. Trustee, Shakespeare's Birthplace, 1931—. Fellow, British Acad. Author of many works on Shakespeare. Address: Three Beeches, Balerno, Midlothian, Scotland.

WILSON, Dr. JOHN GRAHAM, American Physician; born Feb. 9, 1869, Factoryville, Pa.; son of Giles S. and Helen M. (Dean) Wilson; educated at Keystone Acad., 1889; Univ. of Mich., M.D. 1892; post-grad. work, London, 1913; Univ. of Pa. 1924; married Louise Kent, Nov. 24, 1897. In general practice of medicine since 1892, maintaining office at Montrose and Factoryville, Pa.; Chief of Tuberculosis Clinic, Montrose, Pa., 1910-18; Physician to Norristown State Hosp., 1920-27 and 1932-37. Pres., Factoryville Bd. of Educ.; Pa. State Med. Soc.; Amer. Psych. Assn.; Amer. Mus. of Nat. History (Assoc. Member); Masonic Order (Past Master); Odd Fellows; Factoryville Civic Club; Soc. of Mayflower Descendants, and Colonia Order of Crown (lineal descent from Emperor Charlemagne). Author: The Country Doctor (Jour. of Amer. Med. Assn.), May, 1906; Emergency Abdominal Surgery (Pa. Med. Jour.), Aug. 1910; A Junior College in Every County (Amer. Med., also N. Y. Times), Oct., 1933; Our Children, Their Evaluation (Norristown Times-Herald), July, 1936; The Psychological Approach to Religion, 1937; School Museum as an Aid to Visual Education (Bulletin of Pa. State School Directors Assn.), March, 1945; Farmer Gere's Wild Flower Garden, An Aid to Visual Education (Bulletin of Pa. State School Directors Assn.), 1945; Genealogies of Four Revolutionary Soldiers of Northeastern Pa., 1945. Address: 178 College Ave., Factoryville, Pa.

WILSON, JOHN McGREGOR, American Business Executive; born Sept. 30, 1889, St. Louis, Mo.; son of John McGregor and Bertha (Goetz) Wilson; educated at High School; married Nellie Gerring Reddish, March 8, 1913; one son. Associated with The National Cash Register Co. since 1911; served as officeman, salesman, 1911-14; Sales Agent, 1914-17; Division Manager, 1917-30; Accounting Machine Sales Manager, 1930-31; Division Manager, 1931-43; Vice-President in Charge of sales, 1943—. Director of Company and of Allen Wales Adding Machine Corp. Member: Amer. Management Assn., Amer. Marketing Assn.; Office Equipment Manufacturers' Inst.; U. S. Chamber of Commerce. Residence: 235 Maysfield Rd. Office: Main & K Sts., Dayton, Ohio.

WILSON, JOSEPH VIVIAN, New Zealand Political Leader; born 1894, New Zealand; educated in New Zealand; Trinity College, Cambridge. Member, New Zealand Expeditionary Force, 1915-19. Served as Asst. to Secy.-General and later head of Central Section, League of Nations Secretariat. Asst. Dir. of Research, Royal Inst. of International Affairs, London, 1940. Attached to Dept. of External Affairs, Wellington, N. Z., 1944—. Member, New Zealand Delegation, United Nations General Assembly, New York, 1946. Address: Department of External Affairs, Wellington, N. Z.

WILSON, LEROY A., American Utilities Executive; born Feb. 21, 1901, Terre Haute, Ind.; son of Garrett A. and Rose M. (Kerschner) Wilson; educated at Rose Polytechnic Inst., B.S. in C.E. 1922; married Blanche Willhide, Sept. 1, 1928; one daughter. Traffic Supervisor, Indiana Bell Co., 1922; District Traffic Supt., 1924; With American Telephone & Telegraph Co., New York City, since 1929, starting as engineer; Directory Engineer, 1939; Rate Engineer, 1940-42; Commercial Engineer, 1942-44; Assistant Vice-President, 1944; Vice-Pres., 1944-46; Financial Vice-Pres., 1946-48; Pres. and Dir., 1948—. Director: Chase Natl. Bank; Long Lines Dept., A. T. & T. Co.; Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Companies. Trustee, East River Savings Bank. Member, Local Non-Partisan Governing Board, Glen Ridge, N. J., since 1944. Chairman, National Interfraternity Conference, 1943-44; National President, Theta Kappa Nu, 1928-32. Residence: 136 Essex Ave., Glen Ridge, N. J. Office: 195 Broadway, New York 7, N. Y.

WILSON, Col. the Right Hon. Sir LESLIE ORME, British Administrator; born Aug. 1, 1876, London; son of late Henry Thomas Wilson and Ada Alexandrina Orme; educated at Royal Naval College, Greenwich; received hon. LL.D., University of Brisbane, 1935; married Winifred May, June 9, 1909; three children. A.D.C. to Governor of New South Wales, 1903-09. Contested Poplar Division of Tower Hamlets (U), 1910; Reading, 1910. Member of Parliament (U), Reading, 1913-22; South Portsmouth (C), 1922-23. Parliamentary Assistant Secretary to the War Cabinet, 1918; Chairman, National Maritime Board, 1919; Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Shipping, 1919; Parliamentary Secretary to the Treasury and Chief Unionist Whip, 1921-23. Governor of Bombay, 1923-28; Governor of Queensland, 1932-46. Made Privy Councillor, 1922; Knight Grand Commander, Star of India, 1929; Knight Grand Cross of St. Michael and St. George, 1937; Knight Grand Commander, Indian Empire, 1923; Companion of St. Michael and St. George, 1916; Knight of St. John of Jerusalem, etc. Address: Mount House, Wentworth, Surrey, England.

WILSON, Dr. LOGAN, American Sociologist; born Mar. 6, 1907, Huntsville, Tex.; son of Samuel Calhoun and Sammie (Logan) Wilson; M.A., Univ. of Texas, 1927; Harvard Univ., M.A. 1938, Ph.D. 1939; married Myra Marshall, 1932; two children. Asst. Prof., East Texas State College, 1927-30 and 1932-36; Research Asst., Harvard, 1936-37; Tutor, Harvard, 1937-39; Lecturer, Univ. of Texas, 1939 (summer); Assoc. Prof. of Sociology, Univ. of Maryland, 1939-41; Prof. of Sociology and Head of Dept., Tulane Univ., 1941-43; Prof. of Sociology and Head of Dept., Univ. of Kentucky, 1943-44; Prof. of Sociology and Dean of Newcomb College, Tulane Univ., since 1944. Member: Amer. Palestine Com.; Amer. Acad. of Political and Social Science; Amer. Sociological Soc.; Southern Sociological Soc.; Sociology Soc., etc. Author: The Academic Man, 1942; Twentieth Century Sociology (contributor), 1945. Contributor to Amer. Social Review, Social Forces, Sociology and Social Research, Journal of Social Philosophy, Journal of Criminology, etc. Address: Newcomb College, Tulane Univ., New Orleans, La.

WILSON, Dr. LOUIS ROUND, American Professor of Library Science; born Dec. 27, 1876, Lenoir, N. C.; son of Jethro Reuben and Louisa Jane (Round) Wilson; educated at Haverford College, 1895-98, LL.D. 1932; Univ. of North Carolina, A.B. 1899, A.M. 1902, Ph.D. 1905, LL.D. 1934; Univ. of Denver, Litt.D. 1932; Columbia Univ., summer 1910; married Penelope Bryan Wright, June 10, 1909; four children. Librarian, Univ. of North Carolina, 1901-32; Assoc. Prof. of Library Administration, 1907-12; Prof. of Library Administration, 1912-20; Kenan Prof. of Library Administration, 1920-32; Director, Bureau of Extension, 1912-21; Dir. of School of Library Science, 1931-32; Dean, Graduate Library School, Univ. of Chicago, 1932-42; Dir. of Univ. of North Carolina Press, 1922-32. Prof. of Library Science, Univ. of North Carolina, since 1942. Chairman, North Carolina Library Commn., 1909-16; Delegate to British Library Assn. Member, Com. of Internatl. Federation of Library Assns., 1931; Delegate to Internatl. Congress of Librarians and Bibliography, Madrid, 1935. Member: Amer. Library Assn. (Pres. 1935-36); North Carolina Library Assn. (Pres. 1910, 1921-23 and 1929-31); Southeastern Library Assn. (Pres. 1924-26); Assn. of Amer. Library Schools (Pres. 1938-39). Author: Chaucer's Relative Constructions, 1906; The Geography of Reading, 1938; County Library Service in the South (with E. A. Wight), 1935; Library Planning, 1944; University Library Administration (with M. F. Tauben), 1945, etc. Assoc. Editor, Studies in Philology, 1910-14; Journal of Social Forces, 1922-32; Member of Editorial Board, Library Quarterly, since 1932, and of Journal of Adult Education, 1931-41, and College of Reference Libraries, 1939-41. Editor: Library Trends, 1936; The Role of the Library in Adult Education, 1937; The Practice of Book Selection, 1939, etc. Address: University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C.

WILSON, MARGARET, American Writer; born 1882. Author: The Able McLaughlins, 1923; The Kenworthys, 1925; The Painted Room, 1926; Daughters of India, 1928; Trousers of Taffeta (a novel of the child mothers of India), 1929; The Crime of Punishment, 1931; One Came Out, 1932; The Valiant Wife, 1934; The Law and the McLaughlins, 1936. Address: c/o Doubleday & Co., Garden City, N. Y.

WILSON, MILBURN LINCOLN, American Agricultural Economist; born Oct. 23, 1885, Atlantic, Iowa; son of John Wesley and Mary Elizabeth (Magee) Wilson; educated at Iowa State College, B.S.A. 1907; Univ. of Wisconsin, M.S. 1920; Montana State College, Sc.D. 1935; North Dakota Agricultural College, D.Agr. 1940; married Ida Elizabeth Morse, Dec. 18, 1913; two daughters. Asst. Agronomist, Montana State College, 1910-12; County Agricultural Agent, Custer County, 1912-14; State County Agricultural Agent Leader, Montana Extension Service, 1914-19; Asst. in Land Economics and Farm Management, Montana State College, 1920-24; Prof. and Head, Dept. of Agricultural Economics, 1926-33. In charge of Division of Farm Management and Costs, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1924-26; in charge of Wheat Section, A.A.A., 1933; Director, Subsistence Homesteads Division, U. S. Dept. of Interior, 1933-34. Asst. Secy. of Agriculture, 1934-37; Under-Secy., 1937-40. Director, Extension Work, since 1940. Asst. Director, Defense Health and Welfare Services in Charge of Nutrition, Office for Emergency Management, 1941-43; Chief of Nutrition and Food Conservation Branch (now Nutrition Programs Div., Food Dist. Programs Branch, Production and Marketing Administration), 1943. Member: Amer. Farm Economic Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Rural Sociological Soc.; Amer. Country Life Assn.; Agricultural History Soc. Author: Farm Relief and Domestic Allotment Plan, 1933; Farming in Montana Triangle, 1923; Democracy has Roots; Agriculture in Modern Life (with others), 1939. Address: U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 14th and Independence, S.W., Washington, D. C.

WILSON, NORMAN W., American Manufacturer; born Jan. 31, 1885, Erie, Pa.; educated at public and high schools and Internatl. Corres. Schools, Scranton, Pa.; married Flora Nick, Aug. 18, 1906; one son. With Hammermill Paper Co. since 1901; Vice-Pres. and Sales Mgr., 1914-19; Asst. Gen. Mgr., 1919; 1st Vice-Pres. and Gen. Mgr., 1929; Pres., 1940—. Director: Hammermill Paper Co.; U. S. Envelope Co.; Rayonier Inc.; Grays Harbor Pulp & Paper Co.; First Natl. Bank, Erie, Pa. Regional Dir., U. S. Pulp Producers Assn.; Trustee, Inst. of Paper Chemistry; Pres., Amer. Pulp and Paper Assn., 1926-27. Dir., Natl. Assn. of Mfrs., 1941—; Governor, Natl. Industrial Conf. Bd. Member, State Park and Harbor Commn., etc. Residence: 502 Hammermill Rd. Office: East Lake Rd., Erie, Pa.

WILSON, ORME, American Diplomat; born November 13, 1885; educated at Browning School and Harvard Univ., A.B., 1907. In diplomatic service since 1920; served at Brussels, Berne, Buenos Aires; Assistant Chief, Division of Latin American Affairs, 1930; 1st Secretary at Berlin, 1933; Consul-General at Prague, 1934; 1st Secretary, later Counsellor of Embassy, Buenos Aires, 1936-38; at Brussels and Luxembourg, 1938; Liaison Officer with War and Navy Departments, 1940; Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Haiti, 1944-46. Address: 2406 Massachusetts Ave., Washington, D. C.

WILSON, PHILIP WHITWELL, British Writer; born 1875. Member of Staff, Sunday Dept., New York Times. Formerly Member (Liberal), House of Commons. Author: The Christ We Forget (a life of Our Lord for men of today), 1917; The Processional, 1918; The Church We Forget (a study of the Life and Words of the Early Christians), 1919; The Irish Case (before the court of public opinion), 1920; After Two Years (a study of American Prohibition), 1922; An Unofficial Statesman (Robert C. Ogden), 1924; George Peabody, Esq. (an interpretation), 1926; William Pitt, The Younger, 1930; Is Christ Possible? (an inquiry into world need), 1932; Calendar Reform and the Churches, 1934; The Romance of the Calendar, 1937; The Meaning of Moody, 1938; Newtopia (the world we want), 1941; Bride's Castle, 1944; Black Tarn, 1945; General Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army, 1947, etc. Address: The New York Times, Sunday Dept., 229 W. 43rd St., New York, New York.

WILSON, Dr. RALPH E(LMER), American Astronomer; born Apr. 14, 1886, Cincinnati, Ohio; son of Herbert C. and Mary B. (Nichols) Wilson; educated at Carleton College, B.A. 1906; Univ. of Virginia, Ph.D. 1910; married Mary A. Macdonald, May 20, 1913; one son. Instructor in Astronomy and Mathematics, also Acting Director of Goodsell Observatory, Carleton College, 1910-11; Asst., Lick Observatory, Univ. of California, 1911-13; Asst. Astronomer, Lick Southern Station, Santiago, Chile, 1913-15; Acting Astronomer, 1915-18; Astronomer, Dept. of Meridian Astrometry, Carnegie Institution of Washington, Albany, N. Y., 1918-38; Secy. of Dept., 1923-38; Astronomer, Mount Wilson Observatory, Carnegie Institution of Washington, Pasadena, Calif., since 1938. Member of Council, Amer. Astronomical Soc., 1934-37; Pres., Astronomical Soc. of the Pacific, 1944 (Director since 1944); Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Société Astronomique de France, etc. Awarded Gold Medal, Royal Danish Acad. of Sciences, 1926. U. S. Representative, Central Com. of Allies, Chile, 1917-18; Aeronautical Mechanical Engineer, Bureau of Aircraft Production, 1918; Consultant, Office of Field Services, O.S.R.D., 1944. Associate Editor: Popular Astronomy, 1910-14; Astronomical Journal since 1929. Author of more than fifty researches, mainly in the field of stellar motions.

Address: Mount Wilson Observatory, 813 Santa Barbara St., Pasadena 4, Calif.

WILSON, RATHMELL, British Author; born Oct. 1, 1883, Salisbury, Wiltshire, England; son of Rathmell and Catherine Wilson; educated at St. John's College, Oxford; Sherborne School. Began as actor with F. R. Benson Co. Editor, The Concert World, 1921-23; Staff Member, Pall Mall Gazette, 1923-26. Freeman, City of London; Liveryman, Worshipful Company of Plumbers. Member, Inst. of Journalists; Actors Equity Assn.; Authors and Poets Clubs; R.G.S.; R.S.A. Author: Re-Birth; Wandering Gentile; Taking Trains; Pre-War; Rose from Montmartre; Occult in Drama, etc. Address: Authors' Club, 2 Whitehall Court, London, S.W. 1, England.

WILSON, RIDGEWAY ROBINSON, Canadian Consulting Mining Engineer; born Jan. 26, 1890, Carnegie, Pa.; son of William Ritson and Emma (White) Wilson; educated at Grey College, Bloemfontein, S. Africa; Queen's Univ., Kingston, Ontario, B.Sc. in Mining and Metallurgy, 1913; married Dorita Davy Stevenson, Oct. 1912; two sons and a daughter. Engaged in practice as a mining engineer with firm of W. R. Wilson & Sons, 1927-33. Formerly mining engineer with Trites-Wood Wilson Syndicate, which developed Premier Gold Mine. Asst. to Pres. and General Manager, Crow's Nest Pass Coal Co., Ltd., 1913-18; Resident Manager, Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Co., Cassidy, V. I. British Columbia, 1918-21, later Consulting Engineer. Served as: Managing Director: Ingenika Mines, Ltd.; Prosperine Gold Mines, Ltd., and St. Eugene Extension Mines, Ltd. Pres. and Managing Director, St. Eugene Mining Corp. Ltd., N.P.L. Managing Director, Wilson Mining Corp. Ltd.; Head of Ridgway R. Wilson & Associates, Mining Engineers. In charge of mining exploration and development for Ventures Ltd. and associated Companies, Pacific Northwest States, British Columbia, the Yukon and Alaska, 1942-46. Member: Canadian Inst. of Mining and Metallurgy; Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, etc. Address: 215 Bank of Nova Scotia Bldg., Vancouver, B. C., Canada.

WILSON, ROBERT C., American Construction Executive; born 1883, Newark, N. J.; educated at Columbia Univ., 1905. Joined Turner Construction Co., 1907; Vice Pres., 1919-47; Chairman of Board, 1947; Vice Pres. and Director, River Construction Corp.; Director, Turner Rostock Corp. Residence: 375 Park Ave. Office: 420 Lexington Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

WILSON, Dean ROBERT CUMMING, American Pharmacist; born Oct. 27, 1878, Sparta, Ga.; son of Richard and Carrie (Turner) Wilson; educated at Univ. of the South, Ph.G. 1908; Univ. of Georgia, 1902-03; Univ. of Michigan, summer 1911; married Grace B. Troutman, Oct. 11, 1911; three children. Pharmacist, 1900. Instr., School of Pharmacy, Univ. of Ga., 1907; Asst. Prof., 1912; Prof., 1915; Dean since 1917. Pres., Georgia Pharmacists Assn., 1913; Amer. Assn. of Colleges of Pharmacy, 1936. Chmn., House of Delegates, Amer. Pharmacy Assn., 1935. Dir., Southern Assn. of Science and Industry. Trustee, Methodist Church. Author: "The Objectives of the Program of "Pharmaceutical Education." Residence: 287 Henderson Ave. Office: Athens, Ga.

WILSON, ROBERT ERASTUS, American Chemical Engineer; born March 19, 1893, Beaver Falls, Pa.; son of William Hyatt and Madge (Cunningham) Wilson; Ph.B., magna cum laude, College of Wooster (Ohio), 1914, hon. Sc.D., 1931; B.S. in Chem. Engineering, Mass. Inst. Tech., 1916; hon. Dr. of Engnrng., Brooklyn Poly. Inst., 1940; hon. LL.D., Colby College, 1941; married Pearl M. Rockfellow, Dec. 22, 1916; three daughters. Research asst., Research Laboratory, General Electric Co., 1916; research associate, Research Lab. Applied Chemistry, Mass. Inst. Tech., 1916-17; Cons. chem. engr., Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C., 1917-18; Capt. and Major, C.W.S., 1918-19, World War I directing research div. on gas mask absorbents; again with Mass. Inst. Tech. as Director Research Lab. of Applied Chemistry, and Assoc. Prof. chem. engnrng., 1919-22. Asst. Dir. of Research, Standard Oil Co. (Indiana), in charge of chemical engnrng. research, 1922-28; Asst. to Vice Pres. in charge of manufacturing, 1929-30; Dir. and Vice-Pres. in charge research and development, 1931-34; Chmn. of Bd. and chief executive officer since 1945. Vice-Chmn., Pan-Amer. Petroleum & Transport Co., 1935-37; Pres., 1937-44; Chairman of Bd. and Dir. since 1945. Chmn. of Bd. and Director: Pan-Amer. Production Co.; Pan Amer. Gas Co.; Pan Amer. Petroleum Corp. Life Member of Corp., Mass. Inst. of Technology. Trustee: College of Wooster (Ohio); Univ. of Chicago; Museum of Science and Industry (Chicago). Director: Chase Natl. Bank of N. Y.; First Natl. Bank of Chicago. Member: Com. on Govt. Aid to Research, Office of Scientific Research and Development; Advisory Board, Chemical Corps.; Natl. Petroleum Council; former Petroleum Industry War Council. Received Chem. Industry Medal, 1938; Perkin Medal, 1943. Member, Natl. Acad. of Sciences, etc. Holds over 50 patents. Residence: 1500 Lake Shore Drive. Office: 910 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago 5, Ill.

WILSON, Dr. ROLAND, C.B.E., Australian Economist; born April 7, 1904, Ulverstone, Tasmania; son of Thomas and May (Inglis) Wilson; educated at University of Tasmania, B.Com. 1925; Oriel College, Oxford, Diploma in Economics and Political Science, 1928; University of Chicago, Ph.D.; married Valeska Thompson, June 15, 1930. He was Pitt-Cobbett Lecturer in Economics, University of Tasmania, 1930; Director of Tutorial Classes, 1931-32. Assistant Commonwealth Statistician and Economist, 1932. Economist in the Statistician's Branch of the Commonwealth Treasury, 1932-36; Commonwealth Statistician and Economic Adviser to the Treasury, 1936-40; Secretary, Commonwealth Department of Labour and National Service, 1940-46. Vice-Chmn., United Nations Economic and Employment Commn., 1947. Pres., Economic Soc. of Australia and New Zealand. Author: Capital Imports and the Terms of Trade, 1931. Residence: Empire Circuit, Forrest, Canberra, Australia.

WILSON, SAMUEL BAILEY, American Lawyer; born May 12, 1873, Price's Branch, Montgomery Co., Mo.; son of Charles and Rebecca Wilson; educated at University of Minnesota Law School, LL.B. 1896; married Daisy Sheehan, June 21, 1899; four children. Engaged in general practice of law, 1896—. Judge of Probate, County Attorney for three terms; Member of Mankato Board of Education. Appointed Chief Justice, Supreme Court of State of Minnesota, Sept. 19, 1923; elected 1924 and 1930; resigned to resume practice, 1933; Partner of son, Samuel, Jr., 1933-37. Director, National Citizens Bank (Mankato, Minn.); President, Mankato (Minn.) Cemetery Assn.; President and Director, Mankato (Minn.) Citizens Telephone Co. During World War I served as Director of Minnesota Safety Commission, Government Appeal Agent, Food Administrator, Member of Bureau of War Industries for the District and Field Agent for the Bureau of War Risk Insurance. Residence: 303 Clark St. Office: 230½ S. Front St., Mankato, Minn.

WILSON, Hon. STANLEY C., American Lawyer and Ex-Governor; born in Orange, Vt., Sept. 10, 1879; son of William W. and Lydia (Browning) Wilson; educated at Tufts College, A.B. 1901, LL.D. 1931; LL.D., Norwich Univ. and Univ. of Vermont; married Grace G. Bacon, Apr. 22, 1909. Deputy County Clerk, Washington County, Vt., 1901-02; Official Reporter of the Vermont Senate, 1902-04. Admitted to Bar, 1904. State's Attorney, Orange County, 1908-12. Member, Vermont House of Representatives, 1915, 1917 and 1925 (Speaker of House, 1917); Superior Judge, 1917-23; Senator from Orange County, 1927. Lieut.-Gov., 1929-31; Governor, 1931-35. Member, law firm of Wilson & Keyser, Chelsea, Vt. Director and Pres., American Fidelity Co.; Director of Green Mountain Mutual Fire Insurance Co.; Director and Vice-Pres., Vermont Copper Co. Inc. Pres., Vermont Bar Assn., 1924. Address: Chelsea, Vt.

WILSON, THEODORE FRANKLIN, JR., American Government Official; born May 16, 1898, Washington, D. C.; son of Theodore F. (Sr.) and Katie (Linton) Wilson; educated at Columbus Univ., B.C.S. 1927; married Hesther V. Beahm, Jan. 10, 1920; one daughter. With Marland Oil Co., Ponca City, Okla., 1919-20; Investigator, U. S. Bureau of Efficiency, Washington, D. C., 1920-33; Agricultural Adjustment Administration, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1933-34; Director of Personnel, Farm Credit Administration, 1934-41; Director of Personnel, U. S. Treasury Dept., since 1941. Member, U. S. Council of Personnel Administration. Member: Civil Service Assembly of the U. S. and Canada; Soc. for Personnel Administration. Author of various articles for Personnel Publications. Residence: 3617—20th St., N.E. Office: 15th and Pennsylvania Ave., N.W., Washington, District of Columbia.

WILSON, Dr. THEODORE HALBERT, American Educator; born Feb. 11, 1885, Middletown, Conn.; son of Edwin Horace and Jane Amelia (Bidwell) Wilson; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1907, A.M. 1908, Ed.M. 1928, Ed.D. 1935; Union Theological Seminary in New York, S.T.B. 1911; married Faith Evelyn Harris, 1919 (dec. 1941); three children. Asst. Pastor, Plymouth Congregational Church of Montclair, N. J., 1911; Pastor, Island Avenue Church of Skowhegan, Me., 1912-15; Pastor of Olivet (Mich.) Church and Prof. of Religion, Olivet College, 1916-19; Acting Pres., Olivet College, 1918-19; engaged in educational survey work, 1919-20; Principal of St. Johnsbury (Vt.) Acad., 1920-30; Pres., Chevy Chase School of Washington, 1930-32; Director of National Park Seminary, Forest Glen, Md., 1932-35; Educational Adviser, McDonogh School, 1935-40; Head of Upper School, 1937-40; Educational Adviser to Junior College, Univ. of Baltimore, 1937-40; Pres., Univ. of Baltimore, since 1940. Address: 847 N. Howard St., Baltimore, Md.

WILSON, THOMAS BAYNE, American Aviation Executive; born May 26, 1892, Williamstown, Kans.; son of Benjamin and Mary Frances (Bayne) Wilson; educated at Kemper Military School, 1909, and Oakland Polytechnic College, 1911; married Chloe C. Byington, Nov. 29, 1924; two sons. Began as clerk with Pacific Mail Steamship Co., 1911; with the Insular Bureau, War Dept., Manila, P. I., 1913-14; joined Southern Pacific Co. 1915, and rose to the rank of Supt. of Transportation, Pacific System, until 1927. Served in U. S. Army, 1917-19, Captain, Signal Corps. In 1927 organized Southern Pacific Motor Transport and served as Vice-President in Charge of Operations until 1929, when that company, through mergers, became Pacific Greyhound Corp., of which he was in Charge of Operations until 1933. He was Vice-President and General Manager of Alaska Steamship Co., 1933-38; Chmn. of Board, Transcontinental & Western Air, Inc., 1938-47. Colonel U.A.S., 1942-43; Brig. Gen., 1943-45. Member, House of Repts., State of Kansas, 1947-48. Address: Williamstown, Kansas.

WILSON, THOS. E., American Meat Packer; born July 22, 1868, London, Ont., Canada; son of Moses and Mary Ann Wilson; educated in Chicago public and high schools; hon. LL.D., Univ. of Western Ontario, 1945; married Elizabeth L. Foss, Nov. 1, 1899; two children. Joined Morris & Co., meat packers, 1887; Vice-Pres., 1906-13; Pres., 1913-16. Pres., Sulzberger & Sons Co., which became Wilson & Co., 1916-34; Chmn. of Bd., Wilson & Co., 1934 —. One of organizers and first Pres., Amer. Meat Inst., 1919; became Pres., Amer. Shorthorn Breeders Assn., and for several years was Pres., Shorthorn Cattle Assn. of America. Dir.: Internatl. Livestock Exposition; Livestock Natl. Bank of Chicago; Chicago River and Indiana Ry.; Illinois Central R.R.; Sherwin-Williams Co.; Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co.; First Natl. Bank of Chicago; Guaranty Trust Co. of New York; U. S. Chamber of Commerce; Natl. Live Stock and Meat Board. Awarded Medal for Merit, 1946; also recipient of other awards. Residences: Edellyn Farms, Wilson, Ill., and 4815 Woodlawn Ave., Chicago, Ill.

WILSON, VERNE JOSEPH, American Banker; born June 28, 1891, in Des Moines, Ia.; son of Joseph Warren and Catharine E. (Kunkel) Wilson; educated at high school and business college in Des Moines, Iowa; married Mary H. Register, May 27, 1913; two daughters. Bank clerk, 1908; Junior Officer, 1st National Bank, Waterloo, Ia.; Iowa State Bank Examiner for 5 years; National Bank Examiner for 7 years; Pres., Union National Bank, Youngstown, Ohio, since 1932. Director: The Union National Bank; Youngstown College. Director and past Pres., Youngstown Chamber of Commerce. Director: Mahoning County Red Cross; Community Chest War Fund. Member, Executive Com., All War Fund Campaigns. Residence: 402 Tod Lane. Office: 6 West Federal St., Youngstown, Ohio.

WILSON, Dr. WALLACE, Canadian Physician; born 1888; educated at Univ. of Toronto, B.A. 1909, M.D. 1911. Pres., Canadian Med. Assn., 1946-47. Member and Ex-Pres., Council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of British Columbia. Fellow, Royal College of Physicians. Address: Veterans Affairs Bldg., 1231 Haro St., Vancouver, B. C., Canada.

WILSON, Dr. WILLIAM, British Physicist; born Mar. 1, 1875, Holme St. Cuthberts, England; son of William Osmotherly and Isabella (Ewart) Wilson; educated at Univ. of London, 1893-96. D. Sc. 1917; Leipzig Univ., Ph.D. 1906; married Blanche Heathfield, 1909; one son. Began as Lecturer, King's College, London, 1906. Reader, 1919. Hildred Carlile Prof. of Physics, Univ. of London, Bedford College, 1921-44; now Emeritus Prof., Senate Member, 1931-35. Governor, Bedford College, London. Fellow: Royal Soc., 1923; King's College, London, 1924; Physical Soc. of London. Author: Theoretical Physics, 1931, 1933, 1940; papers on photoelectricity, thermonics, relativity and quantum theory. Address: Bridge House, Earls Colne, Essex, England.

WINBERG, CARL, Swedish Labor Leader and Educator; born July 6, 1867, Karlstad, Sweden; son of Olof and Kristina (Andersson) Winberg; educated in elementary school; married Anna Maria Hansson, Dec. 30, 1901. Began as industrial worker, 1882; mechanic with State Railways of Sweden, 1891; became Secretary of Railway Workers' Trade Union, 1906. Editor of Swedish Railway Workers' Review, "Signalen," 1909-28. Member of Swedish Parliament (Senate), 1911-30. Member of Henry Ford's Peace Committee, 1916; Member of Board, Workers' Educational Movement (Arbetarnas Bildningsförbund), 1912-20; travelled and studied in Russia, 1911, 1917, 1918, 1920, 1924 and 1928. Author: Från Kvarnberget till Helgeandsholmen (memoirs), 1945. Residence: 28 Läckövägen, Stockholm, Sweden.

WINBLADH, Dr. RAGNAR (TEODOR BIRGERSSON), Swedish Chemical Engineer; born July 12, 1907, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Birger and Anna (Tamm) Winbladh; educated at Technical Univ., Stockholm, C.E. 1929, Dr.Tech.Sc. 1935; married Brita Martin, 1931; three children. Docent in Chemical Technology, Technical Univ., Stockholm, 1935; Head of A.B. Kema Central Laboratory, 1935-40; Head of State Industrial Commn., Chemical Dept., 1939-45; Pres., Centralbolaget for Kemiska Industrier AB, Stockholm, since 1940. Trustee: Swedish Assn. of Engineers and Architects; Swedish Technical-Industrial Arbitration Inst.; LKB Research Laboratory. Member: Swedish Chemical Assn., Stockholm; Physical Soc., Uppsala; Geographical Soc., Stockholm. Honors: Knight, Order of Vasa; Finska Lejonets Orden; Finska frihetskorset. Author: Situation of Scottish Shale Industry, 1939; Chemical Method for Determination of Gaseous Olefines, 1935; Swedish Chemical Industry During War Time; New Productions of Swedish Chemical Industry, 1943. Member, Editorial Com., Jubilee Publication to Prof. The. Svedberg, 1944; Jubilee Publication to Robert Ljunglof, 1945; Jubilee Publication to Harald Nordenson, 1946. Address: Sveavägen 48, Stockholm, Sweden.

WINBORNE, Hon. JOHN WALLACE, American Jurist; born July 12, 1884, Chowan Co., N. C.; son of Dr. Robert H. and Annie F. (Parker) Winborne; educated at Univ. of North Carolina, A.B. 1906, LL.D. 1946; married Charlie May Blanton (dec.), March 30, 1910; one son, one daughter. Taught in Bingham Mil. School, Asheville, 1906-07; admitted to practice law in North Carolina, 1906; began practice in Marion, 1907. Member of firm of Pless & Winborne until 1919; Pless, Winborne & Pless, 1919-26; Pless, Winborne, Pless & Proctor, 1926-27; Winborne & Proctor, 1928-37. Appointed Assoc. Justice, Supreme Court by Gov. Hoey, July 1, 1937; reelected Nov. 1946. Member, Marion Board of Aldermen, 1913-21; Attorney for Marion and McDowell Counties. 1918-37. Chairman of Democratic Executive Committee, McDowell County, 1910-12; Member, State Domecratic Executive Committee, 1916-37, serving as Chairman, 1932-37; Member, Local Government Commission of North Carolina, 1931-33. Residence: Marion, N. C. Chambers: Raleigh, N. C.

WINCHELL, Dr ALEXANDER NEWTON, American Geologist; born Mar. 2, 1874, Minneapolis, Minn.; son of Newton Horace and Charlotte Sophia (Imus) Winchell; educated at Univ. of Minnesota, B.S. 1896, M.S. 1897; Univ. of Paris, Sc.D. 1900; married (1st) Clare Edith Christello, May 29, 1898 (dec. 1932; five children; married (2nd) Florence W. Sylvester, May 31, 1934. Prof. of Geology, Montana School of Mines, Butte, Mont., 1900-07; Prof. of Mineralogy, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1908-44; Chairman of Dept. of Geology, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1933-39; Geologist, Oregon Bureau of Mines and Geology, 1912-13; Asst. Geologist, U. S. Geological Survey, 1906-12; Director, Montana Exhibits, Louisiana Exposition, St. Louis, 1904; Director of Montana Exhibits, Portland Exposition, 1905. Member: Geological Soc. of America. (Vice-Pres. 1932); Mineralogical Soc. of Amer. (Pres. 1932); Soc. of Economic Geologists; Amer. Inst. of Mining Engineers; Amer. Chemical Soc.; Geological Soc. of China; Crystallographic Soc., etc. Author: Elements of Optical Mineralogy (Part I, 5th ed. 1937; Part II, 3rd ed. 1933; Part III, 1939); Elements of Mineralogy, 1942; Microscopic Characters of Artificial Minerals (2nd ed. 1931); Optical Properties of Organic Compounds, 1943. Residence: 1630 Summer St. Office: 1937 Main St., Stamford, Conn.

WINCHELL, WALTER, American Newspaper Columnist ,Radio Commentator. Child actor with famous Gus Edwards show; later played in vaudeville and wrote a column for a theatrical publication. Now conductor of column, "Walter Winchell in New York," appearing in hundreds of newspapers. Sunday radio broadcasts over national hook-up are reported to have audience of one-half entire radio listening public in U. S. Served in U. S. Navy as an enlisted man, World War I, and as officer in U. S. Naval Reserve, World War II. Address: New York Daily Mirror, 235 E. 45th St., New York, N. Y.

WINCHESTER, CLARENCE, British Editor; born March 17, 1885, London; son of Arthur William and Elizabeth Alice (Clarke) Winchester; educated privately and at various technical schools; married Constance Katherine Groves; two children. Aeronautical Editor, The Daily Mail, London, 1918-20; Editor, "Ideas," 1920-22; Joined Cassell's, London, 1923 as Asst. Chief Editor, until 1927; Editor-in-Chief of large group of Amalgamated Press publications, 1927-40; later Asst. Editor, London Daily Graphic; Special Correspondent, Kemsley Newspapers (London) for special duties at home and in Nigeria and the Gold Coast; British Correspondent to The Argonaut, San Francisco; Editor-in-Chief and Managing Director, Winchester Publications Ltd., since 1946. Assoc., Royal Aeronautical Soc. (London). Member, Incorporated Soc. of Authors, Playwrights and Composers. Author: Flying Men, 1916; Sonnets and Some Others; The Captain Lost His Bathroom; Earthquake in Los Angeles; City of Lies; Three Men in a Plane; A Great Rushing of Wings; An Innocent in Hollywood; Let's Look at London, etc. Residence: 35 Barons Keep, West Kensington. Office: Winchester Publications Ltd., 16 Maddox St., London, W. 1, England.

WINCKELMAN, GEORGE, Finnish Diplomat; born Aug. 24, 1884, Uleaborg, Finland; son of Henrik and Jenny Winckelmann; educated at Univ. of Helsinki; married Gunhild Lagerstroem, June 10, 1916; two children. Secy., Ministry of Finance, 1910-13; Judge, Court of 1st Instance, 1913-17; First Secy., Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1918-22; Councillor, Legation at Stockholm, 1922-23; Director of Legal Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1923-29; Minister Plenipotentiary, 1929; Chargé d'Affaires, Tokyo, Japan, 1930; at Madrid and Lisbon, 1933; Envoy Extraordinary to Madrid and Lisbon, 1940. Awarded numerous decorations. Residence: Cygnaeusgatan 6. Office: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Helsinki, Finland.

WINDAUS, Dr. ADOLF, German Chemist; Nobel Prize Winner; born Dec. 25, 1876, Berlin, Germany; son of Adolf and Margarete (Elster) Windaus; educated at French Gymnasium, Berlin; Univs. of Berlin and Freiburg, i.B.; Ph.D. 1899, Docent, 1903; Technical High Schools, Hannover and Munich, hon. M.D.; married Elisabeth Resau, Sept. 29, 1915; three children. Docent in Freiburg, 1903; Assoc. Prof., 1906; Prof. of Medical Chemistry, Innsbruck, Austria, 1913; Prof. of Chemistry, Univ. of Göttingen, 1915-44. Hon. Member: Chemical Soc., London; Akademie der Naturforscher, Halle; Soc. of German Chemists; Gesellschaft für Kinderheilkunde. Member, Academies of Göttingen and Berlin; Corresp. Member, Acad. of Munich. Awarded: Nobel Prize, 1928; Pasteur Medal, 1938; Baeyer Medal, 1927; Goethe Medal for Art and Science. Address: Dahlmannstrasse 5, Göttingen, Niedersachsen, Germany.

WINDINGSTAD, OLE, Norwegian Conductor; born 1886, Norway; studied at Oslo Conservatory, Leipzig Conservatory. Appeared as Conductor, Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra, Carnegie Hall, New York, and Academy of Music, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1913-29; Oslo Philharmonic, 1923, 1926; Philadelphia Sesquicentennial Exposition, 1926; Richard Wagner Symphony Orchestra of New York, 1930; Brooklyn Symphony Orchestra, 1930-32; Promenade Concert Symphony Orchestra, Mecca Auditorium, New York, 1931; NBC Symphony Orchestra, 1935; New York Civic Orchestra, 1936; Long Island Little Symphony, Westchester Philharmonic and Brooklyn Symphony Orchestra, 1937; Knickerbocker Symphony Orchestra, Albany, 1937-39; Federal Symphony Orchestra of New York, 1938; Metropolitan Opera Orchestra, 1939; New York Civic Orchestra, 1939; New Orleans Symphony Orchestra, 1940-44; New York Philharmonic Orchestra, 1943 and 1945; Albany Symphony Orchestra, 1945 —. Decorated by King Haakon VII of Norway with Order of St. Olaf, 1929. Compositions: Symphonic Works for Orchestra. Residence: Sky Top Lodge, Route 2, Box 55, Kingston, New York.

WINDSOR, Duke of, (EDWARD ALPATRICK DAVID), K.G., K.T., K.P., M.C.; born June 23, 1894, Richmond, Surrey, Eng.; son of H.M. King George V; educated at Osborne and Dartmouth; matriculated at Oxford, 1912. Appointed Midshipman in the Royal Navy, 1911; promoted Lieutenant, 1913; Captain, 1919; Vice-Admiral, 1930; Admiral, 1935; Admiral of the Fleet, 1936. Appointed 2nd Lieutenant, 1st Battalion Grenadier Guards, 1914; A.D.C. to Commander-in-Chief of British Expeditionary Forces, and on active service, Nov. 1914. Served in Italy and France, receiving Military Cross, 1916. Personal Aide-de-Camp to King George V, 1919-36; during King's illness was one of Counsellors of State. Ascended the throne as King Edward VIII, Jan. 20, 1936; abdicated Dec. 1936 in favor of brother, Duke of York, now King George VI. Married Mrs. Wallis Warfield in Monts, France, June 3, 1937, and after marriage lived on Continent. In September, 1939, after Great Britain and France declared war on Germany; returned to England and reentered the British Army. Governor of the Bahamas, 1940 to May 1, 1945. Address: La Cröe, Cap d'Antibes, A.M., France.

WINDSOR, HENRY HAVEN, JR., American Editor and Publisher; born June 1900, Evanston, Ill.; son of Henry Haven and Lina B. (Jackson) Windsor; educated at Yale Sheffield Scientific School, 1924; married Louise Hunter, Jan. 21, 1928 (divorced, 1943); two sons; married (2nd) Dorothy Foltz, March 23, 1943. Appointed asst. to Pres. of Popular Mechanics Co., 1921. Vice-President, 1922, and President since 1924; also Dir. Pres. and Dir. Science Digest. Dir., Ludlow Typograph Co. Member: Izaak Walton League; Sons of American Revolution. Republican. Presbyterian. Clubs: Chicago; Chicago Athletic; Univ. (Evanston); Glenview Golf; Bath & Tennis Club and Everglades Club (Palm Beach); Gulf Stream Golf Club (Fla.); Sailfish Club of Florida. Residence: 209 Lake Shore Dr. Office: 200 E. Ontario St., Chicago, Ill.

WINDSOR, Dr. PHINEAS LAWRENCE, American Librarian and Educator; born Feb. 21, 1871, Chenoa, Ill.; son of Rev. John Alexander and Amy (Arnold) Windsor; educated at Northwestern Univ., Ph.B. 1895; Albany Law School; State Library School, Albany, N. Y.; Columbia Univ., Litt.D. 1939; married Margaret F. Boynton, Jan. 1, 1902; three daughters. Asst., Copyright Office, Library of Congress, 1900-03; Librarian, Univ. of Texas, 1903-09; Librarian and Director, Univ. of Illinois Library and Library School, 1909-40; Prof. of Library Science, Univ. of Illinois, 1924-40; Prof. and Director Emeritus since 1940. Member: Amer. Library Assn. (Member of Council for several years); Bibliographical Soc. of America; Amer. Historical Assn.; Illinois Library Assn. (Pres. 1913 and 1945); Assn. of College and Reference Libraries (Pres. 1939-40); Amer. Library Inst. (Pres. 1940-43); Assn. of Amer. Library Schools (Pres. 1921-22 and 1934-35). Address: University of Illinois Library, Urbana, Ill.

WINE, WILLIAM E., American Railway Equipment Inventor and Manufacturer; born Sept. 20, 1881, Bridgewater, Va.; son of John H. and Jennie (Berry) Wine; educated at Virginia Polytechnical Institute, B.S. 1904, M.E. 1905; married Eleanor Worts, Apr. 5, 1924. Mr. Wine was Instructor in Graphics, Virginia Polytechnical Institute, 1904-05; draftsman for S.A.L. Railroad, A.B. & C. Railroad and A.C.L. Railroad, 1905-10; shop engineer of A.C.L. Railroad, 1910-12, serving as chief mechanical draftsman until 1913; President, Wine Railway Appliance Co., 1913-17; Vice-President, Industrial Steel Casting Co., 1920-37. Chairman of Board, Unitcast Corp.; Wine Railway Appliance Co. and Industrial Steel Casting Co., since 1937. Member, Board of Visitors, Virginia Polytechnic Inst. Awarded Army-Navy E for war production, 1943. Pioneer in breeding of wild turkeys. Secured several hundred patents on railway equipment, farm equipment, etc. Residence: Winewood Farms, Parker, Va. Office: 832 Munsey Bldg., Wasington, D. C.

WINFIELD, Prof. PERCY HENRY, K.C., British Jurist; born Sept. 16, 1878, Stoke Ferry, Eng.; son of Frederick Charles and Mary (Flatt) Winfield; educated at St. John's College, Cambridge, B.A. LL.B. 1899, LL.D. 1917; married Helena Scruby, August 17, 1909; three children. Began as barrister-at-law, 1906; lectured in law at Cambridge University, Trinity College and St. John's College, 1920; Fellow of St. John's College, 1921. Deputy County Court Judge, 1921; Rouse Ball Professor of English Law at Cambridge University, 1928; now Emeritus Professor of English Law. Lecturer, Law School of Harvard University, 1923; Tagore Law Professor at Calcutta University, 1930. Since 1938 he has been a Reader to the Council of Legal Education, London. Honorary Bencher of the Inner Temple; Fellow, British Academy, Royal Historical Society, and St. John's College, Cambridge. President, Society of Public Teachers of Law, 1929-30; Member, Lord Chancellor's Law Revision Committee. Received an honorary LL.D. degree from Harvard, 1929, and from Leeds University, 1944. Made King's Counsel, 1943.

Author: History of Abuse of Legal Procedure, 1921; Present Law of Abuse of Legal Procedure, 1921; Chief Sources of English Legal History, 1925; Salmond & Winfield, Law of Contracts, 1926; Province of Law of Tort, 1931; Textbook of Law of Tort, 1937; Cases on Tort, 1938. Residence: 13 Cranmer Rd. Office: St. John's College, Cambridge, England.

WING, Rt. Rev. JOHN DURHAM, D.D., L.LD., American Bishop; born November 19, 1882, Atlanta, Georgia; son of John Durham and Sallie (Miller Peeples) Wing; educated at University of Georgia, 1903, D.D. 1918; William and Mary College, 1907; Virginia Theological Seminary, graduated 1910; D.D., University of the South; LL.D., Rollins College, 1932; married Mary Catherine Ammons, Mar. 31, 1913; four children. Rector: Holy Comforter Church, Atlanta, 1910-12; Church of the Incarnation, Atlanta, 1912-13; Grace Church, Anniston, Ala., 1913-15; Christ Church, Savannah, 1915-23; St. Paul's Church, Chattanooga, 1923-25. Bishop Coadjutor, Diocese of South Florida, 1925-32; Bishop since 1932. Residence: Bishopstead, Winter Park, Fla. Office: 130 N. Main St., Orlando, Fla.

WINGE, ERIK HENNING, Swedish Librarian; born May 22, 1890, Malmö, Sweden; son of Anders Svensson and Elna Olsdotter; educated in Malmö; Univ. of Lund, Ph.B. 1913, M.A. (philosophy), 1916; married Ebba Judith Henrikson, Dec. 22, 1918; two children. Assistant Librarian, The Royal Library, 1916; became Librarian of Library of Parliament, 1918; Principal Librarian, 1932; Chief Librarian since 1935. Honors: Knight, Nordstjärneorder, Danish Dannebrog Order and RFinl VRO 1st class. Author: Register to Papers and Debates of the Swedish Parliament, 1921-47; Annual Bibliography of Government Publications of Sweden, 1931-33; Sveriges styresmän, 1937; Sveriges styrelse, 1939. Residence: Klara Östra Kyrkogata 8. Office: Library of Parliament, Stockholm, Sweden.

WINGER, ALBERT E., American Publisher. President and Director, Crowell-Collier Pub. Co., 1946—; Chairman, Finance Co. and Director, Publication Corp. Vice-President and Director, National Publishers Assn.; Treasurer and Trustee, Knapp Foundation. Director, Chemical Bank & Trust Co., etc. Residence: 1010 Fifth Ave. Office: 250 Park Ave., New York, N. Y.

WINGER, MAURICE H., American Lawyer; born near Polo, Mo., Jan. 23, 1875; son of Gary J. and Nancy M. (Cooper) Winger; educated at Wm. Jewell College, 1892-95, Hon. LL.D. 1944; Kansas City School of Law, LL.B. 1902; married Nora E. Ribelin, Oct. 15, 1895; four children. Practiced law in Polo, Mo., 1901-07; Assoc. of firm of Karnes, New and Krauthoff (later New & Krauthoff), 1907-15; Member of successor firm, New, Miller, Camack & Winger (now Winger, Barker & Winger). Director: W. S. Dickey Clay Manufacturing Co.; Merry Investment Co.; 11th & Baltimore Corp.; Missouri Mapes Co.; Industrial Paper Stock Co.; Pioneer Waste Paper Co.; Midland Coal Co.; Cameron Coal Co. Vice-Pres., Board of Trustees, William Jewell College. Member, Amer., Missouri and Kansas City Bar Assns. Address: Waltower Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.

WINGFIELD, Rev. MARSHALL, American Clergyman; Commander-in-Chief and former Historian-in-Chief, Sons of Confed. Veterans; born Feb. 19, 1893, Franklin County, Va.; son of Tazewell Tarleton and Mary (Motley) Wingfield; educated at Johnson Bible College; Texas Christian University, and Union Seminary; attended post-graduate lectures at Chicago and Vanderbilt Universities and at St. Hugh's College of Oxford; married Marie Kerfoot Gregson. Minister to Students at University of Idaho, and Co-Founder of Idaho Institute of Religious Education, 1927-30. President, State Convention of Christian Churches in Mississippi when he was called to pastorate of First Congregational Church of Memphis, in 1937. Elected Moderator of State Conference of Congregational Christian Churches in Tennessee, 1939; Delegate to General Councils of 1940, 1942; Interchange Preacher between England and America, 1926-30, and Special Preacher for Presbyterian Churches of Cincinnati, 1926-37. Lectured on American Literature at various institutions. Member, American Society of Church History; Trustee, American Historical Society; President, West Tennessee Historical Soc.; Member: Southwest Territory Commission; Executive Com., Tennessee Historical Commission. Pres., Memphis Council of Churches; Dir., Seminary Foundation, Vanderbilt University. Staff Correspondent, The Christian Century. Delegate of General Council to National Study Conference at Delaware, Ohio. Member, National Panel of Amer. Arbitration Assn. Pres., Advisory Boards of Gailor Hall and Salvation Army; Member, American Academy of Political and Social Science, etc. Author: The History of Caroline, 1924; Forces of Destiny, 1932; Translating Christmas, 1933; Notes of A Pilgrim, 1935; Nostalgia, 1937; Piedmont Chronicle, 1937; Hills of Home, 1938; Marriage Bonds of Franklin, 1939; The Deathless Preacher, 1942; Literary Memphis, 1942; The Shrine in a Temple, 1943. Address: 246 S. Watkins St., Memphis, Tenn.

WINGFIELD DIGBY, SIMON, Member of British Parliament; born Feb. 13, 1910, Sherborne, Dorset, England; son of Col. F. J. B. and Gwendolen (Fletcher) Wingfield Digby; educated at Harrow School; Trinity College, Cambridge, B.A. 1932; married Kathleen Kingstone, Jan. 8, 1936; two sons. Asst. Secy., Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs, 1933; Staff Member, Inst. of Pacific Relations; Delegate, Internatl. Studies Conference, 1935; adopted Prospective Conservative candidate for West Dorset, 1937; barrister-at-law, 1939. Elected Member of Parliament for West Dorset, June, 1941. Governor, Sherborne School for Girls; Director, Estate Co. Mobilized with Territorial Army, Aug. 1939 and served throughout war in United Kingdom and N.W. Europe as a regimental and General Staff officer; promoted Major, 1943. Residence: Haydon Gate, Sherborne, Dorset. Address: House of Commons, London, S.W. 1, England.

WINGQUIST, SVEN GUSTAF, Swedish Industrialist; born Dec. 10, 1876, Hallsberg, Sweden; son of Sven Daniel and Anna (Lundberg) Wingquist; educated at the State Inst. of Technology of Örebro; Lenning Textile Inst.; hon. Doctor of Engineering, Stevens Inst. of Technology, 1921; married Hildur Kristina Nult, July 26, 1919. Engineer with various companies, 1896-1907. Invented the S. K. F. ball bearing and founded the S. K. F. Ball Bearing Co., 1907-19; Dir., 1919-38; Chairman of the Board since 1938. Director, Skandinaviska Banken, 1918-34. Chairman of the Bofors Co. Vice Chairman, Svenska Airoplane Co.; Chairman, Nydquist & Holms Co.; Vice-Chairman, Volvo Co. Formerly a Director, Sveriges Industri Förbundet, the Sveriges Allmänna Exportförening. Director, State Inst. of Technology at Örebro. Address: Remningstorp pr. Skara, Sweden.

WINIARSKI, Dr. STEFAN BOHDAN, Polish Jurist; International Court Judge; born Apr. 27, 1884, Bohdanowo, Poland; son of Stanislas and Jadwiga (Mystkowska) Winiarski; educated at Lomza College; Faculty of Law, Warsaw, Cracow, LL.D. 1910, Universities of Paris and Heidelberg; married Wanda Markowska, 1913; one son and two daughters. Assistant Professor at the Polish School of Political Science, University of Cracow, 1911-14. Legal Adviser, Polish National Committee in Paris, and to the Polish Delegation to Peace Conference, 1917-20. Professor, International Law, University of Poznán, since 1921; Dean of the Faculty, 1936-39; Professor at the Academy of International Law, The Hague, 1933; Professor of International Law at the Polish Faculty of Law, University of Oxford, 1944-46. Member, Polish Delegations and Delegate to several international conferences (Barcelona, 1921); Delegate to Assemblies of the League of Nations. Delegate to the International Oder Commission, 1922-30; Agent, Polish Government at the Permanent Court of International Justice, 1929; Commissioner of the Polish Government for the Liquidation of German property, rights and interests in Western Poland, 1924-27; Member of Parliament (national opposition to Pilsudski Government), 1928-35; President of the Bank of Poland, 1941-46; Judge, International Court of Justice, 1946—. Author: Proportional Representation (in Polish), 1911; Les Institutions Politiques en Pologne au XIXe Siècle (in French and Polish), 1920; Rivers in Poland and International Law (in Polish), 1922; Security, Arbitrage and Disarmament (in Polish), 1928; Les Principes Généraux de Droit Fluvial International (Recueil des Cours, The Hague), 1934; Selection of Texts for Study of Public International Law (in Polish), 1937, etc. Residence: The Hague, Netherlands. Permanent Address: Grodziska 18, Poznán, Poland.

WINIEWICZ, Hon. JOZEF MARIA, Polish Ambassador to the United States; born June 6, 1905, Poznán, Poland; son of Jozef and Bolewslawa (Krueger) Winiewicz; educated at Univ. of Poznán, mag. rer. econ. et polit.; married Maria Karpinska, Nov. 6, 1935. Chief Editor, Dsiennik Poznánski, Poznán, 1930; Wiesci Polskie, Budapest, 1940; Press Attaché, Polish Embassy, Turkey, 1941; Senior Official, Polish Ministry of Preparatory Work, Peace Conf., 1942; Councillor, Polish Embassy at London, 1945; Chargé d'Affaires, London, 1946. Delegate to United Nations First General Assembly and to Paris Conf., 1946; Ambassador to the United States since 1947. Awarded Gold Cross of Merits, Order of Polonia Restituta and several foreign decorations. Author: Mobilizacja Sil niemieckich w Polsce, 1939; German Aims and Failures, 1944; Polish German Frontier, 1945. Address: Polish Embassy, 2640 16th St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

WINKELMAN, General HENRI GERARD, Dutch Army Officer; born Aug. 17, 1876, Maastricht, The Netherlands; son of J. H. and Ch.C.M. (Braams) Winkelman; educated at Hoogere Burgerschool; Koninklijke Militaire Academie; Hoogere Krijgsschool; married A. J. Coert, Sept. 25, 1902; three children. Cadet, 1892; Second Lieut., 1896; First Lieut., 1901; Captain, 1913; Major, 1923; Sub-Chief of Staff, Field Army, 1925; Lieut. Colonel, 1926; Chief of Staff, Field Army, 1928; Col., 1929; Major General, 1931; Lieut. General, 1934; retired, 1934; Commander, Air Defense region Utrecht-Voestenberg, 1940; General and Commander-in-Chief of Army, Navy and Air Forces; Military Counsellor, Special Court of Cassation, 1945-46. Awarded: Grand Cross, Netherlands Lion Order; Knight, Orange-Nassau Order; Commander, Orde van het Zewaard; St. Olafs Order, Norway; Orde van den Witten Leeuw. Address: Amersfoortsche straatweg 71 b, Soesterberg, The Netherlands.

WINKELMAN, Dr. NATHANIEL WILLIAM, American Neuropathologist; born 1891; educated at Univ. of Pa., M.D. 1914. Medical Director, Philadelphia Psychiatric Hosp.; Prof. of Neuropathol., Medico-Chirurgical College, Grad. School of Medicine, Univ. of Pa. Second Vice-Pres., Amer. Neurol. Assn. Member: Amer. Psych. Assn.; Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Diseases and Amer. Med. Assn. Former Pres. of Amer. Assn. of Neuropathologists. Address: 1911 Spruce St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WINLOCK, HERBERT EUSTIS, American Egyptologist; born 1884, Director, Emeritus, and formerly Curator of Egyptian Dept., Metropolitan Museum of Art. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Member, Amer. Philosophical Soc. Author: Bas-reliefs from the Temple of Rameses I at Abydos, 1921; The Egyptian Expedition, 1928-1929, 1929, 1930-1931, 1932; The Tomb of Queen Meryet-Amun at Thebes, 1932; The Treasure of el Lahun, 1934; The Private Life of the Ancient Egyptians (20 plates), 1935; Ed Dakhleh Oasis (journal of a camel trip made in 1908), 1936; The Temple of Hibis in El Khargeh Oasis (Part 1-2), 1938-1941, 1941; Materials Used at the Embalming of King Tut-Ankh-Amun, 1941; Excavations at Deir el Bahri 1911-1931, 1942; The Slain Soldiers of Neb-et-Re-Mentu-hotpe, 1945; The Rise and Fall of the Middle Kingdom in Thebes, 1947, etc. Address: Metropolitan Museum of Art, 5th Ave. & 82nd St., New York, New York.

WINNE, HARRY ALONZO, American Engineer; born Oct. 27, 1888, Cherry Valley, N. Y.; son of Frank and Cora (Finehout) Winne; educated at Syracuse Univ., E.E. 1910; married Dorothy Louise Hodges, Feb. 11, 1918; two children. With General Electric since 1910, started as Student Engineer; successively Asst. Foreman of Testing Dept., 1912; Power & Mining Engineering Department in 1916; Section Head of Industrial Engineering Department in 1930; Manager of Mining & Steel Mill Sales in 1936; Assistant to Engineering Vice-Pres., 1937; Vice-Pres. of Apparatus Design Engineering, 1941; Vice-Pres. in charge of engineering policy. Residence: Nott Rd., Rexford, N. Y. Office: 1 River Rd., Schenectady 5, N. Y.

WINNERSTRAND, C. OLOF M., Swedish Actor; born Aug. 26, 1875, Stockholm, Sweden; son of C. A. and Augusta (Anderson) Winnerstrand; educated at Jacobs College; married Frida Kumlin, 1906 (dec. 1943). Actor since 1901; played in various provincial theatres until 1905. Associated with The Vasa Theatre, Stockholm, 1905-19; with Royal Dramatic Theatre, Stockholm, since 1919. Decorated Knight, Nordstjarne Order and Vasa Order; Finlands White Rose Order. Awarded Litteris et Artibus, St. Eriks Medal. Residence: Ostarmalmsgatan 97, Stockholm, Sweden. Studio: The Royal Dramatic Theatre, Stockholm, Sweden.

WINOGRADSKY, Dr. SERGE, Russian Scientist; born Sept. 1, 1856, Kiev, Russia. Served as Director, Institute of Experimental Medicine at Petrograd. Chief of Service, Pasteur Institute of Paris. Elected Corresponding Member, French Academy of Sciences (Section on Rural Economy), 1902; Foreign Associate, 1924. Member, French Academy of Agriculture. Fellow, Royal Society (London). Address: rue Pasteur, Brie-Comte-Robert, Seine-et-Marne, France.

WINSLOW, Dr. CHARLES-EDWARD AMORY, American Public Health Physician; born Feb. 4, 1877, Boston, Mass.; son of Erving and Catherine M. (Reignolds) Winslow; educated at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, B.S. 1898, M.S. 1899; hon. M.A., Yale, 1915; N. Y. University, Dr.P.H. 1918. Assistant Health Officer at Montclair, N. J., 1898; taught in Dept. of Biology and Public Health, M.I.T., 1898-1910. Asst. Professor, Bacteriology, University of Chicago, winter term, 1910; Associate Professor, Biology, College of City of New York, 1910-14; Professor, Public Health, Yale University School of Medicine, 1915-45; Dir., John B. Pierce Laboratory of Hygiene, New Haven. Rosenberg Lecturer, University of California, 1941. Fellow and Past President, American Public Health Assn.; Editor, American Journal of Public Health, 1944. Past Pres., Soc. of Amer. Bacteriologists; Editor-in-Chief, Journal of Bacteriology, 1916-44. Pres., Amer. Soc. of Heating and Ventilating Engineers. Member, Red Cross Commn. to Russia, 1917. General Medical Director, League of Red Cross Societies, Geneva, 1921; Expert Assessor, Health Committee, League of Nations, 1927-30. Member, Board of Directors, International Health Dept., Rockefeller Foundation, 1929-30. Chairman, Committee on Hygiene of Housing, American Public Health Assn. Author of textbooks and articles on bacteriology, sewage disposal, ventilation and public health. Residence: 313 St. Ronon St. Office: 333 Cedar St., New Haven, Connecticut.

WINSNES, Dr. A(NDREAS) H(OFGAARD), Norwegian Author; born Oct. 25, 1889, N. Odal, Norway; son of Pastor Fr. and Agnete (Helweg) Winsnes; educated at Univ. of Oslo, cand. Philol. 1913, Dr.Ph. 1920; married Haldis Knudsen, Sept. 14, 1915; two children. Teacher, Hallings School, Oslo, 1913; Fellow, Oslo Univ., 1920-27; Lecturer, Oslo Cathedral School, 1927-32. Prof. of Modern European Literature, Univ. of Oslo, 1937-42; Prof. of History of Ideas, since 1946. Escaped to Sweden during German occupation of Norway. Director, British-Norwegian Inst., London, 1942-45. Chief Editor, Aschehougs Encyclopedia, Oslo; Member, Board of "Nansen-School," Lillehammer, Oslo. Member, Royal Norwegian Acad. of Science and Arts. Author: Det Norske Selskab, 1924; Niels Treschow: A Norwegian Humanist, 1927; The Second Front; British Idealistic Philosophers in the 19th Century, 1932; Modern Norwegian Literature, 1880-1914 (a volume of Bull, Paasche and Winsnes; History of Norwegian Literature. Address: Nordraaks Gt. 22, Oslo, Norway.

WINSOR, Dr. ANDREW LEON, American Educator; born Oct. 31, 1890, St. George, Utah; son of Andrew and Agnes (Macfarlane) Winsor; educated at Univ. of Utah, A.B. 1920, M.A. 1921; Stanford and Cornell Univs., Ph.D. 1929; married Ina Neilson, 1921; two children. Director of Teacher Training, Weber College, 1921-26. Instructor, Cornell Univ., 1927-30; Asst. Prof., 1930-35; Prof., 1935-46; Director, Cornell Guidance Center, 1945-47; Head, Dept. of Rural Education, since 1944; Director, School of Education, since 1946. Member: Amer. Psychological Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Educational Assn. Author of numerous scientific articles. Address: Stone Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

WINSOR, MULFORD, American Librarian; born May 31, 1874, Jewell City, Kans.; son of Mulford and Carolina Hannah (Kelly) Winsor; educated at public and high schools of Fort Smith, Ark. Newspaper editorial writer, 1896-1910; Arizona Historian, 1909; Member of Constitutional Convention, 1910; Secy. to first Gov. of Arizona, 1912; Chairman, State Land Commn., 1912-15. Member, State Senate, 1917-28; Pres., State Senate, 1923-28; Secy., Colorado River Commn., 1927-28. Director, Dept. of Library and Archives of State of Arizona, since 1932. Author of several publications on legislative bill drafting in Arizona. Residence: 1629 W. Madison St. Office: State House, Phoenix, Ariz.

WINSPEAR, Prof. ALBAN DEWES, American Author and Lecturer; born Jan. 14, 1899, Birmingham, England; son of Willan and Anne Jane (Dewes) Winspear; educated at Queen's Univ., Kingston, Ont., B.A. 1923; Corpus Christi College, Oxford, B.A. 1926, M.A. 1930; married Frances Mary Bullock, Sept. 16, 1926; two sons. Lectured in classics at Queen's Univ., Kingston, Ont., 1926-27; at Dept. of Classics, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1927-30; Assoc. Prof. of Classics, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1930-44. Director, Abraham Lincoln School, Chicago, Ill., 1944-46. Acting Prof. of Classics at Swarthmore College, 1936-37. Member: Amer. Archaeological Assn.; Amer. Philological Assn.; Amer. Federation of Teachers. Author: Augustus and the Reconstruction of Roman Society (with Lennore Geweke), 1935; The Genesis of Plato's Thought, 1940; Who Was Socrates? (with Tom Silverberg), 1939. During World War I served in Royal Air Force, Canada, 1918. Residence: The Old Morris Farm, Pewaukee, Wis.

WINSTER, The Rt. Hon. Lord, (Reginald Thomas Herbert Fletcher), P.C., British Administrator; born March 27, 1885, London, England; son of Nicholas and Dinah Fletcher; educated H.M.S. Britannia; married Elspeth Lomax, 1909. Served at the Dardanelles and in Grand Fleet during first World War. Term Lieut., Naval College Dartmouth, 1917; Head, Near Eastern Section, Intelligence Division, Admiralty, 1919-21; Liberal Member of Parliament, Basingstoke, 1923-24; Labor Member of Parliament, Nuneaton, 1935-41; Chief Staff Officer, Grimsby, 1939-40; elected to Parliament, 1923-24, 1935-41; elevated to Peerage, 1941. Minister of Civil Aviation, 1945-46; Commander-in-Chief of Cyprus, 1946—. Author: War on Our Doorstep, 1942; co-Author, Air Defences of Great Britain, 1938. Residence: 620 St. Ermins Mansions, Caxton St., London, S.W. 1, and Fivewents Way, Crowborough, Sussex, England.

WINSTON, JAMES HORNER, Lawyer; born Oxford, N. C., Sept. 19, 1884; son of Robert Watson and Sophronia (Horner) Winston; educated at University of North Carolina, B.A. 1904; Oxford University (Rhodes Scholar) B.A. in Jurisprudence 1907; studied law also at University of North Carolina; married Laura M. Flanagan, Nov. 26, 1908; two sons and two daughters. Member, law firm of Winston, Strawn and Shaw. Member: Chicago, Illinois State and American Bar Assns. Residence: 1231 Asbury Ave., Evanston. Office: First National Bank Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

WINTER, ANDREW, American Artist; born April 7, 1892, Estonia; son of George and Anna (Klaas) Winter; naturalized American citizen, 1921; educated at Natl. Acad. of Design; Cape Cod School of Art (under Charles Hawthorne); Tiffany Foundation; Rome Acad. (Charles Hinton, Charles Hawthorne, Ivan G. Olinsky, G. Maynard, Francis Jones); married Mary Taylor, Dec. 24, 1928. Represented at: National Acad. Permanent Collection; Pennsylvania Acad. of Fine Arts; Marine Museum, Newport News, Va.; Wolfeboro (N. H.) Post Office (mural); Cranbrook Museum; Newcomen Soc. of England; Buck Hill Falls (Pa.) Art Assn.; Wake Forest College; High Museum, Atlanta, Ga.; Ranger Fund Collection, Winchester (Mass.) Public Library. Member: Natl. Acad.; National Arts Club (Life); Artists Fellowship, Inc., etc. Awards: Edwin Palmer Memorial Prize, National Acad., 1940; Best Water Color Prize, Currier Gallery, 1941; Albert H. Soan Memorial Prize (watercolor), Salmagundi Club, 1942; Edwin Palmer Memorial Prize, Natl. Acad. of Design, 1942; "Wall of Fame," New York World's Fair, 1940; First Lay Prize, Salmagundi Club, 1945; First Altruan Prize, Natl. Acad., 1944; First Frank B. Williams Prize, Salmagundi Club, 1948; The Mischa Lempert Memorial Purchase Prize, Salmagundi Club, 1948; Second Salmagundi Award at Special Exhibition, 1948, etc. Address: Monhegan Island, Maine.

WINTER, CHARLES EDWIN, American Jurist; born in Muscatine, Iowa, Sept. 13, 1870; son of William and Wilhelmine (Fiegenbaum) Winter; educated at Iowa Wesleyan Univ., Mt. Pleasant; Nebraska Wesleyan Univ., Lincoln, Ph.B. 1892; Omaha Law School, 1895; married Augusta P. Hutchinson, 1896; (2nd) Alice R. Maltby, 1915; three sons. Admitted to the Bar, 1895. Judge, 6th Judicial Dist., Casper, Wyo., 1913-19; Wyoming Rept.-at-Large in U. S. House of Representatives, 1923-29. Attorney General of Puerto Rico, by Presidential appointment, 1932-33, and Acting Governor. Member: Amer. Law Inst.; Amer. Bar Assn. Author: Grandon of Sierra, 1907; Ben Warman, 1917; Gold of Freedom, 1944; Four Hundred Million Acres, Public Lands and Resources, 1931; author of state song, "Wyoming". Address: 216-17 Consolidated Royal Bldg., Casper, Wyo.

WINTER, Dr. ERNST KARL, Austrian Political Scientist, Educator, Editor; born Sept. 1, 1895, Vienna, Austria; son of Ernst and Mina (Gsur) Winter; educated at Univ. of Vienna, Dr. Juris. 1922; married Margret Svoboda, 1922; eight children. Owner, publishing house, Gsur & Co., Vienna, 1930-38; Editor of Wiener Politische Blatter, 1933-36. Vice-Mayor, City of Vienna, 1934-37; left Austria immediately after German occupation of Austria in Mar. 1938; Assoc. Prof. of Sociology and Social Philosophy, Graduate Faculty, New School for Social Research, 1938-42. Author: Die Sozialmetaphysik der Scholastik, 1929; Das Soziologische in Platons Ideenlehre, 1930; Rudolph IV. von Oesterreich, 1934-36, and Arbeiterschaft und Staat, 1934. Served in a Tyrolean Regiment, Austrian Army, 1914-18. Address: 210 Hickory Ave., Tenafly, New Jersey.

WINTER, Hon. HARRY ANDERSON, K.C., Newfoundland Jurist; born Feb. 3, 1889, St. James, Newfoundland; son of Sir James and Emily (Coen) Winter; educated at Bishop Feild College, St. Johns, 1896-1907; Oxford (Rhodes Scholar, Univ. College), 1907-11, B.A. 1910; called to Bar (Middle Temple), 1911; married Frances Goodridge, Nov. 28, 1916; two daughters. Practiced law, 1911-14; Editor, Evening Telegram, St. Johns, 1916-17. Member of Newfoundland Legislature and Speaker, House of Assembly, 1923-24; Member, Cabinet without Portfolio, 1932-33. Commissioner for Home Affairs and Education, 1941-44; Commissioner for Justice and Defence, 1944-47; Judge, Supreme Court of Newfoundland, 1947 —. Residence: 5 Winter Place, St. Johns, Newfoundland.

WINTER, JAMES ALEXANDER, K.C., Canadian Barrister and Solicitor; born Dec. 20, 1886, St. Johns, Newfoundland; son of Sir James Spearman and Emmie (Coen) Winter; educated at Bishop Feild College, St. Johns; Rossall School, Lancs., England; married Mary Evangeline Arnaud, July 15, 1915; three children. Admitted as Solicitor, 1910; called to Bar of St. Johns, 1911; King's Counsel and Bencher of Law Soc., 1932. Partner: Sir James Spearman Winter (father), until 1911; H. A. Winter (brother), until 1916; Hon. R. A. Squires (Attorney General), until 1920; J. P. Blackwood, K.C., and L. E. Emerson, until 1926. Member, House of Assembly for Burin East, 1928; for Burgeo and La Poile District (Alderdice Party), 1932; Speaker of House of Assembly, 1933. Member, Commn. of Govt. of Newfoundland, and Commnr. for Home Affairs and Education, 1936-41. Chief Clerk and Registrar, Supreme Court, since 1941. Created Companion, Order of St. Michael and St. George, 1942. Address: Department of Home Affairs, St. Johns, Newfoundland.

WINTERNITZ, Dr. MILTON CHARLES, American Pathologist; born Feb. 19, 1885, Baltimore, Md.; son of L. Charles and Jennie (Kittner) Winternitz; educated at Johns Hopkins Univ., M.D. 1907; married Helen Watson, March 20, 1913 (died 1930); (2nd) Pauline Webster Whitney, April 6, 1932; five children. Began at Johns Hopkins Med. School, 1917, at Fellow, Asst. Instructor and Assoc. Prof. of Pathol. until 1917; Asst. Resident Pathol. and Assoc. Pathol., Johns Hopkins Hosp., 1910-17; Prof. of Pathol. and Bacteriol., Yale Univ., 1917-25; Anthony N. Brady Prof. since 1925; Dean, Med. School, 1920-36. Member of New Haven Med. Soc.; Natl. Com. for Mental Hygiene; New Haven County and Amer. Med. Assns.; Amer. Soc. for Experimental Pathol.; Soc. for Experimental Biol. and Med.; Assn. of Bacteriologists and Pathologists; Chairman of Adv. Com. of Chemical Biological Coordination Center, also Member of Com. on Growth, Natl. Research Council; Fellow of Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Served with U. S. Army, Med. Corps, Capt. and Major, First World War. Author: Pathology of Influenza (1919); compiled studies on War Gas Poisoning, and Biology of Arteriosclerosis. Res.: 210 Prospect St. Office: 310 Cedar St., New Haven, Conn.

WINTERTON, 6th Earl of, Rt. Hon. Edward Turnour, P.C., British Political Leader; born Apr. 4, 1883; educated at Eton and New College, Oxford. Member of Parliament (Conservative) for Horsham, 1904-18, 1945 —, and for Horsham and Worthing Div., 1918-45. Controlling Editor, The World, 1909-10; served in Gallipoli, Palestine and Arabia during First World War; Under-Secretary of State for India, 1922-29; Chancellor of Duchy of Lancaster, 1937-39; Deputy to Secretary of State for Air and Vice-President of Air Council, 1938; Member of the Cabinet, Mar. 1938 to Jan. 1939; Postmaster-General, 1939-45. Chairman, Inter-Governmental Committee on Refugees. Address: 61 Eccleston Sq., London, S.W.1, England.

WINTHER, OTTO WILHELM, Swedish Diplomat; born Nov. 29, 1891, Helsingborg, Sweden; educated at University of Lund, cand.jur. 1913; married Cornelia de Kuylenstierna, Sept. 14, 1922. Attaché at the Swedish Foreign Office, 1916; Secretary of Swedish Legation in London, 1918-20; in Foreign Office, 1920-22; Secretary, Legation in Oslo, 1923-24; in Foreign Office, 1924-28; Counsellor, Swedish Legation in Paris, 1928-34. Minister to Turkey and Greece, 1934; Minister to Russia, 1938; Minister to Argentina, also accredited to Uruguay and Paraguay, 1940-45; Minister to Spain, 1945 —. Address: Swedish Legation, Madrid, Spain.

WINTHROP, HENRY ROGERS, American Banker; born July 2, 1876, Newport, R. I.; son of Thomas Buchanan and Sarah Helen (Townsend) Winthrop; educated at Yale, B.A. 1898; admitted to Bar, New York, 1901; married Alice Woodward Babcock (deceased); one daughter. Began career in 1902 as Asst. Secy., later Treas., Equitable Life Insurance Co. Partner, Harris, Winthrop & Co., 1906-29; Winthrop, Whitehouse & Co., 1942-43; now associated with Shearson, Hammill & Co. Director: Loew's Inc.; Long Island R.R.; U. S. & Internatl. Securities Corp.; U. S. & Foreign Securities Corp.; Metropolitan Opera Assn., Inc. Advanced from 2nd Lieut. to Colonel, N. Y. National Guard, 1900-18; appointed Major, U. S. Army, 1918, and served during World War I as Senior Asst. Military Attaché to Embassy in England; awarded D.S.O. (British); Commander Crown of Italy; now Colonel in inactive reserve. Residence: Woodbury, L. I., N. Y. Office: 14 Wall St., New York, N. Y.

WINTON, CHARLES JOEL, JR., American Business Executive; born Dec. 24, 1899, Wausau, Wis.; son of Charles and and Helen (Smith) Winton; educated at Princeton Univ., B.A. 1922; married Henrietta Louise McDonald, April 26, 1924; four children. Began as compassman, 1922; lumberman, 1922-45. Pres., Winton Lumber Co., The Pas Lumber Co., Ltd. and Kenwood Oil Co. since 1942. Director, Radio Station WLOL; Treasurer and Dir., Masonite Corp., Laurel, Miss.; Dir., Marathon Corp., Rothschild, Wis.; Director, First National Bank of Minneapolis. Trustee: Minneapolis Foundation; Westminster Presbyterian Church; The Northrop Collegiate School, and Abbot Hosp. Director of Y.M.C.A.; Northeast Neighborhood House and The Elizabeth Kenny Inst. Served in Students' Army Training Corps, Princeton Univ., three months, World War I, discharged Dec. 20, 1918. Residence: R.F.D. 3, Wayzata, Minn. Office: 2600 Foshay Tower, Minneapolis, Minn.

WINTON, DAVID JUDSON, American Lumber Manufacturer; born Wausau, Wis., May 14, 1897; son of Charles Joel and Helen (Smith) Winton; educated at Blake School, 1916; grad. Princeton, 1920; married Katherine Decker, 1921; three children. Chmn. of Board of Directors: Winton Lumber Co.; The Pas Lumber Co., Ltd.; Winton Lumber Sales Co.; United Lumber Yards (Calif.). Director: Kenwood Oil Co.; Radio Station WLOL. Chief, Pulp and Paper Div., WPB, Washington, D. C., 1942; Head, WPB British Lumber Mission to Great Britain, 1943; Regional Dir., WPB, Region XII, 1944-45; Chmn., Natl. Policy Com., Washington, D. C., 1942-47. Chmn., Bd. Macalester College, St. Paul; Vice Pres., Blake School for Boys. Served in Amer. Field Service, U. S. Army Tank Corps, World War I; decorated Distinguished Service Cross, Purple Heart. Residence: Wayzata, Minn. Office: 2600 Foshay Tower, Minneapolis, Minn.

WINTREBERT, PAUL-MARIE-JOSEPH, French Zoologist; born July 28, 1867, Lille, France. Professor of Anatomy and Comparative Histology, Faculty of Sciences of Paris. Elected Member, French Academy of Sciences (Section on Anatomy and Zoology), 1938. Address: 41, rue de Jussieu, Paris Ve, France.

WINTRINGHAM, THOMAS, British Writer; born May 15, 1898, Grimsby, Lincs.; son of John Fildes and Eliza Mapson (Workman) Wintringham; educated at Balliol College, Oxford; Brackenbury Scholar, 1919-20; married Katherine Wise Bowler, 1941. With Royal Flying Corps and Royal Air Force, France, 1916-18. Editor, "Left Review", London, 1933-36; commanded British battalion, Internatl. Brigade, Spain, 1936-37; Founder, Osterly Park Training School for Home Guard, 1940; War Office Instructor, 1940-41. Author: English Captain, 1938; New Ways of War, 1940; Weapons and Tactics, 1943; Your M.P., 1944. Residence: Peartrees, Brick End, Broxted, Essex. Office: 59 Paramount Court, London, W.C. 1, England.

WIREN, DAG IVAR, Swedish Composer; born Oct. 15, 1905, Striberg, Sweden; son of Ivar and Anna (Larsson) Wiren; educated at Örebro, 1924; studied composition, piano, organ and conducting at Royal Acad. of Music, Stockholm, 1926-31; orchestration with Leonid Sabaneef, Paris, 1931-32; married Noel Honor McKenzie Franks, Aug. 14, 1934. Librarian of Music Library, Soc. of Swedish Composers, 1935-38; music critic, Svenska Morgonbladet, 1938-46. Member, Board of Directors, S.T.I.M. (Swedish Performance Right Soc.), since 1939; Member, Royal Musical Acad. of Sweden, since 1946. Compositions include: Piano Trio, op. 6 (performed by Flykingen, 1933); String Quartet, op. 9 (premiered by Flykingen, 1936); Serenade for Strings, op. 11 (premier by Stockholm Chamber Orchestra, 1937); Sinfonietta, op. 7a; Violoncello Concerto, op. 10 (performed by Stockholms Konsertförening, 1939); Symphony No. 2, op. 14 (performed by Goeteborgs Örkesterförening, 1940); String Quartet, op. 18 (premiered by Flykingen, Stockholm, 1941); Symphony No. 3, op. 20 (premiered by Goeteborgs Örkesterförening), 1944, etc. Address: Asevägen 5, Dandervd, Stockholm, Sweden.

WIRTH, Dr. LOUIS, American Sociologist; born in Gemuenden, Rhineland, Germany, Aug. 28, 1897; son of Joseph and Rosalie (Lorig) Wirth; educated at Univ. of Chicago, Ph.B. 1919, M.A. 1925, Ph.D. 1926; married Mary Bolton, Feb. 14, 1923; two daughters. Director, Delinquent Boys' Division, Bureau of Personal Service, Chicago, 1919-23; Research Asst. to Local Community Research Com., Univ. of Chicago, 1923-25; Instructor in Sociology, 1925-28, Asst. Prof. of Sociology at Tulane Univ., New Orleans, La., 1928-29; Assoc. Prof., 1929-30. Research Fellow (in Europe) of Social Science Research Council, 1930-31. Asst. Prof. of Sociology, Univ. of Chicago, 1931-32; Assoc. Prof., 1932-39; Prof. of Sociology and Assoc. Dean, Social Science Division, since 1940. Consultant to Federal Public Housing Authority since 1942; Consultant to Natl. Resources Planning Board, 1935-43 (Chairman of Region IV, 1942-43). Director of Planning, Illinois Postwar Planning Commn., 1944. Member, Board of Governors, Metropolitan Housing Council, Chicago; Director, Michael Reese Hospital School of Nursing. Pres., Soc. for Social Research (two terms); Secy.-Treas., Amer. Sociological Soc., 1930-31; Pres., 1947. Member: Sociological Research Assn.; Internatl. Inst. of Sociology; Masaryk Sociological Soc. (Prague); Amer. Soc. of Planning Officials. Author: The Ghetto, 1928. Co-author: Our Cities—Their Role in the National Economy, 1937; The City, 1925; Urban Government, 1938; Urban Planning and Land Policies, 1939. Managing Editor, 1930-31, and Assoc. Editor, Amer. Journal of Sociology, since 1931. Address: 1126 E. 59th St., Chicago, Ill.

WIRTZ, ALVIN J., American Attorney-at-Law; born Columbus, Texas, May 24, 1888; son of Lewis M. and Dora (Dent) Wirtz; educated at Univ. of Texas, LL.B. 1910; married Kitty Mae Stamps, Nov. 18, 1913; one daughter. In practice of law in Colorado County, Texas, 1910-17; practiced in Guadalupe County, 1917-34.

Member of firm of Powell, Wirtz, Rauhut & Gideon at Austin, Texas, since 1934; specializes in oil and water law. Organizer and Counsel to the Lower Colorado River Authority. Member, Texas State Senate, 1922-30. Under-Secy. of Interior, 1940-41. Director: Texas Power Corp.; Texas Hydro-Electric Corp.; Austin Mutual Life Insurance Co.; Austin Housing Authority. Address: Brown Bldg., Austin, Texas.

WISE, JENNINGS CROPPER, American Lawyer; born in Richmond, Va., Sept. 10, 1881; son of John S. and Evelyn B. B. (Douglas) Wise; educated at Virginia Military Inst., B.S. 1902, M.A. 1916; Univ. of Virginia Law School, B.L. 1909; married Elizabeth Lydecker Anderson, Oct. 4, 1905; married Lucy Carmack, 1939; two children. Commissioned 2nd Lieut., U. S. Army, 1902, and resigned 1905. Pres., J. C. Wise & Co. and Kamargo Supply Co. (Watertown, N. Y.). Invented Wise Sulphur Burning Process. Prof. of Economics and Military Science, Va. M. I., 1912-15; Commandant of Cadets, 1912-14. Member of firm of Wise & Chichester, 1909-12, Pollard, Wise & Chichester, 1915-17, Munn, Anderson & Munn, 1920-27; associated with Hunton, Williams & Anderson, Richmond, Va., 1928-30. Raised a regiment for proposed Roosevelt Division, 1916-17. Major of Infantry and Lieut. Col., U.S.A., World War I; temporarily attached to British and French Armies; re-assigned to 318th Inf., U.S.A., 1918; served with that regiment in Picardy and in St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne offensives; wounded at Nantillois, Oct. 1918. Cited four times for services; awarded D.S.C.; made member of French Legion of Honor. Special Counsel for Agent of U. S. Mixed Claims Commn., U. S. and Germany, 1922-23; Special Asst. Atty. General of the U. S., 1930-33. Author: Early History of the Eastern Shore of Ingenin, 1910; Gunnery, 1912; Empire and Armament, 1915; The Long Arm of Lee, 1916; Call of the Republic, 1917; Col. John Wise of England and Virginia: His Ancestors and Descendants, 1917; The Turn of the Tide, 1920; Hegemonics and the Soldier's Life in Battle, 1922; The Great Crusade, 1930; The Red Man in New World Drama, 1937; Woodrow Wilson: Disciple of Revolution, 1938; America: The Background of Columbus, 1946; The Mystery of Columbus, 1946. Address: Charlottesville, Va.

WISE, Dr. STEPHEN SAMUEL, American Jewish Leader; born March 17, 1874, Budapest, Hungary; son of Rabbi Aaron and Sabine de Fischer (Farkashazy) Wise; educated at College of the City of New York and Columbia Univ., A.B. 1892, Ph.D. 1901; married Louise Waterman, Nov. 14, 1900; two children. After six years as Rabbi of Congregation of Madison Ave. Synagogue, N. Y., went to Portland, Ore., where was Rabbi, Beth Israel Congregation, 1900-06. Founded the Free Synagogue of New York, 1907. Chairman of Commission, Zionist Organization of America; Member, Committee of Jewish Delegations representing American Jewish Congress at the Peace Conference, Paris. President on different occasions, of the American Jewish Congress since 1924; now President of both American and World Jewish Congresses. Editor, "Opinion," magazine of Jewish life and letters. Ex-Chairman, Emergency Committee for Zionist Affairs; Chairman, Inter-American Jewish Council; Officer, Legion of Honor. Author: The Ethics of Solomon Ibn Gabirol, 1901; Beth Israel Pulpit (3 vols.); Free Synagogue Pulpit (10 vols.); How to Face Life; Child Versus Parent; The Great Betrayal (with Jacob DeHaas); As I See It, 1944. Address: 40 W. 68th St., New York, N. Y.

WISE, WILLIAM FREDERIC, American Aircraft Manufacturer; born Dec. 19, 1895, Lima, Ohio; son of William H. and Florence J. (Pugh) Wise; educated at Western State Normal School; married Ione O. Truax, 1928; one son. Joined Excello Corp., Detroit, Mich., as Production Engineer and later became Vice-Pres. and General Sales Manager. President of Republic Aircraft Products Corp., Detroit, Mich., until its merger in 1940 with The Aviation Corp., of which he is Executive Vice-Pres. and Dir. Pres. and Director: Amer. Propeller Corp.; Republic Aircraft Products; Scotten Mfg. Corp.; New Idea, Inc. Residence: 2485 Scotten Ave. Office: 5914 Federal St., Detroit, Mich.

WISEMAN, Dr. BRUCE KENNETH, American Professor of Medicine; born Mar. 1, 1897, South Bend, Ind.; son of Samuel and Virginia (McKee) Wiseman; educated at Ind. Univ., B.S. 1926, M.D. 1928; married Adah Quinlan, Oct. 25, 1922. Asst. in Dept. of Bacteriol., Rockefeller Inst. for Med. Research, until 1930; at Ohio State Univ. as Asst. Prof. of Medicine, 1930-33; Assoc. Prof. of Medicine, 1933-37; Prof. of Medicine, 1937-45; Chairman of Dept. since 1945. Fellow: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. College of Physicians. Member: Central Soc. for Clinical Research; Soc. for Experimental Biol. and Med.; Amer. Soc. for Experimental Pathol. Author of many articles published in scientific journals. Address: Ohio State Univ., Columbus, Ohio.

WISÉN, ERIK JOHAN SIXTEN, Swedish Minister to Cuba; born December 25, 1889, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Johan Gustav and Venelda Wisén; educated at University of Stockholm, LL.M.; married Alexandra de Loviaguine, Feb. 16, 1926. Began career as a judge. Held diplomatic posts in Germany, England, France, Spain, Portugal, Bulgaria, Turkey and China; Chargé d'Affaires in Cuba, Dominican Republic and Haiti, 1939-44; now Minister to Cuba, the Dominican Republic and Haiti. Received many Swedish and foreign decorations. Address: Swedish Legation, Apartado No. 1376, Havana, Cuba.

WISKEMANN, ELIZABETH, British Publicist; educated at Newnham College, Cambridge (First Class History Honours), M.A., M.Litt. (Cantab.). Coach in Modern History, Cambridge Univ.; free-lance writer on international affairs. Contributor to Spectator, Economist, Foreign Affairs, New York Herald-Tribune; lectured in U. S., 1938. Asst. Press Attaché, British Legation, Berne, 1940-45. Author: Czechs and Germans (on behalf of Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs, London), 1938; Undeclared War, 1939 (Amer. title, Prologue to War); Italy in World Today series (Oxford Univ. Press). Residence: 42 St. George's Square, London, S.W. 1. Office: The Economist, Strand, London, W.C. 2, England.

WISLOCKI, Dr. GEORGE BERNAYS, American Anatomist; born March 25, 1892, San Jose, Calif.; son of Stanislaus and Lily C. (Bernays) Wislocki; educated at Wash. Univ., A.B. 1912; Johns Hopkins Univ., M.D. 1916; Harvard Univ., Hon. A.M. 1941; married Florence Clothier, 1931; four children. Asst. in Anatomy, Johns Hopkins Med. School, 1916. During First World War, First Lieut., Medical Corps, U. S. Army; Arthur Tracy Cabot Fellow, Harvard Med. School, 1918-20; Assoc. in Anatomy, Johns Hopkins, 1920-23; Assoc. Prof., 1923-31; Parkman Prof. of Anatomy, Harvard, 1931-41; James Stillman Prof. of Anatomy since 1941. He is a Trustee of Forsyth Dental Infirmary; Assoc. Editor of Amer. Journal of Anatomy; Member of Amer. Assn. of Anatomists; Amer. Physiol. Soc.; Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Institut International d'Embryologie; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences, etc. Author of papers on histology, embryology, comparative anatomy and endocrinology. Res.: 148 Hillside St., Milton, Mass. Office: Harvard Med. School, 25 Shattuck St., Boston, Mass.

WISMER, OTTO G., American Banker; born March 5, 1891, Au Sable, Mich.; son of Frank and Elizabeth (Cruickshank) Wismer; educated at Univ. of Michigan, B.A. 1913, LL.B. 1915; married Adelaide C. Furtaw, April 11, 1936; three children. Engaged in practice of law, 1916-19; Directing Attorney, Legal Air Bureau of Detroit Bar Assn., 1920-28. Vice Pres. and Trust Officer, Bankers Trust Co. of Detroit, 1928-31; Pres., 1931—. Pres., Bondholders Management, Inc., 1933—. Director: Bankers Trust Co. of Detroit; Bondholders Management, Inc.; Abstract and Title Guaranty Co.; General Finance Corp.; General Discount Corp. Member, Bd. of Directors since 1928: Legal Aid Bureau; Children's Aid Soc. (Pres., 1928—). Residence: 456 University Place, Grosse Pointe, Mich. Office: 205 W. Congress St., Detroit 26, Mich.

WISTRAND, KARL KNUTSSON, Swedish Senator; born Apr. 9, 1889, Karlskoga, Sweden; son of Knut and Louise (Strokirk) Wistrand; educated at University of Uppsala, graduated in law, 1911; married Louise Follin, 1936. Judge, 1914-18. Director, Iron Masters Assn. and of Assn. of Mines of Middle Sweden, 1920-36. Secretary, Iron Works Commercial Assn., 1920-38. Member, County Council of Stockholm, 1931-38. Elected to Swedish Senate, 1937. President, Conservative Party of Stockholm, 1936-40. Suppleant of Labor Court, 1929-38; Member, Social Board, 1931-37. Delegate to Labor Conferences in Geneva, 1927-38; Delegate to Assembly of League of Nations, 1938. Vice-Pres., State Control Commn., 1940-44; Pres., 1945. Address: Tysta Gatan 7, Stockholm, Sweden.

WITHAM, Dr. HENRY BRYAN, American Professor of Law; born October 17, 1894, Orient, Iowa; son of Martin Woodman and Mary Jane (Reed) Witham; educated at Colorado College, Colorado Springs, 1914-15; State University of Iowa, A.B. 1919, LL.B. 1921, J.D. 1925; married Elsa Dethlefs, Oct. 11, 1918; three children. Admitted to the Bar of Iowa, 1922; practiced at Davenport, Iowa, 1924-26. Assistant Professor of Law and Secretary, Law College of the University of Tennessee, 1926-28; Acting Dean, 1930-33, and Dean, 1933-44. President and Director, Tennessee Law Review, Inc., 1930-44, Legal Counsel, University of Tennessee, 1939-44; Member, Tennessee Judicial Council, 1942-44. Public Panel Member of War Labor Board, 1943-44. Associate Dean and Prof. of Law in charge, Indianapolis Division of Indiana University School of Law, since 1944. Residence: 3338 Guilford Ave. Office: 102 W. Michigan St., Indianapolis, Ind.

WITHEROW, WILLIAM PORTER, American Industrialist; born April 15, 1888, Pittsburgh, Pa.; son of William and Alice (Douglass) Witherow; educated in St. Paul's School and Yale Univ. (Sheffield Scientific School), Ph.B. 1908; LL.D., Thiel College; married Dorothy Dilworth, Dec. 3, 1913; two children. Engineer, Jones & Laughlin Steel Co., Aliquippa Works, 1908-10; with Irvin & Witherow, Engineers, engaged in designing of steel buildings and erection of concrete and steel structures, 1910-13; organized Witherow Steel Co., 1913, and was President until 1929; merged with Donner Steel Co., 1929-30, and became Chairman of Board. During 1930-31 the Donner Steel Co. consolidated to form Republic Steel Corp., of which he became Vice-Pres.; resigned later. Pres. of Blaw-Knox Co., since 1937; Chmn. of Bd. since 1943. Pres. and Dir., Steel Products Co. Trustee, Dollar Savings Bank. Director: Peoples First Natl. Bank & Trust Co.; Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co.; Pittsburgh & West Virginia Railway Company; Union Switch & Signal Company; Westinghouse Air Brake Co.; Bell Telephone Co. of Penna. Director of National Association of Manufacturers in 1940, Member of Committee on Resolutions in 1940, Chairman of Committee on National Defense in 1941, President in 1942, Chairman of Board of Directors in 1943, Chairman of Executive Committee in 1944, and Chairman of Finance Com., 1945. Trustee, Carnegie Inst., Carnegie Inst. of Technology and of Northwestern Mut. Life Ins. Co. Director, Chamber of Commerce, U. S. A., 1934-38. Director of National Labor Relations Board, NRA. Washington, 1935. Residence: 5548 Northumberland St. Office: 2028 Farmers Bank Bldg. Pittsburgh, Pa.

WITHERS, CARL K., American Banker; born Dec. 15, 1895, Scranton, Pa.; educated in public and high schools; Amer. Inst. of Banking. Ensign, U. S. Navy, World War I. Trust Officer, First Mechanics National Bank, Trenton, until 1935; Commissioner of Banking and Insurance, State of New Jersey, 1935-38; Pres., Lincoln National Bank, Newark, since 1938. Director: New Jersey Realty Co.; New Jersey Realty Title Ins. Co. Chairman, Salvation Army Advisory Board, Newark, since 1942; Chairman, Newark Red Cross Fund Campaign, 1947; Director, Newark Y.M.C.A. Pres., National Bank Division, Amer. Bankers Assn., 1946-47; Member of Executive Council, Amer. Bankers Assn., 1939-40. Residence: 16 Park Pl. Office: 1005 Broad St., Newark, N. J.

WITHERS, IVA, Canadian Singer and Actress; born in Rivers, Manitoba, Canada; daughter of Roy Allan and Edith E. (Keenan) Withers; educated at Lord Roberts Junior Grade School and Gordon Bell Senior High School, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada; married Robert G. Strom, June 12, 1943. Soloist on radio (CKY, CJRC, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada); soloist for Young United and Crescent Fort Rouge Churches of Winnipeg, Canada. With New York shows: "Carousel" (ensemble), 1945; played lead in "Oklahoma", 1945; lead in "Carousel", 1946-48. Residence: 400 W. 119th St. Office: Theatre Guild, 23 W. 53rd St., New York, N. Y.

WITHEY, Prof. MORTON OWEN, American Engineering Educator; born Oct. 25, 1882, Meriden, Conn.; son of Emanuel and Marion E. (Carpenter) Withey; educated at Dartmouth College, B.S. 1904; Thayer School of Engineering, C.E. 1905; married Iola M. Harker, Sept. 10, 1907; five children. Asst. in Graphics and Surveying, Dartmouth College, 1904-05; Instructor in Mechanics, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1905; Asst. and Assoc. Prof., 1910-20; Prof. since 1920. Chairman of Dept. of Mechanics, 1934-36; Dean, College of Engineering, since June 29, 1946. In charge of tests on steel column research for Amer. Soc. of Civil Engineers, 1924-32. Pres., Amer. Concrete Inst., 1943. Member: Amer. Soc. for Testing Materials; Soc. for Promotion of Engineering Education, etc. Co-Author: Johnson's Materials of Construction; Strength of Materials, etc. Address: University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.

WITHINGTON, Dr. ROBERT, American Professor of English Language and Literature; born June 7, 1884, Boston, Mass.; son of Charles Francis and Georgiana (Bowen) Withington; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1906, A.M. 1909, Ph.D. 1913; married Helen Frances Small, Mar. 21, 1925; two children. Lecteur d'anglais, Univ. of Lyon, France, 1909-10; Asst. in English, Harvard, 1910-12; Rogers Travelling Fellow (Harvard), in England, 1913-14; Instructor in English, Indiana Univ., 1914-17; Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof. and Prof. at Smith College since 1917. Served on Faculty of American Univ. (Biarritz, France), 1945-46. Made Chevalier de l'Ordre de la Couronne (Belgium), 1919; Officier d'Académie (France), 1920; Officier de l'Instruction Publique (France), 1930. Author: A Manual of Pageantry (monograph), 1915; Arma Virumque (verse), 1917; English Pageantry, an Historical Outline, Vol. I, 1918, and Vol. II, 1920; In Occupied Belgium, 1921; Excursions in English Drama, 1937. Editor: Essays and Characters: Montaigne to Goldsmith, 1933; Essays and Characters: Lamb to Thompson, 1933; Eminent British Writers of the Nineteenth Century, Vol. I, Coleridge to Dickens, and Vol. II, Thackeray to Thompson (with late Cortlandt van Winkle), 1934; The Art of Literary Criticism (with Paul R. Lider), 1941. Contributed numerous articles to various volumes and periodicals. Address: Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

WITHINGTON, WINTHROP, American Manufacturer; born Nov. 30, 1878, Jackson, Mich.; son of William H. and Julia Chittenden (Beebe) Withington; educated at Chateau de Lancey, Geneva, Switzerland; Phillips Andover; Univ. of Michigan; married Jane Wilkins, Feb. 14, 1920; one son; married Sara V. Rau, June 12, 1946. Began as employee of Withington & Cooley Mfg. Co., Jackson, 1899, occupying various factory and office positions until 1902. Secy.-Treas., Withington Works, Amer. Fork & Hoe Co., 1902-17; Treasurer and Manufacturing Director, 1919; Vice-Pres. and Mfg. Director, since 1923. Chairman of the Board, Sparks-Withington Co. Member, Exec. Com. of American Hardware Mfg. Assn., 1937, 1938 and 1939. Commissioned Captain of Ordnance at Camp Meade, Md., 1917; promoted to Major, 1918; Lieut.-Col. on the General Staff, A.E.F., serving as Asst. Chief of Staff, 7th Div., 1918; Colonel, Ordnance Reserve, and Chief of the Cleveland Ordnance District. Colonel of Ordnance Reserve; formerly Chief, Cleveland Ordnance District, now Chmn., Advisory Board. Residence: 17915 Shaker Blvd., Shaker Heights. Office: 1910 Keith Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio.

WITHROW, Dr. JAMES RENWICK, American Chemical Engineer; born Aug. 29, 1878, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of David Daniel and Margaret (Stewart) Withrow; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania, B.S. 1899, Ph.D. 1905; Hon. D.Sc., Geneva College, 1935; married Alice Steelman, 1906; three children. Chemist, Barrett Manufacturing Co., Philadelphia, Pa., 1899-1903; Chief of Research Laboratory, 1899-1903; Supt., Light Oil and Benzol Refining, Barrett Manufacturing Co., 1900-03; Asst. Instructor, Univ. of Illinois, 1905; Instructor in Analytical and Applied Chemistry, 1906; Asst. Prof. of Chemistry, Ohio State Univ., 1906-09; Assoc. Prof., 1909-11; Prof., 1911-26. Chairman of Chemical Engineering, Ohio State Univ., since 1926; Prof. of Chemical Engineering since 1927; also Consulting Chemical Engineer. Chairman, First Technical Session, World Congress of Chemical Engineering, London, England, 1936. Fellow: Amer. Inst. of Chemists; Amer. Geographical Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member: Amer. Inst. of Chemical Engineers; Amer. Soc. for Testing Materials; Engineers Club of Columbus (Past Pres.); Philadelphia Mineralogical Club (Past Pres.); Amer. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Engineering Council Assembly (Past Pres.); Carnegie Foundation for Advancement of Teaching, etc. Author: Applications of Chemical Engineering, 1938; Teaching of Industrial Chemistry (with L. K. Herndon and O. J. Pence), 1938, etc. Editor, chapter on industrial chemistry and chemical engineering, American Year Book, 1912-19. Address: Dept. of Chemical Engineering, Ohio State University, Columbus 10, Ohio.

WITLOX, Dr. JOHN, Dutch Author; born Feb. 26, 1886, Waalwijk, The Netherlands; son of Henri and Mary (Bressers) Witlox; educated at Seminary of Bois-le-Duc; Univ. of Amsterdam, Litt.D. Taught at Bois-le-Duc Lyceum and at Seminary of St. Michielsgestel, 1919-29. Chief Editor, Maasbode, Rotterdam, 1929-40 and since 1945. Author (historical studies): De R. K. Staatspartij (2 vols.); Studies over Het Herstel der Hierarchie; Joannes Zwijsen; Graaf Fortuné Duchastel; Varia Historica. Member of several scientific organizations. Address: Nieuwe Binnenweg 33, Rotterdam, The Netherlands.

WITMEUR, Dr. ÉMILE, Belgian Economist; born 1874, Jupille, Liège, Belgium; son of Joseph and Jeanne (Dessouroux) Witmeur; educated at Univ. of Liège, 1892-96; Bonn Univ., Germany, Ph.D. 1896; married Victoire Fouassin, 1906; two children. Prof., Atheneum Verviers, 1903; Atheneum Liège, 1906. Prof., Univ. of Liège, 1919; Dean, Philosophical Faculty, 1934; Chairman, Philosophical Examinations, 1942; Chairman, Dept. of Economics, 1943; Emeritus Prof. since 1945. Director, Univ. Economic Publications, since 1945. Chairman, Bibliothèque Scientifique Belge; Secy. of Burgomaster of Liège, during World Wars 1914-18, 1940-45. Hon. Member, Société Internationale d'Enseignement Commercial, Zurich, Switzerland. Commander, Crown of Belgium; Commander, Leopold's Order, Belgium; Commander of Phenix, Greece; Commander, Crown of Italy; Officer, White Lion of Czechoslovakia; Knight, Legion of Honor, France. Honoured with "Mélanges Emile Witmeur," contributions of 33 Professors of Europe and America, 1939. Author: Tagebuch des Grafen Hermann Stainlein, 1908; Hommage de la France à la Cité de Liège, 1923; Industrialisation de la Turquie Nouvelle, 1937; Essai sur la Vie et la Mort de Léon Stas, 1946; numerous contributions to periodicals; also translations into Dutch and German of various musical operas and choruses. Residence: 32 rue Louvrex, Liège, Belgium.

WITSCHI, Prof. EMIL, American Scientist; born Feb. 18, 1890, Bern, Switzerland; son of Johann and Elisabeth (Blank) Witschi; educated at Univ. of Bern, Statsexamen, 1911; Univ. of Munich, Ph.D. 1913; married Ida Martha Muehlestein, 1914; two children. Privatdozent, Univ. of Basel, Switzerland, 1921-27. Prof. of Zoology, Experimental Embryology and Endocrinology, State Univ. of Iowa, since 1927. Member: Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Amer. Assn. of Anatomists; Soc. of Experimental Biology and Medicine; Genetics Soc.; Amer. Naturalists; Amer. Ornithologists Union; Schweiz. Naturforsch. Ges.; Sigma Xi; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Gamma Alpha. Corresponding Member: Swiss Soc. of Genetics; Carol-Leopold. Acad. Sci. Author: Sex Deviations, Inversions and Parabiosis (edited by Allen). Contributor of 150 articles to scientific journals on neoplastic growth, sex determination, hermaphroditism, endocrinology and embryology. Address: Dept. of Zoology, State Univ. of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa.

WITSELL, Major General EDWARD FULLER, United States Army Officer; born March 29, 1891, Charleston, S. C.; son of Edward F. and Rosa E. (Oliveros) Witsell; educated at The Citadel, Charleston, S. C., B.S. 1911, LL.D. 1947; Army War College, 1929; married Daphne Dow, Dec. 13, 1917; three children. Second Lieut., Inf., U. S. Army, 1912; promoted successively through all commissioned grades in U. S. Army to Major General. Adjutant General, 1946—. Member, Board of Commissioners, U. S. Soldiers Home, Washington, D. C.; Bd. of Managers, Army Emergency Relief. Vice President, Army Mutual Aid Assn. Residence :4704 Piney Branch Road, N.W. Office: The Pentagon, Washington, D. C.

WITTE, Dr. EDWIN E., American Economist; born Jan. 4, 1887, Jefferson Co., Wis.; son of Emil and Anna (Yaeck) Witte; educated at University of Wisconsin, B.A. 1909, Ph.D. 1927; married Florence Rimsnider, Sept. 2, 1916; three children. Statistician to Industrial Commission of Wisconsin, 1912; Secretary to a Member of Congress, 1912-14; Special Agent, U. S. Commission on Industrial Relations, 1914-15; Assistant, University of Wisconsin, 1915-16; Secretary, Industrial Commission of Wisconsin, 1917-22; Chief, Wisconsin Legislative Reference Service, 1922-23. Part-time Lecturer, University of Wisconsin, 1920-33; Professor of Economics since 1933; Chmn., Dept. of Economics. Exec. Dir., President's Com. on Economic Security, 1934-35. Special Agent of President's Committee on Administrative Management, 1936; Chairman, National War Labor Board (Region XI), 1943-44; Member, National War Labor Board, 1944-45. 1944. Author: The Government in Labor Disputes (1932); The Preparation of Proposed Legislative Measures by Administrative Department (1931); Post-War Economic Problems (with Seymour E. Harris). Residence: 1609 Madison St., University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.

WITTICH, FREDERICK W(ILLIAM), American Physician; born Feb. 3, 1885, Carlisle, Pa.; son of Rev. Philip and Virginia (Klinger) Wittich; educated at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, B.S. 1908, M.A. (Hon.) 1909; Johns Hopkins Medical School, M.D. 1913; married Viola Lerum, Aug. 5, 1935; one son. Pathologist, North Chicago Hosp., Chicago, Ill., 1913-14; Asst. Physician and Pathologist, Pub. Hosp. for the Insane, New Westminister, B. C., 1914-15; Supt., Pokegama (Minn.) Sanatorium, 1915-16; Instructor of Medicine and Phys. in Charge, Chest Clinic, Out-Patient Dept., Med. School, Univ. of Minn., 1916-18; Asst. Prof. of Med., Asst. Chief of Med. Clinic, Univ. Hosp., Chief of Out-Patient Chest Clinic, Univ. of Minn., 1918-25; Assoc. in Tuberculosis, Minneapolis General Hosp., Member, Out-Patient Staff, Glen Lake Sanatorium, 1925-45. One of founders: Minneapolis Acad. of Med.; Amer. College of Allergists (Member, Bd. of Regents and Secy.-Treas.); Internatl. Assn. of Allergists (Chmn. of Exec. Com.). Fellow: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Acad. of Allergy; Amer. College of Chest Physicians. Member: Assn. of Amer. Physicians and Surgeons; Minnesota State Med. Soc.; Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.; Amer. Trudeau Soc.; Amer. Soc. of Certified Allergists; Amer. Assn. of Immunologists; Assn. of Allergists for Mycological Investigation; Internatl. Correspondence Club of Allergists; Soc. for Study of Unknown Causes of Hay Fever and Asthma; Southwest Allergy Forum; Sociedad Chilena de Alergia (Hon.); Sociedad Colombiana de Alergia (Hon.); Sociedad Argentina de Alergia (Hon.); Sociedad Peruana de Alergia (Hon.); Sociedad Brasileira de Alergia (Hon.); Instituto Brasileira de Historia da Medicina (Hon.); Sociedad de Estudios Clínicos de la Habana (Hon.); Swedish Allergy Soc. (Hon.). Member, Editorial Board, Acta Allergológica; Received Silver Medal of Pasteur; Editor-in-Chief, Quarterly Review of Allergy and Applied Immunology; Managing Editor, Annals of Allergy. Author of more than one hundred medical publications, including chapter in Treatment of Bronchial Asthma by Derbes and Engelhardt (J. B. Lippincott Co.) and in Progress in Allergy, Vol. II, Fortschritte der Allergielehre, edited by P. Kallós (S. Karger and E. Munksgaard Publishing House); also textbook on Clinical Allergy (in press). Address: 423 LaSalle Medical Bldg., Minneapolis 2, Minn.

WITTING, ROLF JOHAN, Finnish Statesman, Ex-Foreign Minister; born 1879; educated at Helsinki Univ. Director of Finnish Marine Explorations, 1911; Director of Institute for Exploration of the Sea, 1919. Minister of Communications and Public Works, 1924-25. Deputy and Member, Swedish People's Party, 1924-27. Served as General Secretary, International Geographical Assn. Asst. Minister of Finance and of Foreign Affairs, 1933-36; later Foreign Minister. General Manager of Helsingfors Aktiebank, 1936. Address: Helsinki, Finland.

WITTLIN, JOSEPH, Polish Author; born Aug. 17, 1896, Dmytrow, Poland; son of Karol and Elisa (Rosenfeld) Wittlin; educated at University of Vienna; University of Lwow; married Halina Handelsman, July, 1924; one daughter. Literary Director, Municipal Theatre, Lodz, Poland, 1922-24. Author: Hymns, 1920, 1926, 1929; War, Peace and a Poet's Soul, 1925; Étapes, 1932; Salt of the Earth, 1935; Saga of the Patient Foot Soldier, etc. Translated Homer's Odyssey into Polish, 1924, and over 20 volumes and plays from German, Italian and French. Awarded P.E.N. Prize for Odyssey translation; Golden Laurel from Polish Academy of Literature, 1937; Arts and Letters Award from American Academy of Arts and Letters for Salt of the Earth, 1943; two Polish prizes for Salt of the Earth. Address: 5400 Fieldton Rd., Riverdale, New York, N. Y.

WITTROCK, Dr. GEORG JOHAN VEIT, Swedish Historian; born Aug. 9, 1876, Uppsala, Sweden; son of Veit and Christina (Danielsson) Wittrock; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, doctorate, 1908; married Märta Wohlin, 1911; three children. Asst. Prof. (Docent), Univ. of Uppsala, 1908; Lecturer at Luleå, 1913-15; Västerås, 1916-23; Temporary Prof. of History, Univ. of Uppsala, 1920-23; Prof. of History, 1923-41; Prof. Emeritus since then. Author: Carl X Gustafs Testamente, 1908; Karl XI:s förmyndares finanspolitik, 1-11, 1914-17; Svenska handelskompaniet, 1919; Gustavus Adolphus II, 1927 (translated into German, 1930); Den väpnade freden, 1871-1914, 1934; Österrike-Ungern i bosniska krisen, 1908-09, 1939; various articles concerning the Polish War of Charles X, 1920-22, etc. Residence: Sturegatan 14, Uppsala, Sweden.

WITTS, Dr. LESLIE JOHN, British Professor of Medicine; born Apr. 21, 1898, Warrington, England; son of W. J. and Rose (Hunt) Witts; educated at Manchester, New York, Prague and Cambridge Univs.; M.D. 1926; F.R.C.P., London, 1931; married Nancy G. Salzman, Sept. 1, 1929; four children. Asst. Physician of Guy's Hospital, 1929-34; Prof. of Medicine, St. Bartholomew's Hospital, 1934-38; Nuffield Prof. of Medicine, Univ. of Oxford, since 1938. Member: Medical Research Council of Great Britain; Hon. Treas., Assn. of Physicians of Great Britain and Ireland. Author: Goulstonian Lectures in Anemia, 1932. Lieut. with Royal Field Artillery, 1918. Residence: Wood House, Iffley. Office: Radcliffe Infirmary, Oxford, England.

WODEHOUSE, Dr. HELEN MARION, British Educator; born Oct. 12, 1880, Bratton Fleming, North Devon, England; daughter of Philip John and Marion B. (Wallas) Wodehouse; educater at Girton College, Cambridge, 1898-1902; Univ. of Birmingham, M.A. 1904, D.Phil. 1907. University Teacher, 1903; Lecturer in Philosophy, Univ. of Birmingham, 1903-11; Principal, Bingley Training College, Yorkshire, 1911-19. Prof. of Education, Univ. of Bristol, 1919-31; Mistress of Girton College, Cambridge, 1931-42; Director of Crosby Hall, Chelsea, London, 1943-44. Pres., British Federation of Univ. Women, 1942-45. Pres., Assn. of Teachers in Colleges and Depts. of Education, 1943-46. Author: The Logic of Will, 1907; The Presentation of Reality, 1910; Nights and Days and other Lay Sermons, 1914; God the Prisoner and other Lay Sermons, 1920; A Survey of the History of Education, 1924; The Scripture Lession in the Elementary School, 1926; Temples and Treasuries and other Lay Sermons, 1935; Selves and Their Good, 1936; One Kind of Religion, 1944. Address: 8 Glanmor Crescent, Swansea, South Wales, United Kingdom.

WODEHOUSE, P(ELHAM) G(RENVILLE), British Writer; born 1881. Author: A Damsel in Distress, 1919; Indiscretions of Archie, 1921; Jill the Reckless, 1921; The Girl on the Boat, 1922; Mostly Sally, 1923; Golf Without Tears, 1924; Leave it to Psmith, 1924; He Rather Enjoyed It, 1925; Sam the Sudden, 1928; Good Morning Bill (three-act comedy), 1928; Money for Nothing, 1928; Fish Preferred, 1929; Piccadilly Jim, 1931; Very Good, Jeeves, 1931; The Inimitable Jeeves, 1931; Big Money, 1931; If I Were You, 1931; Hot Water, 1932; Nothing But Wodehouse (edited by Ogden Nash), 1932; Heavy Weather, 1933; Thank You, Jeeves, 1934; The Coming of Bill, 1935; Enter Psmith, 1935; Laughing Gas, 1936; The Luck of the Bodkins, 1936; The Crime Wave at Blandings, 1937; The Code of the Woosters, 1938; Eggs, Beans and Crumpets, 1940; Quick Service, 1940; Psmith in the City, 1941; Joy in the Morning, 1946, etc. Address: c/o Jenkins, Ltd., 3 Duke of York St., St. James', London, S.W. 1, England.

WODEHOUSE, Dr. ROGER P., American Botanist; born Dec. 9, 1889, Toronto, Canada; son of Thomas F. and Laura E. (Briant) Wodehouse; educated at Toronto Univ., B.A. 1913; Harvard Univ., M.A. 1916; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1928; married Ellys T. Butler, 1942; three children. Teacher of Botany, Histology and Embryology at Toronto Univ., 1912-13; taught Botany at Harvard Univ., 1916. Research work at Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, Boston, Mass., 1916-17; Director, Hayfever Laboratory, The Arlington Chemical Co., Yonkers, N. Y., 1918-44; Assoc. Director of Research in Allergy, Lederle Laboratory, since 1944. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member: Botanical Soc. of America; Member and Former Editor, Torrey Botanical Club; Member, Com. on Aerobiology, Natl. Research Council. Assoc. Fellow, Amer. College of Allergists. Author: Pollen Grains, 1935; Hayfever Plants, 1944. Address: Lederle Laboratories, Pearl River, N. Y.

WODETZKY, Dr. JOSEPH, Hungarian Astronomer; born Mar. 15, 1872, Versec, Hungary; son of Louis and Emma (Weinert) Wodetzky; educated at Univ. of Budapest; Sorbonne, Paris, 1907-08, Ph.D. 1909. Asst., Univ. of Budapest, 1912; Lecturer on Theoretical Astronomy, Univ. of Budapest, 1914; Prof. of Physics, Univ. of Debrecen, 1923; Prof. of Theoretical Astronomy, Univ. of Budapest, 1934-42. Dean, Medical Faculty, Univ. of Debrecen, 1927-28; Chairman, Mathematical-Physical Section, St. Stephen's Acad., Budapest, 1938-44. Fellow, Royal Astronomical Soc., London. Member, Astronomische Gesellschaft; Hon. Member, Yugoslavian Astronomical Soc.; St. Stephen's Acad., Budapest; Medical Soc. of Debrecen; Member and former Secy., Hungarian Astronomical Soc. Author: The System of Zeta Cancri and the Problem of Three Bodies; Ueber Lichtstrahlen Krümmung und Rotverschiebung; Zur Kosmologischen Deutung der Friedman'schen Gleichungen; Theory of the Moon; Relativity-Theory, Problem of Three Bodies, etc. Address: Üllöiut, 121, Budapest IX, Hungary.

WOHLENBERG, Dr. WALTER JACOB, American Professor of Mechanical Engineering; born Feb. 17, 1888, Lincoln, Neb.; son of Peter J. and Gretchen Tychsen; educated at Univ. of Nebraska, B.S. in M.E. 1910, Hon. Dr. Engr. 1937; Univ. of Illinois, M.Sc. 1916; married Charlotte A. Spangler, June 24, 1918. Research Fellow, Univ. of Illinois, 1912-14; on faculties of Univs. of Oklahoma and Montana, 1914-18. Sterling Prof. of Mechanical Engineering, Yale Univ., since 1918; Consulting Engineer since 1920. Fellow, Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers (Vice-Pres. 1943-45). Author of numerous papers on heat transfer in furnaces and heat power. Address: Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut.

WOHLIN, Dr. MARGIT, Swedish Author and Sociologist; born Jan. 19, 1897; daughter of Prof. Gustav and Johanna (Björnson-Möller); educated at Univ. of Lund, fil. kand. 1919; Univ. of Stockholm, fil. lic. 1922, Ph.D. 1925 (Political Science); during studies spent time at Univs. of Paris, Cambridge, Tuebingen, Kiel and London; married Nils Wohlin, July 12, 1927 (divorced); four children. Taught at high school and boarding schools; lecured to societies of housewives and study circles; engaged in free lance work, weekly magazines and newspapers, writing on women and family, social, educational, religious and moral problems. Organized the society Friends of Homes (social welfare). Member, Publicistklubben (Journalists Club). Author: Småbarn (Small Children), 1932; Kan familjen räddas (Can the Family Be Saved?), 1943. Address: Stocksund, Sweden.

WOHLIN, Dr. NILS RICHARD, Swedish Political Leader; born June 11, 1881, Stockholm, Sweden; educated at Uppsala Univ., Ph.D. 1912; Prof. of Statistics, 1916; Minister of Trade, 1923-24; Minister of Finance, 1928-39; Pres., Royal Board of Customs, 1930—. Secy., Member or Chmn. of numerous Royal Committees, 1907-42; Member, first Chamber of the Riksdag, 1919-42. Member: Royal Academy of Agriculture; Royal Academy of Science. Address: Royal Board of Customs, Stockholm, Sweden.

WOLBACH, Dr. SIMEON BURT, American Physician; born July 3, 1880, Grand Island, Nebraska; son of Samuel N. and Rosa (Stein) Wolbach; educated at Harvard, M.D. 1903; married Anna F. Wellington, 1914. Shattuck Prof. of Pathol. Anatomy, Harvard Med. School; also Pathol. to Children's, Peter Bent Brigham Hosps.; Consultant in Pathology, Boston Lying-in Hosp. Fellow of Royal Soc. of Tropical Med. and Hygiene. Member of Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Soc. for Experimental Pathol. (Ex-Pres.); Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Amer. Assn. of Pathols. and Bacteriols.; Soc. for Experimental Biol. and Med.; Amer. Assn. for Cancer Research (Ex-Pres.); Harvey Soc. (Hon.); Société de Pathologie Exotique (Corresponding);

Comdr., Order of Polonia Restituta. Res.: Sudbury, Mass. Office: 25 Shattuck St., Boston, Mass.

WOLCOTT, ROBERT WILSON, American Industrialist; born April 20, 1892, Sewickley, Pa.; son of Darwin Stanton and Evelyn Brent (Riley) Wolcott; educated at Shadyside Acad. of Pittsburgh, Manlius School and Lehigh Univ.; married Alice Rebecca Huston, 1919; three children. Joined Lukens Steel Co. as Warehouse and Fabrication Manager in New Orleans, 1922, and has been Pres. since 1925. Director: York Corp.; Downingtown Mfg. Co.; Natl. Bank of Chester Valley; Amer. Iron and Steel Inst.. Member of Amer. Soc. of Naval Architects, the Iron and Steel Inst. of Great Britain, The Newcomen Soc., and the Franklin Inst. During World War II served as Member of Industry Adv. Com., Iron and Steel Div., and as Consultant, Steel, Div., W.P.B. Served in U. S. Naval Aviation, 1917-18; Lt. Commander, 1919. Residence: Downington, Pa. Office: Lukens Steel Co., South First Ave., Coatesville, Pa.

WOLCOTT, ROGER, American Attorney-at-Law; born in Milton, Mass., 1877; son of Roger Wolcott, Gov. of Mass. and Edith (Prescott) Wolcott; educated at Harvard College, A.B. cum laude, 1899; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1902; married Barbara Hinkley, 1928; two daughters. Began practice of law, 1902; in Law Dept. of Boston Elevated Railway, 1902-06; in independent practice since 1906. Representative in Mass. General Court, 1909-12 and 1917. Member, Mass. Board of Insanity, 1914. Pres., York Mfg. Co., 1926-27. Former Overseer, Harvard College; former Chairman, Harvard Fund Council. Pres., Boston Athenaeum. Member of Corp. of Perkins Institution for the Blind; former Treas. of Friends of Poland. Trustee, Boston Home for Incurables. Pres., Mass. Soc. of the Cincinnati. Private, 1st Mass. Heavy Artillery, U.S.V., throughout Spanish-Amer. War. Major of Infantry, U.S.A., in charge of the draft in Mass., 1917-19. Editor, Correspondence of William Hickling Prescott. Author: Family Jottings. Address: 60 State St., Boston, Mass.

WOLD, AKLILOU HABTE, Ethiopian Statesman; born 1912, Ethiopia; graduated French Lycée, Alexandria, Egypt; received licentiate in law from University of Paris, also diplomas in international law and political economy; diploma from Institute of Higher Commercial Studies in Paris. Served as Chargé d'Affaires at Ethiopian Legation in Paris, 1935-40; after collapse of France during Second World War fled to Portugal and reached Ethiopia; Vice-Minister of Pen (Imperial Secretariat), 1942-43; Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs since 1943. Asst. Chmn., Ethiopian Delegation to United Nations Conf. on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945; Chmn. of Delegation, U. N. General Assembly, London, 1946, and New York, 1947. Chmn., Ethiopian Delegation, Peace Conf., Paris, 1946. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

WOLD, Dr. HERMAN O., Swedish Statistician; born Dec. 25, 1908, Skien, Norway; son of Edvard and Betzy (Omberg) Wold; educated at Univ. of Stockholm, B.Sc. 1930, M.Sc. 1933, Sc.D. 1938; married Anna-Lisa Arrhenius, Apr. 1940; two children. Insurance Statistician; Fylgia Ltd., 1932-35; Associated Mutual Local Fire Ins. Companies, 1936-43; Valkyrian Ltd. since 1946. Lecturer on Mathematical Statistics, Univ. of Stockholm, 1938-42; Prof. of Statistics, Univ. of Upsala, since 1942. Member or Expert in various Administrative Coms., especially Agricultural Com. of 1938, Traffic Security Com. of 1945, Social Science Expansion Program Com. of 1945. Fellow: Econometric Soc.; Inst. of Mathematical Statistics. Member: Upsala Soc. of Humanistic Sciences; Swedish Actuarial Soc.; Swedish Statistical Soc.; Swedish Political Science Soc. Created Knight, Royal Swedish Vasa Order. Author: Mortality Variations in Sweden (with H. Cramér, 1935); A Study in the Analysis of Stationary Time Series, 1938; A Synthesis of Pure Demand Analysis, 1943-44; Tooth Diseases Among Swedish Conscripts (with G. Westin), 1944. Address: Statistical Dept., Univ. of Upsala, Upsala, Sweden.

WOLD, Hon. TERJE, Norwegian Minister of Justice; born Aug. 23, 1899, Evenes, Nordland fylke, Norway; son of Einar and Marie (Carlsen) Wold; educated at Oslo University, 1917-21; Lawyer, 1921; Barrister and Advocate, 1931; married Aud Moe, Aug. 21, 1926; two children. Became District Judge of Veranger and later Chief of Police in Vadso; Chairman, Vadso City Council; Mayor of Vadso, 1928; practiced law in Vadso; elected District High Court Judge for the Haalogaland Area, 1936. Member of Parliament. Minister of Justice and Police, 1939—. Chmn., Foreign Affairs Com. of Norway. Address: Ministry of Justice, Oslo, Norway.

WOLDEMARIAN, AMBAYE, Ethiopian Vice-Minister of Justice; born in 1906, Eritrea; attended Lycée of Seminary of the Vatican in Rome, receiving Ph.D. from University for the Propagation of the Faith in Rome, and licentiate in law from University of Paris. Served as Legal Adviser to Special Court of Addis Ababa, 1933-35; Political Adviser to Harrar Province; after Italian occupation of Ethiopia took refuge in Sudan and Egypt; Legal Adviser to Duke of Harrar, second son of the Emperor, 1941; Vice-Minister of Justice since 1943. Member, Ethiopian Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Address: Ministry of Justice, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

WOLEDGE, Dr. BRIAN, British Professor of French; born Aug. 16, 1904, London; son of Henry and Bessie (Sherren) Woledge; educated at Leeds Univ., B.A. 1926, M.A. 1928; Université de Paris (doctorate 1930); married Christine Craven, Aug. 3, 1933; two children. Asst. Lecturer, Univ. College in Hull, 1930-32; Lecturer, Univ. of Aberdeen, 1932-39. Fielden Prof. of French, Univ. College, London, since 1939. Address: Speen Lodge, Wendover, Aylesbury, Bucks., England.

WOLEDGE, GEOFFREY, British Librarian; born Nov. 13, 1901, London, Eng.; son of Henry and F. B. (Sherren) Woledge; educated at Univ. of Leeds, B.A. 1925; married Hilda Wardlow Vickridge, 1929; one son. Asst. Librarian, Leeds Univ. Library, 1925-31; Librarian, Selly Oak College, Birmingham, 1931-38; Librarian, The Queen's Univ., Belfast, 1938-44; Librarian, British Library of Political and Economic Science (London School of Economics), since 1944. Member: Library Assn. of Univ. and Research Section; Assn. of Special Libraries and Research Bureaux (Member of Council); Thoresby Soc.; Yorkshire Archaeological Soc. Editor (with B. S. Page): A Manual of University and College Library Practice, 1940. Address: British Library of Political and Economic Science, Houghton St., London, W.C. 2, England.

WOLF, Dr. FREDERICK A., American Botanist; born June 25, 1885, Odell, Nebr.; son of August and Wilhelmina (Kracht) Wolf; educated at Univ. of Nebraska, A.B. 1907, A.M. 1908; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1911; married Wynnette Taylor, June 30, 1914; two children. Plant Pathologist, Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station, 1911-15; North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station, 1915-25; U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1925-27. Prof. of Botany, Duke Univ., Durham, N. C., since 1927. Member: Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Science; Amer. Botanical Soc.; Mycological Soc. of America; British Mycological Soc.; Torrey Botanical Club; New England Botanical Club; Amer. Phytopathological Soc. Author: Tobacco Diseases and Decays, 1935; Fungi (2 vols.), 1947. Address: Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

WOLF-HEIDEGGER, Prof. Dr. GERHARD, Swiss Anatomist; born Dec. 29, 1910, Treves (as a citizen of Grand Duchy of Luxembourg); son of Dr. Silvan Wolf, M.D., and Dorothy Mayer-Heidegger; educated at Univ. of Bonn, Ph.D. 1932, M.D. 1934; Univ. of Berlin Asst., Anatomical Inst., Bonn, 1931; Surgical Charity Clinic, Berlin, 1932-33; Anatomical Inst., Bonn, 1933-34; Anatomical Inst., Basle, 1935. Prosector, Anatomical Inst., Univ. of Basle, since 1936; Lecturer in Anatomy, 1937; Prof. of Anatomy, since 1942. Member, Medical Faculty, Basle Univ. Editor (with others) International Archives of Anatomy, Histology, Embryology and Cytology "Acta Anatomica." Member: Schweizerische Naturforschende Gesellschaft; Schweizerische Medizinisch-Biologische Gesellschaft; Schweizerische Gesellscaft für Vererbungsforschung; Schweizerische Gesellschaft für Geschichte der Medizin und Naturwissenschaften; Association des Anatomistes, France. Co-Author: Lehrbuch der Geburtshilfe, 1947; Lehrbuch der Augenheilkunde, 1947. Author: Atlas der systematischen Anatomie des Menschen, 1948. Residence: Unterer Batterieweg 19. Office: Anatomical Institute, Pestalozzistr. 22, Basle, Switzerland.

WOLFE, JACQUES, American Composer; born Apr. 29, 1896, Botosan, Roumania; son of David and Cecillia (Goldenberg) Wolfe; educated at Inst. of Musical Art, New York; studied piano with James Friskin; composition with Percy Goetschius and Franklin Robinson; married Rose Weiner, June 29, 1922; one son. Music Teacher, New York City High Schools, 1922-45. Composer: De Glory Road; Shortnin' Bread; Gwine to Hebbin; The British Children's Prayer; suite for piano, "Maine Holiday"; also orchestral works and some 100 songs. Address: The Lambs Club, 130 West 44th St., New York, N. Y.

WOLFE, Hon. JAMES H., American Jurist; born near Philadelphia, Penna., April 26, 1884; son of Samuel and Emma (Seipt) Wolfe; educated at Lehigh University, M.E. 1905, University of Pennsylvania, LL.B. 1910; married Carolyn Williams, April 16, 1918; five children. In the lumber business 1906; in mining machinery business, 1909. Began practice of law in Utah, 1910; Editor of Utah Survey, 1914-16. Assistant Attorney General of Utah, 1917-21. Served on District Court Bench, 1929-35; elected Justice Supreme Court, 1935; also served as Chief Justice. Formerly Vice-President, National Lawyers Guild. Appointed by the President a member National Railway Labor Panel; served on numerous Railway Emergency Boards; also as referee on the various divisions of the National Railway Adjustment Board. Contributes to Utah Survey, Rocky Mountain Law Review, Columbia Law Review and The Humanist. Residence: 273 E. Capitol. Office: The Capitol, Salt Lake City, Utah.

WOLFE, Rev. Dr. PAUL AUSTIN, American Clergyman; born June 24, 1898, Avalon, Miss.; son of Austin D. and Cornelia Shephard (Weitzel) Wolfe; educated at Carleton College, A.B. 1918; Yale Divinity School, B.D. 1921; Northwestern Univ., D.D. 1933; Blackburn College, LL.D. 1935; S.T.D., New York Univ., 1944; S.T.D., Columbia Univ., 1945; married Helena Woodbridge, Oct. 30, 1926; four daughters. Ordained Minister, Presbyterian Church, 1922. Asst. Minister, Fifth Ave. Church, N. Y., 1922-23; Minister, Keene Valley, N. Y., until 1928. Chaplain, Taft School, Watertown, Conn., 1928-32. Pastor: First Presbyterian Church, Evanston, Ill., 1932-38; Brick Presbyterian Church, N. Y., since 1938. Author: The Choir Loft and the Pulpit (with Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Dickinson). Residence: 544 E. 86th St. Office: 62 E. 92nd St., New York, N. Y.

WOLFER, JOHN A., American Surgeon; born Dec. 7, 1880, Decatur, Ill.; son of Louis and Catherine (Ullrich) Wolfer; educated at Northwestern Univ. Medical School, M.D. 1908; married Maude Hanaford, Sept. 11, 1923. Clinical Asst., Surgical Dept., Northwestern Univ. Med. School, 1910. Became successively Instructor, Assoc., Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof. and Prof. at Northwestern Univ. Med. School. Attending Surgeon, Cook County Hospital, 1913-20; Surgical Staff Member, Wesley Memorial Hospital, 1911-31; Director, Patterson Tumor Clinic, since 1932; Attending Surgeon to Passavant Memorial Hospital since 1931; Chief of Staff, 1945. Consulting Surgeon to Veterans Facility, Hines, Ill., since 1929. Chairman, Executive Com. and Chairman of Medical Advisory Com., Illinois Division, Amer. Cancer Soc., since 1945. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons. Certified by Amer. Board of Surgery (Charter Member). Member: Amer., Illinois State and Chicago Medical Socs.; Chicago Surgical Soc. (Pres. 1939-40); Amer. and Central Surgical Assns. Awarded Distinguished Service Medal, Northwestern Univ. Alumni Assn., 1944. Author of about 50 scientific articles in medical journals. Co-author of a medical book and collaborator on two medical books. Residence: 3000 Sheridan Rd. Office: 700 North Michigan Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

WOLFERS, Dr. ARNOLD, American Political Scientist; born June 14, 1892, St. Gall, Switzerland; naturalized American citizen, 1939; son of Otto and Eugenie (Hirschfeld) Wolfers; educated at Univ. of Zurich, J.U.D. (summa cum laude) 1917; Univ. of Giessen, Ph.D. 1924; studied law at Universities of Lausanne, Munich and Berlin, 1912-17; studied economics and political science, Univs. of Zurich and Berlin, 1920-24; Mt. Holyoke College, Litt.D., 1934; Univ. of Rochester, hon. LL.D. 1945; married Doris Forrer, May 13, 1918. Practicing Lawyer, St. Gall, Switzerland, 1917-19; Asst. Prof. of Economics, Univ. of Berlin, 1929; Director, Hochschule für Politik, Berlin, 1930-33; Visiting Prof. of International Relations, Yale Univ., 1933; Prof. of International Relations, Yale Univ., and Master, Pierson College, since 1935. General Rapporteur, International Studies, Conf., London, 1933. Special Adviser and Lecturer, School of Military Govt., Charlottesville, Va., 1942-44. Expert Consultant, Office of the Provost Marshal General, Washington, D. C., 1942-44. Consultant, Office of Strategic Services, Washington, D. C., 1944-45. Member, Resident Faculty, National War College, Washington, D. C., 1947. Author: Die Verwaltungsorgane der Aktiengesellschaft, 1917; Amerikanische und Deutsche Loehne, 1930; Das Kartellproblem, 1931; Britain and France between Two Wars, 1940; United States Policy Toward Germany, Feb. 1947. Address: Yale University, Pierson College, New Haven, Conn.

WOLFERT, IRA, American Journalist; born Nov. 1, 1908, New York, N. Y.; son of Moses and Sophie (Seidle) Wolfert; educated at Columbia University School of Journalism, B.Lit.; married Helen Herschdorfer, Feb. 18, 1928; two children. Sports Writer for the New York American, 1924. Editor, The North American Newspaper Alliance, since 1929; Special Reporter; Writer of Columns (Footlights); Hollywood Reporter; Sports Writer and War Correspondent. Covered scoop report of Free French Occupation of St. Pierre and Miguelon, Dec. 25, 1941; War Correpondent in Pacific, 1942-43. War Correspondent in Europe, 1944. Member, Authors' League of America. Awarded Pulitzer Prize for International Telegraphic Reporting, 1943. Publications: Battle for the Solomons, Jan. 1943; Tucker's People (novel), Apr. 1943; Torpedo Eight, June 1943; Off the Highway (included in O'Brien's Best Short Stories, 1938); The Way the Luck Runs (included in O'Brien's collection), 1939; also stories and articles in Harper's, Esquire, Reader's Digest, Look, Red Book, Liberty, Collier's and Saturday Evening Post. Address: 229 W. 43rd St., New York, N. Y.

WOLFF, FREDERICK LAURENCE, American Attorney and Counselor at Law; born Aug. 31, 1880, Creston, Ia.; son of Frederick William and Rebecca Ann (Kelsey) Wolff; educated at Creston (Iowa) High School, graduated magna cum laude; University of Kansas; University of Nebraska, LL.B. (Order of Coif), 1904; married Myrtle Meyer, June 24, 1908. Admitted to the Bar, 1904; engaged in general practice of law since then, except in 1927, first lawyer appointed by Supreme Judges (after power of appointment was transferred from Legislature to Supreme Court) to be Judge of State Supreme Court Commission; reappointed 1929, when Judges' number was reduced from six to three; served until 1931. Wrote 248 opinions, 98% approved and released by the Supreme Court. President, Lincoln (Nebraska) Federal Savings & Loan Assn., since 1930. President, Nebraska State Society, Sons of American Revolution; Pres., Omaha Bar Assn.; Member: Amer. Nebraska and Omaha Bar Assns.; Elks (Exalted Ruler, 1929-30; President, 1940-41, Past Exalted Rulers' Association; Chaplain since 1940); Knights of Aksarben; Sons of Union Veterans; Red Cross. Author: The Wolff Genealogy, 1729-1929. Residence: Mt. Vernon Apts. Office: 618-22 Keeline Bldg., Omaha, Nebr.

WOLFF, HENRY J., American Lawyer; born July 13, 1888, N. Y. City; son of Michael and Ida (Isaacs) Wolff; educated at New York University Law School, LL.B. 1912. Associated with Godtsen & Chadbourne, 1912; member, Chadbourne & Shores, Chadbourne, Shores & Wallace; Chadbourne, Babbitt & Wallace; Chadbourne, Wallace, Parke & Whiteside. Prepared agreements for International Sugar Council carrying into effect Chadbourne Plan for Seven Nations; actively engaged in corporate practice, having participated in organization and reorganization and financing of numerous prominent corporations. Dir.: Lone Star Cement Corp.; La Roche-Lombard-Odier, Inc.; Carey Baxter & Kennedy, Inc.; Forttrade Corp., Waverly Sugar Co. Member: Assn. of the Bar of the City of New York; New York County Lawyers Assn.; New York State Bar Assn.; American Bar Assn. Residence: 781 5th Ave. Office: 25 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

WOLFF, HERBERT ALFRED, American Lawyer; born July 20, 1889, New York, N. Y.; son of Alfred R. and Martha (Stettheimer) Wolff; educated at Dartmouth College, A.B. in 1910, Columbia Law School, LL.B. 1913; married Daisy Kempner, Apr. 6, 1916; five children. Admitted to the New York Bar 1913, associated with present firm of Greenbaum, Wolff, and Ernst in 1915. Member: Committee on Discipline of the New York County Lawyers' Assn.; Assn. of the Bar of the City of New York; Amer. Bar Assn.; N. Y. State Bd. of Social Welfare. Pres., Ethical Culture Soc. Author: "A Lawyer's Loyalties"; "Civil Liberties and the Teacher," etc. Address: 285 Madison Ave., New York, New York.

WOLFRAM, Rev. ALBERT L., American Clergyman, Educator; born Sharon, Wis., Sept. 30, 1887; son of Henry G. and Anna (Richter) Wolfram; educated at Northwestern Coll.; Zarephath Bible Seminary; hon. A.B. Alma White College, 1924; married Gertrude Metlen, Nov. 11, 1909; three sons. Ordained to Pillar of Fire Church, 1907; Vice-President and Secretary, Pillar of Fire Church, New York since 1920; served several terms as Trustee of Pillar of Fire of Ohio and of Colorado. Trustee, Pillar of Fire of New Jersey since 1908; President, Pillar of Fire of Pennsylvania since 1921. Instructor at Zarephath Bible Seminary, twenty five years. Bursar of Alma White College since 1918; Associate Editor, Pillar of Fire Magazine since 1925. Author of more than twelve hundred articles for various publications. Preacher, lecturer and announcer over WAWZ of Zarephath, N. J., since 1931. Address: Zarephath, New Jersey.

WOLFSOHN, JOEL DAVID, American Administrator; born July 21, 1900, Chicago, Ill.; son of Jacob Mordecai and Rebecca (Bornstein) Wolfsohn; educated at University of Missouri, B.J. 1922; Chicago-Kent College of Law, LL.B. 1931; married Rebecca Serilla Simon, June 12, 1927; one daughter. Reporter, later Political Editor and City Editor, Chicago Evening Post, 1925-32; Staff Member, Chicago Herald and Examiner, 1932-33. Admitted to Illinois Bar, 1931; practiced law, Chicago, 1931-34. Superintendent of Reports, State of Illinois, 1934; Executive Secretary, National Power Policy Committee, since 1934. Assistant to the Commissioner, General Land Office, 1937-41; Asst. Commissioner, 1941-46; Assoc. Dir., Bureau of Land Management, 1947. Amer. Delegate to 3rd World Power Conference, Washington, 1936; Executive Secretary and Executive Committee Member, American National Committee, 3rd World Power Commission. Residence: 4609 Norwood Dr., Chevy Chase, Md.

WOLFSON, Dr. HARRY AUSTRYN, American Philosopher; born 1887; received Ph.D., D.H.Litt., D.H.L. Member of Faculty, Harvard Univ.; now Nathan Littauer Prof. of Hebrew Literature and Philoophy, Hon. Curator of Hebraica and Judaica in University Library, and Member of Board of Freshman Advisers. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Author: Escaping Judaism, 1923; Contributions to Jewish Philosophy, 1912-1925; The Classification of Sciences in Mediaeval Jewish Philosophy, 1925; Studies in Spinoza, 1921-1926; Solomon Pappenheim on Time and Space, and his relations to Locke and Kant, 1927; Crescas' Critique of Aristotle (problems of Aristotle's physics in Jewish and Arab Philosophy), 1929; Hebrew Books in Harvard, 1932; The Philosophy of Spinoza (unfolding the latent processes of his reasoning), 1934; Maimonides on Negative Attributes, 1945; The Knowability and Describability of God in Plato and Aristotle, 1947; Plato (Foundations of religious philosophy in Judaism, Christianity and Islam), 1947. Residence: 85 Prescott St. Office: Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

WOLL, J. ALBERT, United States Attorney; born Feb. 16, 1904, Chicago, Ill.; son of Matthew and Irene C. (Kerwin)

Woll; educated at Univ. of Illinois, LL.B. 1927; married Genevieve Carey, May 15, 1930; three children. Began law career, 1927. Associated with Hope Thompson, 1927-30; Asst. State's Attorney (Cook County), 1930-34. Special Asst. to Attorney General of U. S., 1934-40. Appointed U. S. Attorney for Northern District of Illinois by President Roosevelt and confirmed by Senate, Oct. 10, 1940. Chairman of Advisory Com., Federal Business Assn. (Pres. 1943). Member of Executive Com. and Board of Directors of Soldiers and Sailors Service Council; Trustee, Catholic Charities, Inc.; Scout Commissioner, Chicago Council, Boy Scouts of America (Member, Natl. Council). Residence: 615 Hill Rd., Winnetka, Ill. Office: U. S. Court House, Adams & Clark, Chicago, Ill.

WOLL, MATTHEW, American Labor Leader: born Jan. 25, 1880, Luxembourg; came to U. S., 1891; educated at Kent College of Law, Lake Forest Univ., 1901-04. Vice Pres., Amer. Federation of Labor. Served as Pres. of International Photo Engravers Union, 23 years, now 1st Vice Pres. Chairman of Standing Coms. on Education and Social Security of the A. F. of F. Official Consultant to U. N. Economic and Social Council. Ex-Director, New York World's Fair, Inc. and Natl. Bureau of Economic Research. Editor, American Federationist. Delegate to British Trade Union Congress, Birmingham, England, 1915-16; to International Federation of Trade Unions, Warsaw, 1937, and Oslo, 1938. Chairman, Internatl. Relations Com., Amer. Fed. of Labor, 1947—. Address: 570 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y.

WOLLEBAEK, ALF, Norwegian Zoologist; born 1879, Lier, Norway; son of Col. S. P. and A. J. A. (Dahl) Wollebaek; educated at Univ. of Oslo, 1898-1900; married (1st) Eugen Hansen, 1903; (2nd) Ruth Jensen, 1932; two children. Asst., Sea Fishery Investigations of Norway, 1900; Swedish Hydrographical-Biological Commn. and Perm. Intern. pour l'Exploration de la Mer, 1903-05. Curator, Bergen Museum, 1907-08. Curator, Zoological Museum, Oslo, 1908; Director since 1923. Chairman, Norwegian Russian Sealing Commn., since 1926. Author of numerous books and pamphlets on zoology. Address: Zoological Museum, Oslo, Norway.

WOLLMER, Rev. Dr. LARS, Swedish Clergyman; born Dec. 15, 1879, Hassle-Bosarp, Skane, Sweden; son of Sven Persson and Bengta (Larsson) Wollmer; teol. lic. 1910, D.D. 1918; married (1st) Anna Svensson, Aug. 15, 1905 (dec. 1918); (2nd) Hilma Nielsen, Aug. 15, 1922; two children. Asst. at Cathedral of Lund, 1905; Hospital Preacher, St. Lars Hospital, Lund, 1907-12; Rector, Cathedral of Lund, since 1911. Treas.: Protestant World Soc.; Swedish State Com. of Lutherska Varldskonventet; Secy. of Allmanna Svenska Prastforeningen (Evangeliska Utskottet), etc. Author: Grundtanken i Pehr Eklunds teologi, 1914; Pehr Eklund, Evangelisk troslara, 1914; Om Pehr Eklund som dogmatiker, 1918; Var Fralsares liv i ord och bild, 1915; Lilla handboken for kyrkliga forrattningar, 1917 (2nd ed. 1942); Augsburgska bekannelsen och den nutida svenska kyrkan, 1930; Kyrklig hjalpverksamhet, 1945; Tillagg dartill, 1945. Editor, Kyrkor under korset, 1932-45. Residence: Bantorget 6, Lund, Sweden.

WOLMAN, Dr. ABEL, American Engineer; born June 10, 1892, Baltimore, Md.; son of Morris and Rosa (Wachsman) Wolman; educated at Johns Hopkins University, B.A. 1913, B.S. in Eng. 1915; Hon. D.Eng. 1937; married Anna Gordon, 1920; one son. Began career working on stream pollution U. S. Public Health Service, 1913. Engaged in construction of Sewage Disposal Plant in Springfield, Md., Maryland State Department of Health, 1914; Assistant to Division Engineer, Department, 1915-22; lectured in Sanitary Engineering at the School of Hygiene and Public Health, Johns Hopkins University, 1921-27 and 1936-37; Professor, Sanitary Engineering, since 1937. Editor-in-Chief, Journal of American Water Works Assn., 1921-37. Chief Engineer, Maryland State Department of Health, 1922-39; Associate Editor, American Journal of Public Health, 1923-27; Editor, Manual of Water Works Practice, 1924. Consulting Engineer to U. S. Public Health Service, U. S. Engineer Corps, since 1939. Hon. Consultant, U. S. Navy Department, 1944; Member, Public Utilities Committee Mission to the United Kingdom; Consultant to Surgeon General of U. S. Army. President, American Water Works Assn., 1942; President, American Public Health Assn., 1939. Chairman, Advisory Committee on Sanitary Engineering, Division of Medical Sciences, National Research Council, since 1942; Chairman, Permanent Sanitary Engineering Committee, Pan-American Sanitary Bureau, since 1942. Residence: 3213 N. Charles St. Office: Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md.

WOLMAN, Dr. LEO, American Economist; born 1890, Baltimore, Md.; son of Morris and Rosa (Wachsman) Wolman; educated at Johns Hopkins Univ., A.B. 1911, Ph.D. 1914; married Cecil Clark, May 17, 1930; one son. Attached to Amer. Peace Mission, Paris, 1919; Statistician, War Industries Board, 1918. Taught at New School for Social Research, N. Y. C., 1920-27; Head of Research Dept., Amalgamated Clothing Workers, 1920-30. Prof. of Economics, Columbia Univ., since 1931; Member of Research Staff, Natl. Bureau of Economic Research, since 1922. Trustee: Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York; Inst. for Advanced Study, Princeton, N. J. Chairman, Labor Advisory Board, N.R.A., 1933-34; Member, Natl. Labor Board, 1933-34; Chairman, Automobile Labor Board, 1934-35. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Amer. Statistical Assn.; Acad. of Political Science; Amer. Philosophical Soc.; The Econometric Soc., etc. Author: Boycott in American Trade Unions, 1916; Growth of American Trade Unions, 1880-1923, 1924; Planning and Control of Public Works, 1930; Ebb and Flow in Trade Unionism, 1936; also bulletins published by Natl. Bureau of Economic Research and articles in professional journals. Co-author of Business Cycle and Unemployment, 1923; Recent Economic Changes, 1929; Recent Social Trends, 1933; The State in Society, 1940. Address: Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

WOLSEY, Rev. Dr. LOUIS, American Rabbi; born Jan. 8, 1877, Midland, Mich.; son of Wm. and Frances (Krueger) Wolsey; educated at Univ. of Cincinnati, B.A. 1899; Hebrew Union College, Rabbi, 1899, D.D. (Hon.) 1939; married Florence Helen Wiener, June 12, 1912 (dec.); one son; married (2nd) Helen F. Meyers, Mar. 7, 1944. Rabbi: Congregation B'nai Israel, Little Rock, Ark., 1899-1907; Euclid Ave. Temple, Cleveland, 1907-25; Congregation Rodeph Sholom, Phila., 1925-47; Rabbi Emeritus, 1947—. Pres., Central Conf. of Amer. Rabbis, 1925-27; Chancellor, Jewish Chautauqua Society, 1925-39. Vice-President and founder of American Council for Judaism. Residence: Mayfair House. Office: 615 N. Broad St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WOLTERSDORF, ARTHUR FRED, American Architect; born Jan. 19, 1870, Chicago, Ill.; son of Louis and Emma (Haeger) Woltersdorf; educated at Mass. Inst. of Technology; year of travel and study in Europe. Practicing architect since 1894. Architect for Mirador Office Bldg., Hippach Memorial Chapel, Gordon Baking Co. Chicago plant, St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran Church, Woodlawn branch of Chicago Public Library, etc. Member: Advisory Board of Chicago Plan Commn.; Illinois Soc. of Architects (former Pres.), etc. Fellow, Amer. Inst. of Architects (former Pres. of Chicago Chapter). Author and Editor of "Living Architecture", 1930. Editor of Monthly Bulletin, Illinois Soc. of Architects. Address: 520 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

WOLTMAN, FREDERICK, American Journalist; born 1905, York, Pa.; educated at Univ. of Pittsburgh, B.A., M.A.; married Virginia Russell. Member of Staff, New York Telegram (now World-Telegram), 1929—. Collaborated with Joseph Lilly in a series of articles exposing practices described as a real estate mortgage bond "racket" as a result of which his paper won a Pulitzer Prize for "the most disinterested and meritorious public service," 1931. Received Silurian Award of 1946 for best editorial staff achievement by a New York City newspaper man. Awarded Pulitzer Prize for articles on infiltration of communism in American labor and political organizations, 1947. Residence: 72 Barrow St. Office: c/o New York World-Telegram, 125 Barclay St., New York, N. Y.

WOLTMAN, Dr. HENRY WILLIAM, American Neurologist; born June 16, 1889, Westfield, Wis.; son of Henry L. and Elizabeth (Prack) Woltman; educated at Univ. of Minn., M.S. 1911, M.D. 1913, Ph.D. 1917; married Mildred Bertie, Oct. 20, 1917; four children. Entered The Mayo Clinic as First Asst. in Neurol. 1917, now Head of that section. Prof. of Neurol., Mayo Foundation, Univ. of Minn., 1931—. Fellow, Amer. College of Physicians; Member of Minn. Soc. of Neurol. and Psych.; Central Neuropsych. Assn.; Amer. Psych. Assn.; Amer. Neurol. Assn.; Amer. Med. Assn.; Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Diseases; Central Soc. for Clinical Research, etc. During First World War served as 1st Lieut., Med. Corps, U. S. Army. Res.: 848 9th Ave., S.W. Office: Mayo Clinic, 102-110 2nd Ave., S.W., Rochester, Minn.

WOLVERTON, Hon. CHARLES ANDERSON, U. S. Congressman; born October 24, 1890, Camden, N. J.; son of Charles S. and Martha (Anderson) Wolverton; educated at University of Pennsylvania Law School, LL.B. 1900; admitted to Bar of State of New Jersey, Nov. 1901; one son. Revised and compiled ordinances of City of Camden, 1903; Assistant City Solicitor of Camden, 1904-06. Assistant Prosecutor, Camden County, 1906-13; Assistant Attorney General of New Jersey, 1913-14. Member, New Jersey House of Assembly, 1915-18; Speaker, 1918. Appointed Delegate at Large, Republican National Convention at Chicago, 1920. Prosecutor of Pleas, Camden County, 1918-23. Elected to U. S. Congress since Nov. 1926. U. S. Delegate to International Civil Aviation Conference, 1944. Residence: 2 Oak Terrace, Merchantville, N. J. Offices: 709 Market St., Camden, N. J.; House Office Bldg., Washington, District of Columbia.

WONG WEN-HAO, Dr., Chinese Statesman; born July, 1889, Ningpo, China; educated at Aurora Univ., 1905-08; Louvain Univ., Sc.D. in Geology, 1913; Hon. LL.D., Univ. of British Columbia; Hon. D.Eng., Berlin Engineering College; married Yun-chiu Lin; seven children. Served as Chief Geologist, Director of Geological Survey, Prof. of Geology and Acting Pres. of Tsinghua University; also Managing Commissioner of the Chungfu Joint Mining Administration; Secretary-General of the Executive Yuan and of the Chinese delegation to the Coronation in London. He was Director of the Third Department of the Military Affairs Council; delegate to the International Geological Congress and Pacific Science Congress, etc. Minister of Economic Affairs of China and Chairman of the National Resources Commission, 1938-48; concurrently Chairman of War Production Board, 1944-45. Vice-Premier, 1945-48; Premier, 1948—. Chmn., Bd. of Trustees, Kuangshua Univ.; President: Chinese Inst. of Engnrs.; Geographical and Geological Socs.; Soc. of Mining and Metallurgy. Author of publications on mineral resources in China, seismical statistics, petrography, geology and structure, etc. Residence: Lang Ya Lu 17. Office: Executive Yuan, Nanking, China.

WONTNER, HUGH WALTER KINGWELL, British Hotel Executive; born Oct. 22, 1908, Chiswick, Middlesex; son of Arthur and Rosecleer (Kingwell) Wontner; educated at Oundle and abroad; married Catherine Irvin, Jan. 4, 1936; two sons and one daughter. Managing Director, The Savoy Hotel Ltd. Director: New Claridge's Hotel Ltd.; The Berkeley Hotel Co. Ltd.; Simpson's-in-the-Strand, Ltd.; The Savoy Hotel Laundry Ltd.; The Strand Power Co. Ltd.; The Savoy Theatre Ltd.; James Edward Ltd.; Stone's Chop House (London), Ltd. Chairman, Nutrition Com., University College Hospital, London. Represents Great Britain on Executive Com., Internatl. Hotel Assn.; Vice-Chairman, London Com., British Hotels Assn. Residences: Claridge's, London, W. 1, and Hedsor Priory, Buckinghamshire. Office: The Savoy Hotel Ltd., 1 Savoy Hill, London, W.C. 2, England.

WOO, FO-CHING, Chinese Entomologist; born 1898, Changchow, Kiangsu, China; son of You Ping and Su Ming (Ho) Woo; educated at Natl. Southeastern Univ. (now Natl. Central Univ.), Nanking, B.S. 1924; Univ. of Illinois, M.S. 1927; took graduate research work, Cornell Univ., N. Y., 1927; married Yu-ching King, Aug. 1931; four daughters and one son. Entomologist, Bureau of Entomology, Kiangsu Province, Nanking; with Japanese Beetle Laboratory, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1927; Prof. of Entomology, Natl. Central Univ. and Univ. of Nanking, also Chief Entomologist, Bureau of Entomology, Kiangsu Province, Nanking, 1928, 1929, 1930; Director, Bureau of Entomology, Chekiang Province, Hangchow, 1930, '31, '32; Head, Dept. of Plant Pathology and Entomology, Natl. Agricultural Research Bureau since 1933; Dean, College of Agriculture, Chekiang Univ., 1936; Director of Natl. Pesticides and Equipment Experimental Plant since 1943; Acting Director, Natl. Agricultural Research Bureau since 1945. Member: Entomological Soc. of China (Pres. 1944, 1945); Agricultural Assn. of China (Member, Board of Directors 1944, 1945); Agricultural Promotion Soc. (Member, Board of Trustees, 1944, 1945); Zoological Soc. of China (Member, Board of Directors, 1945), etc. Author: Biology and Control of Earias chromataria Walker (I and II), 1925; Biology and Control of the Cutworms at Nantungchow, 1925; A Catalogue of Chinese Hemiptera and Homoptera, 1926; The Distribution and Prevalence of Cotton Insects in China during the year 1934, 1935; A General Investigation of the Locust outbreaks in China during 1933-36 (4 vols.); Cyclopedia of Agricultural Insect Pests in China, 1934; A Review of the Study and Control of Agricultural Insect Pests in China, 1935; Importance and Accomplishments of Plant Protection Work in China, 1943. Address: National Agricultural Research Bureau, Nanking, China.

WOO, Dr. NAN-hsuan MIEN, Chinese Educator; born May 24, 1895, Yangchow, Kiangsu, China; son of I. Chang Woo and Lee; educated at Univ. of California, A.B. 1922, M.A. 1923, Ed.D. 1929; married Lee-Ching Chang, June 9, 1928. Principal, Elem. School, I-Cheng Dist., Kiangsu, 1912-15. Editor, Young China, San Francisco, Calif., 1925. Prof. and Deputy Dean, Central Political Inst., 1929-30. Pres., National Tsing-Hua Univ., 1931. Special Secy., Central Political Council, 1932-34. Prof., National Central Univ., 1932-36. Vice-Pres., Futan Univ., 1936-39; Acting Pres., 1940; Pres., 1941. Acting Director, China Inst. of Psychology and Physiology, 1945-46. Member of Control Yuan, National Govt of Republic of China, since 1942. Prof. of Educational Psychology, National Futan Univ., since 1945. Member, China Commission, UNESCO, since 1947. Director and Secy-Gen., Chinese Assn. for Mental Hygiene. Director, Chinese Assn. for Mental Tests and Measurements. Awarded Victory Medal by Chinese Govt., 1945. Author: Importance and Methods of the Social Control of the Feeble-Minded, 1932; The Meaning and Importance of Mental Hygiene, 1933; The International Mental Hygiene Movement, 1934; Mental Hygiene of the Problem Children, 1935; War Neuroses, 1944. Address: National Futan University, Shanghai, China.

WOO, PAO-FENG, Chinese Educator; born Mar. 24, 1900, Kunshan, Kiangsu Province, China; son of Feng-chang and Yin-chen (Wang) Woo; educated at National Chiao-tung Univ., Shanghai, B.S. (Elec. Engineering), 1921; Univ. of Michigan, M.S. (Elec. Engineering), 1926; married Ying Ling-Yee, 1926; five children. Instructor of Physics and Natural Science, Pu-tung Acad., Shanghai; Student Engineer, Westinghouse E. & M. Co., U.S.A., 1923-25; Lecturer and Secy., National Sun Yat-sen Univ., Canton, 1926-27; Director of Central Broadcasting Administration, 1930-42; Senior Expert in Telecommunication Engineering, Ministry of Communications, Nanking, 1929-35; Director of Kiangsu Telecommunication Bureau, 1934-36; Deputy Director, Technical Training Inst., Ministry of Communications, Chungking, 1940-43; Deputy Chairman, Central Broadcasting Commission, since 1936; Pres., National Chiao-tung Univ., Siccawei, Shanghai, since 1940. Member, Central Executive Com., Kuomintang. Pres. of Chinese Inst. of Electrical Engineers. Member: Chinese Inst. of Engineers; Chinese Inst. of Economic Reconstruction; Chinese Inst. of Cultural Reconstruction; Chinese-Amer. Inst. of Cultural Relations. Address: Chiao-tung University, Siccawei, Shanghai, China.

WOO SHIH-YING, Chinese Consul-General in Australia; born May 22, 1909, Peking, China; son of C. C. Woo and Y. K. Feng; educated at National Tsing Hua Univ., Peking, LL.B. 1933; Univ. of London, M.Sc. 1936; married Julia Yu-Chiu Lung, Oct. 2, 1939; one son. Prof. of International Relations, National Hunan Univ., Changsha, 1937-40. Member of Planning Com., Military Training Board, Natl. Military Council, China, 1940-41; Chief of Press Section, Information Dept., Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1941-43; Secy., Chinese Ministry of Information, 1943-45; Asst. Director, Code Dept., Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1945-46; now Chinese Consul-General in Australia. Member: Sino-British Cultural Assn., Nanking; Chinese Political Science Assn.; Chinese Amer. Inst. of Cultural Relations; Soc. of Internatl. Law of China; Chinese Assn. of Internatl. Relations. Residence: 89 Balfour Rd., Rose Bay. Office: Chinese Consulate-General, 635 George St., Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

WOO, Dr. SHO-CHOW, Chinese Chemist; born Sept. 20, 1902, Ping-Hsiang, Kiangsi, China; son of Ran-Lian Woo; educated at National Southeastern Univ. (now National Central Univ.), B.A. 1925; California Inst. of Technology, U. S. A., Ph.D. 1931; married Chun-Shing Tang, 1924; five children. Asst., National Southeastern Univ., 1924; Research Guest, California Inst. of Technology, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1931-32; Technische Hochschule, Darmstadt, Germany, 1932-33. Research Fellow, Inst. of Chemistry, Academia Sinica, China, 1933-42; Director since 1942. Member: Chinese Soc. of Science; Chinese Chemical Soc.; Chinese Physical Soc.; Chinese Soc. of Natural Sciences. Resdence: 320 Yo-Yang Road. Office: Institute of Chemistry, Academia Sinica, Yo-Yang Rd. 320, Shanghai, China.

WOO, Dr. WILLIAM HUA-FUH, Chinese Engineer; born May 30, 1905, Shanghai, China; son of S. K. and Liang Woo; educated at Fuh Tan Univ., B.Sc. in C.E. 1925; Univ. of Wisconsin, U. S., M.S. 1929, Ph.D. 1931; married Alice Li, June 29, 1935; four children. Engineer, Yenching Univ., 1925-27; Bridge Designer, Wisconsin Highway Commn., 1928-32; Chief Engr., Yenching Univ., China, 1932-34; Prof. in Structural Engineering, Peiyang Univ., China, 1934-36; Chief Engr., Prov. Highway Bureau, Fukien Province, 1936-38; Commnr., Public Works Bureau, special Chungking Municipality, 1938-43; Chief Engineer, Military Engr. Commn. for B-29 Airfields, 1944-45; Regional Director, War Production Board, 1945-46; Commissioner, Public Utilities Bureau and Public Works Bureau, special Chungking Municipality, 1946. Director, Emergency Shelter Constructions, 1941 and of Wartime Housing Constructions, Chungking, 1942. Member: Chinese Engr. Assn.; Board of Directors, China Municipal Engr. Assn. Awarded Hon. citations from Natl. Exec. Yuan, China; Medal of Merit, 1st Order, Natl. Military Council, China. Residence: 219 Shon Nan Chu Malu. Office: Bureaus of Public Utilities and Public Works, Chungking, China.

WOO, YUNCHU PAO NYOEN, Chinese Chemical Engineer; born Aug. 27, 1891, Kiating, Kiangsu, China; son of Shiao Fong Woo; educated at Ordnance Acad.; married Tai Yi, Feb. 8, 1911; three children. Instructor in Chemistry, Ordnance Acad. Chemist with Hanyang Iron & Steel Works; Chief Chemist, Hanyang Govt. Arsenal; Supt. and Chief Chemical Engineer, Hankow Chlorate Works and Tse Chong Hsin Glue Works. Invented "Ve-tsin" (a food flavoring product); founded Tien Chu Ve-tsin Manufacturing Co., Ltd., Tien Yuan Electro-Chemical Works, Ltd., Tien Lee Synthetic Nitrogen Products Co., Ltd. and has been their respective General Managers since. Director: Chung Hwa Vocational Inst.; Dah Kung Vocational Inst.; Founder and Donor of Yunchu Scholarships for needy Univ. Technical Students; Founder and Donor of Yunchu Foundation for development of Industries; Commnr., Natl. Resources Commn.; Member, People's Political Council. Member: Inst. of Chinese Engineers (former Chairman, Hongkong Branch); China Chemical Soc. (Pres.); China Natl. Federation of Industries (Chairman). Fellow, Royal Arts Soc. of England. Address: 16 Lin Sen Rd., Chungking, Szechuen, China.

WOOD, Dr. ARTHUR EVANS, American Sociologist; born in Boston, Mass., Oct. 19, 1881; son of William Harvey and Sarah M. (Kendall) Wood; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1906; Harvard Divinity School, S.T.B. 1911; Univ. of Pennsylvania (Harrison Fellow in Sociology), Ph.D. 1920; married Julia L. Bishop, Sept.

5, 1911; two sons. Instructor in Social Science, Reed College, 1911-15. Instructor and Prof. of Sociology, Univ. of Michigan, since 1917. Member: Amer. Sociological Soc.; Natl. Conference of Social Work, etc. Author: Community Problems, 1928; Crime and Its Treatment (with Waite), 1941, etc. Address: University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

WOOD, Dr. BENJAMIN DeKALBE, American Educator; born Nov. 10, 1894, Brownsville, Texas; son of Alexander and Amelia E. (Love) Wood; educated at Univ. of Texas, A.B. 1917; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1922, Ph.D. 1923; Lawrence College, LL.D.; Union College, L.H.D.; married Mary Eleanor Perry, Feb. 10, 1923. Asst. to E. L. Thorndike, Columbia Teachers College, 1919-21; Asst. to Dean of Columbia College, 1921-24; successively Instructor, Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof. and Prof. of Collegiate Educational Research, Columbia Univ. Director: Columbia Univ. Statistical Bureau since 1929; Columbia College Bureau of Collegiate Educational Research since 1925; Cooperative Test Service of Amer. Council on Education, 1930-45; Natl. Com. on Teacher Examinations, Amer. Council on Education, 1939-45. Educational Consultant to Civil Aeronautics Administration; Chairman, Education Com. of Inst. of Aeronautical Sciences; Chairman, Joint Advisory Com. on Aviation Education, 1941-46. Trustee, Stephens College. Member: New York State Examinations Board; Overseers' Visiting Com., Harvard Graduate School of Education, etc. Received Butler Silver Medal, 1928. Author: Measurement in Higher Education (1923); New York Experiments With New Type Modern Foreign Language Tests (1927); Motion Pictures in the Classroom (with F. N. Freeman), 1929; An Experimental Study of the Educational Influences of the Typewriter in the Elementary School Classroom (with F. N. Freeman), 1932; The Student and His Knowledge (with W. S. Learned), 1938; Our Air Age World (with Packard and Overton (1944), etc. Address: Columbia College, Columbia University, New York, New York.

WOOD, CLEMENT, American Poet; born Sept. 1, 1888, Tuscaloosa, Ala.; son of Sterling Alexander and Ida May (Richardson) Wood; educated at University of Alabama, A.B. summa cum laude, 1909; Yale University, LL.B. cum laude, 1911; married Mildred M. Cummer, 1915 (divorced 1925); (2nd) Gloria Goddard, Apr. 2, 1926; one son. Columnist, New York Call, 1915-17; New York Mail, 1917-18; New York Daily Mirror (What Your Dreams Mean), 1930-31. Staff Writer, Physical Culture, 1930; Liberty Magazine, 1931. Instructor in Versification New York Univ., 1939-41; William and Mary Coll., Richmond Div., 1941-42. Editor-in-Chief, Lantern Library, 1935; Popular Encyclopedia, 1938. Author: The Outline of Man's Knowledge, 1927; Poets of America, 1924; Poet's Handbook, 1939; The Complete Rhyming Dictionary, 1936; Wood's Unabridged Rhyming Dictionary, 1943; The Glory Road, 1936; Gwine To Heaven; Shortenin' Bread; The Eagle Sonnets, 1943; The Complete Book of Games (with Gloria Goddard), 1937; A Complete History of the United States, 1938; A History of the World (5 volumes), 1939; The Strange Death of Adolf Hitler (anon.), 1940; U.S.W.—The United States of the World, Global Peace the American Way, 1943, etc. Member: Poetry Society of America; Writers Club of New York; (President, 1920); American Poetry Assn. (National President, 1924); American Poetry Institute (National President, 1943—.), etc. Residence: Bozenkill, Delanson, N. Y.

WOOD, ELIZABETH WYN, Canadian Sculptor; born Oct. 8, 1903, Orillia, Ont., Canada; daughter of Edward Alfred and Elizabeth (Weafer) Wood; educated at St. Mildred's College, Toronto; Ontario College of Art; Art Students' League, N. Y., and under Emanuel Hahn, Toronto, Robert Laurent, N. Y., and Edward McCarton, N. Y.; married Emanuel Hahn, 1926; one daughter. Sculptured following public commissions: Welland-Crowland War Memorial, Welland, Ontario (largest granite carving in Canada); Goose Fountain, Owl Fountain, Fish Fountain and Leaping Fawn, Rainbow Bridge Garden at Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada; Passing Rain (Natl. Gallery of Canada); Head of a Negress (Natl. Gallery of Canada); Linda, heroic figure (Winnipeg Art Gallery); Head of a Man (Vancouver Art Gallery). Participated in major exhibitions of the Canadian Galleries and Tate Gallery in London, England, and at New York World's Fair. Sculptor, Central Technical School, Toronto. Assoc., Royal Acad. of Canada. Member, Sculptors' Soc. of Canada (Pres. 1938-39). Member, Executive of Canadian Arts Council. Won Willingdon Art Prize, 1929. Studio: 32 Adelaide St., E., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

WOOD, Dr. HARRY GARDNER, American Physician; born Sept. 6, 1882, Faribault, Minn.; son of William and Fanny (Seelye) Wood; educated at McGill Univ., M.D., C.M. 1904; married Katharine Reid, Apr. 2, 1919; two children. Asst. at Mayo Clinic, 1911-15; during World War I was Major, Canadian Army Med. Corps, 1915-18. Specialized in internal medicine in St. Paul, 1919-25; Consultant at Mayo Clinic since 1925. Fellow: Amer. College of Physicians. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Trudeau Soc.; Amer. Bd. of Internal Med. Author of contributions to Archives of Otolaryngol.; Med. Clinics of North America; Journal of Thoracic Surg.; Journal of Amer. Med. Assn., and Surg., Gynecol. and Obstet., etc. Address: Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn.

WOOD, HAYDN, British Composer, Violinist; born March 25, 1882, Slaithwaite, Yorkshire: son of Clement and Sabra (Sykes) Wood; taught violin by brother; scholarship at Royal College of Music, London, 1897-1903; studied violin with Arbos and composition with Sir Charles Stanford; studied in Brussels with César Thomson; married Dorothy Court, March 23, 1909. Solo violinist to Dame Emma Albani; toured England many times; also Australia, Tasmania, New Zealand, India and Canada. Compositions include overtures, rhapsodies, concertos, choral works, marches, flute solos, song cycles, ballad, etc. Member: Council of Composers Guild of Great Britain; of Board, Song Writers Guild. Address: 9 Bickenhall Mansions, London, W. 1, England.

WOOD, Dr. HORATIO CHARLES (JR.), American Pharmacologist; born Feb. 26, 1874, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Horatio C. and Eliza H. (Longacre) Wood; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania; Medical School, Univ. of Pennsylvania, M.D. 1896; Philadelphia College, Ph.M. hon. 1934; married Alice L. Lovell, 1899; two children. Demonstrator, Pharmacodynamics, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1898. Assoc. Prof. of Pharmacology, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1908-10; Prof. of Pharmacology and Therapeutics, Medico-Chirurgical College, 1910-15, at Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1915-42; Prof. of Therapeutics, Graduate School of Medicine, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1938-46; now Emeritus Prof. Prof. of Pharmacology at Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science, since 1921. Vice-Pres., U. S. Pharmacopical Convention since 1940. Member: Amer. Soc. for Pharmacology; Amer. Pharmaceut. Assn.; College of Physicians of Philadelphia. Author: Textbook of Pharmacology and of various other notable publications. Chief Editor, U. S. Dispensatory, 21st, 22nd, and 23rd editions. Address: 319 S. 41st St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WOOD, Dr. JAMES CRAVEN, American Gynecologist and Abdominal Surgeon; born Jan. 11, 1858, Wood County, Ohio; son of Gen. Henry L. and Jane K. Wood; educated at Ohio Wesleyan, A.M.; Univ. of Michigan, M.D. 1879, Hon. A.M. 1937; married Julia Kellogg Bulkley, Dec. 28, 1881; three children. Prof. of Obstet. and Gynecol., Univ. of Mich., 1885-93; Prof. of Gynecol., Cleveland-Pulte Med. College, 24 years; Gynecol., Huron Road Hosp., 50 years; Consulting Gynecol., Elyria Memorial Hosp. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Cleveland Acad. of Med.; Amer. Inst. of Homeopathy (Past Pres. 1902). Author: Textbook of Gynecology, 1894; Clinical Gynecology, 1917; An Old Doctor of the New School (autobiography), 1942. Address: 816 Rose Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio.

WOOD, Dr. JAMES MADISON, American Educator; born Oct. 2, 1875; son of James Thomas and Mary Elizabeth (Smith) Wood; educated at Univ. of Missouri, A.B., B.S. in Ed. 1907; Columbia Univ., A.M., 1911; hon. LL.D., Hiram College, 1930; William Jewell College, 1943; Alfred Univ., 1946; married Lela Roney, Dec. 24, 1896; one son. Supt. of Schools, Edina, Mo., 1904-06, Fredericktown, Mo., 1907-10; with Dept. of Education, State Normal School, Springfield, Mo., 1911-12; Pres., Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., 1912-47; Pres., Woman's Foundation, since 1947. Address: 10 East 40th St., New York, N. Y.

WOOD, Hon. JOHN STEPHENS, United States Congressman; graduated Mercer Univ.; married. Served as Member of General Assembly of Georgia; Solicitor General, Blue Ridge Judicial Circuit of Georgia; Judge, Blue Ridge Judicial Circuit. Member, 72nd and 73rd Congresses, 1931-35; elected to 79th Congress, 1944; re-elected to 80th Congress, 1946 —. Appointed Chairman of Com. on Un-American Activities, 1945. Residence: Canton, Ga. Office: House Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WOOD, Dr. JOSEPH GARNETT, Australian Botanist; born Sept. 2, 1900, Mitcham, South Australia; son of John and Susanna (Garnett) Wood; educated at Univ. of Adelaide, D.Sc. 1933; Univ. of Cambridge, England, Ph.D. 1932; married Joan Hazel, Feb. 7, 1931; three children. Demonstrator in Botany, Univ. of Adelaide, 1923. Lecturer in Botany, 1927; Prof. of Botany, Univ. of Adelaide, since 1935. Dean, Faculty of Science, Univ. of Adelaide, 1937-40 and 1946-47. Pres.: Royal Soc. of South Australia, 1941-42; Section M. (Botany), Assn. for Advancement of Science, Australia, 1939. Member, Editorial Board, Australian Journal of Experimental Biology, since 1932; Representative of Univ. of Adelaide, Board of Commonwealth Forestry School, since 1939; Representative, Royal Soc. on Fauna and Flora Board, since 1940. Author of many publications in scientific journals on physiology and ecology of plants. Address: University of Adelaide, Adelaide, South Australia.

WOOD LEE BLAIR, American Newspaper Editor; born March 7, 1893, Corry, Pa.; son of Perrie Grant and Mary Lavinia (Laing) Wood; educated at Amherst College, A.B. 1916; married Mildred Louise Rody, June 26, 1924. Reporter in Cleveland, 1916-17, when joined French Army as a Private. Served as 2nd Lieut., Motor Transport, U. S. A., 1917-19. Telegraph Editor, Cleveland Press, 1920-22; Night Editor, 1924-25. Managing Editor, Oklahoma News, 1925-27. Joined New York Telegram (now World-Telegram) as News Editor, 1927; Managing Editor, 1929-30; Executive Editor since 1932. Residence: Danbury, Conn., R. D. 1, and Downtown Athletic Club. Office: 125 Barclay St., New York, N. Y.

WOOD, MALVINA EVALYN, Australian Librarian; born 1893, Guildford, W. Aust.; daughter of John and S. J. (Cross) Wood; educated at Univ. of Western Australia, B.A. 1927, M.A. 1944. University Librarian, University of W. Australia, since 1927; Treasurer and Senior Resident, Univ. Women's College, 1946. Board Member, Adult Education Dept.; Assoc., Library Assn., London; Councillor for Western Aust. and Pres., Western Aust. Branch, Australian Inst. of Librarians; Member, Royal Soc. of W. Aust. Address: University Women's College, University of Western Australia, Nedlands, W. Australia.

WOOD, MEREDITH, American Publisher; born Sept. 19, 1895, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of John Scott, M.D. and Elizabeth King (Barrow) Wood; educated at Williams College, A.B. 1916; married Helen A. Martin, Apr. 30, 1930; three children. Member of staff, Vanity Fair Magazine, N. Y. C., 1916. Lieut., later Capt., 308th Infantry, 77th Div., U. S. Army, World War I; awarded Distinguished Service Cross, 7th Divisional and Army Corps citations, Croix de Guerre, Conspicuous Service Medal of State of N. Y. Clerk, Chemical Bank and Trust Co., New York City, 1919-24; Asst. Cashier, 1924-27; Asst. Vice-Pres., 1927-28; Vice-Pres., 1928-29; Member of Advisory Board since 1929. Director and Treas., Book-of-the-Month Club, 1929-31; Executive Vice-Pres. and Treas. since 1931; Vice-Pres., Treas. and Director, Book-of-the-Month Club (Canada) Ltd., since 1929; Vice-Pres., Treas. and Director, Dollar Editions Soc., New York City, since 1931. Director: Grosset and Dunlap, Inc.; Bantam Books, Inc.; Kingsport Press (Kingsport, Tenn., Chicago, N.Y.C.); Press Management, Inc., N.Y.C.; Council on Books in Wartime, N.Y.C.; Overseas Editions, Inc., N.Y.C. Chairman, U. S. Treasury War Loan Drive for Book Publishing and Distributing Industry in N.Y.C. during World War II. Address: 385 Madison Ave., New York 17, New York.

WOOD, MIMIE, Secretary, Royal Society of New Zealand; born 1898, Dunedin, New Zealand; daughter of E. T. and S. S. (Toomey) Wood; educated at Normal Training School. Asst. Librarian, Dunedin Athenaeum, 1914; Asst. Accountant to Commercial Firm of Wellington, New Zealand, 1915-21; Secy., Royal Soc. of New Zealand, since 1921. Founded East Harbour Horticultural Soc., 1938 (Hon. Secy.-Treas.). Founded Eastbourne Lyric Group, 1938. Secy. and Fellow, New Zealand Inst. of Secretaries. Address: Royal Society of New Zealand, Wellington, New Zealand.

WOOD, PIERPONT JONATHAN EDWARDS, American Lawyer; born Aug. 12, 1890, Stoughton, Wis.; son of William Squires and Caroline (Pierpont) Wood; educated at University of Iowa Law School, 1912-15; married Helen Jeffris, October 27, 1915; two sons and one daughter. Began practice of law in 1915; member of firm of Jeffris, Mouat, Oestreich, Wood & Cunningham, since 1919. Chairman, Board of The Burdick Corp.; President, Warner Electric Brake Manufacturing Co.; Secy.-Treas., Janesville Realty Co. Director: Solie Lumber Co.; Merchants and Savings Bank; Bostwick Realty Co.; Frank H. Blodgett, Inc.; The Parker Pen Co.; Rock River Woolen Mills; Hough Shade Corp.; Marine Natl.

Exchange Bank of Milwaukee. Member, Republican National Committee, 1936-40. Veteran of World War I. Residence: 502 St. Lawrence Ave. Office: 14 W. Milwaukee St., Janesville, Wis.

WOOD, General ROBERT E., American Merchant; born 1879, Kansas City, Mo.; graduated West Point, 1900; married Mary Butler Hardwick, April 30, 1908; five children. Served as Lieutenant of Cavalry in the U. S. Army in the Philippines during the Insurrection, seeing much active service in the field. He became Chief Quartermaster and Director of the Panama Railroad Company on the construction of the Panama Canal, where he served from 1905 to 1915. He received the rank of Brigadier-General during the First World War, serving as Acting Quartermaster General. He was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal among other dections. Entered private business, 1915, as Assistant to the President of General Asphalt Co., resigning in 1917 to rejoin the Army. He was Vice-President of Montgomery Ward & Co., 1919-24. He has been with Sears, Roebuck and Co. since 1924. He was Vice-President, 1924-28; President, 1928-39; Chairman of the Board since 1939. Director: Internatl. Minerals and Chemicals Corp.; First National Bank of Chicago; McGraw Electric Co.; North American Car Corp.; Sears, Roebuck and Co. Public Governor of the Stock Exchange and a Director, 1938-40, Deputy Chairman and Chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, 1936-40. Residence: 700 S. Ridge Rd., Lake Forest, Ill. Office: Sears, Roebuck and Co., Chicago, Illinois.

WOOD, Sir ROBERT STANFORD, British Educator; born July 5, 1886, London, England; son of Rev. John R. and Frances Anne (Wren) Wood; educated at Jesus College, Cambridge, Scholar, M.A.; married Iris Cecilie Arnsby, 1922; one daughter. Second Classical Master, Nottingham High School, 1909-11. Joined Board of Education as Junior Inspector, 1911; H.M. Inspector of Schools, 1919; Principal Private Secy., 1926; Director of Establishments, 1928; Principal Asst. Secy., 1936; Deputy Secy., 1940-46. Principal, Univ. College, Southampton, England. Member, British Inst. of Philosophy. Awarded C.B. 1939; K.B.E. 1941. Address: University College, Southampton, England.

WOOD, Dr. ROBERT WILLIAMS, American Physicist; born May 2, 1868, Concord, Mass.; son of Robert W. and Lucy J. (Davis) Wood; educated at Harvard, A.B. 1891; Johns Hopkins; Univ. of Chicago; Univ. of Berlin. Instructor, Physics; University of Wisconsin, 1897; Associate Professor, 1899 (after originating the electrical method of thawing frozen water pipes). Professor, Experimental Physics, Johns Hopkins, 1901-39; retired as Professor Emeritus and reappointed Research Professor, 1939. Developed and demonstarted what is now known as "black light" during World War I, and drew attention to its manifold applications in industry, biology, pathology, etc. Member, Natl. Acad. of Sciences. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Foreign Member, Royal Soc., London; Lincei Acad., Rome, Royal Academy, Stockholm, etc. Holds honorary degrees from Birmingham, Edinburgh and Berlin. President, American Physical Society, 1935. Author: Physical Optics; How to Tell the Birds from the Flowers, etc. Address: Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md.

WOOD, Dr. WILLIAM BARRY, JR., American Professor of Medicine; born May 4, 1910, Milton, Mass.; son of William Barry and Emily Niles (Lockwood) Wood; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1932; Johns Hopkins Med. School, M.D. 1936; Harvard Univ. Dept. of Physical Chemistry, 1933; Univ. of Wis., 1934; married Mary Lee Hutchins, July 2, 1932; four children. Interne at Johns Hopkins Hosp., 1936-37; Asst. Resident in Med. until 1939; Natl. Research Council Fellow in Bacteriol., Harvard Med. School, 1939-40; Assoc. in Dept. of Med., Johns Hopkins Med. School, until 1942; Busch Prof. of Med., Wash. Univ. School of Med., 1942 —. Served as Consultant to Secy. of War on Influenza and other Epidemic Diseases (Pneumonia and Meningitis Commn.); Member of Chemotherapy Com. of Natl. Research Council; Member of Panel on Clinical Testing of Antimalarials (Natl. Research Council); Member of Council in Pharmacy and Chemistry of Amer. Med. Assn. Fellow, Amer. College of Physicians. Member of Soc. for Clinical Investigation; Soc. for Experimental Biol. and Med.; Central Soc. for Clinical Research, and Soc. of Amer. Bacteriols. Res.: 9737 Litszinger Rd. Office: 600 S. Kingshighway, St. Louis, Missouri.

WOODBURN, ARTHUR, British Political Leader; born April 25, 1890, Edinburgh, Scotland; son of Matthew and Janet (Brown) Woodburn; educated at Bruntsfield and Boroughmuir Public Schools and Heriot-Watt College, Edinburgh; married Barbara Halliday, July 18, 1919. For 25 years in engineering and ironfounding administration, specializing in languages and costing; Hon. Secy., Edinburgh Labour College until 1932, then its Chairman; Hon. Secy., Scottish Natl. Council of Labour Colleges. Lectured in History, Economics and Finance, Labour College, 1915 —. Contested (Lab.) S. Edinburgh, 1929; Leith, 1931. Scottish Secy., Labour Party, 1932-39. M.P. (Lab.), Counties of Clackmannan and E. Stirling, 1939 —. Parliamentary Private Secy. to Secy. of State for Scotland, 1941-45; Member of Select Com. on Natl. Expenditure and Chmn., Sub-Com. on Finance and Establishments; Administrative Com. and Front Bench of Parliamentary Labour Party, 1943-45; Member, Speakers Conf. on Electoral Reform, 1944; Joint Parliamentary Secy., Ministry of Supply and Aircraft Production, 1945-47; Secy. of State for Scotland, 1947 —. Pres., Natl. Council of Labour Colleges. Author: Banks and the Workers, 1924; Mystery of Money, 1929; Outline of Finance (2 eds.), 1930. Address: 83 Orchard Rd., Edinburgh, Scotland.

WOODBURY, Hon. PETER, American Jurist; born Oct. 24, 1899, Bedford, N. H.; son of Gordon and Charlotte E. Woodbury; educated at Harvard College, B.S. 1924; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1927; married Margaret Atherton Reed, Dec. 28, 1925; three children. Selectman of Bedford, N. H., 1928-30. Justice, Bedford Municipal Court, 1928-32; Associate Justice, New Hampshire Superior Court, 1932-33; Associate Justice, New Hampshire Supreme Court, 1933-41; Judge for the First Circuit, U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals since 1941. Residence: Bedford, N. H. Office: Room 209, Federal Bldg., Manchester, N.H.

WOODCOCK, Brig. Gen. AMOS W. W., American Lawyer; born Oct. 29, 1883, Salisbury, Md.; son of Amos Wilson and Julia Ann Harrison (Wright) Woodcock; educated at St. John's College, B.A. 1910; Univ. of Md., LL.B. 1910; Harvard, M.A. 1912. Instructor, St. John's College, 1904. Assistant Attorney-General of Maryland, 1921-22; U. S. Attorney, District of Maryland, 1922-30; Director of Prohibition, 1930-33; Special Assistant to the Attorney-General of the U. S., until 1946. Pres., St. John's College, 1934-37. Member: Maryland State and Amer. Bar Assns. Awarded LL.D.

by Washington College (1934), and St. John's College (1937). During First World War, Capt., Major, Lt.-Col., 115th Inf., 1917-19; Brig.-Gen., 1937 to present (active duty, 1941-42). Residence: "Chatillon." Office: Building & Loan Building, Salisbury, Maryland.

WOODFORD, JAMES ARTHUR, British Sculptor; born Sept. 25, 1893, Nottingham, England; son of Samuel and Harriet Woodford; educated at Nottingham School of Art, 1907-14; Royal College of Art, 1920-21; received Prix de Rome, 1922; married Rose Harrison, 1928; one son. Practicing sculptor, 1925-41 and since 1944. Camouflage Officer to Air Ministry, 1941-44. Fellow, Royal Soc. of British Sculptors; Member, Rome Faculty; Member, Royal Mint Advisory Com. for Seals, Coins, Medals and Decorations. Assoc. of Royal Acad. of Arts, 1937; elected Royal Academician, 1945. Works include bronze doors, pylon figures and ceiling panels of Henry Florence Hall, Royal Inst. of British Architects; bronze doors of Norwich Town Hall; interior decorations of First Class Smoking Room of S.S. Queen Mary; carved figures and reliefs, New Art Gallery and Library, Huddersfield; wrought iron traffic centre, etc. for Town Hall, Hertford; bronze doors, School for the Blind, Liverpool. Address: 5 Adelaide Rd., London, N.W. 3, England.

WOODHEAD, ARTHUR LONGDEN, British Publisher; born September 13, 1862, Huddersfield, Yorkshire, England; son of Joseph and Catherine Woodhead; educated at Innis Halls, 1871-73, Huddersfield College, 1873-79, and Edinburgh University, M.A. 1883; married Mary Ann Robinson, 1899; four daughters. Entered father's business as apprentice, 1883; firm changed to Joseph Woodhead & Sons Ltd., 1905, and became Managing Director; Chairman of company since 1944. Proprietor and publisher of The Huddersfield Examiner (daily and weekly). Member of Newspaper Society (President, 1925, Vice-President 1926); Yorkshire Newspaper Soc. (Pres., 1926), etc. Residence: Deveron House, Queens Rd. Office: "Examiner" Office, Ramsden St., Huddersfield, Yorkshire, England.

WOODHEAD, HARRY, American Aircraft Manufacturer; born in 1889, Bradford, England; educated at Bradford Technical College. Came to U. S. 1909. Occupied various positions, 1909-14. Supt., Cleveland Metal Products Company's Canadian plant, 1914-17; later Works Manager, Parish and Bingham Corp. in Cleveland; Vice-Pres., Federal Pressed Steel Co., Milwaukee; General Works Manager, A. C. Smith Co., Milwaukee. Served as Vice Pres.: Midland Steel Products Co., Cleveland and Detroit; Hydraulic Pressed Steel Co. which became Trucson Steel Co. and appointed Vice Pres. and General Manager; company became a subsidiary of Republic Steel, 1935; Pres., Aviation Manufacturing Corp., 1940; firm later merged into Aviation Corp. Chmn., Bd. of Directors, Vultee Aircraft, Inc. and Pres., Auburn Central and Aviation Mfg. Co., 1940-42; Pres., Consolidated Aircraft Corp. and Vultee Aircraft Inc., 1942; Pres., Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp., until 1948; Vice Chairman, Bd. of Directors, 1948—. Director: Avco Mfg. Corp.; ACF-Brill Motors Co.; Hall Scott Motor Car Co. Address: Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp., San Diego, Calif.

WOODRING, Hon. HARRY HINES, Former Secretary of War of the United States; born May 31, 1890, Elk City, Kan.; educated in Kansas; married Helen Coolidge, July 25, 1933; three children. Vice-Pres. and owner, First National Bank of Neodesha. Served in Tank Corps, World War I; State Commander, Dept. of Kansas, American Legion, 1928. Governor of Kansas, 1930-33. Asst. Secy. of War in Roosevelt Administration, 1933-36; Secy. of War, 1936-40. Address: Topeka, Kan.

WOODRING, Dr. MAXIE NAVE, American Educator; born Jan. 25, 1888, Nashville, Tenn.; daughter of William Thomas and Ellen B. (Tucker) Woodring; educated at George Peabody Normal College, L. I., 1905; George Peabody College for Teachers, A.B. 1918, A.M. 1918; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1925; Prof. of Latin and German, Oklahoma State College for Women, 1912-18; Prof. of Education and Dir. of College High School, Oklahoma College for Women, 1918-23. Instr. in Secondary Education, Teachers College, Columbia Univ., 1924-25; Assoc., Secondary Education, 1925-26; Asst. Prof. of Education, 1926-28; Assoc. Prof. of Education, 1928-35; Prof. of Education, 1935—. Author: Quality of English in Latin Translation, 1925; Enriched Teaching of Mathematics, 1928, 1941; Enriched Teaching of Science, 1928, 1939, 1941; Enriched Teaching of Physical Education, 1929; Enriched Teaching of Commercial Subjects, 1930; Enriched Teaching of Latin, 1930; Directing Study of High School Students, 1930, 1935; Enriched Teaching of English, 1934-44. Address: Teachers College, Columbia University, New York 27, N. Y.

WOODRING, Dr. WENDELL PHILLIPS, American Geologist; born June 13, 1891, Reading, Pa.; son of James D. and Margaret (Hurst) Woodring; educated at Albright College, A.B. 1910; Johns Hopkins, Ph.D. 1916; married Josephine Jamison, Feb. 9, 1918; two children. Geologist, U. S. Geological Survey, since 1919; geological explorations in Panama and Costa Rica, 1917-18, Haiti, 1920-21, 1941-42, Colombia, 1923, Cuba, 1942-43; Geologist in charge of Haitian Geological Survey, 1920-24; Prof. of Invertebrate Paleontology, California Inst. of Technology, 1927-30. Councilor, Geological Soc. of America, 1945-47. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Paleont. Soc.; Amer. Geophys. Union; Amer. Assn. of Petroleum Geol.; Geol. Soc. of Amer.; Natl. Acad. of Science. Author: Geology of Republic of Haiti, 1924; Miocene Mollusks from Bowden, Jamaica, 1925, 1928; Geology of Kettleman Hills Oil Field, California, 1941; Geology and Paleontology of Palos Verdes Hills, Calif., 1946. Address: U. S. Geological Survey, Washington 25, District of Columbia.

WOODROUGH, Hon. JOSEPH WILLIAM, American Jurist; born August 29, 1873; Cincinnati, Ohio; son of Horace W. and Sarah (Beckett) Woodrough; educated at Chickering Institute, Cincinnati; married Ella Bonner, December 5, 1902. Admitted to the practice of law, 1894. United States District Judge, 1916-33; United States Circuit Judge, since 1933. Address: Post Office Bldg., Omaha, Nebr.

WOODROW, Dr. HERBERT, American Psychologist; born Feb. 25, 1883, Chillicothe, Ohio; son of Thomas R. and Helen (Sill) Woodrow; educated at Univ. of Michigan, A.B. 1904; Sorbonne, Paris, 1904-05; Princeton Univ., 1905-06; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1909; married Katherine Ludgate. Lectured on Experimental Psychology, Columbia Univ., 1907-09; in charge of Clinic in Mental Development, Univ. of Minnesota, 1909-12; Lecturer in Educational Psychology, Univ. of California, 1921-22; Prof. and Head, Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of Illinois, since 1928. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (Vice-Pres. and Chairman of Section 1, 1943-44). Member: Amer. Psychological Assn. (Pres. 1940-41); Midwestern Psychological Assn. (Pres. 1931-32); Natl. Inst. of Psychology (Director, 1936-41); Psychometric Soc. (Director, 1938-41); Soc. of Experimental Psychology, etc. Author: The Measurement of Attention, 1914; Brightness and Dullness in Children, 1919; Studies in Quantitative Psychology, 1940. Address: University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill.

WOODRUFF, JOHN T., American Attorney-at-Law; born in Franklin County, Mo., Jan. 6, 1868; son of George W. and Susan (Rowland) Woodruff; educated at Steelville (Mo.) Normal School, 1888; married Lydia Brand, Oct. 29, 1901; two daughters and two sons. Began practice of law, 1890; Prosecuting Attorney of Crawford County until 1894. Attorney for St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Co., 1894-1910; General Attorney from Missouri, 1904. Organized Fireside Life Assn. (now Physicians Life and Casualty Insurance Co.) of which he has been Pres. and Director since its inception. Pres. and Director of the Freehold Investment Co. and of the Ozark States Trust Co. Chairman, White River Development Project to install flood control and power dams on the White River in Missouri and Arkansas. Address: Woodruff Bldg., Springfield, Missouri.

WOODRUFF, ROBERT EASTMAN, American Railroad Company Executive; born Sept. 11, 1884, Green Bay, Wis.; son of Walter Harold and Bel (Eastman) Woodruff; educated at Purdue Univ., B.S. in Civil Eng. 1905, Dr. Eng. 1942; married Mrs. Merville Spoor Thompson, April 4, 1936; two daughters. With Erie R.R. since 1905; successively track laborer, foreman, transitman, inspector, asst. and div. engineer, trainmaster, general agent Chicago Terminal, Supt. various divs. Supt. transportation, gen. supt., regional mgr., Hornell region; Supt., Buffalo div.; gen. mgr., Eastern District; Asst. Vice-Pres., 1928-29; Vice-Pres. in charge of operation and maintenance, 1929-39; Trustee and Chief Executive Officer, 1939; Pres., 1941—. Director: Assn. of Amer. Railroads; Railway Express Agency; Ohio Chamber of Commerce (Vice-Pres.); Cleveland Chamber of Commerce (Vice-Pres.); Cleveland Chamber of Commerce; Natl. Industrial Conference Board, etc. Residence: 3007 Courtland Blvd., Shaker Heights, Ohio. Office: Midland Bldg., Cleveland 15, Ohio.

WOODRUFF, Hon. ROY ORCHARD, U. S. Congressman; born March 14, 1876, Eaton Rapids, Mich.; son of Charles and Electa A. (Wallace) Woodruff; educated at Detroit College of Medicine, D.D.S.; married Daisy E. Fish; two children. Mayor of Bay City, Mich., 1911-13. Member, U. S. House of Representatives from 10th Michigan District since 1912. Member: National and Michigan State Dental Associations; Delta Sigma Delta; United Spanish War Veterans; American Legion; Veterans of Foreign Wars, etc. Corporal, Co. G, 33rd Michigan Volunteer Infantry, Spanish American War; Major of Infantry, U. S. Army, A.E.F., World War I. Residence: Bay City, Mich. Office: House Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WOODS, Dr. ALAN CHURCHILL, American Ophthalmologist; born Aug. 20, 1889, Baltimore, Md.; son of Hiram and Laura (Hall) Woods; educated at Johns Hopkins Univ., A.B. 1910; M.D. 1914; married Anne Powel Byrd, June 19, 1917; three children. House Officer, Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, 1914-15; Fellow in Research Med. and Asst. in Ophthalmol., Univ. of Pa., until 1917; Instructor in Ophthalmol., Johns Hopkins Med. School, 1919-22; Assoc., 1922-26; Assoc. Prof., 1926-34; Acting Prof. of Ophthalmol., 1934; Dir. of Dept., Johns Hopkins Hosp., 1937; Ophthalmol.-in-Chief since 1937, and Dir. of Wilmer Ophthalmol. Institute. Prof., 1946. Member: Amer. Acad. of Ophthalmol. and Otolaryngol. (Pres., 1947); Amer. Ophthalmol. Soc.; Amer. Soc. of Immunols.; Southern Med. Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science, and Sigma Xi. Civilian Consultant in Ophthalmol. to Surg. Gen., 1944-46; Member, Presidential Commn. to Review Physical Standards, 1944; Member, Sub-Com. of Ophthalmology, National Research Council, 1943—; Chairman, 1947. Author: Allergy and Immunology in Ophthalmology, 1933; many scientific papers on ophthalmological subjects. During World War I he served as 1st Lieut., Med. Reserve Corps, Punitive Expedition, Columbus, N. M., 1917; Captain, Med. Corps, U. S. Army, 1917-19; Major, 1919. Res.: 103 Milbrook Rd. Office: Wilmer Institute, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md.

WOODS, Rt. Rev. EDWARD SYDNEY, Lord Bishop of Lichfield; born Nov. 1, 1877, Hereford, England; son of Rev. Frank and Alice Octavia (Fry) Woods; educated at Marlborough College; Trinity College, Cambridge, B.A. 1899, M.A. 1909, D.D. 1937; married Clemence Rachel Barclay, 1903; six children. Ordained Deacon, 1901, and Priest, Church of England, 1902. Curate, Holy Trinity, Cambridge, and Chaplain, Cambridge Pastorate, 1901-02; Chaplain and Lecturer, Ridley Hall, Cambridge, 1901-03; Vice-Principal, Ridley Hall, 1903-07; Chaplain, Davos Platz, 1908-13, and Lausanne, 1913-15; Chaplain and Commnr., Board of N. & C. Eur., 1912-19; Chaplain, Royal Military College, Sandhurst, 1914-19; Examining Chaplain to Bishop of Durham, 1914-22; Vicar, Holy Trinity, Cambridge, 1918-27; Proctor in Convocation, Ely, 1921-23; Hon. Canon of Cambridge, 1923-27; Select Preacher, Cambridge Univ., 1916, 1921, 1927, 1941, 1943; Oxford Univ., 1929, 1938; Commnr., Egypt and Sudan, 1924-30; Christ Church, 1926-30; Vicar and Rural Dean of Croydon; Hon. Canon, Canterbury Cathedral, 1927-37; Proctor in Convocation of Canterbury, 1929-35; Archdeacon of Croydon, 1930-37; consecrated Lord Bishop Suffragan of Croydon, 1930; translated to Lichfield, 1937. Author: Modern Discipleship, 1911; Everyday Religion, 1922; "Lausanne, 1927," 1928; A Faith that Works, 1929; What is this Christianity? 1937; Love in Action, 1939; Life Worth Living, 1941; Thoughts for Daily Living, 1945. Address: The Palace, Lichfield, Staffordshire, England.

WOODS, Prof. ESLI LONGWORTH, American Pharmacologist; born Sept. 22, 1898, Tamworth, Ont., Canada; son of Stuart B. and Florence (Cleworth) Woods; educated at Univ. of Saskatchewan, B.Sc. (Pharm.), 1924; Univ. of Wisconsin, M.Sc. 1930; married Ruby C. Cannon, May 22, 1921; three children. Instructor in Pharmacy, Univ. of Saskatchewan, 1920-24; Asst. Prof. of Pharmacy, 1924-28; Dean and Prof. of Pharmacy, 1928-46; Prof. of Pharmacy, Univ. of British Columbia, since 1946. Director, Canadian Foundation for Advancement of Pharmacy; Chairman, Canadian Conference of Pharmaceutical Faculties; Member, Canadian Com. on Pharmacopoeial Standards. Member: Amer. Pharmaceutical Assn.; Canadian Pharmaceutical Assn.; Chemical Inst. of Canada. Address: University of British Columbia, Vancouver, B. C., Canada.

WOODS, FRANK HENRY, American Industrialist; born Feb. 1, 1868, Belvidere, Ill.; son of Fred M. and Eliza O. (Eddy) Woods; educated at University of Nebraska, B.Lit. 1890, LL.B. 1892, Hon. LL.D. 1945; Law School of Columbia College, 1891; married Nelle Cochrane; three sons. Organized law firm of Hall, Woods and Pound; practiced law, Lincoln, Nebr., until 1910. In 1910 he was elected President of National Independent Telephone Association; was Chairman of a committee that worked out a plan with Theodore N. Vail, President of American Telephone & Telegraph Co. for elimination of competition in telephone industry and unification of service throughout nation. In 1903 he organized The Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph Co., and has since served as President. He purchased control of O'Gara Coal Co., 1916; later reorganized it as Sahara Coal Co., serving as Pres. until 1944. In 1926 with John B. Russell, Perley Morse and Joseph E. Rogers purchased Addressograph Co. of Chicago. Other companies were later consolidated with it, and on acquisition of Multigraph Co., name was changed to Addressograph-Multigraph Corp. He has been Chairman of Board since its organization. Dir. of Harris Trust & Savings Bank of Chicago, Ill., and numerous other corporations. Address: 2501 Sheridan Blvd., Lincoln, Nebraska.

WOODS, GEORGE D., American Banker; born July 27, 1901, Boston, Mass.; son of John and Laura A. (Rhodes) Woods; educated at Amer. Inst. of Banking of New York Univ., 1920-23; married Louise Taraldson, April 29, 1935. With Harris Forbes Co., New York City, 1918-34. Associated with The First Boston Corp., New York City, since 1934; Chairman of Exec. Com. since 1948. Director: Schenley Distillers Corp.; Amer. Water Works Co., Inc.; Ringling Bros. & Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows, Inc. Residence: 399 Park Ave. Office: The First Boston Corporation, 100 Broadway, New York 5, N. Y.

WOODS, Dr. LITTLETON A., American Educator; born May 11, 1884, Newton, Tex.; son of Louis Jackson and Isabell (Jordan) Woods; educated at Baylor Univ., B.A., M.A., LL.D.; married Sarah Edna Lawrence, Dec. 17, 1902; seven children. Teacher in public schools, 1905; Supt., First Rural High School in Texas, 1914-17. Instructor, Secondary School, Baylor Univ., 1917-19; Principal, Mart High School, 1919-20; Head, Physics Dept., Waco High School, 1920-27; County Supt. of Schools for McLennan County, 1927-33; State Supt. of Public Instruction, Texas, since 1933. Residence: 1908 Bremen St. Office: Capitol Bldg., Austin, Texas.

WOODS, MARK, American Radio Executive; born Dec. 27, 1901, Louisville, Ky.; son of Michael and Johanna Woods; married Edythe C. Dittrich, June 2, 1926; two children. Began as Accountant for Thomas A. Edison, W. Orange, N. J., 1920; with the Auditing Dept. of Radio Station WEAF in 1925, and was elected Vice-President and Treasurer of the National Broadcasting Co. in 1935. Pres. of the Blue Network, Inc., since 1941; Pres. and Dir., Amer. Broadcasting Co., Inc. Member of the Council of Boy Scouts of America, Metropolitan Opera Assn., National Assn. of Credit Men, and New York Board of Trade. Residence: Forest Dr., Short Hills, N. J. Office: 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, New York.

WOODS, Dr. RALPH HICKS, American College President; born June 1, 1898, Grant, Va.; son of John Wesley and Beatrice (Hash) Woods; educated at Berea College, Ph.B. 1921; Univ. of Kentucky, B.S. 1923, M.A. 1927; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1930; married Elizabeth Harkless, Aug. 6, 1925; one daughter. Teacher and Principal, LaCenter (Ky.) High School, 1923-26. Teacher of Agricultural Education, 1926-27. General Education Board Scholar, 1927-28. Assoc. Prof. of Education, Univ. of Kentucky, 1928-36. Prof., Ohio State Univ., summer of 1932. Kentucky State Director of Vocational Education and part-time Prof. at Univ. of Kentucky, 1936-45. Pres., Murray (Ky.) State Teachers College, 1945—. Member, Amer. Vocational Assn. (Pres., 1938); Natl. Assn. of State Dirs. of Vocational Education (Pres., 1942); Kentucky Vocational Assn. (Pres., 1934-35); etc. Author: Today's Agriculture (with Carsie Hammonds); Farm Management (with L. A. Bradford), 1940; Farm Business Management (with Lynn S. Robertson), 1946. Contributor to 1941 Year Book of National Soc. for the Study of Education. Address: Murray State Teachers College, Murray, Ky.

WOODS, Hon. WALTER SAINSBURY, Canadian Deputy Minister; born July 16, 1884, Frome, Somerset, England; son of William John Sainsbury and Elizabeth (Barnes) Woods; educated at private and grammar schools; married Elene Lucille Fawk, July 16, 1919; two sons. With Canadian Pacific Railway, 1907-08; Grand Trunk Railway, 1909-10; Secy.-Treas., Motor Car Agency, 1911-13; Asst. Supt., Soldier Settlement Board, Calgary, Alta., 1919; Supt., Saskatoon and Calgary, 1930; Chairman, War Veterans' Allowance Board, 1930; Assoc. Deputy Minister in charge of Rehabilitation, Dept. of Pensions and National Health of Canada, 1941; Deputy Minister, Dept. of Veterans' Affairs, since Oct. 1944. Enlisted Alberta Dragoons, 1914; with Cavalry and Field Artillery, France and Belgium, 1915-18. Residence: 141 Howick St., Rockcliffe Park, Ottawa. Office: Daly Bldg., Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

WOODSIDE, Rev. Dr. JOHN WILLIAM, Canadian Clergyman; born April 26, 1881, St. Sylvester, West P. Q., Canada; son of Alexander and Isabella (McKee) Woodside; educated at University of Manitoba, B.A. 1904, M.A. 1908; McGill University; Presbyterian College, Montreal, D.D. 1925; Victoria College, D.D. 1939; Mt. Allison University, LL.D. 1940; married Lulu Marion Currie Sept. 2, 1912; two children. Moderator, Presbytery of Westminster, 1914. Chairman, Presbytery of Ottawa, 1928; President, Montreal and Ottawa Conference, 1929. Moderator, United Church of Canada, 1938-40. Chmn., Western Section, Alliance of Reformed Churches 1947. Address: Chalmers United Church, Ottawa, Ont. Canada.

WOODSMALL, RUTH FRANCES, American Social Worker; born Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 20, 1883, dauhgter of Harrison H. and Mary E. (Howes) Woodsmall; educated at Indiana Univ.; Nebraska Univ., A.B. 1906, hon. LL.D. 1945; Wellesley College, 1909; Columbia Univ., graduate work. Director, Y.W.C.A. war work at Camp Pike, Little Rock, Ark., 1917-18; engaged in war service in France and Germany, 1918-19. Conducted postwar surveys in Balkans and Baltics, 1919-20; Y.M.C.A. Executive Secy., in Near East, and Secy., Eastern Mediterranean YWCA Federation. Rockefeller Foundation Travelling Fellow in Near East, Iraq, Iran and India, 1928-29. Member: Laymen's Foreign Mission Inquiry, 1931-32; Commission on Christian Education in Japan, 1931; National Staff, YWCA, in U. S., 1934-35. General Secy., World's YMCA, since 1935. Permanent headquarters: Geneva, Switzerland. Temporary Office: 1155 16th St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

WOODWARD, Dr. CARL RAYMOND, American Educator; born July 20, 1890, Tennent, N. J.; son of William H. and Edith (Reid) Woodward; educated at Rutgers College, B.S. 1914, A.M. 1917, Litt.D. (Hon.) 1941; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1926; Rhode Island College of Pharmacy, D.Sc.

(Hon.), 1943; Bryant College, D.Sc. 1943 (Hon.); married Lulu Altha Ryno, Apr. 5, 1916; three children. Taught at New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station and College of Agriculture, Rutgers Univ., 1915-27; Editor and Librarian, 1915-16; Editor and Secy., 1916-27; Instructor in English, 1920-26; Asst. Prof., 1926-27; Alumni Assn. work, 1927-28; Asst. to Pres., 1928-36; Director of Educational Research, 1930-32; Secy. of Univ., 1936-41; Pres. of Rhode Island State College since 1941. Member: Amer. Assn. of Agricultural College Editors (Pres. 1920-21); Agricultural History Soc. (Pres. 1942-43), etc. Author: The Curriculum of the College of Agriculture, 1920; The Farmer and His Farm (with App), 1924; The Development of Agriculture in New Jersey, 1640-1880, 1927; New Jersey's Agricultural Experiment Station, 1880-1930 (with Waller), 1931; Ploughs and Politics, 1941; Chapters on Agriculture in New Jersey—A History, 1930, etc. Address: Rhode Island State College, Kingston, R. I.

WOODWARD, Rt. Rev. CLIFFORD SALISBURY British Bishop; born Aug. 12, 1878, Redhill, Surrey; son of Richard Salisbury and Mary Louisa (Wapshare) Woodward; educated at Marlborough College; Jesus College, Oxford, M.A. 1904; D.D. at Lambeth, 1933; married Grace Stewart, 1905. Curate at Bermondsey, 1902. Canon of Southwark, and Rector of St. Saviour's Church, Southwark, 1913; Vicar, St. Peter's Church, Cranley Gardens, 1919. Appointed Chaplain to H.M. the King, 1919; Canon of Westminster, 1925. Consecrated Bishop of Bristol, 1933; Bishop of Gloucester, 1946—. Author: Christ in the Common Ways of Life; Jesus Among the Children. Address: Bishop's House, Gloucester, England.

WOODWARD, Mrs. ELLEN SULLIVAN, American Federal Security Official; born in Oxford, Miss.; daughter of Senator William V. and Belle (Murray) Sullivan; educated at Sans Souci Woman's College; hon. LL.D. Woman's College, University of North Carolina; married Judge Albert Y. Woodward, 1906 (died 1925); one son. Member, State Legislature of Mississippi ,1926-28; Director, Community Development, Mississippi State Board of Development 1926-29; Executive Director, 1929-33; Exec. Secy., Research Commission of Mississippi, 1930-33; Member, Exec. Com., Mississippi State Bd. of Public Welfare, 1932-33; Asst. Administrator in charge of Women's Division Civil Works Administration and Federal Emergency Relief Administration, 1933-35; Asst. Administrator, Works Progress Administration, 1935-38; Member, Social Security Board, 1938-46; Dir., Office of Inter-Agency and International Relations, Federal Security Agency, since 1946. Member, U. S. Delegation to all seven sessions of the Council of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administraton 1943-47, serving as Adviser on Welfare Services to U. S. Council Member; U. S. Member, Standing Technical Com. on Welfare, UNRRA, 1944-45; U. S. Member Technical Subcommittee on Welfare for Far East, UNRRA, 1944-45. Member U. S. Delegation to U. N. Economic and Social Council Sessions, 1946-47. Residence: The Westchester. Office: Social Security Building, Washington, D C.

WOODWARD, ERNEST, American Lawyer; born Nov. 18, 1877, Hartford, Ky.; son of Wm. J. and Lucy (Paul) Woodward; educated at Beaver Dam Seminary; Hartford College; married Alice Fielden, Jan. 4, 1910; two sons and two daughters. Admitted to the Bar, 1899; entered active law practice. County Attorney of Ohio County, 1905-09; District Attorney, Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis Railway, 1916-20; General Attorney, Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co., 1921-23. Senior partner in Woodward, Dawson and Hobson, since 1923. Chairman, Executive Committee of the International Assn. of Insurance Counsels, 1925-27; President, American Counsels Assn. 1933-37. Residence: 2324 Saratoga Drive. Office: 1805-26, Kentucky Home Life Building, Louisville, Kentucky.

WOODWARD, Dr. ERNEST LLEWELLYN, British Historian; born May 14, 1890, London, England; son of George Ernest and Helen (Thwaites) Woodward; educated at Merchant Taylors School, London; Corpus Christi College, Oxford, M.A. 1915; Princeton Univ., hon. LL.D.; married Florence Marie O'Loughlin, 1917. Served in B.E.F., France and Salonika, World War I. Fellow, All Souls College, Oxford, 1919-44. Lecturer at New College, Oxford, 1921-44. Attached to Foreign Office, World War II. Montague Burton Prof. of International Relations and Fellow of Balliol College, Oxford Univ., since 1944. Editor for British Foreign Office of Documents on British Foreign Policy, 1919-39. Fellow, British Academy. Author: Three Studies on European Conservatism, 1929; War and Peace in Europe, 1931; The Twelve-Winded Sky, 1930; French Revolutions, 1934; Great Britain and the German Navy, 1935; The Age of Reform (1815-70), 1938; Short Journey (autobiography), 1942 (U.S.A. 1946); Some Political Implications of the Atomic Bomb, 1946. Address: Balliol College, Oxford University, Oxford, England.

WOODWARD, Dr. FOSTER NEVILLE, British Chemist; born May 2, 1905, Hastings, England; son of Foster and Catherine (Burnett) Woodward; educated at Bradford Technical College; University College, London Univ., B.Sc., 1930, Ph.D. 1941; Oxford Univ.; married Elizabeth Holme Siddall, Dec. 7, 1932; one son, one daughter. Head of Analytical and Process Control Laboratories, Messrs. James Williamson & Son Ltd., Lancaster, 1932-37; Head of Research and Development Div., H.M. Research Establishment, Sutton Oak, England, 1937-42; Officer in Charge, Ministry of Supply Research Station, Leamington Spa, England, 1943; Asst. Scientific Adviser to Minister of Production, 1944-45; Director, Scottish Seaweed Research Assn., Edinburgh, 1946-47; Director, United Kingdom Scientific Mission, British Commonwealth Scientific Office, Washington, D. C. Attaché for Scientific Questions, British Embassy, Washington, D. C. and Scientific Adviser to High Commissioner for Canada, Ottawa, 1947 —. Residence: 4521 38th St., N.W. Office: 1785 Massachusetts Ave., N.W., Washington 6, D. C.

WOODWARD, HUGH BEISTLE, American Attorney-at-Law; born in Clearfield, Pa., Apr. 29, 1885; son of Americus Hodge and Ella Jane (Beistle) Woodward; educated at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., Ph.B. 1908, LL.B. and A.M. in 1910; married Helen E. Kisner, June 14, 1911. Admitted to Pennsylvania Bar, 1910; practiced in Clearfield until 1912, when he moved to Greeley, Colo.; moved to Clayton, N. M., 1915; District Attorney, 8th New Mexico District, 1920-24; Lieut. Governor, 1928-29; resigned to become U. S. District Attorney of New Mexico until 1933. Practices in Albuquerque since 1933. Chairman, State Republican Convention, 1922-28. Member of Board of Regents of Univ. of New Mexico, 1935-37; Member, N. M. State Game Commn., 1938-43; Special Asst. U. S. Attorney General for New Mexico, 1942. Address: 211 N. 2nd St., Albuquerque, N. M.

WOODWARD, J. B., Jr., American Shipbuilder. With Newport News (Va.) Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co., since 1914, starting as draftsman; Vice Pres., and General Manager, 1936-46; Pres. and General Manager since 1946. Trustee: Univ. of Virginia; Mariners Museum. Member, Soc. of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers. Address: Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co., Newport News, Virginia.

WOODWARD, ROBERT F., American Foreign Service Officer; born Oct. 1, 1908, Minneapolis, Minn.; son of Charles E. and Ella May (Robertson) Woodward; educated at Univ. of Minnesota, B.A. 1930; married Mrs. Virginia Parker (Cooke), Feb. 20, 1943; two children. Foreign Service Officer, Dept. of State, 1931—. Vice Consul: Winnipeg, 1932; Buenos Aires, 1933; Asuncion (temp.), 1935; Buenos Aires, 1935; Third Secy., Bogota, 1936; Vice Consul, Rio de Janeiro, 1937; at the Dept., 1939. Acting Asst. Chief, Div. of American Republics, 1941; Asst. Chief, 1942. Second Secy. and Consul, La Paz, Sept. 1942; at the Dept., 1944; Acting Asst. Chief, Div. of North and West Coast Affairs, July 1944; Second Secy., Guatemala, Aug. 1944; First Secy., June 1945; Counselor of Embassy, Havana, 1945; Deputy Director for Amer. Republic Affairs, 1947—. Residence: 2409 Wyoming Ave., N.W. Office: Department of State, Room 3113, Washington, D. C.

WOODWARD, STANLEY, American State Department Officer; born March 12, 1899, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of (Dr.) George Woodward; educated at Yale Univ., A.B. 1922; married Sarah Rutherford, Oct. 20, 1923; one son. Appointed Foreign Service Officer, 1925, and assigned to Dept. of State, 1925; Vice Consul, Geneva, 1926; detailed to Tenth and Twelfth Sessions, League of Nations Opium Advisory Com., Geneva, 1927, 1929; Third Secy. at Brussels, 1929; Secy. of Delegation, Conf. for Codification of Internatl. Law, The Hague, 1930; Second Secy. at Port-au-Prince, 1933; resigned, 1934. Asst. Chief of Protocol, Dept. of State, 1937; Chief of Protocol, 1946—. Residence: 3005 O St., N.W. Office: Department of State, Room 2167, 21st and Virginia Ave., N.W., Washington, D. C.

WOODWARD, STANLEY, American Marine and Landscape Painter; born Dec. 11, 1890, Malden, Mass.; son of Frank E. and Alice E. (Colesworthy) Woodward; studied at Boston School of Museum of Fine Arts; Pennsylvania Acad. of Fine Arts, Philadelphia; married Ruth Braincrd, 1926; one daughter. Held first exhibition at Goodspeeds Bookshop, Boston, Mass. Gave first one-man oil show at Casson Gallery, Boston, 1925. Held one-man oil showings at Macbeth Gallery, N. Y.; Grand Central Galleries; Guild of Boston Artists; Doll & Richards, Boston; Currier Art Gallery, Manchester, N. H., and the Stendahl Art Gallery, Los Angeles. Instructor of outdoor painting classes, Rockport, since 1933. Represented at Museum of Fine Arts, Boston; Walker Art Gallery, Bowdoin College; Univ. of Michigan; Fort Worth Museum of Art; Memorial Gallery, New Haven Paint and Clay Club; Concord Art Assn.; Vanderpoel Memorial Gallery, Chicago; Amherst College. Member: Grand Central Galleries, N. Y.; Allied Artists of America; Amer. Water Color Soc.; Amer. Soc. of Etchers; Salmagundi Club of N. Y. Received many awards, including 2nd Hallgarten Prize, Natl. Acad. of Design, 1925; Hammond Purchase Prize, Amer. Water Color Soc., 1927; 1st prize, Baltimore Water Color Club, 1927; Gold Medal for water color, Boston Tercentenary, 1930; Gold Medal (Popular Prize) for oil, Boston Tercentenary, 1930; Crowninshield Prize, Stockbridge Art Assn., 1931; 1st prize, Washington Water Color Club, 1940. Residence: 27 South St. Studio: 11 Gott St., Rockport, Mass.

WOODWARD, THOMAS MULLEN, American Lawyer; born March 2, 1884, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Winfield Scott and Katharine Carroll Dun (Mullen) Woodward; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B. 1906; University of Pennsylvania, LL.B. 1910; married Constance Goodnow Perry, June 2, 1917; four children. Admitted to Pennsylvania Bar, 1910, and to Supreme Court of U. S., 1921; practiced in Philadelphia, 1910-14; Attorney for Interstate Commerce Commerce Commn., 1914-20; Attorney for Director-General of Railroads, 1920-24; practiced in Washington, 1924-33. Attorney, Agricultural Adjustment Administration, 1933; Vice-President, United States Shipping Board Merchant Fleet Corporation, 1933-35; Member, Advisory Committee to the Secretary of Commerce, 1933-35; Consumers' Counsel, National Bituminous Coal Commission, 1935-37. Appointed Commissioner, U. S. Maritime Commission, 1937; Vice-Chmn. of the Commission, 1938-42. Resumed private law practice, 1946. Residence: 3044 P St., N.W. Office: Southern Bldg., Washington, District of Columbia.

WOODWARD, Dr. WILLIAM CREIGHTON, American Physician; born Dec. 11, 1867, Washington, D. C.; son of Mark Rittenhouse and Martha Jane (Pursell) Woodward; educated at Georgetown Univ., M.D. 1889, LL.B. 1899, LL.M. 1900; married Ray Elliott, Feb. 14, 1895; three children. Coroner of District of Columbia, 1893-94; Health Officer, District of Columbia, 1894-1918; Health Commnr., City of Boston, 1918-22; Dir., Bureau of Legal Med. and Legislation of Amer. Med. Assn., 1922-39; Prof. of State Med. or of Med. Jurisprudence, Georgetown Univ. Med. School, 1894-1937; Prof. of Med. Jurisprudence, Law Dept. of that Univ., 1902-37. Prof. of Med. Jurisprudence, George Washington Univ., 1900-18; Prof. of Med. Jurisprudence, Howard Univ., 1916-29; Prof. of Med. Jurisprudence, Law School of Loyola Univ., 1925-29; Lecturer in Med. Jurisprudence, Univ. of Chicago Med. School, 1930-39. Fellow: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Public Health Assn., etc. Member: Amer. Bar Assn.; Med. Soc. of District of Columbia; District of Columbia Bar Assn.; State of Ill. Bar; Bar of Commonwealth of Mass.; Bar of Supreme Court of U. S. Member of General Med. Bd., Council of Natl. Defense, World War I. Address: 2701 Connecticut Ave., N. W., Washington 8, D. C.

WOODWARD, WILLIAM E., American Author; born Oct. 2, 1874, South Carolina; son of Thomas J. and Etta (Gunter) Woodward; educated at The Citadel, Charleston, S. C., 1893, LL.D. (hon.) 1929; married Helen Rosen, Dec. 15, 1913. Newspaper reporter on Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution; engaged in newspaper work, N. Y., 1898-99; wrote advertising copy, 1899; Copy Chief, The J. Walter Thompson Co., 1906; Promotion Manager, Hearst Newspapers until 1915; engaged in banking 1915; Vice-Pres., Industrial Finance Corp., 1917-20. Member, Authors' League. Author: Bunk, 1923; Lottery, 1924; Bread and Circuses, 1925; George Washington, The Image and The Man, 1927; Meet General Grant, 1928; Evelyn Prentice, 1931; New American History, 1936; Tom Paine, 1943; The Way Our People Lived, 1945; The Gift of Life, 1947. Address: c/o E. P. Dutton & Co., 300 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y.

WOODWORTH, Dr. ROBERT SESSIONS, American Psychologist; born Oct.

17, 1869, Belchertown, Mass.; son of William Walter and Lydia Ames (Sessions) Woodworth; educated at Amherst College, A.B. 1891; Harvard Univ., A.B. 1896, A.M. 1897; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1899, Hon. Sc.D. 1929; Liverpool Univ., 1902-03; Univ. of Bonn, 1912; Lake Erie College, LL.D. 1934; Univ. of Pennsylvania, Sc.D. 1946; Univ. of North Carolina, Hon. Sc.D. 1946; married Gabrielle Marie Schjöth, Apr. 25, 1903; four children. Instructor in Mathematics, Washburn College, 1893-95; Instructor in Physiology, New York Univ., 1899-1902; Instructor and Prof. of Psychology, Columbia Univ., 1903-42; Emeritus since 1942. Chairman of Division of Anthropology and Psychology, Natl. Research Council, 1924-25; Pres., Social Science Research Council, 1931; Director, 1925-30. Member: Amer. Psychological Assn. (Pres. 1914); Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; New York Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Author: Elements of Physiological Psychology (with G. T. Ladd), 1911; Dynamic Psychology, 1918; Psychology, 1921, 1929, 1934, 1940, 1947; Contemporary Schools of Psychology, 1931; Adjustment and Mastery, 1933; Experimental Psychology, 1938; Psychological Issues, 1939; Heredity and Environment, 1941; First Course in Psychology (with M. R. Sheehan), 1944. Residence: 400 W. 119th St., New York 27, N. Y.

WOODY, Dr. CLIFFORD, American Educator; born in Thorntown, Ind., June 2, 1884; son of Thomas N. and Susanna (Beesley) Woody; educated at Indiana Univ., A.B. 1908, A.M. 1913; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1916; married Alice May Woody, Aug. 29, 1917. Fellow, Columbia, 1915-16. Asst. Prof. of Education, Univ. of Washington, 1916-18; Prof., 1919-20. Prof. of Education, Univ. of Michigan, since 1921. Director, Bureau of Educational Reference and Research; Graduate Adviser to Michigan Colleges of Education, School of Education, Univ. of Michigan. Member: Natl. Education Assn.; Amer. Educational Research Assn. (Pres. 1923-24); Natl. Soc. for Study of Education; Natl. Soc. of College Teachers of Education (Secy.-Treas. 1940-47); Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (Fellow), etc. Member, Board of Editors of Journal of Educational Research, and Contributing Editor. Research collaborator, Natl. Advisory Com. on Education, Washington, D. C. Author: Measurement of Some Achievement in Arithmetic, 1916; Woody Arithmetic Scales, How to Use Them, 1920; Problems of Elementary School Instruction, 1923; Administration of the Testing Program (with Sangren), 1933; Child Life Arithmetics (with others), 1937; Modern Life Spellers, 1940-41; Sophomore and Freshmen Testing Program in Accredited High Schools of Michigan, 1942, etc. Office: University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

WOODY, Dr. (WALTER) THOMAS, American Educator: born in Thorntown, Ind., Nov. 3, 1891; son of Mahlon and Matilda (Shafer) Woody; educated at Indiana Univ., A.B. 1913; Columbia Univ., A.M. 1916, Ph.D. 1918; married Wilhelmine A. Lawton, June 12, 1920; two daughters. Asst. in History of Education, Columbia Univ., 1916-17; Asst. Prof. of History of Education, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1919-24; Prof. since 1924. Participated in Eighth Amer. Scientific Congress, 1940. Secy., Internatl. Com., Y.M.C.A., in charge of relief work in Russia and in prison camps in France. Member: Natl. Education Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Historical Assn.; Natl. Soc. of College Teachers of Education. Author: Early Quaker Education in Pennsylvania, 1920; Fürstenschulen in Germany After the Reformation, 1920; Quaker Education in the Colony and State of New Jersey, 1923; History of Women's Education in the United States, 1929; Educational Views of Benjamin Franklin, 1931; New Minds; New Men?—The Emergence of the Soviet Citizen, 1932. Address: University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa.

WOOLF, LEONARD SIDNEY, British Author, Editor and Publisher; born Nov. 25, 1880, London, England; son of Sidney and Marie (De Jongh) Woolf; educated at Trinity College, Cambridge (first class in classical tripos), B.A. 1902; married Virginia Stephen. In Ceylon Civil Service, 1904. Editor, International Review, 1919; founded The Hogarth Press, 1917; Literary Editor of The Nation, 1922; Editor of The Political Quarterly, 1932. Hon. Secy., Advisory Committees on International and Imperial Questions to the Labour Party, 1920. Author: The Village in the Jungle, 1913; International Government, 1916; Cooperation and the Future of Industry, 1918; Empire and Commerce in Africa, 1920; After the Deluge, Vols. I and II; Quack Quack; Barbarians at the Gate; The War for Peace; The Hotel. Address: 24 Victoria Sq., London, S.W. 1, England.

WOOLF, SAMUEL J., American Portrait and Figure Painter; born Feb. 12, 1880, New York, N. Y.; son of Albert E. and Rosamond (Wimpfheimer) Woolf; educated at the College of City of New York, A.B.; Art Students League, and under Kenyon Cox and Joseph DeCamp; married Edith Truman, Mar. 1, 1904; two daughters. Held first exhibition at National Academy of Design, 1904; later at the Pennsylvania Academy and Carnegie Institute. Exhibited war paintings at Milch Galleries, N. Y., Rochester Museum, and the Detroit Museum. Represented at Metropolitan Museum and New York Public Library. Won Hallgarten Prize at National Academy of Design; Appalachian Medal; Medal of St. Louis Purchase Exposition; Silver Medal of Universal Exposition, Paris. Author: Drawn From Life, 1932, and Here Am I, 1942. War Correspondent with the U. S. Army, 1918, 1944. Residence: 299 Riverside Dr. Office: 33 W. 67th St., New York, New York.

WOOLLEN, Dr. HERBERT MILTON, American Insurance Executive; born Dec. 1, 1875, Indianapolis, Ind.; son of Milton A. and Ida (Baird) Woollen; educated at Purdue Univ.; Univ. of Wisconsin, B.S. 1900; Indiana Univ. School of Medicine, M.D. 1902; New York Eye & Ear Infirmary and New York Polyclinic, 1902; married Irma Wocher, Jan. 7, 1907. Physician in 1903. Pres., American Central Life Ins. Co., Ind., 1911-37; Pres., Amer. United Life Ins. Co., 1937-40. Member, Amer. Life Convention Exec. Com., 1925; Pres., 1926; reelected to membership on the Exec. Com., 1927; Member, Life Ins. Assn. of America; Chmn. of Com. on the Preparation of the History of the American Life Convention. Member: Chamber of Commerce of the U. S.; Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce; Indianapolis Bd. of Trade. Director, Indiana State Symphony Soc., and Vice Chmn. of the National Paderewski Memorial Fund (Polish Relief). Residence: 3657 Spring Hollow Rd. Office: 30 W. Fall Creek Pkwy., Indianapolis, Ind.

WOOLLEY, Sir CHARLES CAMPBELL, K.C.M.G., O.B.E., M.C., British Administrator; born 1893; educated at Univ. College, Cardiff. Captain, World War I, South Wales Borderers; active service in France, Salonika, Constantinople, Caucasus, 1914-20. In Ceylon Civil Service, 1921-35; Secretary to the Governor, 1931-35. Colonial Secretary, Jamaica, 1935-38;

Chief Secretary, Nigeria, 1938-41; Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Cyprus 1941-46, and of British Guiana, 1947—. Address: Government House, Georgetown, British Guiana.

WOOLLEY, CHARLES H., American Publisher; born Feb. 4, 1872, near Cincinnati, Ohio; son of George Washington and Blanche (Lyons) Woolley; educated in public schools; married Bertha Davis, Oct. 12, 1897. Began as newspaper man, 1893 in Advertising Dept. of Scripps McRae League. Advertising Manager, Cincinnati Post, 1898-99; Business Manager, 1900; Business Manager, Kansas City (Mo.) World, 1900; St. Louis Chronicle, 1901-02; Cleveland World, 1903-05, and of Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune, 1912-13. Vice Pres. and Business Manager, Sunset Magazine, Inc., 1917-25, and Pres. and Publisher, 1925-28; Pres., since 1928. Address: 605 Market St., San Francisco 5, Calif.

WOOLLEY, KNIGHT, American Banker; born May 1, 1895, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Ulysses Grant and Helen (Knight) Woolley; educated at Andover (1913) Yale (1917; married Sarah Currier, Aug. 7, 1934. Began career in 1919 with Guaranty Trust Co.; Asst. Vice-Pres., Amer. Exchange National Bank, 1920-27; Partner, Harriman Bros. & Co., 1927-31; Partner, of Brown Bros., Harriman & Co. since 1931. Dir. and Member, Finance Com. of Air Reduction Co. Inc., and Caledonian-American Insurance Co.; a Director and Member of the Executive Committee of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Co.; Natl. Sugar Refining Co. Director, Southern Railway Co., Hewitt-Robins, Inc.; Transport Trading & Terminal Corp. Trustee and Treasurer of the Boys' Club of New York. During World War I served as Capt. and Major, 308th Field Artillery, 78th Division, A.E.F. Residence: 1021 Park Ave. Office: 59 Wall St., New York, N. Y.

WOOLLEY, MONTY (Edgar Montillion), American Actor, Director; born Aug. 17, 1888, New York, N. Y.; son of William Edgar and Jessie (Arms) Woolley; educated at Yale University, B.A. 1911, M.A. 1912; Harvard University, A.M. 1913. Directed Fifty Million Frenchmen, 1928; The New Yorker, 1930; Second Little Show, 1932; Walk a Little Faster, 1933, etc. He appeared on the stage in On Your Toes, 1937; The Man Who Came to Dinner, 1939-41, and in the following motion pictures: Live, Love and Learn; Midnight; The Pied Piper; Life Begins at 8:30; Holy Matrimony; Since You Went Away; Irish Eyes Are Smiling, etc. Taught at Yale University, 1914-28; Assistant Professor of English, 1925. Took charge of all collegiate dramatic works, producing many Shakespearean classics. Received hon. M.A., Williams College, 1941. Nominated by Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences as one of five best actors, 1942, and as one of five best supporting actors, 1944. Served in U. S. Army during World War I. Residence: 2 N. Circular St., Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

WOOLLEY, Dr. RICHARD (VAN DER RIET), Australian Astronomer; born Apr. 24, 1906, Weymouth, England; son of Charles and Julia (Van Der Riet) Woolley; educated at Univ. of Cape Town, B.Sc. 1924, M.Sc. 1925; Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge, B.A. 1928, Ph.D. 1931, M.A. 1937; married Gwyneth Meyler, Mar. 2, 1932. Chief Asst. at Royal Observatory, Greenwich, 1935-37; John Couch Adams Astronomer until 1939. Director of Commonwealth Solar Observatory, Canberra, since 1939. Chief Officer of Army Inventions Directorate, 1942-45. Fellow, Royal Astronomical Soc. Author: Eclipse of the Sun and Moon (with Sir Frank Dyson), 1937. Address: Mount Stromlo, Canberra, Australia.

WOOLRICH, Dr. WILLIS RAYMOND, American Engineering Educator; born Mar. 1, 1889, Mineral Point, Wis.; son of George and Hannah M. (Suthers) Woolrich; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, B.S. in E.E. 1911, M.E. 1923; married Neena Myhre, Aug. 29, 1914; six children. Steam Engineer, 1906-07; Instructor, DePaul Univ., 1911-12; Mfg. Asst. Methods Engr., Western Electric Co., 1912-13. Director of Shop School and later Methods Engr., International Harvester Co., Chicago, 1913-16. Asst. Prof. and Prof. of Mechanical Engineering and Head of Dept. at Univ. of Tennessee, 1916-33; Mechanical Engineer and Director of Agricultural Industries Division, Tennessee Valley Authority, 1933-36; Dean of Engineering and Director of Bureau of Engineering Research, Univ. of Texas, since 1936. Member: Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engrs. (Natl. Vice-Pres. 1942); Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (Vice-Pres.); Engineering College Research Assn. (Natl. Pres. 1943-45); Council Soc. for Promotion of Engineering Education, since 1943. Regional Adviser to U. S. Office of Educational Engr. Science Management War Training, 1940-45; Regional Representative, Engineering Science Management War Training, War Manpower Commn., 1943-45. Address: University Station, Austin, Texas.

WOOLSON, HARRY THURBER, American Engineer; born Sept. 20, 1876, Passaic, N. J.; son of George C. and Sarah Martin (Thurber) Woolson; educated at Stevens Inst. of Technology, Hoboken, N. J., M.E. 1897; married Bessie Van Iderstine, Aug. 19, 1903; three sons. Draftsman with National Meter Co., Brooklyn. Served in U. S. Navy during Spanish-American War. Returned to National Meter Co., where remained for a short time. Draftsman with Gas Engine & Power Co. and Charles L. Seabury & Co. Consolidated (now Consolidated Shipbuilding Co.), 1899; resigned as Chief Engineer, 1915. Engineer with Packard Motor Car Co., 1915-16. Engineer with Studebaker Corp., Detroit; Willys Corp., Elizabeth, N. J., and Zeder-Skelton-Breer Engineering Co., Newark, N. J.; returned to Detroit and went to work for Chrysler Corp. in engineering department, appointed Executive Engineer, 1935, after having served for several years as Chief Engineer. Pres. of Soc. of Automotive Engineers, 1937. Residence: 1780 Strathcona Dr. Office: 12800 Oakland Ave., Detroit 31, Michigan.

WOOLTON, 1st Baron of Liverpool, Frederick James Marquis, P.C., C.H., D.L., British Political Leader; Company Director; born Aug. 24, 1883; son of Thomas Robert and Margaret Marquis; educated at Manchester Grammar School; Manchester Univ., B.Sc. 1906, M.A. 1912, Hon. LL.D. 1943; Hon. LL.D., Liverpool Univ.; married Maud Smith, 1912; two children. Chancellor, Univ. of Manchester; Chairman of Governors, Manchester Grammar School; Pres., Royal Statistical Society; Chmn., British Red Cross Soc. (Executive Com.); Hon. Adviser to Secy. of State for War, 1939; Dir. General of Equipment and Stores, Ministry of Supply, 1939; Minister of Food, 1940; Minister of Reconstruction, 1943; Member of War Cabinet, 1943-45; Lord President of the Council, 1945. Chmn., Lewis' Investment Trust, Ltd.; Director, Royal Insurance Co., Ltd.; The Liverpool & London & Globe Ins. Co., Ltd.; B.S.A., Ltd.; Birmingham Railway Carriage & Wagon Co., Ltd.; London, Midland & Scottish Railway Co., Ltd.; Westpool Investment Trust, Ltd. Address: 68 Brook Street, London, W. 1, and Chownes Mead. Haywards Heath, Sussex, England.

WOOSTER, Dr. LYMAN DWIGHT, American Educator; born July 15, 1884, Greeley, Colo.; son of Lyman C. and Ellen (Bassett) Wooster; educated at Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia, Kans., A.B. 1911; Univ. of Wisconsin, Ph.M. 1919; Stanford Univ., Ph.D. 1916; married Mary O. Smith, 1913 (deceased); four children. Instructor in Zoology, Ft. Hays Kansas State College, 1909-11; Kansas City High School, 1911-12; Prof. of Zoology, Ft. Hays Kansas State College, since 1912; Dean of College, 1938-41; Pres. of Fort Hays Kansas State College since 1941. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Natl. Education Assn.; Amer. Wild Life Soc.; Ecological Soc. of America; Amer. Soc. of Mammalogists. Author: An Ecological Evaluation of Certain Dominant Mammals and Predatory Birds on the Mixed Prairie Association in Western Kansas, 1935; Nature Studies, 1937. Address: Fort Hays Kansas State College, Hays, Kans.

WOOTEN, Major General RALPH HUDSON, American Air Force Officer; born Aug. 30, 1893, Independence, Miss.; son of Jesse A. and Molly (Sharp) Wooten; educated at Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, B.S. 1916, LL.D. 1946; Command and General Staff School, grad. 1935; Army War College, grad. 1937; married Katharine Wallace, July 3, 1920. Second Lieut., First Lieut., Aug. 1917; Capt., 1918; transfered to Air Service, 1920; Major, 1935; Lieut. Colonel, 1936; Colonel, 1940; Brig. General, 1942; Major General, 1944. Service: Chief of Materiel Procurement and Transportation, Office of the Chief of Air Service, Washington, D. C., 1924-28; Military Attaché, Santiago Chile, 1929-33; with War Dept., General Staff, Military Attaché to Chile and Bolivia, 1938-41; Commanding General, VI Air Force Service Command; Chief of Staff, Sixth Air Force, 1943; Commanding Gen., 6th Air Force, 1943; Commanding General U. S. Army Forces, South Atlantic Theater, 1944-45. Commissioner for Military Program for Latin America, State Dept., Washington, D. C., 1946; Commanding General, 7th Air Force, 1947—. Rated Command Pilot, Combat Observer, Aircraft Observer. Decorations: Distinguished Service Medal; Legion of Merit; Bronze Star Medal; Orden el Merito (Chile); Orden el Merito Militar (Cuba); Condecoration abdon Calderon (Ecuador); Orden de Boyaca (Colombia); Orden Militar de Ayacucho (Peru); Grande Oficial da Ordem do Merito (Brazil) Gran Maestro de la Orden del Condor do los Andes (Bolivia); La Orden Nacional del Merito (Paraguay). Residence: 301 Julian Ave., Hickam Field, Oahu, T. H. Office: Headquarters Seventh Air Force, APO 953, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

WORCESTER, CHARLES HENRY, American Corporation Executive; born Sept. 23, 1864, Detroit, Mich.; son of Ira and Carolina (Cooper) Worcester; educated at public schools; married Mary Southwell, Jan. 3, 1894. Manager, Peninsula White Lead & Color Works, 1890-93; interested in various management and investment services, 1893-96; engaged in lumber manufacturing business, since 1896; President, C. H. Worcester Co. Pres., Munising Paper Co., 1927-40; Chmn. of Board since 1940. During World War I served two and a half years with Lumber Dept. of War Industries Board. Director, Masonite Corp.; Consolidated Naval Stores Co. Trustee, Art Inst. of Chicago since 1938. Hon. Pres. since 1938. Trustee: Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis. Residence: 1323 N. State St., Chicaog, Ill., and Chassell, Mich. Office: 135 S. La Salle St., Chicago, Illinois.

WORCESTER, HENRY E., American Business Executive; born Sept. 30, 1875, Tewksbury, Mass.; son of Horatio E. and Annie (Jarvie) Worcester; attended Lowell High School; Mass. Inst. of Technology (class of '97); married Alice Duncan, 1905. Vice-Pres. of the United Fruit Co.; Vice-Pres., United Fruit Sugar Co.; Vice-Pres. and Director, Revere Sugar Refinery; Vice-Pres. and Trustee of the East Cambridge Savings Bank. Director, Manati Sugar Co. Life Member, Corp. of Mass. Inst. of Technology. Residence: Winchester, Mass. Office: 1 Federal St., Boston, Mass.

WORKS, Dr. GEORGE ALAN, American Educational Consultant; born May 14, 1877, Town of Lincoln, Wis.; son of Obedish and Clarasia (Perry) Works; educated at University of Wisconsin, Ph.B. 1904, M.S. 1911; Harvard University, Ed.D. 1925; married Saidee B. Coerper, Aug. 10, 1904; five children. Asst. Prof., Univ. of Minn., 1913-14; Prof. of Rural Education, Cornell University, 1914-27; Dean, Graduate Library School, University of Chicago, 1927-29; President, Connecticut Agricultural College, 1929-30. Professor, University of Chicago, 1930-42; Dean of Students and Examiner until 1941. Director, Survey of University System of Georgia, 1943; Survey of Higher Educational Facilities, Illinois, 1944; Louisville Public School Survey, 1942. Appointed Director of National Roster, Nov. 1, 1944. Secy., United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa since Sept. 1946. Member, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Geographical Soc.; Phi Beta Kappa; Phi Delta Kappa; Alpha Zeta. Received LL.D. degrees from Wittenberg College, Luther College and Southwestern College. Author of Rural America: Today, 1941; Report to Board of Regents of University System of Georgia, 1943; College and University Library Problems, 1927; Land Grant Colleges, 1939; Report of a Survey of Colleges and Theological Seminaries of the Presbyterian Church in U. S., 1942. Residence: 242 Gateway Rd., Ridgewood, New Jersey.

WORLEY, Hon. EUGENE, U. S. Congressman; born Oct. 10, 1908, Lone Wolf, Oklahoma; moved to Shamrock, Texas at an early age, attended grammar and high schools, graduating in 1927; attended Texas A. & M. College, 1927-28; Univ. of Texas School of Arts and Sciences, Journalism and School of Law, 1930-35; married; two children. Admitted to Texas Bar, 1935; elected to House of Representatives of Texas, 1934; re-elected 1936 and 1938, resigning in 1940; elected to Congress, 1940; re-elected, 1942, 1944 and 1946. Served in World War II. Member: American Legion; Veterans of Foreign Wars; Masons. Address: House Office Bldg., Washington, District of Columbia.

WORM-MULLER, Prof. JACOB STENERSEN, Norwegian Historian, Political Leader; born Dec. 25, 1884, Oslo Norway; son of Prof. D. Jacob and A. O. E. (Heyerdahl) Worm-Muller; educated at Mil. College, Oslo, 1902-03; studied law and history; attended Oslo, Copenhagen, Berlin and Paris Universities; married Elizabeth Lippestad, Sept. 24, 1910; one son and two daughters; married (2nd) Asta Blidberg, July 26, 1939. Univ. Asst. Prof., 1919; Professor of History, Oslo University, since 1928. Member-Delegate, League of Nations Assembly, 1926-27; Adviser in History to Nobel Institute since 1919. Editor of Samtiden since 1925 and The Norseman 1943-45. Chairman, Norwegian People's Museum, 1927-40. Chmn., Ludvig Daaes Legacy Com. Appointed Chmn., Student Assn., 1914; Member, Aker Dist. Council, 1914-16. Member, Exec. of Nordmannsforbundet and State Research Fund. Member, Scientific Academy of Oslo, since 1920 and Royal Danish Society of National History and Language since 1935. Chmn. of Liberal Party, 1945. Hon. doc. at Luther College, Decorah, Iowa, 1936. Author of General Christian de Wet, 1902; South African Stories, 1903; Norway in the Years of Want, 1807-1914, 1918; The Crisis After the Napoleonic Wars, 1922; Norwegian Maritime History, 1925-40; The First World War, the Versailles Treaty and the Aftermath, 1933; Norway Revolts Against the Nazis, 1941; also articles in daily newspapers and periodicals. Lectured in Norway, Denmark, Iceland, France, U. S., Sweden and England. Member, Norwegian Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Delegate: U. N. Preparatory Commn., 1945; U. N. General Assembly, London, 1946, and New York 1946. Residence: 27 Nobelsgate, Oslo, Norway.

WORTHING, Dr. ARCHIE GARFIELD, American Physicist; born Feb. 6, 1881, Le Roy, Wis.; son of Arthur James and Loella (McKnight) Worthing; educated at University of Wisconsin, B.A. 1904; University of Michigan, Ph.D. 1911. Assistant in Physics, University of Wisconsin, 1904-06; Acting Instructor, University of Iowa, 1906-09; Associate Physicist, Physical Laboratory, National Lamp Works, Cleveland, 1910-14; Physicist, Nela Research Laboratories, Cleveland, 1914-29; Professor of Physics, University of Pittsburgh, since 1925; Head of Department, 1925-37. President, American Assn. of Physics Teachers, 1941; President, Optical Society of America, 1941-43. Member, Board of Governors, American Institute fo Physics. Fellow, American Physical Society. Co-author of five books on science. Address: University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa.

WORTHINGTON, Dr. EDGAR BARTON, British Biologist; born Jan. 13, 1905, London, England; son of Edgar and Amy E. (Beale) Worthington; of British yeoman stock; educated at Gonville Caius College, Cambridge, 1923-27 (Exhibitioner), B.A. 1926, 1st Class Honours in Zoology, 1927, M.A., Ph.D. 1930; married Stella Desmond Johnson, 1930; three daughters. Engaged in Fishery Surveys of Central African Lakes, 1927-30; Balfour Student of Cambridge Univ., 1930-33; Demonstrator in Zoology, Cambridge Univ., 1933-37; Scientist to African (Lord Hailey's) Survey, 1935-37; Director, Freshwater Biological Assn. of British Empire, 1937-46; Scientific Adviser to Middle East Supply Council, 1943-45; transferred to Colonial Office, 1946. Fellow: Royal Geographical Soc.; Linnean Soc. Awarded Mungo Park Medal of Royal Scottish Geographic Soc., 1938. Author: Inland Waters of Africa (with Stella Worthington), 1932; Science in Africa, Oxford, 1937; Middle East Science, London, 1946. Address: c/o Conference of East African Governors, P.O. Box 601, Nairobi, Kenya, Africa.

WORTHINGTON, GEORGE EDMOND, American Attorney; born March 28, 1888, Oconomowoc, Wis.; son of Franklin Pierce and Emma Flora (Brown) Worthington; educated at Univ. of Wis., B.A. 1910, LL.B. 1913; University of Washington, Law School (1 semester); married Irene Valanche Starks, June 24, 1914; two children. Admitted to Washington State Bar in 1913 and engaged in the private practice of law at Spokane, Wash., 1913-18. Admitted to the New York Bar, 1921; before the U. S. Supreme Court, 1930. Served as Attorney for Spokane Merchants Assn. and Hieber Brewing & Malting Co.; engaged in bankruptcy and corporation practice and in real property, handling many mortgage foreclosures. Appointed Special Master in the Federal Court, Equity Reorganization of Northern Idaho & Montana Power Co. and Oregon Power, both in the main case (Washington), and ancillary proceedings in Montana, Idaho and Oregon. First Lt., U. S. Army, A.E.F., 1918-19. Became Counsel for the American Social Hygiene Assn., New York, 1919; Acting Director of its Department of Legal Measures, 1924-26; General Counsel of Committee of Fourteen, New York, 1926-32; resumed private practice of law in New York with special reference to corporations and surrogate practice. In Government Service, including Federal Alcohol Control Administration, Bureau of Internal Revenue and Office of Alien Property Custodian and Dept. of Justice, serving as Hearing Officer, Attorney-Examiner, Chief of Review and Analysis Section, etc. Member of three-man Commission to SCAP, Tokyo, Japan, serving as Adviser to Gen. Douglas MacArthur on Restitution of Looted Property and Analysis of External Assets of Japan, including Advisory Services in Korea to Property Custodian, Korea, 1947. Former Member of Crime Prevention Commission of New York, 1928-34; former Delegate to White House Conference on Child Health and Protection, 1930; former Member of Jerome Committee on Magistrates' Courts, New York, 1928-34. Member: American, Federal and New York Bar Assns.; Sons of Revolution; Society of Colonial Wars, etc. Author: Specialized Courts Dealing With Juvenile Delinquency (with R. Topping), 1925; The Criminal Division, Philadelphia Municipal Court, 1932; Men's Misdemeanants Division, 1933; Manual for Examiners, 1942; drafted with Judge W. B. Cobb of New York that portion of the New York Domestic Relations Law relating to illegitimacy. Residence: 201 West 16th St., New York, N. Y., and 1636 44th St., N.W., Washington, D. C. Offices: 49 Wall St., New York, N. Y. and 203 Willard Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WORTHINGTON, JOHN HUBERT, British Architect; born July 4, 1886, Alderley Edge, Cheshire, England; son of Thomas and Edith Emma (Swanwick) Worthington; educated at Victoria University of Manchester (M.A. 1910); married Sophie Joan Banham, 1928; three children. Began career as an architect, 1914; Partner, firm of Thomas Worthington & Sons, 1919; Professor of Architecture, Royal College of Art, London, 1922-27; Member, Royal Fine Art Commission (since 1943); Vice-President, Royal Institute of British Architects (1943-45). Principal Architect, Imperial War Graves Commission for North Africa (1943). Fellow, Royal Institute of Architects; Hon. Associate of the Royal College of Art (1927). Residence: The Pantiles, Alderley Edge, Cheshire, England. Office: 178 Oxford Rd., Manchester, England.

WORTIS, Dr. S. BERNARD, American Psychiatrist; born March 25, 1904, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Morris and Rose (Switzzer) Wortis educated at New York Univ., A.B. 1923; Cornell Univ., M.D. 1927; married Ethel Emerson, Sept. 21, 1934; two sons. Began career as a practicing physician. Associate Psychiatrist, Johns Hopkins Hospital, 1934-35; Asst. Prof. of Clinical Med., Cornell Univ. Med. College, 1939-42; Instructor in Neurosurg., Columbia Univ., 1930-32; Assoc. Prof. of Neurol., New York Univ., since 1932; Prof. of Psychiatry, New York Univ. College of Medicine. Dir., Bellevue Hosp. Psych. Div. Consultant to Woman's, Welfare, Polyclinic, Montefiore Hosps.; U. S. Marine Hosps. at Ellis Island and Stapleton (Staten Island). Consultant in Mental Hygiene, U. S. Public Health Service. Member of Directorate, Natl. Bd. of Review of Motion Pictures; Executive Com. of Research Council of Problems of Alcohol;

Natl. Research Council, Division of Medical Sciences. Director of Amer. Bd. of Psych. & Neurol., Inc.; Hon. Consultant, N. Y. City Police Department; Fellow of Amer. Med. Assn.; N. Y. Acad. of Med.; Amer. Psych. Assn.; Amer. Neurol. Assn.; Amer. College of Physicians; Amer. Assn. on Mental Deficiency, and Amer. Anthropological Soc. Residence: 145 E. 74th St. Office: 410 E. 57th St., New York, N. Y.

WORTMAN, DENYS, American Cartoonist; born May 1, 1887, Saugerties, N. Y.; son of Denis and Jessie (Babcock) Wortman; educated at Blair Acad.; Stevens Inst. of Technology; Rutgers Univ.; School of Fine and Applied Art, Kenneth Hayes Miller, teacher; married Hilda Juliet Renbold, July 29, 1927; one son. Exhibited paintings at Daniel's Gallery, Macbeth's and Kraushaar's. Cartoonist, New York World, 1924-30; New York World-Telegram since 1930; United Feature Syndicated papers since 1930. Complete collection of proofs at Metropolitan Museum of Art and New York Public Library. Portrayed George Washington in reenactment of his inaugural journey, 1939 (sponsored by Sons of American Revolution). Clubs: Soc. of Illustrators, N. Y. (Pres. 1936-37); Dutch Treat Club, N. Y. Assoc. Member, Natl. Acad. of Design; Member, Inst. of Arts and Letters. Served in U. S. Navy, World War I. Address: Vineyard Haven, Martha's Vineyard, Mass.

WOUDENBERG, CORNELIS, Dutch Senator, Political Leader; born Dec. 16, 1883, Amsterdam, Holland; son of Helmert and Sophia (Gijsbertsen) Woudenberg; educated at preparatory and technical school; married Willemina Margaretha Langendonck. Cabinetmaker, 1899; Executive Member, Cabinetmaker's Trade Union, Amsterdam, 1907; Secy., Amsterdam, Division, Dutch Socialist Party, 1907; Pres., Amsterdam Division, Trade Union of Cabinetmakers, 1909; Secy., 1910; Member of Central Com., 1912; served in Dutch Army, World War I; Secy., Trade Union of Cabinetmakers, 1917-19, Chairman, 1919; Secy., Internatl. Union of Woodworkers, since 1919. Member of Town Council, Amsterdam, 1924-39; Secretary General and Treasurer, Social Democratic Labour Party, since 1929. Member of Senate, Dutch Parliament, since 1945. Trustee, N.V. "De Arbeiderspers," (Labour Press); Executive Member, V.A.R.A. (Socialist Radio Inst.). Author of various pamphlets on "Eight Hours' Day," labour co-partnership, and collective labour contracts. Address: Tesselschadestraat 31, Amsterdam, Holland.

WOUTERS, Dr. PAUL, Belgian Jurist; born Nov. 12, 1884, Termonde, Belgium; son of Th. and Mrie (Lefebre de Laval) Wouters; educated at Univ. of Ghent, LL.D. with honors; Univ. of Leiden; Faculty of Law, Paris; married Tachita van de Putte, Dec. 23, 1909; three children. Asst. Public Prosecutor, 1909; Public Prosecutor, 1909; Public Prosecutor, Malines Dist., 1919; Chief of Cabinet, Ministry of Arts and Sciences, 1921; Attorney, Court of Appeal, Brussels; Member of Belgian Supreme Court since 1935. Pres., Council of Economic Affairs. Pres., Fondation des Bourses d'études du Brabant. Author: Autorité de la chose jugée; Guide de l'Officier de l'Etat Civil; Les Malades mentaux en Belgique; Etudes dans le Répertoire de Droit Belge. Address: Avenue du Parc de Woluwe, Auderghem-Brussels, Belgium.

WOXÉN, Dr. RAGNAR, Swedish Educator; born Sept. 18, 1905, Sweden; son of Emil and Agnes (Lundin) Woxén; educated at Royal Inst. of Technology, M.E. 1928; Techn. Dr. 1932. Chief Engineer, A/B Stille Werner, Stockholm, 1929-37; Docent, Royal Inst. of Technology, Stockholm, 1932-37; Prof. of Mechnical Technology, since 1937. Technical Expert, State Industrial Commission, Stockholm, 1940; Managing Member, Munitions Workshops Board, Stockholm, 1941-42; Chairman, Defense Agreement Com., Stockholm, 1942-46; Chairman Standing Com. on Wages of Railroad, Telegraph, Postal Boards, 1945-46; President, Royal Inst. of Technology, since 1943. Member: Swedish Assn. of Engineers and Architects; Royal Swedish Acad. of Engineering Sciences. Created Knight, Vasa Order, North Star Order. Address: Tekniska Högskolan, Stockholm 26, Sweden.

WOZNICKI, Most Rev. STEPHEN S., American Bishop; born Aug. 17, 1894, Miners Mills, Pa.; son of Stephen and Michaeline (Jablonski) Woznicki; educated at St. Mary's College and Seminary; St. Paul Seminary, D.D. Ordained Priest, Dec. 22, 1917. Assistant at St. Joseph's Church, Danville, Pa., until 1919; Secretary to late Bishop Gallagher of Detroit, 1919-37. Pastor, St. Hyacinth Church, Detroit, 1937; consecrated Bishop, Jan. 25, 1938. Vicar General and Auxiliary Bishop, Archdiocese of Detroit, since 1937. Address: 3151 Fransworth Ave., Detroit, Michigan.

WRATHER, WILLIAM EMBRY, American Geologist; born Jan. 20, 1883, Brandenburg, Ky.; son of Richard Anslem and Glovy Washington (Munford) Wrather; educated at Univ. of Chicago, Ph.B. 1907; Southern Methodist Univ., Sc.D. 1945; married Alice Mildred Dolling, Dec. 30, 1910; two daughters. Petroleum Geologist, Gulf Production Co., Beaumont and Houston, Tex., 1908-16; Consulting Petroleum Geologist, Dallas, Tex., 1916-42; Special Lecturer, Depts. of Geology, Univ. of Chicago, 1922, Univ. of Texas, 1927, Yale Univ., 1930, Northwestern Univ., 1931, Southern Methodist, 1935. Member, Scientific Advisory Com., Chicago World's Fair, 1933; Delegate from Natl. Acad. of Sciences and Natl. Research Council to Internatl. Geologic Congress, Madrid, 1926, Pretoria, S. A., 1929. Member, Organizing Com., 16th Internatl. Geological Congress, Washington, D. C., 1933; Delegate, 17th Internatl. Geological Congress, Moscow, Russia, 1937. Member, Board of Economic Warfare, 1942-43; Director, U. S. Geological Survey, since 1943. Fellow, Geological Soc. of America (1st Vice-Pres. 1936); Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (Treas. since 1941); Amer. Assn. of Petroleum Geologists (Pres. 1922-23); Soc. of Economic Geologists (Pres. 1934); Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers (Chairman of Petroleum Division, 1933; Pres., 1948), etc. Address: U. S. Geological Survey, F St., between 18th and 19th Sts., N.W., Washington, D. C.

WREDEN, NICHOLAS ROMAN, American Publisher, Author, Editor; born Nov. 30, 1900, St. Petersburg, Russia; son of Roman and Emily (Rosinsky) Wreden; educated at Russian Imperial Naval Academy; married Sophie Dalmas, 1923 (divorced 1945); married Patricia Clement, 1945; three children. Asst. Manager, Doubleday Shop, St. Louis, 1934-36; Manager, Doubleday Book Shop, Detroit, 1936-39; Manager, The Scribner Book Store, New York, 1939-44; Vice-President and Editor-in-Chief, E. P. Dutton Co. since 1944. Pres., Amer. Booksellers Assn., 1943, 1944. Director: E. P. Dutton Co.; Tolstoy Foundation; Author: Unmaking of a Russian, 1935. Translator: Dog Lane, 1929; Fifth Seal, 1943; Tolstoy and His Wife, 1945; For Thee the Best, 1945. Served in Russian Imperial Navy, 1915-17, and in Russian White Army, 1917-20. Address: 300 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y.

WREN, WILLIAM CLINTON, American Editor; born Aug. 5, 1891, New York, N. Y.; son of William Coleman and Rose Lucille (Warren) Wren; educated at Univ. of California, 1918; married Helen Rolph, 1921; one son. Newspaper office boy, 1905. City Editor, San Francisco (Calif.) Examiner, 1924-36; now Managing Editor. Commissioned in U. S. Army, Plattsburg, 1917; in 312th Infantry, 78th Division, 1917-19. Address: San Francisco Examiner, 3rd & Market Sts., San Francisco, Calif.

WRENCH, Sir EVELYN, British Publisher; born Oct. 29, 1882, Brookeboro, Fermanagh, N. Ireland; son of Rt. Hon. Frederick Wrench and Charlotte, daughter of Sir Alan Bellingham; educated at Eton College, Windsor, England; Hon. LL.D., St. Andrews, Scotland; married Lady Des Voeux, May 18, 1937. Publisher with Lord Northcliffe, 1904-18. Editor: Sunday Despatch, 1905, Overseas Daily Mail, 1905-16. Director, Paris Daily Mail, 1907-13; Managing Director, The Spectator, 1922-25; Editor of The Spectator, 1925-32; Chairman, The Spectator, since 1925. Founder, English Speaking Union (of British Empire) and of All Peoples Assn., 1929-36. Founder, Overseas League (incorporated by Royal Charter). Amer. Relations Officer to Govt. of India, 1942-44. Author: Uphill, 1934; Struggle, 1935; I Loved Germany, 1940; Immortal Years, 1945. Address: The Spectator, 99 Gower St., London, W.C. 1, England.

WRENN, Prof. CHARLES LESLIE, British Philologist; born Dec. 30, 1895, Westcliffe-on-Sea, Essex, England; son of Herbert William and Annie F. (West) Wrenn; educated at Oxford Univ., B.A. 1917, M.A. 1920; married Elizabeth Agnes Wright, Aug. 7, 1919; one daughter. Lecturer at Durham Univ., 1917-20; Principal of Pachaiyappa's College, Madras, and Fellow of Madras Univ., 1920-21; Prof. and Head of English Dept. at Dacca Univ., 1921-27; Lecturer in English at Leeds Univ., 1928-30. Lecturer in English Philology, Univ. of Oxford, 1930-39. Tutor to Oxford Colleges in English Language, 1929-46; Prof. of English Language and Literature at London Univ., 1939-46; Rawlinson and Bosworth Prof. of Anglo-Saxon, Oxford Univ., since 1946. Fellow of Pembroke College, Oxford. Member of Senate of London Univ.; Chairman of Board of English Studies at London Univ. Member: Governing Bodies of King's College (Council); School of Slavonic Studies, Westfield College, London; Editorial Review of English Studies since 1940. Chairman, Council of School of Slavonic Studies, London. Pres., Philological Soc. Member: Mediaeval Soc.; Early English Text Soc.; Modern Language Assn.; English-Speaking Union. Author: A Study of W. B. Yeats, 1919; Beowulf (revised translation), 1940; Chapters on Philology in The Year's War in English Studies, 1935-37; Essays in Essays and Studies by Members of English Association, 1939 and 1944. Contributed numerous articles to various reviews and publications of learned societies. Address: Pembroke College, Oxford, England.

WRIGHT, Lord, (Robert Alderson Wright), P.C., British Jurist; born Oct. 15, 1869, South Shields; son of John and Elizabeth Middleton (Carr) Wright; educated at Trinity College, Cambridge, Fellow 1899-1905, Hon. Fellow, 1940, M.A. 1900; Hon. LL.D., Cambridge, London, Birmingham, Toronto; married Majorie Avis Bullows, Sept. 26, 1928. Barrister of the Inner Temple, London, 1900; Bencher, 1923; Treasurer, 1946. Lectured in law, London School of Economics. Created King's Counsel, 1917. Became Judge, High Court of Justice of England, 1925; made a Lord of Appeal in Ordinary, London, and a Member of Judicial Com. of the Privy Council, 1932; Master of the Rolls, 1935-37; again appointed Lord of Appeal in Ordinary, 1937; retired 1947. Made a Life Peer, 1932. Fellow, British Academy. Chmn., United Nations War Crimes Commn., 1945—. Foreign Hon. Member, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Author: Legal Essays and Addresses, 1939, etc. Residence: Durley House, Burbage, Wilts., England.

WRIGHT, ALBERT SOUTHARD, American Lawyer; born Dec. 5, 1877, in Trenton, N. J.; son of Joseph Haddaway and Annie Hewitt (Southard) Wright; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B.; New York Law School, LL.B. cum laude; married Rose Thompson, Mar. 15, 1906. Member, law firm of Parsons, Closson & McIlvaine, N. Y., since 1917. Director: Gauley Mountain Coal Co.; Ringwood Co. (Vice-Pres.); Norgreen Associates, Inc. General Counsel, Cooper Union for the Advancement of Science and Art. Member: Amer. Bar Assn.; Assn. of Bar of City of New York. Residence: 35 Afterglow Ave., Montclair, N. J. Office: 52 William St., New York 5, N. Y.

WRIGHT, ALBERTO, Ecuadorean Minister of Finance; born Oct. 11, 1906, Guayaquil, Ecuador; son of Guillermo Wright and Elena Vallarino de Wright; educated at Beaumont College, Old Windsor, England; married Victoria María Roggiero, Oct. 1, 1928; one son. Secy., Banco Agrícola de Guayaquil, 1924; Manager for the "Casa White"; Honorary Consul of Belgium; Director of the Banco del Ecuador, Banco de Crédito Hipotecario, Banco Central del Ecuador, Cía. de Intercambio y Crédito, and as Director of the Junta de Beneficencia of Guayaquil. First Secy. and Chargé d'Affaires of Ecuador in Lima, Peru, 1937-38; served as Minister of Public Works and Communications and became Minister of Finance, 1943. Principal in the firm of Alberto Wright & Co. since 1928. Residence: Guayaquil, Ecuador. Office: Ministerio de Haciendo y Credito, Quito, Ecuado.

WRIGHT, Prof. ANDREW HAMILTON, American Agronomist; born Oct. 22, 1887, near Mankato, Kan.; son of Thomas Newton and Martha (Young) Wright; educated at Kansas State College, B.S. 1908; Univ. of Wisconsin, M.S. 1915; married Gladys Baker, Aug. 21, 1920 (died 1925); two children. Science teacher, Lyons, Kansas, 1908-09; Asst. Agronomist and Assoc. Agronomist, Oklahoma Experiment Station, 1904-14; Graduate Student, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1914-15. Successively Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof., and Prof. of Agronomy, Univ. of Wisconsin, since 1916. Member: Amer. Soc. of Agronomy; Amer. Soc. for Advancement of Science; Internatl. Crop Improvement Assn. Address: University of Wisconsin, Agronomy Bldg., Madison 6, Wis.

WRIGHT, Dr. ARTHUR DICKSON, British Surgeon; born May 5, 1897, Dublin, Ireland; son of Edward and Annie (Taylor) Wright; educated at St. Mary's Hospital Medical School, 1914-23; married Mollie Bath, Feb. 2, 1927; three children. House Surgeon, St. Mary's Hospital, 1923; Prof. of Clinical Surgery, Singapore, 1924-28; Surgeon, St. Andrew's Hospital, Singapore, 1925-28; Asst. Director of Surgical Unit, St. Mary's Hospital, London, 1928-31; Surgeon at Prince of Wales Hospital, London, since 1930; Maida Vale Hospital for Epilepsy and Paralysis since 1932; St. Mary's Hospital, London, since 1931. Member: Com. of St. Mary's Hospital Medical School; Council, British Medical Assn.; Royal Soc. of Medicine; Medical Benevolent Soc. Hon. Secy., Medical Soc. of London; Pres., Royal Soc. of Medicine (Clinical Section). Member: British Medical Assn.; Hunterian Soc.; Harveian Soc. Author of Section "Liver and Pancreas" in Post-Graduate Surgery Phlebitis, Lancet, 1933. Served with Royal Field Artillery and Royal Air Force. Residence: 46 Circus Rd., London, N.W. 8. Office: 12 Wimpole St., London, W. 1, England.

WRIGHT, Dr. BENJAMIN FLETCHER, American Educator; born Feb. 8, 1900, Austin, Texas; son of Benjamin F. and Mary (Blanford) Wright; educated at Univ. of Texas, B.A., M.A. 1921; Harvard Univ., Ph.D. 1925; married Alexa Foote Rhea, June 9, 1926; two children. Instructor in Government, Univ. of Texas, 1922-24; Adjunct Prof., 1924-26; Instructor in Government, Harvard, 1926-28; Asst. Prof., 1928-40; Assoc. Prof., 1940; Prof. since 1945. Chairman of Dept., 1942-46; Chairman, Standing Com. on General Education, since Feb. 1946. Member: Amer. Historical Assn.; Economic History Assn., etc. Author: The Merit System in American States, 1923; Source Book of American Political Theories, 1929; American Interpretations of Natural Law, 1931; Contract Clause of the Constitution, 1938; The Growth of American Constitutional Law, 1942; (with others) General Education in a Free Society, 1945. Address: Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

WRIGHT, BOYKIN CABELL, American Lawyer; born Richmond, Va., Sept. 20, 1891; son of Boykin and Constance (Cabell) Wright; educated at University of Georgia, A.B. 1911; Harvard Law Schol, LL.B. 1914; married Miriam Harriman, Sept. 9, 1926; twin sons. Practiced law in Augusta, Ga., 1914-17. Captain and Major of Infantry, 82nd Division, A.E.F., World War I, American Secretary to Supreme Economic Council, Peace Conference, Paris. Engaged in practice of law in New York since 1919; member of firm of Cotton & Franklin, 1922; senior member, successor firm, Wright, Gordon, Zachry, Parlin & Cahill, until 1943; re-entered the Army as a Col. March, 1943; appointed a Brigadier General, May, 1943; Director, International Division, Headquarters Army Service Forces in Washington, 1943-44. Member, firm of Shearman & Sterling & Wright, since 1945. Director: U. S. Industrial Chemicals, Inc.; Corning Glass Works, etc. Residence: 944 Fifth Ave. Office: 20 Exchange Pl., New York, N. Y.

WRIGHT, Dr. BURDETTE SHIELDS, American Aeronautical Engineer; born Sept. 12, 1893, New Albany, Ind.; son of Allen Ely and Julia Adelaide (Crane) Wright; educated at Purdue Univ., B.S. in E.E. 1915, E.E. 1923, Eng.D. 1942; married Elizabeth Campbell, Oct. 15, 1919; three children. Asst. Electrical Engineer, Iowa Electric Light & Power Co., 1915-17; Vice-Pres., Curtiss Aeroplane & Motor Co., 1928-36; Pres., 1936. Vice-Pres., Curtiss Wright Corp., since 1930; also Director, Marine Midland Trust Co., N. Y. Member, Inst. of Aeronautical Sciences. Emergency Officer, U. S. Army, 1917-20; Capt., Air Corps, Regular Army, 1920-28. Awards: D.S.C. (U. S.); Croix de Guerre with palm, France; Ordre de la Couronne, Belgium. Address: Curtiss Wright Corp., 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, N. Y.

WRIGHT, Dr. CARROLL S., American Dermatologist;* born Dec. 27, 1895, Freeport, Mich.; son of Ernest S. and Inez (Sapulding) Wright; educated at Univ. of Mich., B.S. 1917, M.D. 1919; married Helen Cutting Shaw, June 23, 1923; two daughters. Instructor in Dermatol. and Syphilol. at Univ. of Mich., 1920-22; Asst. Prof. of Dermatol. and Syphilol. at Grad. School of Medicine at Univ. of Pa., 1923-25. Assoc. Prof. of Dermatol. and Syphilol., 1925—; Prof. of Dermatol. and Syphilol. at Temple Med. School, 1931—. Consulting Dermatol. to Philadelphia Municipal Hosp., Shriners Hosp., Pa. Inst. for Blind, Pa. Inst. for Dumb, and Vineland Training School. Assoc. Editor, Philadelphia Medicine, Med. World, and of Digest of Treatment. Trustee, Research Inst. of Cutaneous Medicine of Philadelphia. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Dermatol. Assn.; Acad. of Dermatol.; Soc. for Investigative Dermatol., etc. Author: Treatment of Syphilis (with Dr. Jay F. Schamberg), 1932; Compend of Diseases of Skin (with Dr. Jay F. Schamberg), 1934; Manual of Dermatology, 1939; Syphilis (Cyclopedia of Medicine); Syphilis in Geriatric Medicine. Address: 1402 Spruce St., Philadelphia, Pa.

WRIGHT, CATHARINE MORRIS, American Artist; born Jan. 26, 1899, Philadelphia, Pa.; daughter of Harrison Smith and Anna (Wharton) Morris; educated at Philadelphia School of Design for Women, 1916-18; married Sydney Longstreth Wright, Jr., Feb. 28, 1925; four children. Awarded numerous prizes: Gimbel Prize, 1932; Mary Smith Prize, Pennsylvania Acad. of Fine Arts, 1933; 2nd Hallgarten Prize, Natl. Acad. of Design, 1933; Greenough Memorial Prize, Newport Art Assn., 1933; Germantown Art League Prize, 1936; Silver and Gold Medals, Springside School, 1937 and 1940; Woodmere Gallery Prize, 1941; Prize of Allied Artists of America. Represented in Pennsylvania Acad. of the Fine Arts; Philadelphia Museum of Art; Allentown Museum; Moore Inst.; Univ. of Pennsylvania; Pennsylvania State College; School of Horticulture for Women. Member: Amer. Water Color Soc.; Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Water Color Clubs; Newport Art Assn.; Authors League of America; Audubon Artists; Allied Artists of America. Assoc., Natl. Acad. of Design, 1933. Author: The Simple Nun (verse), 1929; Seaweed Their Pasture, 1946. Contributed articles and verse to Atlantic Monthly, Scribners, etc. Address: Endsmeet Farm, Wyncote, Pa.

WRIGHT, CECIL AUGUSTUS, Canadian Barrister, Professor of Law, and Editor; born July 2, 1904, London, Ont., Can.; son of Thomas A. and Emily R. (Whitehall) Wright; educated at the University of Western Ontario, B.A., 1923; Osgoode Hall Law School, Barrister-at-Law 1926; Harvard Law School, S.J.D. 1927; married Marie T. Loughlin, July 8, 1930; three children. Student-at-Law with Johnston Grant, Dods & Grant (Toronto), 1923-26. Appointed Lecturer, Law Society of Upper Canada, 1927. Editor, Canadian Bar Review, 1935. Appointed Editor-in-Chief of Dominion Law Reports and Canadian Criminal Cases, 1942. Consulting Counsel since 1927. Member: Law Society of Upper Canada; Canadian Bar Assn. Created King's Counsel, 1938. Author of numerous articles in Canadian legal periodicals. Address: Osgoode Hall Law School, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

WRIGHT, DUDLEY, British Journalist, Author; born Feb. 19, 1868, Chelsea, London; son of James and Jane (McNulty) Wright; educated at King's College and Univ. College, London, Ph.D. (hon.). Began career as free-lance journalist; later on staff of Christian Commonwealth during New Theology campaign, 1907-08; Editor, Annals of Psychical Science, 1908-10; Correspondent, The Standard and The Times (London); Assoc. Editor, Editor, The Freemason; Editor, Masonic News; now on London staff of Islamic Review (Lahore, Pakistan); held similar position on several American and Australian magazines, particularly Masonic. Member: Historical Assn.; Rationalistic Press Assn.; Muslim Assn.; Soc. de Philologie, Sciences et Beaux Arts. Author: Was Jesus an Essene? 1908; A Manual of Buddhism, 1912; Vampires and Vampirism, 1914, 1924; Robert Burns and Freemasonry, 1917, 1925; Eleusinian Mysteries, 1919; Studies in Islam and Christianity, 1919, 1947; Masonic Legends and Traditions, 1920; Woman and Freemasonry, 1922; Roman Catholicism and Freemasonry, 1923; Druidism, an Ancient Faith, 1924; England's Masonic Pioneers, 1925 The Ethics of Freemasonry (Iowa), 1928; Burns and his Masonic Circle, 1929; The Talmud, 1932, etc. Editor, R. F. Gould's History of Freemasonry, five vols. Translator: Paul Joire's Psychical and Supernormal Phenomena, 1910; Emil Boirac's Psychology of the Unknown, 1912, etc. Address: 128, Camden St., London, N.W. 1, England.

WRIGHT, Dr. EDWARD MAITLAND, British Mathematician; born Feb. 13, 1906, Leeds, Yorkshire, England; son of M. T. and K. (Owen) Wright; educated at Jesus College, Oxford, M.A., D.Phil. 1933; Univ. of London, B.A. 1926; Univ. of Göttingen, 1931-32; married Elizabeth Phyllis Harris, 1934; one son. Senior Mathematical Master, Chard School, Somerset, 1923-26; Lecturer at Christ Church, Oxford, 1933-35; Prof. of Mathematics, Univ. of Aberdeen, since 1935. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Edinburgh. Member, London Mathematical Soc. Co-author (with G. H. Hardy): Introduction to the Theory of Numbers, published 1938 (2nd ed. 1945); author of articles in mathematical periodicals. Address: University of Aberdeen, Aberdeen, Scotland.

WRIGHT, Hon. FIELDING LEWIS, American Governor; born May 16, 1895, Rolling Fork, Miss.; educated at Univ. of Alabama; married Nan Kelly, July 16, 1917; one son, one daughter. Attorney-at-Law, 1917. Miss. State Senator, 1928-32. Member of Miss. State House of Representatives, 1932-36, 1936-40 (during latter period was Speaker of the House). Resumed private practice of law, 1940-44. Lieut.-Gov., State of Miss., 1944-46; Gov. since Nov., 1946. Nominated by "Dixiecrats" Candidate for Vice-Pres. of the U. S. July 1948. Address: Executive Office, New Capitol Building, Jackson, Miss.

WRIGHT, FRANK LLOYD, American Architect, Writer; born 1869. Pioneer in American Architecture. Designed: Imperial Hotel, Tokyo; Johnston Wax Building, Racine, Wis.; "Taliesin" homes, Spring Green, Wis., and Phenix, Ariz. (also teaches there each year); Museum of Non-Objective Painting of the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation, etc. Honored by France, Germany, Brazil, and England (Royal Gold Medal for Architecture by King George VI, 1941). Author: Two Lectures on Architecture, 1931; An Autobiography, 1932, 1943; The Disappearing City, 1932; Recollections: United States, 1895-1920, 1936; Architecture and Modern Life (with Baker Brownell), 1937; A Pictorial Record of Architectural Progress, 1940; Frank Lloyd Wright on Architecture (selected Writings, 1894-1940; edited by Frederick Gutheim), 1941; When Democracy Builds, 1945. Member, National Inst. of Arts and Letters. Address: "Taliesin," Spring Green, Wisconsin.

WRIGHT, Dr. FREDERICK E., American Geologist. Home Secretary and Member of Executive Com. of the Council, National Acad. of Sciences. Fellow, Amer. Academy of Arts and Sciences. Member, American Philosophical Soc. Address: 2134 Wyoming Ave., N.W., Washington 8, D. C.

WRIGHT, GEORGE HAND, N.A., American Etching, Pastel and Watercolor Artist; born Aug. 6, 1872, Fox Chase, Phila., Penna.; son of William Hamilton and Elizabeth (Davis) Wright; studied at Philadelphia Academy of Art, Spring Garden School (Philadelphia); married Anne Boylan, Feb. 6, 1906. First exhibited at Philadelphia Academy, 1891. Exhibited at Philadelphia Sketch Club; Academy of Fine Arts (N. Y.); Chicago Academy of Fine Arts; Carnegie Institute (Pittsburgh); Society of Etchers; Salmagundi Club; Art Alliance (N. Y.), etc.; many one-man shows; illustrations and prints at Library of Congress. Taught illustrating at Art Students League (N. Y.), and Grand Central School of Art. President, Society of Illustrators. Honors: Beck Prize, Philadelphia Society of Etchers; Salmagundi Watercolor Prize; Library of Congress, Pennell Prize two years. Address: Westport, Connecticut.

WRIGHT, GIFFORD KING, American Lawyer; born Mar. 19, 1874, Greenville, Pa.; son of Rev. John Eliot Wright, D.D. and Ellen M. (Kerr) Wright; educated at Haverford College, A.B. 1893; married (1st) Elizabeth Ball (dec.); (2nd) Louise Graff, Mar. 6, 1930. Admitted to Bar, 1897; practiced individually until 1907; Member of firm of Alter & Wright, 1907-08; of McKee, Mitchell & Alter, 1908-20, and of Alter, Wright & Barron since 1920. Trustee, The Historical Soc. of Western Pa. Member: Amer. Bar Assn. (House of Delegates, 1939-40; Pa. Bar Assn. (Vice-Pres. 1938-39, Pres. 1939-40); Amer. Law Inst.; Amer. Judicature Soc. Address: 2201 First National Bank Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa.

WRIGHT, Dr. HARRY NOBLE, American College President; born Oct. 3, 1881, Shelbyville, Indiana; son of David A. and Dollie (Hankins) Wright; educated at Earlham College, B.S. 1904; Univ. of California, M.S. 1911, Ph.D. 1913; married Edna Alice White, Aug. 24, 1904; one daughter. Principal, Vermilion Grove, Ill., grammar school, 1903-04. Prof. of mathematics, Pacific College, 1904-05; at Whittier (Calif.) Colege, 1908-10. Fellow in mathematics, Univ. of California, 1910-13; Instructor, 1913-17. Dean, Whittier College, 1917; Pres., 1918. Lecturer in mathematics, Univ. of California, 1923-24; Dean, Earlham College, 1924-30. Asst. Prof. of Mathematics, College of the City of New York, 1931-36; Assoc. Prof., 1936-41; Dir., evening and summer sessions, 1939-41. Acting Pres., Feb., 1941; Prof. of mathematics and Pres. since Dec., 1941. Member: Amer. Mathematical Assn.; Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Amer. Assn. of University Professors, etc. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Science. Author: First Course in the Theory of Numbers, and of the research articles, On a Tabulation of Reduced Binary Quadratic Forms of a Negative Determinant, Some Properties of Polynomial Curves, and The Nine Point Circle by Methods of Projective Geometry. Address: 139th St. and Convent Ave., New York, N. Y.

WRIGHT, Dr. HELEN RUSSELL, American Social Service Educator; born 1891, Glenwood, Ia.; educated at Smith College, A.B. 1912; University of Chicago, Ph.D. 1922. Member, Research Staff, Institute of Economics (Brookings Institution), 1922-24; Member, Faculty of Brookings Graduate School of Economics and Government, 1924-28. Member, Faculty, School of Social Service Administration, Univ. of Chicago since 1928; Dean, School, since 1942. Author: The Case of Bituminous Coal (with Walton Hamilton); A Way of Order for Bituminous Coal (with Walton Hamilton); Children of Wage Earning Mothers; Welfare of Children of Maintenance of War Employees (Studies for the U. S. Children's Bureau). Editor of Social Service in War Time (one of the Walgreen Studies of American Institutions). Address: The University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

WRIGHT, Dr. IRVING SHERWOOD, American Physician; born Oct. 27, 1901, New York, N. Y.; son of Harry J. and Cora Ann (Hassett) Wright; educated at Cornell Univ., B.A. 1923, M.D. 1926; married Grace Mansfield Demarest, Oct. 15, 1927; two children. Assoc. Visiting Physician and Chief of Vascular Clinic, Asst. Physician, 1931-34, Assoc. Physician, 1934-37, Cornell Div., Bellevue Hosp. Dir., Med. Div., Cornell Univ., Welfare Hosp. for Chronic Diseases, 1937; first Pres., Med. Bd. Dir., Dept. of Medicine and Prof. of Clinical Med., N. Y. Post-Grad. Med. School and Hosp., Columbia Univ., 1938-46. Assoc. Prof. of Medicine, Cornell Univ. Med. College. Assoc. Attending Physician, N. Y. Hosp., since 1946. Consulting Physician to Orange Memorial Hosp., East Orange, N. J., Mount Vernon (N. Y.) Hosp., Hackensack (N. J.) Hosp. and Monmouth Memorial Hosp. Member, Civilian Adv. Com. to the U. S. Navy, 1946—; Civilian Consultant in Medicine to U. S. Army, 1946—. Secy., Section on Pharmacol. and Therapeutics, Amer. Med. Assn., 1936; Vice-Chairman, 1939, then Chairman. General Chairman, Scientific Sections, Amer. Med. Assn., 1940. Member, Executive Com., Amer. and N. Y. Heart Assns. Vice-Chairman, Section for Study of Peripheral Circulation, Amer. Heart Assn., 1937; Chairman, 1939. Chairman, Amer. Com., Joint Internatl. Com. for Standardization of Blood Pressure Readings. Member, Bd. of Dirs., Council for Heart Diseases. Fellow of Amer. College of Physicians and N. Y. Acad. of Med. (Chairman, Graduate Fortnight Com., 1941). Assoc. Editor, Amer. Heart Journal. Author of chapters for medical textbooks; also numerous papers in leading medical journals. Col., Med. Corps, and Consultant in Medicine, U. S. Army, World War II. Office: 400 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

WRIGHT, JOHN HORNING, American Industrialist; born Oct. 31, 1881, Toledo, Ohio; son of Henry Ogden and Martha Jane (Biggerton) Wright; educated in High School; married Gertrude Bell Whittingham, June 17, 1909; one daughter. Bank teller, Merchants National Bank, 1901-04; with Libbey Glass Co. since 1904, when started as an Accountant, serving until 1907. Asst. Treasurer, 1907-15; Sales Manager, 1915-17; Vice-President, 1917-18; Vice-Pres. and General Manager, 1918-36; Pres. and General Manager, Division of Owens Illinois, since 1936. Member, Board of Directors. Residence: Eagle Point Colony, Rossford, Ohio. Office: Ohio Building, Toledo, Ohio.

WRIGHT, Sir JOHNSTONE, Kt., British Electrical Engineer; born Jan. 1883, Dunning, Perthshire; son of Johnstone and Margaret (Watson) Wright; educated at Glasgow Technical College; married Edith Bertha Barrow, Sept. 1911; two daughters. Construction Engineer, Power Stations Operation Engineer, North East Coast Power companies, 1906-19. Deputy City Electrical Engineer, Bradford, 1919-22. General Manager, Belfast Electricity Undertaking, 1922-27. With Central Electricity Board, 1927—; Deputy Chief Engineer, 1927-33; Chief Engineer, 1933-44; General Manager, 1944-47; Chairman, 1947—. Ex-Pres., Institution of Electrical Engineers. Member, Institution of Civil Engineers. Residence: Nurscombe Farm, Bramley, Surrey. Office: Central Electricity Board, Trafalgar Buildings, 1 Charing Cross, London, England.

WRIGHT, Rev. KENNETH ALBERT, American College President; born March 4, 1903, Buffalo, N. Y.; son of George Frederick and Phoebe Ella Nora (Genung) Wright; educated at Lancaster Junior College, South Lancaster, Mass., 1920-22; Emmanuel Missionary Coll., Berrien Springs, Mich., A.B. 1923; Cornell Univ., M.S. 1938; married Clara Jeannette Norsworthy, Aug. 12, 1924; four children. Ordained Minister, Seventh-Day Adventist denomination; Educational and M.V. Secy., Northern New England, 1923-25; Dean of Boys, Union Springs Acad., Union Springs, N. Y., 1925-27; Principal and Business Manager: Pinetree Acad., Maine, 1928-31; Union Springs (N. Y. Acad., 1931-36. Educational M.V. Secy., Florida Conf., 1936-37; Principal and Business Manager, Forest Lake Acad., Maitland, Fla., 1937-42; Southern Union Educational Secy., Decatur, Ga., 1942-43; Pres., Southern Missionary College, 1943—. Trustee: Madison College Board; Florida Sanitarium Board; Pine Forest Acad. Bd.; Asheville Agricultural School Bd.; Pisgah Inst. Bd. Secy., Southern Missionary College Board. Address: Southern Missionary College, Collegedale, Tenn.

WRIGHT, Dr. LOUIS CLINTON, American Educator; born Feb. 3, 1879, Virgil, N. Y.; son of Wallace E. and Phoebe (Webber) Wright; educated at Syracuse Univ., A.B. 1904, LL.D. 1944; Boston Univ., S.T.B. 1907, Ph.D. 1917, D.Sc. in Ed. 1946; Ohio Wesleyan Univ., Hon. LL.D. 1935; married Flora Greenlees, Aug. 8, 1906; three children. Ordained Methodist Minister, 1902. Minister: Franklin St. Congregational Church of Somerville, Mass., 1905-08; Gardner, Mass., 1908-10; Methodist Church of Melrose, Mass., 1910-16; Springfield, Mass., 1916-20; in Cleveland, Ohio, 1920-34. Pres., Baldwin Wallace College, since 1934. Trustee, St. Luke's Hospital of Cleveland. Author: Trails for Climbing Youth (1939). Address: Baldwin Wallace College, Berea, Ohio.

WRIGHT, LOYD EARL, Amercan Lawyer; born Dec. 24, 1892, San Jacinto, Calif.; son of Lucius A. and Naamah Pauline (Hank) Wright; educated at University of Southern California, LL.B. 1915; married Julia Martha Kingsbury, Sept. 7, 1918; four children. Began as practicing attorney, 1915. Served with A.E.F. during First World War as 1st Lieut. Engaged in law practice in Los Angeles, since 1919. Member, Alien Enemy Appeal Hearing Board for the U. S. Department of Justice. Past-President, Los Angeles County Bar Assn. and California State Bar. President, Independent Motion Picture Producers Society, since 1943. Member: War Savings Committee, Treasury Department. Director, Government Research, Inc. Member of Bd. of Govs., Amer. Bar Assn. Chairman, Aviation Project Committee, California Reconstruction and Reemployment Commission; Chmn., California Horse Racing Board. Fellow, University of Southern California. Residence: 336 S. Hudson Ave. Office: 111 W. 7th St., Los Angeles 14, Calif.

WRIGHT, Dr. QUINCY, American Professor of International Law; born Dec. 28, 1890, Medford, Mass.; son of Philip Green and Elizabeth Quincy (Sewall) Wright; educated at Lombard College, A.B. 1912, University of Illinois (A.M. 1913, Ph.D. 1915); LL.D. Lombard College, 1923; married Louise Leonard, June 15, 1922; two children. Fellow, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1915-16; Instructor, Harvard, 1916-19; Assistant Professor, University of Minnesota, 1919; Associate Professor and Professor until 1923. Research Assistant in International Law to the U. S. Navy Department, 1918 and 1921. Professor of Political Science, University of Chicago, 1923-30; Professor of International Law, since 1930. Consultant to Foreign Economic Administration and the Department of State, 1943-45. Visiting Professor to the Tsing Hua University of Peiping, China, 1929; at Graduate Institute of Geneva, Switzerland, 1937. Fellow, American Academy of Arts and Sciences; member, American Philosophical Society. Member: Board of Editors, American Journal of International Law; American Council of the Institute of Pacific Relations; Chicago Council on Foreign Relations; American Political Science Association; New York Council on Foreign Relations. Author: Control of American Foreign Relations, 1922; Mandates Under the League of Nations, 1930; Causes of War and Conditions of Peace, 1935, and A Study of War, 1942. Residence: 5744 Blackstone Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

WRIGHT, Dr. RICHARD ROBERT, JR., American Bishop; born April 16, 1878, Cuthbert, Ga.; son of R. R. and Lydia Elizabeth (Howard) Wright; educated at Ga. State College, A.B. 1898; Univ. of Chicago, A.M. 1904, B.D. 1907; Univ. of Pennsylvania, Ph.D. 1911; University of Berlin, 1903-04; Leipzig, 1904; married Charlotte Crogman, Sept. 8, 1909; four children. Licensed to preach, 1898; ordained Deacon, 1900; Elder, 1901. Assistant Pastor, Institutional Church, Chicago, 1901. Instructor, Payne Theological Seminary, 1901-03; Pastor, Trinity Mission, 1905; Research Fellow in Sociology, University of Pennsylvania, 1905-07; Field Secretary of Armstrong Assn. of Philadelphia, 1907-09; Editor, Christian Recorder, official publication of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, 1909-36; Business Manager of book concern of African Methodist Episcopal Church, 1909-12 and 1916-20. President, Wilberforce University, 1932-36 and 1941-42. Resident Bishop of African Methodist Episcopal Church in Capetown, South Africa, 1936-40; Bishop of African Methodist Episcopal Church in Kentucky and Tennessee since 1940. Bishop of New York, New Jersey, New England and Bermuda, and Chmn. of Publication Board of A.M.E. Church since 1946. Executive Secretary, Fraternal Council of Negro Churches, since 1940. Author: The Teachings of Jesus; Negro in Pennsylvania, 1911; Mission Study Course; Encyclopedia of African Methodism, etc. Address: P. O. Box 5, Wilberforce, Ohio, and 362 Beale Ave., Memphis 3, Tenn.

WRIGHT, Dr. SEWALL, American Zoologist; born December 21, 1889, Melrose, Massachusetts; son of Philip Green and Elizabeth Quincy Sewall; educated at Lombard College (B.S. 1911); University of Illinois (M.S. 1912); Harvard (Sc.D. 1915); University of Rochester, D.Sc. (hon.) 1942. Senior Animal Husbandman, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1915-25; Associate Professor, Zoology, University of Chicago, 1926-29; Professor, 1930-37; Burton Distinguished Service Professor since 1937. Hitchcock Professor, Zoology, University of California, 1943. Member, Executive Committee, Division of Biology and Agriculture, National Research Council, 1931-33. President, American Society of Zoologists (1944); Vice-President, American Genetic Assn.; Past-President, Genetics Society of America; Past-Treasurer, American Society of Naturalists; Past Vice-President, American Statistical Assn. Member: National Academy of Sciences; American Philosophical Society, etc. Awarded Weldon Prize by Oxford Univ., 1947. Address: Dept. of Zoology, University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

WRIGHT, Dr. THEODORE PAUL, American Aeronautical Engineer; born May 25, 1895, Galesburg, Ill.; son of Philip G. and Elizabeth Q. (Sewall) Wright; educated at Lombard College, B.S.; Massachusetts Institute of Technology, B.S. 1918, Knox College, D.Sc.; married Margaret McCarl, Dec. 4, 1918; two children. Executive Engineer, Curtiss Aeroplane & Motor Co., 1921; Assistant Factory Manager, 1922; Assistant Chief Engineer, 1923-25; Chief Engineer, Airplane Division, 1925-28; (development of civil aircraft, 1928-30); General Manager and Chief Engineer, 1930-34; Chief Engineer of Airplane Division, Curtiss-Wright Corp.; Director of Engineering and Chairman of Engineering Policy and Planning Committee. Vice-President, Curtiss-Wright Corp., Reed Propeller Co., and Wright Aeronautical Corp., until 1941. Assistant Chief, Aircraft Branch, Office of Production Management and War Production Board, 1941. Director, Aircraft Resources Control Office and Member, Aircraft Production Board, 1942-44; Administrator, Civil Aeronautics Administration, 1944-48. Member of the Society of Automotive Engineers (received Wright Bros. Medal, 1930). In charge of organization which designed and produced Curtiss "Tanager" airplane, which won Guggenheim Foundation prize of $100,000 Safe Aircraft Competition, 1929. Hon. Fellow, Inst. of Aeronautical Sciences (Founder Council); Hon. Fellow, Royal Aeronautical Soc. (London); Member, Natl. Aeronautics Assn. Awarded Guggenheim Aeronautics Medal, 1945; War Dept., Medal of Freedom, 1946; Medal for Merit, 1946. Residence: 4906 Tilden St., N.W., Washington, District of Columbia.

WRIGHT, Col. Sir WILLIAM CHARLES, Bart., G.B.E., C.B., British Industrialist; born Birmingham, England, Jan. 13, 1876; son of John Roper and Jessie Elizabeth (Wilson) Wright; married Maud, daughter of the late Isaac Butler, J.P., 1898. In iron and steel trade since 1893. Chairman: Baldwins Ltd.; Guest Keen Baldwins Iron & Steel Co. Ltd. Director: Great Western Railway Co. Baldwins, Montreal Ltd.; Midland Employers' Mutual Assurance Ltd.; Richard Thomas & Baldwins Ltd.; Shell Transport & Trading Co., Ltd.; Venezuelan Oil Concessions Ltd. Hon. Capt. in Army, 1900 and Lieut.-Col. (Hon. Col. 1909) commanding Glamorgan R. F. Res. Artillery, 1907-09. Col., Reserve of Officers, 1909-31. Pres., Iron Steel Inst., 1931-33; Pres., British Iron & Steel Federation, 1937. Controller of Iron Steel Production, Ministry of Supply, 1940-43. Commander, and again Controller of Iron & Steel, Ministry of Supply, 1940-43. Commander, Legion of Honour; Commander, Crown (Italy). Residence: 46 Cadogan Place, S.W. 1. Office: Shell-Mex House, Victoria Embankment, London, W.C. 2, England.

WRIGHT, Dr. WILLIAM HAMMOND, American Astronomer; born Nov. 4, 1871, San Francisco, Calif.; son of Selden Stuart and Joanna Maynard (Shaw) Wright; educated at Univ. of California, B.S. 1893; Northwestern Univ., D.Sc. (hon.) 1929; married Elna Warren Leib, Oct. 8, 1901. Asst. Astronomer at Lick Observatory, 1897-1908; Astronomer, 1908-44; Director, 1935-42; Director Emeritus since 1942. Member: Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Philosophical Soc.; (Assoc.) Royal Astronomical Soc., London. Address: Lick Observatory, Mt. Hamilton, Calif.

WRIGHT, Dr. WILLIAM KELLEY, American Philosopher; born Apr. 18, 1877, Canton, Ill.; son of Nathaniel Stephen and Laura (Kelley) Wright; educated at Amherst College, 1895-97; Univ. of Chicago, A.B. 1899, Ph.D. 1906; Oxford Univ. and Univ. of London, 1912-13; married Gertrude Beryl Sly, June 21, 1916; two children. Instructor in Philosophy, Univ. of Texas, 1906-07; Univ. of Chicago, 1907-09; Univ. of Wisconsin, 1909-11; Indiana Univ., 1911-12. Instructor in Philosophy, Cornell Univ., 1913-16; Asst. Prof. of Philosophy, Dartmouth College, 1916-23; Prof. of Philosophy since 1923. Member: Amer.

Philosophical Assn. (Pres. 1945); Amer. Theological Soc. (Pres. 1935). Received citation from Univ. of Chicago Alumni Assn., 1941. Author: The Ethical Significance of Pleasure, Feeling and Happiness in Modern Non-Hedonistic Systems, 1907; A Student's Philosophy of Religion 1922 (revised ed. 1935); General Introduction to Ethics, 1929; A History of Modern Philosophy, 1941. Edited (with T. V. Smith) Essays in Philosophy, Open Court, 1928. Contributed to Religious Realism (edited by D. C. Macintosh). Address: Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H.

WRIGHT, WILSON, British Trade Union Official; born Aug. 11, 1889, Cotton Tree, nr. Colne, Lancs.; son of Edmund and Elizabeth (Hancell) Wright; educated at Macclesfield School of Art, 1st Class Certificates; married Ethel Oliver, July 28, 1928. Apprentice designer, 1903; Secy., General Federation of Trade Unions (Natl. Health Insurance), since 1929; Hon. Secy., Macclesfield Amalgamated Silk Workers' Com.; Member of Panel, Ministry of Labour-Appeal Boards; Secy., (Worker's Side), Joint Industrial Council for Silk Industry, since 1946. Address: National Silk Workers Assn., 59 Park Green, Macclesfield, Cheshire, England.

WRIGLEY, PHILIP KNIGHT, American Business Executive; born December 5, 1894, Chicago, Ill.; son of William Wrigley, Jr. and Ada E. (Foote) Wrigley; educated at Phillips Academy of Andover, Mass.; married Helen Blanche Atwater, 1918; two daughters and a son. He began with Wrigley's Australasia Limited, Melbourne, 1915. President of Wm. Wrigley Jr. Co., 1925-44; now Chairman of Board. Director of Wm. Wrigley Jr. Companies of Chicago, Sydney, Copenhagen, and London, England; Wrigley Import Co. President and Director of Santa Catalina Island Co. and Catalina Island Steamship Line. President of Chicago National League Ball Club. Residence: 1500 Lake Shore Drive. Office: 410 North Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

WRISTON, Dr. HENRY MERRITT, American University President; born July 4, 1889, Laramie, Wyo.; son of Henry Lincoln and Jennie Amelia (Atcheson) Wriston; educated at Wesleyan University, A.B. 1911, A.M. 1912; Harvard, Ph.D. 1922; Hon.: Ripon College, LL.D. 1926; Wesleyan, 1931; Tufts, 1938; Rutgers, 1940; Rhode Island State College, 1942; Lawrence College, 1944; Princeton, 1946; Columbia University, Litt.D. 1937; Wesleyan, L.H.D. 1943; married Ruth Colton Bigelow, June 6, 1914 (dec.); two children. Austin Teaching Fellow, Harvard, 1912-14; Instructor in History, Wesleyan University, 1914-17; Associate Professor, 1917-19, Professor, 1919-25; President, Lawrence College, 1925-37; Director of Institute of Paper Chemistry, 1929-37; President, Brown University, since 1937. Trustee: Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching since 1933; Educational Records Bureau since 1939; World Peace Foundation since 1939; Carnegie Endowment for International Peace since 1943. Vice-President, National War Fund, 1943-45. Author: War Chest Practice, 1918; Report of the Connecticut State Council of Defense, 1919; Executive Agents in American Foreign Relations, 1929; The Nature of a Liberal College, 1937; Prepare for Peace!, 1941; Challenge to Freedom, 1943; Strategy of Peace, 1944; contributions to journals. Address: Brown University, Providence 12, R. I.

WRONG, Hon. (HUMPHREY) HUME, Canadian Diplomat; born 1894, Toronto; educated at Upper Canada College; Ridley College; Univ. of Toronto, B.A.; Oxford Univ., Balliol College, M.A., B.Litt.; married Joyce Hutton, 1922; two children. Asst. Prof. of History, Univ. of Toronto, 1921-27. First Secy., Canadian Legation, Washington, D. C., 1927-30; Counsellor, 1930-37; Permanent Delegate of Canada to League of Nations, Geneva, 1937-39; Special Economic Adviser, Canadian High Commissioner, London, England, 1939-41; Minister, Counsellor, Canadian Legation, Washington, D. C., 1941-42; Asst. Under Secy. of State for External Affairs, Ottawa, 1942; Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the U. S., 1946 —. Senior Adviser and Canadian Alternate Delegate, U. N. Conf. on Internatl. Organization, San Francisco, 1945; Member, Canadian Delegation, U. N. General Assembly, London, 1946. Address: 1746 Massachusetts Ave., Washington, D. C.

WROTTESLEY, Hon. Sir FREDERIC JOHN, British Jurist; born Mar. 20, 1880; educated at Tonbridge School; Lincoln College, Oxford (Scholar); married Marion Cecil Patterson, 1915. Called to Bar of Inner Temple, 1907; Recorder of Wolverhampton, 1930-37; Judge, High Court of Justice, King's Bench Division, 1937-47; Lord Justice of Appeal, 1947 —. Served as Major, Royal Field Artillery, during World War I. Address: Manor Farm, Newnham, Basingstoke, England.

WU, Hon. CHAUCER H., Chinese Diplomat; bon Dec. 21, 1897, Chengtu, Szechwan Province, China; educated at Univ. of London, B.Sc. 1921. With Bureau of Economic Information of the Cabinet, 1922-27; Lecturer in Economics, Peking Normal Univ.; Prof. of English, Univs. of Communications and of China in Peking; Member of Treaty Commission, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1930-35; Commissioner of Foreign Affairs to Szechwan and Sikong Provinces, 1935-36; Secy.-Gen., Municipal Govt. of Chungking and Acting Mayor of Chungking, 1939-42; Resident Personal Representative of Pres. Chiang Kai-shek when he was Governor of Szechwan Province, China; Special Commissioner of Foreign Affairs in Sinkiang, with rank of Minister Plenipotentiary, 1942-44; Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Chile, 1945 —. Publisher and Managing Editor, "China Voice" (a weekly), Shanghai, 1931. Address: Chinese Legation, Santiago, Chile.

WU CHUNG-HSIN, General, Chinese Political Leader; born 1887, Anhwei; educated at Paoting Military Academy. Served as Field Commander-in-Chief of 2nd Kwangtung Army; Commissioner of Shanghai Constabulary Force; Governor, Anhwei Province, 1929; Governor, Kweichow Province, 1935-37; Chairman, Mongolian and Tibetan Affairs Commission, 1938—. Appointed Governor of Singkiang, 1944. Kuomingtang Party Member of State Council, 1947 —. Address: State Council, Nanking, China.

WU, Dr. HSIEN WEN, Chinese Zoologist; born March 15, 1900, Jui-An District, Chekiang, China; son of H. S. Wu and S. Hsu; educated at Nanking Teachers' College, grad. 1921; Amoy Univ., B.S. 1927; Paris Univ., Sc.D. 1932; married Y. S. Chen, July 4, 1920; five children. Teacher in Biology, Chep-Be Senior Middle School, 1921-22. Asst. in Zoology: Univ. of Amoy, 1922-27; Central Univ., 1927-28. Zoologist, Metropolitan Museum, Academia Sinica, 1932-34. Research Fellow in Zoology, Inst. of Zoology and Botany, Academia Sinica, 1934-36. Head Prof. in Biology Dept., Central Univ., 1936-37. Research Fellow in Zoology, Inst. of Zoology, Academia Sinica, since 1937. Member: Central Agriculture Soc., Paris; Zoological Soc. of France; Zoological Soc. of China; Science Soc. of China. Author: Texonomy of Fishes of China; Morphology and Physiology of air-breathing Fishes; Texonomy of Nematodes of China, etc. Residence: 320 Yo-Yang Road, Shanghai. Office: Inst. of Zoology, Academia Sinica, Shanghai, China.

WU, Dr. JOHN C. H. (Wu Chin-Hsiung), Chinese Diplomat; born May 28, 1889, Chekiang; educated at Soochow University, LL.B.; Michigan University, J.D. 1921; Law College, University of Paris, 1921-22; University of Berlin, 1922-23; graduate student, Harvard University, 1923. Professor, Soochow University, 1924-27; Head, Comparative Law College, Soochow University, 1927-38. Adviser on Municipal Affairs to Shanghai Municipal Council, 1931; Councillor, Provisional Council, City Government of Greater Shanghai, 1932; Member, Legislative Yuan, 1933; Chairman of Law Codification Committee of Legislative Yuan. Editor-in-Chief, Sun Yat-Sen Institute for Advancement of Culture and Education at Nanking. Minister to the Holy See, 1947—. Hon. Member, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Address: Chinese Legation, Vatican City, Rome, Italy.

WU KAI-HSIEN, Chinese Political Leader; born Jan. 2, 1898, Tsingpu, Kiangsu Prov., China; son of Wu Tien-Shih and Chow; educated at Shanghai University Law College; married Hsia Shi-Fang, Jan. 1, 1933; three children. Member of Shanghai Municipal Kuomintang Headquarters, 1926-38; Member of Legislative Yuan, 1929-42. Vice-Minister, Central Executive Committee Organization, 1938-43; Member, Central Executive Committee of Kuomintang, since 1936. Chairman, Board of Directors, Ta King Vocational School; Member of Board of Directors of Shanghai Univ. Address: Central Executive Com. of Kuomintang, Nanking, China.

WU, Dr. K(UO) C(HENG), Chinese Political Leader; born Oct. 21, 1903, Chien-Shih, Hupeh, China; son of Wu Ching-Ming and Chu Chih-Yia; educated at Tsing Hua College of Peking; Grinnell College, Iowa, B.A. 1923; Princeton Univ., M.A. 1924, Ph.D. 1926; married Edith T. K. Huang, Apr. 15, 1931; four children. Secretary, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1927-28. Director, Hupeh Tobacco and Wine Tax Bureau, 1928-29; Land Bureau of the Hankow City Government, 1929-30, and the Finance Bureau, 1930-31. Commissioner of Finance, Hupeh Province, 1931-32; Mayor of Hankow, 1932-38; Director, Second Department of the Supreme National Defense Council, 1939; Mayor, Chungking, 1939-42. Political Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1943-45; Minister of Information, 1945-46; Mayor of Shanghai, 1946—. Address: Municipal Administration Bldg., Shanghai, China.

WU, S(HANG)-Y(ING), Chinese Political Leader; born 1892, Laukang, Kaiping Hsien, Kwangtung Province, China; son of Wu Yien-min and Wu Yui-sze; educated at Columbian College, New Westminster, B. C., Canada; Oreogn Agricultural College; married Hsieh Li-Cheng, 1915; one son. Taught English at the Canton Government Normal College, 1915; Dean, Faculty of Kwangtung Government Law School, 1915-16. Secretary of the Chinese National Assembly in House of Representatives, 1917-20; Secretary of Canton Municipal Government, 1920-22. Secretary and Acting Commissioner, Department of Reconstruction, Kwangtung Provincial Government, 1923-25; Director General of Posts and Navigation of the Ministry of Communications under the National Government at Canton and Hankow, 1925-26; Director General of Wine and Tobacco Revenues, Ministry of Finance, under the National Government at Nanking, 1927. Made an extensive tour of the Philippines, Malay States, South Sea Islands, Palestine, Near East countries, United Kingdom, European countries, United States and Canada on a Government mission to study land problems, 1928. Appointed Member, Legislative Yuan of National Government at Nanking, 1929; also Chairman of Land Law Drafting Commission. Chief of Central Land Administration, 1931; Vice-Minister of Finance under the National Government at Canton, 1931-32. Member, Legislative Yuan, 1931, and became Chairman of the Economic Committee. On a Government mission to Soviet Russia, Europe and United Kingdom under President Sun Fo of Legislative Yuan, 1937-38; Secretary General of the Legislative Yuan since 1939. Director of Research of Sun Yat-sen Institute since 1936. Member, Tung Meng Hui and Kuomintang; Member of Central Exec. Com. of Kuomintang, 1944—; elected Member of National Assembly, 1945. Chief Drafter of Chinese Land Law promulgated by National Government Mandate, 1930. Author: Land Problems and Land Law of China; Equal Right to Use of Land, etc. Address: Legislative Yuan, Nanking, China.

WU TE-CHEN (Wu Tieh-cheng), General, Chinese Officer, Political Leader; born March 9, 1888, Chungshan, Kwangtung, China; son of Wu Yu-tien; educated at colleges in China and Japan; married Wu Fongkee, 1910; two sons. Began career, 1911, as Military Staff Officer; became Commander of Gendarmes, Kwangtung Province, and Commissioner of Police for Canton, 1923; Commander of Seventeenth Division, 1926; Reconstruction Commissioner for Kwangtung, 1928. Member of Legislative Yuan, 1929-32; Mayor of Shanghai, 1932-37; also Garrison Commander at Shanghai and Woosung. Governor, Kwangtung Province, 1937-38; Minister, Board of Overseas Affairs, 1939; Member and Secretary-General, Central Executive Committee of Kuomintang since 1941; Vice-Pres., Legislative Yuan, 1947—. Trustee, Natl. Central Political University, Nanking. Director, Chinese Industrial Cooperatives; Trustee, Victory and Independent Publishing Companies, etc. Elected Magistrate of Chungshan, 1922; Honorary Vice-President, Chinese Red Cross Society; Director, National Mobilization Movement; Honorary President, Anti-Aggression League; President, People's Foreign Relations Association of China; Director, Sino-Indian, Sino-Korean Cultural Associations, etc. Member of Chinese National Press Association and Chinese Personnel Administration Society. Decorated by France, Sweden, Belgium, Italy, Germany and China. Residence: 9 Yi Ho Lu. Office: Central Executive Com., Secretariat, Kuomintang Headquarters, Nanking, China.

WU YI-FANG, Dr., Chinese Educator; born 1893, Hupeh; educated at Ginling College for Women, B.A.; Univ. of Michigan, M.A. and Ph.D. Head of English Dept., Peking Girls' Higher Normal School, until 1923. Pres., Ginling College for Women, since 1928. As first woman Chairman of the National Christian Council, has directed all Christian work throughout tions, 1929, 1931, 1933; also Delegate to Conferences of Institute of Pacific Relations, 1929 and 1933; also Delegate to International Congress of Women, Chicago, 1933. Member of People's Political Council since 1938; Member of Presidium of the Council since 1941. Lectured in the United States on International Aspects of the War, 1942-44. Leader, Chinese Delegation, Internatl. Missionary Council, Madras, India, 1938. Member, Chinese Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Address: Ginling College for Women, Nanking, China.

WULSIN, LUCIEN, American Manufacturer; born March 17, 1889, Cincinnati, Ohio; son of Lucien and Katherine E. R. (Roelker) Wulsin; educated at St. George's School, Newport, R. I.; Harvard Univ., A.B. 1910, M.E.E. in 1911; married Margaret M. Hager, 1914; seven children. Student engineer with the Stone & Webster Management Assn., Boston, 1911; entered employ of The Baldwin Co., manufacturers of pianos, engineering dept., August, 1912; Secy. of its subsidiary, The Baldwin Piano Co., 1913-19; Treasurer, parent company, 1914-24. Vice-President until 1927; Pres. and Dir. of the company and its subsidiaries, since 1927. Director: Central Trust Co.; Dayton & Michigan R.R. Co., Cincinnati. 2nd Lt., Engineers, 1917; 1st Lt., 1917; Capt., 1918-19, A.E.F. Trustee and Secy., Cincinnati Inst. of Fine Arts; Trustee and Chmn., Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra; Dir. of the Ohio Mechanics Inst. Trustee, St. George's School, Newport, R. I. Residence: 2444 Madison Rd. Office: 1801 Gilbert Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio.

WUNSCH, WILLIAM F., American Clergyman; born May 11, 1882, Detroit, Mich.; son of Henry and Elizabeth (Maul) Wunsch; educated at Detroit University School, LL.B. (Law School), 1906; University of Michigan, A.B. 1908; married Mary M. Gunn, Sept. 1, 1909; five children. Minister: Bath, Me., 1909; Roxbury, Mass., 1909-16; Waltham, Mass., 1920-34; The Church of the Neighbor of Brooklyn, N. Y., 1934-43; Church of the Holy City, Washington, D. C., 1943. Instructor, New-Church Theological School, Cambridge, Mass., 1909-10 and 1911-13; Professor of Theology, 1914-30; Professor of Bible Languages and Literature, 1930-34; Principal of school, 1921-29; Editor, New-Church Review, 1917-34; Editor, The New Christianity, since 1935. Co-compiler: The Gist of Swedenborg (1920). Compiler: Swedenborg on Marriage (1924); Swedenborg on the Bible (1925); Marriage: Ideals and Idealization (1929). Author: An Outline of New-Church Teaching; The World Within the Bible; A Practical Philosophy of Life, etc. Residence: 3518 Park Place, N.W. Study: 1611 16th St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

WUNSZ KING, Chinese Diplomat; born April 27, 1892, Chekiang, China; educated at Fuhtan College, B.A. 1910; Peiyang Univ., LL.B. 1915; Columbia Univ., LL.M. 1919. Entered diplomatic service, 1916. Director, Internatl. Affairs Dept. of the Foreign Office in Nanking, Commissioner for Foreign Affairs in Shanghai, Acting Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs in Nanking, 1928-31; Delegate or Alternate to sessions of the Assembly, League of Nations, including Special Session on the Sino-Japanese Conflict, 1933-39; Alternate Delegate, Brussels Conf., 1937; Minister and later Ambassador to the Netherlands, 1933-45; Chargé d'Affaires, later Ambassador, to Govts. of Belgium, Czechoslovakia, and Norway in London, 1941-45; Chargé d'Affaires to Poland, 1941-45; Acting Delegate to War Crimes Commission in London, 1944-45; Delegate, Emergency Meeting of the I.L.O. in London, 1942; Delegate, Governing Body of the I.L.O. in London, 1943; Alternate Delegate, First Assembly of U. N., and to Paris Peace Conf., 1946; Chief of Chinese Delegation, First and Second Sessions of Preparatory Com. on Trade and Employment, London, 1946, Geneva, 1947; Delegate, Balkan Commission on Greece, 1947. Ambassador to Belgium and Norway, since 1945. Address: Chinese Embassy, Brussels, Belgium.

WURTTEMBERG, DUKE OF, H.R.H. CHARLES ALEXANDER (Dom Odo, O.S.B.), Benedictine Father; born Mar. 12, 1896, Stuttgart, Wurttemberg, Germany; son of the late Duke Albrecht of Wurttemberg and Duchess Margarethe (former Archduchess of Austria). His father was Heir to Throne of the Kingdom of Wurttemberg and Field Marshal. The Royal Family of Wurttemberg ruled for a period of nearly one thousand years, until 1918 revolution. The Duke of Wurttemberg studied in Privat Gymnasium for Royal Princes; Benedictine Universities of Engelberg, Maria Laach, Rheinland and Beuron, Hohenzollern, Germany. Served with Royal Wurttemberg Army in German Army through First World War with rank of First Lieutenant and Captain; left army, 1918; entered Benedictine Order in Archabbey of Beuron, Hohenzollern, Sept. 1919; ordained to priesthood, 1926; Leader of Catholic Youth Movement in Wurttemberg, 1930-33; exiled by Gestapo from Wurttemberg, 1933; exiled from Baden, 1934, and shortly thereafter, from the whole of Germany; went to Switzerland where he founded "International Catholic Help for Refugees," private organization to aid refugees throughout the world; went to Portugal, 1940, to establish refugee aid; in United States since 1940. Founder and Pres., Central European Rehabilitation Assn., Inc., 1945 —. Address: 332 W. 23rd St., New York 11, N. Y.

WUURI, EERO A., Finnish Minister of Labor; born August 11, 1900; married Kerttu Aud, 1929; one daughter. Employed in a bookshop, 1916-17; attended college, 1917-18; exiled after Civil War, 1918-19; jailed for political activity, 1919-25; journalist, 1926-30; Editor of the Social Democratic daily, "Kaman Syö," in Wiborg, 1930-37; Chairman of the Central Trade Union Federation, Finland, since 1938. Minister of Labor since 1944. Address: Ministry of Labor, Helsinki, Finland.

WUYTS, Dr. HENRI, Belgian Chemist; born Mar. 29, 1872, Brussels, Belgium; son of Edmond and Elisabeth (Peleman) Wuyts; educated at Univs. of Brussels and Bonn; Pharmacist, 1892, Sc.D. (chemistry), 1894; married Jeanne Sturbelle, 1900 (dec. 1942). Chief of Chemical Studies, Univ. of Brussels, 1899; Lecturer on Organic Chemistry, 1906; Lecturer on Pharmacy, 1907; Asst. Prof., 1908; Prof., 1913-42. Pres., Faculty of Sciences, 1921-24; Secy., Scientific Com., Internatl. Inst. and Chemical Councils Solvay, since 1927; Vice-Pres., Natl. Com. on Chemistry, 1945. Pres., Chemical Commn., Natl. Fund for Scientific Research, 1945; Pres, Microchemical Center, Univ. of Brussels. Pres., Belgian Chemical Soc., 1925-26. Member, Science Section, Royal Belgian Acad., 1939; Hon. Member, Natl. Pharmaceutical Soc., Brussels; Corresponding Member, Soc. of Pharmacy, Paris. Created Commander, Order of Leopold; Grand Officer, Belgian Crown Order; received Medal, Univ. of Brussels (for resistance activities); Civil Cross, 1st class. Author of many scientific papers on various subjects of organic chemistry. Address: 50 Avenue Franklin Roosevelt, Brussels, Belgium.

WYART, Dr. JEAN, French Scientist; born Oct. 16, 1902, Avion, Pas de Calais, France; son of Léon and Marguerite (Lempire) Wyart; educated at Ecole Normale Supérieure, Paris, 1923-27; Sc.D. 1933; married July 4, 1943; one son. Asst. Mineralogical Laboratory, Sorbonne, Paris, 1928-33; Lecturer, Faculty of Sciences, Paris, 1933-37; Prof., The Sorbonne since 1937; Prof. at Ecole de Physique et Chimie, since 1946. Director, Documentation Centre, National Scientific Research Council; Pres., French Mineralogical Soc., 1944-45. Member: French Physical and Chemical Societies; Soc. of Physical Chemistry.

Author of various papers on cristallography, mineralogy, etc. Address: Sorbonne, I rue Victor Cousin, Paris V, France.

WYATT, Hon. LEE BUREN, American Jurist; born July 13, 1890, Franklin, Ga.; son of S. F. and Mary (Kent) Wyatt; educated at Fourth Dist., A. & M. College, (Carrollton, Ga.); Bowdoin College (Ga.); Mercer University (Macon, Ga.) LL.B. 1914; married Sara Baker, Dec. 25, 1939. Began career as an attorney at law, 1914. Member, House of Representatives (Georgia), 1917-22; City Attorney, City of LaGrange, Ga., 1924-31; Judge, Superior Courts, Coweta Judicial Circuit, 1931-43; Associate Justice, Supreme Court of Georgia, since 1943. Residence: Greenville Rd., La Grange, Ga.

WYCHE, Hon. CHARLES CECIL, United States District Judge; born in Prosperity, S. C., July 7, 1885; son of Cyril Thomas and Carrie Varina (Sease) Wyche; educated at The Citadel, 1906, B.S.; Georgetown University Law School; married Evelyn Crawford, Mar. 12, 1916; Secretary to U. S. Senator Frank B. Gary, 1908-09. Admitted to the Bar, 1909; elected to the State Legislature, 1912. Author and advocate of important legislation during three sessions in the Legislature. County Attorney for Spartanburg County, 1919-33; City Attorney for the City of Spartanburg, 1919-22; U. S. District Attorney for the Western District of South Carolina, 1933-37; Judge, U. S. District Court, Western District of South Carolina, since 1937. State Circuit Judge, Court of Common Pleas, by special appointment, 1924; in the Court of General Sessions, 1924; Associate Justice, Supreme Court of South Carolina by special appointment, 1929. Member: American, South Carolina (Vice-President, 1914) and Spartanburg County (President, 1931-32) Bar Assns.; American Law Institute; American Judicature Society. Residence: 268 Mills Ave. Chambers: Federal Bldg., Spartanburg, S. C.

WYCHE, Major General IRA THOMAS, United States Army Officer; born Oct. 16, 1887, Ocracoke, N. C.; son of Lawrence Olin and Lorena (Howard) Wyche; educated at U. S. Military Acad., B.S. 1911; grad. Mounted Service School, Ft. Riley, Kansas, 1916; grad. Field Artillery School, Fort Sill, Okla., 1924; grad. Command and General Staff School, Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, 1925; grad. Army War College, Washington, D. C., 1934; married Mary Louise Dunn, Dec. 15, 1917; one daughter. 2nd Lieut., Inf., 1911; 1st Lieut., 1916; transferred to Field Artillery, Jan. 1917; Captain, May 1917; Major (temp.), June 1918; Lieut.-Col. (temp.), July 1918; reverted to Captain, Feb. 1920; Major, July 1920; Lieut.-Col., 1935; Col., 1940; Brig.-Gen. (temp.) 1941; Major General (temp.) 1942. Served in various positions and stations, 1912-40. Named to command 74th F. A. Brigade, Camp Blanding, Fla., 1941; Commanding General, 79th Inf. Div., 1942; commanded 79th Div. throughout its battle operations in European Theater; advance party of Div. landed at Utah Beach on D plus six; from then until V-E Day, Div. traveled 2,300 miles, being in contact with enemy most of time; fought in First Army, Third Army, Seventh Army, and Ninth Army, under 12th and 6th Army Groups, and also in Ninth Army when it was under British 21st Army Group; in First Army participated in capture of Cherbourg and its patrols were first in each city; in Third Army it executed crossing of Seine, being first troops to cross river; in Seventh Army, bore brunt of German offensive which was launched in Alsace after the Bulge; in Ninth Army, was one of assault divisions in crossing of Rhine; Commanding General, VIII Corps in Germany, May 1945; Inspector General of the Army, since 1947, with rank of Major General. Decorations: Distinguished Service Medal, 1944; Legion of Merit, 1945 and numerous other decorations. Residence: Pinehurst, N. C. Office: War Department, Office of the Inspector General, Washington 25, D. C.

WYDLER, Dr. ALBERT, Swiss Surgeon (specialist in surgery of goiter and stomach); born May 29, 1886, Zurich, Switzerland; educated at Cantonal School, Zurich; studied medicine at Univs. of Zurich (M.D. 1911) and Munich; married Margrit Zinggeler, 1922; two children. Asst. at Pathological Inst., Univ. of Zurich and at Cantonal Hospital of Glarus, 1911; Asst. at Surgical Clinic, Univ. of Basle, 1913-18; Chief Physician, Surgical Cinic at Berne, 1918; Privatdocent, Univ. of Berne, 1924; taught surgery at Univ., 1926. Now engaged in private practice, specializing in surgery of stomach and goiter, at Zurich. During World Wars I and II Captain and Surgeon-in-Chief of Forteresse Hospital, Third Army Corps. Author of several papers and monograph: die Histologie der Kretinen struma, 1926. Address: Utoquai 37, Zurich, Switzerland.

WYER, MALCOLM GLENN, American Librarian; born Aug. 21, 1877, Concordia, Kan.; son of James Ingersoll and Allie E. (Glenn) Wyer; educated at University of Minnesota (A.B. 1899, M.Litt. 1901); New York State Library School (B.L.S. 1903); married Charlotte M. Spalding, July 25, 1906; one daughter. Librarian: Colorado College, 1903-04; State University of Iowa, 1904-13; Librarian, University of Nebraska, 1913-24; Assistant to the Director, American Library Assn. Library War Service, 1918; Librarian, Denver Public Library, since 1924. Dean, University of Denver School of Librarianship, since 1934; Director of Libraries, University of Denver, since 1933. Past President, American Library Assn.; Past Regional Chairman (1934-44). Bibliographical Center for Research; Member, Colorado Library Assn.; Bibliographical Society. Awarded: University of Nebraska (D.L.S. 1931), and Colorado College (LL.D. 1938). Author: Index to New York Governors' Messages, 1777-1901 (1906), and Book Plates in Iowa (1914). Residence: 2280 Ash St., Denver, Colo. Office: Denver Public Library, Denver, Colo.

WYETH, ANDREW NEWELL, American Landscape Painter; born July 12, 1917, Chadds Ford, Pa.; son of Newell Convers and Carolyn (Bockus) Wyeth; educated in Chadds Ford under father; married Betsy Merle James, May 15, 1940; two sons. Exhibited at Art Alliance, Philadelphia, 1936; gave one-man show at Macbeth Gallery, 1937, 1939, 1941, 1943, 1945; one-man shows at Doll & Richards, Boston, 1938, '40, '43, '44, '46; Art Inst. of Chicago, 1941; Museum of Modern Art, 1943. Represented in collections of Chicago Art Inst., Boston Museum, Metropolitan Museum, Butler Art Inst., Dallas and Toledo Museums, New Britain Inst. Member, Natl. Acad. Illustrator: The Brandywine by Henry S. Canby, 1941; Arthur Pendragon, British editions; Forest and Fort; Bedford Village (by Hervey Allen); Lord Hornblower (by C. S. Forrester), also children's books. Address: Chadds Ford, Pennsylvania.

WYETH, N. C., American Mural Painter; born 1882, Needham, Mass.; studied under Howard Pyle. Paintings in Hotel Traymore, Atlantic City; Reserve Bank of Boston; Hotel Utica, Utica, N. Y.; Missouri State Capital; Reading Museum of Fine Arts; New York Public Library, etc. Fellowship, Pennsylvania Acad. of Fine Arts. Member: Salmagundi Club. Soc. of Illustrators. Awards: Beck Prize, Philadelphia Water Color Club, 1910; Gold Medal, Panama-Pacific Exposition, San Francisco, 1915, etc. Address: Salmagundi Club, 47 - 5th Ave., New York, N. Y.

WYLER, WILLIAM, American Motion Picture Director. Films include: Mrs. Miniver (received Motion Picture Academy Award for best direction, 1942); Best Years of Our Lives (received New York Film Critics Award and Motion Picture Academy Award for best direction, 1946), etc. Address: c/o Sam Goldwyn, 1041 N. Formosa Ave., Hollywood, Calif.

WYLIE, I(DA) A(LEXA) R(OSS), British Writer; born 1885. Author: My German Year, 1910; Rambles in the Black Forest, 1911; The Daughter of Brahma, 1913; Eight Years in Germany, 1914; The Temple of Dawn, 1915; The Hermit Doctor of Gaya (a love story of modern India), 1916; The Shining Heights, 1917; Towards Morning, 1918; Holy Fire and Other Stories, 1920; Children of Storm, 1920; The Dark House, 1922; Ancient Fires, 1924; Some Other Beauty, 1930; To the Vanquished, 1934; Furious Young Man, 1936; My Life With George (an unconventional autobiography), 1940; Strangers Are Coming, 1941; Keeper of the Flame, 1942; Flight to England, 1943, etc. Address: c/o Random House, Inc., 457 Madison Ave., New York 23, N. Y.

WYLIE, Hon. WILLIAM E., Irish Jurist; born June 25, 1881, Dublin, Ireland; son of Robert B. and Marion (Drury) Wylie; educated at Dublin Univ. ;King's Inns, Dublin, 1901-04; married Ida Moloney, 1912; one daughter, one son. Called to Irish Bar, 1905; King's Counsel, 1914; Bencher of King's Inns, 1918 .Law Adviser to Irish Govt., 1918-20. Judge of the Supreme Court (Ireland), 1920-36. Judicial Commissioner, Irish Land Commission, 1924-36. Chairman, Irish Railway Wage Board, 1924-44. Pres., Royal Dublin Soc. Vice Chairman, Irish Red Cross Soc. Member, Irish Racing Board. Deputy Chairman, Coras Iorrain Tirann (Irish Railways). Director: Dublin Gas Co.; Messrs. Johnston, Mooney & O'Brien; Baldoyle Race Co. Asst. Editor, Wylie's Judicature Acts. Address: Clonsilla House, County Dublin, Ireland.

WYMAN, Hon. A. LEE, U. S. District Judge; born Yankton, S. D., Dec. 9, 1874; son of Frank D. and Mattie C. (Robertson) Wyman; educated at Yankton High School, 1893; married Bessie M. White, Dec. 8, 1900; six children. Began practice of law, 1896. State's Attorney for Yankton County, 1905-08 and 1915-18; City Attorney of Yankton, 1909-14; elected to the South Dakota House of Representatives, 1909 and to the State Senate, 1911. Mayor, City of Yankton, 1914-24; United States District Judge since 1929. Residence: 1200 S. Main Avenue. Office: Federal Building, Sioux Falls, S. D.

WYMAN, PHILLIPS, American Publisher; born May 24, 1895, Evansville, Illinois; son of Edward Frothingham and Katharine (Easter) Wyman; educated at Trinity School, New York; Peddie School, Hightstown, N. J.; Cornell University, 1917; married (1st) Mildred Sutton (dec.); (2nd) Nina Baekeland, May 8, 1936; three children. Asst. to Administrative Dir. of U.S. Food Administration, 1917-19; Business Manager of "Save the Surface Campaign" (Paint & Varnish Industry), 1919-21; Executive Secretary of Periodical Publishers Association of America, 1921-23; Circulation Director of McCall Corporation, 1923-43; Vice-Pres., Board Member and Dir. of of Publication Selling, 1943 —. Pres. and Director of S-M News Corp., New York Chmn., Educational Com., of Natl. Better Business Bureau, Inc. Member, Bd. of Dirs. of Natl. Association of Better Business Bureaus, Audit Bureau of Circulations in Chicago, Periodical Publishers Association; Committee Member of National Publishers Assn., etc. Author: "Magazine Circulation: An Outline of Methods and Meanings." Residence: Revolutionary Rd., Scarborough, N. Y. Office: 230 Park Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

WYNDHAM, HORACE, British Author; born 1873, Oxford, England; educated at Edinburgh Collegiate; First Class Army Educational Certificate; married Ethel Mulready. Special writer for "Daily Mail"; contributor to leading magazines and reviews, etc. Author of "Talks" and radio plays for B.B.C. Awarded Mons Star, Allied and Victory Medals; on active service in France, Belgium, and Germany, 1919-20. Author: The Queen's Service; The Magnificent Montez; Famous Trials Re-Told; The Mayfair Calendar; also thirty other volumes of fiction, biography and history. Address: 2 Middle Temple Lane, London.

WYNEGAR, HOWARD LaVERNE, American Financier; born Greenville, Ind., July 1, 1884; son of David A. and Mary Elizabeth (McCune) Wynegar; educated at Indiana Univ., LL.B. 1907; married Elizabeth Page, 1924; one daughter. Practiced law in Indianapolis, 1908-12; with Advance-Rumley Co., La Porte, Ind., until 1916. Vice-Pres., Guaranty Banking Corp. (subsidiary of Continental Guaranty Co.), Chicago, 1916-18; Senior Vice-President of the Continental Guaranty Corp., New York, from 1919 to 1922, when the name of the Company was changed to the Commercial Credit Corp., subsidiary of the Commercial Credit Co. of Baltimore, Md. He has been President and Director of the Commercial Credit Corp. since 1922, and of the Commercial Credit Co. since 1930. He is also President and Director of the Commercial Credit Corp. Ltd. Director of Textile Banking Co., Manufacturers Casualty Insurance Co., Edmund Wright Ginsberg Corp., American Credit Indemnity Co., Calvert Fire Insurance Co., Agar Packing & Provision Corp., Croname, Incorporated (formerly Crowe Name Plate & Manufacturing Co.). Chairman of the Finance Companies Division, Finance Section, American Red Cross War Fund, 1942 and 1943; also for Salvation Army, three years. Served as Member of War Industries Bd., Washington, D. C., 1918. Residence: 375 Park Ave. Office: 100 E. 42nd St., New York, N. Y.

WYNN, Rt. Rev. HAROLD EDWARD, Anglican Bishop of Ely; born Jan. 15, 1889, Leytonstone, Essex, England; son of John and Louisa E. (Rumsey) Wynn; educated at Trinity Hall, Cambridge, 1907-10; Jesus College, Lady Kaye Scholar, 1910-11, B.A. 1910, M.A. 1914, hon. D.D. 1941; Ely Theological College. Ordained Deacon, 1912, and Priest 1913. Chaplain, Jesus College, Cambridge, 1912-14; Vice-Principal, Westcott House, Cambridge, 1919-21. Fellow, Pembroke College, Cambridge, since 1921; Dean, 1921-36; Tutor, 1936-41. Bishop of Ely since 1941. Visitor of Peterhouse, Jesus College, and St. John's College, Cambridge. Chairman, Rural Community Council for Cambridgeshire, Huntingdonshire and Isle of Ely. Fellow, Royal Historical Soc. Chaplain, British Army, 1914-19; mentioned in despatches; awarded Italian Croce di Guerra. Address: The Bishop's House, Ely, Cambridgeshire, England.

WYNNE, Dr. ARTHUR M., Canadian Biochemist; born June 6, 1892, Brigden, Ontario; son of John B. and Annie (Brown) Wynne; educated at Queen's Univ., B.A. 1913, M.A. 1915; Toronto Univ., Ph.D. 1925. Research Asst. in Zymology, 1919; Asst. Prof. of Biochemistry, Univ. of Toronto, 1929; Assoc. Prof., 1932; Prof. since 1939. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Canada. Member: Amer. Soc. of Biological Chemists; Biochemical Soc. of Great Britain; Canadian Physiological Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Toronto Biochemical and Biophysical Soc. Address: University of Toronto, Toronto 5, Canada.

WYNNE, NORMAN R., American Lawyer; born July 4, 1892, Union City, N. J.; son of John T. and Katherine (Bobel) Wynne; educated at New York Univ., LL.B. 1912; married Theresa Campbell, June 18, 1919; three children. Associated with Edwards & Smith, 1912-24. Partner, firm of Hanley & Wynne, 1924-34. Engaged in private practice since 1934. Police Magistrate, 1920-22. Practice largely trial work in negligence field for insurance compadies; also counsel for other lawyers. Chmn., Weehawken Rationing Board, 1942-43; Union City-Weehawken Rationing Bd., 1944-45. Vice-Chairman, Union City-Weehawken Rationing Board, 1943-44. Member: Hudson County Bar Assn.; Hoboken Lawyers Assn.; Knights of Columbus; American Legion. Private, Sergeant and Lieutenant, World War I. Residence: 899 Boulevard East, Weehawken, N. J. Office: 84 Washington St., Hoboken, N. J.

WYNNE-TYSON, ESMÉ, English Author; educated privately by governesses, boarding school, and convent in Belgium; married Lynden Charles Wynne-Tyson, 1918; one son. Child Actress, under Charles Hawtrey's management, leading part in "Where the Rainbow Ends," West End theatres. Collaborated with Noel Coward in one-act plays, songs, etc. Also with W. Graham Browne and C. Romanné James. Free Lance Journalist and contributor to English papers and magazines. Author: Securtiy, 1926, 1927; Quicksand, 1927; Momus, 1928; Melody, 1929; Incense and Sweet Cane, 1930; Prelude to Peace, 1936; also (with J. D. Beresford) Strange Rival, 1939; Men in the Same Boat, 1943; The Riddle of the Tower, 1944. Plays: Security (produced in America and England); Little Lovers (premiered by Repertory Players); Forty-Love. Address: c/o Lloyds Bank, Oxford, England.

WYSS, Dr. OSCAR A. M., Swiss Physiologist; born Aug. 1, 1903, Zurich, Switzerland; son of Oscar and Ida (Frick) Wyss; educated at Cantonal Gymnasium, Zurich, 1916-22; Univ. of Zurich, M.D. 1932; Univ. of Paris, Sc.D. 1932; married Lucette Enz, Nov. 28, 1931; three children. Asst., Physiological Inst., Zurich., 1929; Chief Asst., Physiological Inst., 1933; Privatdocent in Physiology, Univ. of Zurich, 1934; Rockefeller Foundation Research Fellow in Neurophysiology, Dept. of Physiology, Yale Univ., 1936-37; Titular-Prof., Univ. of Zurich, 1940; Prof. of Physiology, Univ. of Geneva, since 1941. Director of Physiological Inst., Medical School, Geneva. Chief Editor, Helvetica Physiologica et Pharmacologica Acta, Basle, since 1943. Member: Schweizerische Naturforschende Gesellschaft; Schweizerischer Verein der Physiologen und Pharmakologen; Société suisse de Génétique; Société médicale de Genève; Société de physique et d'histoire naturelle de Genève; Schweizerische Gesellschaft für Geschichte der Medizin; Assn. des Physiologistes de Langue française. Author of original papers in field of physiology, especially neuro-physiology, electrophysiology. Address: University, Geneva, Switzerland.

WYSS-CHODAT, Dr. FERNAND, Swiss Dermatologist; born June 15, 1900, Geneva, Switzerland; son of Adrien and Marie (Kohler) Wyss; educated at College, Geneva; Univ. of Geneva; Sc.D. 1922; M.D. 1931; married Emma Chodat, July 3, 1926; five children. Asst., Laboratory of Histology and Embryology, 1923-24; Asst. Laboratory of Hygiene and Bacteriology, 1924-26; Interne, Dermatological Clinic, 1926-28; Chief of clinical work, 1928-29; Chief of Laboratory, Dermatological Clinic, 1930-35; Assoc. Physician, 1938-40; Privatdocent at Faculty of Sciences, Univ. of Geneva; School of Pharmacy and Faculty of Medicine, Univ. of Geneva. Engaged in private practice of dermatology at Geneva since 1929. Asst. Judge (Physician), Chambre Pénale de l'enfance, Geneva, since 1935. Author: Observations sur le traitement des dermatoses par le Merfen, 1941; Un nouveau sclérosant pour le traitement des varices. Le Merfen injectable, 1941; A propos de la biologie des levures, 1942; De l'importance des facteurs vitaminiques dans le traitement de diverses maladies par les ferments lactiques, 1942; Les indications des ferments lactiques, 1942; La maladie variqueuse et son traitement, 1942; Tréponèmes et sulfamidés, 1942; Les indications des vitamines en dermatologie, 1942-43; Traitement de l'Hygroma par le Scléro-Merfen (with Dr. Hutter) 1943; Remarques sur l'emploi, en dermatologie, de la poudre vulnéraire Merfen boriquée, 1944; Collaboration à l'ouvrage: Prévenir et Guérir, 1944; Classification des levures et champignons levuriformes, 1945; La Biologie de la Levure, 1947; Adaptation française du Traité de Dermatologie du Professeur Roxburgh, London "Common Skin Diseases," etc. Residence: 4 Crêts de Champel. Office: 26 rue de Candolle, Geneva, Switzerland.

WYZANSKI, Hon. CHARLES EDWARD, Jr., U. S. District Judge; born Boston, Mass., May 27, 1906; son of Charles Edward and Maude (Joseph) Wyzanski; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1927, LL.B. 1930; married Gisela Warburg, July 23, 1943; two children. Law Clerk to U. S. Circuit Court Judge Augustus N. Hand, 1930; to U. S. Circuit Judge Learned Hand, 1932. Solicitor, U. S. Department of Labor, 1933-35. Representative of the Federal Government in Geneva, Switzerland, at the meetings of the Governing Body of the International Labor Office and of the International Labor Conference, 1935. Special Assistant to the Attorney General of the United States, 1936-37. Associate and later partner, Boston law firm of Ropes, Gray, Boyden & Perkins, 1930-33, 1937-41. Public Member, National Defense Mediation Board, 1941; U. S. District Judge, since 1942. Overseer of Harvard College; Trustee, Phillips Exeter Acad.; Fellow and Member of Council, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Member of Internatl. Labor Organization Com. of Experts on Application of Conventions; Member, Council and Exec. Com., Amer. Law Inst.; Lecturer in Govt. at Harvard College, 1943. Residence: 39 Fayerweather Street, Cambridge, Mass. Office: United States Court House, Boston, Mass.

Y

YABEN, Capt. JACINTO RUFINO, Argentine Naval Officer, Author; born Aug. 11, 1887, Buenos Aires; son of Francisco Yaben and Margarita Leis de Yaben; educated at Naval Military School; married Josefa Esther Capella, May 27, 1912; one daughter. Completed the requisite four years course of the Escuela Naval, and in 1910 was promoted to Midshipman; became Ensign (junior grade) in 1912, and Lieutenant (j.g.) in 1914; promoted to full Lieutenant, 1917, and was made Lieutenant Commander (Teniente de Navio) in 1922; Commander (Capitán de Fragata), Jan. 1, 1928. In these capacities he served as subordinate officer and as Second and First in command of various vessels of the Argentine Navy, participating in all branches of the maneuvers of the fleet; retired from active service in 1934. Asst. Prof. of Naval Art, Escuela de Aplicación para Oficiales de la Armada, 1929-30, later holding the Chair of Maritime Warfare in the Third Course of the Superior School of War of the Army. He was cited by the Ministry of the Navy for his cycle of lectures on "The Initiative in Warfare" (1928). Charter Member, Natl. Acad. of History; Adviser on History, Ministry of the Navy. Member of the Centro Naval, Member of Number of the Instituto Sammartiniano, and of the Directive Board of the Defensa Social Argentina. He is author of a six volume work of biography entitled: Biografías Argentinas y Sudamericanas, of which five volumes have been completed and published. He has also written a historical study entitled Los Balcarce, and a number of technical works on naval tactics and affairs. Address: Calle Anchorena 1560, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

YABLOCHKINA, ALEXANDRA ALEXANDROVNA, Soviet Actress; born 1868. With Malay Theatre, Moscow, since 1888. Chmn. of Council, All-Russian Theatrical Society. Awarded title of People's Artist of the U.S.S.R.; Order of Lenin; Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1945. Address: Malay Theatre, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YAFI, Dr. ABDALLAH, Lebanese Political Leader; born 1901, Beirut; educated at Faculté de Droit and University of Paris, LL.D. 1925. Practiced law in Lebanon from 1926; Member of the Chamber of Deputies from the city of Beirut, 1937-39 and since 1943. Prime Minister of Lebanon and Minister of Justice, 1938-39. Member, Lebanon Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Minister of Justice, 1946—. Address: Ministry of Justice, Beirut, Lebanon.

YAKOVIN, Prof. I. I., Soviet Librarian. Occupied various educational and scientific positions. Now Director of the Library of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Author of many publications. Address: Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YAKOVLEV, Lt. Gen. ALEKSANDER SERGEEVICH, Soviet Aircraft Designer; born 1906. Named Vice Commissar of Aviation Industry, 1940; given rank of Major General in Engineering Aviation, 1943; promoted to Lt. Gen., 1944. Designer of the Yak and other fighting planes. Awarded title of Hero of Socialist Labor, 1939; Stalin Prize, 1943; Order of Lenin, 1944; Order of Suvorov, 1944; Stalin Prize for creation of new type of military planes, 1948. Athor: Stories From Life, 1944. Address: Ministry of Aviation Industry, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YAKOVLEV, Marshal NIKOLAI DMITRIEVICH, Soviet Artillery Officer. Joined Red Army, 1920; advanced through grades to Col. General of Artillery, 1944. Awarded Order of Lenin, 1942 and 1945; Order of Suvorov, 1st class, 1944. Address: Red Army Headquarters, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YALMAN, Dr. AHMET EMIN, Turkish Editor; born 1888, Salonica, Turkey; son of Ossman Tevfik and Hasibe (Hizir-Mehmet) Yalman; educated at Turkish Military Acad., 1901; German School, Istanbul, 1907; Turkish Law School, 1910; Columbia Univ., New York, M.A. 1912, Ph.D. 1914; married Rezzan Arif Korle, 1922; one child. Reporter, Sabah (daily), 1907; Editorial Writer, Yeni Gazeta, 1909; War Correspondent, Tanin, 1915; Asst. Prof. of Sociology, Istanbul Univ., 1915-16; Prof. of Statistics, 1916. Editor: Sabah, 1917; Vakit, 1918; Vatan, 1923; Tan, 1936; Editor of Vatan since 1940. Member of Turkish Com., New York World's Fair, 1938-39. Founder, Children's Soc., 1916 (Member of Executive Council until 1923). Member, Soc. of Istanbul Journalists. Author: Modern Turkey as Measured by its Press, 1914; Türkei, 1918; Turkey in the World War, 1929; The Dream Which Came True, 1938; 50,000 km in the Air (3 vols.), 1942; Report from the World (2 vols.), 1944; Notes from San Francisco, 1945. Address: Vatan, Istanbul, Turkey.

YANES, Dr. THOMAS R., Cuban Ophthalmic Surgeon; born March 4, 1901, Cardenas, Cuba; son of Thomas and Regina (Rojas) Yanes; educated at Instituto de Matanzas, B.A. 1917; Univ. of Havana, M.D. 1923; School of Aviation Medicine (U.S.A.) 1930; married Manuelita Arguelles, Jan. 23, 1933; one daughter. Chief of Ophthalmological Service, Military Hosp., 1930; Instructor in Ophthalmology, Univ. of Havana, 1934; Chief of Ophthalmological Service, Instituto Clinico, 1934; Chief of Ophthalmological Service, Cooperative Medica, 1939; Ophthalmic Surgeon, Univ. Hosp., 1940. Pres.: Instituto Protector de la Vista, 1936; Liga contra la Ceguera, 1946; Third Pan-American Congress of Ophthalmology, 1948. Member: Cuban Soc. of Ophthalmology; Chilean Soc. of Ophthalomlogy; Hispano-American Ophthalmic Soc.; Peruvian Ophthalmological Soc.; Mexican Soc. of Ophthalmology. Hon. Pres., Pan-American Assn. of Ophthalmology. Member, Amer. Soc. of Tropical Ophthalmology, etc. Author: Manual de Oftalmologia, 1939; Manual de Oftalmoscopia, 1942; Sur-America, 1947. Residence: Varadero Beach, Varadero, Cuba. Office: L Street and 25th, Vedado, Havana, Cuba.

YANG HU, General, Chinese Officer; born in Ningkuo, Anhwei, 1898. Active supporter of revolutionary movement conducted by Dr. Sun Yat-sen and from 1923 on successively held under Dr. Sun the positions of Divisional Commander, later Army Corps Commander, National Reconstruction Army; Military Adviser to President's Office, and Director of Naval Affairs Bureau attached to General Headquarters. Former Commander of Shanghai-Woosung Garrison; Garrison Commander of Shanghai-Woosung area since May, 1936, and Director of Shanghai Peace Maintenance Corps since Oct. 1932. Emergency Commander of Greater Shanghai during Sino-Japanese hostilities, 1937. Member of Kuomintang Central Supervisory Com. since Dec. 1931. Founder and Chairman, Natl. Chinese Seamen's Union, Pres., Hsin Chung Hsueh Hwei. Address: 471 Chapoo Rd., Shanghai, China.

YANG, PAO-LING, Chinese Engineer; born Jan. 28, 1887, Soochow, China; son of Yu-Cheng Yang and Wong-Shih; educated at Soochow Univ., grad. 1905; Cornell Univ., 1907, 1908; Purdue Univ., B.S. in C.E. 1911; married Nyui Tsung Lee, April 2, 1914; five children. Asst. Engineer, Huai River Conservancy, 1912; Prof. of Civil Engineering, Hunan Technical College, Changsha, 1913; Chief Technical Expert of Govt. Conservancy Board, 1914-18; Member and later Chief Engineer, Chili River Commission, 1918-28; Chief, Grand Canal Board Engineering Dept., 1921-24. Founder and First Chairman of Technical Board, Yangtse River Commission, 1922-27. Consulting Engineer, Hai Ho Improvement Board, 1932-34. Director, Public Works Dept., Tientsin Municipality, 1934; Dir., Hai Ho Conservancy Board, 1945-46. Manager and Secy.-Treas., Chinese Engineering & Development Co., Inc.; Pres., Chihli Press. Ex-Pres., Assn. of Chinese and American Engineers. Member: Amer. Soc. of Civil Engineers; Chinese Inst. of Engineers (Ex-Dir.). Secy. and Director, International Relief Commission, 1920. Decorations: First Class, Conservancy Medal, Ministry of Interior, Peking; 2nd Class, Ta Shou Cha Hu Decoration, Chinese Republic. Residence: 186 Chung King Road. Office: 42 Woodrow Wilson St., Tientsin 6, China.

YANG SUN (YANG TZE-HUI), General, Chinese Governor; Army Officer; born Jan. 24, 1884, Kwang-an, Szechwan, China; son of Yang Tin-an and Wu Pang-tS'ui; educated at Szechwan Military School; Senior Military Post-Graduate College; married Chang I'nien (dec.); (2nd) Liu Gu-fan (dec.); (3rd) T'an Chih-cheng, 1924; 15 sons and 15 daughters. 2nd Lieut., Chinese Army, 1910; Major, Battalion Commander, and Dean, Post-Graduate School, 1911; Major, Staff Officer, 1913; Col., Chief of Staff, 2nd Army, 1916; Major General, Commander, Independent Army Regiment, 1918, Fourth Army Brigade, 1919, and Ninth Army Div., 1920; Governor, Southern Szechwan, 1920; General, Commander, 2nd Army, 1921; Szechwan Provincial Military Supervisor and Governor, 1924; Commander, 20th Army, Natl. Revolutionary Army, 1926; Group Commander, 6th Army, and Commander, 20th Army, 1937; General, Commander in Chief, 27th Collective Army, and Army Commander, 20th Army, 1938; Deputy Commander in Chief, 6th War Zone, and Commander in Chief, 27th Collective Army, 1939; transferred as Deputy Commander in Chief, 9th War Zone, and 27th Collective Army, 1940; participated in 2nd and 3rd Changhsa Defense, 1942-43; Deputy Commander in Chief, 4th War Zone, and Commander in Chief, 27th Collective Army, 1944; Deputy Commnr., Pacification Commn., Yunan and Kweichow Provinces; Governor of Kweichow, since 1944. Member, Central Supervisory Com., Kuomintang, China. Awarded 3rd class Boading decoration, 1939, 1st class Kanchen Decoration, 1940; 2nd class Boading decoration, 1943. Author: Selection of Addresses, 1945; Theoretical and Practical Reconstruction of New Kweichow, 1946. Address: Kweichow Provincial Government, Kweiyang, China.

YANG, Prof. TANG-LU CHOU, Chinese Economist; born May 6, 1885, Changsha, Hunan, China; son of Yih-Sen Wing Yang and Liu; educated at Ko-Bon School, Tokyo, 1906-08; Junior College, Tokyo and Okayama, Japan, 1908-11; London School of Economics and Political Science, 1913-19; married Prof. Chang-Ying Yuan, Jan. 1, 1921; two children. Editor and Manager, Hankow Min-Kuo-Jih-Pao, daily newspaper, 1912-13. Director, Accounting System Reform Office, Commercial Press, Ltd., Shanghai, 1920-21; Chief Accountant, 1922-28. Director, National Research Inst. of Social Sciences, Academia Sinica, Shanghai, 1928-29; Prof. of Economics, National Wu-Han Univ., since 1930. Comptroller and Auditor-General, National Military Affairs Commission, 1933-37. Member: Peoples Political Council, since 1938; Central Executive Com., Kuo-Min-Tang, since 1946; (Life) Royal Economic Soc., London; Sino-British Cultural Assn.; Nanking. Received Military Honors and Medal. State Professor, since 1943. Author: Statistics of China's Foreign Trade 1864-1928, 1931; Currency and Banking, 1941; Contemporary Accounting, 1943; Business Organization and Management, 1944, etc. Residence: 1321 Lochiashan. Office: National Wu-Han University, Lochiashan, Wuchang, Hupeh, China.

YANG TSO-NGAN, Chinese Administrator; born June 17, 1898, Foochow, Fukien, China; graduated from Peking French Acad.; married Yeh Ko-feng; three chidlren. Director: Bureau of Statistics, Kwangsi, 1932-35; Kwangsi Provincial Bureau of Industry and Commerce, 1933-35; Hupei Provincial Bureau of Industry and Commerce, 1933-35; Hupei Provincial Bureau of Land Affairs, 1936-37; Kiangsi Provincial Administration of Industry and Commerce, 1937-39. Member, Com. of Kiangsi Provincial Govt.; Commissioner, Kiangsi Provincial Reconstructon Dept., 1939-42; Chief Secy. and Acting Mayor, Chungking Municipal Govt., 1942-45; now Mayor, Municipality of Harbin, China; Deputy Director, N.E. Supplies Distribution Com. Member, China Statistics and Economics Assn. Author: Year Book of Kwangsi, 1933; Year Book of Hupei, 1936. Address: Tayuan St., Shenyang, China.

YANG, WU-chiang, Chinese Politician; born Jan. 16, 1896, Tebyang District, Sze, China; son of Yu-wen Yang and Tziukuan Lan; educated at College of Political Science, Univ. of Szechwan, A.B. 1924; College of Economics, Univ. of Meiji, Tokyo, Japan, M.A. 1930; married Chungyin Ho, Nov. 29, 1914; six children. Secy., Szechwan Provincial High Court, 1924-25; Chief Editor, New Szechwan Daily News, 1925-28; Departmental Chief, Yangtze River Navigation Administration, Yichang Branch Office, 1930-33; Head of Luhsien Branch Office of Yangtze River Navigation Administration, 1933; Head of Fengchieh Branch Office, 1933-38; Head of General Dept., Szechwan Provincial Bureau of Hydraulic Engineering, Chengtu, 1938-39; Head of General Dept., Confidence Credit Commission of Generalissimo's Headquarters for Hydraulic Works in provinces of Szechwan and Sikon, 1939-40; Chief-Secy., Szechwan Provincial Bureau of Hydraulic Engineering, since 1940. Managing Dir., Modern Science Publishers Assn. Co-Director, Anti-aircraft Corps, Fengchieh District, Szechwan. Leader of Wushan-Wanhsien Section, Yangtze River Navigation Protectorate. Residence: 24 Hwaishuei St., Chengtu, Szechwan, China.

YANG, Dr. YUNG-CHING, Chinese Diplomat, Educator; born June 26, 1891, Wusih, Kiangsu Province, China; son of Wei-han Yang and Tui-fan Yang; educated at Soochow Univ., B.A.; Tsing Hua College, Peking, grad.; George Washington Univ., M.A., LL.B. (with distinction); Southern College, Florida, LL.D.; Bowdoin College, Maine, L.H.D.; married Wei-tsung Jui; one son. Private Secy. to Chinese Minister at Washington, 1916-29; Attaché and Secy. of Chinese Legation at London, 1920-22; Adviser to Chinese Delegation and Member of Com. on Special Countries, 1st Meeting of Internatl. Labor Conf., Washington, D. C., 1919; Secy., Chinese Delegation to Washington Disarmament Conf., 1921-33, and to First Assembly of League of Nations, 1920. Member, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1922-27; Consul-General in London, 1926; Pres., Soochow Univ., since 1927. Senior Secy. and Acting-Dir., Dept. of Internatl. Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Nanking, 1931; Assoc. Secy., Com. on Security Council, Internatl. Secretariat of U. N. Conf. on Internatl. Organization, San Francisco, 1945; Assoc. Chief of Section on Economic and Social Questions, U. N. Preparatory Commn. and First General Assembly, London, 1945-46; Adviser, Chinese Delegation, U. N. Gen-Economic and Social Council, since 1946. Adviser, Chinese Deleagtion, U. N. General Assembly, N. Y., 1946; Member, Exec. Bd., Internatl. Children's Emergency Fund and of U. N. Social Commission, Economic and Social Council. Member: Exec. Com. National Christian Council of China; Natl. Com., Y.M.C.A.'s in China. Chairman, Bd.

of Christian Education, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in China, 1930-41. Author: China's Religious Heritage (third edition). Residence: 115 West 73rd St. Office: Chinese News Service, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, N. Y.

YANKWICH, Hon. LEON RENE, U. S. District Court Judge; born September 25, 1888, Jassy, Roumania; educated at Willamette University, LL.B., 1909; Loyola University J.D., 1926, LL.D., 1929; married Helen Werner, Jan. 22, 1919; two children. Came to the U. S. in 1907; naturalized in 1912. Admitted to the Oregon Bar in 1909, and the California Bar in 1909. Engaged in law practice in Modesto, Calif., 1909-16; in Los Angeles, 1916-27. Judge, Superior Court of Los Angeles County, 1925-35; Judge, U. S. District Court of the Southern District of California, 1925-35. Lectured for many years on pleading and practice at the St. Vincent School of Law, Loyola University, Los Angeles, Calif. Member: American, California and Los Angeles Bar Assns. Author: Women's 8-hour law, successfully defending its constitutionality (with Hon. Thomas F. Griffin); California Pleading and Procedure, 1926; Essays in the Law of Libel, 1929; The Constitution and The Future, 1926; Marriage and Divorce, 1927; Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 1938; Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, 1946. Residence: 3225 Waverly Drive. Office: Federal Building, Los Angeles, Calif.

YARBROUGH, Dr. DEAN S., American College President; born Jan. 18, 1903, Athens, Ala.; son of Booker T. and Isabella (Mason) Yarbrough; educated at Miles College, A.B. 1923; Springfield, (Mass.) College, M.H. 1925; Univ. of Pittsburgh, M.A. 1926, Ph.D. 1934; married Mary E. Matthews, Dec. 25, 1926; two sons. Teacher of Sociology, Miles College, Birmingham, Ala., 1923; Industrial and Research Secy., Brooklyn (N.Y.) Urban League, 1926-29; Executive Secy., Warren (Ohio) Urban League, 1930-34; Research Asst., National Urban League (New York City), 1934; Asst. on Racial Problems, Emergency Relief Bureau, New York City, 1934-37; Research Director, New York State Commn. on Urban Colored Population, 1937-38; Senior Employment Interviewer, New York State Dept. of Labor, 1938-39. Prof. and Head, Dept. of Sociology, Wilberforce Univ., 1933-44; Club Dir. in Italy, Amer. Red Cross, 1944-45; Pres., Lane College, Jackson, Tenn., 1945—. Director, United Negro College Fund, Inc. Address: Lane College, Jackson, Tenn.

YARMOLINSKY, Dr. AVRAHM, American Librarian; born Jan. 1, 1890, Haisan, Russia; son of Bezalel and Malka (Nemoy) Yarmolinsky; educated at Neurol. Inst., St. Petersburg; Univ. of Neuchâtel, Switzerland, 1913; College of the City of New York, B.A. 1916; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1921; married Babette Deutsch, 1921; two sons. Chief of Slavonic Division, New York Public Library, 1918—. Instr. in Russian, evening session, College of the City of New York, 1917-23; Instr. in Russian Language and Literature, Columbia Univ., 1919-20. Awarded Townsend Harris Medal, 1939. Author: Turgenev, the Man, his Art and his Age, 1925; Dostoevsky, a life, 1934, etc. Editor: The Works of Alexander Pushkin, 1936; The Portable Chekhov, 1947, etc. Co-editor: The Heritage of European Literature, 1949, etc. Residence: 300 West 108th St. Office: Slavonic Division, New York Public Library, 476 Fifth Ave., New York 18, N. Y.

YARNALL, ALEXANDER COXE, American Investment Banker; born April 13, 1890, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Charlton and Anna Brinton (Coxe) Yarnall; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1912; Wharton School of Finance, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1913-14; married Elise L. Hopkins, Feb. 20, 1917; two children. With a brokerage house, 1914; started own firm, 1925; now partner, Yarnall & Co. Governor: New York Stock Exchange; Philadelphia Bond Club; Philadelphia Stock Exchange (Vice Pres., 1935, Pres. 1936). Director, Land Title Bank and Trust Co.; Chairman of Board of Dirs., Salt Dome Oil Corp.; Trustee, Estate of Alexander B. Coxe, deceased. Director, Secy. and Treasurer, Bryn Mawr Hospital, since 1930; Director, United War Chest of Philadelphia, 1944. Address: 1528 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

YARNALL, Dr. D. ROBERT, American Engineer; born June 28, 1878, Delaware Co., Pa.; son of Edward S. and Sidney S. (Garrett) Yarnall; educated at University of Pennsylvania, B.S. in M.E. 1901; M.E. 1905; Eng.D., Lehigh University, 1942; married Elizabeth R. Biddle; three children. Vice-President and General Manager, Nelson Valve Co., 1912 to 1918. Cofounder and President, Yarnall-Waring Co., 1912. President and Director of James G. Biddle Co. Director, American Engineering Council, 1928-34; Vice-President, Engineering Foundation, 1936-37; Director of United Engineering Trustees; President, 1937-38. Director and Vice-President of American Friends Service Committee. Pres., Amer. Soc. Mechanical Engineers, 1946. Residence: 42 W. Upsal St., Germantown. Office: 102 E. Mermaid Lane, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, Pa.

YARNELL, Admiral HARRY ERVIN, American Naval Officer; born Oct. 18, 1875, Independence, Iowa; educated at Naval Acad., 1893-97. Naval Cadet, USS Oregon, 1898; participated in Battle of Santiago, 1898; detached at Cavite, Mar. 1899; commissioned Ensign, Aug. 1899; joined gunboat Yorktown on Asiatic Station; served during Philippine Insurrection and with China Relief Expedition, Boxer Rebellion; Lieut. (j.g.), 1902; Lieut., 1903; Lieut. Commander, 1909; attended Naval War College, 1914-15; commanded USS Nashville, 1916; Base Commander, Gibraltar; in command of U. S. vessels in Gibraltar; Chief of Staff to Commander, Squadron Two, Patrol Force, Atlantic Fleet, 1917; Aide on Staff of Admiral William Sowden Sims, operating in European waters; Captain, 1918; in Office of Chief of Naval Operations, 1918; Commander, Destroyer Flotillas One and Nine, Destroyer Squadron One, and Chief of Staff to Commander Destroyer Squadrons, Atlantic Fleet, 1920-22; Commanding Officer, Naval Air Station, Hampton Roads, Va., 1922-24; in command of Aircraft Squadrons, Scouting Fleet, 1924-26; Chief, Bureau of Engineering and Engineer in Chief, U. S. Navy, with rank of Rear Admiral, 1928-31; Naval Adviser, Amer. Representatives, London Naval Conference, Jan.-Apr. 1930; Commander, Aircraft, Battle Force, also Commander, Aircraft, U. S. Fleet, USS Saratoga, flagship, 1931-33; Commandant, 14th Naval District, Pearl Harbor, T.H.; Commandant, Navy Yard, Pearl Harbor, 1933-36; Commander in Chief, Asiatic Fleet, as Admiral, 1936-39; duty in Navy Dept., 1939; transferred to retired list as Rear Admiral, Nov. 1939, becoming Admiral, July 1942; called to active duty in Office of Secy. of Navy, Nov. 1, 1941; Special Adviser, Chinese Military Mission, until Jan. 1943; relieved from active duty; again assumed duties in Office of Chief of Naval Operations, June 1943; returned to retired list, Dec. 1944. Awards: Navy Cross; Distinguished Service Medal by Act of Congress; Sampson Medal; Spanish Campaign Medal; Philippine Campaign Medal; China Relief Expedition Medal; Mexican Service Medal; Victory Medal, Mobile Base Clasp; China Service Medal; American Defense Service Medal; Diploma and decorations of Commander, Order of British Empire; Cloud Standard, 2nd Class, China. Address: 62 Ayrault St., Newport, R. I.

YARROW, Sir HAROLD EDGAR, C.B.E., British Industrialist; born Aug. 11, 1884; educated at Bedford Grammar School. Chairman: Yarrow & Co., Glasgow; Clydesdale Bank. Director: Bank of Midland; Steel Co. of Scotland. Address: Overton, Kilmacolm, Renfrewshire, Scotland.

YASSAMI, Prof. RASHID, Iranian Historian; Poet; born 1897, Kermanshah, Iran; son of Mohamed Vali and Nour Taj; educated in Teheran; married Merat Molook, 1920; seven children. Director of College in Kermanshah, 1918; with Ministry of Finance, Teheran, 1921; Secy. or Imperial Court, 1925-32; Prof. of History of Iran, Univ. of Teheran, since 1932. Member: Iranian Academy, Egyptian Academy. Awarded: Iranian Scientific Decoration and The Nile Order (Egypt). Author: History of Iran; History of the Kurds; History of the Sassanid Period; A Literary History of Persia. Translated several books; works included in many anthologies. Address: University of Teheran, Teheran, Iran.

YATER, Dr. WALLACE MASON, American Professor of Medicine; born Sept. 26, 1895, Canton, N. Y.; son of Charles Baldwin and Stella Frances (Wallace) Yater; educated at George Washington Univ., B.A. 1917, M.D. 1921; Univ. of Minnesota, M.S. in Medicine, 1928; married Ruth Millicent Becker, Dec. 22, 1932; four children. Instructor of Applied Anatomy and Prof. of Physical Diagnosis for three years; Fellow in Medicine, Mayo Foundation, Rochester, Minn., three years; Prof. of Clinical Medicine, Georgetown Univ. School of Medicine and Chief of Medical Service, Georgetown Univ. Hospital. Prof. of Theory and Practice of Medicine and Chairman, Dept. of Medicine, Georgetown Univ. School of Medicine, since 1930; Head of Dept. of Medicine at Gallinger Municipal Hospital since 1933. Fellow: Amer. College of Physicians; Amer. Medical Assn. (Chairman, Section on Experimental Medicine and Therapeutics). Member, Board of Directors, Amer. Heart Assn. (Past Chairman, Section for the Study of Peripheral Circulation). Member: Subcom. on Cardiovascular Diseases, Natl. Research Council; Natl. Research Council, Division of Medical Sciences; Amer. Soc. for Clinical Investigation, etc. Assoc. Editor, Amer. Heart Journal. Author: Symptom Diagnosis; The Fundamentals of Internal Medicine; also over one hundred fifty scientific articles. Residence: 4907 Indian Lane, N.W. Office: 35th and N Sts., N.W., Washington, D. C.

YATES, ELIZABETH, American Writer; born Dec. 6, 1905, Buffalo, N. Y.; daughter of Harry and Mary (Duffy) Yates; educated at Franklin School, Buffalo, grad. 1924; Oaksmere (private school), near New York City, one year; studied in New York, London and Paris; married William McGreal, 1929. Author: High Holiday, 1938; Piskey Folk, 1940 and The Doll who Came Alive, 1942 (edited both books from notebooks of Enys Tregarthen); Patterns on the Wall (awarded N. Y. Herald Tribune Spring Book Festival Prize), 1943; Mountain Born, 1943; Winds of Spring, 1945; Nearby, 1947; Joseph, 1947; (stories for younger children) Under the Fir Tree, 1942; Once in the Year, 1947. Address: c/o Coward-McCann, Inc., 2 W. 45th St., New York 19, N. Y.

YATES, FRANK LLOYD, United States Assistant Comptroller General; born Jan. 23, 1894, Kabletown, W. Va.; son of Benjamin Franklin Yates and Ida Catherine (Lloyd) Yates; educated at Shepherd College, Teacher's Diploma; West Virginia University, A.B. 1921; George Washington University, LL.B. 1922; married Alice Hume Cooke, Jan. 14, 1928. Officer, U. S. Army, 1917-19; Attorney, Special Assistant to the Comptroller General. Attorney-Conferee to the Comptroller General, in the General Accounting Office, 1922-43; appointed by President Roosevelt Assistant Comptroller General of the U. S., 1943. Residence: 4628 Reservoir Rd., N. W., Office: General Accounting Office, 5th and F Sts., N. W., Washington 25, D. C.

YATES, GILBERT E., United Nations Officer; born Sept. 20, 1907, Manchester, England; son of A. E. and Jossie (Seddon) Yates; educated at George Watson's College, Edinburgh; Edinburgh Univ., M.A. 1925; Member, British Home Civil Service, 1930; Imperial Defense College, 1938; Principal Private Secy., Ministry of Health, 1940; Principal Private Secy. to Minister of State in Middle East, 1942; Secy., Economic and Social Council, United Nations, since 1946. Residence: 36 Garden Pl., Hempstead, L. I. Office: Lake Success, Long Island, N. Y.

YAW, ELLEN BEACH, American Soprano; daughter of Ambrose and Mary Jane (Beach) Yaw; educated at Springville Inst.; Hamburg Acad.; studied voice with Mme. Hervor Torpadie, New York; Mme. Matilda Marchesi, Paris; Alberto Randegger, London; Maestro Bassacio, Naples; married Vere Goldthwaite (dec.); (2nd) Franklin Cannon (div.). Appearances: with Enrico Caruso on first engagement outside Italy, Monte Carlo; London Symphony Orchestra, under Sir Henry Wood; concerts in English Provinces and Ireland. Operatic debut, The Rose of Persia, written for her by Sir Arthur Sullivan, London. Sang grand opera in Rome, Naples and Catania. Metropolitan Opera Debut, Lucia di Lammermoor, under Heinrich Conried. Founded Lark Ellen Home for Boys, Los Angeles. Author: (poetry) Our Home; Love; Faith; Mother. Composed: California Springs Invitation; Cradle Song. Address: 601 Cameron Ave., Covina, Calif.

YBARRA y ROJAS, Dr. ANIBAL, Nicaraguan National Lottery Director; born Feb. 18, 1895, Leon, Nicaragua; son of José María Ybarra García and Tula Rojas Escoto; educated at Instituto Nacional de Occidente, León; B.A.; Valparaiso Univ.; Chicago Law School, LL.B.; National Univ. of Guatemala, D.J. 1922; Univ. of Bordeaux, France, 1919; Columbia University, New York, 1925; National University, Sureste, LL.M. 1927; married Berta Ocampo Barreto, Oct. 18, 1921; one son. Asst. Export Manager, Marshall Field & Co., Chicago, Ill.; Prof., Univ. of New Mexico, Albuquerque, 1920-21; teacher in public schools of New York City, 1923-25; with U. S. Army in France, 1917, 1918; Secy., Electoral Dept.; Director, La Informacion, Bluefields, Nicaragua, 1928; political exile in Honduras; admitted to the Bar and practiced law, 1931-34; Secy., National Com., Nationalist Party, 1935-36; Magistrate, Court of Appeals, Bluefields; Pres., National Defense Com., Zelaya, 1937-38; Magistrate, Court of Appeals, Septentrion; Under Secy., Ministry of Public Instruction, 1941-42; Under Secy., Ministry of Interior, 1943-45; Director, Instituto Indegenista de Nicaragua; Pres., Board of Public Welfare; Director, National Lottery, since 1945. Awarded: Military Medal, 1917; Medal of Distinction, 1918. Residence: 15 de Sept. and 14th Ave. Office: 4a Calle NE y 3a Ave. NE, Managua, D.N., Nicaragua.

YBARRA, THOMAS RUSSELL, American Writer; born 1880. Author: Davy Jones Yarns and Other Salted Songs, 1908; Bolivar, the Passionate Warrior, 1929; Cervantes, 1931; Hindenburg, the Man With Three Lives, 1932; American Faces South, 1939; Young Man of Caracas, 1941; Young Man of the World, 1942; Land of the Andes, 1947. Address: c/o I. Washburn, Inc., 29 W. 57th St., New York 19, New York.

YEATMAN, POPE, American Consulting Mining Engineer; born Aug. 3, 1861, St. Louis, Mo.; son of Thomas and Lucretia (Pope) Yeatman; educated at Washington Univ., St. Louis, Mo.; married Georgia Claibourne Watkins, 1894; three children. Engaged in mining, 1883-95; Mining Engineer until 1895; General Manager, Robinson Deep, 1895; General Manager, Simmer and Jack Proprietary Gold Mining Co., 1899; General Manager and Consulting Engineer of Randfontein Estates Gold Mine, 1899-1904. Consulting Engineer, 1904-05; Consulting Engineer, M. Guggenheim's Sons Co., 1905-16. Consulting Mining Engineer since 1916. Member: Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers; Mining and Metallurgical Soc. of Amer.; Amer. Soc. of Civil Engineers; Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Inst. of Mining and Metallurgy, London. Awarded Saunders' Medal, Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers; Medal of Soc. of Mining and Metallurgy. Address: 70 Pine St., New York, N. Y.

YEATS, JACK BUTLER, Irish Painter; son of John Butler and Susan Mary (Pollexfen) Yeats; educated privately in Sligo; Schools of Art in London; South Kensington, Chiswick, West London; Westminster; Hon. LL.D., Dublin; married Mary Cottenham White. Illustrator, in London, for various periodicals; earliest paintings were in watercolors, but for last 35 years he has been working only in oils. Governor, National Gallery of Ireland. Member: National Soc. of Painters, Sculptors and Engravers; Royal Hibernian Acad. of Ireland; Paintings in: Municipal Gallery, Dublin; Cork Municipal Gallery; Municipal Gallery, Limerick; Tate Gallery; National Gallery, Bloemfontein; City of Birmingham Art Gallery; Museum of Art, Cleveland, Ohio; Dundee Art Gallery, etc. Author: The Broadsheet, 1902-03; The Broadside, 1908-15; Life in the West of Ireland, 1912; Sligo, 1930; Sailing, Sailing Swiftly, 1933; Apparitions, 1933; The Amaranthers, 1936; The Charmed Life, 1938; Ah Well, 1942; And to You Also, 1944; (plays): Harelquin's Positions, 1939; La La Noo, 1942. Address: 18 Fitzwilliam Sq., Dublin, Ireland.

YEFROMOV, Prof. V. V., Soviet Scientist. Prof. at Institute of Central Hygiene, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Member of Soviet scientific expedition to study effects of weather exposure in the Arctic, 1946. Address: Institute of Central Hygiene, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YEGOLIN, A. M., Soviet Editor. Vice Chief of the Propaganda Department of the Central Committee of the All-Union Communist Party. Chief Editor of Zvezda, literary magazine. Address: Zvezda, Leningrad, U.S.S.R.

YEGOROV, IVAN, Soviet Agriculturist; born in village of Nastasino; married; two children. Learned weaving and saddle making at age of 12. Chairman, Pobeda (Victory) collective farm near Moscow. Member of Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. Soviet Delegate to various European countries. Address: Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YÉGUER, Rev. AURELIANO, O.S.B., Venezuelan Professor; born Jan. 21, 1910, Oberschondorf, Bavaria; son of Víctor and Karolina (Greither) Yéguer; received education at Institutos de la Orden Benedictina. Prof. at Inst. "Refugio Infantil para Varones," Maracay, 1933-35; Prof., "Instituto San José del Avila," Caracas, since 1935. Address: Instituto San José del Avila, Caracas, Venezuela.

YEH CHU-TSANG, Chinese Political Leader; born 1883, Kiangsu. Editor, Republican Daily News, Shanghai; Dean of School of Chinese, Futan Univ., Shanghai; Member, Shanghai Division, Central Political Council, 1927-28; Director of Publicity Department, Central Party Headquarters, 1928-29, 1935 and 1939; Chairman, Kiangsu Provincial Government, 1929-30; Secretary-General, Central Executive Committee of Kuomintang, 1939. Now Vice-President, Legislative Yuan; Member, Standing Committee, Kuomintang Central Executive Committee. Address: Legislative Yuan, Nanking, China.

YEH CHUN-CHAN, Chinese Writer and Lecturer; born 1915, Hupeh Province, China; son of Yun-Yao and Shi-Kung (Chao) Yeh; educated at National Wuhan Univ., B.A. 1936. Lectured at Inst. of English and German Languages, Tokyo, 1936-37; Educational Officer, Chinese Army, 1937-39; University Lecturer, Natl. Chungking Univ., 1940-41; Natl. Central Univ., 1942-44. Lecturer to Allied Forces and to British people as a guest of British Ministry of Information, 1944-45. Author: The Forgotten People, 1937; Fatherland, 1942; Agamemnon (translation from Aeschylus), 1944; The Ignorant and the Forgotten, 1946; The Mountain Village, 1946; presently writing a trilogy. Member, Federation of Chinese Writers. Address: Sylvan Press, 24-25 Museum St., London, W. C. 1, England.

YEHIA Pasha, ABDEL FATTAH, Egyptian Political Leader. Served as Deputy, later Senator and President of the Senate; Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1933-34; Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1937-40. Address: Egyptian Parliament, Cairo, Egypt.

YELM, CHARLES WALTER, American Manufacturer; born Nov. 5, 1883, Lafayette, Ind.; son of Charles Augustus and Jennie (Johnson) Yelm; educated at Purdue University, 1900-04, B.S.C.E. and C.E.; married Mary I. Weakley, Nov. 3, 1910; one daughter. Construction Engineer, 1904-06; Asst. Chief Engineer, Ottumwa Box-Car Loading & Bridge Co., 1906-10; Assoc. Engineer, Waddell and Harrington, 1910-14; Sales Manager, H. W. Moore & Co., 1916-18; Manager Tire Division, Gates Rubber Co., 1918-24; Consulting Industrial Engineer, 1924-29; Associate Engineer, Waddell & Hardesty, 1929-32. Vice-President, The Gates Rubber Co., since 1932; Vice-President, Copolymer Corp., since 1942. Director: The Gates Rubber Co.; Copolymer Corp. Residence: 2070 Cherry St. Office: 999 S. Broadway, Denver, Colo.

YEN, General HSI-SHAN, Chinese Army Officer, Administrator; born October, 1883, Hoblen Village, Wutai-hsien, North China; son of Yen Tze-ming and Mary Chii; educated at Taiyuan Military Academy, 1903; Tokyo Military Academy, 1909; married Hsu Chu-tsin, 1899; two children. Member of Chinese Revolutionary League of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, 1906; joined New Shansi Army as Commander of a regiment, 1909; Leader of Revolutionary Army of Shansi Province, 1911; overthrew Manchu regime in Shansi and was elected Governor, 1912. Appointed Chairman of Shansi Provincial Government, 1919, and started a new administration based upon a new system. Joined Kuomintang North Expeditionary Army, 1928, as Commander-in-Chief, 3rd Army Group, and captured Peking and Tientsin, 1929. Member of Central Executive of Kuomintang and Member of Chinese Government. Minister of Interior; Deputy Commander-in-Chief of Chinese Army and of Sea and Air Forces; Chairman of Council of Mongolia and Tibet; Vice-Chairman, National Military Council; Pacification Commissioner of Shansi and Suiyuan, 1932-45; now Comander-in-Chief, 2nd War Area and Chairman of Provincial Govt. of Shansi. Address: Taiyuen, Shansi, China.

YEN, Dr. WEICHING WILLIAMS, Chinese Statesman; born April 2, 1877, Shanghai, China; son of Rev. Y. K. and Chi Yen; educated at Univ. of Virginia, B.A. 1900; George Washington Univ., 1908; Hon. Litt.D., St. John's Univ., Shanghai; Imperial Academician, Peking Govt.; married T. Sun, 1911; six children. Secy., Chinese Legation, Washington, 1907; Secy., Foreign Office; Councillor, 1910; Vice-Minister, 1912; Minister Plenipotentiary to Berlin, Stockholm, Copenhagen, 1913-19; Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1920-21; Prime Minister, 1921; Minister of Commerce, of Interior and Prime Minister, 1922; Minister Plenipotentiary to Washington, D. C., 1931. Member of Council, League of Nations, 1932; 1st Delegate to Assembly, 1932, 1933, 1935; Ambassador to Moscow, 1933-35; now Chairman of Advisory Com., Shanghai Univ.; Chmn., Com. of Council for Far East UNRRA. Pres., Chinese Red Cross; Chmn., China Foundation; Chmn. and Member of Board of Dirs., Yenching, Nankai and St. John's Univs.; Dir., Tsing Hua Univ. Pres., Peking Political and Social Science Assn. Chmn.: S'hai Anti-Tuberculosis Assn.; Lester Chinese Hosp. Vice-Chmn., Inst. of Pacific Relations; Hon. Pres., Assn. of Diplomatic Relations. President: Continental, China Development Banks; Chee Hsin, Kiangnan Cement Cos.; New China Cotton Mills; Chiu An Industrial Co.; Tung Hwei Trading Co.; China Cement Industry Trade Union. Awarded: Swedish, Danish, Portuguese, Peruvian and Papal Decorations, 1st class; all Chinese decorations, 1st class; Grand Cordon, Legion of Honor. Author: English-Chinese Dictionary; Manual of Translation; Translator, Walker's Political Economy, Old Tales in New Garb; Autobiography. Address: 955 Chungcheng Rd., Central, Shanghai, China.

YEN WEN-YU, Prof., Chinese Librarian; born Sept. 1, 1904, Hanchuan District, Hupeh, China; son of Yen Chi-kuan and Li Chun-hsien; educated at Boone Library School (certificate) 1925; Central China Univ., B.A. 1925; Columbia Univ., New York, M.S. in Library Science, 1932; married Kou Hsien-hua, 1926; four children. Cataloguer, Metropolitan Library, Peiping, 1926-30; Custodian, Chinese Collection, Columbia Univ., 1930-32; Exchange Librarian, Prussian State Library and Berlin Univ. Library, 1932-33; Head of Cataloging and Reference Depts., Natl. Library of Peiping, 1933-35; Librarian, Natl. Univ. of Peking, Peiping, 1935-43; Natl. Southwest Associated Univ., Kunming, 1937-43; Assoc. Prof., Teachers' College, 1937-43; Prof. of Library Science, Natl. College of Social Education, Pishan, 1943-46; Director, Natl. Roosevelt Library, Chungking, since 1946. Member: Executive Com., Chinese Library Assn.; Chinese Inst. of Library Science; (Life) Chinese Library Assn. (since 1925). Author of many articles on library science, published in Chinese periodicals, including Boone Library School Quarterly, Library Quarterly, Bulletin of Chinese Library Assn.; Four Treasures Library (historical and critical study). Address: 56 Fu Hsing Rd., Chungking, China.

YEOMANS, Dr. FRANK C., American Proctologist; born in Stillwater, N. J.; son of Martin J. and Selina E. (Fleming) Yeomans; educated at Yale Univ., B.A. 1897; Cornell Univ. Med. College, M.D. 1900; married Estelle Louise Moreau, Nov. 6, 1906; one son. Prof. of Proctol., New York Polyclinic Med. School and Hosp., since 1924. Surgeon, New York City Cancer Inst., 1925-35; now Consulting Surgeon; Assoc. Surgeon, New York Hosp., 1920-41. Pres., Amer. Proctologic Soc., 1924. Chairman, Section on Gastroenterol. and Proctol. of Amer. Med. Assn., 1940-41. Fellow: Amer. College of Surgeons; New York Acad. of Med. Hon. Member, Royal Soc. of Med., London. Author: A Treatise on Proctology, 1929 (2nd ed. 1936); Sclerosing Therapy (Editor), 1939. Address: 555 Park Ave., New York, N. Y.

YEREMENKO, Army General ANDREI IVANOVICH, Soviet Officer; born 1883. Joined Red Army, 1920; served in World War I and Civil War; promoted from Lt. Gen. to Col. Gen., 1941; Army General, 1943 —. Commanded Stalingrad front; responsible for encirclement of 22 German divisions; wounded seven times in World War II. Awarded Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1941; Order of Suvorov, 1st degree, 1944; title of Hero of Soviet Union, Order of Lenin, Gold Star, 1944; Order of Lenin, 1945; Czechoslovak White Lion, 1945. Address: Ministry of Defense, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YERKES, Dr. ROBERT MEARNS, American Psychobiologist; born May 26, 1876, Breadysville, Pa.; son of Silas Marshall and Susanna Addis (Carrell) Yerkes; educated at Ursinus, A.B. 1897, LL.D. 1923; Harvard, A.B. 1898, A.M. 1899, Ph.D. 1902; Wesleyan University, D.Sc. 1923; Yale University, Hon. M.A. 1931. Teacher and Investigator, Harvard, 1901; Asst. Professor, Comparative Psychology, 1908-17. Psychologist to the Psychopathic Hospital, Boston, 1913-17; Professor, Psychology and Director of Psychology Laboratory, University of Minnesota, 1917-19. Chairman, Research Information Service, National Research Council, 1919-24. Professor, Psychology, Institute of Psychology, Yale, 1924-29; Professor of Psycho-biology, Yale, 1929-44; Professor Emeritus since 1944. Organized and directed Yale Laboratories of Primate Biology, Orange Park, Fla., 1929-41. Fellow: American Academy of Arts and Sciences; American Assn. for the Advancement of Science, etc. Member: National Academy of Sciences; American Philosophical Society; American Psychological Assn. (President, 1916-17); American Society of Naturalists (President, 1938), etc. Author: The Dancing Mouse: A Study in Animal Behavior, 1907; Introduction to Psychology, 1911; Methods of Studying Vision in Animals (with J. B. Watson), 1911; Outline of a Study of the Self (with D. W. LaRue), 1914; A Point Scale for Measuring Mental Ability (with R. S. Hardwick and J. W. Bridges), 1915; The Mental Life of Monkeys and Apes: A Study of Ideational Behavior, 1916; Psychological Examining in the United States Army (with others), 1921; Chimpanzee Intelligence and Its Vocal Expressions (with B. W. Learned), 1925; Almost Human, 1925; The Mind of a Gorilla, 1927-28; The Great Apes (with A. W. Yerkes), 1929; Chimpanzees: A Laboratory Colony, 1943. Address: Yale School of Medicine, New Haven, Conn.

YERMOLYEVA, Prof. ZINAIDA, Soviet Biochemist. Director, Dept. of Biochemistry of Microbes and Bacteriophage, Gorky All-Union Inst. of Experimental Medicine. First to experiment with Soviet-made penicillin in prophylaxis of wound infections. Awarded Stalin Prize, 1943. Address: Gorky All-Union Institute of Experimental Medicine, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YEZIERSKA, ANZIA, American Writer; born 1885. Author: Hungry Hearts, 1920; Children of Loneliness (stories of immigrant life in America), 1923; Salome of the Tenements, 1923; Bread Givers (a struggle between a father of the old world and a daughter of the new), 1925; Arrogant Beggar, 1927; All I Could Never Be, 1932. Address: 44 Morton St., New York, N. Y.

YGLESIAS RODRIGUEZ, Prof. BERNARDO RAFAEL, Costa Rican Agriculturist; born Apr. 23, 1896, San José, C. R.; son of Rafael and Manuela (Rodriguez) Yglesias; educated at Liceo, Costa Rica, 1909-14; Louisiana State Univ., B.S. and M.S. in Agriculture; married (1st) Clare Booker, Oct. 23, 1919; (2nd) Amalia Hernandez, Sept. 23, 1938; five children. Teacher of Biology and Spanish, Baton Rouge High School, La.; Prof. of Botany and Bacteriology, Louisiana State Univ., 1918-22; Director, Dept. of Agriculture, Costa Rica, 1923; Manager, Cía. Agricola Comercial, 1924; Founder and Director, Escuela Nacional de Agricultura, 1927-33; Dir. General of Agriculture, 1929-33; Head of Agricultural Dept., Banco Nacional de Costa Rica, 1934-35; Prof. of Animal Industry, Univ. of Costa Rica, 1940-45; Tech. Agricultural Dir., Cooperativa Agricola Industrial Victoria, since 1943; Technical Counsellor, Sonsejo Nacional de Produccion, since 1944; Agricultural Vice Manager, Banco Nacional de Costa Rica. Pres., Camara de Agricultura; Breeder, Ayrshire Cattle, since 1923. Residence: 1322 - 6th Ave. Office: Banco Nacional de Costa Rica, San Jose, Costa Rica.

YGOBONE, AQUILES D., Argentine Attorney; born Aug. 29, 1901, Santa Fé, Argentina; son of Angel S. Ygobone and Margarita Bernero de Y.; educated at Colegio Nacional Rivadavia de Buenos Aires; Universidad Nacional de Buenos Aires; married María Amadia Quadri Linari, Aug. 6, 1936. Practicing attorney since 1926; participated in economic-social congresses in Argentina and throughout America; Secy., Ateneo de C.E. de Derecho de Buenos Aires, later Pres. Director, Juridical Review (Revista Jurídica); Representative on Journal of the Faculty of Law. Former Member, Instituto Jurídico de Egresados de la Facultad de Derecho de Buenos Aires. Contributed extensively to professional journals of a Natl. and Internatl. character. Corresponding Member, Ateneo Nacional de Ciencias y Artes de México. Hon. Member, Instituto Nacional Sanmartiniano; Founding Member, Pres., Instituto Cultural Argentino-Venezolano; Instituto Cultural Argentino-Colombiano. Member: Permanent Board of Congreso de Territorios Nacionales; Colegio de Abogados de Buenos Aires; Asociación de Abogados. Vice-Pres., Comisión Indigenista Argentina; Second Vice-Pres., Federación Argentina de Amparo al Nativo; Founder and Pres., Asociación Amigos de la Patagonia; Pres. del Instituto Argentinto de Estudios Patagónicos. Member: Instituto Cultural Argentino-Mexicano; Instituto Argentino-Panameno; Grupo América; Sociedad Bolivariana de la República Argentina; Instituto Cultural Argentino-Heleno; Alianza Indo-Americana; Agrupación Cívica Confraternidad Argentina; Corporación Argentina de Cultura, etc. Author: El Deber Argentino Ante la Patagonia, and a series of studies in Patagonian affairs. Residence: Rividavia No. 1115, 3° Piso, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

YIN TSAN-HSUN, Chinese Geologist; born Feb. 23, 1902, Pinghsiang, Hopei, China; son of Jung-Hsiu and Lu Mei-ko; educated at National Univ. of Peking, 1909-23; Université de Lyon, France, 1925-31; Licencié ès Sciences, 1927; Docteur ès Sciences, 1931; married Liu Yueh-Fang, Dec. 1917; three daughters and one son. Junior Geologist, Natl. Geological Survey of China, June-Dec. 1931; Senior Geologist, 1932-39; Deputy Director, Jan.-May 1940; Director, 1940-42; Deputy Director, 1942-46; Senior Geologist and Chief Paleontologist, since Apr. 1946; Lecturer of Paleontology, National Univ. of Peking, 1933-34. Secy., Geological Soc. of China (Ex-Pres.). Member, Science Soc. of China. Author: Étude de la fanne du Tithonique coralligène du Gard et de l'Hérault (1 vol.), 1931; Gastropods of the Penchi and Taiyuan series of North China (1 vol.), 1932; Cephalopods of the Penchi and Taiyuan Series of North China (1 vol.), 1933; Upper Paleozoic Ammonoids of China (1 vol.), 1935. Address: National Geological Survey of China, 942 Chukiang Rd., Nanking, China.

YLLESCAS, Dr. FRANCISCO, Ecuadorean Diplomat; born April 1, 1900, Guayaquil, Ecuador; son of Carlos and Ramona (Barreiro) Yllescas; educated at Universidad de Guayaquil, Doctor of Law; married Mercedes Ycaza, July 1935; two children. Representative, Natl. Assembly, 1928-29; Minister to Peru, July 1945; Ambassador to Argentina, Sept. 1945; Ambassador to the U. S. since Nov. 1946. Chmn. of Ecuadorean Delegation, U. N. General Assembly, 1946. Pres., Caroline & Petropolis Oilfield, 1938-46; Compañía Petrolera del Ecuador, 1942-46. Decorations: Gran Cruz al Merito, del Ecuador; Grand Cruz al Merito, de Argentina. Residence: 2320 Bancroft Place. Office: 2125 LeRoy Place, N.W., Washington, D. C.

YLPPÖ, Dr. ARVO (HENRIK), Finnish Pediatrician; born Nov. 27, 1887, Finland; son of Heikki and Henrika (Maunu) Ylppö; educated at Univ. of Helsinki, medical approbation, M.D. 1914; Univ. of Königsberg, Hon. M.D.; married Mariatta Wegelius. Apr. 8, 1925; two children. Asst. and Chief Asst. Physician at Kaiserin Auguste-Victoria Haus, Charlottenburg, Berlin, 1912-20. Extraordinary Prof. of Pediatrics, Univ. of Helsinki, 1921; Ordinary Prof. of Pediatrics since 1925. Director: Children's Clinic, Helsinki; Children's Castle of Helsinki. Chairman, General Mannerheim's Child Welfare League; Chairman, Directorate of General Univ. Hospital, Helsinki. Member: Italian Soc. of Pediatrics; German Soc. of Pediatrics; Hungarian Soc. of Pediatrics; Finnish Soc. of Pediatrics; Finnish Acad. of Science. Commander, Finnish White Cross, 2nd class. Author: Children's Diseases, 1932; Icterus Neonatorum, 1913; Diseases of the Premature and Newborn Children. Address: Helsinki University, Helsinki, Finland.

YLVISAKER, Rev. Dr. NILS MARTIN, American Clergyman; born Mar. 23, 1882, Sogndal, Sogn, Norway; son of Johannes T. (D.Th.) and Kristi (Flugum) Ylvisaker; educated at Luther College, B.A. 1902; Graduate School, Univ. of Minnesota, 1902-03, 1921-23; Luther Seminary of St. Paul, C.T. 1906; Univ. of Oslo, Norway, 1923-24; Augustana College, D.D.; Muehlenberg Collegge, Litt. D.; married Karine Elizabeth Magelssen, June 22, 1910; one son. Ordained Minister, 1906. Lutheran Pastor, Mohall, N. D., 1906-08; Pastor, Christ Church, St. Paul, 1908-10; Our Saviour's Church of Chicago, 1908-17. Executive Secy., Young People's Luther League, 1919-41; Director, Service Men's Division, Natl. Lutheran Council, since 1941. Secy., Youth Commn., Amer. Lutheran Conference, 1930-40. Chairman, Youth Commn., Lutheran World Convention, 1939. Pres., Chaplain's Assn. of Army and Navy of U. S., since 1938. Decorated by King Haakon VII of Norway with Medal of St. Olav. Author: The Glory Road; Faces Toward God; No Other Way; Service Prayer Book; Trumpets of God. Capt. (Chaplain) in Officers Reserve Corps, 1925; Major (Chaplain), 1940. Assoc. Editor, The Army Chaplain, 1930-38. Address: 915 Metropolitan Bank Bldg., Minneapolis 2, Minnesota.

YNTEMA, Dr. HESSEL EDWARD, American Professor of Law; born Jan. 17, 1891, St. Johns, Mich.; son of Douwe Bouke and Mary Elizabeth (Loomis) Yntema; educated at Hope College, A.B. 1912, A.M. 1915; University of Michigan, A.M. 1913, Ph.D. 1919; Oxford University, B.A. (Juris) 1917; Harvard Unversity, S.J.D. 1921; married Ida Olive Danhof, Aug. 18, 1917; three children. Lecturer in Roman Law and Comparative Jurisprudence, Columbia University, 1921-23; Assistant Professor of Roman Law and Comparative Jurisprudence, 1923-25; Associate Professor, 1925-28; Professor, 1928; Professor of Law, The Institute of Law, Johns Hopkins, 1928-33; Visiting Professor of Law, University of Michigan, 1933-34; Professor of Law since 1934. Editor, Michigan Legal Studies, since 1939. Director, Research in Inter-American Law, since 1942. Address: Hutchins Hall, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

YNTEMA, Dr. THEODORE OTTE, American Economist; born in Holland, Mich., Apr. 8, 1900; son of Douwe Bauke and Mary E. (Loomis) Yntema; educated at Hope College, A.B. 1921; Univ. of Illinois, A.M. (Chemistry), 1922; Univ. of Chicago, A.M. (Business) 1924, Ph.D. 1929; married Virginia G. Heigho, July 31, 1939. Joined Faculty of School of Business, Univ. of Chicago, 1923; Prof. since 1930. Director of Research, Cowles Commn. for Research in Economics, 1939-42; Research Director, Com. for Economic Development, since 1942. Director, Natl. Bureau of Economic Research, since 1941. Consulting Economist to NRA, 1934-35; Chief of Statistics and Economics, Division of Industrial Materials, Defense Commn., 1940; Special Consultant to War Shipping Administration, 1942. Fellow: Econometric Soc.; Amer. Statistical Assn. Member, Amer. Economics Assn. Author: A Mathematical Reformulation of the General Theory of International Trade, 1932; various other articles, etc. Address: University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

YORK, AMOS CHESLEY, American Lawyer; born Oct. 11, 1884, Rockport, Mass.; son of Charles F. and Marietta (Lufkin) York; educated at Boston Univ., LL.B. 1906; Portia Law School, Hon. Litt. D. 1937; married Hortense E. Stanhope, Sept. 3, 1913. Began career as lawyer, 1906. Asst. Attorney General, Mass., 1921-27; Asst. U. S. Attorney, District of Mass., 1927-34; Park Commnr., Medford, 1925-34; Prof. of Law, Suffolk and Portia Law Schools, 1908-34; Pres., Trustees, Portia Law School, since 1926; Dean, Portia Law School, since 1943. Member, Devine, York & Volpe. Member: Amer. Bar Assn.; Massachusetts Law Soc.; Middlesex Bar Assn. Address: 11 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

YORKE, VINCENT WODEHOUSE, British Financier; born London, England; son of John Reginald and Sophie (de Tuyll) Yorke; educated at Eton College; King's College, Cambridge, M.A.; married Maud Evelyn Wyndham, Aug. 24, 1899; two children. Director of Westminster Bank Ltd., since 1904; Chairman of Mexican Railway Ltd., since 1910; Chairman, National Provident Institution. Awarded Gold Cross of Redeemer of Greece. Served as Captain, Royal Gloucester Hussars, Yeomanry. Residence: 1 Hyde Park St. Office: 9-13 George St., Manchester Sq., London, W. 1, England.

YOSHIDA, SHIGERU, Japanese Statesman; born Sept. 22, 1878, Tokyo, Japan; son of Tsuna and Takiko Takeuchi; educated at Tokyo Imperial Univ., grad. 1906; married Yukiko Makino, March 10, 1909; four children. Attaché, Foreign Office, 1906; assigned to Consulate at Mukden, 1907; to Consulate-General in London, 1908; Third Secy. of Embassy, Rome, 1909; Consul, Antung, 1912; Acting Head, Section of Archives in Secretariat of Minister for Foreign Affairs, 1917; Consul at Tsinau, 1918; wtih 1st Section Bureau of Commission Affairs, 1918; Member, Delegation to Peace Treaty, 1920; First Secretary, London, 1920; Consul-Gen., Tientsin, 1922, and at Mukden, 1925; E.E. and M.P., Sweden, 1928 (did not proceed to post); Vice-Minister for Foreign Affairs, 1928; A.E. and P., Italy, 1930. Delegate to Reparations Conf., Lausanne, 1932; Delegate to Extraordinary Meeting, General Assembly, League of Nations, Geneva, 1932; A.E. and P., England, 1936-38, Foreign Minister, 1945-46. Appointed a nominated member of House of Peers, Dec. 1945. Prime Minister, Foreign Minister concurrently, 1946-47. Pres., Liberal Party, renamed Democratic Liberal Party, since 1946. Member, House of Representatives, since 1947. Decorated: Knight Commander, Victorian Order (England); Grand Croix de l'Ordre des Sanits Maurice et Lazarus (Italy); First Class of Grand Cordon of the Rising Sun (Japan). Address: Oiso-machi, Kanagawa-ken. Address: Villa Tekigaiso, Nishida-machi, Suginami-ku, Tokyo, Japan.

YOUNG, BENJAMIN LORING, American Lawyer; born Nov. 7, 1885, Weston, Mass.; son of Benjamin L. and Charlotte Wright (Hubbard) Young; educated at Noble & Greenough School; Harvard, A.B. 1907, LL.B. (cum laude) 1911; married (2nd) Priscilla Curtis Ames, July 14, 1938; four children. Admitted to Mass. Bar, 1911, and began practice with Ropes, Gray & Gorham; became Member of Ropes, Gray, Boyden & Perkins, 1925-38. U. S. Referee in Bankruptcy (Boston, Mass.), 1925-41. President, National Assn. of Referees in Bankruptcy, 1940-41. Member, House of Representatives (Mass.), 1916-24 (Speaker, 1921-24). Practicing law individually since 1938. Member, Board of Selectmen of Weston, since 1910, Chairman since 1925. Member, Massachusetts State Board of Parole and Advisory Board of Pardons, 1913-15. Member, Harvard Board of Overseers, 1922-28. Chairman, Massachusetts Board of Probation, 1927-43. Member, Commission of Probation, 1943-44. Member: American and Massachusetts State Bar Assns.; Bar Assn. of the City of Boston. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Residence: Weston 93, Mass. Office: 75 Federal St., Boston 10, Mass.

YOUNG, CHARLES MORRIS, American Painter; born Sept. 23, 1869, Gettysburg, Pa.; son of Christopher B. and Anna Louise (Swisher) Young; educated at Pennsylvania Acad. of Fine Arts; Paris, France; married Eliza Middleton Coxe, 1903; four children. Exhibited at Pennsylvania Acad., 1892. Represented in permanent collections of National Galleries, Budapest, Hungary; Philadelphia Acad. of Fine Arts; Corcoran Gallery, Washington, D. C.; Buffalo and Rochester Museums; Reading Art Gallery; Tennessee Art Gallery. Awards: Four Gold Medals; Three Silver Medals. Address: Hare's Lane, Radnor, Pa.

YOUNG CHUNG-CHIEN, Dr. (C. C. Young), Chinese Geologist; born 1897, Huahsien, Shensi, China; son of Ho-Nien and Mi-Fung; educated at Peking Natl. Univ., B.Sc. 1923; Univ. of Munich, Germany, Ph.D. 1927; married Wang Kuo Chen, Apr. 10, 1930; three children. Geologist, Natl. Geological Survey, Peking, 1928; Lecturer, Natl. Univ. of Peking, 1930-36; Normal Univ., Peking, 1930-35; Vice-Director, Cenezore Research Laboratory, National Univ., 1930-40; Prof., Chungking Univ., 1940; Director, Cenozore Laboratory, Natl. Geological Survey, China, since 1940. Member: Geological Soc. of China (Council 1930-46); Science Soc. of China; Geological Soc. of Germany; Palaeontological Soc. of Germany; Geographical Soc. of Germany; Soc. of Vertebrate Palaeontology, U. S. A.; Soc. of Mammalogists, U. S. A. Awarded Graban Medal, Geological Soc. of China, 1937; Scholar Prize of the Minister of Education, 1943. Author: Complete Osterology of Lufengeranns Horeni and over 64 scientific papers. Address: 942 Chukiang Rd., Nanking, China.

YOUNG, Col. CLARENCE MARSHALL, American Aeronautical Executive; born Colfax, Iowa, July 23, 1889; son of Theodore G. and Ella (Foy) Young; student, Drake Univ.; Yale Univ., LL.B., 1910; married Lois Moran, Feb. 10, 1935; one son. Admitted to Iowa bar, 1910, and practiced at Des Moines; Exec. Secy., Municipal Research Bureau, Des Moines, 1922-25; Director, Aeronautics, U. S. Dept. of Commerce, 1926-29; Asst. Secy. of Commerce for Aeronautics, 1929-33. Manager Transpacific Division, Pan American Airways, 1934-45; Member, U. S. Civil Aeronautics Board, 1946-47. Member, Air Service, U. S. A., 1917-19; overseas 18 mos., including 5 mos. as prisoner of war, Austria. Decorated Comdr. Order of the Crown (Italy). Col., U. S. Specialist Res. Corps. Member: Inst. of Aeronautical Science; Royal Aeronautical Soc. of London; Acacia. Residence: 1940 Vallejo St., San Francisco, Calif.

YOUNG, CLARENCE RICHARD, Canadian Engineer; born Feb. 4, 1879, near Picton, Ont., Canada; son of Maitland V. and Jane Ann (Carley) Young; educated at University of Toronto, B.A.Sc. in 1905; C.E. 1914; married Miriam Lucille Temple, May 16, 1908; two children. Draftsman, Checker, Designer and Estimator in the Bridge Department of the Canada Foundry Co., Ltd., Toronto, 1906-07; Asst. Engineer, Smith, Kerry & Chace, Consulting Engineers, Toronto, 1907. Lectured in Structural Engineering and was Professor, Structural Engineering, 1907-29; Professor, Civil Engineering, 1929-41, University of Toronto; Dean, Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering, since 1941. In consulting engineering practice since 1907. Ex-President, Engineering Institute of Canada; Ex-Vice-President, Royal Canadian Institute. Made hon. Dr. of Eng., Stevens Institute of Technology, 1943; hon. Dir. of Applied Science, Univ. of Montreal, 1946. Author: Structural Problems (N. Y.), 1929, 1935; Engineering Law (with Mr. Justice R. E. Laidlaw, Toronto), 1937, 1941; Elementary Military Law (Toronto), 1939, Engineering and Society (with J. H. Dales), 1946, etc. Address: University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada.

YOUNG, Dr. DONALD RAMSEY, American Sociologist; born July 5, 1898, Macungie, Pa.; son of Jonas Francis and Mary Catherine (Rems) Young; educated at Lafayette College, A.B. 1919; Univ. of Penna., A.M. 1920, Ph.D. 1922; married Ada Wise, Dec. 19, 1925. Asst. Instr., 1919. Instr., 1920, Asst. Prof. and Prof. of Sociology, Wharton School, Univ. of Penna. Served as Secy. for Fellowships and Grants-in-Aid, Social Science Research Council; later Exec. Dir. Gen. Director, Russell Sage Foundation, 1947—. Pres., National Council on Naturalization and Citizenship. Director: Indian Rights Assn. Common Council for Amer. Unity; National Conf. on Christians and Jews. Member, Amer. Philosophical Soc. Author: American Minority Peoples, 1932; Motion Pictures; A Study in Social Legislation, etc. Address: Russell Sage Foundation, 130 E. 22nd St., New York, N. Y.

YOUNG, DWIGHT E., American Newspaper Editor; born Jan. 1, 1884, Eldorado, Ill.; son of Warren and Fidelia Frances (Cox) Young; educated at James Milliken Univ., 1903-06; married Daisy Venita Payne, Nov. 4, 1909. College Reporter, Decatur (Ill.) Herald, 1903-06; Police Reporter, 1906; Asst. City Editor, 1907; City Editor, 1908-10. City Editor, Daily Oklahoman, 1911-12; Managing Editor, Richmond (Ind.) Item, 1913-17; Editorial Writer, Dayton (Ohio) Herald, 1918-20; Editor-in-Chief, Dayton Journal Herald, since 1920. Secy., Amer. Soc. of Newspaper Editors. Residence: 1745 Catalpa Dr. Office: Dayton Journal-Herald, Dayton, Ohio.

YOUNG, E(MILY) H(ILDA), British Writer; born 1880. Athor: Younder, 1912; William, 1925; Moor Fires, 1927; The Malletts, 1927; The Vicar's Daughter, 1928; Miss Mole, 1930; Jenny Wren, 1932; Celia, 1937. Address: c/o Jonathan Cape, Ltd., 30 Bedford Square, London, W.C. 1, England.

YOUNG, FRANCIS BRETT, British Author; born 1884; educated at Epsom College, Univ. of Birmingham, M.B.; married Jessie Hankinson, 1908. Author: Robert Bridges, A Critical Study, 1913; Undergrowth (with E. Brett Young), 1913; Deep Sea, 1913; The Dark Tower, 1914; The Iron Age, 1916; Five Degrees South (poems), 1917; The Crescent Moon, 1918; Marching on Tanga, 1918; The Young Physician, 1919; Poems, 1919; The Tragic Bride, 1920; The Black Diamond, 1921; The Red Knight, 1921; Pilgrim's Rest, 1922; Woodsmoke, 1924; Cold Harbour, 1924; Sea Horses, 1925; Portrait of Clare (awarded James Tait Black Memorial Prize), 1927; The Key of Life, 1928; My Brother Jonathan, 1928; Black Roses, 1929; Jim Redlake, 1930; Mr. and Mrs. Pennington, 1931; The House Under the Water, 1932; The Cage Bird and Other Stories, 1933 This Little World, 1934; White Ladies, 1935; Far Forest, 1936; They Seek a Country, 1937; Portrait of a Village, 1937; Dr. Bradley Remembers, 1938; The City of Gold, 1939; Mr. Lucton's Freedom, 1940; Cotswold Honey, 1940; A Man About the House, 1942; Island, 1946, etc. Address: c/o Heinemann, Ltd., 99 Great Russell St., London, W.C. 1, England.

YOUNG, Sir FREDERICK WILLIAM, Kt., British Banker; born Jan. 1876, Blyth, South Australia; son of John and Isabella Young; educated at Prince Alfred College and Univ. of Adelaide, South Australia, LL.B.; widower; one son. Solicitor and Barrister, 1897; Member of House, South Australia, 1902-05, 1912-15; Minister for Crown Lands, 1912-15. Agent General for South Australia in London, 1915-18. Member, House of Commons, Great Britain, 1918-22. Director of English, Scottish and Australian Bank Ltd., since 1918; now Chairman. Director, The Australian Estates Co. Ltd., since 1924; now Chairman. Member of Bd., Royal National Hospital for Diseases of the Chest, Ventnor, Isle of Wight. Member, Bd. of Governors, The Seamen's Hosp., Greenwich, England. Residence: Thornton Hall, Bletchley, Bucks. Office: 3 Gracechurch St., London, E.C. 3, England.

YOUNG, Dr. GEORGE ALEXANDER, American Neuropsychiatrist; born Feb. 26, 1876, London, England; son of Richard Rumsey and Sarah (Sacret) Young; educated at Chicago Homeopathic Med. College, 1900; married Abigail Frances Keating, Feb. 18, 1903; four children. Pathol., Lincoln State Hosp., 1902-05; Asst. Supt. until 1906. Supt. of Norfolk State Hosp., 1906-09; Clinical Clerk, National Hosp. for Paralyzed and Epileptic, London, England, 1909-10. Prof. of Neurol. and Psych., Creighton Med. College, 1912-16. Chairman, Dept. of Nervous and Mental Diseases, Univ. of Nebr. College of Med., since 1916. Consulting Neurol. and Psych., University, Douglas County, Lutheran and Methodist Hosps., Omaha, Nebr. Diplomate, Amer. Bd. of Neurol. and Psych. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Psychopathol. Assn.; Amer. Psych. Assn.; Central Neuropsych. Assn., etc. Author of publications in medical journals. Residence: 116 N. 38th Ave. Office: 1436 Medical Arts Bldg., Omaha, Nebr.

YOUNG, HOWARD I., American Industrialist; born March 20, 1889, Jasper Co., Mo.; son of Isaac E. and Sallie (Davidheiser) Young; educated at Stotts City (Mo.) High School and Springfield (Mo.) Business School; married Myrtle Lee Mason, Oct. 17, 1911; three children. Joined American Zinc, Lead and Smelting Co. as bookkeeper, 1908; cashier and office manager, 1909-14. Manager of Missouri mines, 1914-19; Vice-Pres. and Mine Manager, 1919-28 and Vice-Pres. in charge of all operations, 1928-30. Pres. and Dir. of the American Zinc, Lead and Smelting Co. and all the Company's subsidiaries since 1930. Pres. and Dir., Amer. Zinc Inst., American Mining Congress. Director: National Association of Manufacturers; Associated Industries of Missouri; Southern States Industrial Council; Mississippi Valley Trust Co.; Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.; Lindenwood College; Baltimore & Ohio R.R. Co. Chmn. Adv. Cl., General American Life Insurance Co. Trustee, Washington University. Served as Director of Minerals Bureau and Mineral Resources Coordinating Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., 1943-44, and Deputy Vice-Chairman for Metals and Minerals, W.P.B., 1944. Residence: Country Life Acres, Clayton, St. Louis County, Mo. Office: 818 Olive St., St. Louis, Mo.

YOUNG, JAMES, British Trade Union Official; born Oct. 1, 1887, Edinburgh, Scotland; son of David Storrie and Henrietta (Martin) Young; educated at George Heriot's School, Edinburgh, Scotland, 1899-1904; married Margaret Cowan Smith Finlay, Feb. 21, 1914; one son. Engineer, Brown Bros. & Co., Edinburgh, 1904, transferred to Drawing Office as Apprentice Draughtsman, 1909; Journeyman Engineering Draughtsman until 1913. Marine Engineering Draughtsman, John Brown & Co., Engineers and Shipbuilders, Clydebank, 1913-18; Marine Engine Draughtsman, Barclay Curle & Co., Glasgow, 1918-19; Asst. General Secy., Assn. of Engineering & Shipbuilding Draughtsmen, 1920-29; Divisional Organizer, 1929-45; now General Secy., Assn. of Engineering and Shipbuilding Draughtsmen. Member, General Council, Scottish Trades Union Congress, 1932-45; Chairman, 1935-36, and 1944-45. Pres., Scottish Trades Union Congress, 1936, 1945. Member: Scottish Regional Board Ministry of Production, 1940-45; Executive Com., Scottish Development Council, 1935-45; Workers Panel Natl. Arbitration Tribunal, 1944-45; Advisory Council on Education, Scotland, 1944-46; Shipyard Group Council, Confederation Shipbuilding and Engineering Trade Unions, since 1944. Residence: 22 Gourock Rd., London, S.E. 9. Office: 96 St. Georges Sq., London, S.W. 1, England.

YOUNG, Dr. JAMES THOMAS, American Political Scientist; born 1873, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Andrew J. and Louisa (Adams) Young; educated at Central High School of Philadelphia; Wharton School, Univ. of Pennsylvania, Ph.B., Litt.D. 1940; Univs. of Halle and Wittenberg (Ph.D.). Instructor, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1896; Member of Faculty since that time and is now retired Prof. in Public Administration. Director, Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1994-12. Former Vice-Pres., Amer. Political Science Assn. Author: The New American Government (4th ed.), 1940; also works and articles on direct legislation, public administration and university training for business. Address: University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa.

YOUNG, Hon. JOHN CARLTON, American Jurist; born Dec. 20, 1886, Shelby Co., Ia.; son of David Pierce and Ellen Nevada (Pett) Young; educated at the University of Missouri School of Law; married Irene Xetah Lawrence, Oct. 19, 1913; two sons. Began law career when he was admitted to Bars of Missouri, 1912. California, 1914; Colorado, 1915; practiced in Colorado Springs, 1915-31. County attorney, El Paso County, 1923-25. Partner, Young and Meikle, 1925-31. District Attorney, Fourth Judicial District, 1925-31; District Judge, 1931-35. Justice, Colorado Supreme Court, 1935-45; Chief Justice, 1941-45. Residence: 624 North Nevada. Office: 501 Mining Exchange Bldg., Colorado Springs, Colo.

YOUNG, Dr. JOHN SHAW, American Administrator; born Aug. 3, 1901, Springfield, Mass.; son of Philip Franklin and Anne (Shaw) Young; educated at Syracuse Univ.; Yale Univ.; Univ. of Cambridge, England; Royal University of Uppsala, Sweden; hon. D.Sc. and LL.D., St. Benedict's College and Suffolk University. Radio executive, 1928; Assistant Naval Attaché, American Embassy, Moscow, 1942; Director of Public and Cultural Relations between United States and Soviet Union, 1943. Aide to Under-Secretary of the Navy, 1944; Aide and Executive Officer, Office of Secretary of the Navy; combined Commission on North African Affairs and British American Committee on French Empire Economic Affairs, State Department, 1944. Assistant Administrator and Inspector General, Foreign Economic Administration, 1945. U. S. Commissioner for Economic Rehabilitation and War Damage, Philippine Islands, 1946. Residence: 160 Central Park S., New York, N. Y.

YOUNG, KENNETH M., American Film Executive; born Nov. 27, 1893, Canadian, Texas; son of David John and Mary Arabella (Moody) Young; educated at Culver Military Acad.; Business School, Kansas City, Mo.; married Lura Baker Stickley, June 22, 1916; two daughters. Pres., First Natl. Bank, Canadian, Texas, until 1939. Pres., Pathe Film Corp., 1939-41; now Pres., Pathe Industries, Inc. Chairman of Board, PRC Pictures, Inc., PRC Studios Inc., and affiliated companies. Address: 2467 Glendower Ave., Hollywood, Calif.

YOUNG, LEONARD AUGUSTUS, American Industrialist; born Jan. 31, 1877, Chicago; son of James and Eveline (Bennett) Young; educated at Bryant and Stratton Business College; married Ola Butcher, 1907; a son and a daughter. Started manufacturing springs in 1908, and organized L. A. Young Spring & Wire Corp., of which is Chmn. of the Board and Pres. Also Pres. of L. A. Youn gIndustries of Canada, Ltd., Star Service Hanger Co., Detroit Moulding Co. and Bowen Products Corp. Residence: 918 W. Boston. Office: 9200 Russell St., Detroit, Mich.

YOUNG, Dr. LLOYD PERCY, American College President; born Dec. 7, 1898, Roberts, Ill.; son of William H. and Lucia M. (Kennedy) Young; educated at Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia, B.S. 1922; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1929, Ph.D. 1931; married Dorothy E. Mirth, Aug. 18, 1924; two sons. High school teacher, Liberal, Kansas, 1923; High school principal, Elmdale, Kansas, 1925-28; Director of Research, Holyoke, Mass., 1930-32; Supt. of Schools, Berlin, N. H., 1932-39; President, Keene Teachers College, Keene, N. H., 1939 —. President, Keene Community Concerts Assn.; Director, Keene Community Forum. Author: Administration of Merit-Rating Salary Schedules, 1932. Address: Keene Teachers College, Keene, N. H.

YOUNG, LORETTA, American Motion Picture Actress; born Jan. 6, 1913, Salt Lake City, Utah; daughter of Earl and Gladys (Royal) Young; educated at Immaculate Heart Convent, Ramona oCnvent, St. Thomas's, St. Brendan and Sacred Heart Convent; married Grant Withers, Jan. 26, 1930 (divorced Sept. 15, 1931); (2nd) Col. Thomas H. A. Lewis, 1940; three children. Appeared in many productions, including "Naughty But Nice," "Laugh Clown, Laugh," "The Squall," Scarlet Seas" "The Girl in the Glass Cage," "Fast Life," "Careless Age," "Loose Ankles," "The Right of Way," "Road to Paradise," "The Second Floor Mystery," "The Ruling Voice," "The Hon. Mr. Wong," "Big Business Girl," "I Like Your Nerve," "Play Girl," "Taxi," "Week-end Marriage," "Life Begins," "They Call It Sin," "Grand Slam," "Heroes for Sale," "She Had to Say No," "Zoo in Budapest," "The Devil's in Love," "The Kid's Last Fight," "Midnight Mary," "A Man's Castle," "The House of Rothschild," "Born to Be Bad," "The White Parade," "Clive of India," "Call of the Wild," "Crusades," "Shanghai," "The Unguarded Hour," "Private Number," "Ramona," "Ladies in Love," "Love Is News," "Cafe Metropole," "Love Under Fire," "Wife, Doctor and Nurse," "Second Honeymoon," "Four Men and a Prayer," "Three Blind Mice," "Suez," "Kentucky," "Wife, Husband and Friend," "The Story of Alexander Bell," "Eternally Yours," "The Doctor Takes a Wife," "He Stayed for Breakfast," "The Lady From Cheyenne," "The Men in Her Life," "Bedtime Story," "A Night to Remember," "China," "And Now Tomorrow, "Ladies Couraegous," "Rachel," "The Bishop's Wife," "The Farmer's Daughter" (received Motion Picture Acad. of Arts and Sciences Award for best actress of 1947 (1948). Residence: Holmb Hills, Calif.

YOUNG, MAHONRI MACKINTOSH, American Sculptor, Painter, Etcher; born Aug. 9, 1877, Salt Lake City, Utah; son of Mahonri M. and Agnes (Mackintosh) Young; pupil of J. T. Harwood in Drawing, Salt Lake City, Utah; Art Students League, N.Y.C.; Julien Acad., Colarossi and Delacluse Acads., Paris, France, drawing, painting, sculpture; married Cecelia Sharp, Feb. 1907; two children; (2nd) Dorothy Weir, Feb. 1931. Exhibited at Paris Salon, 1903, drawings, etchings, 1904; watercolors, sculpture, 1905; sculpture pastels, N. Y. C., 1912. Gave many one man shows. Represented in Metropolitan Museum of Art, Whitney Museum, Public Library, Brooklyn Museum of Arts & Sciences, N. Y. C.; Providence, R. I.; Worcester, Mass.; Addison Gal., Andover, Mass.; Baltimore, Md.; Atlanta, Ga.; Brookfield Gardens, S. C.; Cleveland, Ohio; Salt Lake City, etc. Works include: sculpture on monument to the Dead, Paris, France; Sea Gull Monument, Portrait Statues, Fiel Day Relief, Salt Lake City, Utah; Father Keno Monument, Tucson, Ariz.; Hopi, Apache, Navajo Groups, Museum of Natural History, N. Y. C. Past Vice-Pres.; Etching Soc.; Natl. Sculpture Soc.; Inst. of Arts & Letters; N. O.; Member: Water Color Soc., N. Y. C.; Soc. of American Etchers; Natl. Sculpture Soc. Founding Member, Armory Show; Member, New Soc.; Soc. of Utah Artists. Received Medal and Prizes, Utah Art Inst.; Helen Foster Barnet Award for Sculpture N.A.D.; Hon. Mention, Buenos Aires Sculpture; First Prize Sculpture Los Angeles, Calif. Olympic Games; Portrait Prize, N.A.D. Author of article on Modeling, Encyclopedia Britannica. At work on "This is the Place" Monument for Salt Lake City, Utah (largest and most important of career). Address: Ridgefield, Connecticut.

YOUNG, Hon. MILTON R., U. S. Senator from North Dakota; born Dec. 6, 1897, Berlin, N. D.; son of John and Rachel (Zimmerman) Young; educated at North Dakota State College, 1915-16; Graceland College, Lamoni, Iowa, 1916-17; married Malinda V. Benson, July 7, 1919; three children. Member of North Dakota House of Representatives, 1933-35; Member, State Senate of North Dakota, 1935-45; President pro-tem, 1941; Majority Floor Leader, 1943-45. Republican State Campaign Manager, 1940, 1942 and 1944; Campaign Manager for Willkie Farm Voters, North and South Dakota, 1940; Member of Governmental Survey Commission, 1941-45. United States Senator for North Dakota since Mar. 19, 1945. Residence: Shoreham Hotel. Office: 448 Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

YOUNG, OWEN D., American Industrialist; born Oct. 27, 1874, Van Hornesville, N. Y.; son of Jacob Smith and Ida (Brandow) Young; educated at St. Lawrence Univ., 1894, D.H.L., 1923; LL.B., Boston Univ., 1896; LL.D., Union College, Schenectady, 1922; Tufts, Harvard, Dartmouth, 1924; Johns Hopkins, Colgate, Yale, Columbia, 1925; Rutgers, Princeton, Lehigh, 1926; Brown Univ., Univ. of State of New York, 1928; Hamilton, 1929; University of California, 1930; Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., 1931; Notre Dame, 1932; Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., 1933; University of Nebraska, 1934; Marietta College, 1935; Litt.D., Rollins College, 1935; D.C.S., New York University, 1927; LL.D., Syracuse University, 1940, and Univ. of Buffalo, 1946; married Josephine Sheldon Edmonds of Southbridge, Mass., 1898 (deceased); five children; married (2nd) Mrs. Louise Powis Clark. Practiced law in Boston in 1896; Member of firm of Tyler & Young until 1913; Instructor in Common Pleadings at Boston Univ., 1896-1973. Moved to New York City in 1913 as counsel for General Electric Co. of which was Vice-Pres. until 1922. Chairman of the Board, 1922-39; now Chairman of Directors. Chairman of the Board, Radio Corp. of America until 1929 (Chairman, Executive Committee until 1933); Chairman, Advisory Council of National Broadcasting Co.; Dir., American & Foreign Power Co.; New York Life Insurance Co.; Class B. Director, Federal Reserve Bank of New York, 1923-27; Class C. Director, 1927-40; Deputy Chairman, 1927-38, and Chmn., 1938-44. Member, First Com. of Experts appointed by Reparation Commn. and unofficial adviser at London Conference of Premiers, 1924; Agent General for Reparation Payments ad interim, 1924; Member, Committee on Recent Economic Changes, 1928; Honorary Economic Adviser, Natl. Govt. of China, 1928. Chmn., 2nd Com. of Experts appointed by Reparation Commission in 1929; Chairman, Committee on Mobilization Relief Resources of President Hoover's Organization for Unemployment Relief, 1931; Councilor of National Industrial Conf.

Board; Chmn., International Chamber of Commerce, 1925-29; Trustee, St. Lawrence Univ., 1912-34; Member, Visiting Com., Harvard Univ. Library and Natl. Advisory Board, Yale Institute of Human Relations; American Youth Commission, 1936; Member, Board of Regents of State of New York; Chmn., Phi Beta Kappa Foundation, 1932-35, etc. Residence: Van Hornesville, N. Y. Office: 570 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y.

YOUNG, PERCY SACRET, American Utilities Executive; born Dec. 19, 1870, London, Eng.; son of Richard and Sarah Anne (Sacret) Young; educated at New York Univ., 1908; married Grace Whiting Mason, Dec. 7, 1904; eight chidlren. Began as collector for Omaha Gas Co. in 1890. He was Assistant Treasurer and later Secretary of Hudson County Gas Co., 1899-1903. He became identified with Public Service Corp. of New Jersey as Comptroller, 1903-14, becoming Treasurer, 1914-17; Vice-President and Director, 1917-39; Chmn. of Executive Com., 1939-47. Director: Firemen's Ins. Co.; Fidelity Union Trust Co.; Brighton Mills, Inc.; Walter Kidde & Co., Inc.; New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce; Member of Council of New York Univ., and Member of Board of Trustees of Rutgers Univ. Residence: 97 Warren Place, Montclair, New Jersey.

YOUNG, PHILIP, American Banker, Educator; son of Owen D. Young; graduated St. Lawrence Univ.; Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, M.B.A. Dean, School of Business, Columbia Univ., 1948 —. Assoc. of William H. Schubart (banker and investment counselor); Treasurer, Van Lear Woodard & Co. Director: Bank of the Manhattan Co.; Astraco, Inc.; Bowling Green Fund, Inc.; Delaware Fund, Inc. Trustee, St. Lawrence Univ. Principal organizer of Govt. program which led to establishment of Lend-Lease Administration; later served as Deputy Administrator. Served as Asst. to Foreign Economic Administrator, Foreign Trade Adviser to FEA, and Chief of its trade relations staff. Member of Supply Corps, U. S. Navy; in charge of International Aid Division; retired from U. S. Navy with rank of Lieut. Commander, 1946. Address: School of Business, Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

YOUNG, Dr. REYNOLD KENNETH, Canadian Astrophysicist; born October 4, 1886, Binbrook, Ontario, Canada; son of Robert and Jean (Bell) Young; educated at Univ. of Toronto, B.A. 1909; Univ. of California, Ph.D. 1912. Lecturer in Physics, Univ. of Kansas, 1912-13; Observer, Dominion Observatory, Ottawa, 1913-18, and Astronomer, Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, Victoria, 1918-24; Prof. of Astronomy, Univ. of Toronto, 1924-35; Prof. of Astrophysics and Director of David Dunlap Observatory, Toronto, 1935 —. Pres. of the Royal Astronomical Soc. of Canada, 1930-32. Fellow, Royal Society of Canada. Residence: 27 Church St., Richmond Hill, Ont. Address: Univ. of Toronto, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

YOUNG, Sir ROBERT, O.B.E., Member of British Parliament; born Jan. 26, 1872, Glasgow, Scotland; son of Robert and Annie (Layburn) Young; educated at Ruskin College, Oxford; married Bessie Laurina Choldcroft, May, 1910; three children. Member of Clerical Staff of Amalgamated Society of Engineers, 1906; Assistant General Secretary of the Society, 1908; General Secretary, 1912. Elected to House of Commons, 1918; Member of Committees on Awards for War Inventions, Pensions, and Taxation of War Wealth; served on Select Committee on National Expenditure, 1940-44. Represents Labour Party in House of Commons for Newton Division of Lancashire. Chairman of Ways and Means Committee and Deputy Speaker of House of Commons during Labour Governments, 1924-31. O.B.E., 1917; knighted, 1931. Residence: 213 Barry Rd., East Dulwich, S.E.22, London, England.

YOUNG, Dr. ROBERT FITZGIBBON, British Historian and Educator; born 1879, Belfast, No. Ireland; son of Robert Magill and Eleanor (Reid) Young; educated at Queen's College, 1898; Trinity College, University of Oxford, Senior Scholar, First Class in Literae Humanoires, 1902, and M.A.; studied at Universities of Jena and Berlin, 1903-04; Hon. D.Phil. from Masaryk University of Brno (Brünn), 1936; married Pauline Benson Clough, 1917; two sons and a daughter. Lecturer in History and Political Science, Univ. of Leeds, 1905-07; Inspector under Ministry of Education, Whitehall, London, 1907-09; Examiner in Ministry of Education, 1909—. Lieutenant, R.N.V.R., 1916-19; Secretary to the British Diplomatic Mission to Prague, 1918-19; Secretary to the Consultative Committee of the Ministry of Education, 1920-39. Member of the Court of the New England Company (founded in 1649) since 1939; Member of Council, School of Slavonic Studies, University of London; Member of Council, College of Preceptors; Corresponding Member, The Bohemian Royal Society of Sciences, Prague, since 1927; Foreign Member of the Safarik Society of Sciences, Bratislava, Czechoslovakia. A Manager, Joseph Rowntree Senior School at New Earswick, York. Recognized authority on history of English education. Author: Chapter on Teschen Question in Vol. IV of A History of the Peace Conf. of Paris, 1921; A Bohemian Philosopher at Oxford in the 17th Century, George Ritschel of Deutschkahn (1616-1683), 1925; A Czech Humanist in London in the 17th Century, Jan Sictor Rokycansky (1583-1652), 1926; A Bohemian Scholar at Heidelberg and Oxford in the 16th Century, Jan Bernart of Prerov (1553-1600), 1928; Comenius and the Indians of New England, 1929; Comenius in England (Oxford University Press), 1932; Chapter on "Education in Czechoslovakia" in The Education Yearbook, 1932; essay on Comenius and the Invisible College (1645-62) in "The Teacher of Nations" (Cambridge Univ. Press), 1942; edited seven Reports of the Consultative Committee and wrote historical introductions for six of them. Address: The Heath House, Oxshott, Surrey, England.

YOUNG, ROBERT RALPH, American Railway Executive; born Feb. 14, 1897, Canadian, Tex.; son of David John and Mary Arabella (Moody) Young; educated at Culver (Ind.) Military Acad., and Univ. of Virginia, 1914-16; married Anita Ten Eyck O'Keeffe, April 27, 1916. Engaged in operations for duPont Co., 1916-18, then in financial dept., 1918-20. Treasurer, Domestic Dehydrator Corp., 1920-21; engaged in financial matters for Allied Chemical Corp., 1921-22, and for General Motors Corp., 1922-29; Treasurer of Equishares Corp., 1929-31; Partner in Young, Knolbe & Co., 1932-37. Chairman of the Board, Alleghany Corp., since 1937, and of Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co. since 1942. Residence: "Fairholme," Ochre Point, Newport, R. I. Office: Terminal Tower, Cleveland, Ohio.

YOUNG, ROY ARCHIBALD, American Banker; born May 17, 1882, Marquette, Mich.; son of James Wilson and Julia (Healy) Young; graduated Marquette (Mich.) High School; married Amy G. Bosson, Dec. 2, 1912; two daughters. Began as a messenger in 1900 with the First National Bank of Marquette; Asst. Cashier, the Marquette National Bank, First National Bank, (Lake Linden, Mich.), and Vice-President and Manager of the Citizens' National Bank (Houghton, Mich.). Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank, Minneapolis, 1919-27; Member of Federal Reserve Board, Washington, D. C., 1927-30; Governor of Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, 1930-42; Pres. of The Merchants National Bank of Boston, 1942—. Director: Amer. Woolen Co.; Conn. and Passumpsic Rivers R.R. Co.; Calumet and Hecla Cons. Copper Co. Trustee, Provident Instn. for Savings, Boston. Served as Natl. Chmn. of Norwegian Relief, Inc. (Chicago); Director of the Madeira (Va.) School; Trustee of the Deaconess (Mass.) Hospital. Residence: 41 Spooner Rd., Chestnut Hill 67, Mass. Office: 28 State St., Boston, Massachusetts.

YOUNG, SAMUEL DOAK, American Banker; born Nov. 15, 1896, Woodville, Tex.; son of Charles A. and Sarah F. (Sims); Young; educated at Woodville (Texas) High School; married Elizabeth Goodman, Oct. 26, 1921. Began as a messenger with Gulf National Bank, Beaumont, Tex., in 1912; advanced to teller, 1917. Rose from private to 2nd Lieut., Air Service Corps, World War I. State Bank Examiner of Texas, 1919-21; Pres., City National Bank, Eastland, 1921; Receiver for various banks, 1922-25. Organized Citizens Natl. Bank, Llano, 1923, and El Paso Natl. Bank, 1925, becoming Exec. Vice-Pres. and Director. Pres., since 1944. Director: Texas & New Mexico Railway Co.; El Paso Chamber of Commerce; El Paso Branch of Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, 1932-39. Residence: 4520 Cumberland Circle. Office: El Paso, Tex.

YOUNG, SAMUEL SUNG, Chinese Minister to Brazil; born June 24, 1884, San Francisco, Calif.; son of Rev. Walter C. Young and Woo Ating Young; educated at University of California, A.B. 1904; Columbia University, M.A. 1905; married Lucy Woo, Nov. 5, 1908; five children. Member, Board of Education, and Professor in Canton, China, 1906-08; President, Tangshan Engineering and Mining College in North China, 1908-12; Member, Ministry of Education and Ministry of Communications in Peking, China, 1908-12; Member, Chinese Commission to Panama-Pacific International Exposition, 1913-14; Member, Chinese National Oil Administration, 1914-18. Served on Chinese Grand Canal Improvement Board, 1918-22; engaged in mining enterprises, 1922-25. Secretary, Chinese Customs Conference and of Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1925-27. Chinese Consul General in New York, 1927; Secretary General to the Chinese Delegation to League of Nations, 1928. Chargé d'Affaires, Chinese Legation in Mexico, 1930; Chinese Minister to Mexico, 1931-41; appointed Minister to Brazil, 1934. Address: Chinese Legation, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

YOUNG, STARK, American Writer; born Oct. 11, 1881, Como, Miss.; son of Alfred Alexander and Mary C. (Stark) Young; educated at Univ. of Mississippi, B.A. 1901; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1902. Instr. in English, Univ. of Mississippi, 1902-07, and Univ. of Texas, 1907-10; Prof. of General Literature, 1915-21; Member, Editorial Bd., New Republic, 1921-24; Dramatic Critic, New York Times, 1924-25. Member, Editorial Bd., The New Republic, 1925-46; Staff Contributor, 1946—. Gave one-man shows of paintings: Friends of Greece, 1943; Rehn Gallery, 1945; Dayton Museum, 1946. Represented in: Art Inst. of Chicago; S. A. Lewisohn Collection; Juliana Force Collection. Exhibited at Philadelphia Acad.; Carnegie Inst., Richmond; Whitney Museum, etc. Member, National Inst. of Arts and Letters. Author: Flower in Drama, 1923; The Three Fountains, 1924; Glamour, 1925; Heaven Trees, 1926; So Red the Rose, 1936, and many other books. Residence: 320 E. 57th St. Office: The New Republic, 40 E. 49th St., New York, N. Y.

YOUNG, STEPHEN M., American Lawyer; son of Judge Stephen M. and Isabelle Young; educated at Kenyon College, Hon. M.C.L.; Adelbert College and Western Reserve Univ., Law School, LL.B. Member, General Assembly of Ohio, 1913-17; Asst. Prosecuting Attorney, Cuyahoga Co., 1917-18; resigned to join Army. Chief Criminal Prosecuting Attorney, Cuyahoga Co., 1919-20. Member, Ohio Commn. on Unemployment Insurance, 1931-32. Congressman-at-large in the 73rd, 74th and 77th Congresses. Commissioned as Major in Army of the United States; served overseas with Fifth Army in Italy, 1943-44 and 1945; Allied Military Governor, Province of Reggio Emilia, Italy; discharged as Lt. Colonel. Address: 1220 Guardian Building, Cleveland, Ohio.

YOUNG, Rev. Dr. WILLIAM LINDSAY, American Theologian and Educator; born Feb. 2, 1893, Braidwood, Ill.; son of Hugh G. and Lillias Kilpatrick (Walker) Young; educated at Carroll College, A.B. 1920, D.D. 1935; Manitoba College, B.D. 1922; Univ. of Montana, M.A. 1926; Waynesburg College, LL.D. 1932, Litt.D. 1941; Lincoln College, L.H.D. 1941; married Tess Elizabeth Krueker, Aug. 10, 1916; three children. Ordained Minister, Presbyterian Church, 1918; Pastor, Beaver Dam, Wis., until 1922. Y.M.C.A. Secy., Univ. of Wisconsin, 1922-23; Pastor, Univ. of Montana, 1923-28; Prof. and Director, School of Religion, 1924-29. General Director, Dept. of Univ. Work, Presbyterian Board of Christian Education in U.S.A., 1929-34; General Director, Dept. of Colleges, Theological Seminaries and Training Schools, 1934-36. General Director, Dept. of Religion in Higher Education, and Chairman, Division of Univ. Work, Council of Church Boards of Education. Pres., Park College, since 1936. Moderator, General Assembly of Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., 1940-41; Regional Director, Natl. Conference of Christians and Jews for Pennsylvania and West Virginia, since 1944 (Vice-Pres., Natl. Conference 1944). Assoc. Editor, Presbyterian Tribune, since 1941. Address: 203 N. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.

YOUNG, Prof. YU-MEI, Chinese Economist; born Dec. 10, 1880; graduate of Commercial Univ., Tokyo, Japan. Prof. of Economics at various Govt. Univs., since 1911. Director, Chinese Ministry of Audits. Director, Bureau of Budget, Natl. Govt., Nanking, China, since 1931. Author: Public Finance in Modern China; Public Finance of Chinese Government; Theory of Economics; Accounting and Auditing. Residence: No. 8 Shan-Chia-Hung, Nanking. Office: Bureau of Budget, National Government, Nanking, China.

YOUNG-HUNTER, JOHN, American Portrait and Landscape Painter; born Oct. 29, 1874, Glasgow, Scotland; son of Colin and Isabelle (Rattray Young) Hunter; educated at Clifton College, England; University of London; Royal Academy Schools, London. Represented in collections of: National Tate Gallery, London; Musée du Luxembourg, Paris; Walker Art Gallery, Liverpool; Art Museum, Wellington, New Zealand; Museums at Worcester, Mass., Dayton and Oberlin, Ohio; Texas Technological College; Dundee, Scotland; Government House, Ottawa, Canada; Princeton University; Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, and Harvard University. Awards: Chantry Bequest, London, 1910;

Hon. Mention, Paris, 1910; Silver Medal, Paris, 1914; Gold Medal, Allied Artists of America, 1932. Address: Taos, New Mexico.

YOUNGDAHL, Hon. LUTHER W., American Governor; born May 29, 1896, Minneapolis, Minn.; son of John C. and Elizabeth (Johnson) Youngdahl; educated at Univ. of Minn., Gustavus Adolphus College (B.A.); Minnesota College of Law (LL.B.); married Irene Engdahl, June 23, 1923; three children. Began career as a lawyer, 1921. Assistant City Attorney, Minneapolis, 1921-23; Partner, Judge M. C. Tifft, 1923-30; appointed Judge, Municipal Court of Minneapolis, 1930; elected Judge, the District Court, 1936; Justice of the Supreme Court, 1942-46; elected Governor of Minnesota, Nov. 1946. Residence: 72 W. Minnehaha Parkway, Minneapolis, Minn. Office: 130 State Capitol, St. Paul, Minnesota.

YOUNGER, Hon. KENNETH GILMOUR, British Parliament Member; born Dec. 15, 1908, Scotland; son of Viscount and Viscountess Younger of Lickie; educated at Winchester College, 1922-27; New College, Oxford, 1927-30, B.A. 1930; married Elizabeth Kirsten Stewart, Aug. 23, 1934; one daughter. Barrister-at-Law, 1932. Served with British Intelligence Corps in French North Africa; Middle East, France, Belgium, Holland, Germany, 1940-45; Member of Parliament for Grimsby (Labour Party), since 1945; Parliamentary Private Secy. to Minister of State, 1945; Assoc. Delegate, United Kingdom Delegation to General Assembly of United Nations, 1946. Chairman, Com. of Council of UNRRA for Europe, 1946. Member, Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs. Address: 3 Clareville Grove, London, England.

YOUNGMAN, WILLIAM STERLING, JR., American Lawyer; born May 25, 1907, Boston, Mass.; son of William S. and Helen I. (Yerxa) Youngman; educated at Harvard, A.B. magna cum laude, 1929, LL.B. magna cum laude, 1932; married Elsie H. Perkins, April 17, 1937; three children. Law secretary to Judge Learned Hand, New York City, 1932-33; admitted to the Massachusetts Bar, 1933; associated with law firm of Palmer, Dodge, Barstow, Wilkins & Davis, Boston, 1933-38. Counsel, National Power Policy Commission, Washington, D. C. and Chief Counsel, Power Division, Public Works Administration, 1939-40; General Counsel, Federal Power Commission, 1940-41. Liaison officer for the Power Commission for National Defense Work in co-operation with other governmental agencies; now President and Director of China Defense Supplies, Inc.; the Chinese Government's Lend-Lease Agency in the U. S.; and General Counsel in the U. S. A. of the National Resources Commission of China. Residence: 1726 Hoban Rd., N. W. Office: 1511 K Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

YOUNT, Lieut.-General BARTON KYLE, American Officer, Educator; born Jan. 18, 1884, Troy, Ohio; attended Ohio State Univ.; U. S. Military Acad., B.Sc. 1907; commissioned 2nd Lieut., 1907. Joined 27th Inf., Camp Columbia, Cuba, 1907; 1st Lieut., 1913, and subsequently advanced through the various grades to the rank of Lieutenant General. Took command of School of Military Aeronautics, Austin, Texas, 1917; Aviation Concentration Camp, Dallas, Texas, 1918; various army assignments, 1919-37. Commander, Air Corps Training Center, Randolph Field, Texas, 1938; in charge of all training activities of Army Air Corps, Office of Chief of Air Corps, 1939; Commander, 3rd Air Force, Tampa, Fla., 1940; Commander, West Coast Air Corps Training Center, Moffett Field, Calif., 1941-42; Asst. Chief of Air Corps, Wash., D. C. 1942; Commanding General, Army Air Forces Flying Training Command, Ft. Worth, Texas, 1942; Commanding General, Army Air Forces Training Command, 1943-45; retired 1946. President, Amer. Inst. for Foreign Trade, 1946—. Address: American Institute for Foreign Trade, Phoenix, Ariz.

YOUSKEVITCH, IGOR, Premier Ballet Dancer; born Mar. 13, 1912, Pyriatin, Russia; son of Ivan and Sophie Youskevitch; educated at Russo-Serbian H.S., Belgrade; student at Belgrade Royal Univ.; married Anna Scarpa, July 27, 1938; one daughter. Dancer, Ballet des Paris, 1935; Ballet de Leon Woicikowsky, 1935; Col. de Basil's Ballet Russe, 1937; Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, 1938-42; later with Ballet Theatre, N. Y. Served in U. S. Navy, 23 months. Residence: 850 7th Ave. Office: Suite 1015, 113 W. 57th St., New York, N. Y.

YOWELL, Dr. EVERETT I(RVING), American Astronomer; born Jan. 2, 1870, Cincinnati, Ohio; son of Richard C. and Sarah Louisa (Lloyd) Yowell; educated at Univ. of Cincinnati, C.E. 1891, M.S. 1894, Ph.D. 1911; Univ. of Göttingen, 1894-95; married Elizabeth Cabell Carrington, May 30, 1912; four children. Instructor in Mathematics, Univ. of Cincinnati, 1891; Asst. in Cincinnati Observatory, 1897; Computer with U. S. Naval Observatory, 1901-06; Instructor in Mathematics, U. S. Naval Acad., Annapolis, 1906-09; First Astronomer, Cincinnati Observatory, 1909-30; Director, Observatory, and Head of Dept. of Astronomy, Univ. of Cincinnati, 1930-40; Prof. Emeritus of Astronomy, Acting Director, 1943-46; Acting Director of Observatory since 1946. Ex-Vice-Pres. and Section Chairman, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science, 1939. Member: Amer. Astronomical Soc.; Mathematical Assn. of America; Natl. Inst. of Social Sciences, etc. Joint-author: Publications of Cincinnati Observatory, No. 18 (published in 4 parts, 1915-16-17 and 1918). Co-author, Publication No. 20 (1930). Address: Cincinnati Observatory, Cincinnati 8, Ohio.

YRARRAZAVAL, Dr. RAÚL, Chilean Deputy, Lawyer; born Oct. 18, 1906, Santiago, Chile; son of Albert and Ines (Lecaros) Yrarrazaval; educated at Catholic Univ.; State Univ. of Santiago, LL.D., Sc.D.; post-graduate studies at Univ. of Paris, London School of Economics and Univ. of Bonn; married Elena Covarrubias, 1932; six sons. Assoc., Sres. Manuel Foster and Joaquin Yrarrázaval, Attorneys and Counselors at Law, Santiago; Deputy to Chilean National Congress, 1941; re-elected 1945 (Member, Com. of Constitution, Law and Justice Com. of Social Law and Work; Chmn., Com. of Aeronautical Law). Chilean Delegate, Inter-Amer. Bar Assn. Conf., Rio de Janeiro, 1943, Lima, 1947. Attorney for iron and copper industry and commercial enterprises. Member of Board of Directors, Soc. of Primary Instruction and Liga Protescotora de Estudiantes; Vice-Chairman, Junta de Beneficencia Escolar. Author: Derecho aeronautico internacional y unificado, 1932; Discursos parlamentarios, materias economicas y sociales. Residence: Av. Eleodoro Yañez 1910. Office: Nitrate Bldg., Teatinos 220, Rm. 308, Santiago, Chile.

YRJÖ-KOSKINEN, Baron AARNO ARMAS SAKARI, Finnish Minister to Turkey; born Dec. 9, 1885, Helsinki, Finland; son of Baron Y. K. and Baroness Elin (Brander) Yrjö-Koskinen; educated at Faculty of History and Philology, Univ. of Helsinki, M.A. 1908; Faculty of Law, cand. jur. 1913; married Nanna Elisabet Erikson, Nov. 11, 1922. Secretary of Finnish Legation, Paris, 1919; Head of Political Dept.

of Foreign Office, 1922; Secretary General, Foreign Office, 1927-30; Finnish Minister to USSR, 1930-39; Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1931-32; Minister to Turkey, since 1940. Awarded Grand Cordon, Order of the Lion, Finland, etc. Address: Günes Sokak 3, Ankara, Turkey.

YSANDER, Rt. Rev. DAVID TORSTEN, Swedish Bishop; born March 10, 1893, Tölö, Sweden; son of Rev. Bengt and Amanda (Wetterquist) Ysander; educated at Göteborg and Uppsala, fil.kand. 1915, teol.kand. 1919, teol.lic. 1925, teol.dr. 1933; married Ebba Key-Aberg, 1923; three children. Priest, 1919; served in Uppsala, 1919; Rector, Vange-Läby, 1920-30; Rural Dean, Ullerakers kontrakt, 1921-24. Headmaster, Uppsala, 1930-35. Docent at Upsala University, 1933-35. Appointed Domprost in Göteborg, 1935; Bishop of Visby stift, 1936-47; Bishop of Linköpingsstift, 1947—. Address: Linköping, Sweden.

YSSEL de SCHEPPER-BECKER, JOHANNA MARIA, Dutch Author; born Oct. 21, 1885, Rotterdam, The Netherlands; daughter of H. C. N. and E. W. (Klein) Becker; educated at Rotterdamsch Erasmiaansch Gymnasium; married G. C. Yssel de Schepper, Oct. 9, 1919; two children. Author: Martje Vroom, 1916; Martje Maters, geb. Vroom, 1927; Het dwaze hart, 1928; De Slinger van den Tijd, 1934; Ontmoeting met het Leven en metden dood, 1941; De Dood van de oude Mevrouw van Leeuwen, 1917; Het Laatste Stadium (comedy), 1921; Wat niet mag (tragedy), 1922; De zoen (comedy), 1921; Dans, nonneke, dans (comedy), 1925; Menschen (tragedy), 1928; Tine Valckier (novel). Address: Ypersche-straat 3, Scheveningen, The Netherlands.

YSTGAARD, HANS, Norwegian Minister of Agriculture; born Feb. 19, 1883, Sparbu, Nord-Trondelag, Norway; son of Ole A. and Martha (Skei) Ystgaard; educated at public school, high school and agricultural college; married Kathrine Steinfjord, June 13, 1907. Elected Member, District Council, 1910; Deputy Mayor, 1916-19; Mayor since 1934. Appraiser of Norway's Mortgage Bank (Hypotekbanken), 1913. Member and Chairman, Community Board of Internal Revenue. Member, Nygaardsvold Cabinet, 1935—. Chief, Department of Agriculture. Address: Ministry of Agriculture, Oslo, Norway.

YU CHI-SHIH, Lieut. General, Chinese Army Officer; born 1903, Feng Hua, Chekiang, China; son of Yu Chung Ho and Chow Tsui Wo; educated at Huang Pu Military Acad. (first class); Staff College; married Chen Chih Ying; two sons and four daughters. Platoon, Company, Battalion and Regiment Commander, then Commanding General, Guards Brigade, National Govt., also Acting Commanding General, Central Military Police Force, 1929; Garrison Commander, National Govt., 1930; Commanded 2nd Division, National Govt. Guards, 1931, then 88th Division, 1931; concurrently Commanding General, Pacification Force, Kiangsi-Chekiang, Anhwei Borders; Commanding 74th Army, 1937; Commanding 36th Army Corps, 1938; Vice-Commander, 19th Army Group, 1938; Acting Commanding General, Anti-Japan Defense Forces, Chekiang Province, 1939; Senior Gentleman-at-Arms, Generalissimo's Headquarters, Natl. Military Council, 1942; Commanding 36th Army Group, 1945; Commanding General, Military Affairs Bureau, National Govt., since 1945. Participated in Cairo Conf., accompanying Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, 1943. Member, Kuomintang, 1924; Army Representative, 4th, 5th and 6th Congress, Kuomintang; elected Member, Central Exec. Com., Kuomintang, 1945, resigned without assuming post. Member, Sun Min Chu I Youth Corps, 1940; Member, Central Control Com., First Congress San Min Chu I Com., Youth Corps; Member, Central Exec. Com., 2nd Congress, San Min Chu I Youth Corps. Army Rept. Natl. Assembly, 1947. Awarded numerous military decorations including: Order of Honor for Distinguished Chinese, 1937; Order of Cloud and Banners, 3rd class, 1939; Order of Cloud and Banner, 2nd class, 1939; Order of Shining Star, 2nd class, 1944; Order of Meritorious Deeds, 1945; Order of Victory, 1946; Medal in Memory of the Resistance against Japanese Aggression; U. S. Medal of Freedom with Bronze Palm, 1946. Author: Tactics of Annihilation, Its Study and Employment; Self Cultivation of Modern Soldier; Discussions on Cooperation of Artillery and Infantry in Various Phases of Battle; Insight into Tactical and Strategical Thought of Sun Tzu. Address: Military Affairs Bureau, National Government, Nanking, China.

YU, Dr. CHIEN-CHANG, Chinese Geologist; born Dec. 1, 1900, Ho-hsien, Anhwei, China; son of C. H. and S. C. Yü; educated at National Peking Univ., B.Sc. 1924; Univ. of Bristol, Ph.D. 1935; married C. Ling, 1923; five children. Prof. of Paleontology, National Central Univ., 1939-40; Chairman, Geological Dept., Natl. Chungking Univ., 1940-45; Research Fellow, National Inst. of Geology, Academia Sinica, 1945—. Chairman, Geological Soc. of China, 1948. Member, Palaeontological Soc. of China. Author of numerous geological publications. Address: No. 1, Chi-Ming-Ssu, Nanking, China.

YU FEI-PENG, Chief of Army Service Supplies, Supreme Military Council of Chungking, China; born Dec. 9, 1883, Fenghua, Chekiang, China; son of Yu Tan-Ya and Chow; graduated from Quartermaster School of Peking, 1913; married Hsu Hsin-Hsiang, 1910; two children. Began as teacher in Peking Normal School, 1913; elected Magistrate of Ku-Cheng, Fukien Province, 1922; became Chief Auditor, Kwantung Provincial Army, 1923; Assistant Accountant, Huang-Pu Military Academy, 1924; Chief of Service Supplies, Kuo-Min Revolutionary Army, 1926; Superintendent of Kiang-hai Customs, 1927. Quartermaster General, Ministry of War, 1929; elected Vice-Minister of Communications, 1930, becoming Acting Minister of Communications, 1934. Military Council, Chungking, China, 1938-46; Commanding General, Army Service Forces, 1938-46; Director-General, War Transport Board, 1945; Minister of Communications, 1945—. Address: Ministry of Communications, Nanking, China.

YU JIH CHUAN, Chinese Engineer; born Changsha, Hunan, China; educated at Illinois Univ., B.C.E.; married; five children. Highway Engineer, Hunan, 1922-23; Prof. of Civil Engineering, Fu Tan Univ.; Dean of Civil Engineering Dept., Tung Fan Univ., Shanghai, 1923-25; General Engineer, Hunan Provincial Highway Bureau, 1925-27; Chief, Reconstruction Dept., Hupeh, 1927-28; Chief, Changsha Municipal Govt., 1928-32; Commnr. of Reconstruction, Hunan Provincial Govt., 1932-45; now Director, Hunan Regional Office, C.N.R.R.A. Commnr. of Public Works, Nanking Municipality and Wu Han Municipality; Director, Chekiang Provincial Highway Engineering Bureau. Chairman, Hunan Civil Engineers Assn. Chairman, Hsieh Chun High School Board. Board Member: Ming Teh and Chow Nan High Schools; Tsin Lien Higher Polytechnic School. Awarded Medal of Honor of Bright Star, 5th grade; Medal of Honor of Hydraulics, Natl. Commn. of Economics. Address: Kiu Tsai Yuan, Hunan Bible Institute, Changsha, Hunan, China.

YU-PIN, Most Rev. PAUL, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Nanking; born April 13, 1901, Lansi, Manchuria, China; son of Shuaiyuan Yu and Hsiao; educated at Urban Univ. of Propaganda Fide, Rome, Ph.D., S.T.D.; received hon. doctorate degrees from Manhattan College, New York; Providence (R. I.) College; Laval Univ., Quebec and others. Ordained Roman Catholic Priest, Rome, 1929; Consecrated Bishop, Peiping, and appointed Vicar Apostolic of Nanking, 1936; became Archbishop of Nanking, 1946. Pres., Bd. of Trustees, Industrial and Commercial Univ., Tientsin; Trustee, Fu Jen Univ., Peiping; Hon. Pres., Board of Trustees, Chung Kai-Shek Univ. of Manchuria. Trustee of many other colleges and high schools of China. Member of Presidium of first Constitutional Assembly of China, Nanking (Nov. 1946). Member, People's Political Council (P.P.C.), since 1938. Co-Pres., Friendship Soc. of Religious Believers. Pres., Chinese Soc. for Philosophy of Life. President, The Catholic Culture Soc. of China. President of six Catholic dailies. Address: Archbishop's Residence, Nanking, China.

YÜ TSUNE-CHI, Dr. Chinese Diplomat; born June 22, 1899, Shengfang, Hopei, China; son of Yü Lin-chuan and Yü Hsü Shih; educated at Denison Univ., B.Sc., Ph.B. 1921; New York Univ., M.Sc., Sc.D. 1924; Columbia Univ., B.A., M.A., Ph.D. 1921-23, 1925-27; London School of Economic and Political Science, 1928-29. Commissioner and Senior Commissioner, Treaty Commission, Minstry of Foreign Affairs, and Commissioner, Commission on Extraterritoriality, 1929-30; Chinese Consul General at Havana, and First Secy., Chinese Embassy, Washington, 1930-34. Director, Chinese Educational Mission; Senior Commissioner, Treaty Commission, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1935; Consul General at New York, 1935-46; Ambassador to Italy, 1946—. Delegate and Adviser, Conferences of International Labor Organization, New York and Philadelphia; Expert, Chinese Delegation, Dumbarton Oaks Conf., 1944; Asst. Secy. General, Chinese Delegation, U. N. Conf., San Francisco, 1945; Alternate Delegate, Chinese Delegation, Paris Peace Conf., 1946. Author: The Problem of Occupational Representation, 1922; Economic, Geographic Problems in Manchuria, 1924; The Interpretation of Treaties, 1927. Residence: 12 Viale Pola. Office: Chinese Embassy, Rome, Italy.

YU, Dr. WANGTEH, Chinese Diplomat; born 1910, Shensi; son of Yujen Yu and Chen-ei Wang; received B.A., Shanghai, 1927; LL.B., Edinburgh, 1933; Ph.D. London, 1936; married King Hu; one son. Prof. of Political Science, Univ. of Chungking, 1937-40. Prof. of Law National Central Univ., 1939-47. Member: Kuomingtang Central Exec. Com., 1945—; National Congress, 1945-48. Minister to Colombia, 1947—; Minister to Ecuador, 1948—; Ambassador on Special Missions to Venezuela, 1948. Author: The English Cabinet System, 1937. Address: Chinese Legation, Bogotá, Colombia.

YU YU-JEN, Dr., Chinese Political Leader; born 1878, San-yuan-hsien, Shensi; educated at Aurora Univ., Shanghai, 1903. Established Fuhtan Public College and China Public College; Prof. of Fuhtan Public College and China Public College; established the Shenshow Daily, Shanghai; went to Japan and aided Dr. Sun Yat-Sen in organizing the Tung Meng Hui, 1904; edited the Public Opinion Daily; also established the Min-Hu Daily, Shanghai, 1906; established the Min-Shiu Daily, Shanghai, 1908; established the Min-lih Daily— the general organ of Revolutionary Army, Shanghai, 1909; Minister of Communications, 1911. Commanded Constitutional Defense Army, Shensi, 1918-22; established Univ. of Shanghai, 1922; LL.D. Fuhtan Univ., 1923. Elected Member, Central Executive Com. of Kuomingtang, 1924; Member, Central Political Council; Member, Military Council and of State Council; Director, Audit Dept., National Govt., 1928-30; Pres., Control Yuan, since 1930. Address: Control Yuan, Nanking, China.

YUAN, Dr. TUNG-LI, Chinese Library Director; born March 23, 1895, Peking, China; son of Cheng-Chung Yuan; educated at Columbia Univ., B.A. 1922; New York State Library School, Albany, N. Y., B.L.S. 1923; Univ. College, Univ. of London, 1923-24; Univ. of Pittsburgh, hon. LL.D., 1945; married Hui-Hsi Yuan, May 21, 1927; three children. Asst. Librarian, Tsing Hua College, 1916-20. Librarian: Kwantung Univ., 1924; National Univ. of Peking, 1925-27; Metropolitan Library of Peking, 1927-29. Director, National Library of Peiping, 1929-42; Director, since 1942. Director, Palace Museum Library, Peiping, since 1930. Councilor, Chinese Delegation, Paris Peace Conf., 1946. Member: Library Assn. of China; Amer. Library Assn.; Bibliographical Soc. of London; Oxford Bibliographical Soc. Awarded University Medal, Columbia Univ., 1934. Residence: 1 Chin Yu Hutung. Office: National Library of Peiping, Peiping, China.

YÜCEL, HASAN-ALI, Turkish Educator and Political Leader; born 1897, Istanbul, Turkey; son of Aliriza and Neyyire Yücel; educated at Univ. of Istanbul and Higher Teachers' College; married Refika Yücel, 1922; three children. Teacher of Literature, 1922; Teacher of Philosophy and Sociology, 1924; General Inspector of Schools, 1927; Director General of Secondary Education, 1933; Deputy for Izmir, 1935—. Minister of Education, 1938-46. Chmn., Soc. for Restoration and Protection of Monuments of Turkey; Ex-Chmn., Turkish Linguistic and Historical Socs. Head of Turkish Delegation, UNESCO Conf., London, 1945. Residence: Ismet Pasha Blvd. No. 10. Office: Grand National Assembly, Ankara, Turkey.

YUDIN, Prof. PAVEL F., Soviet Educator. Professor at the University of Moscow. Member, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Address: University of Moscow, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YUDIN, Prof. SERGEI, Soviet Surgeon. Associated with surgical staff of Sklifasoviski Hospital, Moscow. Leading Soviet expert on surgery of cancer-stricken stomachs and on serious ulcer operations. Awarded second Stalin Prize for new method of restorative surgery which makes possible the use of an artificial esophagus, 1948. During World War II, while Asst. to Chief Surgeon of Soviet Army with rank of Col., evolved a new method for treating gunshot wounds and gasgangrene. Foreign Member, Royal Surgical Soc. of Great Britain; hon. member of many foreign medical and scientific societies. Address: Sklifasoviski Hospital, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YUI, O. K. (Yu Hung-chun), Chinese Minister of Finance; born 1896, Kwangtung; educated at St. John's University, Shanghai, B.A. Served as Secretary, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Wuhan Nationalist Government; Secretary, City Government of Greater Shanghai Municipality; Senior Counsellor and Acting Commissioner of Finance of Shanghai Municipality; Secretary-General, City Government of Greater Shanghai Municipality, 1930-37; Mayor of Greater Shanghai, 1937; Deputy Director, Central Trust, 1937-41; Political Vice-Minister of Finance, 1941-44. Minister of Finance since 1944. Governor, Central Bank of China, 1945—. Address: Ministry of Finance, Nanking, China.

YUI SHANG-YUEN, Prof., Chinese Dramatist; born Oct. 4, 1897; educated at Natl. Univ. of Peking, B.A. 1921; Carnegie Inst. of Technology, Graduate Student, 1923-24; Columbia Univ., Graduate Student, 1924-25; married Chen Ting-Wu, Jan 15, 1927; four children. Prof. of Drama: Natl. College of Fine Arts, Peking, 1925-26; Natl. Southeastern Univ., Nanking, 1926-27; Natl. Chi-nan Univ., Shanghai, 1927-29; Natl. Peiping Univ., 1929-34. Commissioner to European countries for investigation of dramatic education, 1934-35; Pres., Natl. Acad. of Dramatic Arts, Nanking, since 1935. Director, Little Theatre of Peiping; Trustee, Chinese Dramatic League, since 1938. Member: Inst. of Pacific Relations; Chinese Educational Assn., etc. Author: Collected Essays on Drama, 1928; Collected Plays, 1930, etc. Address: Ta-Kwang Rd., Nanking, China.

YULE, GEORGE UDNY, British Statistician; born Feb. 18, 1871, Morham, Scotland; son of George Udny and Henrietta Peach (Pemberton) Yule; educated at Winchester, 1884-87; University College, London, 1887-90; Univ. of Bonn, 1892-93; Cambridge Univ., M.A. 1913. Demonstrator, University College, London, 1893; Asst. Prof. of Applied Mathematics, 1896-99. Asst., Dept. of Technology, City and Guilds of London Inst., 1899-1912; Lecturer and Reader in Statistics, Cambridge, England, 1912-31. Now Fellow, St. John's College. Hon. Vice-Pres., Royal Statistical Soc. of London. Fellow: Royal Anthropological Inst.; British Psychological Soc.; Royal Soc. of London. Awards: C.B.E., 1918; Guy Medallist, 1911. Author: Introduction to the Theory of Statistics, 1911 (rewritten by M. G. Kendall, 12th ed. 1940); The Statistical Study of Literary Vocabulary, 1944. Address: St. John's College, Cambridge, England.

YULIN HSI, Chinese Political Leader; born Jan. 27, 1902, Shanghai; son of Tsai-Min Hsi and Loh Yung; educated at Fuh Tan University, 1922; Soochow University, 1924; married King Su Jen, Feb. 2, 1920; seven children. School Teacher, 1924-27; Certified Public Accountant, 1927-31; 1934-45; Adviser, Ministry of Finance, 1928; Professor, Fuh Tan University, 1928; Professor, National Chi-Nan University, 1929-31; Banker, 1931-34; Dean of Commercial Department, China College, 1932-33; Professor, Kwang Hwa University, 1937-38; Dean of Commercial Course, Cheng Ming College, 1939-40 and 1945-46; Dean of Banking Course, National Fuh Tan University, 1941-43; Adviser, Bank of Communications, 1941; Adviser, Postal and Savings Bank, 1942-46; Adviser, Central Trust, 1942-46; Adviser, Ministry of Communications, 1942-46; Adviser, Ministry of Economics, 1942-46; Adviser, Farmer's Bank of China, 1943-46. Auditor, National Reconstruction Bank, 1944; Director, Fuh Tan University; Trustee, Soochow University. Member, Chinese People's Political Council and People's National Assembly. Residence: House No. 21 Lane 1050, Sinza Rd. Office: 505 Honan Rd., Shanghai, China.

YUMASHEV, Admiral IVAN S., Soviet Naval Officer; Flagman 1st rank, in command of Pacific Ocean Fleet, 1939; Vice-Admiral, Commander of Pacific Ocean Fleet, 1940-43; Admiral, Commander of Far Eastern Fleet, 1943—. Awarded title of Hero of the Soviet Union, 1945. Address: Ministry of the Navy, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YUN CHEN, Chinese Electrical Engineer; born Sept. 3, 1899, Wuching, Kiangsu, China; son of Yuhwa Yun; educated at Govt. Inst. of Technology, Shanghai, B.S. 1921; Univ. of Wisconsin, E.E. 1922; married Beatrice Tseming Oung, 1921; one daughter. Electrical Engineer, Yu-Foong Cotton Mill, Chengchow, China, 1924-25; Asst. Prof. of Electrical Engineering, Chekiang Univ., 1923-24; Prof. of Physics, Southeastern Univ., Nanking, 1925-26; Chinese Delegate, Sesquicentennial Internatl. Exposition, Philadelphia, 1926; Designer, Dwight P. Robinson Co., N. Y. C., 1927-28; Dean, Military Technical Inst. of Communications, 1928-29; Assoc. Director of Radio Communication Administration, 1929-30; Director, Electric Power Dept., Natl. Construction Commn., 1930-36; General Manager, Central Electrical Manufacturing Works, Natl. Resources Commn., since 1936. Member, Chinese Delegation, Far Eastern Commn., since 1946; Chief Rept., Natl. Resources Commission Office in U. S. A. Member and Director: Chinese Inst. of Engineers; Chinese Inst. of Electrical Engineers; Chinese Soc. of Economic Reconstruction. Member, Chinese Federation of Manufacturing Industries. Awarded Medal of Honor by Chinese Govt., 1945. Author: China and Radio Industry of World, 1929; Power Industry of China, 1931; Electric Power Utility Act of China, 1932. Residence: 615 W. 113th St. Office: 111 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

YUNG, Dr. JULIUS RUDOLPH, American Surgeon; born Mar. 23, 1878, Terre Haute, Ind.; son of Carl and Elizabeth (Fox) Yung; educated at Univ. of Illinois School of Medicine, M.D. 1900; married Jane Kimball, Oct. 1903. Ex-Pres. of staff of St. Anthony Hospital, Chief of Goiter Service since 1932. Lecturer in surgical nursing to School of Nursing Education at St. Anthony Hospital. Chief of operating team at Base Hospital No. 94 with A.E.F., World War I. Member: Executive Council of Amer. Assn. for Study of Goiter, Corresponding Secretary, 1928-34, Pres., 1936. Member: Central States Soc. Industrial Medicine and Surgery; Amer. Medical Assn.; Indiana State and Vigo County (former Pres.) Medical Socs.; Terre Haute Acad. of Medicine; Internatl. College of Surgeons, etc. Author: Some High Lights on Goiter, 1924; Surgical Risk in Heart Goiter Cases; Toxic Diffuse Goiter (Exophthalmic)—Its Diagnosis and Treatment, etc. Made several trips to Europe, where studied surgical techniques, diseases of the goiter, etc., at famous clinics in Switzerland, Germany and Austria. Residence: 1115 S. Sixth St. Office: 670 Cherry St., Terre Haute, Ind.

YUNG, Dr. WALTER, Swiss Jurist; born Aug. 18, 1903, Geneva, Switzerland; son of Emile and L. (Beardall) Yung; educated at Collège de Genève, 1914-21; Univ. of Geneva, Lic. in Law 1924, LL.D. 1930; Faculté de Droit de Paris; Ecole des Sciences Politiques, Paris, 1924-25. Admitted as lawyer, 1925; Judge, Tribunal of Geneva, 1932-40; Pres. of Tribunal, 1936-38; Prof. of Civil Law, Univ. of Geneva, since 1941. Member: Société Genevoise de Droit et de Législation; Société Suisse des Juristes. Address: University of Geneva, Geneva, Switzerland.

YUON, KONSTANTIN FEDOROVICH, Soviet Painter; born 1878. Awarded title of People's Artist of the RSFSR, 1945. Stalin Prize, 1945. Address: All Union of Soviet Artists, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YURIEV, Prof. BORIS N., Soviet Engineer. Served with rank of Lieut. General during World War II. Member, Branch of Technical Sciences of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Author of numerous scientific publications. Address: Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YUST, WALTER, American Editor; born May 16, 1894, Phila., Pa.; son of Robert and Rose Dorothy (Bauer) Yust; educated at Univ. of Penna., A.B. 1917; married Ruth McClintock Barker, Feb. 15, 1923; two children. Editorial work with Philadelphia Evening Ledger, and Philadelphia Press, 1918-20; Memphis Press, 1921; New Orleans Item, 1922. Managing Editor, The Double Dealer, 1923; Associate Editor, Literary Review and Editor, Literary Lobby, New York Evening Post, 1923-26; Literary Editor, Philadelphia Public Ledger, 1926-30. Advertising Manager, Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc., 1930; Associate Editor, Encyclopedia Britannica and Britannica Junior, 1932; Editor, Encyclopedia Britannica; Britannica Junior and Britannica Book of the Year, since 1938; Vice-President, Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc. Residence: 759 Prospect Ave., Winnetka, Ill. Office: 20 N. Wacker Dr., Chicago, Ill.

YUSUF, Nawab Sir MOHAMMAD, Kt., Indian Barrister-at-Law; son of Nawab Molvi Abdul Majid, C.I.E.; married Begum Zubeda Khatun. Largest landholder in eastern district of the United Provinces. Member of the Legislative Assembly since inauguration of the Montagu-Chelmsford Reforms, 1921. Minister, 1926-38; also in the Interim Ministry. Has travelled widely and made special study of the people and problems of the United Provinces; infused a real spirit of self-government in the local bodies and through his patronage the U.P. District Boards' Conference was originated; responsible for the high standard of the provincial roads, the great progress made by the Public Health Department, the efficiency and popularity of the Medical Department and the Registration and Veterinary Departments. President of Agra Province Zemindars' Assn. and U.P. Olympic Meet; Member of U.P. United Club of Allahabad. Address: Yusuf Castle, Nawab Yusuf Road, Jaunpur, United Provinces, India.

YUTKEVITCH, SERGEI, Soviet Film Producer. Directed silent films, then worked with sound pictures. Directed: The Golden Mountains; Ankara; Miners; Man With a Gun; Liberation of France; Hello, Moscow! Awarded Stalin Prize for producing film, "Youth of Our Country, 1947. Address: Ministry of Cinematography, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

YVER, Prof. JEAN, French Jurist; born Feb. 6, 1901, Caen, Calvados, France; educated at Faculty of Law; Lic.Litt. Prof. of General History of French Law and History of Customs in Normandy, Faculty of Law, Univ. of Caen, since 1927. Director, Séminaire de Droit normand; Secy., Société d'Histoire du droit normand. Author: Les Contrats dans le très Ancien Droit Normand; various studies on history of customs in Normandy and the Anglo-Norman Isles, history of municipal administration, and government of Normandy. Residence: 15 rue Grusse. Office: 168 rue Caponière, Caen, Calvados, France.

Z

ZABALA, ALFONSO RÓMULO, Argentine Journalist and Historian; born Jan. 23, 1884, Buenos Aires; married María Isabel Torres; five children. Consul in Italy (Liorna), 1911-13, and in Newcastle, England, 1913-14. Under-Director, Museo Mitre, 1914-31. General Secretary, National Council of Education, 1932. Governor of Protective Commission of Popular Libraries, National Commission of Museums and Historic Monuments and the National Revisory Commission of Historical and Geographical Texts. Secretary of Directorate and Assistant Administrator of the newspaper "La Nación," 1936. Founded the news agency "Austral," 1917; Administrator of newspaper "Noticias Gráficas," 1931. Chief of Archives of newspaper "La Nación" since 1937. First Vice-President, Academia Nacional de la Historia. Founding Director, Bulletin of Academia Nacional de la Historia and Instituto Bonaerense de Numismática y Antiquedades, of which he has been President since 1935. President, Instituto Americano de Arte and of the Consejo Escolar XV. Pro-Treasurer, Institución Mitre; Secretary in Charge, Commission of Publication of the Complete Works of Mitre; Founding Member, Sociedad de Historia de Buenos Aires; Sociedad Bibliofilos del Rio de la Plata; Asociación de Estudios Históricos. Former Vice-President, Comisión del Himno Nacional, 1927; Reviser of Accounts and Treasurer of Círculo de la Prensa, 1935 and 1937. Vice-President, Commission of the Fourth Centenary of the Foundation of Buenos Aires, 1936; Vice-President, Congreso Inter-Americano de Historia in Buenos Aires. Officially delegated to study the organization of European popular libraries, 1938; in charge of the reorganization of the Museo Sarmiento San Juan, 1938. President, American Library of Guadix, Spain, 1936. Corresponding and active member of many cultural and historical organizations throughout the western hemisphere. Consul of Argentina in Boston (U.S.), 1942. Author: La Enseñanza de la Historia en las Escuelas Primarias; Historia de la Ciudad de Buenos Aires; Buenos Aires en la Conmemoración de su IV Siglo; La Fecha de la Fundación de Buenos Aires; Antecedentes de la Expedición de Mendoza; Numismática en el Virreinato del Rio de La Plata. Residence: Virrey del Pino 2476. Office: San Martín 344, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

ZABEL, MAX W., American Patent Lawyer; born Nov. 26, 1876, Milwaukee, Wis.; son of Paul and Augusta (Seeger) Zabel; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, B.Sc. in E.E. 1898; Kent College of Law; married Isabel C. Lee (dec.); (2nd) Hazel Jones Carlson, Mar. 25, 1942. Stationary engineer, Madison Gas & Electric Co., Madison, Wis., 1898; Asst., firm of Chas. A. Brown & Cragg, Patent Lawyers, Chicago, four years; Asst. in development of first four party selective signaling telephone system; Sales Engineer, later Sales Manager, American Electric Telephone Co., Chicago, four years. Re-entered practice of patent trademark and copyright law in 1907; now partner, patent law firm of Zabel & Gritzbaugh, Chicago. Member: Amer. Bar, Chicago Bar, and Illinois Bar Assns.; Chicago Patent Law Assn.; Amer. Patent Law Assn.; Amer. Inst. of Electrical Engineers (Life Member), etc. Author: The Patent Royalty Contract, 1935; Special Lecturer, Post Graduate Class at John Marshall Law School. Address: 2030 Bankers Bldg., 105 W. Adams St., Chicago 3, Ill.

ZABOLOTNY, V., Ukrainian Architect. Pres., Ukrainian Architectural Acad.; Pres., VOKS Architectural and Construction Section; Member, Academy of Architecture of the U.S.S.R. Address: Ukrainian Architectural Academy, Kiev, Ukrainian S.S.R.

ZABRISKIE, Prof. ALEXANDER CLINTON, American Theologian; born January 21, 1898, New York, N. Y.; son of George and Sarah (Gray) Zabriskie; educated at Princeton University, A.B. 1920; Virginia Theological Seminary, B.D. 1924; married Mary Ethelyn Tyler, June 27, 1924; four children. Minister-in-Charge of St. John's Church, New City, N. Y., 1924-25. Instructor, Virginia Theological Seminary, 1925-27; Assistant Professor, 1927-31; Full Professor since 1931, Dean since 1940. Member, American Society of Church History. Residence: Theological Seminary, Alexandria, Va.

ZABRISKIE, Dr. EDWIN GARVIN, American Neuro-Psychiatrist; born Oct. 7, 1874, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of John Barrea and Liz (Garvin) Zabriskie; educated at Long Island College of Med., M.D. 1897; post-grad. work in General Pathol., Neuro-Pathol. and Clinical Neurol., Univ. of Berlin, 1898-1900; Univ. of Paris, 1901; married Blanche Arnaud (deceased). Adjunct Prof. of Neurol., N. Y. Post-Grad. Hosp., 1902-10; Chief of Clinic, N. Y. Neurol. Inst., 1910-17; Senior Attending Neurol., N. Y. Neurol. Inst., 1919—; Prof. of Clinical Neurol., College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia Univ., 1925—; Consulting Neurol. to Manhattan Eye, Ear and Ear Infirmary; Goldwater Memorial, St. John's, Riverside, Mt. Vernon, Lawrence Hosps.; St. Joseph's Hosp., Far Rockaway, and Hartford Retreat Hosp. Trustee of Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Diseases; Secy.-Treasurer, Amer. Soc. for Research in Psychosomatic Problems. Pres., Amer. Neurol. Assn. Received Alumni Medallion of Long Island College of Medicine for distinguished service to American medicine, 1947. Address: 115 E. 61st St., New York 21, N. Y.

ZABRISKIE, GEO. A., American Industrialist; born Dec. 7, 1868, New York, N. Y.; son of John Albert and Martha L. (Knox) Zabriskie. Began as flour salesman, 1882; flour merchant, 1900-25; now Chairman of Bd., Columbia Baking Co.; Vice Pres. and Dir., Gainsboro Studios; Director of Colonial Rea lEstate Co. and Central Real Estate Co. Pres., N. Y. Historical Soc. Ex-Pres., Sons of Revolution, N. Y. Member: Soc. of Colonial Wars; Soc. of War of 1812; Veteran Corps Artillery. During World War I served as Pres. of U. S. Sugar Equalization Board and a Dir. of U. S. Grain Corp. Decorated by Govts. of Belgium, Iceland and Poland. Residence: Ormond Beach, Fla. Office: 21 West St., New York, N. Y.

ZACHARIADES, NICHOLAS, Greek Communist Leader; born 1900, Adrianople; educated at School of Eastern Studies in U.S.S.R. Became Socialist at 18; later formed first Communist center in Constantinople; expelled by Turkey and entered Greece; jailed in 1928; escaped to Russia; sent to Greece by U.S.S.R. to reorganize Communist Party, 1931; joined Executive Com. of Comintern and became Secy. of Balkan Bureau; now Secy. Gen. of Greek Communist Party and Dir. of the guerilla army. Address: Athens, Greece.

ZACHARIAS, Dr. JERROLD REINACH, American Physicist, Engineer; received Ph.D. degree. Prof. of Physics, and Director of the Technology Laboratory of Nuclear Science; Massachusetts Inst. of Technology. Address: Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, Cambridge, Mass.

ZACHARIASEN, Dr. (FREDRIK) W(ILLIAM) H(OULDER), American Physicist; born Feb. 5, 1906, Langesund, Norway; son of Johan Zacharias and Louise (Bredesen) Zachariasen; educated at Oslo Univ., Ph.D. 1928; married Ragni Durban-Hansen, May 26, 1930; two children. Rockefeller Fellow, Manchester Univ., England, 1928; Asst. Prof., Oslo Univ., 1929-30; Asst. Prof., Univ. of Chicago, 1930-39; Assoc. Prof., 1939-45; Prof. and Chairman, Dept. of Physics, since 1945. Engaged in war research on Plutonium Project of Manhattan Project (since 1943). Member: Amer. Physical Soc.; (Foreign) Acad. of Sciences, Oslo. Author: Theory of X-Ray Diffraction in Crystals, 1945; also about eighty scientific papers. Office: University of Chicago, Chicago 37, Ill.

ZADE, Prof. ADOLF, Botanist; born Oct. 12, 1880, Polzin, Germany; son of Joseph and Laura Zade; educated at Univ. of Jena, Ph.D.; married Beatrice Baecklund, July 2, 1910. Asst. Prof., Univ. of Leipzig, 1919-20; Prof., 1920-33; Manager, Inst. of Plant Husbandry and Breeding in Leipzig and Dean, Philosophical Faculty, Leipzig, 1920-33. Residing in Stockholm since 1933, working as scientific expert for various industrial concerns. Member of several scientific societies. Author of numerous scientific treatises and essays on experimental botany, published in scientific journals; several textbooks and manuals. Address: Erstagatan 9, Stockholm, Sweden.

ZADEIKIS, Hon. POVILAS, Lithuanian Diplomat; born March 14, [illegible], Lithuania; son of Juezas Zadeikis and [illegible] Klimaite; educated at Imperial Univ. of [illegible] Petersburg, 1st class diploma, 1912; married Mare Radzevicaite, Aug. 30, 1923; one daughter. Member of Lithuanian mission to Leningrad, 1918. Appointed Minister of National Defense, 1919; Vice-President, Lithuanian Finance Mission in U. S., 1920. Member, Lithuanian Military Delegation in France, 1923; Consul in Chicago, 1924-28; Consul General in New York, 1928-35. Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States since July, 1935. Residence: 2622—16th St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

ZADIG, Prof. WILLIAM, Swedish Sculptor; born July 21, 1884, Malmö, Sweden; son of Philipp and Emma (Heckscher) Zadig; studied at Malmö, Berlin and Paris; divorced; three children. Exhibited at Malmö Museum, 1911; created Monument Olavo Bilac, Brazil; bust of Pedro de Toledo, Pres. of Brazil; Pres. Svinhuvud, Finland; King Gustav V of Sweden; Prince Carl. Represented in Museum of Malmö; Gallery de Maré, Paris; Stockholm Castle; in Castles of Brussels and Oslo; in Denmark and in many private collections. Held one-man shows in Paris, Malmö, Sao Paulo (Brazil), Stockholm; created sculpture "Längtan," Garden of Trälleborg, Sweden. Prof. of Sculpture in Sao Paulo, Brazil and Malmö, Sweden. Created Knight, Vasa Order; French Legion of Honor. Address: Römeholmsväg 6b, Malmö, Sweden.

ZADOR, Dr. EUGENE, Composer; born Nov. 5, 1895, Bataszek, Hungary; son of Joseph and Pauline (Beerman) Zador; studied at Acad. of Music, Vienna; Conservatory of Leipzig, under Max Reger; Univ. of Leipzig; Univ. of Muenster, Mus. D.; New York College of Music. Prof., Vienna Conservatory; Hon. Prof., Acad. of Music, Budapest. Composed: Hungarian Caprice; Hungarian Variations; Rondo; Tarantella; Biblical Triptych; Twelve Operas; some 80 songs, piano pieces, etc., performed in Europe and United States (under Stokowski, Ormandy, Szell, Barbirolli, Sevitsky, Krueger, Rodzinsky, Monteux, etc.). Member: ASCAP; Songwriters Protective Assn.; Acad. of Motion Pictures. Address: 1433 N. Sycamore Ave., Hollywood, Calif.

ZAFRA, Dr. URBANO A., Philippine Economist; born 1896, La Unión Province, Philippines; educated at New York University, B.C.S. 1922, and National University of Washington, D.C., LL.B. 1936, Dr. of Jur.Sc. 1937. Assistant to Manager of Import Dept., Commercial Bank of Spanish America, New York City, 1919-22; with Philippine Sugar Assn. as Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, 1923-32, and as Washington representative, 1933-40; also Associate Editor of "Sugar News," Manila, and lecturer and instructor in the National University and Institute of Accounts, Commerce and Finance in Manila. Technical Adviser, Philippine Economic Mission to U. S., 1929, and Philippine Mixed Mission to U. S., 1933; Technical Adviser and later Delegate of Philippine Commonwealth to London Sugar Conference, 1937; attended U. N. Conf. on Food and Agriculture, Hot Springs, 1943, and subsequent U. N. confs. Member, Philippine Delegation to U. N. Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Economic Adviser to Pres. of Philippines. Admitted to Bar in the District of Columbia. 1938, and to Supreme Court of U. S., 1943. Member of American Bar Assn. and National Press Club. Address: 5900 - 32nd St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

ZAFRULLA, Sir MUHAMMAD (KAHN), Pakistan Political Leader; born Feb. 6, 1893, Sialkote, Punjab, India; son of Nasrulla Khan and Hussain Bibi; educated at Government College, Lahore, B.A. with honors, 1911; King's College, London, LL.B. with honors, 1914; hon. LL.D. from Cambridge, 1937; called to the Bar at Lincoln's Inn, London, 1914; married Badrunnissa Begum, April, 1926; one daughter. Advocate in Lahore High Court, 1914-35; Member: the Governor-General's Executive Council, Department of Education, Health and Lands, June to Oct., 1932; Governor-General's Executive Council, Department of Commerce and Railways, 1935-37; Governor-General's Executive Council of the Department of Commerce, Industries and Labour, 1937-39; Department of Law, 1939-41; Department of War Supply, 1939-41; Judge, Federal Court of India, since 1941. Agent General for India in China on Deputation, June-Oct., 1942. Served on Punjab Legislative Council, 1926-35; on Indian Legislative Assembly, 1935-41. President, All India Muslim League, 1931-32; elected Delegate to the Round Table Conferences held in London, 1930, 1931 and 1932. Member, Indian Delegation to the Joint Parliamentary Committee on Indian Reforms, London, 1933; Leader, Indian Delegation to the Assembly of the League of Nations, Dec., 1939. President and Member, Council of the Indian Institute of International Affairs. Created a Knight in 1935; Knight Commander, Star of India, 1937. Editor of Indian Cases, 1916-32. Chmn., Pakistan Delegation, United Nations General Assembly, 1947. Minister for Foreign Affairs and Commonwealth Relations, Dec. 1947—. Address: Karachi, Pakistan.

ZAHN, Dr. ERNST, Swiss Author; born Jan. 24, 1867, Zurich, Switzerland; son of Wilhelm and Anna (Buck) Zahn; educated at Real Schule, Zurich; Boys Inst., Breidenstein, Grenchen; studied in England and Italy; Univ. of Genoa, Hon. Dr.; married Lina Faeh, 1893; two sons and three daughters. Published first book, "Herzenskaempfe" (novel), 1893 (awarded 1st prize). Author: Hoch ueber das Tal; Ins dritte Glied; Wille und Schicksal; Der Weg hinauf; Steigende Wasser; Der Faehrmann Adrian Risch; Die letzten Glocken; Sieger und Besiegte des Leens; Poetro der Schmuggler; Gewalt ueber ihnen; Tochter Dodais; Brettspiel des Lebens; Die Hochzeit des Gaudenz Orell; Frau Sixta; Blanchefleur; Die Bussfahrt der Prinzessen; Das Licht; Jonas Truttmann; Kaempfe; Bergvolk; Erni Behaim; Menschen; Herrgottsfaeden; Lukas Hochstrassers Haus; Schattenhalb; Die Clarie-Marie; Helden des Alltags; Firnwind; Die da kommen und gehen; Einsamkeit; Gedichte; Die Frauen von Tanno; Was das Leben zerbricht; Der Apotheker von Klein-Weltwil; Uraltes Lied; Die Liebe des Serverin Imboden; Bergland; Nacht; Johannes A Pro; Das zweite Leben; Lotte Esslingers Wille und Weg; Der sinkende Tag; also various books for children: Wille und Schicksal, 1936; Der Schutzenkoenig, 1937; Die tausendjaehrige Strasse, 1939; Dreiklang der Liebe, 1940; Macht der Heimat, 1941; Quintett, 1942; Die grosse Lehre, 1943; Muetter, 1945; Melodie, 1945; Mann des Friedens, 1946. Member: Swiss Soc. of Authors. Address: Stilles Ufer, Meggen near Lucerne, Switzerland.

ZAHORSKY, Dr. JOHN, American Pediatrician; born Oct. 13, 1871, Mereny, Hungary; son of John and Amalia (Gura) Zahorsky; educated at Steelville Inst., A.B. 1892; Missouri Med. College, M.D. 1895; married Elizabeth Silverwood, June 27, 1900; two children. Specialist in Pediatrics since 1911; Chief of Children's Clinic, Washington Univ. Hosp. Clinic, 1905-11; Attending Physician, St. Louis Children's Hosp., 1910-12; Lecturer in Pediatrics, Washington Univ., 1900-05; Prof. of Pediatrics, 1912—; Dir. of Dept. of Pediatrics, St. Louis Univ. School of Med., 1933—. Pediatrician to St. Louis City Hosp., 1920-23; St. John's Hosp., 1920-27; Pediatrician-in-Chief, St. Mary's Group of Hosps., since 1924. Pres. of Bd. of Dirs. of Bethesda Hosp., 1933-45. Licentiate of Amer. Bd. of Pediatrics. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Acad. of Pediatrics; Amer. College of Physicians; Southern Med. Soc.; Mo. State Med. Soc.; Acad. of Science (St. Louis), etc. Author: Golden Rules of Pediatrics, 1910; Incubator Babies, 1905; Synopsis of Pediatrics, 1934; Infant and Child in Health and Disease, 1936, etc. Address: 536 N. Taylor St., St. Louis, Mo.

ZAIMIS, Dr. PHOCION, Greek Minister of Supply; born Oct. 19, 1899, Athens, Greece; son of Assimaki and Lucy (Negris) Zaimis; educated at Univ. of Athens, LL.D.; Univ. of Munich; married Salome Ungersma, June 2, 1929; two children. Engaged in private law practice at Athens since 1922. Member of Parliament since 1928; Asst. Secy. of Finance, 1931; Minister of Supply, since 1947. Residence: Tsakaloff 28. Office: Praxiteles 23, Athens, Greece.

ZAKHAROV, Army General GEORGI FEODOROVICH, Soviet Officer; born 1898, in former Saratov Gubernia; married; two children. Began military career as private in Tsarist army, served as private in First World War; joined Red Army, 1920. Commanded battalion in Civil War; later commanded a regiment, then a division; completed courses at Frunze Military Acad., and admitted to General Staff Acad. of the Red Army. Deputy Commander of Soviet Forces on Western Front, 1941; Chief of Staff of North Caucasian Front, 1942; then Chief of Staff on Stalingrad Front; commanded forces at Second Byelorussian Front, 1944; commanded troops of Third Ukrainian Front. Distinguished himself in battle for Hungary. Promoted from Lieut. General of Guards to Col. Gen. and Army Gen., 1944. Awarded Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1944; Order of Suvorov, 1st degree, 1944; Order of Lenin, 1945. Address: Ministry of Defense, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZAKHAROV, Col. Gen. MATVEI VASILEVICH, Soviet Army Officer. Promoted to Lt. Gen. 1942; Col. Gen. 1943 —. Awarded Order of Kutuzov, 1st class, 1944; Order of Bogdan Khmelnitsky, 1st class, 1944; title of Hero of the Soviet Union, Order of Lenin and Gold Star Medal, 1945. Address: Ministry of Defense, Moscow, U. S. S. R.

ZAKHAROV, ROSTISLAV, Soviet Choreographer. Associated with the Bolshoi Theatre of Moscow. Awarded Stalin Prize for contributions to Soviet art, 1946. Address: Bolshoi Theatre, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZAKHAROV, VLADIMIR GRIGORIEVICH, Leader of the Russian Folk Chorus. Awarded title of People's Artist of the U.S.S.R.; Order of Lenin, 1944; Stalin Prize, 1946. Address: All Union Society of Soviet Theatrical Artists, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ZAKHAVA, BORIS YEVGENYEVICH, Soviet Theatrical Producer; born 1896. Director, Vakhtangov Theatre, Moscow. Awarded: Title of Honored Red Worker of Art of the R.S.F.S.R.; Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1946. Address: Vakhtangov Theatre, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZAKI, Hon. MOHAMMED AMIN, Iraqi Senator; born Feb. 1880, Suleymania, Iraq; son of Abd-el-Rahman and Amena; educated at Ottoman Military College and Staff College and in Clermont, France; married Fatma Osman Pasha, 1902; four children. Began as Staff Captain in Ottoman Army, 1902; attached to the Sixth Army at Bagdad, 1912; Military Observer in France and served on Russo-Turkish frontier, 1914. Operational Chief of the Sixth Army in Iraq, 1917; Deputy Chief of General Staff with Mustapha Kemal Pasha, 1917-18. In 1924 he became a Member of Parliament for Suleymania, and has since served as Minister of Economics and Communications. He has been for thirteen times Minister of other cabinet posts, including Defense, Education, Finance and Works; Member of the House of Senators of Iraq since 1944. Received the Turkish Medal of High Merit (1917); Turkish and Austrian War Medals (1917-18); First and Second Degrees of the Iron Cross of Germany (1918); Iraqian Civil Medal. Author of a series of studies of the Ottoman Army, Ottoman military history, histories of military strategies, military history of Iraq, histories of Kurds and Kurdistan, History of Suleymania, etc. Residence: Askery St., Bagdad, Iraq.

ZAKYTHINOS, Dr. DENYS, Greek Professor of Byzantine History; born Dec. 15, 1905, Cephalonia, Greece; son of Alexios and Evanthia (Bourboulis) Zakythinos; educated at Athens Univ., 1927; Paris Univ., Docteur-ès-Lettres, 1932; married Niky Dellaporta, Dec. 22, 1927; one child. Secy., Institut Néo-hellénique à la Sorbonne, Paris, 1931-32; Director, Fondation Hellénique, Univ. of Paris, 1932-35; Director, General Archives of Greece, since 1937. Prof. of Byzantine History, Athens Univ., since 1939. Minister of Press and Information, Apr.-Aug. 1945. Member: Soc. of Byzantine Studies, Athens; Literary Soc. Parnassos, Athens; Association pour l'encouragement des études grecques en France, Paris. Author: Le Despotat grec de Morée, 1932; Le chrysobulle d'Alexis III Comnène, empéreur de Trébizonde, en faveur des Vénitiens, 1932; Corsaires et Pirates dans les mers grecques, 1939; The Slavs in Greece; papers in Greek and other publications. Address: Historical Institute, University of Athens, Massalias 4, Athens, Greece.

ZALAMEA BORDA, Hon. JORGE, Colombian Diplomat; born March 8, 1905, Bogotá, Colombia; son of Benito Zalamea and Margarita Borda de Z.; educated at Gimnasio Moderno; Escuela Ricaurte; Escuela Superior de Agronomía; married Amelia Costa, Jan. 31, 1928; one son. Journalist, 1924; Chancellor, Consulate General of Colombia in Barcelona, 1928; Commercial Attaché, Legation at Madrid, 1931-33; Vice-Consul of Colombia in London, 1933-34. Editor, "El Tiempo" of Bogotá, 1934-35. Secretary, Ministry of National Education, 1935-36; General Secretary, Presidency of the Republic, 1936-37. Director, magazine, "Estampa," 1937-39. National Deputy for Cundinamarca, 1940-42. Minister of Education of the Republic, 1942-43; Ambassador to Mexico, 1943-46; Minister to Italy, 1946—. Author: El Regreso de Eva (play), 1927; El Departamento de Nariño (1936); La Industria Colombiana (1937); El Rapto de las Sabinas (play), 1941; Introducción al Arte Antiguo (1941); La Vida Maravillosa de los Libros, 1941; Nueva Artistas Colombianos; two volumes of translations from Saint-John Perse poetry (1946)-47), etc. Residence: Colombian Legation, Rome, Italy.

ZALESKI, AUGUST, Polish Statesman; born in Warsaw, Poland, Sept. 13, 1883; son of Szczesny and Anna (Szydlowska) Zaleski; educated at London School of Economics, B.Sc. in Economics, 1911; married Evelyn Komorowska. Librarian, Krasinski Library, Warsaw, 1912-14. Reader in Polish Language and Literature at University of London, 1915. Representative of Polish Civic Committee in London, 1915-17. Entered Polish diplomatic service as Chargé d'Affaires in Berne, 1918; Chief of "Great Powers" Section, Polish Foreign Office, 1919; Minister to Athens, 1920-21. Director of Political Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1921-22; Minister to Rome, 1923-26. Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1926-32; resigned. After German troops marched into Poland, Sept. 1939, the Polish government was set up at Angers, France, and he was again named Foreign Minister. President, Board of Directors, Bank of Commerce, Warsaw, 1932-39. President, Polish-American Chamber of Commerce and of the Polish-French Soc. Pres., Polish Govt.-in-exile, 1947—. Author: The Ancient Guild of Merchants in Warsaw, 1913; Parliamentary and Other Speeches, 1929. Address: 43 Eaton Pl., London, S.W. 1, England.

ZALESKI, XAVIER, Polish Diplomat; born Apr. 10, 1892, Ruda Talubska, Poland; son of Felix and Anna (Szydlowska) Zaleski; educated at College of the Land of Mozovia, Warsaw, 1906-11; University of London, 1913; London School of Economics, 1926-30; married Zofia Makomaska, Jan. 15, 1924. Secretary to the Commissioner-General of Danzig, 1922-26. Attaché, Embassy at London, 1926-30; Second Secretary, Legation in Brussels, 1931; First Secretary, 1934; Deputy Chief of Soviet Section, Foreign Office, Warsaw, 1935-36; Chief, Asiatic Section, Warsaw, 1936-37. Counsellor, Embassy in Tokyo, 1937-38; Chief, Anglo-Saxon Section, Foreign Office, Warsaw, 1939; Chief, Polish Press Section, Foreign Office, Paris, Angers, London, 1939-41. Counsellor of the Embassy and Consul at the Consulate General of Poland in Dublin since 1942. Author: Essentials of the English Political Structure, 1939. During First World War served in British Expeditionary Force, 1918-19, and in Polish Navy, 1920. Residence: 25 Upper Pembroke St. Office: 1 Fitzwilliam Sq., Dublin, Eire.

ZALKALN, THEODOR EDWARDOVICH, Latvian Sculptor; born 1876. Awarded Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1946; title of People's Artist of Latvia, 1947. Address: All Union Society of Latvian Artists, Riga, Latvian S. S. R.

ZAMBRANO, LUIS MARÍA, Argentine Lawyer; born April 10, 1898, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Pedro and Carmen (Aparicio) Zambrano; educated at Faculty of Law and Social Sciences, Buenos Aires, LL.B. 1928; married Luz Delia Posse, May 16, 1931; five children. Former Member of Managing Council, Sugar Industry; Director of Regulation Com., Industrial Council, of Yerba Mate; Member of Argentine Com., Inter-American Commercial Arbitration Board. Former Director, Wenceslao Posse (sugar firm); Syndicus, Fortunato Anzootequi & Co., Ltd.; Director, Raimundo Richard S.A. Syndic, Lignieres y Co., Ltd., S.A. Legal Adviser, Argentine Chamber of Commerce; Argentine Coffee Exchange. Adviser, Saint Hnos. S.A.; Pres., Sociedad Minera Zambrano y Cia. Residence: Coronel Diaz 2856. Office: Sarmiento 930, 5° piso, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

ZAMORA, ANTONIO, Argentine Publisher, Political Leader; born May 8, 1896, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Matías and Antonia (Sánchez) Zamora. Journalist 1918-22; Founder, Editorial Claridad, 1922; Pres. and Director General since 1922. Director Ediciones Antonio Zamora. Congressman, Senator, 1931-34; Deputy to Constituent Assembly, 1935; Leader of Socialist Party since 1930. Member of various cultural institutions. Pres., Instituto de las Américas. Address: Editorial Claridad, San José 1627, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

ZAMORA ELIZONDO, HERNÁN, Costa Rican Secretary of Public Education; born Sept. 2, 1894, Heredia, Costa Rica; son of Julián Zamora and Lola Elizondo; educated at Liceo de Heredia; Liceo de Costa Rica; Universidad Nacional, LL.B. 1920; married Mélida Dobles; seven children. Practiced law privately, 1920-30; taught in an agricultural school, 1921; commerce school, 1922; Director of Colegio Señoritas, 1931; Escuela Normal, 1932-36; Instituto de Alajuela, 1936-40; Secretary, Universidad Nacional, 1943; Secretary of Public Education since 1942. Pres. of Council, Boy Scouts; Member, College of Lawyers, Ateneo. Awarded Medal, Spanish Red Cross, 1937; Prize, Floral Festivals, 1924. Author: Entre los Niños; El Perro Cayó Muerto; Aguja y Ensueño; Las Horas Vagabundas; Ritmo Doliente; Orientación Literaria; Gramática Castellana; Educación de la Lengua Materna. Residence: Av. 14 Calles A.V. y 2a. Office: Avenida Fernández Güell, Calles 2 A y 4 A, San José, Costa Rica.

ZAMORA CASTELLANOS, General PEDRO, Guatemalan Officer and Engineer; born Dec. 15, 1879, Antigua, Guatemala; son of Sabino Zamora and Victoria Castellanos de Z.; educated at Escuela Politécnica, Academia de Artillería and Escuela de Ingeniería; married Jesús Rivera González, Nov. 30, 1918; four children. Under-Lieut., 1899; became Lieut., 1904; promoted Capt. and Major; Lieut.-Col., 1918; Col. of Engineers, 1919; Dir., Instituto Nacional de Varones, 1920; appointed Under-Secretary of War and made Brigadier-General, 1922; became Division General, 1929. Dean of Faculty of Engineering, 1920; Military Member, Supreme Court of Justice, and National Deputy until 1943. Minister of War, 1943-44. Author: Vida Militar de Centro América (1934); Nuestros Cuarteles (1936); Manual Militar para Jefes y Oficiales; Geometría Práctica; El Grito de Independencia, etc. Residence: Avda. Simeón Cañas No. 18, Guatemala, Guatemala.

ZANARTU ARRATIA, Prof. RODOLFO, Chilean Educator; born Nov. 17, 1908, Rere, Concepción, Chile; son of Rodolfo Zanartu V. and Elena Arratia T.; degree of Bachiller en Humanidades, 1927; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1933; Prof. de Estado, Univ. of Chile, 1933; married Aurea Cortes S., 1934; one daughter. Prof. of English, Liceo de Hombres de Concepción, 1934; Prof. of Philosophy of Education, History of Education, Teaching of Foreign Languages and Vocational Guidance and Educational Research, Seminario de Pedagogía, 1934-46; Prof. of Education, Concepción Univ., since 1934, also Secy., Faculty of Philosophy and Education. Member, Union de Profesores de Chile. Address: Concepción University, Concepción, Chile.

ZANCA, Prof. ANTONIO, Italian Architect; born Nov. 4, 1861, Palermo, Italy; son of Antonio and Antonina (Barone) Zanca; educated at Univ. of Palermo, C.E. 1887; Royal Inst. of Fine Arts, Naples diploma as Prof. of Designing, 1883); married Camilla Conti, June 21, 1890; four children. Prof. of Designing, Royal Inst. Tecnico, Palermo, 1885-1902; Prof. of Elementary Architecture, Royal Univ. of Palermo, 1890-1902; Prof. of Architecture, Univ. of Cagliari, 1903; Prof. of Elementary Architecture, Univ. of Messina, 1903-08; Prof. Elementary Architecture, Univ. of Palermo, 1909-35. Director, Inst. of Elementary Architecture, Univ. of Palermo, 1919-35. Designed: Palazzo Paterno, Palermo, 1905-09; New Municipal Palace, Messina ,1915-40; College S. Ignazio (Jesuit College), Messina, 1924-31; New Building for Bank of Sicily, Caltanissetta, 1919-24; New Polyclinic and Scientific Inst., Univ. of Palermo, 1928-30; Physical Inst., Univ. of Palermo, 1928-30; Inst. of Mathematics and Architecture, 1928-30. Address: Via Dante 153, Palermo, Italy.

ZANDONAI, Dr. RICCARDO, Italian Composer; born May 28, 1883, Sacco di Rovereto, Italy; son of Luigi and Carolina Todeschi; Mus.D. (composition). Compositions niculde: Il grillo del focolare (opera, premiered at Turin, 1908), Conchita (opera, premiered at Milan, 1911); Melenis (opera, premiered at Milan, 1912); Francesca da Rimini (opera, premiered at Teatro Regio, Turin, 1914; Teatro San Carlo, Naples, 1934); La via della finestra (opera, performed at Teatro Rossini, Pesaro, 1919); Giulietta et Romeo (opera, Teatro Constanzi, Rome, 1922); I Cavalieri di Ekebu (opera, La Scala, Milan, 1925); Giuliano (opera, Teatro San Carlo, Naples, 1928); La Partita (opera, La Scala, Milan, 1933); Farsa Amorosa (opera, T. R. dell' Opera, 1933); Primavera in Val di Sole (symphonic work, performed at Augusteo, Rome, 1915); La patria lontana (symphonic work, Augusteo, Rome, 1915); Concerto romantico (performed at Augusteo, Rome, 1921); Messa da requiem (Pantheon, 1916), etc. Awarded Mussolini Prize, Academy of Music, 1935. Address: Via d'Azeglio, Pesaro, Italy.

ZANETTI, Dr. J. ENRIQUE, American Chemist; educated at Harvard Univ., B.A., M.A., Ph.D. Member of Faculty, Columbia Univ., 1909; Prof. of Chemistry, 1929 —; Director of Chemical Laboratories, 1939—; Assoc. Provost of Columbia Univ., July 1948 —. Served in Chemical Warfare Service, World Wars I and II; received Legion of Merit from U. S. Govt. Officer, Order of British Empire. Residence: 141 E. 88th St. Office: Columbia University, New York.

ZANUCK, DARRYL F., American Motion Picture Executive; born Sept. 5, 1902, Wahoo, Nebr. Executive in charge of Warner Bros. Pictures, 1929-30; later General Production Chief, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.; Chief Executive in charge of production, Warner Bros. and First National Studios in association with Jack L. Warner, 1931-33. Formed 20th Century Productions, with Joseph M. Schenck, 1933, and produced many pictures. Vice Pres. in charge of production, 20th Century Fox Film Corp. (upon affiliation of 20th Century with Fox), 1935 —; resigned to enter U. S. Army. Commissioned Lieut. Col., U. S. Signal Corps, 1941, later Col., assigned to supervise production of U. S. Army training films; resigned Army com- Century-Fox studio as Vice-Pres. and Production Chief. Winner of Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences Award for best production ("Gentleman's Agreement") of the year 1947. Address: 20th mission in 1943 and returned to 20th Century Fox Film Corp., Beverly Hills, California.

ZAO, VOU KI, Chinese Artist; born Feb. 1, 1920, Peiping, Hupeh, China; son of Han Sen Zao and Ching-feng Wang; educated at National Inst. of Fine Arts, Hangchow; Research Inst. of Fine Arts, Shanghai; married Ching-Lan Hsieh, 1941; one child. Exhibited in Shanghai, 1940. Served in National Army as political worker in second year of war against Japan. Exhibited in Paris and Mexico; one-man shows in 1940, 1945. Lecturer at National Inst. of Fine Arts, 1940-46; Asst. Prof., 1947. Residing in Paris, 1948. Address: No. 5, Pasage 345, Sieyes Road, Shanghai, China.

ZAOUDÉ, BALAINEH, Ethiopian Economist; born Aug. 12, 1904, Merhabeté, Ethiopia; son of Balaineh and Ayahlouchim Zaoudé; educated at School of Higher Studies (Sociology) and engineering, and School of Political Sciences, Paris; also Commercial Acad.; widower. Assoc. Commissioner and Technical Chief, Commission for Settlement of Boundaries between Ethiopia and British Somaliland, 1932-34; Director General of Public Works, 1934; Director General of Public Works, Municipality of Addis-Ababa, 1942-43; appointed Under-Secy. of State for Posts, Telephone, Telegraph, and Public Works, Ethiopia, 1943. Member of Council on Public Health, 1935-36. Awarded Blata, 1942. During Italian occupation lived in Exile in France, 1936-42. Author: "Contribution au développement économique de l'Éthiopie," 1931. Residence: Empress Zaouditou Street, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

ZAPLITNY, FREDERICK SAMUEL, Member of Canadian Parliament; born June 9, 1913, Oak Brae, Man., Canada; son of Dmetro and Anna (Myzak) Zaplitny; educated at Fork River (Man.) High School; Ethelbert (Man.) High School, 1932; Normal School, Dauphin, Man., 1932-33; married Elizabeth Mary Koshey, Dec. 2, 1939; two children. Began as a teacher, 1933; Pres., North West Teachers Assn., 1938-39; Member of Executive, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, Manitoba Section, 1943-44; Pres., 1946. Member of Parliamentary Com. to choose design for a distinctive Canadian flag, 1945-46. Member of Canadian Parliament (House of Commons) since 1945. Member: The Canadian Palestine Com.; Co-operative Commonwealth Federation; Canadian Natl. Parks Assn. Residence: 39, 7th Ave., N.E. Office: 1st Ave., N.W., Dauphin, Man., Canada.

ZÁPOTOCKY, ANTONÍN, Czechoslovak Prime Minister; born Dec. 19, 1884, Zákolany, Czechoslovakia; son of Ladislav and Barbora Zapotocky; educated in public schools; married Marie Sklenivcková, Sept. 22, 1910; two children. Head of Imperial Propaganda Commission, Social Democratic Youth, Prague, 1902; Political Secy., All-Trade Union, Kladno, 1907; Member, Town Council, Kladno, 1911; Secy. General, Communist Party of Czechoslovakia, 1923; Member of Parliament, 1925; Secy. General, Revolutionary Trade Union Organisation of Czechoslovakia, 1928; detained in concentration camps during German occupation (6 years); elected Chairman, United Revolutionary Trade Union Movement of Czechoslovakia, 1945; Deputy, Provisional National Assembly, 1945; Deputy, Constituent Natl. Assembly, since 1946; Chairman of Assembly, 1946. Appointed Deputy Premier, Feb. 1948; succeeded Klement Gottwald as Premier, June 1948. Chairman: Central Council of Trade Unions; Permanent Com., Parliament; Central Com. of National Competition; Commission for Raising of Living Standard. Member of Presidium, Central Com., Communist Party. Founder, Association of Stone Sculptors, Prague, 1902; Chairman, Soc. for Economic Reconstruction. Awarded: Royal Cross of Roumania; French Cross; two Czechoslovak Medals. Author: Po staru se zit nedá (collection of all publications). Residence: Srobárova 137, Prague XII, Czechoslovakia.

ZARAGUETA, Dr. JUAN, Spanish Philosopher; born Jan. 23, 1883, Orio, Spain; son of Manuel and María Zaragueta; educated at Vitoria, Zaragoza, Madrid and Louvain (Belgium); Lic. in Law and Social Science, Ph.D., Th.D. Professor, Chairman of Study and Rector, Seminario de Madrid, 1908-17; Professor, Escuela Superior del Magisterio, Madrid, 1917-31. Professor of Philosophy, Universidad de Madrid, since 1931. Member, Société philosophique de Louvain (Belgium); President of Section of Philosophy and Theology, Asociación española para el Progreso de las Ciencias. Member and Perpetual Secretary, Royal Academy of Moral and Political Sciences of Spain. Author: Introducción general a la Filosofía, 1909; El problema del alma ante la Psicología experimental, 1910; Teoría psico-genética de la voluntad, 1914; Contribución del lenguaje a la filosofía de los Valores, 1920; El Cardenal Mercier: su vida y su orientación doctrinal, 1927; El Cristianismo como doctrina de vida y como vida (1939); La intuición en la filosofía (with D. Manuel García Morente), 1943; Pedagogía fundamental (1943), etc. Residence: Olivos 11, Parque Metropolitano, Madrid, Spain.

ZARAPKIN, S. K., Minister Plenipotentiary of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics; born 1906, Nikolayev, Russia; educated at Institute of Oriental Studies and at Faculty of History, Moscow University. Served as Chief of Second Far Eastern Department, People's Commissariat of Foreign Affairs; now Chief of American Department, People's Commissariat of Foreign Affairs. Delegate of U.S.S.R. to Dumbarton Oaks Conference, 1944, and to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZARIAN, NAIRI, Soviet Armenian Poet. Fled from massacre in Turkish Armenia to U.S.S.R. at age 14. Served on Caucasian front in World War II. Author: The Voice of the Country; Stalin, and other poems. Elected Member of Executive Committee of Union of Soviet Writers of Armenia, 1936. Address: Marks Street No. 2, Erevan, Armenian S. S. R.

ZARISKI, Dr. OSCAR, American Mathematician; born April 24, 1899, Kobryn, Russia; son of Bezalel and Anna (Tennenbaum) Zariski; educated at Univ. of Kiev, 1918-20; University of Rome, Dr. of Mathematics, 1922-24; married Yole Elizabeth Cagli, Sept. 11, 1924; two children. Rockefeller Fellow in Rome, 1925-27; Johnston Scholar, Johns Hopkins University, 1927-29; Associate in Mathematics, 1929-32. Visiting Lecturer, University of Chicago, 1931 (summer term); Associate Professor, Johns Hopkins University, 1932-37; Visiting Member, Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, 1934-35; Visiting Lecturer, University of Moscow, U.S.S.R., 1935. Professor of Mathematics, Johns Hopkins Univ., 1937-45; Research Prof. of Mathematics, Univ. of Ill., 1945—. Editor, Geometry and Topology, Transactions of American Mathematical Society. Member: National Academy of Sciences; American Mathematical Society; Mathematical Assn. of America, etc. Received Cole Prize in algebra, American Mathematical Society, 1944. Author: Algebraic Surfaces, 1935; Local Uniformisation on Algebraic Varieties, 1940; Reduction of the Singularities of Three Dimensional Varieties, 1944. Address: University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill.

ZARROUG, MUBARAK, Sudanese Lawyer; born April 4, 1916, Tokar, Sudan; son of Babikir Zarroug and Hosna Abdu Rabu; educated at Gordon College, Certificate, 1934; Khartoum School of Law, diploma (D.K.S.L.), 1943. Served in Traffic Dept., Sudan Railways, 1934-39; practicing law, since 1943. Pres., The Higher Schools Union, 1941-43. Member of Council, The Sudan Bar Assn., 1945, 1946. Member: Graduates General Congress; Congress' General Com. (body represents House of Commons in England); Congress' Executive Com. (represents Cabinet in England); The High Council of Ashigga Party; Sudan Delegation; The National Front of Omdurman (Sudan). Member, Omdurman Town Council. Winner of Farouk I Prize in Law, three times. Residence: Omdurman. Office: Sirdar Ave., Khartoum, Sudam.

ZARUBIN, GEORGI, Soviet Diplomat; born 1900; educated at Moscow Textile Inst.; Stalin Industrial Acad.; married; one son. Held a number of posts in Soviet engineering industry; Dir., Industrial Acad., 1933-38. Asst. Commissar General, Soviet Section, World's Fair, New York, 1938-40. Appointed to People's Commissariat of Foreign Affairs, 1940; Head of Consular Bureau, 1940; Head of American Dept., 1941-44. Ambassador of the U. S. S. R. to Canada, 1944-46; Ambassador to Great Britain, since 1946. Address: 13 Kensington Palace Gardens, London, W. 8, England.

ZARYANOV, Major General I. M., Soviet Jurist. Served as Member of the Supreme Court of the Soviet Union; Russian Member of the International War Crimes Tribunal in Tokyo, 1946—. Address: Ministry of Justice, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ZASLAVSKY, DAVID JOSEPH, Soviet Journalist; born 1879, Russian Poland. Joined revolutionary movement, 1900, becoming chief member of Central Committee of Jewish Workers' Party, 1903. Started journalistic career in Vilno, later in Kiev. Wrote for Pravda, Izvestia and other newspapers since 1919; now one of chief editors of Pravda. Awarded Order of Lenin, 1944; Order of the Patriotic War, 1st Class, 1945. Member, All Union Soc. of Soviet Writers. Address: "Pravda," Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZAVADSKI, YURI ALEKSANDROVICH, Soviet Theatre Director; born 1895. Former actor of the Moscow Art and Yakhtangov Theatres; now director, Mossoviet Theatre, Moscow. Produced works of Shakespeare, Shaw, Pushkin, Ostrovsky, Gorky and modern Soviet playwrights. Awarded title of People's Artist of the RSFSR; Order of Lenin, 1945. Address: Mossoviet Theatre, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZAVALA LOAIZA, Hon. CARLOS, Peruvian Jurist; born July 24, 1882, Lima, Peru; son of Pedro José Zavala and Virginia Loaiza; educated at Instituto de Lima, 1891-97; Universidad Mayor de San Marcos, 1898-1902, Bachelor in Law (1901), Doctor in Law (1904); married Rosa Oyague y Noel, June 30, 1912; two sons. Began his career as advocate in 1904; Alderman of Lima, 1906-12; Private Secretary of the President of the Republic, 1912; Attorney (Agente Fiscal) of Lima, 1912-14; Chargé d'Affaires, Peruvian Legation in Italy, 1913-14; Attorney General (Fiscal) of Lima, 1924-30; Professor of Criminal Procedure, Universidad Mayor de San Marcos, since 1926; Attorney General, Supreme Court (ad interim), 1930; Judge (Vocal), Supreme Court, since 1932; First Minister and Minister for Foreign Affairs, 1932. President, Comisión Reformadora del Código de Procedimientos en Materia Criminal, 1936; President, Supreme Court, 1941-43. Honorary Member, Ilustre Colegio de Abogados de Lima; Member, Instituto de Estudios Superiores de Montevideo. Peruvian correspondent for the Revista de Derecho Procesal of Buenos Aires. Received Gran Cruz de la Orden del Sol del Perú and the Gran Cruz de la Orden del Mérito of Chile. Author: Programa de Derecho Procesal Penal, 3rd edition, 1941; Anteproyecto y Exposición de Motivos del Código de Procedimientos Penales, 1937; Sinopsis histórica de la legislación penal en el Perú, Lima, 1941. Residence: Camaná, 943. Office: Palacio de Justicia, Lima, Peru.

ZAVALA, Prof. CLODOMIRO, Argentine Jurist; born Dec. 12, 1883, Tucumán, Argentina; son of Clodomiro Zavalía and Tomasa Olmos de Z.; married María Constanza Bunge Guerrico; eleven children. Began career in 1898 as an employee of the postal department; now Professor of Federal Law in the Faculty of Law of Buenos Aires. Served as Secretary of the Court of First Instance; Prosecutor in the Criminal Division, Federal Judge; Vice-Rector of the National Univ. of Buenos Aires; Dean of the Faculty of Law and Social Science, and Minister of Government in the Province of Buenos Aires. He is Director of the "Astra" Cía. Argentina de Petroleos; Governor, Cía. Azucarera Tucumana; President, Revista de Jurisprudencia Argentina; Governor of the firm of E. Tornquist y Cía., Ltda.; Director of La Chaqueña, S.A., Pasamar S.A., Cía. Suizo Argentina de Electricidad, S.A., and President of Pampa Film, S.A., and Cía. Argentina de Navegación Aérea, S.A. Author: Jurisprudencia de la Constitución Argentina; Derecho Federal; Derecho Municipal; Historia de la Corte Suprema; Derecho Público Provincial; Las Huelgas ante la ley, etc. Residence: Avda. Qunitana No. 381. Office: Diagonal R. S. Peña No. 832, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

ZAVALA VALLADO, SILVIO, Mexican Historian; born Feb. 7, 1909, Mérida, Yucatan, Mexico; son of Arturo Zavala and Mercedes Vallado de Z.; educated at Universidad Nacional de México; Universidad Central de Madrid, Dr. in Law, 1933; married María Castelo, Nov. 11, 1933. With Sección Hispanoamericana of Centro de Estudios Históricos de Madrid, 1933-36. Secy., Museo Nacional de México, 1937-38; Fellow, John Simon Guggenheim Foundation, 1938-40. Prof., Colegio de México, and Director, Centro de Estudios Históricos, since 1940. Editor, Revista de Historia de América, since 1938. Author: Las Instituciones jurídicas en la conquista de América; La Encomienda indiana; Fuentes para la Historia del Trabajo en Nueva España (in collaboration with wife; 8 vols.); New Viewpoints on the Spanish Colonization of America (in English, 1943). Address: Colegio de México, Sevilla No. 30, Mexico, D.F., Mexico.

ZAVARITZKY, Prof. ALEKSANDR NIKOLAEVICH, Soviet Geologist; born 1884. Interpreted in new way techtonics and geological structure of the Urals. Secy., Geology and Geography Section, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Academician, Stalin Prize Laureate; awarded Order of Lenin, 1944. Author: Magnitnaya Mountain and Its Iron Ore Deposits (3 vols.), etc. Address: Soviet Academy of Sciences, Geology and Geography Section, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZAVARSIN, Prof. A. A., Soviet Scientist. Director of the Institute of Cytology and Histology, Moscow. Member of the Branch of Biological Sciences of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Address: Institute of Cytology and Histology, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZBARSKY, Dr. BORIS, Soviet Biochemist; born 1885. Engaged in field of biochemistry since 1910. Working in Urals during World War I; evolved method of producing chloroform to supply Russian Army Medical Service; founded first research institute on food problems in U.S.S.R., 1930; official custodian and preserver of Lenin's body. Member, Academy of Medical Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Awarded: Order of Lenin (twice); Order of the Red Banner of Labor (twice); Order of the Badge of Honor; Stalin Prize; title of Hero of Socialist Labor, 1945. Address: Academy of Medical Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZECHMEISTER, Dr. LASZLO, Hungarian Chemist; born May 14, 1889, Györ, Hungary; son of Charles Zechmeister and Irene Mocsáry; educated at Eidg. Technische Hochschule of Zurich; married Camilla Benes (dec.) Jan. 11, 1924. Assistant, Kaiser Wilhelm Inst. für Chemie, Berlin-Dahlem, 1912; Instructor, Danish Royal Veterinary Academy of Copenhagen, 1921-23; Professor of Chemistry and Director, Chemical Institute of Medical School, University of Pécs (Hungary), 1923-40; Professor of Organic Chemistry, California Institute of Technology, since 1940. Member: Hungarian Academy of Science; American Chemical Society; Deutsche Chemische Gesellschaft; Société de Chimie biologique. Received the Pasteur Medal, 1935; Hungarian Academy of Science Grand Prize, 1937. Author: Carotinoide (1934); (co-author) Principles and Practice of Chromatography (1941). Editor, Fortschritte der Chemie organischer Naturstoffe. Address: California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, Calif.

ZEDER, FRED MORRELL, American Industrialist; born March 19, 1886, Bay City, Mich.; son of Rudolph and Mathilda (McKendry) Zeder; educated at Univ. of Michigan, B.S. in M.E., 1909; awarded degree of Master of Engineering, 1934; married Lucille Monroe, Sept. 10, 1918; four children. Apprentice Engineer, Allis-Chalmers Co., Milwaukee, Wis., 1909; Erecting Engineer, 1910; Engineer in Charge of Laboratories of the E.M.F. Co., 1910-13; Consulting Engineer of the Studebaker Corp., 1913-14; Chief Engineer, 1914-20; with W. P. Chrysler-Willys Corp., 1920-21; Pres., Zeder-Sketon-Breer Engineering Co., 1921-23; with W. P. Chrysler-Maxwell Motor Corp., 1923-24. With Chrysler Corp. since its organization in 1924, when elected Vice-President in Charge of Engineering until 1935; Vice-Chairman of the Bd., 1935—. Trustee, Detroit Bureau of Government Research; Member, Board of Directors, Detroit Grand Opera Society. Special Consultant, Technical Division, Ordnance Department, War Department. Residence: 17500 E. Jefferson Ave., Grosse Pointe, Mich. Office: Box 1919, Detroit, Mich.

ZEGADA VISCARRA, Prof. JOSÉ ANTONIO, Bolivian Lawyer; born March 2, 1903, Sucre, Bolivia; son of Arturo and Zoraida (Viscarra) Zegada; educated at Colegio Sucre de Cochabamba; Universidad Simón Bolívar, Ph.B., Licentiate in Social Science, LL.B.; married Adela Pereira, June 27, 1929; four children. Began legal career, 1925; engaged in private practice of law, maintaining office at Sucre. Professor of Philosophy and Professor of Civil Law at Universidad Simón Bolívar. Member: Colegio de Abogados (President, 1935), Sociedad Geográfica, Asociación de Profesores (Secretary, 1937); Federación de Estudiantes (President, 1924). Author: Investigación Judicial de Paternidad; El sistema sucesorio en Bolivia; Registro Civil; Bolivia en su aspecto internacional, etc. Residence: Junín 74. Office: Sucre 262 (segundo piso), Cochabamba, Bolivia.

ZEGARRA BALLON, EDILBERTO, Peruvian Editor and Publisher; born Feb. 24, 1872, Arequipa, Peru; son of Dr. Francisco A. Zegarra and Julia Ballon de Z.; educated at Colegio Nacional de la Independencia Americana; married (1st) Clotilde Valdez (dec.); (2nd) Magdalena Pantigoso; seven children. Staff-writer on La Revista del Sur, 1890-91; Statistical Officer, Provincial Council, 1891-96; Under-Prefect, Province of Islay, 1896-99; appointed Visitor to Tax Offices of Southern Peru, 1899; Secy. to President of Republic, 1901-03. Tax Visitor, 1903-05. Founded newspaper "El Pueblo", 1905; Editor and Director, since 1905. Senator for Dept. of Arequipa, 1909-15. Author of two volumes of verse, Espontaneas and Poemas, and of a Biography of Ex-Pres. Eduardo L. de Romana. Residence: San Jose 108. Office: Mercaderes No. 328, Arequipa, Peru.

ZEIGLER, LEE WOODWARD, American Painter; born May 6, 1868, Baltimore, Md.; son of Daniel and Laura (Woodward) Zeigler; educated at Maryland Inst.; married Mary Stuart Roe, Oct. 16, 1909; one daughter. Exhibited at Natl. Acad., 1908; since participated in national shows. Director, St. Paul Inst. School of Art, 1910-18. Awards: Gold Medal, St. Paul Inst.; Silver Medal, Maryland Inst. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Arts of London, England. Artist for "Life"; illustrator of historical works and muralist. Address: Fanewood, New Windsor, Newburgh, N. Y.

ZEILER, Dr. JOE American Surgeon; born Feb. 12, 1896, Leadville, Colo.; son of Meyer and Nettie Zeiler; educated at College of Physicians and Surgeons, Univ. of So. Calif.; married Elsie Hicks, 1927; one daughter. Urologist, U. S. Veterans Bureau, 1921-28; Urol., U. S. Public Health Service, since 1921; now holds rank of Surgeon; Urol., French Hosp., Los Angeles; Urol. and Chairman of Urol., Queen of Angels Hosp., Los Angeles. Member of Calif. State Med. Soc. and Los Angeles County Med. Soc. Author of Anomalies of Kidney, 1924. During First World War served in Med. Enlisted Reserve Corps until 1919. Vice-President, State Bd. of Med. Examiners. Residence: 122 Fremont Pl. Office: 1930 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif.

ZEITLIN, ISRAEL (Cesar Tiempo), Argentine Writer; born Mar. 3, 1906, Ekaterinoslav (now Dnieperetrowsk), Ukraine, Russia; son of Gregor Zeitlin and Rebecca Porter; brought to Buenos Aires, 1906; educated at Colegio Nacional Rivadavia; Escuela Nacional de Artes; married Elena Itzcovitz, Feb. 22, 1936; three children. Writer since 1923. Editor, Newspapers "La Vanguardia," "La Nacion," and "Critica"; Chief of Theatres and Literary Supplements of "El Sol"; Staff-writer, "La Prensa". Founded magazines Sancho Panza and Revista de Oriente; Secy., Editorial Staff, "Claridad", 1926-28; Director, Sociedad de Amigos del Libro Rioplatense. Founder and Director, "Columna" a liberal democratic journal. Formerly Director, Compania Nacional de Teatros. Past-Secy. (four terms), Sociedad Argentina de Escritores; Member, Comisión Investigadora of the Sociedad General de Autores de la Argentina. Writer for Radio El Mundo, Radio Belgrano, and Radio Splendid. Author: Para la Pausa del Sabado; La Campaña Antisemita; Pan Criollo; Quiero Vivir; Saba-Domingo; Yo Hable Con Toscanini; Mascaras y Caras. Awarded First National Poetry Prize, 1930; National Theatrical Prize, 1937. Residence: Tinogasta No. 2426. Office: Cangallo 910, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

ZEKI AL KHAYAT, AHMAD, Iraqi Government Official; born 1897, Baghdad; son of Mahdi and Fatima; graduated with distinction, Law College, Baghdad, 1925. First appointment in Civil Service as interpreter, Post and Telegraph Department, Baghdad, 1920; head clerk, Directorate General of Posts & Telegraphs, 1924-26; Head of Kufa until 1926; Secy. of Ministry of Education, 1926-27; Head of Administration in Hindiyah and Kurnah, 1926-27; Vice-Consul in Mohammara, Iran; until 1931, when became Gov. of Kut Liwa, until 1932; appointed Governor of Amarah Liwa and Governor of Kerbala Liwa, 1934; Consul-General in Bombay, India, 1934-35; Governor of Hilla Liwa until 1937, when became Land Settlement Officer in Mosul-from. Dir. General of Posts and Telegraphs, Ministry of Public Works and Communications, 1937-41; practiced law in Baghdad until 1944, when became Dir. General of Propaganda, Ministry of Interior. Presided over Iraqian Delegates at Telecommunication Conferences in Cairo, Egypt, 1938. Residence: Mahallat El-Saadoon, Awn St., Baghdad, Iraq. Office: Ministry of Interior, Baghdad, Iraq.

ZELENY, Dr. ANTHONY, American Physicist; born Apr. 20, 1870, Racine Co., Wis.; son of Anthony H. and Josephine (Pitka) Zeleny; educated at Univ. of Minnesota, B.S. 1892, M.S. 1893, Ph.D. 1907; Univ. of Chicago, 1900; Gottingen, Germany, 1912; Princeton Univ., 1915-16; married Mattie L. Day, June 8, 1897; two sons. Scholar in Physics, Univ. of Minnesota, 1895-97; Instructor in Physics, 1897-1906; Asst. Prof. of Physics, 1906-09; Prof. of Physics, 1909-38; Emeritus Prof. since 1938. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (Vice-Pres. 1914); Amer. Physical Soc.; (Foreign) Natl. Acad. of Sciences of Czechoslovakia. Author: Elements of Electricity, 1930, 1935; Manual of Physical Measurements (co-author). 1902, 1908, 1912, 1919, 1923, 1937. Address: Dept. of Physics, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

ZELENY, Dr. JOHN, American Physicist; born March 26, 1872, Racine, Wisconsin; son of Anthony H. and Josephine (Pitka) Zeleny; educated at the University of Minnesota, B.S. 1892, Ph.D., 1906; Berlin University, 1897; Cambridge University, B.A. 1899; hon. M.A., Yale University, 1915. Instructor, Physics, University of Minnesota, 1892-96; Asst. Professor, Physics, 1896-1900; Associate Professor, Physics, 1900-08; Professor, Physics, University of Minnesota, 1908-15; Professor of Physics, Yale University, 1915-40. Lecturer in Physics, Yale, 1941-43. Chairman, Dept. of Physics, Yale University, 1918-40. Member: American Philosophical Society; American Academy of Arts and Sciences and American Assn. of Physics Teachers. President, American Physical Society, 1940. Author of numerous articles on electrical discharges through gases. Address: Sloane Physics Laboratory, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut.

ZELINSKY, Prof. NIKOLAI D., Soviet Chemist; born Feb. 6, 1860, Tiraspol, Moldavia. Identified with study of petroleum and development of oil industry; prominent in sphere of the chemistry of albumin, in the field of physical chemistry. Inventor of first carbon gas mask. Author of more than 500 publications in theoretical and applied science. Prof. at Moscow Soc. of Nature Experimentalists. Member, Acad. of Sciences of the U. S. S. R. since 1929. Hon. Member, Chemical Soc., London; Member, Chemical Soc. of France. Dir., Organic Analysis Dept., Inst. of Organic Chemistry of the U.S.S.R. Awarded title of Scientist of Merit, 1926; Hero of Socialist Labor, 1945; two Orders of Lenin, 1946; two Stalin Prizes, 1946; elected Hon. Member, U.S.S.R. Soc. for Scientific Knowledge, 1948. Address: Moscow University, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZELLER, Dr. GASTON, French University Professor; born Mar. 9, 1890, Belfort, France; son of Gustave and Juliette (Berthold) Zeller; educated at Lyceums of Grenoble, Besançon and Paris; Univ. of Strasbourg, Litt.D. 1926; married Marguerite Humbert, May 18, 1927. Lecturer, Univ. of Clermont-Ferrand, 1928-33; Lecturer at Univ. of Strasbourg, 1933; Prof., 1933-46; Prof. at Sorbonne, Paris, since 1946. Author: La réunion de Metz à la France (2 vols.), 1927; La France et l'Allemagne depuis dix siècles, 1932; Le siège de Metz par Charles-Quint, 1943; L'Alsace française de Louis XIV à nos jours, 1945. Address: 14 rue Gambetta, Boulogne-sur-Seine. Office: Sorbonne, Paris, France.

ZELLERBACH, HAROLD LIONEL, American Manufacturer; born March 25, 1894, San Francisco,; son of Isadore and Jennie (Baruh) Zellerbach; educated at Univ. of California, 1913-15, and Univ. of Penna., B.S. 1917; married Doris Joseph, 1917; three children. With Zellerbach Paper Co. since 1917 starting as Personnel Manager; Pres. and Dir. since 1928; also Executive Vice-Pres. and Dir. Director of Fibreboard Products, Inc., and of Rayonier, Inc. Residence: 3410 Jackson St. Office: 534 Battery St., San Francisco, California.

ZELLERS, JOHN ADAM, American Industrialist; born in Lebanon, Pa.; son of Isaac Wood and Amanda (Tice) Zellers; studied at William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo. Joined Remington Rand Inc. as a typewriter salesman; successively Manager in Kansas City, St. Louis and New York; Supt. of Domestic Offices; Gen. Mgr. of European Offices; General Foreign Director; Vice-Pres., 1927—. Pres. and Dir., Monarch Typewriter Co.; also Dir. of various foreign subsidiaries. Chmn., Internatl. Section, New York Bd. of Trade (Pres., 1940-41). Pres.: American Inst. of City of N. Y.; N. Y. County Fair Assn.; Soc. of Mexico Pilgrims; The Americas Foundation. Pres., Bd. of Trustees, Barnard School for Boys. Director: Better Business Bureau of N. Y.; Natl. Patriotic Council; Natl. Foreign Trade Council. Chmn.: Industry Panel Members Assn.; Greater N. Y. Civic Center Assn. U. S. Chmn.,Internatl. Soc. for Business Education. Trustee: N. Y. Acad. of Sciences; The Mills School, N. Y. etc. Residence: 365 West End Ave. Office: 315 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y.

ZEMURRAY, SAMUEL, American Industrialist; born 1877, Bessarabia, Roumania. Came to U. S., 1888. Commission merchant in Alabama and Louisiana. Organized and headed Cuyamel Fruit Co., until 1930, when business was sold to United Fruit Co. Managing Director in charge of operations, United Fruit Co., 1932; Pres., 1938-48; Chairman of Executive Com., 1948—. Pres. and Director, Revere Sugar Co. Engaged in agricultural projects in Louisiana and South America. Residence: 2 Audubon Place. Office: 605 United Fruit Building, New Orleans, La.

ZEN, HUNG-CHUN, Chinese Educator: born Dec. 20, 1886; educated in China, degree 1905; Cornell University, B.A.

1916; Columbia University, M.A. 1918; married Sophia H. Chen; three children. Professor of Chemistry, Government University of Peking, 1921. Director, Bureau of Higher Education, Ministry of Education, 1922-23; Professor and Vice-Chancellor, Southeastern University, Nanking, 1923-25. Executive Secretary, China Foundation for the Promotion of Education and Culture, 1925-28; Director and Trustee, 1928-35; Trustee and Member of Executive Committee since 1935. Chancellor, National Szechuen University, 1935-37. Secretary-General, Academia Sinica, and a Member, People's Political Council, 1938-41; Director and Trustee, China Foundation for the Promotion of Education and Culture, since 1942. Chairman, Committee on Editing and Translation, since 1938. Founder, 1915, President, 1915-25, Director since 1925 of Science Society of China. Member, Board of Directors, National Library of Peiping, since 1928; Member of the Board of Directors, Chinese Chemical Society, since 1941; Member of Board of Directors, West China Scientific Museum, since 1945. Author: Scientific Method; translator of Spencer's "Essay on Education." Residence: 161 Litsepa, Chungking. Office: China Foundation for the Promotion of Education and Culture, Nanking, China.

ZENKL, Dr. PETR, Czechoslovak Statesman; born June 13, 1884, Tábor, Czechoslovakia; son of Petr and Veronika (Ungrová) Zenkl; educated at Charles Univ., Prague, Ph.D.; married Pavla Sevcovicová, Nov. 13, 1909. Prof. at Commercial School, 1907-18; Assoc. Prof., Agricultural School; Councillor, Ministry of Social Welfare; Manager, Central Inst. for Social Insurance, 1926; Cabinet Member of two last Governments before World War II; Deputy Prime Minister, 1946-48. Chairman, Czechoslovak Socialist Party. Fled to American zone in Germany, Aug. 1948. Residence: Cechova II, Prague XIX, Czechoslovakia. Address: c/o U. S. Army, Frankfort-on-Main, Germany.

ZENO VÁZQUEZ, FRANCISCO M., Puerto Rican Journalist; born Oct. 4, 1886, Cidra, Puerto Rico; son of Justo Zeno and Elodia Vázquez de Z.; married Josefa N. Puenta, 1912; eight children. Founder and First Pres. (1916) Asociación de Productores de Tabaco de Puerto Rico. He was a Founding Member of the Asociación de Agricultores de Puerto Rico (1924), and of the Federación de Agricultores de Puerto Rico (1932). In 1905 he organized the Unión de Tabaqueros No. 472, the first affiliate of the A. F. of L. in Puerto Rico. He served as Scholastic Director of Cidra, 1908-10; Mayor of that municipality, 1910-14; Senator for the District of Guayama, 1920-24, 1924-28, and 1928-32. From 1920 to 1928 he was President of the Comité de Agricultura y Comercio of the Senate, and President of the Finance Committee, 1929-32. He was Member of the Economic Commission of Puerto Rico, as well as Executive Vice-President, 1929-32. In 1932 he became one of the founders and Vice-President of the Partido Unión Republicana. He has been in journalism since 1931; served as Director of paper "La Córresponencia de Puerto Rico." He is Past Master of the "Almas Unidas Lodge" of the Masonic Order; District Deputy for Guayama, 1914. In 1931 he served on the Comité de Ciencias Morales, Sociales y Politicas del Ateneo Puertorriqueño. Publications: Cuestiones Sociales (1922, First Prize of the Ateneo); Influencia de la Industria Azucarera en la Vida Antillana, y sus consecuencias sociales (1929, Inter-Antillean Prize); Causas Mesológicas que dificultan el desarrollo de la Escuela Rural en Puerto Rico (1927); La Independencia de Puerto Rico en su aspecto Económico (1936); El Sermon de Los Mares (a study of the Atlantic Charter, published in 1941 and awarded the prize of the Institute of Literature of Puerto Rico). Residence: La Paz, Miramar, Santurce, P. R. Address: Box 906, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

ZENTMAYER, Dr. WILLIAM, American Ophthalmologist; born Oct. 28, 1854, Phila., Pa.; son of Joseph and Katharine (Blum) Zentmayer; educated at Univ. of Pa., M.D. 1886. Chief, Out-Patient Dept., Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, Children's Hosp., 1887; Surgeon to Glen Mills School, 1887; Asst. Surg., Wills (Eye) Hosp., 1890; and Surgeon, 1901; Surgeon to St. Mary's Hosp., 1893; Surgeon of St. Agnes Hosp., 1909; Prof. at the Philadelphia Polyclinic School for Graduates, 1911; Prof. of Ophthalmol., Med. Dept. of the Grad. School, Univ. of Pa., 1918; now Consulting Surgeon to Wills (Eye) and St. Mary's Hospitals and Glen Mills School. Member, Board of Directors of National Soc. for Prevention of Blindness, 1937; appointed to Adv. Board of Pa. Soc. for Prevention of Blindness, 1938; Fellow of Amer. Med. Assn. (Chairman of Section on Ophthalmol., 1916-17); College of Physicians of Philadelphia (Chairman of Section on Ophthalmol., 1909-10), and Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Member of Amer. Ophthalmol. Soc. (Pres., 1926-27); Acad. of Ophthalmol. and Otolaryngol.; Ophthalmol. Society of United Kingdom (British); Pa. State Med. Soc. (Chairman of its Section on Diseases of Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, 1935-36), Med. Alumni Soc. of Univ. of Pa. (Pres., 1922-23), etc. Assoc. Editor of Archives of Ophthalmol.; Editor of Transactions of College of Physicians of Philadelphia, 1899-1913. Awarded Leslie Dana Gold Medal for outstanding achievements in the prevention of blindness and conservation of vision, 1945. Res.: 265 Forrest Rd., Merion Station, Pa. Office: 1930 Chestnut St., Suite 803, Philadelphia, Pa.

ZÉPHIRIN, LOUIS S., Haitian Senator, Lawyer; born April 6, 1887, Cap-Haitien, Dept. du Nord, Haiti; educated Inst. of Christian Brothers, Cap-Haitien; Lyceum Philippe Guerrier, Cap-Haitien; married in 1911; six children. Former Commissioner, Civil Court, Cap-Haitien; Prof., Lyceum, Cap-Haitien; Prof. of Administrative and Constitutional Law, Free Law School, Cap-Haitien; Chief of Section, Dept. of Interior, 1914; Pres. of Senate, Republic of Haiti, 1932-40; elected Senator for Northern District, 1930, renion Nationale (national defense journal), elected 1946. Former Chief Editor, L'Opinion Nationale (national defense journal, northern district). Former Collaborator, Aux Varietes, La Phalange du Nord, A L'Essort, etc. Decorated Commander, Haitien Order of Honor and Merit; Officer, French Legion of Honor. Residence: Villa Rivière-froide, Port-au-Prince, Haiti. Offices: Palais Législatif, Port-au-Prince, Haiti; rue 9 Henri Christophe, Department du Nord, Cap-Haitien, Haiti.

ZEPHIRIN, MAUCLAIR, Haitian Diplomat; born April 5, 1914, Cap-Haitien, Haiti; son of Louis S. and Anina (Byas) Zephirin; educated at College Notre Dame, B.A. 1932; Free School of Law, Cap-Haitien, LL.B. 1935; married Capucine Leconte, 1935; one daughter. Secy. of Haitian Delegation to 8th Inter-Amer. Conf., Lima, 1938; Prof. of Sciences, Letters and History, National Lyceum Philippe Guerrier, 1932-45; Prof. of Administrative Law, Constitutional Law and Financial Sciences, Free Law School, Cap-Haitien, 1938-46; Asst. Dist. Attorney, Civil Court, Cap-Haitien, 1945-46; First Secy., Haitian Embassy at Washington, D. C., since 1946. Haitian Delegate to UNRRA, 1946; Pres. of Haitian Delegation to Special Session of U. N. General Assembly, 1947. Director, Cap-Haitian Library, 1939-45. Pres., Literary Soc., 1939-41. Member: Cercle Primevere; Union Club; (Hon.) Alliance Française. Director, Le Messager du Nord (political and literary journal), 1938-42. Author of essays on political and literary problems, 1935-46. Address: Embassy of Haiti, 16th St., N.W., Washington 11, D. C.

ZERBE, KARL, American Painter; born Sept. 16, 1903, Berlin, Germany; son of Karl H. and Maria (Krammer) Zerbe; educated at Paris, France, Frankfort, Germany, Munich and Florence; married Marion Koegel, Sept. 2, 1936; one daughter. Exhibited at Gallery Gurlitt, Berlin, Germany, 1922; Harvard Univ. Germanic Museum, 1934; Marie Sterner Gallery, N. Y., 1934; Buchholz Gallery, N. Y., 1941; Vose Gallery, Boston, 1941; Downtown Gallery, N. Y., 1943; Chicago Art Inst., 1946; Downtown Gallery, 1946. Director, Painting Dept., School of Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, since 1937. Represented at: Fogg Museum; Cambridge Museum of Fine Arts; Whitney Museum; Albright Art Gallery; Chicago Art Inst.; Phillips Memorial Gallery; City Art Museum; John Herron Art Inst.; Los Angeles County Museum; San Diego Museum; Univs. of Nebraska, Georgia, Washington; Encyclopedia Britannica; International Business Machines Corp.; Rhode Island Museum. Awards: John Barton Payne Medal, Richmond, Va., 1942; Blair Prize, 1943 and Harris Medal, Chicago Art Inst., 1946. Address: 50 Snake Hill, Belmont, Mass.

ZERNIKE, Dr. FRITS, Dutch Physicist; born July 16, 1888, Amsterdam, The Netherlands; son of C. F. A. and Anne (Dieperink) Zernike; educated at Univ. of Amsterdam, Sc. D. 1915; married Dora van Bommel van Vloten, 1929; two children. Asst. in Astronomy, 1913; Lecturer on Theoretical Physics, Univ. of Groningen, 1915-20; Prof. of Theoretical and Technical Physics, since 1920. Member, Royal Netherlands Acad. of Sciences. Awarded Gold Medal, Dutch Soc. of Sciences, Haarlem, 1912. Author of article on statistics in German Handbuch der Physik, 1928. Inventor of Phase Contrast. Address: Verschuurlaan 5, Groningen, The Netherlands.

ZERUOS, Dr. PANAYIOTIS, Greek Mathematician; born 1878, Cephalonia, Greece; son of Spyridon and Anastasia (Montessantou) Zeruos; educated at Univ. of Athens, 1895-99, Dr. Mathematics, 1901; Sorbonne, Paris, 1903-05; married Charicllia Papaeoannou, Aug. 27, 1925; one son. Lecturer of Higher Mathematics, Univ. of Athens, 1906; Prof. of Mathematics. Prof. of Physics, School of Navy Officers; Prof., Univ. of Athens, since 1917. Dean, Faculty of Exact Sciences, Univ. of Athens, 1923-24; Vice-Rector, 1934-35; Rector, 1935-36. Member, Acad. of Athens, since 1946. Participated in Internatl. Mathematical Congresses at Rome, 1908, Cambridge, 1912, Strasbourg, 1920, Bologna, 1928, Athens, 1934. Inter-Balkanic Pres., Organizing Com., and Vice-Pres. of Congress, 1937. Pres., Greek Philosophical Soc.; Director, Revue Mathématique Inter-balkanique; Hon. Pres., Anglo-American Hellenic Bureau of Education; Vice-Pres., Amer. Hellenic Educational Inst. Member: Administrative Council of Social Insurances, 1937-41; Natl. Com. of Allies Education, since 1946; Founder, Inter-Balkanic Mathematical Union; Vice-Pres., Organizing Com., 100th Anniversary, Univ. of Athens, 1937. Member: French, American and German Mathematical Socs.; Palermo Mathematical Soc., Italy. Hon. Member, Société des Sciences, Agriculture et Arts du Bas-Rhin. Decorated Ras Taffari; Greek Award of Phoenix. Author: On Theorem of Descartes, 1901; Some Remarks on Discovery of Number of Positive Roots of Polynome, 1901; Variations of Polynome, 1903; On Roots of Algebraic Quotations, 1904; Development of Function into Series Progressing according to Whole and Positive Potences of Another Function, 1904; Monge's Problem (Mémorial des Sciences Math.), 1930. Address: 21 St. Demetrius St., Psychico, Athens, Greece.

ZERVAS, General NAPOLEON, Greek Political Leader; born 1890, Epirus, Greece; educated at Military Academy. Served in Greek Army, retiring in 1920. Engaged in political activities; exiled to France, 1933-38. Formed right-wing guerrella band (EDES) in fighting against Nazis, World War II. Leader of National Party. Served in Parliament; Minister of Public Order in Maximos Govt., 1947. Visited the U. S., 1948. Address: Greek National Parliament, Athens, Greece.

ZETLAND, 2nd Marquess of, Rt. Hon. Lawrence John Lumley Dundas, K.G., P.C., G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E., British Administrator; born June 11, 1876; educated at Harrow and Trinity College, Cambridge; married Cicely Archdale, 1907; four children. Member of Parliament (Conservative) for Hornsey Division of Middlesex, 1907-16; Governor of Bengal, 1917-22; Secretary of State for India, 1935-40; Secretary of State for Burma, 1937-40. President, 1922-25, and now Trustee, Royal Geographical Society; President, India Society; President, Royal Asiatic Society, 1938-31. Chmn., 1931-45; Fellow, British Acad. Gov., National Bank of Scotland. Author of numerous publications. Address: Aske, Richmond, Yorks., England.

ZETTERBURG, HERMAN, Swedish Minister of Justice; born in Uddevalla, Sweden; son of Hugo and Alma (Rehnberg) Zetterberg; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, LL.B. 1928; married Kitty Rippe, 1931; three children. Member, Court of Appeal in Stockholm; Head of a Section of Justice Dept.; Minister of Justice since 1945. Author of various legislative acts. Residence: Igelkottsvägen 35, Appelviken, Sweden. Office: Justice Department, Stockholm, Sweden.

ZEVALLOS MENENDEZ, SIMON DAVID, Ecuadorean Minister of Economy; born March 22, 1905, Guayaquil; son of Carlos Anibal and Josefina (Menendez Navarro) Zevallos Zambrano; educated at Colegio Vicente Rocafuerte; married Maria Lola Chevasco, Oct. 28, 1929; five children. Employed by Customs House, Guayaquil, 1920; became Asst. Officer, Inspector of Customs, and Director General of Customs. Political Chief of Guayaquil; Temporary Governor, Province of Guayas; Pres., Natl. Economic Comn.; Minister of Economy, 1945 —. Director of various corporations. Residence: Amazonas y Robles, Quito, Ecuador.

ZEVIN, B(ENJAMIN) D(AVID), American Publisher; born May 16, 1901, New York, N. Y.; son of Herman and Hannan (Brooke) Zevin; studied in Public and High Schools of New York; New York Univ. (special courses); married Lillian Cahen, 1934; four children. Began wtin an advertising agency, 1919; headed own organization, 1922; later entered trade paper business; Business Manager, Daily Food News (N. Y.), 1928-34; Advertising Director, World Publishing Co., Cleveland, Ohio, 1934-36; Director of Sales and Advertising, 1936-39; Vice-Pres., 1939; now Pres. Started Tower Books, first series of low-cost non-fiction reprints in America, 1939; sales of Tower Books exceeded 5,000,000 copies, 1944. Residence: 22801 Lake Shore Blvd., Euclid, Ohio. Office: 2231 W. 110th St., Cleveland, Ohio.

ZHAVORONKOV, Marshal SEMEN FEDOROVICH, Soviet Aviation Officer. Advanced through grades to Col. Gen. of Aviation, 1943; promoted to Marshal of Aviation, 1944. Awarded Order of Uzhakov, 1st class, 1944. Deputy Chief of Civil Aviation of the U.S.S.R., 1947—. Address: Ministry of Civil Aviation, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ZHAVORONKOV, VASSILY GAVRILOVICH, Soviet Political Leader. Secretary of Tula Regional Committee of Communist Party, 1941-48; Minister of Trade of Soviet Union, 1948—. Chairman, Tula City Defense Com., during World War II. Awarded Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1942. Address: Ministry of Trade, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ZHDANOV, Prof. ALEKSANDR PAVLOVICH, Soviet Physicist; awarded degree of Dr. of Physicomathematical Science. Director of Laboratory of Radium Inst., Soviet Acad. of Sciences. Recorded at 9,000 meters, the first recorded case of splitting caused by cosmic rays, 1939. Awarded Stalin Prize for new forms of fission of atomic nuclei caused by cosmic rays, 1946, outlined in paper, "Anomalous Fission of the Nuclei of Bromine and Silver by Cosmic Rays." Address: Radium Institute, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZHEBRAK, ANTON ROMANOVICH, Soviet Scientist; born 1901, Byelorussia; educated at Timirazov Moscow Agricultural Academy, 1925. Professor at the Agricultural Academy in Moscow and Minsk. Member of Delegation of Byelorussian Soviet Socialist Republic to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Member, Academy of Science of the Byelorussian SSR. Author of some 30 scientific works on Genetics, Cytology and Plant Breeding. Address: Agricultural Academy, Minsk, Byelorussian S. S. R.

ZHELTOV, General ALEXEI, Soviet Army Officer. Member of Soviet Military Commission in Vienna and second in command, 1946—. Officer of the NKVD (Russian Secret Police). Address: Soviet Military Commission, Vienna, Austria.

ZHEMCHUZHINA, PAULINA (Mme. Molotoff), Soviet Chief of Textile and Notions Industry; married Vyacheslav M. Molotoff. Asst. Commissar of Food Industry, 1937-39; Commissar of Fish Industry, 1939; Alternate Member of Central Com. of Communist Party until 1941. Chief of Soviet Textile and Notions Industry, 1946—. Address: Ministry of Textile and Notion Industry, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZHUKOV, GREGORY KONSTANTINOVICH, Soviet Marshal; born 1896; educated at Frunze Military Academy. Entered Russian Army, 1915; fought Japanese forces in border clashes on Amur River, 1938-39; served as Chief of General Staff, 1940-41; defended Moscow as Commander-in-Chief of area, 1941; led Soviet winter offensive as Commander-in-Chief of Western Front, 1941-42; later commanded Southern Front. Made Marshal of the Soviet Union, Aug. 1942; First Deputy Commissar for Defense, 1942-44; defended Leningrad; Commander of First Byelorussian Front; commanded First Ukrainian Front armies, 1944-45; liberated Warsaw, 1945; Commander of troops which raised the victory banner over Berlin, May, 1945. Signed German surrender pact for USSR; represented USSR on Allied Control Commission for Germany; Deputy for Stalin in Victory Parade, Moscow, June, 1945. Soviet Military Administrator in Germany, 1945; Commander, Odessa Military District, 1946; Deputy Minister of the Armed Forces and Head of the Ground Forces, 1946—; Chief of Military Mission in Poland, 1948. Alternate Member, Central Com. of Communist Party of the Soviet Union, since 1941. Awarded Virtuti Militari Cross, 1st class, with Star, by Polish Govt. for liberation of Warsaw, 1945; decorated Cavalier of Order of Victory (twice); Hero of the Soviet Union (thrice); Order of Lenin; Order of Suvorov; C.B.E. Address: Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZHUKOV, Dr. YURI, Soviet Journalist. Expert on Far Eastern Affairs. Covered U. N. Conf. on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945; appointed Foreign Editor of Pravda, 1946; reported Big Four Ministers Conf. in London, Nov.-Dec., 1947. Address: Pravda, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZIARKO, Dr. ALBERT ALLOSIOUS, JR., American Clergyman, Educator and Musical Conductor; born March 14, 1922, New York, N. Y.; son of Rev. Albert Allosious and ae (Goodale) Ziarko; educated at Royal Acad. of Music, London, England, Musicae Magister degree, 1935; University of Prague, Czechoslovakia, Artium Baccalaureus degree; hon. Doctor of Music degree by Royal proclamation, Oxford University School of Music, England, 1940; married Zelda Frances Skebo, June 27, 1942; one son. Specialized in work of extending pleasure and psychiatric benefits of music to deaf since 1938. Founded, with E. Lorene Newton, National Project in Piano and Music Appreciation for the Deaf, Detroit, 1939. Formerly Dean of Special Education, Detroit Foundation School of Music; Director of Music, U. S. School of Music, Washington, D. C., 1941. Now Dean Emeritus, School of Music in Washington, D. C. and New York. Held musical appointment on National Board of Education, Washington, D. C., 1941. Member of American Conductors Assn. and Detroit Symphony Assn. Fellow of Royal Academy of Music. Recipient of Philadelphia Academy Award for pioneering in problem of teaching deaf and mute to play piano and enjoy concerts; John Hotchkiss Medal, 1941, awarded by Northwestern University Educational Research Club for greatest contribution to education and music development; Cross of French Legion of Honor and Italian Vittorio Emmanuele Collar of Order of Annunziata. Ordained to Ministry of Christian Church, Feb. 27, 1944; appointed Associate Minister to Rev. Henry Hogg, S.T.D., pastor of Congregational Baptist Church, Detroit, March, 1944; Assoc. Minister, Linden Baptist Church, Detroit, Feb., 1947—. Member: Detroit Museum of Art Founders Soc.; Michigan Humane Soc.; Metropolitan Opera Guild, etc. Address: 9030 Lawton Ave., Detroit 6, Michigan.

ZICKENDRAHT, Dr. HANS, Swiss Physicist; born Dec. 28, 1881, Basle, Switzerland; son of Heinrich and Elisabeth (Icely) Zickendraht; educated at Humanistisches Gymnasium; Realschule, Basle, B.A. 1899; Univ. of Basle, Ph.D. 1905; Heidelberg, 1905-06; married Lucie Deriaz, 1912; three children. Privatdocent, Univ. of Basle, 1911; later Asst. Prof.; Prof. since 1934. Prof. of Physics, Höhere Chemieschule, Mülhausen, Alsace, 1912-14; Instructor, Humanistisches Gymnasium, Basle, 1915-47. Engineer-Councillor, Union Internationale de Radiodiffusion, 1925-26; Dean, Faculty of Philosophy and Science, Univ. of Basle, 1937. Pres.: Commn. for popular lectures, Bernoullianum, 1932-42; Radiogenossenschaft, Basle, 1926-30; Swiss Physikalische Gesellschaft, 1922, 1923; Basler Naturforschende Gesellschaft, 1918. Author: Radio in der Schweiz, 1924, 2nd ed. 1925. Address: Physikalische Anstalt, University of Basle, Basle, Switzerland.

ZIEGFELD, ROBERT LINDLEY, American Engineer; born May 23, 1904, Chicago, Ill.; son of William Kimball and Carrie Fulghum (Lindley) Ziegfeld; educated at Sheffield Scientific School, Yale Univ., B.S. 1925; married Margery Moon Pearson, Feb. 9, 1945. Mining Engineer: New Modderfontein Gold Mining ,Co. Transvaal, South Africa, 1925-26; Oliver Iron Mining Co., Eveleth, Minn., 1926-27. Asst. Secy., Lead Industries Assn., 1929-47; Secy.-Treas., since 1947. Acting Secy.-Treas., Metal Powder Assn., since 1947. Member: Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers; Amer. Mining Congress; Amer. Soc. of Metals; Amer. Soc. for Testing Materials; Amer. Soc. for Sanitary Engineering; Army Ordnance Assn.; Soc. of Amer. Military Engineers, etc. Residence: 50 Drake Road, Scarsdale, N. Y. Office: Lead Industries Assn., 420 Lexington Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

ZIEGLER, ADOLPH H., American Lawyer; born Dec. 20, 1889, Longwood, Md.; son of John J. and Pauline Ziegler; educated privately; married Katherine Ziegler, July 28, 1938; one son. With law firm of Cheney & Ziegler, Juneau, Alaska, 1915-18, then Ziegler & Gore, Ketchikan, Alaska, 1918; practiced law privately, 1919-36; with law firm of Ziegler & King, Ketchikan, Alaska, since 1936. Pres., First Natl. Bank, Ketchikan. Pres., Board of Education, Territory of Alaska. Member, Legislature of Alaska, 1929, 1931, 1935; Mayor of Ketchikan, 1937-38. Member, Amer. and Ketchikan Bar Assns. Address: Commercial Bldg., Ketchikan, Alaska.

ZIEGLER, Rt. Rev. WINIFRED HAMLIN, American Bishop; born November 23, 1885, Detroit, Michigan; son of Paul and Mary Frances (Bell) Ziegler; educated at Columbia University, A.B. 1911, hon. S.T.D. 1937; Western Theological Seminary, S.T.B.; D.D., Seabury-Western Theological Seminary, 1936; awarded University Medal by Trustees of Columbia Universtiy, 1935; married Marie Eleanor Barton, June 12, 1911; three sons and one daughter. Missionary-in-Charge, Valdez, Alaska, and points on Prince William Sound, Alaska, 1911-14; Priest-in-Charge, Port Angeles, Wash., and of missions on the Olympic Peninsula, Wash., 1914-15. Vicar, All Saints' Church, Lehighton, Pa., 1915-18; 1st Lieut. Chaplain, 14th Division, U.S.A., 1917-18; now Capt. and Chaplain, U.S.A., Reserve. Dean, St. John's Cathedral, Albuquerque, N. M., 1919-21; Archdeacon of New Mexico, 1921-23; Rector, Church of the Redeemer, Elgin, 1923-30; Archdeacon of Chicago, 1930-36; Bishop of Wyoming since 1936. Residence: 101 S. 3rd St. Office: 310 University Ave., Laramie, Wyo.

ZIFF, WILLIAM B., American Publisher; born Aug. 1, 1898, Chicago; son of David and Libby Mary (Semco) Ziff; educated at Art Institute of Chicago, 1916; married (2nd) Amelia Mary Morton, April 27, 1929; four children. Began as an artist, 1916. Pres., W. B. Ziff Co., newspaper representatives, since 1920, and of Ziff-Davis Publishing Co., publishers of Plastics, Industrial Aviation, Flying, Popular Photography, Radio News, Amazing Stories, Fantastic Adventures, Mammoth Detective Magazine, and Little Technical Library Books since 1933, the Ziff-Davis Book Division. President, E. C. Auld Co., publishers, Chicago, 1923-32. Editor: America's Humor Magazine, 1928-30; Aeronautics Magazine, 1931-33. Awarded Diploma d'Honneur of the Ligue Internationale des Aviateurs for dissemination of aviation knowledge, 1931. Chairman, Interracial Soc., 1928-31; Special Consultant to Dept. of Justice, 1943; candidate for Congress, 1932. Co-leader and ethnologist of expedition to Honduras, 1934. Author: Rape of Palestine, 1938; The Coming Battle of Germany, 1942; Every American a Guerilla Fighter (included in English textbook anthology, American Expressions on the War and the Peace), 1943; The Gentlemen Talk of Peace, 1944; Two Worlds, 1946; He, the Maker, 1948. During First World War served with 202nd Aero Squadron, U.S.A. Address: 185 N. Wabash Ave., Chicago 1, Ill.

ZIGERLI, PAUL, Swiss Parliament Member: Civil Engineer; born Apr. 1, 1833, Berne, Switzerland; son of Robert and Jane (Ahrens) Zigerli; educated at Technical School Berthoud, Berne (diploma in civil engineering), 1906; Univ. of Technology, Munich; married Martha Bindschedler, April 10, 1911. Draftsman, 1904; Engineer in charge of construction of Hydroelectric Power Station, Andeisbuch, Austria, 1906-07; Director of Construction Co., Eng. F. Bastianelli, Rome, Italy, 1908-12 (in charge of Hydroelectric Power Station at Duare, Dalmatia; Nitrogen Plant at Dugirat, Dalmatia); wtih General Contracting and Engineering Office, Spalato, Dalmatia, 1913-19, engaged in building of cement factories, nitrogen plants, concrete ships, harbor construction etc., with offices in Vienna, Zagreb, Trieste and Spalato; Consulting Engineer, with office in Zurich, since 1919. Inventor of Z-Process for biological treatment of sewage. Elected Member of Swiss Parliament (Evangelical People's Party), 1943. Director General and Member of Executive Com., Société Française de l'Everite, Paris; Member of Board of Directors, Säntis Schwebebahn (transportation). Delegate of Swiss Consul at Trieste for Dalmatia, 1914-19. Pres.: Swiss Union "For the Family"; Swiss Soc. of Fishermen; Swiss Com. for Construction Work in Poland. Awards: Silver Medal, Colonial Exposition, Marseille, 1922; Gold Medal, Internatl. Exposition, Barcelona, 1929; Honor Medal, Internatl. Exposition, Poznan, Poland, 1930. Author of numerous technical papers in various technical journals. Served in Swiss Army (Home Guards), 1939-45. Address: Forchstrasse 67, Zurich, Switzerland.

ZIGROSSER, CARL, American Museum Curator of Prints; born Sept. 28, 1891, Indianapolis, Ind.; son of Hugo A. and Emma (Haller) Zigrosser; educated at Columbia College, A.B. 1911; married Florence King, 1915 (died 1945); one daughter; married (2nd) Laura Canadé, 1946. Research Asst. with F. Keppel & Co., dealers in etchings and engravings, 1912-17; engaged in research work with United Engineering Socs. Library, New York, until 1918. Director of Weyhe Gallery, New York, 1919-40; Curator of Prints at Philadelphia Museum of Art, since 1941. Guggenheim Fellow, summers of 1939 and 1940. Author: Twelve Prints by American Artists, 1919; Fine Prints Old and New, 1937; Six Centuries of Fine Prints, 1937; The Artist in America, 1942; Lithographs by Lautrec, 1946; Kaethe Konwitz, 1946; also numerous articles. Address: Philadelphia Museum of Art, Philadelphia, Pa.

ZIKRI, ANTOINE JOSEPH, Egyptian Librarian; born 1885, Tahta District, Upper Egypt; son of Joseph Henein and Folla, Sab-El-Geil Kigri; educated at Egyptian Univ., Cairo, Licencié in Egyptology, Letters Section, 1923; married Wassilie, daughter of late Amin Yassa, Aug. 27, 1931; three children. Librarian, Library of Egyptian Antiquities, since 1925. Author of many articles in Coptic published in "Annales du Service des Antiques". Address: Egyptian Museum, Cairo, Egypt.

ZILAHY, Dr. LAJOS, Hungarian Writer; born 1891; educated at Budapest Univ.,

Dr.Jur. Began as lawyer; Paris and London newspaper correspondent of various newspapers. Editor of daily newspaper, Magyarország. Author: Hazajáro lélek, 1923; Süt a nap, 1924; Csillagók, 1925; Zenebohocok, 1925; Tüzmadár, 1931; Ararat, 1948, etc. Books translated into every European language; plays appeared on English and American stages; many books made into motion pictures. Disposed of personal fortune and future income as a writer by grant to the state in Hungary for the foundation of an educational institute. Address: Nemzeti Szinhaz, Budapest, Hungary.

ZILBORG, Dr. GREGORY, American Psychiatrist; born 1890, Kiev, Russia; educated at Columbia Univ. College of Physicians and Surgeons, 1926. Fellow of Amer. Med. Assn. Certified by Amer. Bd. of Psych. and Neurol. Member of Amer. Psychoanalytic Assn.; Amer. Psych. Assn.; Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Diseases; Amer. Orthopsych. Assn. Author of The Medical Man and the Witch During the Renaissance, 1935; A History of Medical Psychology (with others), 1941; Mind, Medicine and Man, 1943. Residence: Cantito Road, Bedford Village, N. Y. Office: 885 Park Ave., New York, N. Y.

ZILVETI ARCE, PEDRO, Bolivian Political Leader; born Oct. 19, 1897, Sucre, Bolivia; son of Pedro José Zilveti and Adelaida Anzoategui Campero; educated at Colegio Nacional Junin de Sucre; Faculty of Philosophy and Letters, Universidad Nacional de Buenos Aires, Argentina; married Julia Kammert Barrou, July 16, 1924; four children. Journalist and writer since 1919. Edited newspapers in Bolivia and other countries. Served as Director of "La República" and "La Reforma" of La Paz; President, Editorial Universe. National Deputy for Chuquisaca, 1923-27, and for Potosí, 1927-31. Member, Board of Government, 1936; Minister of Development and Communications. Senator for the Department of Chuquisaca since 1940; Minister (pro tem) of Foreign Affairs and Worship; Minister of Government, Justice and Immigration; Under-Chief, Partido Republicano Socialista. Residence: Avda. 6 de Agosto No. 1066, La Paz, Bolivia.

ZIMAKOV, Dr. P., Soviet Chemist; received Doctor of Chemistry degree. Won Stalin Prize for research methods of obtaining ethlyne oxide and on its transformation, 1946. Author of many scientific publications. Address: Branch of Chemical Sciences, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Mosow, U.S.S.R.

ZIMBALIST, EFREM, American Violinist and Composer; born April 9, 1889, Rostov-on-Don; early musical training under father; studied in Imperial School, St. Petersburg, under Auer; married Alma Gluck, 1914; two children; (2nd) Mary Louise Curtis Bok, 1943. Debut in Berlin at age of seventeen; first American appearance wtih Boston Symphony, 1911. Innumerable concert appearances in Europe and United States; two world tours, six tours of Orient. Joined Faculty of Curtis Inst. of Music, 1928; Director of Inst., since 1941. Composer of following works for orchestra: American Rhapsody; Portrait of an Artist; Concert phantasy on Rimsky-Korsakov's 'Le coq d'or'; violin concerto. Other compositions include Sonata in G. minor for violin and piano, String Quartet in E minor and "Sarasateana" (Suite of Spanish Dances). Address: Curtis Institute of Music, Rittenhouse Sq., Philadelphia 3, Pa.

ZIMBALIST, MARY CURTIS, President of Curtis Institute of Music; born Aug. 6, 1876, Boston, Mass.; daughter of Cyrus H. K. and Louise (Knapp) Curtis; educated in private schools; married Edward M. Bok, 1896 (dec. 1930); (2nd) Efrem Zimbalist, 1943. Founder, Curtis Inst. of Music, Philadelphia, Pa., 1924. Hon. Degrees: L.H.D., Univ. of Pennsylvania; Mus.D., Williams College; Litt.D., Colby College. Address: 1816 Delancy Pl., Philadelphia 3, Pa.

ZIMMERLI, Prof. WALTHER, Swiss Theologian; born at Schiers, Canton Graubünden, Switzerland; son of Jakob and Lili (Frey) Zimmerli; educated at Evangelical School, Schiers; studied theology at Univs. of Zurich, Berlin and Göttingen, 1925-29; married Irmgard von der Ropp, Apr. 3, 1933; six children. Ordained to Reformed Church, Gebenstorf, Aargau, 1930. Asst. to Profs. Rahlfs and Hempel, Theological Faculty, Univ. of Göttingen, 1930-33; Inspector, Theologisches Sprachenkonvikt, Göttingen, 1932-33; Pastor, Aarburg, Aargau, 1933-35. Asst. Prof. (Extraordinarius) of Old Testament, History of Religion and Oriental Languages, Univ. of Zurich, 1935-38; Prof. (Ordinarius), since 1938. Founder and Member, Reformiertes Theologenhaus, Zurich; also 2 Reformierte Studentenhäuser, Zurich. Pres. of Board, Evangelical Teachers Seminary, Zurich since 1940. Author: Geschichte und Tradition von Beerseba, 1932; Calvin: Psychopannychie, 1932; Zur Struktur del altestamentlichen Weisheit, 1933; Die Weisheit des Predigers Salomo, 1936; Die Urgeschichte, 2 vols., 1943. Field Preacher, Swiss Army, since 1940. Address: Steinwiesstrasse 35m Zurich, Switzerland.

ZIMMERMAN, Hon. CHARLES BALLARD, American Jurist; born June 22, 1891, Springfield, Ohio; son of John Luther and Helen (Ballard) Zimmerman; educated at Wittenberg College, A.B. 1911; Harvard Law Schol, 1911-13; hon. LL.D., Wittenberg College, 1946, and Bowling Green State Univesrity, 1947; married Dorothy Gayford, April 24, 1930, three children. Began practice of law in Springfield, 1913. Candidate on the Democratic ticket for Congress in 1922, for Attorney-General of Ohio, 1926; for the Supreme Court of Ohio, 1932. Appointed to the Supreme Court of Ohio in 1933; elected 1934, reelected 1940 and 1944. Residence: 218 Forest Ave., Springfield, Ohio. Office: Judiciary Bldg., Columbus, Ohio.

ZIMMERMAN, Rev. Dr. LEANDER M., American Clergyman; born in Manchester, Md., August 29, 1860; son of Henry and Leah (Glatfelter) Zimmerman; educated at Gettysburg (Pa.) College and Seminary, LL.D. 1939; Susquehanna Univ., D.D. 1901. Ordained to Lutheran ministry, 1887, when he organized a Mission Christ Lutheran Church in Baltimore, serving as Pastor for 38 years; now Pastor Emeritus. One of founders and Ex-Pres. Lutheran Deaconess Motherhouse, Baltimore; formerly member and Vice-President of the Lutheran Board of Home Missions. He has been a Director of the Lutheran Seminary at Gettysburg, Pa., since 1918. Author: Paths That Cross; Cordelia; Sparks; Dot; Yvonne; Reminiscences; Pearls of Comfort from Tennyson's "In Memoriam"; The Gospel Minister; Shepherding of Souls; The Church of Our Faith; Mellow Fruits of Experience; Book of Prayers (25 printings), The Preacher's Doorknob; God's Living Truths, and many books of poems, including Roses Will Bloom Again; The Loss Is Yours; God's Rainbow; Mother Love; I Now Understand; Making Friends; Thoughts for Happiness; Better Days Are Coming; Love and Sunshine; A Bow Unfailing; Helps; A Healing Voice, etc. Address: Hotel Lafayette, Washington, D. C.

ZIMMERMAN, LOUIS SEYMOUR, American Banker; born Sept. 8, 1876, Baltimore Co., Md.; son of Charles Thomas and Mary Scott (Seymour) Zimmerman; educated at Univ. of Md., LL.B. 1900. Private secy. to Pres. of Maryland Trust Co. upon its organization in 1894, becoming Assistant Secretary and Assistant Treasurer; Second Vice-President, 1907; Acting President and Director, 1908 and President, 1910. The company merged with two other institutions in 1930, and he became Vice-President and Director. Vice-President, Treasurer and Director of Houston Oil Co. of Texas and Houston Pipe Line Co. Treas., Southwestern Settlement and Dev. Corp.; Chmn. of Board and Director, Houston Natural Gas Corp., all of Houston, Texas. Director: Maryland Casualty Co., Baltimore; Black & Decker Manufacturing Co., Towson, Md.; Central Savings Bank, Baltimore; Maryland & Pennsylvania Railroad Co.; Baltimore & Annapolis R.R. Co.; Baltimore Brick Co. Trustee and Member, Executive Committee, Community Fund, Baltimore; Trustee and Treasurer, South Baltimore General Hospital; Treasurer, Baltimore Council, U.S.O., and Maryland State War Fund; President and Member, Board of Managers, Severn School, Inc., Severna Park, Md.; Member, Association of Commerce, Baltimore. Residence: Severna Park, Anne Arundel County, Md. Office: Maryland Trust Co., Calvert & Redwood St., Baltimore, Md.

ZIMMERMAN, RUFUS EICHER, American Industrialist; born Nov. 26, 1886, Mt. Pleasant, Pa.; son of Simon P. and Mary Grace (Eicher) Zimmerman; educated at Franklin & Marshall College, Ph.B. 1908, and Mass. Inst. of Technology, B.S. 1911; married Anna Burns, Sept. 7, 1911; two daughters. Instructor, Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1911-14. Research Assoc., American Sheet & Tin Plate Co., Research Laboratory, Pittsburgh, Pa., 1914, and Assistant Director, 1915-17; Acting Dir., 1917-18; Dir., 1919-22; Asst. to Vice-Pres., 1922-32; Asst. to Pres., U. S. Steel Corp., New York, 1932-33; Vice-Pres., 1933-38. Vice-Pres., Research and Technology, U. S. Steel Corp. of Delaware, 1938—; also Dir. and Member of Exec. Com. Formerly Member of Corp., Mass. Inst. of Technology. Member of Advisory Board, Princeton Engineering Association; Trustee of Hood College, Frederick, Md., and Franklin & Marshall College. Ex-President and Director, American Standards Assn. Awarded Soc. for Metals Medal, 1946. Residence: Highland Ave. & Stewart Rd., Short Hills, N. J. Offices: 436 Seventh Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.; 71 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

ZIMMERMAN, Dr. WILLIAM FREDERICK, American College President; born July 20, 1902, Falls City, Nebr.; son of William and Anna (Hartman) Zimmerman; educated at Midland College, Fremont, Nebr., A.B. 1922; Univ. of Nebraska, M.A. 1926; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1928; married Meta S. Ungerer, July 15, 1930; one son. Principal, Dwight (Nebr.) High School, 1922-23; History Teacher, Luther College, Wahoo, Nebr., 1923-25; Asst. in History, Univ. of Nebraska, 1925-26; Asst. in History, Cornell Univ., 1926-27. Head of History Dept., Midland College, Fremont, Nebr., 1928-42; Dean of Men, 1930-33; Dean of the College, 1933-42. Pres., Thiel College, Greenville, Pa., since 1942. Member, Bd. of Foreign Missions, United Lutheran Church in Amer. since 1940. Member: Amer. Historical Assn.; Natl. Education Assn., etc. Author: Legislative History of Nebraska Populism, 1926; Barnave the Monarchist, 1928, etc. Address: Thiel College, Greenville, Pa.

ZIMMERMANN, Dr. GEORG, Austrian Minister of Finance; born Nov. 18, 1887, Capo d'Istria, Italy (formerly Austria); son of Dr. Otto and Alice (Pazze) Zimmermann; educated at Middle School, Trieste; Univ. of Vienna, Law Faculty, LL.D. 1912; married Leonie Buechi, July 4, 1921; two daughters. Entered Dept. of Finance, Trieste, 1912; after World War I appointed to Budget Section, Ministry of Finance, Vienna; in charge of loan negotiations, Paris and London, 1925; Expert on Budget, Supervisory Com., Ministry of Finance and Acting Chairman of Com., until 1938; pensioned off by National Socialistic Regime, 1938; Head of Dept. of Finance and Secy. of State, 1945; Minister of Finance since Dec. 1945. Residence: Trauttmansdorffgasse 50, Vienna XIII, Austria. Office: Johannesgasse 5, Vienna I, Austria.

ZIMMERMANN, Rev. Dr. (GEORG) ARNOLD, Swiss Clergyman; born July 19, 1872, Zurich, Switzerland; son of Georg Rudolf and Maria Emma (Finsler) Zimmermann; educated at Cantonal Gymnasium, Zurich; Univs. of Basle, Berlin and Halle, 1891-95; ordained, Evangelical Reform Church, 1895; Univ. of Zurich, Hon. Th.D. 1937; married Marie Sander, 1900; six children. Vicar, Bülach, 1895-96; Weiach, 1896-97. Pastor, Weiach, 1897-1903; Rorbas, 1903-13; Neumünster, Zurich, 1913-40. Member of Church Council, Canton Zurich, 1924-33; Vice-Pres., 1933-39; Pres., since 1939. Chairman, Schweizer Evangelischen Kirchenbund, since 1940. Pres., Landeskirchliche Flüchtlingshilfe, Canton Zurich. Author: Bilder aus der Kirchengeschichte (with Emil Staub), 1st ed. 1900, 13th ed. 1943; Georg Rudolf Zimmermann, Ein Lebensbild aus der Zürcher Kirche (with Theophil Zimmermann), 1903; Die Kanaresische Mission, 1929; Die Zwingli Gedenkfeier im Jahr 1931; Die Bronze-Türe am Süd-West Portal des Grossmünsters, 1939; Zum hundertjährigen Bestehen der Kirche, 1940; Die Bedeutung des Fraumünsters fuer die Zürcherkirche von der Reformation bis zur Regeneration, 1942. Address: Silbergrundstrasse 8, Küsnacht, Canton Zurich, Switzerland.

ZIMMERN, Sir ALFRED, Kt., British Political Scientist; born Jan. 26, 1879, Surbiton, Surrey; son of Adolf and Matilda de Neufville-Eckhard Zimmern; educated at New College, Oxford, M.A. Oxon; Bristol, Litt.D. 1932; Melbourne, 1938; Aberdeen, LL.D. 1942; Trinity College, Hartford, hon. LL.D. 1947; married Lucie Anna Hirsch-Flotron, March 31, 1921. Tutor in Ancient History, New College, Oxford, 1903-09; Fellow, 1904-09. Staff Inspector, Bd. of Education, 1912-15; Member of Political Intelligence Dept., Foreign Office, 1918-19; Prof. of Internatl. Politics, Univ. College of Wales, Aberystwyth, 1919-21; Prof. of Govt., Cornell Univ., 1922-23; Deputy Director, League of Nations, Inst. of Intellectual Cooperation, 1925-30; Prof. of International Relations, Oxford, 1930-44; Deputy Director, Research Dept., Foreign Office, 1939-45; Adviser, External Relations, Ministry of Education, 1945. Secy. General, Constituent Confs. of UNESCO, 1945; Exec. Secy. (later Adviser), UNESCO Preparatory Commission, 1946. Now Visiting Prof., Trinity College, Hartford, Conn. Joint Secy. of Com. on Oxford and Working Class Education, 1907. Member of International Relations Commission of World Council of Churches. Author: The Greek Commonwealth, 1911; Nationality and Government, 1918; Europe in Convalescence, 1922; Learning and Leadership, 1926; The Third British Empire, 1926; The Prospects of Democracy, 1929; The League of Nations and the Rule of Law, 1936; Spiritual Values and World Affairs, 1939.

Residence: 30 Farmington Ave. Office: Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

ZINCHENKO, KONSTANTIN E., Soviet Foreign Office Official; graduate of Konsomol (Young Communist League) and of diplomatic school. Third Secy., later First Counselor, Soviet Embassy, London, 1940-42; Chief of Press Dept., Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1943-47; Head of Latin-American Section, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1947—. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZINKEISEN, ANNA KATRINA, R.O.I., R.D.I., British Artist; born in Kilcraggan, Scotland; daughter of Victor and Clare Bolton (Charles) Zinkeisen; educated at Royal Academy Schools, London; privately; married Col. Guy Heseltine, R.A., 1928; one daughter. Executed mural paintings for liners Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth; surgical drawings during the war for war injuries for Royal College of Surgeons; clinical and pathological drawings for various textbooks. Paintings are included in permanent collections in the United Kingdom and Canada. Fellow and Council Member, Royal Society of Arts; Member, Royal Institute of Oil Painters; National Society of Painters, Sculptors and Engravers. Won Médaille d'Argent; Médaille de Bronze, Paris; Médaille d'Argent, Exposition des Arts Décoratifs, Paris. Address: Royal Institute of Oil Painters, 195 Piccadilly, London, England.

ZINSMASTER, H. W., American Business Executive; born May 15, 1885, Des Moines, Iowa; educated at Amherst College. Advertising Representative, J. Walter Thompson Co., New York, 1908-12; Vice-Pres. and Sales Manager, Des Moines (Iowa) Bakery Co., 1912-13. Organizer and Pres.: Zinsmaster-Smith Bread Co., Duluth, Minn., 1913-18; Zinsmaster Bread Co., since 1918; Zinsmaster Baking Co., of St. Paul, Minn., since 1919; of Minneapolis, Minn., since 1929; Zinsmaster Hol-Ry Co., Duluth, Minn., since 1931. Director: Duluth Morris Plan; First and Amer. National Bank, Duluth; Northern Pacific Railway Co.; Griggs Cooper Co., St. Paul; Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, Minneapolis, Minn.; Natl. Assn. of Manufacturers. Director and Member of Executive Com., The Nutrition Foundation, Inc. Trustee, Com. for Economic Development since 1946; Member, Business Advisory Council, Dept. of Commerce, Washington, D. C., since 1942; Regional Industrial Consultant, Defense Plant Corp., Washington, D. C., 1941-44; Member, Minnesota Postwar Council; Chairman, American Bakers Assn., since 1947 (Dir. since 1933). Address: 2831 W. Superior St., Duluth, Minnesota.

ZIOLKOWSKI, KORCZAK, American Sculptor; born Sept. 6, 1908, Boston, Mass.; son of Joseph and Anne Ziolkowski; educated at Rindge Technical School (grad. 1925); married Dorothy Brewster Comstock, Aug. 4, 1934; one daughter. Began as a wood carver in Boston, 1925. Principal sculptural works: Cabot Memorial (Judge Baker Guidance Center, Boston), 1933; Marble Head of President MacCracken of Vassar College, 1934; Cabot Memorial (Symphony Hall, Boston), 1935; Marble Paderewski (First Sculptural Award, New York World's Fair, 1939—"Study of an Immortal"), 1935; Marble Head of Artur Schnabel, 1935; Marble Head of Georges Enesco, 1937; Hands of Katharine Cornell (San Francisco Art Museum), 1937. He has also created other successful works, including fountains, equestrians, portrait heads, figures and a Statue of Noah Webster (13 ft. high) for West Hartford, Conn. (Webster's birthplace). He assisted Gutzon Borglum on the Mount Rushmore National Memorial, South Dakota, 1939. Working on largest sculptural memorial in the world in Black Hills of South Dakota; colossal equestrian figure in the round, carved from a mountain peak, of Crazy Horse, martyred chief of Dakota nation (project initiated by Sioux Indian chiefs). Member, The Players; Natl. Sculpture Soc. Served as combat sergeant, anti-aircraft artillery, World War II. Address: 216 Sedgwick Rd., West Hartford, Conn.; Crazy Horse Ranch, Custer, South Dakota.

ZIUGZDA, Prof. JUOZAS, Soviet Educator. Deputy to the Supreme Soviet for the Alitus Area of the Lithuanian Republic. Minister of Education of the Lithuanian S. S. R. Vice President of the Lithuanian Academy of Sciences. Address: Ministry of Education, Vilnius, Lithuanian Soviet Socialist Republic.

ZIVKOVIC, Dr. RADOMIR, Yugoslav Jurist; born Dec. 21, 1907, Belgrade, Yugoslavia; son of Ljubomir and Mila (Tadic) Zivkovic; educated at Belgrade Univ., LL.D. 1939; married Ivanka Matkovic, July 2, 1945. Asst., Faculty of Law, Belgrade Univ., 1934-40; Prof. of Law, 1940—. Appointed Stagiaire, International Labour Office, 1937; Yugoslav Govt. Representative, U. N. War Crimes Commn., 1944; Member of Yugoslav Govt. Delegation to UNESCO, London, 1945; Special Adviser to Yugoslav Delegation, First Assembly, U. N. Organization, London, 1946. Residence: 14 Poenkareova, Belgrade, Yugoslavia.

ZLOTOWSKI, Dr. IGNACY, Polish Diplomat, Physicist; born May 20, 1907, Warsaw, Poland; son of Adam and Anne Berenice (Wajnberg) Ziotwoski; educated at Warsaw Inst. of Technology, Chem.E. 1930, Sc.D. 1934; Warsaw Univ.; Univ. of Paris, veniam legendi 1936. Teaching Asst., Warsaw Inst. of Technology, 1930-33; Instructor, Inst. of Physical Chemistry, Univ. of Warsaw, 1935-37; Lecturer, since 1937; engaged in research work at Polytechnical Inst., Warsaw, 1930-33; Radium Inst., Warsaw, 1933; Radium Inst., Paris (collaborating with Mme. Curie and Irene Joliot-Curie), 1934-36; Nuclear Chemistry Laboratory, College of France, Paris (collaborating with Dr. and Mme. Joliot-Curie), 1936-38; Magnetic Laboratory, French Academy of Sciences, Bellevue, 1938-39; Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique Appliquée, France, 1938-40; Centre de Documentation, 1940. Research Assoc., Rockefeller Foundation, Univ. of Minnesota, 1941-42; Asst. Prof., Vassar College, 1942-44; Ohio State Univ., 1944-46; Prof., New School for Social Research, New York, 1942-46. Actng Dir., Political Dept. for Amer. Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Warsaw, 1946; Deputy Delegate of Poland to Atomic Energy Commission, U. N. Security Council, 1946; Minister Plenipotentiary and Counselor, Polish Embassy, Washington, D. C., since 1946. Address: 2400 Sixteenth St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

ZNANIECKI, Prof. FLORIAN WITOLD, Polish-American Sociologist; born Jan. 15, 1882, Swiatniki, Poland; son of Leon and Amelia (Holtz) Znaniecki; educated at Univs. of Warsaw, Geneva, Zurich and Paris; Cracow Univ., Ph.D. 1910; married (1st) Emily Szweykowska, 1906; (2nd) Eileen Markley, 1916; two children. Director of Emigrant Protective Assn., Warsaw, 1910; Lecturer in Sociology, Univ. of Chicago. 1917-19; Prof. of Sociology, Univ. of Poznan, 1920-39; Visiting Prof., Columbia Univ., 1931-33 and 1939-40; Prof. of Sociology, Univ. of Illinois, since 1940. Director, Polish Sociological Inst., 1922-39; Pres., State Inst. for Rural Culture, 1937-39. Member: Internatl. Inst.

of Sociology; Masaryk Sociological Soc.; London Sociological Inst.; Amer. Sociological Soc.; French Sociological Inst. Created Knight Commander, Polonia Restituta. Author: The Polish Peasant (with W. I. Thomas); Cultural Reality; The Laws of Social Psychology; The Method of Sociology; Social Actions; The Social Role of the Man of Knowledge; The Problem of Values; Humanism and Knowledge; The Fall of Western Civilization; Introduction to Sociology; Sociology of Education; The City; Men of Today and Civilization of Tomorrow, etc. Address: University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill.

ZOG I, Ahmed Bey, Albanian Ex-King; born 1895; educated at Turkish Lycée, Constantinople; married Countess Geraldine Apponyi, 1938. Minister of Interior, 1920; Prime Minister, 1923; President of Albanian Republic, 1925; King of Albania, 1928; now deposed. Address: Zizinia District, Alexandria, Egypt.

ZOGRAFOV, BORIS, Bulgarian Journalist; born Jan. 6, 1891, Bitolia, Macedonia; son of Stephan and Fanka (Apostolova) Zografov; educated at State Univ. of Sofia, lic.let. 1919; married Anastasia Gantcheva, June 6, 1922; one son. Secy. of Press, Bureau of Press, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Sofia, 1921-26; Editor-in-Chief, Macedonian Tribune, Indianapolis, Indiana, U. S. A., 1927-30; Staff Artist, Herald and Examiner, Chicago, Ill., 1931; Director, Bulgarian Telegraph Agency, since 1942. Contributor to Bulgarian daily newspapers and periodicals with articles on art, poetry, theatre, also short stories, cartoons and caricature portraits of Bulgarian people; contributor to publications in Sofia of Movement for Liberation of Macedonia, 1918-27. Member, Bulgarian State Commn. (for awarding literary prizes), 1923-25; Officer, Board of Bulgarian-Polish Soc. for Cultural and Friendly Relations between Bulgaria and Poland, 1922-25. Member: Board of Assn. of Bulgarian Journalists, Sofia, 1938-44; Central Com., Union of Macedonian Political Organizations in U. S. and Canada, 1927-30. Member: Union of Bulgarian Journalists; Macedonian Inst. of Science; Assn. of Friends of Bulgarian Folklore. Awarded Bulgarian Medal for merit in civic services. Author: Principle of National Minorities and Macedonian Question, 1924. Volunteer Balkan War; Lieut., World War I. Address: Bulgarian Telegraph Agency, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Sofia, Bulgaria.

ZOLLSCHAN, Dr. IGNAZ, Physician and Anthropologist; born May 29, 1877, Erlach, Lower Austria; son of Max and Rosa (Hacker) Zollschan; educated at Univ. of Vienna, M.D. 1904; married Minna Margoninsky Aug. 1913 (dec. 1930); (2nd) Ruth Wollsteiner, Oct. 1938. X-Ray Specialist, Carlsbad, Czechoslovakia, 1912-38; also (winters) Univs. in South America, Abyssinia, Far East, etc. Organizer, Favus Eradication campaign in Poland and east European Countries. In charge of Amer. Joint Distribution Com., 1921-22; reorganized X-Ray work in Palestine, 1927-28. Lecturer, Hebrew Univ., Jerusalem; Dropsie College, Philadelphia; New York Jewish Theological Seminary. Organizer (with Pres. Masaryk and Prague Acad. of Sciences) of movement for investigation of theoretical basis of Aryan Nordic Racial Theory, auspices of Internatl. Inst. for Intellectual Co-operation, League of Nations, 1934; interrupted by war, but to be resumed by decision of Council of Royal Anthropological Inst. of London. Fellow, Royal Anthropological Inst.; Member, Permanent Council, Internatl. Congress of Anthropological and Ethnical Sciences; Pres., Gesellschaft für Anthropologie und Soziologie der Juden, Vienna. Author: Das Rassenproblem, 1910; Revision des Judischen Nationalismus, 1919; The Significance of the Racial Factor on Cultural Development, 1934; Racialism against Civilization, 1942; Revaluation of Jewish Nationalism, 1943. Address: 9 Hillfield Court, Belsize Ave., London, N.W. 3, England.

ZOLTOWSKI, Dr. ADAM, Polish Philosopher; born Dec. 4, 1881, Lwow, Poland; son of Stanislaus and Princess Mary Sapieha Zoltowski; educated at St. Mary Magdalen Gymnasium in Poznan; Univs. of Strasbourg, Berlin, Heidelberg, Munich, Paris; Ph.D., Univ. of Munich, 1904; married Countess Janina Puttkamer, Sept. 6, 1910. Privatdocent, Cracow Univ.; Extraordinary, later Ordinary Prof. of History of Philosophy, Univ. of Poznan, Poland, 1919-33; Member, Polish Diet, 1928-30; now Director, Polish Research Center, Ltd., London. Member, Curatorium of Kornik Foundation, Poland, 1925-39. Author: Metoda Hegla, 1911; Filosofia Kanta, 1923; Descartes, 1937. Address: 51 Eaton Place, London, S.W. 1, England.

ZOMBORY, Dr. JOSEPH, Hungarian Jurist; born Feb. 10, 1885, Budapest, Hungary; son of Edward and Adele (Lux) Gabrovitz; educated at Law Faculty, Pázmány Péter Univ., Budapest, J.D. 1906; called to the bar, 1910; married Marguerite Asch, Oct. 15, 1923; three chidlren. Articled Clerk, law office, 1905; entered State Service, 1908; Judge, Common Law Courts, 1914; Justice on the King's Bench, 1930; Justice, Supreme Court, Budapest, since 1941. Member: Hungarian Jurists Soc.; Soc. of Hungarian Judges and Public Prosecutors; Hungarian-American Soc. Author: The Services of the obligatory social-assurance in Hungary, 1932. Residence: 11 Gyergyo Street 5. Office: V Alkotmány Street 2, Budapest, Hungary.

ZONDEK, Prof. BERNHARD, Palestinian Obstetrician and Gynecologist; born 1891, Germany; educated at Rogasen and Berlin, M.D. Served as Lecturer in Obstetrics and Gynecology, 1923; Professor, University of Berlin, 1926; Head of Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Berlin-Spandau Municipal Hospital, 1929; Member, Biochemical Institute, Stockholm, 1933; Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Hebrew University, Jerusalem; also Head of Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Rothschild Hadassah University Hospital and Hormone Research Laboratory, Jerusalem Medical School, 1933-44; at University of Cairo since 1944. Author: Hormone des Ovariums und des Hypophysenvorderlappens (1931, 2nd ed. 1935); Clinical and Experimental Investigations on the Genital Functions and Their Hormonal Regulation, 1940; The Anti-Gonado-Tropic Factor With Considerations of the Anti-Hormone Problem, 1942, etc. Address: Hebrew University, Jerusalem, Palestine.

ZOOK, Dr. GEORGE FREDERICK, American Educator; born April 22, 1885, Fort Scott, Kans.; son of Douglas and Helen (Foellenius) Zook; educated at Univ. of Kansas, A.B. 1906, A.M. 1907; Cornell, Ph.D. 1914; Litt.D., Boston Univ., 1934; LL.D., Ohio Wesleyan, 1931; Michigan, Duquesne, Wayne and Mt. Union, 1934; So. Calif., 1935; Univ. of Pa., 1946; married Susie Gant, Aug. 21, 1911. Asst. in Modern European History, Cornell, 1907-09; Instr., Pa. State College, 1909-11; Travelling Fellow in Europe, Cornell, 1911-12. Asst. Prof., Modern European History, Pennsylvania State College, 1912-14; Assoc. Prof., 1914-16; Prof., 1916-20. With Committee on Public Information, Washington, D. C., 1918; Assoc. Dir., Section on Educational Institutions of Savings Division, U. S. Treasury Dept., 1919. Chief, Division of Higher Educatio U. S. Bureau of Education, 1920-25; Pres., Univ. of Akron, 1925-33. U. S. Commnr. of Education. 1933-34; Pres., Amer. Council on Education, since 1934. Chmn., Pres.'s Commn. on Higher Education, 1946. Author: The Royal Adventurers Trading Into Africa, 1919; America At War (illustrated lectures issued by Committee on Public Information); Principles of Accrediting Higher Institutions (with M. E. Haggerty), 1936; The Role of the Federal Government in Education, 1945, etc. Residence: 1535 N. Glebe Rd., Arlington, Va. Office: 744 Jackson Pl., N.W., Washington 6, D. C.

ZOPPI, Dr. GIUSEPPE, Swiss Professor of Italian Literature; born Sept. 12, 1896, Broglio, Switzerland; son of Giuseppe and Savina Della Maria Zoppi; educated at Collegio Don Bosco Maroggia, Ticino; College St. Michel, Fribourg; Université de Fribourg, Doctorat ès lettres, 1918; Examen pour l'enseignement du français 1919; married Bruna Mariotti, 1931; one child. Asst. Teacher, Ginnasio Cantonale, Lugano. 1919-24; Prof. of Italian, Training College of Teachers at Locarno, 1924-28; Principal, 1928-31; Prof. of Italian Literature, Swiss Federal Inst. of Technology since 1931. Pres.: Swiss Assn. of Writers; Swiss Assn. of Cultural Relations with Italy; Federation of Cultural Circles of the Canton of Tessin. Contributor to Swiss and Italian reviews and periodicals. Winner of several prizes of "Schweizerische Schillerstiftung." Author: Il libro dell'alpe, 1922; Quando avevo le ali, 1925; Leggende del Ticino, 1928; Mattino, 1933; Azzurro sui monti, 1936; Presento il mio Ticino, 1939; Antologia della letteratura italiana a uso degli stranieri, 1939-43; Poesie d'oggi e di ieri, 1944. Address: Swiss Federal Institute of Technolgy, Zurich, Switzerland.

ZORACH, WILLIAM, American Sculptor; born Feb. 28, 1887, Eurburg, Lithuania; son of Orchick and Toba (Bloch) Zorach; educated at Cleveland School of Art; National Academy of Design; art schools in Paris; married Marguerite Thompson, 1912; two children. Held first exhibition at Paris Salon, 1911. Gave one-man shows at Daniel Gallery, 1914-17; Kraushaar Gallery, 1924-28; Downtown Gallery, 1931-44. Principal works are heroic marble statue of Benjamin Franklin (Benjamin Franklin Post Office, Washington, D. C.); Spirit of the Dance (Radio City Music Hall, Rockefeller Center); Builders of the Future (New York World's Fair, 1939). Taught sculpture at Art Students League of New York, 15 years. Represented in the permanent collections of Metropolitan Museum of Art; Whitney Museum of American Art, Museum of Modern Art, New York; Norton Museum, West Palm Beach, Fla.; Wichita (Kan.) Museum of Fine Art; Boston Art Museum; Cleveland and Brooklyn Museums; Phillips Memorial Gallery; Los Angeles Museum, etc. Awarded Logan Medal for sculpture (Mother and Child), Chicago Art Inst., 1931; Logan Medal and Purchase Prize, 12th International Water Color Exhibition, Chicago Art Inst., 1932. Author: Zorach Explains Sculpture, 1948. Address: 276 Hicks St., Brooklyn 2, N. Y.

ZORE, Dr. SYED MOHIUDDIN QADRI, Indian Professor of Urdu; born Dec. 6, 1905, Hyderabad, Deccan, India; son of Hafiz S. G. Muhammad Shah and Bashirunnisa Begam; educated at Osmania Univ., Hyderabad, M.A. 1925; London School of Oriental Studies, Ph.D. 1929; Sorbonne, Paris (study towards D.Litt.); married Tahniyat Rafatyarjang Bahadur, 1931; four children. Reader of Urdu Language and Literature at Osmania Univ.; Prof. and Head of Dept. of Urdu, 1939; Principal, Darul Ulum (Oriental) College, Osmania Univ., Hyderabad, since 1945. Hon. Secy., All-India Urdu Congress, 1944-45; Founder and General Secy., Idara Adabiyat Urdu, Urdu Acad., Hyderabad, since 1931. Pres., All-India Muslim Educational Conf. (Literary Section), Jubblepore, 1944. Member: Internatl. Phonetic Assn., London; Osmania Graduate Assn., Hyderabad; Hyderabad Educational Conf. Assn., Hyderabad; All-India Deccan History Conf. Assn. (Treas. 1945-46); Research Board of Osmania Univ.; Hyderabad Acad. Author: Life of Muhammad Quli Qutb Shah of Golcunda; Life of Mir Muhammad Mominthe, Prime Minister of Golcunda; Hindustani Phonetics (in English); Les contes des Hub Tarang (in French). Residence: Rafat Manzil Khairatahad. Office: Osmania University, Hyderabad, Deccan, India.

ZORICIC, Dr. MILOVAN, Yugoslav Jurist; born May 31, 1884, Zagreb, Yugoslavia; son of Miloyan and Mira (Rojc) Zoricic; educated at Univ. of Zagreb, J.D. Judge, District Court, Zagreb; Legal Advisor, Provincial Govt. of Croatia; Chief of Political Dept., Govt. of Croatia; Gov., County of Zagreb; Pres., Administrative Court, Zagreb; Member, Governing Commission for Justice and Public Instruction, Saar Territory, 1932-35; Temporary Judge, International Court of Justice, 1936; Member, Permanent Court of Arbitration, The Hague; Judge, Supreme Court of Croatia; Judge, International Court of Justice, The Hague, since 1946. Decorated Grand Officer, Bulgarian Order of St. Alexander; Commander, French Legion of Honor; Czechoslovak White Lion Order; Roumanian Star Order. Residence: Bakaceva 3, Zagreb, Yugoslavia.

ZORIN, VALERIAN ALEXANDROV, Soviet Diplomat. Head of Central European Section, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, World War II; Ambassador to Czechoslovakia, 1945-47; Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, Nov. 1947—. Soviet Delegate, United Nations Economic Commission for Europe, 1947; Member, Social Com., U. N., 1947. Awarded Czechoslovak Order of the White Lion by Pres. Benes, 1945; Order of Lenin, 1945. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZORINA, VERA, American Dancer, Actress; born 1917. Formerly Member of Ballet Russe. Appeared on New York stage in "I Married An Angel," etc. Motion pictures include: The Goldwyn Follies; On Your Toes; I Was An Adventuress; Louisiana Purchase; Star Spangled Rhythm; Follow the Boys. Signed to portray role of Joan of Arc in Jeanne d'Arc au Bucher (a choral, dramatic and musical work) by Philharmonic Symphony Society of New York, 1948. Address: c/o Paramount Pictures, 5451 Marathon St., Hollywood, California.

ZORNES, (JAMES) MILFORD, American Painter; born Jan. 25, 1908, Camargo, Okla.; son of James Francis and Clara Delphine (Lindsay) Zornes; educated at Otis Art Inst.; Santa Maria Junior College (studied under Stanley G. Breneiser); Pomona College (studied under Thomas M. Beggs); studied with F. Tolles Chamberlin and Millard Sheets; married Gloria Codd, Feb. 3, 1934; one son; married Patricia M. Palmer, Nov. 8, 1942; two children. Exhibited at Los Angeles County Fair, 1933; Butler Art Inst., 1937; Pottinger Galleries, 1939; Occidental College, 1941; Gallery of Modern Masters, Washington, D. C., 1937; Walker Galleries, 1938; Biltmore Galleries, 1941, 1942; Gumps, 1943; Los Angeles Museum, 1943. In permanent collections: Metropolitan Museum; San Diego Museum; White House Collection; Pomona College; Beverly Hills High Schools; Glendale High School; Butler

Museum. Instructor: Polytechnic School, Pasadena, Calif.; Los Angeles Art Inst.; Artist's Workshop, Los Angeles. Official Army Artist for War Dept. in C.B.I. Theatre, during World War II. Instructor, Pomona College, 1947-48. Member, California Water Color Soc. (Pres., 1941-42). Awards: Hannah Tempest Prize (Pomona College), 1931; 1st Prize, Los Angeles County Fair, 1933; White House Collection, 1934; 2nd Prize, Los Angeles County Fair, 1936; William Tuthill Watercolor Prize, Chicago Art Inst., International, 1938; Prize for $1,000 Purchase Prize, Pomona College, 1946; 1st Prize, Water Color, San Diego Museum, 1937; Purchase Prize, Newport High School, 1947; 1st Prize, U. N. Services Exhibition, Bombay, India. Mailing Address: P.O. Box 118, Nipomo, Calif.

ZOSHCHENKO, MIKHAEL MIKHAILOVICH, Soviet Writer; born 1895. Author: Four Sketches (translated and edited by Cargill Sprietsma and Georges Nazaroff), 1929; Triecienu tempa, 1933; Russia Laughs (translated by Helena Clayton), 1935; Bad Business (comedy; translated by Morris Spiegel), 1939; Dawn of the New Day, 1939; new stories published in Novy Miz, 1947. Expelled from membership in Union of Soviet Wrtiers, 1946. Address: c/o Mezhdunarodnaya Kniga, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ZOTTERMAN, Dr. (GULLE) YNGVE, Swedish Physiologist; born Sept. 20, 1898, Vadstena, Sweden; son of L. H. and Caroline (Ljungqvist) Zotterman; educated at Karolinska Institutet, Stockholm, M.B. 1925, M.D. 1933; research work in physiology, Cambridge, 1920, 1925; London, 1926-27; married Brita Johansson, 1923; three children. Amanuensis in Physiology, Karolinska Inst., Stockholm, 1919; Rockefeller Foundation Fellow (traveling), 1925-27; Amanuensis in Physiology, Karolinska Inst., Stockholm, 1927-32; Lecturer in Physiology, 1933-40; Reader in Physiology, Royal Gymnastic College, Stockholm, 1930-41; Karolinska Inst., 1940-46; Prof. of Physiology and Pharmacology, Royal Veterinary College, Stockholm, since 1946. Director, Swedish Inst. of Industrial Physiology ,1943-46; Assoc. Member, Editorial Board, Acta Physiologica Scand., and Praktisk Psykologi. Member, Board of Nutrition, Swedish Food Commn., since 1945. Member of Board, Psychotechnical Inst., Stockholm; Hon. Secy. and Treas., Fysiologföreningen, Stockholm, since 1939. Awarded Royal Swedish Vasa Order, 1945. Author: The Peripheral Nervous Mechanism of Pain, 1933; Kost och Ransoner (with C. Boalt), 1943; Fysiologiska undersökningar över avverkningsarbete; Studier I det tunga kroppsarbetets fysiologi (wtih N. Lundgren, L. Lund and G. Luthman), 1947. Commander, Medical Corps, Swedish Navy, 1935-47; Capt., 1947. Residence: Experimentalfältet. Office: Royal Veterinary College, Experimentalfältet, Stockholm, Sweden.

ZOUREK, Dr. JAROSLAV, Czechoslovak Jurist, Diplomat; born March 29, 1908, Prilepy District, Holesov, Czechoslovakia; son of Innocenz and Frantiska (Solarová) Zourek; educated at Acad. of Montpellier, France, B.A. 1927; Law Faculty, Charles Univ., Prague, LL.D. 1932; French Inst., Ernest Denis, Prague, certificate, 1933; Acad. of International Law, The Hague, 1934, 1938; married Helena Hortíková, July 7, 1932; three children. Asst. to Prof. of International Law, 1931; Magistrate, Law Court, Prague, 1933-37; Judge, 1936-37. Entered diplomatic service, 1937; attended Geneva Conf. (on refugee problems), 1938; Head of Secretariat General, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Prague, since 1945. Member of the Executive Committee, Czechoslovak Soc. of International Relations; Pres., Czechoslovak Assn. of International Law, etc. Author: Mezinárodní pomocná unie, 1934; Vychodní smlouvy o vzájemné pomoci, 1936; Vyhradny obor pusobnosti státu, 1936; Snahy o organisaci míru v americkém svetadílu, 1938. Chief Editor, Hlídka mezinárodního práva (Review of International Law), 1937-39. Residence: Lomená 5. Office: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Prague IV, Czechoslovakia.

ZOUROFF, VERA, (Sra. Esmeralda Zenteno De Leon), Chilean Writer; born July 18, 1880, Antofagasta, Chile; daughter of Nicanor Zenteno Uribe and Zoila Urizar de Z.; educated at Colegio de Santiago de Chile; married Col. Arturo Leon del Rio, 1898 (deceased); five children. Began as a journalist, 1912; associated with newspapers "El Mercurio," "Las Ultimas Noticias," and "El Diario Ilustrado." Author: (novel) "Martha"; "Liberacion", 1913. Founded Centro Femenino de Estudios, 1919. Went to United States, 1922; Member of staff of Spanish language daily "La Prensa" of New York Ctiy, 1926. Gave recitals in theatres in New York and on radio (N.B.C.) Exclusive recitationist for Columbia Phonograph Co., 1930; went to Hollywood, 1931 and participated in productions of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Hal Rach, Fox, and Universal; returned to Chile in 1931. Author: "Hollywood", 1932; "La Guerra", 1934; (novel) "El Otro Camino." Prof. of Recitation, Universidad de Chile, 1938. Founded Conservatorio de Declamation, 1939; created Cenaculo de Poesia, 1940. Prof. of Recitation, Universidad Catolica de Chile, 1940. Author: "El Divino Arte de la Declamacion," 1943; Los Grandes Poetas del Mundo. Residence: Calle Central No. 15-1. Office: Universidad Catolica de Chile, Santiago, Chile.

ZOZAYA, Dr. JOSÉ, Mexican Microbiologist; born Jan. 21, 1899, San Luis de la Paz, Guanajuato, Mexico; son of José and Carolina (Stille) Zozaya; educated at St. Louis Univ., B.Sc., M.D.; Harvard Univ., P.H.D. Director, Inst .of Hygiene, Mexico, 1925-29; Asst. Director, Mulford Laboratory, Philadelphia, 1929-32; Gladwyne Research Laboratory, Gladwyne, Pa., 1932-39; Director, Inst. of Hygiene, Mexico, 1939-40; in charge of experimental therapeutics, Inst. of Public Health and Tropical Medicine, 1940-42; Director, Inst. of Public Health and Tropical Medicine, 1942-47; Director of Graduate School, National Univ., México, D. F., 1947—. Director, Inst. of Cultural Relations, United States-Mexico; Chairman, Biological Science Dept., National Research Council; Pres., Soc. of Microbiology; National Commn. of Brucellocio. Authr: Studies on the polysacharides of many bacterias — Antigens, Sulfadrugs, Penicillin, Salmonellas, etc. Address: Queretaro, 97, Mexico, D. F., México.

ZRAZHEVSKY, ALEXANDER IVONOVICH, Soviet Film Actor. Awarded Stalin Prize for role in "Turning Point," 1946; third Stalin Prize for work in film "Cruiser Varyag," 1947. Honored Artist of the R.S.F.S.R. Address: Malay Theatre, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZUBIRÁN ANCHONDO, Dr. SALVADOR, Mexican Professor of Medicine; born Dec. 23, 1898, Mexico, D.F.; son of José María Zubirán and María Anchondo de Z.; educated at Universidad Nacional de México, M.D. 1923; post-graduate study, Peter Bent Brigham Hospital of Harvard Univ., 1923-34; married Ana María Villarreal, May 22, 1925; five children. Prof. of Clinical Medicine, Natl. Faculty of Medicine, since 1928; Chief, Food and Drink Service of the Dept. of Public Health, 1930-35; Member, Commn. of Study of Presidency of the Republic, 1935-37. Chief, Dept. of Infantile Social Assistance, 1937;

Under-Secy. of Public Assistance, 1938-39 and since 1940. Chief, Service of Nutriology, Hospital General de la Ciudad de México, 1943-44; Director, Hospital de Enfermedades de la Nutrición, since 1944; Dean, Universidad Nacional Autonoma de México, since 1946. Member: Sociedad de Medicina Interna; Sociedad de Gastroenterología; Natl. Acad. of Medicine (Vice-Pres. since 1946); Amer. Diabetes Assn. Fellow, Amer. College of Physicians. Medical Trustee, Comité de Planeación y Construcción del Centro Médico de México. Author: La Vagotonia; Insulina y Glisemina; La Hipoglisemia; Compuestos Insolubles de Insulina; La Diabetes Funcional; Consideraciones Sobre Algunos Aspectos del Metabolismo de los Lipidos en la Diabetes y la Nueva Hormona Pancreática Lipocaico; La Diabetes Aloxánica en el Conejo, 1946; El Tratamiento de la Diabetes, 1946, etc. Residence: Havre 7. Office: Donceles 39, Mexico, D.F.

ZUBIZARRETA Y BILBOA, Don ALEJANDRO, Spanish Steamship Executive; born Feb. 9, 1879, Lugar, Deusto-Bilboa, Spain; son of Martin Zubizarreta and Martina Bilboa; studied engineering at Colegio de Nuestra Señora del Rosario, Bilboa, 1888-95; married Valentina Frias Madariaga, July 20, 1905. Began career as Naval Machinist 2nd class, S/S Neptuno, 1900; became 1st Machinist, S/S Jupiter, Apolo, Diana, Minerva, Saltillo, 1900-09; studied at Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, 1909. Inspector for following companies: The Dawson Steamship, Newcastle-on-Tyne; The Axminster Steamship Co., Newcastle-on-Tyne; Compañia Cartagenera de Navegación, Cartagena, Spain; Compañia Naviera Vascongada, Bilboa, Spain. General Attorney and Director, Naviera Aznar S.A., Bilboa. Director and Manager; Compania Anonima Maritima "Unión"; Naviera Bilbaina S.A., Bilboa; Naviera Amaya S.A.; Seida de Navegación. Director: Compañia Euskalduna de Construcción y Reparación de Buques, Bilboa; Compañia Neasa; Instaladora de Electricidad, Bilboa; Compañia de Pinturas "International"; Compañia de Cadenas y Forjados. Pres. and Manager, Pesquera Vizcaina, Bilboa; also Director of various other enterprises. Chairman and Manager, Azeta Investment Trust Ltd., London. Member: The Britannia Steamship Insurance Assn., Ltd., London; Club Naútico, Bilboa; Club Maritimo del Abra, Bilboa. Residence: Muelle 1, Las Arenas (Guecho), Vizcaya, Spain. Office: Naviera Aznar S.A., Astarloa 9, Bilboa, Spain.

ZUBOV, KONSTANTIN, Soviet Stage Producer. Associated with Malay Theatre, Moscow, as Producer. Directed and produced many plays by leading Soviet and foreign playwrights. Awarded title of People's Artist of the R.S.F.S.R. Address: Malay Theatre, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ZUCCA, GIUSEPPE, Italian Writer; born May 1, 1887, Messina, Italy; son of Paolo and Teresa (Orecchio) Zucca. Collaborator, principal dailies and magazines; founded publishing firm "Fauno" in Rome, 1926. Author: Una tovaglia per 24, 1920; Il Bollettino della bellezza (novel), 1920; Il morso della virtu (novel), 1922; Gas esilaranti, 1922; Poesie, 1912-22; Lethe in bottiglia, 1923; Confidenzialmenter, 1924; Il paesi di madreperla (Journey in Somaliland), 1926; L'uovo dell'Amazzone (novel) 1926; I cavalieri del Tartufo (novel), 1927; L'isola degli amici, 1928. Address: Via Magalotti 12, Rome, Italy.

ZUCCA, MANA (MANA-ZUCCA), American Singer, Composer; born Dec. 25, 1890, New York; studied under Alexander Lambert and Hermann Spielter (New York); Vogrich (London); Godowsky and Busoni (Berlin); von zur Mühlen (London and Paris). Started career as piano prodigy at nine; made London debut as soprano in leading role of Franz Lehar's Count of Luxembourg, 1914; later sang in various light operas in New York. Concertized in the U. S. and Europe, singing and playing own compositions. Address: Miami, Florida.

ZUCKERMAN, Dr. SOLLY, British Anatomist; born 1904, Cape Town, South Africa; educated at South African College School; Univ. of Cape Town; Univ. College Hospital, London; receved M.A., D.Sc.; married Lady Joan Rufus Isaacs, 1939. Research Anatomist, Zoological Soc. of London and Demonstrator of Anatomy, Univ. College, London, 1928-32; Research Assoc. and Rockefeller Research Fellow, Yale Univ., 1933-34; William Julius Mickle Fellow, Univ. of London, 1935; Beit Memorial Research Fellow, 1934-37; Hunterian Prof., Royal College of Surgeons, 1937. Prof. of Anatomy, Univ. of Birmingham, since 1939. Fellow, Royal Soc. Author: The Socail Life of Monkeys and Apes, 1932; Functional Affinities of Man, Monkeys and Apes, 1933, etc. Address: The University, Birmingham, England.

ZUCKERT, Hon. EUGENE M., U. S. Asst. Secretary of Air Force; born Nov. 9, 1911, New York, N. Y.; son of Harry M. and Eugenie Adrienne (Pincoffs) Zuckert; educated at Yale Univ., B.A. 1933, LL.B. 1937; Harvard Business School Certificate, upon completion of Yale Law-Harvard Business Combined Course, 1937; married Kathleen Barnes, June 24, 1938 (deceased Jan. 1945); three children; (2nd) Barbara E. Jackman, May 5, 1945. Attorney, U. S. Securities & Exchange Commission, Washington, D. C. and subsequently New York City, 1937-40. Instr., later Asst. Prof. and Asst. Dean, Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration (also Special Consultant to Commanding General, Army Air Forces, in development of statistical control), 1940-44. Lieut. (j.g.), U.S.N.R. in Office of Chief of Naval Operations, Washington, D. C., 1944-45; Executive Asst. to Administrator of Surplus Property Administration, 1945-46; Special Asst. to the Asst. Secretary of War for Air, 1946-47; Asst. Secy. of the Air Force, Sept. 1947—. Residence: 1499 Hope St., Stamford, Conn. Office: Department of the Air Force, The Pentagon, Washington 25, D. C.

ZUCKMAYER, CARL, American Writer; born 1896. Author: Kreuzweg, 1921; Der froehliche Weinberg (play), 1925; Ein Bauer aus dem Taunus, und andere Geschichten, 1927; The Captain of Kopenick (a modern fairy tale in three acts), 1932; Eine Liebesgeschichte, 1934; Der Schelm von Bergen (play), 1934; Salware (oder Die Magdalena von Bozen), 1936; Rembrandt, 1936; Schinderhannes (play), 1937; The Moon Ride Over (translated by Moray Firth), 1937; Herr über Leben und Tod, 1938; Second Wind, 1940; Der Seelenbräu, Erzahlung, 1945; Der Teufels General (drama), 1946; Die Deutschen Dramen, 1947, etc. Address: c/o Doubleday & Co., Inc., Garden City, N. Y.

ZUERCHER, Rev. JOSEPH PAUL, S.J., Jesuit Priest; born July 13, 1897, Brodhead, Wis.; son of Charles Zuercher and Susan (Schneider) Zuercher; educated at Campion College, 1911-15; St. Louis Univ., 1915-19; Gonzaga Univ., A.B. 1921, A.M. 1922; attended John Carroll Univ., 1931-32. Entered Society of Jesus, 1915. Instructor, St. Francis Mission High School, St. Francis, S. D., 1922-25; Dean of Discipline, St. Mary's College at St. Mary's, Kans., 1929-31; Dean of Residence and Asst. Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, Creighton Univ., Omaha, 1932-33; Dean of Arts, 1933-37; Pres. of Creighton Univ., 1937-43; Regional Superior, Jesuit Fathers, Missouri Valley area, since 1943. Address: 4511 W. Pine Blvd., St. Louis 8, Missouri.

ZUHURUDDIN AHMAD, Prof. MIAN MOHAMMAD, Indian Philosopher; born May 15, 1898, Bassi Pathanan (Patiala State); son of Mohammad Hussain and Razia; educated at Punjab Univ., B.A.; Muslim Univ., Aligarh, M.A.; Allahabad Univ., LL.B., 1923; married Zuhuran Begam, 1919; Khursheed Begam, 1925; eleven children. Lawyer and University Lecturer at Aligarh, 1923-26; Lecturer of Philosophy, Bengal Educational Service, Calcutta, 1926-30; Prof. of Philosophy, Government Ismail Yusuf College, Bombay, 1930-35; Principal, Bahauddin College, since 1935. Member: Bombay Univ. Senate; Univ. Philosophy Board; Univ. Arabic Persian Board. Officer in Charge of State Museum; Officer in Charge of State Archaeological Dept. Secretary, Public Archaeological Society; Editor-in-Chief of "Annual" of Archaeological Soc. Chairman, Managing Com. of Junagadh State Gymkhana; Member, Court, Muslim Univ., Aligarh. Author: "Mystic Tendencies in Islam, 1932; A Text Book of Logic, 1934; Development of Personality, 1932; Education and Psychology (Urdu) 1932; Fundamental Basis of the Science of Religion, 1933; Present day problems of Indian Education, 1935; A Peep into the Spiritual Unconscious (Psychology of Dreams), 1935; The Necessity of Ethical Teaching in Schools, 1936; The Idea of Self in the Poetry of Iqbal, 1938; Elements of Religious Belief in Islam, 1939; An Examination of the Wardha Scheme of Education, 1938; Political Aspect of the Islamic Teachings, 1940; Post War Reconstruction of the World, 1942; Mystic Interpretation of Religion. Residence: Patiala (The Punjab). Office: Bahauddin College, Junagadh, Junagadh State, India.

ZUJOVIC, Col.-General SRETEN, Yugoslav Officer, Political Leader; born in 1899, Serbia; graduated from Higher Commercial Academy in France and attended Economic and Commercial School in Paris. One of organizers, with Marshal Tito, of Liberation Movement, 1941; Member of Supreme Headquarters of Partisan Army in Yugoslavia and of Headquarters in Serbia; wounded Nov. 1941; supervised operation of troops in Serbia and took part in liberation of Belgrade, 1944; upon liberation of Serbia, became Minister of Transport; made Minister of Finance upon formation of United Yugoslav Government under Marshal Tito. Lieutenant-General in Yugoslav Army; Member of Serbian Parliament and of Yugoslav Parliament. Member, Yugoslav Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Deprived of army reserve rank of Col.-Gen. for "hostile activities," June 1948.

ZUKOR, ADOLF, American Motion Picture Executive; born Jan. 7, 1873, Ricse, Hungary; son of Jacob and Hannah (Lieberman) Zukor; educated in schools of Hungary; high school in New York; married Lotte Kaufman, Jan. 10, 1897. In fur trade, New York and Chicago, until 1903; invented and patented fur clasp. With Mitchell Mark and Marcus Loew presented vaudeville and motion pictures. Treasurer, Marcus Loew Enterprises, New York. Founded Famous Players Film Co. (later Famous Players-Lasky Corp.; Paramount Pictures, Inc), 1912; Chairman of Board, Paramount Pictures, Inc., 1935—. Address: Paramount Pictures, Inc., 5451 Marathon St., Hollywood, Calif.

ZULETA-ANGEL, Dr. EDUARDO, Colombian Statesman; born September 2, 1899; educated in Paris, Doctor in Law and Political Science, 1919. Served as Professor of Civil Law, Universidad Nacional of Colombia; Representative to Colombian Congress; Judge, Supreme Court of Colombia; President, Sala de Casación Civil; Dean of Law Faculty, Universidad Nacional; Professor of the Universidad Javeriana Universidad Libre and Colegio del Rosario, Bogotá. Ambassador to Peru, 1943-46; Minister of Education, 1947-48; Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1948—. Member, Colombian Delegation to United Nations Conf. on Internatl. Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Delegate, U. N. Economic and Social Council, 1946; Chmn., U. N. Headquarters Com., 1947. Member, Conservative Party. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Bogota, Colombia.

ZULOAGA, Gen. ANGEL MARÍA, Argentine Army Officer; born May 21, 1885, Mendoza, Argentina; son of Santiago Zuloaga and Primitiva Argumedo; studied in the Escuela de Tiro, Escuela de Caballería, Escuela de Aviación Militar, and Escuela Superior de Guerra; Aviation School in Avord, France, 1919; married María Floinda Martínez; two children. Entered the Colegio Militar in 1904, and received the rank of Under-Lieutenant in 1907. In 1914 he entered the Military Aviation; Flight Instructor in the School of Aviation, 1916, and in 1920 was appointed Chief of the Section of Aerial Photography; Chief of the General Services of the First Aviation Group, 1922; Director of the School of Military Aviation, 1925. From 1930 to 1936 he was General Director of Aeronautics, and in the latter year became General Director of Aeronautical Materiel; President of the Permanent Argentine Committee of Aeronautics, 1933; Member of the Commission for Foreign Purchases, 1936. In 1941 he was appointed Commander of Military Aviation of the Army, and since 1942 he has been General Director of Personnel for the Army. He served as Delegate to the Congress of Aviation in Chile, and was Military Attaché to the Argentine Embassy in France, 1916; Delegate to the Aeronautical Congress of Spain, 1926, also appointed Aviation Attaché to the Argentine Embassy in the U. S.; Delegate to the Aviaiton Conference in Washington in 1928; Member of the Purchasing Commission in Paris, 1936-38. In 1915 he established South American records for distance, altitude and duration of flight, and in the following year he performed the first Trans-Andean flight. Promoted to the rank of full General, 1940. Residence: Florida No. 981, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

ZULUETA, JOSÉ C., Philippine Secretary of Interior; born Feb. 7, 1889, Molo, Iloilo, Philippines; son of Evaristo and Atilana (Casten) Zulueta; educated at Ateneo de Manila, B.A. 1911; Escuela de Derecho, LL.B. 1914; married Soledad D. Ramos, 1917; one son — Antonio (dec.). Stenographer, 1915; Congressman, 1st Dist., Iloilo Province, eight consecutive terms, 1928-46; Majority Floor Leader, House of Representatives, 1933; Speaker pro-tempore, House of Representatives, 1934; Speaker, 1945; Secretary of Interior, Philippines, since 1946. Residence: 82 Doninga St., Pasay, Rizal. Office: Department of Interior, Manila, Philippines.

ZÚÑIGA HUETE, ANGEL, Honduran Diplomat; born June 4, 1884, San Antonio de Oriente, Honduras; son of J. Manuel Zuñiga M. and Hortensia Huete Rubuio; educated at National Inst., Tegucigalpa; Instituto Nacional Central de Guatemala; Escuela de Derecho, Tegucigalpa; Escuela de Derecho, San José, Costa Rica; married Clementina Tellería, Nov. 16, 1931; two children. Sub-Director, Primary School, Comayagüela; Escuela Normal de Varones, Comayagüela, 1907; Secy., General Board of Primary Instruction, 1909; Lawyer and Notary Public in Tegucigalpa, 1914-19; in charge of Honduran business affairs in Nicaragua, 1919; Political Governor and Commander of the Army, Tegucigalpa, 1920; E. E. and M. P. to Costa Rica, 1920; Deputy, Constituent Centro-americana, Tegucigalpa, 1921; Minister of State, Honduras, 1923; M. P. in Nicaragua, 1929. Pres., Supreme Council of Liberal Party and Representative of party; Candidate for President of Honduras (Liberal Party), 1932. Secy., Soc. of Honduran Lawyers. Address: Avenida Industria No. 208-2, México, D. F., México.

ZÚÑIGA PORTILLO, LUIS ANDRÉS, Honduran Statesman, Attorney; born Apr. 30, 1878, Tegucigalpa, Honduras; son of Col. Manuel Zúñiga and Margarita Portillo de Zúñiga; educated at Colegio Eclesiástico, Bachelor's degree; Universidad Central de Honduras, law degree; studied at Sorbonne; married Carmen Castillo, Aug. 13, 1928; five children. Lettered Judge, 1903; Magistrate, 1906; Director General of Public Instruction, 1907; Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic, 1908. Director, National Archives and Library, 1929-33. Author: Música Nueva (Paris, 1912); Las Encantadas (1913); Aguilas Conquistadoras (1914); Los Conspiradores, Fábulas; El Banquete, etc. Address: Comayagüela, Ira. Avenida, Tegucigalpa, Honduras.

ZÚÑIGA HUETE, Dr. MANUEL G., Honduran Surgeon; born October 28, 1878, San Antonio de Oriente, Morazán, Honduras; son of José Manuel Zúñiga Medal and Hortensia Huete Rubio de Z.; studied at Colegio Eclesiástico de Tegucigalpa; Faculty of Medicine of Guatemala (Dr. in Med., 1903); married Magdalena Ortega Barahona, 1907; four children. Surgeon, Hosp. de Tegucigalpa, 1904-06; Member, Commn. to Combat Yellow Fever on the North Coast, 1907; became Legal Physician and Dir. of Hosp. General del Norte San Pedro Sula, 1911; was made Consul of Honduras in Belice (British Honduras), 1913. He was Dir. of Lazareto de variolosos de Toncontin, 1914; Physician of the Hosp. General de Tegucigalpa, 1915; Consul General of Honduras in Argentina, 1916-20; Prof. of Forensic Med., Escuela de Jurisprudencia y Ciencias Sociales de Tegucigalpa, 1920; Dir. of Hosp. General, 1924; Chief of Honduran Red Cross in Delegations to Internal. Public Health Congresses from Kingston, Jamaica. In 1925 he was elected Dean of Faculty of Med. of Honduras; Prof. of Legal Med. and Anatomy in the Med. College. Creator of the Avenue de La Paz in Tegucigalpa. He was National Constituent Deputy, 1924-25; President of Political Electoral Committee of Partido Nacional Hondureño; Member of Supreme Council of Public Instruction of Honduras, 20 years; etc. Residence: Comayagüela, Esq. Ia. Avda. y 3a. Calle, Comayagüela, D. C. Tegucigalpa, Honduras.

ZUNO HERNÁNDEZ, Hon. JOSÉ GUADALUPE, Mexican Jurist; born April 18, 1891, Jamay, La Barca, Jalisco; son of Vicente Zuno and M. Trinidad Hernández de Zuno; educated at State School of Don Aurelio Ortega and Liceo de Varones, Guadaljara; married Caren Arce, Dec. 24, 1921; twelve children. Caricaturist and painter since 1908. Elected Representative to the Congreso de la Unión of Guadaljara, 1921-23; in 1922 served as President of the Municipality of Guadaljara, and in 1923 took charge of the Government of Jalisco by popular vote; resigned 1926. Professor of Economy and Sociology in Escuela Preparatoria de Jalisco, 1931-32; also Professor of Economy and Industrial and Labor Law in the Facultad de Jurisprudencia. He was Attorney General for the National Railroad, 1935-38, and Professor of General History of the Escuela Nacional de Maestros de Mexico, 1940-41; now President of the Court of Arbitration of Mexico. Residence: Avenida Monte Athos 455, Lomas de Chapultepec. Office: Tribunal de Albitraje, Zacatecas No. 30, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

ZUNSER, JESSE, American Editor; born June 25, 1898, New York, N. Y.; educated at College of City of New York; married Mary Singer (short story writer), 1920; one daughter. Reporter, Advertising Writer etc.; later Managing Editor, Cue Magazine, and Drama Editor and Critic. Now Executive Editor and Motion Picture Editor and Critic, Cue Magazine. Corporal, World War I. Residence: 303 E. 37th St. Office: Cue Magazine, 6 E. 39th St., New York 16, N. Y.

ZUPANCIC, OTON, Yugoslav Poet, Member of National Assembly; born Jan. 23, 1878, Vinica; son of Francois Zupancic; educated in grammar school and univ.; married Anne Kessler, 1913. Served as Director of National Theatre in Ljubljana. Author of many volumes of poetry, drama; translated works by Shakespeare, Moliere, etc. Member of Council of Nationalities, National Assembly. Address: Council of Nationalities of the National Assembly, Belgrade, Yugoslavia.

ZURAYK, Dr. COSTI K., Syrian Minister to United States; born Apr. 18, 1909, Damascus, Syria; son of Kaysar and Afifeh (Khouri) Zurayk; educated at American Univ. of Beirut, Lebanon, B.A. 1928; Univ. of Chicago, M.A. 1929; Princeton Univ., Ph.D. 1930; married Najla Cortas, June 20, 1940; two daughters. Asst. Prof. of History, American Univ. of Beirut, 1930; Assoc. Prof., 1940; Head, Dept. of History, 1943. First Counsellor, Syrian Legation, Washington, D. C., 1945; Chargé d'Affaires, 1945. Syrian Minister to U. S., since 1946. Delegate, 2nd part, 1st session, General Assembly, United Nations, 1946. Translated Noeldeke's Treatise on Ghassanids from German into Arabic, 1933. Edited summaries of Yazidi doctrines and recent history by Ismail Bey Chol, 1934; also edited parts of History of Ibn-al Furat, 1936-39. Author: Al-wa'y al qawmi, 1939. Address: 2215 Wyoming Ave., Washington, D. C.

ZURMUHLEN, FREDERICK HENRY, American Engineer and Architect; born June 23, 1897, New York, N. Y.; son of Frederick H. and Anna Katherine (Heim) Zurmuhlen; educated at La Salle Acad., New York City, 1914; Manhattan College, B.S. in C.E. 1918, C.E. 1919, B.Arch. 1929, Dr.Eng. (hon.) 1942; married Katherine E. Horai, Sept. 27, 1923; six children. Served in training camp for engineer officers, Camp Lee, Va., 1918. Field Engineer, Day & Zimmerman, Philadelphia, Pa., 1919; Plant Engineer, Internatl. Nickel Co., Bayonne, N. J., 1920; in private practice under name of Retaleato & Zurmuhlen, New York City, 1921-23; Member of firm, Sibley & Fetherston, Frederick H. Zurmuhlen, Associated Architects, New York City, 1923-41. Asst. State Engineer, Public Works Administration, New York, 1933-35; Chief Engineer, Reconstruction Finance Corp. Agency, 1935-37; Consulting Engineer to U. S. New York World's Fair Commission on construction of Federal Building, etc. at N. Y. World's Fair, 1939, 1937-41; Chief Engineer, George F. Driscoll, Walsh Construction Co., Trinidad Contractors, New York City, 1941-43; Chief Engineer, George F. Driscoll Co., New York City and of George F. Driscoll Co. of Venezuela, C.A., since 1943. Commissioner, Dept. of Public Works, City of New York, 1947—. Trustee, Staten Island Inst. of Arts and Sciences. Ex-Pres.: N. Y. State Soc. of Professional Engineers (three terms); Richmond County Transit Conf. Member: Amer. Soc. of Military Engineers; Natl. Soc. of Professional Engineers (Ex-Vice Pres.); Amer. Soc. of Civil Engineers; New York Zoological Soc.; Amer. Inst. of Architects, etc. Professional Engineer since 1922; Architect since 1926. Residence: 197 Clinton Ave., Staten Island 1, N. Y. Office: City of New York, Dept. of Public Works, Municipal Building, New York 7, N. Y.

ZVEREV, ARSENY GRIGOROVICH, Soviet Political Leader. Served as Minister of Finance of the U.S.S.R., 1938-48; appointed First Assistant to new Minister of Finance, Alexei N. Kosygin, Feb. 1948. Address: Ministry of Finance, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ZWEIFEL, HENRY, American Lawyer; born Oct. 12, 1883, Granbury, Texas; son of Andrew and Sarah (Elizabeth Smith) Zweifel; educated at Granbury High School; Granbury College; married Johnnye J. Kelly, Apr. 11, 1911; two daughters. Admitted to Texas Bar, 1912; practiced Law at Granbury, 1912-21; appointed U. S. District Attorney for the Northern District of Texas by Pres. Harding, 1921; reappointed by Pres. Coolidge, 1926; resigned Sept. 28, 1927, to resume private law practice. Address: 1610 Electric Building, Ft. Worth, Texas.

ZWEIG, ARNOLD, Israeli Novelist and Playwright; born Nov. 10, 1888, Gross-Glogau, Silesia; son of Adolf and Bianca Zweig; educated in Public School, Katovice, Silesia; studied Philosophy and Modern Languages at Univs. of Breslau, Munich, Tuebingen, Rostock, Berlin; married 1916; two sons. Author: Claudia, 1912; Sergeant Grischa, 1927; Education Before Verdun, 1935; The Axe of Wandsbeck, 1946, etc. Awarded Kleist Prize, 1915. Member, P.E.N. Club. Address: c/o Dr. Jan van Loewen International Copyright Agency, Albion House, 23 Albion St., London, W. 2, England.

ZWEIG, FREDERIC (FRITZ), Conductor; born Sept. 8, 1893, Olomouc, Czechoslovakia; son of Maurice and Mary (May) Zweig; educated in Europe; studied composition with Arnold Schoenberg, Vienna; married Tily de Garme. Conductor, Court Theater, Mannheim, 1912-14, 1918-21; Opera Director, Barmen Elberfeld, 1921-23. First Conductor: Berlin State Opera, 1923-33; Prague Opera, 1934-37; Grand Opera and Opera Comique, Paris, 1937-40. Guest Conductor in London (Covent Garden), Brussels, Moscow, Leningrad, Riga, Paris, Prague, Bordeaux, Hollywood Bowl, New York, Detroit, Cincinnati, etc. Address: 8743 Holloway Dr., Hollywood 46, Calif.

ZWEIG, FRIDERIKE MARIA, Author; born Dec. 4, 1882, Vienna, Austria; daughter of Emanuel and Theresa (Figl) Burger; prepared for teachers' degree, Vienna; married Dr. Felix von Winternitz; (2nd) Stefan Zweig; two daughters. Translated some 12 French books into German; author of novels and a biography of Louis Pasteur, since 1910; also biography of Stefan Zweig. Director, Writers' Service Center. Address: 288 Ocean Drive West, Stamford, Conn.

ZWICKY, Dr. FRITZ, Swiss Physicist; born 1898, Bulgaria (citizen of Switzerland); educated at Fed. Inst. of Technology (Dr.Sc.Nat.), Zurich. Fellow in Physics, International Education Board, 1925-27. Assistant Professor of Theoretical Physics, California Institute of Technology, 1927-29; Associate Professor, 1929-42; Professor of Astrophysics since 1943. Director of Research, Aerojet Engineering Corp., since 1943. Author of numerous scientific papers dealing with physics and astronomy in American, Swiss and German technical journals. Address: California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, California.

ZWICKY VON GAUEN, JOHANN PAUL, Swiss Genealogist, Historian and Publisher; born Dec. 22, 1906, Gebweiler, Elsass; son of Johann Baptist and Elise Emma (Scherer) Zwicky von Gauen; studied philology, history, etc. in Britain, Germany and Zurich; studied archives in most European countries. Founder and Manager, Genealogical Inst., Zurich, 1930. Publisher and Editor: Archiv für Schweizerische Familienkunde; Sammlung schweizerischer Ahnentafeln; Schweizerisches Geschlechterbuch; Schweizerisches Familienbuch; Sammlung schweizerischer Biographien (in preparation). Corres. Member: Inst. of Amer. Genealogy; French Historic and Heraldic Inst.; Argentine Inst. of Genealogical Sciences; Brazilian Genealogical Inst.; Central Office for Personal and Family History (Germany). Author of various genealogical publications (since 1924); Familiengeesch Biographie der Schweiz. Address: Sihlstrasse 34, Zurich, Switzerland.

ZWORYKIN, Dr. VLADIMIR KOSMA, American Research Engineer; born July 30, 1869, Mourom, Russia; son of Kosma and Elaeni (Zworykin) Zworykin; educated at Petrograd Inst. of Technology, E.E. 1912; Collège de France, Paris, 1912-14; Univ. of Pittsburgh, Ph.D. 1926; Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, D.Sc. 1938; married Tatiana Vasilieff, Apr. 17, 1916; two children. Research work with Westinghouse Electrical and Mfg. Co., 1920-29. Came to U. S. A., 1919, naturalized in 1924. Director, Electronic Research with RCA Mfg. Co., 1929-42; Associate Research Director, 1942-45; Director of Electronic Research, 1946; Vice-Pres. and Technical Consultant, RCA Laboratories Div., 1947—. Fellow: Inst. of Radio Engineers; Amer. Inst. of Electrical Engineering; Amer. Physical Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Franklin Institute, etc. Member: National Academy of Sciences; American Academy of Arts and Sciences; French Academy of Science. Received Morris Liebmann Memorial Prize, 1934; Overseas Award (British Instn. of Elec. Engnrs.), 1939; Modern Pioneer Award (Amer. Mfrs. Assn.), 1940; Rumford Medal (Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences), 1941; Howard N. Potts Medal (Franklin Inst.), 1947. Coauthor: Photocells and Their Applications, 1932; Television, 1940; Electron Optics; Electron Microscope. Residence: Taunton Lakes (Marlton P.O.), N. J. Office: RCA Laboratories Division, Princeton, N. J.

ZYMIERSKI, Marshal MICHAL, Polish Minister of National Defense; born April 4, 1890, Pradnik, Czerwony near Cracow; educated at St. Ann's Gymnasium; four years of juridical and economic studies at Jagiellonski University at Cracow, grade received; married Zofia Cybulski; two children. Member of "Strzelec," 1909; Ensign, 1910; after leaving officer-training school was appointed Commander of Cracow District, 1912; Lwów District. 1913; N.L.O. School at Rabka, 1913. Lieutenant, 1913; Captain, 1914; Commander of a battalion, 1914, later of an infantry regiment; Major, 1916; Colonel, 1918; led 2nd Brigade of Legions during upheaval against Austrian Army at Raraúcza to Ukrainia, 1918; as Chief of Staff of the Polish Corps in Ukrainia took part in the battle against the Germans at Kaniów, 1919; upon formation of an independent Poland was appointed Commander of 2nd Legion Infantry Brigade, and of the 2nd Division, 1920; studied at École Supérieure de guerre at Paris, 1921-24, receiving grade; upon return was appointed Vice-Minister of War Office; Major-General, 1924. After the May Revolution of Józef Pilsudski, 1926, departed from the Army and migrated to France, guiding military action against the Pilsudski regime. Appointed General, 1944; Marshal of Poland, 1945. Appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Polish Army, 1944. Minister of National Defense, 1945 —. Recipient of many honors and decorations. Address: Klonowa 6, Warsaw, Poland.

ADDENDA

LAMBERT, Prof. PHILLIPE, Belgian Playwright, Poet and Educator; born Jan. 1, 1896, Namur, Belgium; son of Zénon and Antoinette (Francois) Lambert; educated at Univ. of Brussels; married Germaine Henry, Dec. 11, 1920; one son. Director, Les Volliers (publications); Prof. of Phonetic Science. Wrote plays: Satan conduit le Bal (performed in Brussels, 1925; Paris, 1928); Maitre Cocu, comedy (performed in Liége, 1929); Looping, comedy (performed in Brussels, 1930; Nice, France, and Marseille); Match (performed in Brussels, 1934); Poemes Sceniques (performed in Brussels, 1934); Le Pied sur l'accelerateur (play, performed in Brussels, 1935); Qui Perd Gagne (comedy, performed in Brussels, 1943). Author: Methode Pratique de Diction Francaise, 4th ed. 1945; Violons (poetry), 1947; Poems en Mineur, 1948. Secy., Belgian Com., Soc. of Dramatic Authors and Composers, Paris. Member: Soc. of Authors, Composers and Musical Editors, Paris; Pen Club, Belgium; Assn. of Belgian Writers; Amicale des Ecrivains Anciens Combattants et de la Résistance; Assn. for intellectual and artistic progress, Wallonian; Caisse Centrale des Artistes Belges. Received numerous awards and decorations. Served as Volunteer in World War I; invalided. Address: 26 Rue Wappers, Brussels, Belgium.

LAPPI-SEPPÄLÄ, JUSSI, Finnish Parliament Member, Architect; born Feb. 26, 1911, Tampere, Finland; son of Juho and Sandi (Sundell) Lappi-Seppälä; educated at Technical High School, Helsinki (architect's diploma), 1936; married Aamu Aulikki Koskimeis, 1936; three children. Architect, Ministry of Agriculture, 1938; Director of Agricultural Reconstruction, 1943; Counsellor on Reconstruction since 1945. Member of Finnish Parlaiment (Conservative Party), snice 1945 (Member, Legislative and Economic Committee). Building Expert, Board of Trustee's Committee for Economics, snice 1946. Member, Board of Directors, Students' Organisation, 1933; Vice-Director, Voluntary Blood Service Organization, 1945; Member, H. Q., Finnish Boy Scouts League, 1939-47; Director, Reserve Officers' Training School, 1937; Member of Board of Directors, Administrative Officers' Organization, 1946. Member: National Economic Assn.; Assn. of Finnish Architects; Sport and Physical Training Assn. of Finland; Reserve Officers' Assn., etc. Awarded Freedom Cross with swords, 4th class; Commemorative War Medal .Author of five books for youth; Puurakennustaito; Editor, Miten rakennan. Architect for more than 100 buildings, mainly in Helsinki. Residence: Pietarinkatu I A. Office: Ministry of Agriculture, Kirkokatu 14, Helsinki, Finland.

LARA BUSTAMENTE, Prof. FERNANDO, Costa Rican Congressman, Lawyer; born Jan. 12, 1911, San Jose, Costa Rica; son of Ernesto Lara Iraeta and Angela Bustamente Castro; educated at Lyceum, Costa Rica; Univ. of Costa Rica, B.A., LL.B., Lic. in Law, Notary Public; married Ofelia Calvo Delgado, July 23, 1932; six children. Began practice of law in San José, 1934; Police Judge, 1932-36; Asst. to Secy. of Public Education, 1936-40; Prof. of Administrative Law and History, Univ. of Conta Rica, 1940; Deputy to Costa Rican Congress, 1942 —; reelected in 1946. Director of the magazine, Jurisprudencia. Residence: 2nd Ave., 15th and 17th Streets. Office: P.O. Box 1644, San José, Costa Rica.

LARTIGUE, DANY, French Painter; born 1921, Paris, France; son of Jacques Lartigue; educated at Ecole alsacienne, Paris; married Evie Girard, 1944; two children. Exhibited at Lyon (Rhône) 1942; at Cannes, Monte Carlo, 1942; Whitney Museum, 1946; Dublin (Waddington Galleries), 1947. Held one-man-show at Galerie Maeght, Paris, 1946; participated in Exposition "Four Centuries of French Painting," Gimpel, London, 1947; in touring expositions (Action Artistique) Switzerland, 1946; Buenos Aires and South America, 1946; Rome, Italy, 1947. Represented in collections of Marcel Kapferer, Paris; Sacha Guitry, Paris; Haubert, Seattle, U.S.A.; Zumsteg, Zurich, Switzerland, etc. Illustrator of Le bal public by Jacques Kober, 1945. Address: 12 rue de la Ponche, Saint-Tropez, Var, France.

LEIJONHUFVUD, AXEL (GUSTAF CARLSSON), Swedish Forester; born July 6, 1898, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Carl A:son and Hedvig (Fischerström) Leijonhufvud; educated at Högre Allm. Reallläroverket, Östermalm, 1917; Skogshögskolan, 1924; married Lisa Virgin, April 21, 1927; four children. Asst. Teacher, Forest High School, 1925; Asst., Forest Section, Nordmalinh Angsag A.B., 1926-36; Chief of Forest Section since 1936. Pres.: Lögde älvs Flottningsförening; Föreningen Jägmästare i Enskild Tjänst. Member of Board: Umea Tumningsförening; Örnskölsviks Tumningsförening. Member: Svenska Skogsvardsföremimgen; Norrlands Skogsvardsförbund; Svenska Flottledsförbundet, etc. Served as Officer, Home Guard, 1933-44. Address: Olofsfors Bruk, Nordmaling, Sweden.

LENCHNER, PAULA, American Singer; born March 30, 1925, Vienna, Austria; daughter of David and Gisella (Karp) Lenchner; educated at High School of Music and Art; College of Music, Cincinnati; Black Mt. College, N. C.; Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio; Juilliard School of Music, extension course; Berksnire Music Festival, Tanglewood, Mass. Made debut at Town Hall, Nov. 1945. Appeared with: Cincinnati Symphony, 1944; Chautauqua (N. Y.) Symphony Orhcestra; General Motors Symphony (under Dr. Black); Johann Strauss Festival, Carnegie Hall; Columbus (Ohio) Philharmonic (under I. Solomon); New York Stadium Concert; New York Pop Concert (three appearances); Kansas City Symphony; New Orleans Opera; Mexico City Opera Nacional; Pittsburgh Opera; Tanglewood, sang Electra in Idomeneo (Mozart). Appeared with N.B.C. Concerts through 30 cities. Member of Metropolitan Opera Co. since 1947; toured with Metropolitan Opera Co. Winner of Chicago Civic Opera Audition; National Winner of Federation Music Clubs Award $1,000; National Winner of Nawmburg Award, Town Hall recital. Residence: 887 Tinton Ave. Office: c/o Ludwig Lustig, 314 W. 94th St., New York, New York.

LEONARDI, Prof. PIETRO, Italian Geologist; born Jan. 29, 1908, Valdossiadene, Italy; son of Giuseppe and Caterina (Zuanon) Leonardi; educated at Univ. of Padua; Sc.D. 1931; married Elisa Giada, May 8, 1935; four children. Asst., Geological Inst., Padua, 1931; Privatdocent in Geology and Palaeontology, 1935; Prof. of Palaeontology, since 1935. Member of Administrative Board, Museum of Natural History, Venice. Member of Municipal Council, Venice, 1946. Pres., Opera B.P. Acotanto per l'assistenca alle famiglie del popolo, Venice, 1946. Member: Italian Inst. of Human Palaeontology; Italian Geological Soc.; Italian Soc. of Anthropolgy and Ethnology; Italian Inst. of Anthropology; Venetian Soc. of Natural Sciences; Italian Union of Naturalists. Awarded: Omboni Prize, 1932; Molon Prize, 1937. Author of many publications. Residence: Campo S. Polo, Venice, Italy. Office: Via Giotto 20, Padua, Italy.

LET YA, BO, Burmese Political Leader; born Sept. 15, 1911, Pyinmana, Burma; son of U Sein Thwin and Daw Kyin Myaing; educated at Rangoon Univ. College; married Hla Hla Myint, 1942; two children. Began career as soldier; Deputy General Officer Commanding Resistance Movement, 1945; now Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Defence of Burma. Aided in negotiating Kandy Agreement; Anglo-Burmese Treaty; Defence Agreement. Author: United National Front in Burma; Political Dictionary; World Politics and Maps; A Guide to Capitalism. Residence: Inya Road. Office: War Office, Rangoon, Burma.

LLOYD, CHARLES LUTHER, American Business Executive; born June 2, 1900, Wesson, Miss.; son of Thomas and Alice Lloyd; married Gladys Kirk, 1929; one son. Engaged in business since 1919; Chairman of Nu-Enamel Corp., 1936-47. Owner, Lloyd Oil Co.; Pres., Star Oil Co.; Pres., Mars Drilling Corp. Address: 4930 Park Lane, Dallas, Texas.

LOU TSENG-TSIANG, Rt. Rev. PIERRE-CÉLESTIN, Benedictine Abbot; born June 12, 1871, Shanghai, China; son of Lou Yong-Fong and Ou Kin-Ling; educated at School of Foreign Languages, Shanghai; College Tong Wen, Peking; married Berthe Bovy, Feb. 12, 1899 (deceased, 1926). Interpreter, Chinese Legation, St. Petersburg, 1892; Secy. and Counsellor, until 1906; Minister at The Hague, Netherlands, 1906; St. Petersburg, Russia, 1911; Minister of Foreign Affairs, Chinese Republic, 1912-20; Prime Minister of China, 1912; Chief of Chinese Delegation to Versailles Peace Conf., 1918-19; Minister at Berne, Switzerland, 1922-27. Entered Abbaye de Saint-Andre-lez-Bruges, Belgium, 1927; became Benedictine Monk, 1929; ordained Priest, 1935; created Abbot of St. Peter of Ghent, 1946. Author: Souvenirs et Pensées, 1945 (Flemish translation: Mijn Roeping, 1946; English: Ways of Confucius and of Christ, 1947; also translated into Chinese, Italian, German, Spanish, Hungarian, Portuguese, Czech and Slovac). Address: Abbaye de Saint-Andre-lez Bruges, Belgium.

LOWENSTEIN, LEON, American Manufacturer; born June 14, 1883, New York, N. Y.; son of Morris and Elizabeth (Sloan) Lowenstein; educated at College of City of New York, 1901; married Gloria E. Perry, July 29, 1937. With M. Lowenstein & Sons, Inc., New York, since 1899; Treasurer, 1918; Pres., 1936; Chairman of Board since 1947. Chairman of Board and Director: Kierchiefs, Inc.; Pickwick Curtain Co., Inc.; Pickwick Draperies, Inc., New York, N. Y.; Rock Hill Printing & Finishing Co., Rock Hill, S. C.; Aleo Mfg. Co., Rockingham, N. C.; Orr Mills, Anderson, S. C.; Huntsville Mfg. Co., Huntsville, S. C.; Saratoga Victory Mills, Albertville, Ala. Director: Limestone Mills; Hamrick Mills, Gaffney, S. C. Vice-Pres. and Dir., Hillside Hospital, Bellerose, L. I., N. Y. Co-Chairman, Executive Com., United Jewish Appeal of Greater New York, 1947. Director: Joint Defense Appeal; Anti-Defamation League. Residence: 480 Park Ave., N. Y. C., and Lowenbrook Farm, Purchase, N. Y. Office: M. Lowenstein & Sons, Inc., 43 Leonard St., New York, New York.

MACEDO, MIGUEL S., Mexican Lawyer; born June 17, 1884, Mexico City; son of Miguel S. and Dolores (Boubée) Macedo; educated at Escuela Nacional de Jurisprudencia, LL.B., 1908; married Concepción Zirión, Nov. 8, 1916. Pres., La Latino Americana Life Ins. Co. Secy.-General, Mexican Red Cross, since 1945. Pres., Mexican Bar Assn., 1941-42; Treasurer, Inter-American Bar Assn., since 1944. Member: Internatl. Bar Assn.; Amer. Soc. of International Law. Residence: 6a Sinaloa 179. Office: Madero 1, Mexico City, Mexico.

MAROTTA, Prof. DOMENICO, Italian Chemist; born July 28, 1886, Palermo, Italy; son of Ignazio and Concetta (Cortegiani) Marotta; educated at Univ. of Palermo, D.Chem. 1910; Privatdocent, Univ. of Rome, 1916; married Vittoria Melograni, July 10, 1920; two children. Asst. Istituto di Chimica Universita; Palermo, 1910; Chemist, Polverificio del Liri, 1910; Asst., Chemical Inst., Univ. of Rome; Director, Chemical Laboratory, Istituto Superiore di Sanita, 1934; Prof., Univ. of Florence, 1934; Director, Istituto Superiore di Sanita, Rome, since 1935. Member, Superior Health Council; Pres., Explosive Commission; Member of Managing Com., Italian Red Cross. Member: Accademia dei XL; Acad. of Sciences, Letters and Arts, Palermo; Acad. of Agriculture, Turin; Acad. of Sciences, Bologna; "Gioeni" Acad. of Natural Sciences, Catania; Acad. of History of Sanitary Art, Rome. Decorated Knight, Legion of Honor; Commander, Ordine Equestre di Sant' Agata; Ordine dei SS. Mauruzio e Lazzaro; Grand Cross, Military Order of Malta; Gold Medal for merit in Public Education; Gold Medal, Italian Red Cross; Gold Medal for Merit in Public Health Services; Gold Medal, "Dante Alighieri" Soc. Author: Stanislaso Cannizzaro; Raffaele Piria; various chemical books and papers; translated Nuova Atlantide di Bacone, 1937. Residence: Via Francesco Crispi 10. Office: Istituto Superiore di Sanita, Viale Regina Margherita 299, Rome, Italy.

MATHER, WILLIAM ALLAN, Canadian Railway Executive; born Sept. 12, 1885, Oshawa, Ont.; son of David Low and Katherine (Allan) Mather; educated at McGill Univ., degree in civil engineering, 1908; married Maynard Cruickshank, March 2, 1925; two children. Axeman, 1908; General Supt., Canadian Pacific Railway Co., Moose Jaw, Sask., 1918; General Supt., Calgary, Alta., 1932; Asst. to the Vice Pres., Montreal, 1933; Acting General Manager, Eastern Lines, Montreal, 1934; General Manager, Western Lines, Winnipeg, Man., 1934; Vice Pres., Western Lines, Winnipeg, Man., 1942; Vice Pres., Prarie Region, Winnipeg, Man., 1947; Pres., Canadian Pacific Railway, 1948—; Chairman, Canadian Pacific Air Lines, 1948—; Chmn., Canadian Pacific Steamships, 1948—; Pres., Canadian Australasian Lines, 1948—. Alternately Pres. and Vice-Pres., Northern Alberta Railways Co., The Toronto Terminals Railway Co. and Vancouver Hotel Co. Director: Great West Life Assurance Co.; Assoc. Screen News, Ltd.; Canadian Pacific Express Co.; Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. of Canada, Ltd.; Chateau Frontenac Co.; Canadian Marconi Co.; Alberta Ry. and Irrigation Co.; Calgary and Edmonton Corp. Member: Board of Trustees, Winnipeg General Hosp., 1942-48 (Chairman of Finance Com. of Bd., 1942-41). Bd. of Dirs., Knowles School for Boys, Winnipeg, 1942-47; Hon. Pres., Montreal Div., Navy League of Canada; Director, Canadian Forestry Assn. Member: Eastern Railroad Presidents' Assn.; Advisory Com., Canadian Standards Assn.; Executive Com., The Railway Assn. of Canada. Residence: 1227 Sherbrooke St., W. Office: Canadian Pacific Railway Co., Windsor Station, Montreal, P. Q., Canada.

MENTASTI, ATILIO JOSÉ, Argentine Film Producer; born May 26, 1901, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Angel and Virginia (Forzinetti) Mentasti; educated in public schools; married Ema Devoto; two children. Commercial Employee, 1919; Member of Board, Chief of Production and Vice-President, Argentina Sono Film S.A., since 1936. Vice-President, Argentine Assn. of Film Producers. Residence: Pampa 1774. Office: Ayacucho 362, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

MILCULESCU, G. DUMITRU, Roumanian Transportation Executive; born March 23, 1906, Butoesti, Mehedinti, Romania; son of Gheorghe and Speranta (Frumusanu) Milculescu; educated at Univ. of Sciences and Engineering, Bucarest, 1931; married Corina Mihaescu, 1945. Traffic Clerk, Roumanian State Railway (CFR), 1931; Head Time Table Office, 1932; Chief, International Railway Traffic, 1934-38. Commercial Director, Roumanian Post Office (P.T.T.), 1938-40; Representative of CFR in Industrial Metallurgical and Armament Commissariat, 1940-43; General Manager C.T.C. (Compania de Transporturi si Comert Corporation), since 1943. Residence: Th. Aman 42. Office: Academiei 29, Bucarest, Roumania.

MISRA, Dr. SHYAM BIHARI, Indian Government Official, Educator; born Aug. 12, 1873, Lucknow, India; educated at Canning College, Lucknow, B.A. 1895, M.A. 1896; Allahabad Univ. Hon. D.Litt., 1937; married Porij Rani Bajpa, 1889; two sons and five daughters. Deputy Collector of United Provnices, 1897; Deputy Supt. of Police, 1906-09; Supt. of Police, Dewan Chatarpur State, 1910-14; Personal Asst. to Excise Commn., U. P., 1917-20; Joint Registrar and Registrar of Cooperative Societies; Deputy Commissioner of Gonda and Main Districts, 1902-28; Pres. of Managing Com., KanyaRubya Intermediate College, 1932-43; Magistrate and Collector of United Provinces (retired); Chief Adviser to H. H. the Sawai Mahendra Maharaja, Central India; Member of United Provinces War Board, since 1942. Member of Nagir Rachani Sabha of Benares (Pres., five years); Member of Court and other Univ. bodies, Univs. of Allahabad, Benares and Lucknow. Received titles of Rai Bahadur, 1928, Rao Raja Orchha State, 1933. Co-author of thirty works in Hindi. Address: Golaganj, Lucknow, India.

MONIZ, HEITOR, Brazilian Journalist; born Jan. 11, 1906, Sao Salvador, Bania, Brazil; son of Antonio Ferrao Moniz de Aragao and María Clementina Moniz de Aragao; educated at Faculty of Law, Universidade de Rio de Janeiro; married Sonia María Moniz, May 21, 1927; one daughter. Officer, Cabinet of Minister of Labor, 1930-32; Inspector, National Dept. of Labor, 1932; Secy. of the Minister of Labor, 1934-37; Chief, Printing Service, Ministry of Justice, 1937; Chief, Office of Propaganda and Commercial Expansion of Brazil in Berlin, 1935; Chief, Press Service, Ministry of Labor, 1937-39; Officer, Cabinet of Chief of Police of Federal District, 1939-42; Chief of Cabinet of Superintendency of Corporations, 1940-43. Director: (magazine) "Carioca," 1940; (magazine) "Sintese," 1942; "Letras Brasileiras," 1943. Secy.-Director, Empreza "A Noite," 1943; Director, Div. of Dept. of Printing and Propaganda, since 1943. Decorated by Brazil, Portugal and Italy. Author: O Brasil de Ontem; O 2° Reinado; No Tempo da monarquia; A Corte de D. Pedro II; Aspectos da Historia Brasileira; Amores Historicos; Vultos da Literatura Brasileira; Nao Casaras; Teatro de Vida; Berlin-Paris-Roma; Episodios Históricos Brasileiros; Prosas Esparsas; Discursos Académicos. Residence: Rua Julio de Castilhos No. 83, Apt. 7, Rio. Office: Palacio Tiradentes, Rio de Janeiro, Brasil.

MONTEALEGRE, Dr. EDUARDO, Nicaraguan Economist; born June 21, 1914, Chirandega, Nicaragua; son of Eduardo and Celia (Callejas) Montealegre; educated at Univ. of León; Central Univ., Managua, 1933-38; LL.B., LL.D.; American Univ., Washington, D. C.; Harvard Univ., M.Econ. 1943; married Elfi Hannevig, Apr. 8, 1944. Chief Clerk, Nicaraguan Senate, 1933-37; Judge, District of Chinandega, Nicaragua, 1937-38; Chief, Diplomatic Dept., Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1940-41; Economist, Federal Reserve Board, Washington, D. C., 1943-45; Technical Adviser, Ministry of Economics, Guatemala, 1945-46; Director, Dept. of Economic Studies, Banco de Guatemala, since 1946. Member of Board of Directors, National Mortgage Bank of Guatemala; Fomento Corp. of Guatemala. Adviser to Venezuelan Govt. on legal banking and monetary organization (drafting laws). Member, Amer. Economic Assn. Author: Recursos Procesales en lo Civil, 1938; Anotaciones a la ley organica del Banco del Paraguay, 1945; Estabilización de precios de productos agricolas, 1946, etc. Residence: 7th Ave. & 5th St. Sta. Clara. Office: Banco de Guatemala, Guatemala City, Guatemala.

MONTERO y GUTIERREZ, Rev. Prof. ELOY, Spanish Law School Dean; born Nov. 27, 1887, Bodón, Salamanca, Spain; son of Emiliano and Bonifacia Montero y Gutierrez; studied philosophy and theology, Seminary of City of Rodrigo, Salamanca, 1898-1910; law, philosophy and literature, Univ. of Salamanca, 1910-13; Univ. of Madrid, LL.D., 1915. Vicar General, Diocese of City of Rodrigo, 1915-17; Canon, Valladolid, 1917-21. Prof. of Canon Law: Univ. of Seville, 1921-28; Univ. Central, Madrid, since 1928. Dean, Law Faculty, Universidad Central, Madrid. Author: Marruecos: el pueblo moro y el judió, 1911; La Guerra ante el Derecho y ante la Iglesia, 1915; El individualismo económico y las modernas exigencias de la justicia social, 1917; Instituciones de Derecho canónico, vol. I, 1929, vol. II, 1929, vol. III, 1930; Neomalthusianismo, eugenesia y divorcio, 1932; El porvenir de la Iglesia en España, 1933; Derecho canónico comparado, vol. I, 1934, vol. II and III, 1936; Lo que vi en Rusia, 1935; Los Estados modernos y la Nueva España, 1939; El matrimonio y las causas matrimoniales, 1945; Crisis de la familia en la sociedad moderna, 1942; Derecho canónico constitucional, administrativo y penal, 3rd ed., 1943; Derecho público eclesiástico y normas generales, 1943; La Santa Sede en el orden internacional, 1943; El Movimiento de Oxford, 1944-45; La Moral y la Cátedra, 1947; El Espíritu religioso de Occidente frente almundo materialista, 1948. Address: Calle General Mola 8, Madrid, Spain.

MONTGOMERY, Dr. M. LAURENCE, American Surgeon; born Dec. 5, 1895, Simi, Calif.; son of Melville Luther and Lorena V. (Lloyd) Montgomery; educated at Univ. of California, A.B. 1919, M.A. 1922, M.D. 1924; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. (Surgery) 1931; married Henrietta M. Roberts, June 2, 1939. Interne, San Francisco Hospital, 1924-25. Resident: L.D.S. Hosp., Salt Lake Ctiy, 1925-26; Salt Lake Clinic, 1926-28. Research Asst., Univ. of Chicago, 1928-30; Instr. in Surgery, 1930-31. Asst. Prof. of Surgery, Univ. of California, 1931-39; Assoc., Clinical Prof. of Surgery, 1939 —. Director and Pres., Simco, Inc. Director, Montgomery Investment Co. President: Northern District Public Health League of California, 1943-44; State Council of Public Heatlh League of California, 1945-47. Member: Soc. for Experimental Biology and Medicine; San Francisco County Med. Soc. (Secy.-Treas., 1948 —); California Med. Assn.; Amer. Medical Assn. Residence: 20 Clarendon Ave. Office: 490 Post St., San Francisco 2, California.

MORSE, Prof. FREDERICK ALVIN, American Educator; born Aug. 1, 1909, Meriden, Conn.; son of Frederick and Dorothea (Haden) Morse; educated at Alfred Univ., B.A. 1932; Cornell Univ. Graduate School, M.A. 1933 (study for Ph.D., 1933-38). Instr. at Cascadilla School (Boys' Preparatory School), Ithaca, N. Y., 1932-38. Prof. of History, Kueka College, Keuka Park, N. Y., 1938-43; Head of Dept. of History, 1941-43. On leave of absence from Keuka College to serve in U. S. Navy, 1943-46. Lieut. (jg.) U.S.N.R. on active duty, 1943; Lieut. (senior grade), 1944; served in field of radio communications until 1945; engaged in writing naval history, 1945-46; Lieut. Commander, 1946. Resumed duties as Prof. of History and Head of Dept. of History, Keuka College, 1946; granted leave of absence from College to serve New York State Education Dept. in administration of college and university policies of Bd. of Regents, Dec. 1946; Executive Asst. for Higher Education, Univ. of State of New York, State Education Dept., 1947-48; Acting Asst. Commissioner for Higher Education, Univ. of the State of New York, State Education Dept., Jan. 1948. Pres., Associated Colleges of Upper New York, 1948 —. Member: Amer. Historical Assn.; Acad. of Political Science; Amer. Assn. of Univ. Profs. Address: Associated Colleges of Upper New York, Plattsburg, N. Y.

NAHTA, AGARCHAND, Indian Banker, Merchant and Author; born March 19, 1911, Bikaner, India; son of Seth Sankardanji and Chunnibai Nahta; educated privately and studied Hindi, Prakrita, Sanskrita, English and Bengali languages; married Pannibai, July 6, 1926; four children. Began career as business man and author, 1926. Proprietor, Megh Raj Agarehand Nahta, bankers and general merchants, Sylhet, Assam and Baburhat (Dacca). Trustee, Kharataracachha Bara-Bhandar, Bikaner; Founder, Sankar Dan Nahta Rajasthani Prize Author: Vidhava-Kartavya-Yugapradhan Jinachandra Suri; Dada Jim Kushal Suri; Manidhari Jinachandra Suri; Aitihasik Jain Kaya Sangrah; Yugapradhan Jinadattasuri, Bikaner Jain Inscriptions, and about 400 research papers. Editor of Rajasthani and Rajasthan-Bharati. Address: Bikaner, India.

NÁJERA ANGULO, Dr. LUIS, Spanish Public Health Physician; born July 18, 1901, Logroño, Spain; son of Emerenciano Nájera and Anunciación Angulo; educated at Inst. of Secondary Education, Logroño; married María Morrondo, March 9, 1930; six children. Physician: Colonial Sanitary Service of Spanish Guiana, 1928; National Sanitary Corps, 1932. Director of Health, Puerto de Ibiza, 1932; Chief of Hygienic Centre, Sigüenza, 1933; Provincial Chief of Health Dept., Córdoba, 1937; Asst. Prof., National Heatlh Inst., 1939; Director, Hygienic Centre, Puente de Vallecas, since 1941. Lecturer on Parasitology and Public Health in Faculties of Medicine of Madrid, Sevilla and Valladolid; Veterniary of Córdoba; Natl. Inst. of Parasitology of Granada and Tropical Med. Inst. of Lisbon. Spanish Delegate to International Congress of Mediterranean Hygiene, Marseilles, 1932, and IV International Congress of Microbiology, Copenhagen, 1941. Author of 152 works on public health and parasitology. Member: Spanish Assn. for Advancement of Science; Argentine Soc. of Pathology; Amer. Mosquito Control Assn., etc. Decorated Commander, Civil Order of Health, 1943. Residence: Calle de Quintana, 14. Office: Calle Nuestra Señora del Carmen 2, Puente de Vallecas, Madrid, Spain.

NESTOR, Dr. JACOB-MARIUS, Roumanian Psychologist; born Dec. 17, 1901, Focsani, Roumania; son of Joan and Maria (Ionescu) Nestor; educated at Faculty of Philosophy, Univ. of Bucarest, 1927-29; Univ. of Berlin and Würzburg, 1929-31; Univ. of Bucarest, Ph.D.; married Lucretia Petreteanu, 1933; two children. Voluntary Asst., Psychological Laboratory, Univ. of Bucarest, 1929. Asst., 1936; Chief of Studies, 1938; Lecturer since 1945. Prof. of Psychology: Military School; High School for Social Assistants. Psychologist and Prof., Psychotechnic Inst. of Bucarest; Secy., Psychometric Commission, Roumanian Academy. Member: Roumanian Social Inst.; National Inst. of Industrial Psychology, London; Internatl. Inst. of Collaboration in Philosophy; Rumanian Soc. of Psychological Research (Secy.) Editor, Analele de Psihologie and Jurnal de Psyhotehnica. Author: Psihologia clipei de spaima, 1932; Diagnosticarea inteligentei copiilor, 1937; Bareme românesti privind antropometria scolara, 1938; Profesiograme psihologice, 1939; Orientarea profesionala, 1939; Examenul evolutiei psihologice, 1940; Probleme de psihologie, scolara, 1942; Cercetari experimentale asupra inteligentei la Români, 1947. Residence: Bulevardul Generalisimul Stalin 19. Office: Strada Edgar Quinet, Bucuresti, Roumania.

NIMO, Dr. ALEJANDRO ANTONIO, Argentine Economist; born April 24, 1891, Rio Cuarto, Córdoba, Argentina; son of Juan Ramón Nimo and Balbina Suárez de N.; educated at Universidad Nacional de Buenos Aires (Public Accountant and Doctor in Economic Sciences); married María Ana Vignau; six children. Mercantile Appraiser, 1910; Instructor, Faculty of Economic Sciences of Buenos Aires, 1921; Prof., Faculty of Economic Sciences in Rosario, 1922-31. In charge of Economic Section, 1922-29. Director of the Seminar, 1922-29; Chief of Research, 1922, and Secretary of Faculty, 1922-23; Prof., 1931-34. Secy., Municipality of Rosario, 1922-24. Delegate to Third, Fourth and Fifth Univ. Congresses, Congreso de la Vivienda del Trabajador, Congreso para determinar el costo de la producción agricola. Delegate to Universidad Mayor de Montevideo (Uruguay). Author of a series of technical and scientific studies published in professional and educational reviews. Residence: Ovidio Lagos, 1451, Rosario. Office: Bulevar Oroño No. 1261, Rosario de Santa Fé, Argentina.

NOBLE, Dr. GEORGE BERNARD, American Political Scientist; born July 11, 1892, Leesburg, Fla.; son of Charles S. and Eva S. (Hall) Noble; educated at Univ. of Washington, 1910-13; Univ. of Oxford (England), 1913-16, B.A. 1916, M.A. 1923; Univ. of Wisconsin, 1916-17; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1935; married Matilda Thomas, Dec. 24, 1917. First Lieut., 168th Inf., U. S. Army, 1917; attached to U. S. Commission to Negotiate Peace, Paris, Dec. 1918-July 1919. Asst. Prof., Political Science, Univ. of Nebraska, 1920-22. Asst. Prof., Political Science, Reed College, Portland, Ore., 1922-28; Prof., 1928-45. Chairman, Northwest Regional War Labor Board, 1943-45; Asst. Chief, Div. of Research and Publication, Dept. of State, March-Sept. 1946; Chief, Div. of Historical Policy Research, Dept. of State, 1946—. Director, Northwest Inst. of Internatl. Relations, Portland, Ore., 1938-43. Trustee, Maret School, Washington, D. C. Chairman, Oregon State Adjustment Board, 1934-35. Member: Amer. Political Science Assn.; Amer. Soc. of Internatl. Law. Author: Policies and Opinions at Paris, 1919, 1935. Residence: 909 N. Wayne St., Arlington, Va. Office: Division of Historical Policy Research, Dept. of State, Washington 25, District of Columbia.

OTANO EGUINO, JOSE MARIA NEMESIO, Spanish Conservatory Direcor; born Dec. 19, 1880, Azcoitia, Guipuzcoa, Spain; son of Dr. Luis Otano and Mercedes Eguino; studied solfeggio, piano, organ and harmony at age of fifteen. Entered Soc. of Jesus, 1896; studied theology; engaged in study of religious music of great Spanish masters, 1903-08; Founder and Managing Editor, Musica Sacro-Hispana (magazine), 1908-22; Schola Cantorum, Pontifical Univ. of Comillas, Santander (1910-20); promoted four conventions on sacred music; various publications of choral and organ works; active as composer, leader, lecturer; also studying Spanish folk-lore. Director, Royal Conservatory of Music and Dramatic Art, Madrid; Inspector General of Spanish Conservatories since 1940. Pres., Natl. Board of Music, Ministry of Education; Member, Superior Council of National Education; Academician, Royal Acad. of Arts, San Fernando; Artistic Adviser, Cultural Relations, Ministry of Foreign Affairs; Pres., Philharmonic Orchestra, Madrid. Awarded Grand Cross, Alfonso el Sabio. Author of numerous articles and reports on musicology in magazines and anthologies of Spanish authors. Composed many choral works, especially religious, choral and organ music as well as folkloric songs and choirs. Residence: Calle San Bernardo 44. Office: Alberto Aguilera 23, Madrid, Spain.

PALENZONA, PRIMO ROMOLA, Italian Journalist, Politician, Labor Leader; born Jan. 1, 1897, Genova Rivarolo, Italy; son of Francesco and Maria Emilia (Marcenaro) Palenzona; educated in industrial school; married Caterina Raybaud, Oct. 18, 1926; two children. Organizer, Christian Syndicate, 1919; Secy., Dept. of Labor, Genoa and Liguria districts, until 1924; Correspondent, Popolo, Rome; Editor, Domani Sociale (organ of Confederation of Syndicates); Founder, L'Idea Sociale (clandestine periodical); now Secy., Chamber of Labor, Province of Genoa. Member, National Liberation Com., Liguria; active in defense of allied prisoners and in clandestine movement of Christian Syndicate. Elected Deputy, Italian Parliament, April 1948. Author: Parla il cuore, 1945; Sindacalismo Cristiano e Unita Sindicale, 1946; Da Parigi a Montreal, 1947. Residence: Via Umberto Pace. Office: Via Cesarea, Genoa, Italy.

PALMA MARTÍNEZ, Dr. ILDEFONSO, Nicaraguan Jurist and Politician; born May 1, 1900, Chinandega City, Nicaragua; son of José M. Palma and Mrs. Nazaria Martínez; educated at Instituto Nacional de Occidente, León, Nicaragua, B.A. 1922; Universidad, León, LL.D. 1927; married Inés Ibarra, Oct. 9, 1932; six children. Lawyer, 1927; Civil Judge, León, 1931-32; Deputy, National Congress, 1933-35; Pres. of Congress, 1934; Member, Legislative Commission, Executive Power, 1941-42; Minister of Public Instruction, 1947; Candidate for Pres. of the Republic of Nicaragua (Liberal Party). Author: De Ayer, 1943; Derecho Administrativo, 1947; Rafaela de Herrera o La Niña de Nicaragua, 1948. Address: 2nd St., N.E., Managua, Nicaragua.

PÉREZ DÁMERA, Major General GENOVEVO, Cuban Army Chief; born Jan. 3, 1910, Matanzas, Prov. Matanzas, Cuba; son of Justo Pérez Hernández and Sabina Dámera Olivero; educated at Instituto de Matanzas, B.A. 1929; Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Univ. of Havana, one year; Instituto Mercantil "Mercurio", Matanzas (typist and bookkeeper), 1937; School for Officers, 1934-35; Artillery School, Military Schools of Morro, 1935-36; Escuela de Aplicación, 1940-41; married Abela Valdés Manresa, Aug. 29, 1929; two children. Entered Cuban Army as a Private, 1929, serving with 6th Inf. Regiment, Mil. Dist., Columbia; 2nd Lt. and Aide-de-Camp to President of Cuba, 1933; promoted to 1st Lieut., 1933; Chief of Mixed Presidential Guard; accompanied President Martín to Mexico; attended military schools; Prof., Military Acad., 1936; Prof. of Mathematics, 1937; established courses on artillery materiel; promoted to Capt. and Commander, 1938, 1941; Aide-de-Camp to President of the Republic, 1944; Chief of Military Board, Presidential Palace, 1944; Lieut. Colonel, 1944; Col. 1945; Chief of General Staff, Cuban Army, with rank of Major General, since 1945. Awarded numerous decorations by Cuba, U. S., Mexico, China, etc. Author: Materia lde Artillería. Residence: Avenida de los Oficiales. Office: Cuartel "Cabo Parrado," Ciudad Militar, Habana, Cuba.

PETRUCCI, Dr. LUIGI, Italian Diplomat; born Oct. 25, 1887, Grotte di Castro (Viterbo), Italy; son of Giuseppe and Maria (Orzi) Petrucci; educated at Liceo Ennio Quirino Visconti, Rome, B.A. 1907; Univ. of Rome, LL.D. 1911; married Elisabetta Giordano, Aug. 10, 1919; one daughter. Attaché, General Consulate, Alexandrie, Egypt, 1914; Vice-Consul, 1915; assigned to Lugano, Switzerland, 1918, 1920; General Consulate at Corfu, Greece, 1920; Consulate at Kobe, Japan, 1921; Consulate General, Hong Kong, 1921; recalled to Ministry at Rome, 1923; Secy. of Legation, 1924; Secy. of Legation at Belgrade, Yugoslavia, 1925; Counsellor of Legation, 1928; Counsellor to Embassy at Warsaw, Poland, 1929; General Consulate at Ottawa, Canada, 1932; Minister, 1935; assigned to Legation at Teheran, Iran, 1937; recalled to Rome, 1941; Ambassador to Mexico since 1946. Decorations: Grand Officer, Italian Crown Order; Commander, Order SS. Maurice and Lazarus, Italy; Grand Cross, Hungarian St. Stephen Order; Grand Cross, Palevi, Iran; Grand Officer, Polish White Eagle Order; Grand Cross, Albanian Scandenberg Order; Cross, King's Jubilee, England; Knight, Order of the Nile (Egypt). Residence: Calle de Nilo 47. Office: Calle de Varsovia 22 bis, Mexico, D.F., Mexico.

PHILLIPS, HUBERT, British Author and Journalist; born Dec. 13, 1891, Nottingham; son of Arthur and Alice Ellen (Heritage) Phillips; educated at Merton College, Oxford, 1910-14; Class I Honours, School of Modern History, 1913, Diploma in Economics and Political Science (Distinction), 1914; B.A. 1913, M.A. 1920; married Margery Davies, 1919; one son. Joined Army, 1914; commissioned, 1915 (Essex Regiment); demobilized as Capt., 1919. Head of Dept. of Economics, Bristol Univ., 1919; Director of Extra Mural Studies until 1924; Director of Liberal Research Dept., Economic Adviser and Secy. to Liberal Industrial Inquiry, 1924-26; Secy. and Adviser to Liberal Parliamentary Party, 1928. Lecturer, Univ. of Minnesota, 1930. Joined The News-Chronicle, London, 1930; started Dogberry's column, 1931; Bridge Editor, 1932-39; Crossword Editor, 1939—; Principal Leader Writer, 1942-46. Caliban of The New Statesman, 1932-38; Editor, British Bridge World, 1932-39; now Editor of Ptarmigan Books. Author: A Cynic's Holiday, 1918; The Legal Position of Trade Unions (with W. A. Jowitt, K.C. and A. D. McNair), 1927; Handbook of Liberal Industrial Policy, 1928; Verses for Various Occasions, 1928; A Diet of Crisps, 1929; Mr. Rubbish, 1929; The Liberal Outlook, 1929; Hubert Phillips's Chap Book, 1930; Production, 1931; Value and Distribution, 1931; One Hundred Contract Bridge Hands, 1932; The Week-End Problems Book, 1932; Whither Britain? (with others), 1932; Radical Rhymes, 1932; Contract Whist, 1932; Dogberry, 1932; The Book of Indoor Games, 1933; The Playtime Omnibus, 1933; Contract Bridge Championship of 1933, 1933; Caliban's Problem Book, 1933; Some of Dog's Doggerel, 1933; The Sphinx Problem Book, 1934; Two Hundred Hands from Match Play, 1934; You Can Play and Laugh, 1934; Commentary on the Laws of Contract Bridge, 1935; Brush Up Your Wits, 1936; Some More of Dog's Doggerel, 1936; The Elements of Contract (wtih Terence Reese), 1937; As Dreams Are Made On, 1937; Question Time, 1937; Roses in December, 1938; Brush Up Your Bridge, 1939; The Complete Book of Card Games, 1940; Charteris Royal, 1941; Quiz Series, 1. English Literature, 2. London, 3. Natural History, 4. Current Affairs, 5. Dickens, 6. English History, 7. The Bible, 8. Shakespeare, 1945-47; Something to Think About, 1945; Ask Me Another, 1945; Word Play, 1945; How to Play Bridge (with Terence Reese), 1945; Hubert Phillips's Heptameron ,1946; Playtime, 1947; Chipwinkle's Crossword Book, 1947; Thorne's Complete Contract Bridge, revised edition, 1948; Cayzling Manor; Inspector Playfair's Notebook. Residence: Sutton Courtenay House, near Abingdon, Berks. Office: 146 Clifford's Inn, Fetter Lane, London, E.C. 4, England.

PICH-SANTASUSANA, Prof. JUAN, Spanish Conductor; born Oct. 23, 1911, Barcelona, Spain; son of Jaime and Sofia (Felip) Pich-Santasusana; educated at Municipal School of Music, Barcelona; Conservatory of Music, Geneva, Swtizerland; privately under Blanche Selva and Herman Scherchen; married Maria Escrihuela, April 27, 1941; one child. Made debut as conductor, 1934 at Barcelona (Orchestral Inst.); Dir. of Music, Barcelona, 9th District; Director of Orchestral Institute, A.O.C. (founded by Pablo Casals); Director, Symphony Orchestra, Barcelona Radio; Prof. of Music, Municipality of Barcelona; Director, Philharmonic Orchestra, Barcelona; Philharmonic Orchestra, Las Palmas (Canary Isles); Principal Director, Madrid Radio Symphony Orchestra (Radio Nacional). Conducted Pamplona Choral Soc. with Barcelona Philharmonic Orchestra (Misa Solemnis, Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, Haydn's Seasons, Handel's Messiah, Wagners' Parsifal, Meistersinger); Madrid Choral Soc. on various occasions; Madrid National Orchestra; Symphony Orchestra of Madrid; Symphony Orchestras of Geneva, Catalunia and Valencia. Organizer of free popular concerts, Barcelona and Barcelona dist., 1934-35; Lecturer on music history, Radio Barcelona. Compositions include thirty songs for voice and piano; five songs for voice and orchestral quartet for woodwind instruments; Symphonic Poem for Orchestra. Residence: San pedro 66, Badalona, Barcelona, Spain.

PLATT, Dr. ALBERT EDWARD, Australian Epidemiologist; born June 7, 1901, Perth, West Australia; son of James and Alice Maud (Jones) Platt; educated at Sydney Univ., M.B., B.S. 1927; D.T.M., D.T.H. 1931; London Univ., Diploma in Bacteriology, 1933; Adelaide Univ., M.B., B.S. 1936, and M.D. 1937; Cambridge Univ., Ph.D. 1940; F.R.A.C.P.; married Elisabeth Winifred Paten Woodyard; one son. Resident Medical Officer, 1927; Supt. of Parramatta District Hospital, New South Wales, 1928; Medical Officer, Mandated Territory of New Guinea, 1929-32; Gwynaeth Pretty Research Student, Cambridge Univ., 1933-34; Prof. of Bacteriology, Univ. of Adelaide until 1941. Director, Inst. of Epidemiology and Preventive Medicine, Sydney. Member: Pathological Soc. of Great Britain and Ireland; British Medical Assn. Member of several State and Commonwealth Committees at various times. Author of numerous articles in scientific journals. Major in Reserve of Officers, Australian Army Medical Corps. Died April 8, 1948.

RENTSCHLER, GEORGE ADAN, American Industrialist; born Nov. 14, 1892, Fairfield, Ohio; son of George Adam and Phoebe (Schwab) Rentschler; educated at Princeton Univ., Litt.B. 1915; married Rita Rend Mitchell, Nov. 11, 1936; three sons. Machinist wtih Hooven, Owens, Rentschler Co., Hamilton, Ohio, 1915; Pres., 1925-28. Pres., General Machinery Corp., 1928-45; Chairman of Board, 1945-47. Chairman, Executive Com., Lima-Hamilton Corp., since 1947. Chairman of Board, The Philip Carey Mfg. Co. Director: Motor Wheel Corp.; Charleston (S. C.) Shipbuilding & Drydock Co.; The Fifth Third Union Trust Co., Cincinnati; Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co.; Barber Oil Corp.; Miami Conservancy Dist., Dayton, Ohio. Residence: 5 Beechcrest Lane, Cincinnati Ohio. Office: 545 North Third St., Hamilton, Ohio.

RISE, ALLAN, Danish Economist; born Nov. 19, 1905, Fredericia, Denmark; son of Th. and Marie Emilie (Heilmann) Rise; educated at Ostersogades Gymnasium, 1924; graduate in law, 1930; married Ellen Agnete Springborg, Dec. 13, 1936; three children. Solicitor's clerk, 1930; Secy., Scandinavian Employers' Assn., Brussels Bureau, 1931-32; Secy., Danish Employers' Assn., 1932; Chief of Section, Graphical Trades Organizations, 1938; Chief of Section, Confederation of Danish Employers, 1942; Vice-Director of Confederation since 1948. Member of Danish Delegations to International Labor Conferences held in 1932, 1933, 1934, 1936, 1937, 1945, 1946, 1947 and 1948. Residence: Prs. Alexandrines Alle 14, Charlottenlund. Office: Dansk Arbejdsgiverforening, Vester Voldgade 113, Copenhagen, Denmark.

RODRIGUEZ SASTRE, Dr. ANTONIO, Spanish Jurist, Economist; born Nov. 5, 1896, Barcelona, Spain; son of José Rodríguez and Margarita Sastre; educated at Faculty of Law, Univ. of Madrid, 1924-29, LL.D.; Escuela de Altos Estudios mercantiles, Madrid, 1930-34; married Amalia Robles Soldevilla, Dec. 22, 1920; four children. In private law practice, 1929; Legal Adviser, Wikal S. A. (Ford Agency), 1932; Ganz Ibérica, 1929; Asst. Prof. of Penal Law, Faculty of Law, Univ. of Madrid, 1932-33; Prof. of Penal Law (Finance), Instituto de Estudios penales, 1933. Pres.: Colegio Central de Titulares mercantiles de España, 1935-38; Colegio de Contadores jurados, Madrid, 1935-44. Pres. and Director, Instituto de Censores jurados de España, 1945; Member of Permanent Commission, Assn. Internationale de Comptabilité, 1935; Vice-Pres., Assn. Internationale de Comptabilité, 1936; Spanish Representative, VIII Congreso Internacional de Contabilidad, 1935; Prof., Faculty of Economic Sciences, Madrid, 1946. Secy., Administrative Council, Sociedad Española de Oxidos y Pinturas; Pres., Administrative Council, Electro-Vávula S. A.; Member, Administrative Council, Pacrip S. L. Address: Plaza de Colón núm. 3, Madrid, Spain.

SCHIER, Dr. ANTOINE, Member of Belgian Supreme Court; born June 7, 1885, Liege, Belgium; son of Joseph and Victorine (Leboutte) Schier; educated at the Univ. of Liege, LL.D. 1908; married Cécile Gulikers, Aug. 22, 1912; four children — Jacques, Albert, Jean and Marie-Antoinette. Lawyer in Liège, 1908; Magistrate, Belgian Congo, 1910; Attorney-General, Court of Appeal, Elisabethville, 1925-34; Prosecutor, Arlon District, 1934; Member of Court of Appeal, Liège, 1937; Member of Supreme Court since 1946. Pres., Royal Belgian Congo Inst., 1942. Member of Administrative Council and Prof. of Congo Native Law, Colonial Univ., Antwerp. Dir., Revue Juridique du Congo belge, 1924-34; Director, Bulletin des Juridictions Indigènes et du Droit coutumier congolais, 1930-34; Member of Editorial Board, Belgique Coloniale et Commerce International, Zaire. Author: Répertoire de la Jurisprudence Congolaise, 1927; La dot Coutumière Congolaise, 1930; Pratiques des Juridictions indigènes, 1934; Droit de Procédure du Congo belge, 1938; Le Régime pénitentiaire congolais, 1938; Les juridictions indigènes, 1939; Le statut de la femme indigène, 1939; Le mariage en droit coutumier congolais, 1943; Droit civil congolais: des contrats et des obligations conventionnelles (in press); Précis de droit coutumier congolais, 1947; A l'aurore du Katanga, 1920; Tréfonds (stories), 1943; Yantea (novel) 1945. Address: Avenue Brugmann 217, Brussels, Belgium.

TABER, DAVID FAIRMAN, American Lawyer; born Dec. 29, 1891, Valparaiso, Ind.; son of David Fairman and Catherine (Memler) Taber; educated at Tome School (Port Deposit, Md.), 1911; Cornell University, LL.B. 1916; married Ann Mary Ambrose, Dec. 28, 1929; three children. Engaged in practice of law since 1916; associated with law firm of Isham, Lincoln & Beale until 1930; partner since 1930. Member: American, Illinois State Bar Assns., etc. Residence: Hawthorn Lane, Wheaton, Ill. Office: 72 West Adams St., Chicago 3, Ill.

TACCHI-VENTURI, Rev. PIETRO, S.J., Italian Historian; born Aug. 12, 1861, St. Severino, Marche, Italy; son of Antonio Tacchi-Venturi and Orsola Ceselli; educated at St. Appolinare; Rome Univ.; studies in philosophy and theology, Gregorian University. Entered Society of Jesus, 1878; now Official Historian for Italy; served as Secretary-General, Jesuit Order, 1914-21. Author: Stato della religione in Italia alla metà del secolo XVI, 1908; Storia della Compania di Gesu in Italia, 1910; second edition revised and enlarged 1930; II B. Roberto Bellarmino: esame delle accuse contro la sua santità, 1923; La casa di S. Ignazio in Roma, 1924; Opere storiche del P. Matteo Ricci (2 vols.), 1911, 1913; S. Ignazio di Loiola nell'arte dei secoli XVII and XVIII, 1929; Storia delle Religioni (2 vols.; 3rd ed. revised and enlarged 1939). Address: Piazza del Gesu 45, Rome, Italy.

TAGGART, Prof. ARTHUR FAY, American Professor of Mineral Dressing; born Oct. 1, 1884, New York, N. Y.; son of Jesse and Ophelia B. (Fay) Taggart; educated at Stanford Univ., A.B. 1909, E.M. 1910; married Alice Ruth Field, Aug. 31, 1911; three children. Instructor and Asst. Prof. of Mining, Yale Univ., 1911-19. Prof. of Mineral Dressing, Columbia Univ., since 1919. Consulting Engineer and Expert in Patent Cases for: Butte & Superior Mining Co.; Miami Copper Co.; Utah Copper Co.; Magma Copper Co.; Metals Recovery Co.; Southern Phosphate Corp.; Easy Washing Machine Co.; General Electric Co.; Sinclair Refining Co.; Richfield Oil Corp.; Mathieson Alkali Corp.; International Pulverizing Corp. Member: Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers; Amer. Chemical Soc. Author: Handbook of Ore Dressing; Handbook of Mineral Dressing; Sections on Boring, Crushing, and Testing of Ores in Peele, Mining Engineers' Handbook; Manual of Flotation Processes; numerous articles in technical journals. Address: Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

TAILLEUX, FRANCIS, French Painter; born Mar. 18, 1913, Paris, France; son of Marcel and Ellen (Gras) Tailleux; educated at College of Dieppe; studied painting at Scandinavian Academy under Friez de Waroquier and Charles Dufresne; Royal College of Art, London, 1932-34; married Eileen Forbes, June 13, 1940; one daughter. Exhibited at Paris Salon, 1926 (at age of thirteen); painted mural decorations for the State (National Inst. for Deaf and Dumb, Paris), 1938; mural for French Pavilion, Liége Exhibition, 1939; exhibited at Salon d'Automne, Salon des Indépendants, Salon des Tuileries (for fifteen years); held one-man shows in London, 1937 (Leicester Galleries); Paris, 1945 (Gallerie de France). Participated in various exhibitions of French contemporary art in United States, 1939, 1947; Balkans, 1939; Belgium, 1945-46; South America, 1945; Switzerland and Czechoslovakia, 1946; Sweden and Ireland, 1947. Represented in Musée d'Art Moderne, Paris; Musée de Rouen; Musée de Dieppe; Museum at Baltimore, etc. Made etchings for Tristan l'Hermite's Le Promenoir des deux amants. Address: 44 rue du Bac, Paris VII, Fance.

TALBOT, Dr. J. ROBERT, Canadian Musicologist; born Dec. 2, 1893, Montmagny; son of Peter C. and Emma (Hamel) Talbot; educated at Quebec Seminary; Laval Univ., B.S. 1916, D.Mus. 1932; Inst. of Musical Art, New York; married Germaine LaRue, June 25, 1924; two children. Secy., School of Music, Laval Univ., 1922; Conductor, Quebec Symphony Orchestra, 1924-36; Conductor, Master Choir in Dominican Church, 1928-38. Director, School of Music, Laval Univ., since 1932. Member: Liturgical Commn. of Sacred Music; Société Française de Musicologie; Musical Assn. of London; Internatl. Gesellschaft für Musikwissenschaft, Basle. Awarded 1924 Prize in Composition of Belgo-Canadian Contest. Author of research articles on interval of the fifth, from a scientific, historical and pedagogical standpoint. Wrote a Grammar of Music and numerous compositions and reviews. Address: Laval University, Quebec, P.Q., Canada.

TALLQVIST, Prof. KNUT LEONARD, Finnish Orientalist; born Mar. 16, 1865, Kyrkslätt, Finland; son of Johan Stefan and Johanna Sofia (Rindell) Tallqvist; educated at Univ. of Helsinki, 1883; Univ. of Leipzig and Berlin, Germany, 1888-89; cand. phil. 1887, mag. phil. 1890, lic. phil. 1890, Ph.D. 1894, Docent in Assyriology and Semitic Languages, 1891; Univ. of Lund, D.D. 1918; married Irene Baeckström, 1895; three sons. Prof. of Oriental Literature, 1899-1933; Supt., Historico-philological Inst., Univ. of Helsinki, 1904-35. Dean of Historico-philological Section, Philosophical Faculty, 1920-30. Member: Finnish Oriental Soc. Hon. Member: Royal Asiatic Soc. of Great Britain and Ireland, 1910; Societas Fenno-Ugrica, 1937; Corresponding Member, L'Institut Oriental, Prague, 1935; Societas Söderblomiana Upsaliensis, 1943. Awarded various government decorations and honors. Author: Die Sprache der Contracte Nabunaids, 1890; Die assyrische Beschwörungsserie Maqlu, 1895; Ibn Said, Kitab-almugrib, 1897; Neubabylonisches Namenbuch, 1906; Assyrian Personal Names, 1914; Old Assyrian Laws, 1927; Himmelsgegenden und Winde, 1928; Der assyrische Gott, 1932; Akkabische Götterepitheta, 1938, etc. Address: Sandviksgatan 2, Helsinki, Finland.

TAMM, Dr. OLOF F. S., Swedish Soil Scientist; born Mar. 8, 1891, Tveta, County of Stockholm; son of C. Oscar S. and Anna H. (Bergendal) Tamm; educated at Univ. of Stockholm, 1908-20, fil. cand. 1911, fil. lic. 1914, Ph.D. 1920; Fellow of Rockefeller Foundation, College of Agriculture, Copenhagen, 1928; married Ingegard Bergman, May 12, 1918; one son and two daughters. Lecturer on Geology, Sweden's College of Forestry, 1915-38; Docent of Forest Soil Science, 1920-38; Prof. of Soil Science since 1938. Asst. Prof. at Swedish Inst. of Forestry Research, 1920-38; Acting Prof. of Chemistry at Agricultural College of Alnarp, 1923-24; Lecturer on Soil Science, College of Engineering, Stockholm, since 1932. Secy. of Swedish Soc. of Soil Science (Chairman since 1943). Member: Swedish Acad. of Agriculture; Swedish Geological Soc.; Swedish Geographical Soc.; Directing Com. of Swedish Soc. of Forestry; Internatl. Soc. of Soil Science. Honors: Officier du mérite agricole (France); Vasa Order; Nordstjärna Order. Author: Bodenstudien in der Nordschwedischen Nadelwaldregion, 1920; An Experimental Study on Clay Formation and Weathering of Felspars, 1929; Studien ueber Hodentypen und ihre Beziehungen zu den hydrologischen Verhältnissen in nordschwedischen Waldterrains, 1931; Factors of Site and of Climate Correlated to Yield and Type of Forest in Hamra, North Sweden, 1945; Den nordsvenska skogsmarken, 1940. Address: Experimentalfältet, near Stockholm, Sweden.

TAMM-GÖTLIND, MÄRTA (ELISABET KATARINA), Swedish Author; born Oct. 16, 1888, Tveta Parish, Sweden; daughter of Oscar and Anna (Bergendal) Tamm; educated at Univ. of Upsala. B.A. 1914; married Johan Götlind, Jan. 27, 1917 (dec. 1940); two sons. Teacher, High School for Girls, Stockholm, 1914-17; Training School for Teachers; engaged in writing, lecturing, journalistic work, since 1917. Author: Anna Howard Shaw, 1920; Olle och Gösta, 1931; Äventyr på fäbodvallen, 1932; Bytingar, 1934; Berghagabarnen, 1937; Barnen i Bruksbygden, 1942; children's books with pictures; articles in newspapers and magazines, chiefly on social subjects, folklore, history of culture, educational and pedagogical problems. Member, Swedish Central Board, Women's Internatl. League for Peace and Freedom; Member of Board, Women's Division, Liberal Party, Uppsala (former Pres.), etc. Address: Börjegatan 1a, Uppsala, Sweden.

TANDY, Brigadier ERNEST NAPPER, British Tobacco Manufacturer; born May 13, 1879, Weston-Super-Mare, Somerset, England; son of Colonel E. O. and Gertrude (O'Connor) Tandy; educated at Wellington College, 1893-96; Royal Military Acad., Woolwich, 1896-98; married Brenda M. Laing, Dec. 13, 1904; two children. 2nd Lieut., Royal Artillery, 1898; served in South African War, 1900-01; promoted Lieut., and mentioned in despatches; Captain, 1904; attended Staff College, 1912-13; on active duty, 1914-18; mentioned in despatches nine times. Promoted to Major, Brevet Lt. Col., Brevet Col., and Brigadier General. Made Companion of St. Michael & St. George. Received Distinguished Service Order; French Croix de Guerre; Belgian Croix de Guerre; Officer, Legion of Honor; Officer, Order of Leopold. Retired with rank of Hon. Brigadier General, 1921. Director, Abdulla & Co. Ltd. (Tobacco Manufacturers), London, 1921; Chairman, since 1933. Chairman: Tobacco Trade Assn.; Tobacco Trade Section, London Chamber of Commerce. Residence: 43 Edwardes Sq., London, W. 8. Office: 173 New Bond St., London, W. 1, and 112 Commercial St., London, E. 1, England.

VINALL, JOSEPH WILLIAM TOPHAM, British Artist, Writer; born June 11, 1873, Liverpool, Lancashire; son of Nehemiah and Elizabeth (Topham) Vinall; educated at High School for Boys, Burgess Hill, Sussex; Royal College of Art, S. Kensington, 1890-97; married Kate Adelina Chocqueel, July 27, 1901; two daughters. Painter, pastellist, etcher, specializing in figure, architectural and marine subjects; works extensively represented in Great Britain, France (New York Times), etc.; exhibited at Royal Scottish Acad.; Royal Hibernian Acad., and all leading London and Paris Galleries; held many one-man shows in London and on tour; works in 41 permanent collections of Great Britain, and 32 others, of "Westminster Abbey," in the collection of the Federal Parliament House, Canberra, Australia, 1940, etc. Supervisor of the Teaching of Drawing in North London Schools, and Principal of the St. Pancras School of Art, 1908. London County Council Art Expert until 1938 (now retired). London Univ. Extension Lecturer on Art and Manual Training, 1913. Art Examier to Board of Education and other bodies at various times. British Representative on Organising Committees of International Congresses on Art Teaching of Berne, London, Dresden, Brussels, Paris, Prague (1904-27). Associate, Royal College of Art; Fellow, Royal Soc. of Arts; Member, Soc. of Marine Artists, etc. Silver Medalist; Queen's Prizeman. Author of textbooks on Art and Its Teaching, used throughout Great Britain and the Commonwealth; also five period plays on Great English Artists. Address: 8 Devonshire Gardens, Chiswick, London, W. 4, England.

9/15/2008
145058 1 6 00
HF GROUP-IN